§ 7. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 8. Organization and sessions.—The legislature shall meet in regular session annually commencing on the second Monday in January, and all sessions shall be held at the state capital. The duration of regular sessions held in even-numbered years shall not exceed ninety calendar days. Such sessions may be extended beyond ninety calendar days by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. Bills and concurrent resolutions under consideration by the legislature upon adjournment of a regular session held in an odd-numbered year may be considered at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year, as if there had been no such adjournment.

The legislature shall be organized concurrently with the terms of representatives except that the senate shall remain organized during the terms of senators. The president of the senate shall preside over the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives shall preside over the house of representatives. A majority of the members than elected (or appointed) and qualified of the house of representatives or the senate shall constitute a quorum of that house. Neither house, without the consent of the

Notwithstanding any provision of the rules of the Senate to the contrary, no notice shall be required for the adoption of a resolution adopting, amending or revoking any one or more rules of the Senate at the commencement of a legislative session, and adoption of any such resolution shall require only the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the Senators then elected (or appointed) and qualified, subject to the following conditions: (1) The resolution is sponsored by the President or any three Senators, and (2) either (a) a copy thereof is mailed to each Senator by deposit in the United States mails not later than 11:00 p.m. on the Thursday preceding the Monday on which the legislative session is to commence or (b) in lieu of mailing copies of the resolution are made available to Senators on the first day of the legislative session and Final Action is taken on the second legislative day.

Rule 70. Robert's Rules of Order. In all cases where these rules or the joint rules of the Senate and House of Representatives do not apply, the rules of parliamentary law in Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern.

Rule 71. Number Designation of Substitute Bills and Substitute Concurrent Resolutions. (a) Whenever a substitute bill is recommended by a committee report, and whenever a substitute bill is approved by amendment from the floor, the substitute bill shall be printed as provided for bills introduced, and the bill number designation shall be substantially as follows:

(1) In the case of bills substituted for Senate bills, "Substitute for Senate Bill No. _____," and the blank shall be filled with the number of the bill for which substitution is made or recommended.

(2) In the case of bills substituted for House bills, "Senate Substitute for House Bill No. _____," and the blank shall be filled with the number of the bill for which substitution is made or recommended.

(b) Whenever a substitute concurrent resolution is recommended by a committee report, and whenever a substitute concurrent resolution is approved by amendment from the floor, the substitute concurrent resolution shall be printed as provided for concurrent

(2) In the case of concurrent resolutions substituted for House concurrent resolutions, "Senate Substitute for House Concurrent Resolution No. _____," and the blank shall be filled with the number of the concurrent resolution for which substitution is made or recommended.

Rule 72. General Rule Not to Read Amendments. Amendments to bills or resolutions shall not require readings as for bills introduced or resolutions introduced, except as otherwise provided in Rule 73 (subject matter of bill or resolution materially changed by senate amendment) or 74 (subject matter of senate bill or resolution materially changed by house amendment).

Rule 73. Subject Change by Senate. Whenever an amendment adopted by the Senate has materially changed the subject of a bill or resolution, the title of the bill or resolution so amended shall be read in the manner prescribed for the introduction of bills or resolutions, and take its place upon the Calendar under the order of business Final Action.

Rule 74. Subject Change by House. Whenever the House adopts amendments to a Senate bill or senate concurrent resolution which materially changes its subject, upon return of such bill or resolution to the Senate, the title of such bill or resolution shall be read in the manner prescribed for the introduction of bills or resolutions and such bill or resolution shall be referred as provided in Rule 32 (reference of bills and resolutions).

Rule 75. Determination of When Subject of Bill or Resolution Materially Changed. The President may determine when a bill or resolution is subject to Rule 73 (subject matter of bill or resolution materially changed by senate amendment) or 74 (subject matter of senate bill or senate concurrent resolution materially changed by house amendment).

Rule 76. Executive Reorganization Orders. When an executive reorganization order is received from the Governor, it shall be referred to an appropriate committee by the President. The committee to which an executive reorganization order is referred shall report its recommendations thereon, by recommending adoption of a Senate resolution, not later than the 60th calendar day of any regular session and not later than 30 calendar days after it has received such referral whichever occurs first. If a committee fails to report upon an executive reorganization order within the time specified in this rule, such committee shall be deemed to have returned the same to the Senate without recommendation. When a report or return of an executive reorganization is made, it and all resolutions for approval or disapproval thereof shall be made the special order of business in accordance with Rule 6 (special order of business) at a time not later than the last day the executive reorganization order may be disapproved under section 6 of article 1 of the Constitution of Kansas. Rule 77. Censure or Expulsion. Whenever three or more Senators desire to lodge a complaint against any other Senator requesting that the Senator be censured or expelled for misconduct, the complaining Senators shall sign and file a written statement of such complaint with the Secretary of the Senate. In such event, the President shall appoint a select committee for consideration thereof composed of five Senators, no more than three of whom shall be members of the same political party, and none of whom shall have signed the complaint to be considered. The select committee may dismiss the complaint after inquiry or may set the matter for hearing. Reasonable notice and an opportunity to appear shall be afforded the Senator against whom a complaint has been filed. Select committees meeting under authority of this section shall be authorized to meet and exercise compulsory process without further authorization, subject only to the limitations and conditions prescribed in article 10 of chapter 46 of Kansas Statutes Annotated. Upon completing its hearing and deliberations thereon the select committee may dismiss the complaint or may submit a recommendation to the full Senate for censure or expulsion, and upon receiving such report the Senate may without further hearing or investigation censure or expel the member against whom the complaint was filed. Censure or expulsion of a Senator under this rule shall require a 2/3 majority vote of those members elected (or appointed) and qualified.

Rule 78. Taking from the Table. JOINT RULES OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
2011-2012

Joint rule 1. Joint rules; application and date of expiration; adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation. (a) Joint rules; expiration, adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation; vote required. Joint rules are adopted under the authority of section 8 of article 2 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas and shall govern matters made subject thereto except when otherwise specifically provided by joint rule. Joint rules shall expire at the conclusion of the terms of representatives. Joint rules shall be adopted, amended, suspended and revoked by concurrent resolution of the two houses of the legislature. Concurrent resolutions adopting joint rules shall receive the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house.

(b) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules; previous notice; vote required. After one day's previous notice, joint rules may be amended, suspended or revoked by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house. Upon the filing of such notice in either house, a message shall be sent to the other house advising of the filing of such notice and the reading of the message shall constitute notice to the members of such house. If such previous notice is not given, the affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house shall be required for the amendment, suspension or revocation of a joint rule.

(c) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules at commencement of legislative session; vote required; conditions. Notwithstanding any provision of this rule to the contrary, no notice shall be required for the adoption of a concurrent resolution amending, suspending or revoking any one or more joint rules at the commencement of a legislative session, and adoption of any such concurrent resolution shall require only the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, subject to the following conditions: (1) The concurrent resolution is sponsored by the speaker or the president, and (2) either (a) a copy thereof is mailed to each member of the legislature by deposit in the United States mails not later than 11:00 p.m. on the Thursday preceding the Monday on which the legislative session is to commence or (b) in lieu of mailing, copies of the concurrent resolution are made available to members on the first day of the legislative session and final action is taken on a subsequent legislative day.

Joint rule 2. Joint sessions. (a) Joint session called by concurrent resolution; vote required; time, place and subject matter. A joint session of the senate and house of representatives may be called by concurrent resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house of the legislature or as may otherwise be prescribed by law. Any such resolution shall fix the time and place of the joint session, and the subject matter to be considered at the joint session. Joint sessions shall consider only such matters as are prescribed by law or by the concurrent resolution calling such joint session.

(b) Presiding officer at joint sessions; record of joint session; rules applicable. The speaker of the house of representatives shall preside at all joint sessions of the senate and house of representatives, and the clerk of the house of representatives shall keep a record of the proceedings thereof and shall enter the record of each such session in the journal of the house of representatives. The rules of the house of representatives and the joint rules of the two houses, insofar as the same may be applicable shall be the rules for joint sessions of the two houses.

(c) Votes in joint session; taking; requirements. All votes in a joint session shall be taken by yeas and nays, and in taking the same it shall be the duty of the secretary of the senate first to call the names of the members of the senate, and after which the clerk of the house of representatives shall in like manner call the names of the members of the house. Each member of the senate and the house of representatives present shall be required to vote on all matters considered in joint session, unless excused by a vote of a majority of the members of both houses present.

Joint rule 3. Conference committee procedure. (a) Action by house of origin of bill or concurrent resolution amended by other house. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned to the house of origin with amendments by the other house, the house of origin may: (1) Concur in such amendments; (2) refuse to concur in such amendments; or (3) refuse to concur in such amendments and request a conference on the bill or concurrent resolution.

(b) Concurrence by house of origin; concurrence prior to taking action on conference committee report by other house; final action; effect of failure of motion to concur. The house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution may concur in any amendments made by the other house, except that if the bill or concurrent resolution has been referred to a conference committee such action may only be taken prior to the taking of final action upon the conference committee report upon such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house shall be considered action on the final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has been appointed and action has not been taken upon the report of such committee by the other house and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby, but if the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has not been appointed and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(c) Motion to nonconcur; when considered final action; effect of adoption of motion. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to nonconcur or to refuse to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house which is not coupled with a request for the appointment of a conference committee shall be considered action on final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal, and the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed killed on the adoption thereof.

(d) House of origin refusal to concur or nonconcur; request for conference; procedure. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned by either house to the house of origin with amendments, and the house of origin refuses to concur or to nonconcur therein, a conference may be requested by a majority vote of the members present and voting. Such request shall be transmitted to the other house by message which shall include the names of the conferees on the part of the requesting house. Upon receipt of any such message, the receiving house may, in like manner, approve such conference, and shall thereupon notify the requesting house by message stating the names of its conferees.

(e) Membership; appointment; chairperson; house of origin of substitute or materially changed bill or concurrent resolution; meetings of conference committee. Each conference committee shall consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house of representatives, unless otherwise fixed by agreement of the president of the senate and speaker of the house. Senate members shall be appointed by the president of the senate and house members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not less than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house. In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the conference committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

(f) Conference committee reports; subject matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business. Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation. A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment. The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports. All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report. The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee; effect of failure of motion to adopt report requesting new conference committee. If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even-numbered year. Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.

Joint rule 4. Deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills. The senate and house of representatives shall observe the following schedule of deadlines in making requests for drafting and in the introduction and consideration of bills.

(a) Bill request deadline for individual members. Except for bills introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no request to draft bills, except those made by committees, through their respective chairpersons, shall be made to, or accepted by, the office of the revisor of statutes after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on January 31, 2011, during the 2011 regular session and on January 30, 2012, during the 2012 regular session.

(b) Bill introduction deadline for individual members. Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by a member or members shall be introduced in either house of the legislature after the hour of adjournment on February 9, 2011, during the 2011 regular session and on February 8, 2012, during the 2012 regular session. Such deadline for the introduction of bills by individual members may be changed to an earlier date in either house at any time by resolution duly adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in such house.

