FIFTY-SEVENTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Monday, April 1, 2024, 10:00 a.m.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Good Morning Father; I thank You for the celebrations of this past Holy Week. All humanity has once again been reminded that love and grace always prevails, even in the midst of man's attempt to at times subvert it. Indeed, as the Apostle Paul says "love never fails."

There is much facing this body within the next few days. I pray Your grace and wisdom would abound.

Your word declares "A person will be satisfied with good by the fruit of their words, and the deeds of a person's hands will return to them. The way of a fool is right in their own eyes, but a wise person is the one who listens to counsel."

I pray the words spoken in this chamber today will be of such that all who participate will be pleased when reminded of the words chosen for debate. O'Lord allow those words and subsequent actions, to produce a harvest of good fruit for the people of Kansas. I pray the minutia of the moment will be eclipsed by the good and wise counsel of the informed.

As the days get longer and patience shorter, I pray for Your Spirit to hover over each individual. Might any harsh words contemplated be traded for one's of grace and dignity.

Your Word reminds us, "A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger. The tongue of the wise makes knowledge acceptable." Help us to use gentle words of wisdom rather than harsh words of folly.

I pray for those who are experiencing physical difficulties. We often believe we know the right answers toward healing, but we also know You know things we do not. Reveal a path towards health as only You can!
I pray these things in Jesus Name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Eplee.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Schreiber are spread upon the Journal:

For 54 years, Special Olympics Kansas has offered year-round sports training and athletic competition in 20 Olympic-type sports for children and adults with intellectual disabilities. Typical traditional sports include skiing, basketball, cheerleading, volleyball, golf, tennis and track and field to name just a few. Kansas boasts 105 local teams; with 5,400 athletes representing most, if not all, of Kansas' 105 counties. It is the belief that Special Olympics give them continuing opportunities to develop physical fitness, demonstrate courage, experience joy and participate in a sharing of gifts, skills, and friendship with citizens of Kansas.

Recently, Special Olympics Kansas has started a partnership with the Kansas State High School Activities Association to introduce the Unified Champion Schools strategy to local high schools through Unified Bowling. Hundreds of school age children with and without an intellectual disability are partnered together, practicing and competing as Unified Pairs. In 2023, the State Championship school was Liberal High School. As those who participate graduate, they find Unified Sports waiting for them in most Kansas Universities and Colleges and through local Special Olympics Programs.

We are honored to have Kansas' Unified Volleyball Team from the Manhattan Sport Club here with us today. In the summer of 2023, they traveled to the Special Olympics World Games in Munich, Germany. They brought back to Kansas the bronze medal in the final game against Kazakhstan!

Today we are joined by: Michael Carpenter, Dirk Andrade, Tamara Hagemann, Brad Haverstein, Luke Schulte and their coaches Jamie and Kim Schnee.

To hear more about Special Olympics Kansas and the tremendous growth throughout Kansas going on, please come to the Legislative Shrimp Peel at the Ag Hall at the Kansas Expocentre grounds tonight. Doors open at 6:00PM with all you can eat country low boil, drinks, auction, and short program about the Unified movement. Your support in this event and Special Olympics overall truly is changing the communities you represent.

Join me in congratulating members of this team and welcoming them to the Kansas House.