(c) Bill request deadline for certain committees. Except for bills to be introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no committee except the committee on ways and means of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall make a request to the office of the revisor of statutes for any bill to be drafted for sponsorship by such committee after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on February 7, 2011, during the 2011 regular session and on February 6, 2012, during the 2012 regular session.

(d) Bill introduction deadline for certain committees. Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by any committee of either house of the legislature, except the committee on ways and means of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be introduced in either house after the hour of adjournment on February 11, 2011, during the 2011 regular session and on February 10, 2012, during the 2012 regular session.

(e) House of origin bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered in the house in which such bill originated after the hour of adjournment on February 25, 2011, during the 2011 regular session and on February 24, 2012, during the 2012 regular session.

(f) Second house bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered by either house, not the house of origin of such bill, after the hour of adjournment on March 23, 2011, during the 2011 regular session and March 21, 2012, during the 2012 regular session.

(g) Exceptions to limitation of (d), (e) and (f); procedure. Specific exceptions to the limitations prescribed in subsections (d), (e) and (f) may be made in either house by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members of such house then elected (or appointed) and qualified.

(h) Deadline which falls on day neither house in session; effect. In the event that any deadline prescribed in this rule falls on a day that neither house of the legislature is in session, such deadline shall be observed on the next following day that either house is in session.

(i) Bills introduced in odd-numbered years after deadlines; effect. Bills may be introduced by members and committees in regular sessions occurring in an odd-numbered year after the times prescribed in (b) and (d) of this rule, but there shall be no final action thereon by either house during the session when introduced. Such bills shall be held over for consideration at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year.

(j) Modification of schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills; procedure. In any regular session a concurrent resolution may be adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified of each house setting forth a different schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills for that session and the provisions of such concurrent resolution shall apply to such session notwithstanding provisions of this rule to the contrary.

(k) Bill consideration deadline; exceptions. No bills shall be considered by the Legislature after April 2, 2011, during the 2011 regular session and after March 31, 2012, during the 2012 regular session except bills vetoed by the Governor, the omnibus appropriation act and the omnibus reconciliation spending limit bill provided for under K.S.A. 75-6702 and amendments thereto. This subsection (k) may be suspended for the consideration of a specific bill or bills not otherwise exempt under this subsection by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in the house in which the bill is to be considered.

Joint rule 5. Closure of meetings to consider matters relating to security. Any standing committee of the House of Representatives, any standing committee of the Senate, the Legislative Coordinating Council, any joint committee of both houses of the legislature, any special or select committee of the House of Representatives or the Senate, the House of Representatives in session, the Senate in session or a joint session of the House of Representatives and the Senate may meet in closed, executive session for the purpose of receiving information and considering matters relating to the security of state officers or employees, or both, or the security of buildings and property under the ownership or control of the State of Kansas.

Journal of the Senate

FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, January 10, 2011 — 2:00 p.m.

In accordance with the provisions of the constitution of the State of Kansas and by virtue of his office as President of the Senate, Senator Stephen Morris declared the 2011 Senate to be in session.

President Morris introduced as guest chaplain, Senator Dick Kelsey who delivered the invocation:

Heavenly Father,

We come before you with thanksgiving for the opportunity each of us has been given to serve the people of Kansas.

You have promised in James that if any man lacks wisdom, let him ask of God who will give us wisdom liberally. Lord, we need your wisdom as we take on the challenges facing our state.

Enable each of us to serve with humility and grace. Teach us to disagree agreeably and not to make issues of policy personal issues.

As stress often leads to health problems, help each of us maintain good health.

Bless the new administration and our colleagues in the House as we together seek the best solutions to the problems that confront our State.

We give you the glory of the things you enable us to accomplish.

In Christ Name,
Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

President Morris introduced Stephen Jones, a third year law student at Washburn University, who will again be the Senate reader.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hensley rose on a Point of Personal Privilege with the following remarks concerning the tragedy in Arizona.

Mr. President:

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to make a few comments about the tragic events of this past weekend in Tucson, Arizona.

As we all know, on Saturday, Arizona Congresswoman Gabrielle Giffords was holding a “Congress on Your Corner” meeting with her constituents when she was shot in the head from behind. With miraculous medical treatment, it appears she will likely survive.

When he heard about this tragedy, the new Speaker of the House John Boehner of Ohio made this statement, “An attack on one who serves is an attack on all who serve. Acts and threats of violence against public officials have no place in our society. Our prayers are with Congresswoman Giffords, her staff, all who were injured, and their families. This is a sad day for our country.”

Today, I want to give a Kansas Senate tribute to the six people who were killed:

Gabe Zimmerman, 30 years old, a staff member of Congresswoman Giffords since her election in 2006, who dealt with constituent issues. He was engaged to be married.

Christina Taylor Green, 9, the granddaughter of former New York Yankees and Mets manager Dallas Green. She was born on Sept. 11, 2001, and was recently elected to her school student council. She was brought to the meeting by a neighbor to meet her Congresswoman.

John Roll, 63, Arizona’s chief federal trial judge was appointed to the bench by the first President Bush in 1991. Roll had gone to the event to discuss with a Giffords staffer how to clear a backlog of cases.

And, today, the United States Supreme Court, and its Chief Justice John Roberts paid their own tribute to Judge Roll.

Phyllis Schneck, 79, a snowbird from Rutherford, New Jersey, who spent eight months each year in Arizona since 2000. She was a retired librarian and homemaker who loved to knit and often made Jets and Giants aprons to sell at church fundraisers.

Dorwin Stoddard, 76, a deeply devoted Christian, he was a long-time minister at the Mountain Avenue Church of Christ. He was killed shielding his wife from gunfire. She was hit in the legs and is expected to survive.

Dorothy Morris, also 76, a retiree from Reno, Nevada, who attended the event with her husband George, a retired United Airlines pilot. He was also shot and remains in critical condition. The parents of two daughters were high school sweethearts and had been married for more than 50 years.

I know I speak for the entire Kansas Senate that our prayers are with their families, and the families of those who were injured and remain hospitalized.

It has been said the Gabby Giffords was doing what she loved most – hearing from her constituents – when this tragedy occurred. It has also been said that serving Southern Arizonans is her passion, and nothing makes her more proud than representing them in Congress.

Finally, Mr. President, we do not know what may have motivated the shooter to carry out this unthinkable act of violence. No doubt that will be sorted out by the news media in the coming days and weeks.

But, I do believe that the political discourse in this country has been extremely contentious and, at times, has gotten angrier and angrier and moved away from being the civil discourse it needs to be.

It is never productive or wise to use political rhetoric that will incite people into hateful or dangerous actions.

We may have opponents in politics. But, we should never look at another American, or another Kansan, as our enemy.

I know that there is a longstanding tradition in the Kansas Senate to commit ourselves to doing our job, and debating the great issues of the day with honor and civility. I am very confident that tradition will continue.

All thirty-six senators present for the session supported these remarks.

SECOND DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, January 11, 2011 — 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-seven Senators present.
Senators Bruce, Haley and King were excused.
Invocation by Reverend Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Once again we are faced
With a financial dilemma,
The budget must be balanced,
But the prospects are more dimmer.

Some say we must cut spending,
Others say, "Don't even try!"
Still others want to increase taxes,
Others say, "They're way too high!"

As Chaplain I'd like to paraphrase
What Benjamin Franklin once said....

"If a sparrow cannot fall
Without You seeing it fall;
Can an empire begin to rise
Without Your help at all?"

So I wonder, Lord:

If a sparrow cannot fall
Without You seeing it fall;
Can a Senate struggle and sweat
Without Your help at all?

I think not.

And I ask for Your help in the Name of Jesus Christ,
AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.

The roll was called with forty Senators present.

President Morris introduced as guest chaplain, Pastor Larry Latham, West Ridge Baptist Church, Topeka, who delivered the invocation.

Our Heavenly Father, Who misses no affair, we come before You in a spirit of humility. We know that we have little control over the circumstances in this world. That's why we must pray for our country, for our state and for our city.

We pray for our great country, the United State of America, that You will lead its people to instruct its government in ways that will bring Your blessing upon it.

We pray for our great state of Kansas, that You will lead its people to instruct their elected officials in ways that will bring Your blessing upon it.

We pray for our great city of Topeka, that You will lead its people to instruct their elected officials in ways that will bring Your blessing upon it.

Our country, our state and our city, needs Your help to mend fractured families, broken infrastructures, financial indebtedness, and unemployment.

Our country, our state and our city, needs Your help to mend bodies, hearts and minds from crimes of the utmost evil nature.

Our country, our state and our city needs Your help to mend the spirit of man by the Spirit of God, for the will of God.

May our meager words, to an all-sufficient God, re-verb back to the heart of man revealing truth in its purest form.

May those who have an ear hear the truth, and without fear, stand in its testimony, boldly proclaiming all that they hear.

It is in this manner by which our great nation, our great state and our great city will be blessed.

Our Heavenly Father, Who misses no affair, we come before You in a spirit of humility. We ask for your intervention, that You might impart to us a small portion of Your will; And might we use it to build a great nation, a great state and a great city.

In our Great Savior's Name, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Journal of the Senate

FOURTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, January 13, 2011 — 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President John Vratil.

The roll was called with thirty-five Senators present.

Senators King, Masterson, Morris, Schmidt and Taddiken were excused.

Vice President Vratil introduced as guest chaplain, Rev. Cecil T. Washington, Jr., Senior Pastor at the New Beginning Baptist Church, Topeka, who delivered the invocation.

In Matthew 6, verses 5 through 13; Jesus taught what Prayer should be;

Verse 5, Vertical in its Direction – God the Father is the audience

5) When you pray, don't be like those show-offs who love to stand up and pray in the meeting places and on the street corners. They do this just to look good. I can assure you that they already have their reward.

Verse 6, Personal in its Connection – Close out any distractions

6) When you pray, go into a room alone and close the door. Pray to your Father in private. He knows what is done in private, and He will reward you.

Verses 7-8, Confident in its Declaration – Know that He hears

7) When you pray, don't talk on and on as people do who don't know God. They think God likes to hear long prayers.

8) Don't be like them. Your Father knows what you need before you ask.

Then in verses 9-13, Jesus gave us this model...

9) Our Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be Thy name.

10) Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in Heaven.

11) Give us this day our daily bread.

12) And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13) And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Haley rose on a Point of Personal Privilege to give the following remarks:

MR. VICE PRESIDENT; GENTLE COLLEAGUES:

Realizing that a shrinking number of you have needed the patience to have had to bear my annual plea to this Chamber and the other for the last now, seventeen (17) years, I rise with a greater sense of urgency towards a certain renewal to ask each of your considered insights and efforts to bring greater meaning and action to the commemoration of the Dr. King Holiday.

In a week where America has taken, sadly, once again taken the international stage as a purveyor of random, almost incomprehensible, violence and bloodshed.... we here in Kansas, and I, imagine all over the United States, pray for understanding and for peace in Arizona, don't we?

In a word, Mr. Vice President, in our electronic communication world, it stuns me, as a parent of four young children that email alerts from their schools now emphasize them to "Text-A-Tip" if they see or suspect erratic or aggressive behavior in a fellow student. But this is, too sadly, our world. We send them off to school to learn; to absorb knowledge so that one day they might compete in not just a U.S. but in a global employment market and take care of our country, their communities, their families and, in my case, contribute to and maybe even their Dad!

We need to do better... and I believe that with your leadership, we can do better. The principles of non-aggressive, well, certainly non-violent, dispute resolution is practiced in these chambers every year! You can make the King Holiday, this uniquely American holiday woven from the threads of our once diverse cultures and heritages into a beautiful, complex American tapestry,... we can make our Holiday mean something special to our "Text-A-Tip" children. We can, by our urgings and not tongue-in-cheek, wish a productive Dr. King Holiday to our families and especially to our constituencies who look to us for leadership; community leadership. As I've often said, the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. for whose birthday we commemorate is not the sole province of my religion or of yours; working out our problems through understanding and negotiation doesn't belong to only my political party or to your political party; loving our neighbor is not just my racial philosophy but on all races' philosophy... the legacy of the Dr. King Holiday belongs to us all.

The first day of session, Senator Hensley (on behalf of all of us) had this to say: "in speaking to the tragic events in Arizona and violence having no place in our society we may have opponents in politics. But we should never look at another American or another Kansan as our enemy." We in Kansas, in our leadership and by example, can espouse civility and decency. And just last night, during his first State-of-the-State address, Governor Brownback laid out his vision and his blueprint for Kansas repeating that the plan would only be possible with "Courage, Humanity and Hope." These three traits apply I submit not only to our economic conditions but to righting the trending decay in living together as Kansans. For those of us who profess to serve God; a creator of all things and of all people, for those of us who love the Lord who, I believe, loves all creatures in return regardless of gender, or culture or even speech. Our God "hates" no one.

I still believe, honestly I do, I DO, Mr. Vice President that America is the greatest nation on the face of planet Earth. Let there be peace on all of the Earth and let it begin with America... let it begin in Kansas.

Please... Have a reverent and productive King Holiday weekend.

By Senator Kelsey

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION rescinding the action of the legislature of the state of Kansas petitioning congress to call a convention for the purpose of proposing amendments to the constitution of the United States.

SIXTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, January 18, 2011 — 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with forty Senators present.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

I want to thank You for receiving Martin Luther King as one of Your Beloved children upon his repentance and faith in Jesus Christ. I thank You for inspiring this Baptist preacher to lead his flock to engage in non-violent protest to the demeaning racial segregation which produced inhuman treatment to black adults and children.

I thank You that in this letter he demonstrated a tolerant but explicit detail of why he could not submit to the white clergy who called on him to give segregation some time to work. His response was classic; “I have found that “wait” means “never”!”

I thank You, Lord, that toward the end of his letter he wrote, “I have no despair about the future. We will reach the goal of freedom in Birmingham and all over the nation, because the goal of America is freedom.”

Although segregation is no longer legal, You know better than any of us that there are still white people who do not care to befriend black people.

Help us, Lord, to never judge any people by the color of their skin.

I pray in the name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was lead by President Stephen Morris.

Journal of the Senate

SEVENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, January 19, 2011 — 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with forty Senators present.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Senators are in session
Three months of the year.
But they serve all twelve months.
(We need to make that clear.)

Most of them have other jobs.
Some are way out west;
And all the ones I know
Do their very best.

Most of them have families
Who also need attention,
And problems rear their head
Too numerous to mention.

Add to that the criticisms
All of them endure.
Some critics have no limit
To raise the temperature.

I know the critics have a right
To make their feelings known,
But I think we'd all be better off
If we prayed more than we groaned.

Bless all the Senators, Lord,
Give them a portion of Your grace.
Strengthen and encourage them
To make our state a better place.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1807—

A RESOLUTION urging the Government of Turkey to uphold and safeguard religious and human rights without compromise; case its discrimination of the Ecumenical Patriarchate; grant the Ecumenical Patriarch appropriate international recognition; ecclesiastic succession and the right to train clergy of all nationalities; and respect the property rights and human rights of the Ecumenical Patriarchate.

WHEREAS, The Orthodox Christian Church, in existence for nearly 2,000 years, numbers approximately 300 million members worldwide with more than 2 million members in the United States; and

WHEREAS, Since 1453, the continuing presence of the Ecumenical Patriarchate in Turkey has been a living testament to the religious coexistence of Christians and Muslims; and

WHEREAS, This religious coexistence is in jeopardy because the Ecumenical Patriarchate is considered a minority religion by the Turkish government; and

WHEREAS, The Government of Turkey has limited the candidates available to hold the office of Ecumenical Patriarch to only Turkish nationals and from the millions of Orthodox Christians living in Turkey at the turn of the 20th century and due to the continued policies during this period by the Turkish government, there remain less than 3,000 of the Ecumenical Patriarch's flock left in Turkey today; and

WHEREAS, The Government of Turkey closed the Theological School on the island of Halki in 1971 and has refused to allow it to reopen, thus impeding training for Orthodox Christian clergy; and

WHEREAS, The Turkish government has confiscated nearly 94% of the Ecumenical Patriarchate's properties and has placed a 42% tax, retroactive to 1999, on the Baloukli Hospital and Home for the Aged, a charity hospital run by the Ecumenical Patriarchate; and

WHEREAS, The European Union, a group of nations with a common goal of promoting peace and the well-being of its peoples, began accession negotiations with Turkey on October 3, 2005; and

WHEREAS, The European Union defined membership criteria for accession at the Copenhagen European Council in 1993, obligating candidate countries to achieve certain levels of reform, including stability of institutions guaranteeing democracy, adherence to the rule of law and respect for and protection of minorities and human rights; and

WHEREAS, The Turkish government's current treatment of the Ecumenical Patriarchate is inconsistent with the membership conditions and goals of the European Union; and

WHEREAS, Orthodox Christians in Kansas and throughout the United States stand to lose their spiritual leader because of the continued actions of the Turkish government; and

WHEREAS, The Archons of the Ecumenical Patriarchate of the Order of St. Andrew the Apostle, a group of laymen who each have been honored with a patriarchal title, or "offikion," by the Ecumenical Patriarch for their outstanding service to the Orthodox Church, will send an American delegation to Turkey to meet with Turkish government officials, as well as the United States Ambassador to the Republic of Turkey, regarding the Turkish government's treatment of the Ecumenical Patriarchate: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we urge the Government of Turkey to uphold and safeguard religious and human rights without compromise; cease its discrimination of the Ecumenical Patriarchate; grant the Ecumenical Patriarch appropriate international recognition, ecclesiastic succession and the right to train clergy of all nationalities; and respect the property rights and human rights of the Ecumenical Patriarchate; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate is directed to provide an enrolled copy of this resolution to the President of the United States, the United States Ambassador to the Republic of Turkey, the Ambassador of the Republic of Turkey to the United States and to the members of the Kansas Congressional Delegation.

At home they have to attend to PRIVATE matters.

As they enter their third week, I pray O God, that You will give them....

Knowledge to deal with GENERAL orders

Wisdom to deal with MAJOR problems

Patience to endure CORPORAL punishment

Time to deal with PRIVATE matters

And above all, always report to You, O God, our COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

January 24, 2011

Message to the Senate of the State of Kansas:

Enclosed herewith is Executive Reorganization Order No. 34 and the Governor's Message for that ERO for your information.

Governor's Message
Executive Reorganization Order No. 34
By Governor Sam Brownback

January 24, 2011

Pursuant to Article 1, Section 6(b) of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I am transmitting this day Executive Reorganization Order No. 34 to both houses of the Kansas Legislature. Simultaneously with this Order, I am transmitting the accompanying Governor's Message.

In these difficult economic times, state government needs to get back to the basics by focusing on the things that it should rightfully be doing and doing them in the most efficient manner possible. Achieving this goal requires that we eliminate redundancies. In this spirit of streamlining government, I am ordering the consolidation of parole review functions in the executive branch by abolishing the Parole Board as established by K.S.A. 22-3701 et seq. and establishing within the Department of Corrections the Prisoner Review Board.

The Kansas Sentencing Guidelines Act became effective on July 1, 1993 requiring convicted persons to be sentenced pursuant to a determinate sentencing grid. This did away with traditional indeterminate sentencing and its provisions for parole. Since then, the numbers of inmates for whom the possibility of parole exists have dwindled both in real numbers and in the percentage of the total inmate population, thus reducing the need for a full-time, independent state agency to review parole applications.

Additionally, the Department of Corrections already collects data on each inmate up for parole. This data is then transmitted to the Parole Board and forms the basis for the review of each application. By consolidating these functions within the Department's new Prisoner Review Board staffed by existing Department employees, the process will be streamlined and cost savings will be realized immediately. My Fiscal Year 2012 Budget Report anticipates that the State of Kansas will save nearly one-half million taxpayer dollars from this consolidation alone.

As I said in my State-of-the-State speech, the days of ever-expanding government are over. This consolidation is a modest first step toward making state government leaner and more efficient. I look forward to working with the Legislature and my fellow Kansans on achieving these important goals in the months and years to come.

Executive Reorganization Order No. 34
By Governor Sam Brownback
Transmitted January 24, 2011

Section 1. There is hereby established, within the Kansas department of corrections, the prisoner review board. The prisoner review board shall be administered under the supervision of the secretary of corrections. The prisoner review board shall consist of three members appointed by the secretary of corrections and all members shall serve at the pleasure of the secretary. The members of the prisoner review board shall be existing employees of the department of corrections.

Sec. 2. (a) The Kansas parole board established by K.S.A. 22-3707 is hereby abolished. The prisoner review board shall be a continuation of the Kansas parole board.

(b) All of the powers, duties and functions of the existing Kansas parole board are hereby transferred to and imposed upon the prisoner review board.

Sec. 3. (a) The prisoner review board shall be the successor in every way to the powers, duties and functions of the Kansas parole board in which the same were vested prior to the effective date of this order. Every act performed in the exercise of such transferred powers, duties and functions by or under the authority of the prisoner review board shall be deemed to have the same force and effect as if performed by the Kansas parole board in which such powers, duties and functions were vested prior to the effective date of this order.

(b) Whenever the Kansas parole board, or words of like effect, are referred to or designated by a statute, contract, memorandum of understanding, plan, grant, waiver or other document, such reference or designation shall be deemed to apply to the prisoner review board.

(c) All rules and regulations, orders and directives of the Kansas parole board that are in effect on the effective date of this order shall continue to be effective and shall be deemed to be rules and regulations, orders and directives of the secretary of corrections until revised, amended, revoked or nullified pursuant to law.

Sec. 4. The balances of all funds or accounts thereof appropriated or reappropriated for the Kansas parole board are hereby transferred within the state treasury to the Kansas department of corrections and shall be used only for the purpose for which the appropriation was originally made.

Sec. 5. (a) When any conflict arises as to the disposition of any property, power, duty, or function or the unexpended balance of any appropriation as a result of any abolition or transfer made by or under the authority of this order, such conflict shall be resolved by the governor, whose decision shall be final.

(b) The department of corrections shall succeed to all property, property rights, and records which were used for or pertain to the performance of powers, duties, and functions of the Kansas parole board transferred to the prisoner review board. Any conflict as to the proper disposition of property, personnel, or records arising under this order shall be determined by the governor, whose decision shall be final.

Sec. 6. (a) No suit, action, or other proceeding, judicial or administrative, lawfully commenced, or which could have been commenced, by or against any state agency mentioned in this order, or by or against any officer of the state in such officer's official duties, shall abate by reason of the governmental reorganization effected under the provisions of this order. The court may allow any such suit, action, or other proceeding to be maintained by or against the successor of any such state agency or any officer affected.

(b) No criminal action commenced or which could have been commenced by the state shall abate by the taking effect of this order.

Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided by this order, all of the provisions of this order shall take effect and have the force of general law on July 1, 2011, unless disapproved by either house of the Kansas legislature as provided by subsection (c) of section 6 of article 1 of the constitution of Kansas, and unless so disapproved, this order is to be published as and with the acts of the legislature and the statutes of this state.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

January 25, 2011

Message to the Senate of State of Kansas:

Enclosed herewith is Executive Reorganization Order No. 35 and the Governor's Message for that ERO for your information.

Governor's Message
Executive Reorganization Order No. 35
By Governor Sam Brownback

January 25, 2011

Pursuant to Article 1, Section 6(b) of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I am transmitting this day Executive Reorganization Order No. 35 to both houses of the Kansas Legislature. Simultaneously with this Order, I am transmitting the accompanying Governor's Message.

Our state has a long tradition of promoting full and equal citizenship for all Kansans with disabilities. First established in 1949 as the Governor's Committee on Employment of the Physically Handicapped, the Kansas Commission on Disability Concerns works to ensure that Kansans with disabilities have equal access to employment opportunities and a living environment of their choice. It partners with state, federal, and local governments as well as businesses, labor, private citizens, and non-profit organizations to enhance the employment opportunities and quality of life of all Kansans who are disabled.

It is important that those who advocate on behalf of disabled Kansans have direct access to the Governor's office so that the community's concerns are addressed and solutions to their challenges acted upon. This is why I am ordering the transfer of the Kansas Commission on Disability Concerns as established by K.S.A. 74-6701 et seq. from the Department of Commerce to the Office of the Governor.

I look forward to working with the Legislature and the disabled community in the months and years to come as we work to ensure that all Kansans have equal access to the quality of life that we all have come to appreciate in this state we call home.

Wednesday, January 26, 2011, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President John Vratil.
The roll was called with thirty-eight senators present.
Senators Marshall and McGinn were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

We have a new Governor,
Sam Brownback is his name
He has his work cut out for him,
He knew it when he came.

Governors have to do their best
To keep the budget in the black;
For the next four years it's up to Governor Sam Brownback.

Not all the Senators will agree
That the Governor is on track.
Probably no one knows that better
Than Governor Sam Brownback.

But I pray that every Senator
Will not show any slack
In doing what they believe is best
To keep our state on track.

Lord, I've prayed so many times
That nothing else compares
With keeping our Governor and Legislators
In our daily prayers.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

THIRTEENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, January 27, 2011, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-seven senators present.
Senators Donovan and Marshall were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

I'd like to confess a tendency to turn to You only in an emergency:

I work through the day
And do my own thing,
Then at night ask You to bless it.
But I know I was wrong
In not asking You first,
But then I'm too proud to confess it.

I file legislation
And push it real hard –
As for God, I couldn't care less.
Then the whole thing collapses,
And I'm down on my knees
Asking You to clean up the big mess.

Please help me to learn
To start with a prayer
And not wait till my plans fall apart.
For up until now
I've specialized in
Hitching the horse to the back of the cart!

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

January 27, 2011

Message to the Senate of the State of Kansas:

Enclosed herewith is Executive Reorganization Order No. 36 and the Governor's Message for that ERO for your information.

Governor's Message
Executive Reorganization Order No. 36
By Governor Sam Brownback

January 27, 2011

Pursuant to Article 1, Section 6(b) of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I am transmitting this day Executive Reorganization Order No. 36 to both houses of the Kansas Legislature. Simultaneously with this Order, I am transmitting the accompanying Governor's Message.

In these difficult economic times, state government must be organized to market our state's assets to national and international visitors more effectively. The purpose of this Executive Reorganization Order is to:

- 1) Rename the Department of Wildlife and Parks as established by K.S.A. 32-801 et seq. as the Department of Wildlife, Parks and Tourism.
- 2) Abolish the Assistant Secretary of Operations position as established by K.S.A. 32-802, and in its place establish an Assistant Secretary of Wildlife, Fisheries, and Boating and an Assistant Secretary of Parks and Tourism.
- 3) Transfer the powers, functions, and duties of the Division of Travel and Tourism Development at the Department of Commerce as established by K.S.A. 74-5032 and K.S.A. 74-5032(a) and amendments thereto, to the Department of Wildlife, Parks and Tourism.

As I said in my State-of-the State speech, as we set the stage for economic growth in Kansas we must take greater advantage of tourism opportunities in areas such as the Flint Hills and increase hunting opportunities that already draws millions of dollars to our state year after year. The new structure will allow state government to focus our resources on this important goal more effectively and encourage innovative partnerships between the private and public sectors that can improve our state park system and encourage more visitors to discover the treasures of Kansas. I look forward to working with the Legislature and my fellow Kansans on achieving these important goals in the months and years to come.

Sam Brownback
Governor

A RESOLUTION recognizing and commending Dr. John "Doc" Ferguson and the Ferguson family for preserving historical masonry tools used by Dr. John "Doc" Ferguson's grandfather, Nels Ferguson, in the construction of the Kansas state capitol in the 1870s.

WHEREAS, Dr. John "Doc" Ferguson's grandfather, Nels Ferguson, was born in Sweden in 1838 and immigrated to the United States in 1869; and

The limestone was then carved and positioned using horse-drawn cranes; and

WHEREAS, In his work on the Kansas capitol building, Nels Ferguson used his masonry tools to place massive stones and apply mortar. The wooden level and plumb bob were used to ensure proper alignment and the

And I know I always will.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

You gave Solomon the wisdom he asked for. One result was the book of Proverbs. I am sharing some of them which I think are appropriate for us. The main emphasis is wisdom.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge, but fools despise wisdom and discipline. Proverbs 1:7

Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him and He will make your paths straight. Proverbs 3:5-6

...for wisdom is more precious than rubies, and nothing you desire can compare with her. Proverbs 8:11

The man of integrity walks securely, but he who takes crooked paths will be found out. Proverbs 10:9

A good man obtains favor from the Lord, but the Lord condemns a crafty man. Proverbs 12:2

When pride comes, then comes disgrace, but with humility comes wisdom. Proverbs 11:2.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

February 3, 2011

Message to the Senate of the State of Kansas:

Enclosed herewith is the corrected Executive Reorganization Order No. 35 and the corrected Governor's Message for that ERO for your information.

Corrected
Governor's Message
Executive Reorganization Order No. 35
By Governor Sam Brownback

Pursuant to Article 1, Section 6(b) of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I am transmitting this day Executive Reorganization Order No. 35 as corrected to both houses of the Kansas Legislature. Simultaneously with this Order, I am transmitting the accompanying Governor's Message.

Executive Reorganization Order No. 35 as corrected is the corrected version of Executive Reorganization Order No. 35 as transmitted on January 25, 2011, which contained drafting errors.

Our state has a long tradition of promoting full and equal citizenship for all Kansans with disabilities. First established in 1949 as the Governor's Committee on Employment of the Physically Handicapped, the Kansas Commission on Disability Concerns works to ensure that Kansans with disabilities have equal access to employment opportunities and a living environment of their choice. It partners with state, federal, and local governments as well as businesses, labor, private citizens, and non-profit organizations to enhance the employment opportunities and quality of life of all Kansans who are disabled.

It is important that those who advocate on behalf of disabled Kansans have direct access to the Governor's office so that the community's concerns are addressed and solutions to their challenges acted upon. This is why I am ordering the transfer of the Kansas Commission on Disability Concerns as established by K.S.A. 74-6701 et seq. from the Department of Commerce to the Office of the Governor.

I look forward to working with the Legislature and the disabled community in the months and years to come as we work to ensure that all Kansans have equal access to the quality of life that we all have come to appreciate in this state we call home.

Sam Brownback
Governor

BY THE GOVERNOR:

KRIS W. KOBACH
SECRETARY OF STATE

ERIC RUCKER
ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE

February 3, 2011

Message to the Senate of the State of Kansas:

Enclosed herewith is the corrected Executive Reorganization Order No. 36 and the corrected Governor's Message for that ERO for your information.

Corrected
Governor's Message
Executive Reorganization Order No. 36 as Corrected
By Governor Sam Brownback

Pursuant to Article 1, Section 6(b) of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I am transmitting this day Executive Reorganization Order No. 36 as corrected to both houses of the Kansas Legislature. Simultaneously with this Order, I am transmitting the accompanying Governor's Message.

Executive Reorganization Order No. 36 as corrected is the corrected version of Executive Reorganization Order No. 36 as transmitted on January 27, 2011, which contained drafting errors.

In these difficult economic times, state government must be organized to market our state's assets to national and international visitors more effectively. The purpose of this Executive Reorganization Order is to:

1) Rename the Department of Wildlife and Parks as established by K.S.A. 32-801 et seq. as the Department of Wildlife, Parks and Tourism.

2) Abolish the Assistant Secretary of Operations position as established by K.S.A. 32-802, and in its place establish an Assistant Secretary of Wildlife, Fisheries, and Boating and an Assistant Secretary of Parks and Tourism.

3) Transfer the powers, functions, and duties of the Division of Travel and Tourism Development at the Department of Commerce as established by K.S.A. 74-5032 and K.S.A. 74-5032(a) and amendments thereto, to the Department of Wildlife, Parks and Tourism.

As I said in my State-of-the State speech, as we set the stage for economic growth in Kansas we must take greater advantage of tourism opportunities in areas such as the Flint Hills and increase hunting opportunities that already draws millions of dollars to our state year after year. The new structure will allow state government to focus our resources on this important goal more effectively and encourage innovative partnerships between the private and public sectors that can improve our state park system and encourage more visitors to discover the treasures of Kansas. I look forward to working with the Legislature and my fellow Kansans on achieving these important goals in the months and years to come.

Sam Brownback
Governor

Corrected

The Senate was called to order by Vice President John Vratil.
The roll was called with thirty-three senators present.
Senators Abrams, Brungardt, Donovan, Kelsey, Ostmeyer and Wagle were excused.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Our Father:

We see so many shenanigans in our society that we are often tempted to suspect everyone's motives.

We find ourselves trying so hard to read between the lines, we forget to read the lines themselves.

We try so hard to figure out what others are thinking, we don't listen to what they are saying.

Help us not to get so caught up in psychoanalysis that we fail to recognize honesty when it comes along.

After all, Lord, it's probably better to be a sucker than a cynic—although we would like Your help for us not to be either one.

In Jesus' Name

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

EIGHTEENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, February 7, 2011, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-eight senators present.
Senator Donovan was excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Last week I looked out my window
All the snow on the ground looked great.
My dream of a white Christmas
Finally happened but a little too late.

You have used the snow to teach us, Lord,
Of how You can change our lives.
When King David broke Your commandments,
You used snow to help him survive.

When King David confessed all his sins,
He recalled a prayer he loved so...
And he appealed to God through this prayer:
“Wash me and I will be white as the snow.” (Psalm 51:7b)

And the prophet Isaiah reminds us
Of something we need to know:
“Though your sins be as scarlet,
They shall be as white as snow.” (Isaiah 1:18)

Thank You, Lord, for reminding us
Of the cleansing that You provide.
Your cleansing as white as the snow
Will forever and ever abide.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

The commission may act only by the concurrence of a majority of its members."~~

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to improve transparency to the selection process of supreme court nominees and to do away with the supreme court nominating commission. Currently, the supreme court nominating commission is composed of nine members; four nonlawyer members appointed by the governor and five lawyer members elected by licensed attorneys who are residents of Kansas. Pursuant to the amendment, the governor will appoint a qualified person, and such person's appointment would be required to be consented to by the house of representatives and the senate.

"A vote for this proposition would provide a procedure whereby the governor would appoint a person to be a supreme court justice and the house of representatives and the senate, by majority vote, would consent to the appointment of supreme court justices.

"A vote against this proposition would continue in effect the current provision whereby the supreme court nominating commission nominates three persons for the office of the supreme court and the governor appoints one of such persons."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the primary election in August in the year 2012 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

Governor's Message
By Governor Sam Brownback

February 7, 2011

Pursuant to Article 1, Section 6(b) of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I am transmitting this day Executive Reorganization Order No. 37 to both houses of the Kansas Legislature. Simultaneously with this Order, I am transmitting the accompanying Governor's Message.

As we look to grow Kansas' economy and focus state government resources to ensure the most efficient use of taxpayer dollars, I am ordering the abolition of Kansas Inc. as established by K.S.A. 74-8001 et seq. Kansas' government has far too many economic development agencies and programs, many of which focus on picking winners and losers instead of creating an environment for growth. As part of the culture change that Kansans expect in state government as we retool for the 21st century economy, I am looking to consolidate these various functions and make them more accountable to voters for their successes or failures.

As I said in my State-of-the-State speech, the days of ever-expanding government are over. This reorganization order is a modest step toward making our economic development structure leaner, more efficient, more accountable, and more successful in growing the state. These means will help us get the more than 100,000 unemployed Kansans back to work and grow our state's net personal income in the years ahead. I look forward to working with the Legislature and my fellow Kansans to achieve these important goals.

Governor's Message
Executive Reorganization Order No. 38
By Governor Sam Brownback
February 7, 2011

Pursuant to Article 1, Section 6(b) of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I am transmitting this day Executive Reorganization Order No. 38 to both houses of the Kansas Legislature. Simultaneously with this Order, I am transmitting the accompanying Governor's Message.

Kansans have spoken loud and clear: they are looking for their government to be more efficient and their leaders to be more accountable. In this spirit, I am ordering that the Kansas Health Policy Authority as established by K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 75-7401 et seq. be reorganized into the Division of Health Care Finance within the Department of Health and Environment.

For this coming fiscal year, Kansas faces a $550 million budget deficit, much of it related to increased caseloads in Medicaid. Left unaddressed, this growth will continue to consume future budgets and leave the state with very little room to address other priorities. While this reorganization saves $3 million in administration costs for the next fiscal year, the larger savings will come from unifying the expertise in the KHPA with the accountability of KDHE as we implement major reforms to our Medicaid delivery model. Under the direction of the Lt. Governor and the Secretary of KDHE, the Division of Health Care Finance will be involved in redesigning Medicaid in the State of Kansas.

As I said in my State-of-the-State speech, the days of ever-expanding government are over. This consolidation is a major step toward making state government more efficient, more accountable, and forward looking. As we look toward a future of balancing priorities within the confines of limited state resources, this reorganization will act as a cornerstone for major and long-lasting reforms. I look forward to working with the Legislature and my fellow Kansans on achieving these important goals.

Journal of the Senate

NINETEENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, February 8, 2011, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-eight senators present.
Senator Donovan was excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

I've prayed about this many times:
The public's view of legislators.
They hear something bad about a few
And assume they all are traitors.

I realize that everyone
May not lump them all together;
But for thirty years I mostly hear
They all are birds of a feather.

Webster says "politicians" means
Someone engaging in government technique.
But he says that derogatively it means
Personal gain is what they seek.

Lord, I believe people have the right to complain, to criticize and to scoff.
But help us pray more than we complain
So we'll all be better off.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

February 8, 2011

To the Senate of the State of Kansas:

Enclosed herewith is Executive Reorganization Order No. 39 and the Governor's Message for that ERO for your information.

Governor's Message
Executive Reorganization Order No. 39
By Governor Sam Brownback
 February 8, 2011

Pursuant to Article 1, Section 6(b) of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I am transmitting this day Executive Reorganization Order No. 39 to both houses of the Kansas Legislature. Simultaneously with this Order, I am transmitting the accompanying Governor's Message.

As we look to grow Kansas' economy and focus state government resources to ensure the most efficient use of taxpayer dollars, I am ordering the abolition of the Kansas Arts Commission as established by K.S.A. 74-5202, and amendments thereto, and the office of Executive Director of the Commission under K.S.A. 74-5204, and amendments thereto. Per this Executive Reorganization Order, the State Historical Society will succeed to all duties, powers, and functions of the agency. The Historical Society, as a state agency, will still be eligible to receive federal matching funds for the purpose of advancing the arts in the State of Kansas.

My FY2012 Budget Report to the Legislature details how I intend to reorganize these functions of state government. Under my plan, a new not-for-profit corporation, the Kansas Arts Foundation, Inc. will receive a direct grant from the State Historical Society to manage the programs formerly overseen by the Arts Commission. Because of their 501(c)3 status, the Foundation will be able to receive tax-deductible donations to cover the cost of implementing these programs. It is anticipated that this move will save Kansas taxpayers nearly $600,000 next fiscal year. They will also help the Historical Society in their role as a state agency for the purpose of receiving federal grants by providing logistical and staff support for the drafting of state plans and grant proposals.

As I said in my State-of-the-State speech, the days of ever-expanding government are over. This consolidation is a modest step toward making our economic development structure leaner, more efficient, more accountable, and more successful in growing the state. I look forward to working with the Legislature and my fellow Kansans to achieve these important goals.

Executive Reorganization Order No. 39
By Governor Sam Brownback
Transmitted February 8, 2011

Section 1. The Kansas arts commission created by K.S.A. 74-5202, and amendments thereto, and the office of executive director of the commission under K.S.A. 74-5204, and amendments thereto, are hereby abolished.

Sec. 2. (a) The state historical society, as a state agency, as provided in K.S.A. 75-2701, and amendments thereto, shall be the successor in every way to the powers, duties, and functions of the Kansas arts commission and the executive director of the commission in which the same were vested prior to the effective date of this order. Every act performed in the exercise of such transferred powers, duties, and functions by or under the authority of the state historical society shall be performed by existing employees of the state historical society and shall be deemed to have the same force and effect as if performed by the Kansas arts commission or the executive director of the commission in which such powers, duties, and functions were vested prior to the effective date of this order.

(b) Whenever the Kansas arts commission or the executive director of the commission, or words of like effect, are referred to or designated by a statute, contract, or other document, such reference or designation shall be deemed to apply to the state historical society, as a state agency, as provided in K.S.A. 75-2701, and amendments thereto.

(c) All rules and regulations, orders, and directives of the Kansas arts commission or the executive director of the commission, which are in effect on the effective date of this order, shall continue to be effective and shall be deemed to be rules and regulations, orders, and directives of the state historical society, as a state agency, as provided in K.S.A. 75-2701, and amendments thereto, until revised, amended, revoked, or nullified pursuant to law.

Sec. 3. (a) The state historical society, as a state agency, as provided in K.S.A. 75-2701, and amendments thereto, shall succeed to all property, property rights, and records which were used for or pertain to the performance of powers, duties, and functions transferred to the state historical society. Any conflict as to the proper disposition of property, or records arising under this order shall be determined by the governor, whose decision shall be final.

(b) Whenever any statute, contract, deed or other document concerns the power or authority of Kansas arts commission, or the executive director of the commission, to acquire, hold or dispose of real property or any interest therein, the state historical society, as a state agency, as provided in K.S.A. 75-2701, and amendments thereto, shall succeed to such power or authority.

Sec. 4. (a) The balances of all funds or accounts thereof appropriated or reappropriated for the Kansas arts commission relating to the powers, duties, and functions transferred by this order are hereby transferred within the state treasury to the state historical society, as a state agency, as provided in K.S.A. 75-2701, and amendments thereto, and shall be used only for the purpose for which the appropriation was originally made.

(b) Liability for all accrued compensation or salaries of officers and employees who are employees of the Kansas arts commission during the period commencing on the first day of the first payroll period chargeable to fiscal year 2012 and ending in on June 30, 2011, shall be assumed and paid by the state historical society, as a state agency, as provided in K.S.A. 75-2701, and amendments thereto.

Sec. 5. When any conflict arises as to the disposition of any property, power, duty, or function or the unexpended balance of any appropriation as a result of any abolition or transfer made by or under the authority of this order, such conflict shall be resolved by the governor, whose decision shall be final.

Sec. 6. (a) No suit, action, or other proceeding, judicial or administrative, lawfully commenced, or which could have been commenced, by or against any state agency or program mentioned in this order, or by or against any officer of the state in such officer's official duties, shall abate by reason of the governmental reorganization effected under the provisions of this order. The court may allow any such suit, action, or other proceeding to be maintained by or against the successor of any such state agency or any officer affected.

(b) No criminal action commenced or which could have been commenced by the state shall abate by the taking effect of this order.

Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided by this order, all of the provisions of this order shall take effect and have the force of general law on July 1, 2011, unless disapproved by either house of the Kansas legislature as provided by subsection (c) of section 6 of article 1 of the constitution of Kansas, and unless so disapproved, this order is to be published as and with the acts of the legislature and the statutes of this state.

Governor's Message
By Governor Sam Brownback

Pursuant to Article 1, Section 6(b) of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I am transmitting this day Executive Reorganization Order No. 40 to both houses of the Kansas Legislature. Simultaneously with this Order, I am transmitting the accompanying Governor's Message.

As we look to grow Kansas' economy and focus state government resources to ensure the most efficient use of taxpayer dollars, I am ordering a consolidation of agriculture-related functions spread throughout state government within the Department of Agriculture. These consolidations are as follows:

1) The Agriculture Products Development Division within the Department of Commerce as established by K.S.A. 74-50,156, and amendments thereto will be transferred to the Department of Agriculture and renamed the Marketing and Promotions Program.

2) The Kansas Animal Health Department and the Livestock Commissioner as established by K.S.A. 75-1901 et seq. will be consolidated within the Department of Agriculture as the Animal Health Division headed by the Animal Health Commissioner. The Animal Health Board will continue in existence and with members appointed by the Governor. The current Livestock Commissioner will be retained as the new Animal Health Commissioner. Thereafter, a vacancy in the position of Animal Health Commissioner will be filled by appointment by the Secretary of Agriculture from three nominations provided by the Animal Health Board.

3) The State Conservation Commission as established by K.S.A. 2-1904 will be consolidated within the Department of Agriculture as the Conservation Division. The Conservation Commission will continue in existence. The current Executive Director will be retained as the Executive Director of the Conservation Division. Thereafter, a vacancy in the position of executive director will be filled by a joint selection from the Secretary of Agriculture and the Conservation Commission.

As I said in my State-of-the-State speech, the days of ever-expanding government are over. This consolidation is a significant step toward making our government structure leaner, more efficient, more accountable, and more successful in growing the state. I look forward to working with the Legislature and my fellow Kansans to achieve these important goals.

The roll was called with thirty-eight senators present.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

As a Kansas Senator
I want to do my best
To represent my district
(And make a few requests)

Help me be a model
For my children and my spouse
That they will be proud of me
At work or in our house.

I want to use my talents, Lord
To accomplish while I'm here
All my responsibilities
Whether foggy or very clear.

Help me live up to
The standards You have set.
Let me never settle for Things that I regret.

Constantly remind me, Lord,
That You are watching me,
And that you're expecting me
To be the best that I can be.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

By Senators Pilcher-Cook, Abrams, Bruce, Love, Lynn, Masterson, Merrick, Olson, Ostmeyer, Petersen, Pyle, Steineger and Taddiken

A PROPOSITION to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas by adding a new article 16 thereto, concerning health care.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: The constitution of the state of Kansas is amended by adding a new article 16 thereto to read as follows:

"Article 16. – HEALTH CARE

“§1. Health care. (a) To preserve the freedom of Kansans to provide for their health care:

“(1) A law or rule shall not compel, directly or indirectly, any person, employer or health care provider to participate in any health care system or purchase health insurance.

“(2) A person or employer may pay directly for lawful health care services and shall not be required to pay penalties or fines for paying directly for lawful health care services. A health care provider may accept direct payment for lawful health care services and shall not be required to pay penalties or fines nor prohibited from gaining state medical licensure, for accepting direct payment from a person or employer for lawful health care services.

“(b) Subject to reasonable and necessary rules that do not substantially limit a person’s options, the purchase or sale of private health insurance or the participation in private health care systems shall not be prohibited by law or rule.

“(c) This section does not:

“(1) Affect which health care services a health care provider or hospital is required to perform or provide.

“(2) Affect which health care services are permitted by law.

“(3) Prohibit care provided pursuant to the provisions relating to workers compensation.

“(4) Prohibit care provided pursuant to the provisions relating to state employee benefit programs.

“(5) Affect laws or rules in effect as of August 1, 2009.

“(6) Affect the terms or conditions of any health care system to the extent that those terms and conditions do not have the effect of punishing or penalizing a person or employer for paying directly for lawful health care services or a health care provider or hospital for accepting direct payment from a person or employer for lawful health care services.

“(d) For the purposes of this section:

“(1) “Compel” includes penalties or fines.

“(2) “Direct payment or pay directly” means payment for lawful health care services without a public or private third party, not including an employer, paying for any portion of the service.

“(3) “Health care system” means any public or private entity whose function or purpose is the management of, processing of, enrollment of individuals for or payment for, in full or in part, health care services or health care data or health care information for its participants.

“(4) “Lawful health care services” means any health-related service or treatment to the extent that the service or treatment is permitted or not prohibited by law or regulation that may be provided by persons or businesses otherwise permitted to offer such services.

“(5) “Penalties or fines” means any civil or criminal penalty or fine, tax, salary or wage withholding or surcharge or any named fee with a similar effect established by law or rule by a government established, created or controlled agency that is used to punish or discourage the exercise of rights protected under this section.”

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

“Explanatory statement. The purpose of this health care freedom amendment is to preserve constitutionally the right and freedom of Kansans to provide for their health care. This proposition would not affect which health care services a health care provider or hospital is required to perform or provide; would not affect which health care services are permitted by law; would not prohibit care provided pursuant to the general provisions relating to workers compensation; would not prohibit care pursuant to the provisions relating to state employee benefit programs; would not affect laws or rules in effect as of August 1, 2009; or would not affect the terms or conditions of any health care system to the extent that those terms and conditions do not have the effect of punishing a person or employer for paying directly for lawful health care services. Nothing in this amendment is meant to discourage anyone from purchasing health insurance.

“A vote for this proposition would preserve constitutionally the right of a person, employer or health care provider to be free from laws or rules compelling participation in any health care system; preserve constitutionally the right of a person or employer to purchase lawful health care services directly from a health care provider; preserve constitutionally the right of a health care provider to accept direct payment from a person or employer for lawful health care services; and preserve constitutionally the right to have the ability to purchase or sell health insurance in private health care systems.

“A vote against this proposition would provide for no constitutional right of a person, employer or health care provider to be free from laws and rules compelling participation in any health care system; would provide for no constitutional right of a person or employer to purchase lawful health care services directly from a health care provider; would provide for no constitutional right of a health care provider to accept direct payment from a person or employer for lawful health care services; and would provide for no constitutional right to have the ability to purchase or sell health insurance in private health care systems.”

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2012 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

Journal of the Senate

TWENTY-FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, February 10, 2011, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

The biggest questions that we face
Have always been the same;
Which way should we vote?
Who gets our acclaim?

The conferees the first day
Use tables, graphs and charts,
And it is very obvious
That they are very smart.

The next day their opponents
Use graphs, charts and tables
Their presentation's very good
It shows they, too, are able.

We could use Your wisdom, Lord,
It's hard to know which way to lean,
Is one of them the answer?
Or somewhere in between?

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Friday, February 11, 2011, 8:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-eight senators present.
Senators Donovan and Longbine were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Tomorrow is the two hundred and second birthday anniversary of Abraham Lincoln. He is still regarded as one of the greatest leaders this nation has known.

It is significant, O God, that George Washington who served as President following the Revolutionary War, and Lincoln who served during the Civil War were men who consistently looked to You for leadership.

I believe, O God, if Washington had not led the American army during the Revolutionary War, and Lincoln had not served as President during the Civil War, the United States of America would never have become the "Land of the Free and Home of the Brave."

Thank You, Lord, for answering their prayers.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

TWENTY-THIRD DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, February 14, 2011, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present.
Senator Donovan was excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

As you know, we celebrate Valentine's day on February 14. The word "love" is probably mentioned millions of times. And that word is applied in many ways.

We say we love our dog and cat,
We say we love our car.
Some say they love their job and home;
Some love a "good cigar".

Many say they love their dad;
Many say they love their mother.
Some say they love their sister.
Some say they love their brother.

Having pastored for 50 years,
I had hoped my sermons would qualify.
But all they remembered when I left
Was that I loved pecan pie!

Having served 30 years as Chaplain,
I hope my prayers they'll celebrate.
But I think I'll also be remembered
As the guy who loved choco-late!

But Valentine's remembered for
The love between sweethearts.
And the love between husband and wife
Who vowed to never part.

But I cannot close my prayer, O God.
 Without the greatest love we've got:
 The love You have for everyone,
 Whether believers or not.

Your Son died for everyone,
 And those who have believed
 Will forever praise You, Lord,
 For the forgiveness we've received.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Sec. 2. From and after July 1, 2011, 2010 K.S.A. Supp. 44-703 is hereby amended to read as follows: 44-703. As used in this act, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) (1) "Annual payroll" means the total amount of wages paid or payable by an employer during the calendar year.

(2) "Average annual payroll" means the average of the annual payrolls of any employer for the last three calendar years immediately preceding the computation date as hereinafter defined if the employer has been continuously subject to contributions during those three calendar years and has paid some wages for employment during each of such years. In determining contribution rates for the calendar year, if an employer has not been continuously subject to contribution for the three calendar years immediately preceding the computation date but has paid wages subject to contributions during only the two calendar years immediately preceding the computation date, such employer's "average annual payroll" shall be the average of the payrolls for those two calendar years.

(3) "Total wages" means the total amount of wages paid or payable by an employer during the calendar year, including that part of remuneration in excess of the limitation prescribed as provided in subsection (o)(1) of this section.

(b) "Base period" means the first four of the last five completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the first day of an individual's benefit year, except that the base period in respect to combined wage claims means the base period as defined in the law of the paying state.

(1) (A) If an individual lacks sufficient base period wages in order to establish a benefit year in the matter set forth above and satisfies the requirements of subsection (g) of K.S.A. 44-705 and subsection (hh) of K.S.A. 44-703, and amendments thereto, the claimant shall have an alternative base period substituted for the current base period so as not to prevent establishment of a valid claim. For the purposes of this subsection, "alternative base period" means the last four completed quarters immediately preceding the date the qualifying injury occurred. In the event the wages in the alternative base period have been used on a prior claim, then they shall be excluded from the new alternative base period.

(B) If an individual lacks sufficient base period wages in order to establish a benefit year in the manner set forth above the claimant shall have an alternative base period substituted for the current base period. For the purposes of this subsection, "alternative base period" means eligibility shall be determined using a base period that consists of the four most recently completed calendar quarters preceding the start of the benefit year.

(2) For the purposes of this chapter, the term "base period" includes the alternative base period.

(c) (1) "Benefits" means the money payments payable to an individual, as provided in this act, with respect to such individual's unemployment.

(d) "Benefit year" with respect to any individual, means the period beginning with the first day of the first week for which such individual files a valid claim for benefits, and such benefit year shall continue for one full year. In the case of a combined wage claim, the benefit year shall be the benefit year of the paying state. Following the termination of a benefit year, a subsequent benefit year shall commence on the first day of the first week with respect to which an individual next files a claim for benefits. When such filing occurs with respect to a week which overlaps the preceding benefit year, the subsequent benefit year shall commence on the first day immediately following the expiration date of the preceding benefit year. Any claim for benefits made in accordance with subsection (a) of K.S.A. 44-709, and amendments thereto, shall be deemed to be a "valid claim" for the purposes of this subsection if the individual has been paid wages for insured work as required under subsection (e) of K.S.A. 44-705, and amendments thereto. Whenever a week of unemployment overlaps two benefit years, such week shall, for the purpose of granting waiting-period credit or benefit payment with respect thereto, be deemed to be a week of unemployment within that benefit year in which the greater part of such week occurs.

(e) "Commissioner" or "secretary" means the secretary of labor.

(f) (1) "Contributions" means the money payments to the state employment security fund which are required to be made by employers on account of employment under K.S.A. 44-710, and amendments thereto, and voluntary payments made by employers pursuant to such statute.

(2) (A) Benefits paid in benefit years established by valid new claims shall not be charged to the account of a contributing employer or rated governmental employer who is a base period employer if the examiner finds that claimant was separated from the claimant's most recent employment with such employer under any of the following conditions: (i) Discharged for misconduct or gross misconduct connected with the individual's work; or (ii) leaving work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the claimant's work or the employer.

(H) No contributing employer or rated governmental employer's account shall be charged with respect to their pro rata share of benefit charges if such charges are of $100 or less.

(3) The examiner shall notify any base period employer whose account will be charged with benefits paid following the filing of a valid new claim and a determination by the examiner based on all information relating to the claim contained in the records of the division of employment security. Such notice shall become final and benefits charged to the base period employer's account in accordance with the claim unless within 10 calendar days from the date the notice was sent, the base period employer requests in writing that the examiner reconsider the determination and furnishes any required information in accordance with the secretary's rules and regulations. For purposes of this subsection (c)(3), if the required information is not submitted or postmarked within a response time limit of 10 days after the base period employer notice was sent, the base period employer shall be deemed to have waived its standing as a party to the proceedings arising from the claim and shall be barred from protesting any subsequent decisions about the claim by the secretary, a referee, the board of review or any court, except that the base period employer's response time limit may be waived or extended by the examiner or upon appeal, if timely response was impossible due to excusable neglect. The examiner shall notify the employer of the reconsidered determination which shall be subject to appeal, or further reconsideration, in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 44-709, and amendments thereto.

(4) Time, computation and extension. In computing the period of time for a base period employer response or appeals under this section from the examiner's or the special examiner's determination or from the referee's decision, the day of the act, event or default from which the designated period

(A) At the end of each calendar quarter, or at the end of any other period as determined by the secretary, the secretary shall bill each reimbursing employer, except the state of Kansas, (i) an amount to be paid which is equal to the full amount of regular benefits plus $\frac{1}{2}$ of the amount of extended benefits paid during such quarter or other prescribed period that is attributable to service in the employ of such reimbursing employer; and (ii) for weeks of unemployment beginning after December 31, 1978, each reimbursing governmental employer and December 21, 2000, for Indian tribes or tribal units shall be certified an amount to be paid which is equal to the full amount of regular benefits and extended benefits paid during such quarter or other prescribed period that is attributable to service in the employ of such reimbursing governmental employer.

(B) Payment of any bill rendered under paragraph (A) of this subsection (e)(2) shall be made not later than 30 days after such bill was mailed to the last known address of the reimbursing employer, or otherwise was delivered to such reimbursing employer, unless there has been an application for review and redetermination in accordance with paragraph (D) of this subsection (e) (2).

(C) Payments made by any reimbursing employer under the provisions of this subsection (e)(2) shall not be deducted or deductible, in whole or in part, from the remuneration of individuals in the employ of such employer.

(D) The amount due specified in any bill from the secretary shall be conclusive on the reimbursing employer, unless, not later than 15 days after the bill was mailed to the last known address of such employer, or was otherwise delivered to such employer, the reimbursing employer files an application for redetermination in accordance with K.S.A. 44-710b, and amendments thereto.

(E) Past due payments of amounts certified by the secretary under this section shall be subject to the same interest, penalties and actions required by K.S.A. 44-717, and amendments thereto. (1) If any nonprofit organization or group of nonprofit organizations described in section 501(c)(3) of the federal internal revenue code of 1986 or governmental reimbursing employer is delinquent in making payments of amounts certified by the secretary under this section, the secretary may terminate such employer's election to make payments in lieu of contributions as of the beginning of the next calendar year and such termination shall be effective for such next calendar year and the calendar year thereafter so that the termination is effective for two complete calendar years. (2) Failure of the Indian tribe or tribal unit to make required payments, including assessment of interest and penalty within 90 days of receipt of the bill will cause the Indian tribe to lose the option to make payments in lieu of contributions as described pursuant to paragraph (e)(1) for the following tax year unless payment in full is received before contribution rates for the next tax year are calculated. (3) Any Indian tribe that loses the option to make payments in lieu of contributions due to late payment or nonpayment, as described in paragraph (2), shall have such option reinstated, if after a period of one year, all contributions have been made on time and no contributions, payments in lieu of contributions for benefits paid, penalties or interest remain outstanding.

(F) Failure of the Indian tribe or any tribal unit thereof to make required payments, including assessments of interest and penalties, after all collection activities deemed necessary by the secretary have been exhausted, will cause services performed by such tribe to not be treated as employment for purposes of subsection (i)(3)(E) of K.S.A. 44-703, and amendments thereto. If an Indian tribe fails to make payments required under this section, including assessments of interest and penalties, within 90 days of a final notice of delinquency, the secretary shall immediately notify the United States internal revenue service and the United States department of labor. The secretary may determine that any Indian tribe that loses coverage pursuant to this paragraph may have services performed on behalf of such tribe again deemed "employment" if all contributions, payments in lieu of contributions, penalties and interest have been paid.

(G) In the discretion of the secretary, any employer who elects to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions and any nonprofit organization or group of nonprofit organizations described in section 501 (c)(3) of the federal internal revenue code of 1986 or governmental reimbursing employer or Indian tribe or tribal unit who is delinquent in filing reports or in making payments of amounts certified by the secretary under this section shall be required within 60 days after the effective date of such election, in the case of an eligible employer so electing, or after the date of notification to the delinquent employer under this subsection (e)(2)(G), in the case of a delinquent employer, to execute and file with the secretary a surety bond, except that the employer may elect, in lieu of a surety bond, to deposit with the secretary money or securities as approved by the secretary or to purchase and deliver to an escrow agent a certificate of deposit to guarantee payment. The amount of the bond, deposit or escrow agreement required by this subsection (e)(2)(G) shall not exceed 5.4% of the organization's taxable wages paid for employment by the eligible employer during the four calendar quarters immediately preceding the effective date of the election or the date of notification, in the case of a delinquent employer. If the employer did not pay wages in each of such four calendar quarters, the amount of the bond or deposit shall be as determined by the secretary. Upon the failure of an employer to comply with this subsection (e)(2)(G) within the time limits imposed or to maintain the required bond or deposit, the secretary may terminate the election of such eligible employer or delinquent employer, as the case may be, to make payments in lieu of contributions, and such termination shall be effective for the current and next calendar year.

(H) The state of Kansas shall make reimbursement payments quarterly at a fiscal year rate which shall be based upon: (i) The available balance in the state's reimbursing account as of December 31 of each calendar year; (ii) the historical unemployment experience of all covered state agencies during prior years; (iii) the estimate of total covered wages to be paid during the ensuing calendar year; (iv) the applicable fiscal year rate of the claims processing and auditing fee under K.S.A. 75-3798, and amendments thereto; and (v) actuarial and other information furnished to the secretary by the secretary of administration. In accordance with K.S.A. 75-3798, and amendments thereto, the claims processing and auditing fees charged to state agencies shall be deducted from the amounts collected for the reimbursement payments under this paragraph (H) prior to making the quarterly reimbursement payments for the state of Kansas. The fiscal year rate shall be expressed as a percentage of covered total wages and shall be the same for all covered state agencies. The fiscal year rate for each fiscal year will be certified in writing by the secretary to the secretary of administration on July 15 of each year and such certified rate shall become effective on the July 1 immediately following the date of certification. A detailed listing of benefit charges applicable to the state's reimbursing account shall be furnished quarterly by the secretary to the secretary of administration and the total amount of charges deducted from previous reimbursing payments made by the state. On January 1 of each year, if it is determined that benefit charges exceed the amount of prior reimbursing payments, an upward adjustment shall be made therefor in the fiscal year rate which will be certified on the ensuing July 15. If total payments exceed benefit charges, all or part of the excess may be refunded, at the discretion of the secretary, from the fund or retained in the fund as part of the payments which may be required for the next fiscal year.

(3) Allocation of benefit costs. The reimbursing account of each reimbursing employer shall be charged the full amount of regular benefits and $\frac{1}{2}$ of the amount of extended benefits paid except that each reimbursing governmental employer's account shall be charged the full amount of regular benefits and extended benefits paid for weeks of unemployment beginning after December 31, 1978, to individuals whose entire base period wage credits are from such employer. When benefits received by an individual are based upon base period wage credits from more than one employer then the reimbursing employer's or reimbursing governmental employer's account shall be charged in the same ratio as base period wage credits from such employer bear to the individual's total base period wage credits. Notwithstanding any other provision of the employment security law, no reimbursing employer's or reimbursing governmental employer's account shall be charged for payments of extended benefits which are wholly reimbursed to the state by the federal government.

(A) Proportionate allocation (when fewer than all reimbursing base period employers are liable). If benefits paid to an individual are based on wages paid by one or more reimbursing employers and on wages paid by one or more contributing employers or rated governmental employers, the amount of benefits payable by each reimbursing employer shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the total benefits paid to the individual as the total base period wages paid to the individual by such employer bears to the total base period wages paid to the individual by all of such individual's base period employers.

(B) Proportionate allocation (when all base period employers are reimbursing employers). If benefits paid to an individual are based on wages paid by two or more reimbursing employers, the amount of benefits payable by each such employer shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the total benefits paid to the individual as the total base period wages paid to the individual by such employer bear to the total base period wages paid to the individual by all of such individual's base period employers.

(4) Group accounts. Two or more reimbursing employers may file a joint application to the secretary for the establishment of a group account for the purpose of sharing the cost of benefits paid that are attributable to service in the employment of such reimbursing employers. Each such application shall identify and authorize a group representative to act as the group's agent for the purposes of this subsection (e)(4). Upon approval of the application, the secretary shall establish a group account for such employers effective as of the beginning of the calendar quarter in which the secretary receives the application and shall notify the group's representative of the effective date of the account. Such account shall remain in effect for not less than four years and thereafter such account shall remain in effect until terminated at the discretion of the secretary or upon application by the group. Upon establishment of the account, each member of the group shall be liable for payments in lieu of contributions with respect to each calendar quarter in the amount that bears the same ratio to the total benefits paid in such quarter that are attributable to service performed in the employ of all members of the group as the total wages paid for service in employment by such member in such quarter bear to the total wages paid during such quarter for service performed in the employ of all members of the group. The secretary shall adopt such rules and regulations as the secretary deems necessary with respect to applications for establishment, maintenance and termination of group accounts that are authorized by this subsection (e)(4), for addition of new members to, and withdrawal of active members from such accounts, and for the determination of the amounts that are payable under this subsection (e)(4) by members of the group and the time and manner of such payments.";

Journal of the Senate

TWENTY-FOURTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, February 15, 2011, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-eight senators present.
Senators Donovan and Marshall were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Today we pray for some of the leadership that joined us this year:
Governor Sam Brownback, Lt. Governor Jeff Colyer, Senate Majority Leader
Jay Scott Emler and Senator Allen Schmidt.

We pray for Governor Brownback,
Keep him safe and well;
Along with Lt. Governor Colyer
That he, too, will excel.

And since for five new Senators
I have already prayed;
I pray for Senator Allen Schmidt
As he joins our Senate "crusade".

We pray for Senator Emler
As our new Majority Leader.
He has shown his ability
And is a friendly greeter.

The apostle Paul made it clear
That all authority comes from You,
And that all our government leadership
Owe their authority unto You.

Remind the leaders in Kansas Government,
That You are forever their Master,
And that they are servants unto You
To bless Kansas so much faster.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,
AMEN

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I voted against S Sub for HB 2014. It's not that I am in favor of a penalty from the Federal Government regarding the MOE of SpEd. Instead, it is the fact that we do not have enough information at this point in time. We have heard that we need to make up $16M or $25M or even $13M.

I contend that we would have time to determine how much money is needed to maintain the MOE, and to appropriate that money on a later bill.

Therefore, I voted against S Sub for HB 2014. – STEVE ABRAMS

MR. PRESIDENT: Senate Sub for HB 2014 appropriates $32,146,014 SGF in excess of the governor's recommendation for FY 2011 and $8,534,972 SGF in excess of the governor's recommendation for FY 2012. Additionally, the Ways and Means subcommittee reports already adopted by the full Ways and Means committee increase FY 2012 SGF spending $1,137,235 beyond the governor's FY 2012 recommendation.

The governor's FY 2011 & FY 2012 budget recommendations leave the state of Kansas with an ending balance of $7.5 million dollars.

When considering the actions of the full Ways and Means committee to this point along with the appropriations in this bill, together would cause the budget to have a $34,318,221 negative ending balance.

This would require additional cuts in the FY 2012 budget of roughly 34 million dollars. To date I am unaware of any plan of how these cuts would be distributed among our state agencies. Until such a plan is developed I believe passage of Senate Sub for HB 2014 in its present form is unwise. Therefore I vote NO on Senate Sub for HB 2014. – MARK TADDIKEN

Senators Bruce, Lynn and Petersen requested the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Taddiken on Senate Sub for HB 2014.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote no on SB 77. By reinstating the waiting week and deleting the trailing spouse clause for non-military families, $13.5 million in needed unemployment benefits are being eliminated. By putting benefit checks in workers' hands immediately, we not only support workers' living costs during a period of unemployment, but we help stabilize the economy.

Eliminating the trailing spouse provision sends a terrible message to Kansans about the value we place on family and marriage. It is a step backward for thousands of Kansans trying to balance the needs of work with the needs of family.

In the vast majority of job transfers it is the working woman who follows her spouse to a new job. Consequently, elimination of benefit eligibility for relocating spouses will result in a serious gender gap in our unemployment insurance system.

This bill does nothing to solve the underlying unemployment issues facing our state. It just makes it harder for families to put food on the table, keep a roof over their head, and support their families. It makes the situation facing unemployed workers seem even more hopeless. — ANTHONY HENSLEY

On motion of Senator Jay Emler the Senate adjourned until 2:30 p.m., Wednesday, February 16, 2011.

The roll was called with thirty-seven senators present.
Senators Donovan, Emler and Morris were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

During the days ahead keep me from disappointing You.

I may be tempted
To tell a lie.
Remind me I'm not
That kind of guy.

I may be tempted
To yell at my spouse.
Remind me I may have
To leave the house.

I may be tempted
To exaggerate.
Remind me I'll have
A much deserved fate.

I may be tempted
To lose control.
Remind me I probably
Will lose sight of my goal.

Remind me, O God,
In learning to live
It's fun to get,
But better to give.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, February 17, 2011, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President John Vratil.
The roll was called with thirty-eight senators present.
Senators Donovan and Morris were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

I thank You and the Senate President for letting me serve as Senate Chaplain.

I pray for all the Senators and hope some of them pray for me.

I also visit their staff members in their offices from time to time.

I also visit most of the Senate Secretary's staff members, as well as the Sergeant-At-Arms and doormen, the security people, legislative services, the lobbyists and Don in the snack shop.

The reason I mention this is because so many of them, especially the Senators themselves, are the objects of bad mouthing.

It really saddens me to hear members of the public, most of whom have never met a Senator, criticize people they don't even know.

Accusations like "crooks", "can't be trusted", "just in it for the money", "lazy", "ignorant", and other descriptions which are worse, are too common to ignore.

When someone discovers I am the Chaplain and says, "They sure need prayer", I usually say, "That's what they say about you." Or when they get personal and say, "You don't seem to have helped them much." I usually respond with a smile, "You should have seen them before I came!"

I close this prayer with a request I have repeated many times: Please convict the public that if we all prayed as much as we badmouthed, we would all be better off!

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

Journal of the Senate

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Friday, February 18, 2011, 8:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President John Vratil.
The roll was called with thirty-three senators present.
Senators Apple, Brungardt, Donovan, Kelsey, King, Morris and Steineger were excused.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

The weather has warmed up
And the weekend has arrived.
The whole state's in the fifties,
Averaging fifty-five.

Senator Morris may live the farthest,
Hugoton is his home.
Besides the trip to Hugoton,
He sometimes has to roam.

I heard him say one time
When he was the featured speaker;
Colorado and Oklahoma capitols
Were closer than Topeka!

I pray for all the Senators
Whether close or far away.
Keep them safe as they travel
And try to rest at least a day!

I pray for their families
Who miss them when they're gone,
And their business often needs them
When they're far away from home.

May they not be overworked,
But have time to relax;
And be ready for committees
And the session when they're back.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

Journal of the Senate

TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, February 21, 2011, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present.
Senator Donovan was excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Today is Presidents' Day and tomorrow is the 279th birthday anniversary of our nation's first president, George Washington.

Thomas Jefferson said, "his integrity was the most pure, his justice the most inflexible I have ever known. He was, in every sense of the word, a wise, a good, and a great man."

John Marshall, regarded as America's greatest jurist, said, "He was a sincere believer in the Christian faith, and a truly devout man."

The Duke of Wellington called him "the purist and noblest character of his time, perhaps of all time."

In his inaugural address to both houses of Congress, April 29, 1789, Washington proclaimed: "We ought to be...persuaded that the propitious smiles of Heaven....can never be expected on a nation that disregards the eternal rules of order and right which Heaven itself has ordained;...the preservation of the sacred fire of history and the destiny of (our) model of government are justly considered as deeply, perhaps finally, staked of the experiment...."

Thank You, O God, for calling forth George Washington as the "Father of our Country."

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Journal of the Senate

TWENTY-NINTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, February 22, 2011, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order President Stephen Morris
The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present.
Senator Donovan was excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon.

Heavenly Father,

You know that there are three branches of our state government: Executive, Legislative and Judicial. I am primarily concerned with the Legislative. I am specifically responsible to the Senate.

I like to think we are all concerned with the state of Kansas.

There are forty Senators plus their staffs.

We may not all agree, but we are all committed to Kansas.

We are members of two political parties, but we are both pledged to Kansas.

Some are from the West, some are from the East, and some are from the middle, but we all serve Kansas.

We are from the Rural and from the Urban, but both of them are in Kansas.

We are young or middle-aged or Seniors, but we all root for K.U., or K-State, or Wichita State, or Washburn, or somewhere else, but these are all in Kansas.

Whether we like it or not, we are in essence a family.

Families quarrel and families forgive. Families complain and families support each other.

We may be different in so many ways, but we MUST be sold on Kansas.

The bottom line is...we must all be in LOVE with Kansas.

And the source of true, binding, productive LOVE is You, O God.

Don't let us forget You! I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote no on SB 6; a bill that I introduced that as originally introduced would have restored clarity to Kansas' search and seizure laws. SB 6 took evidence of any crime back to the time-honored, and constitutionally correct, standard of the specific crime for which a warrant to search was issued.

Although our courts have asked for legislative clarity in statute on this matter, (see State vs. Henning 2007 for example). This amended SB 6 creates only the necessity for prosecution and for defense to always argue whether or not some law enforcement had the legal right or not to search and/or to seize.

This is not better, Mr. President. It is not “Liberty” to allow a search for one thing and prosecute for another. It is not “Justice” to have an attorney argue skillfully why you have been illegally searched and seized. Once again, being in the majority, here in this chamber, clearly does not put this chamber in the right. This is not better.

We should all hold constitutional protections dear. You are making another legislative mistake.

One sad day, by your failure to provide clear unambiguous directive, when our state is directed to pay some massive amount to a defendant who should not have been tried, do not say “Don’t blame me, I did not know,” Mr. President. Why? Because I’ve told you repeatedly. Sadly remember Senator Haley told you so. – DAVID HALEY

Journal of the Senate

THIRTIETH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, February 23, 2011, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-eight senators present.
Senators Donovan and Lynn were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

There is an old quotation which goes like this, "I complained that I had no shoes, until I met a man who had no feet."

Remind us to be thankful for blessings we take for granted:

When complaining about taxes, make us thankful for something to tax.

When complaining about aches and pains, make us thankful we are not paralyzed.

When complaining about being tired, make us thankful for our jobs.

When complaining about the weather, make us thankful that it will change.

When complaining about gaining weight, make us thankful we're not starving.

When complaining about life, make us thankful we still have it.

When complaining that no one will listen, remind us to whom we are praying.

In the Name of Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote “AYE” on SB 93, as amended. Discrimination by errant cops is well known and well documented throughout communities of color.

After a dozen years on this issue in this Kansas Legislature Mr. President, I, myself, grow weary of the game. Let's face it. Rogue cops never need probable cause in Kansas. They'll stop your car if you're in a different county or have a different skin pigment from that county's majority. They can get a warrant for one alleged offense, but arrest you on a completely unrelated offense. After all these years, I still have to ask “why would decent legislators permit unequal harassment by police?” And, I still have no answer today.

SB 93 is but the latest, “watered down, unenforceable, unaccountable and unmanageable” incarnation of a pre-text towards equality. To the advocates who despise, as I do, these prejudicial predators hiding behind a badge; who swore to “serve and protect” but too often “harass and degrade,” I pledge that as long as this problem remains, so too will this Senator's legislative vigilance. – DAVID HALEY

MR. PRESIDENT: As the nominee twice for Kansas Secretary of State, I promised all voting Kansans that I would support our democracy and vote to fund our presidential preference primary. Every four years, this Legislature suggests the ability to hold a free and open statewide election to select a nominee for U.S. President costs too much! Give me a break. Tell that to the Egyptians. Tell that to the millions of people around the world who too (eerily similar to voting Kansans every four years) are being denied the opportunity to vote in a public secure election for the candidate of their choice.

I again declare that our Legislature's priorities in this regard are misguided. We all got here by a vote of a majority. As a Democrat, I already know who I intend to see renominated and reelected President in 2012. Most Democrats do not see a need to fund the 2012 Primary. But with all the choices Republicans might have, whether good or bad, one wonders why democracy-loving elected Kansas Republicans wouldn't want to give their constituents the right to choose in 2012? – DAVID HALEY

THIRTY-FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, February 24, 2011, 9:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present.
Senator Donovan was excused.
In observance of Armed Forces Appreciation Day, Chaplain (Major) Lawrence Dabeck, U.S. Army, Fort Leavenworth gave the invocation.

Almighty God – the Author of Liberty,

We are grateful to you for your many blessings. We thank you today for our nation. Thank you for the blessed liberties we enjoy. We beg of you, by your many mercies, that our land may long be bright with Freedom's holy light.

We ask you today to protect us by your might. We are thankful and proud of those who stand vigilant to safeguard our freedoms. Bless and keep our service men and women who stand in harm's way on our behalf, for those who perilously stand in the gap out of love for neighbor. Give them moral courage and strength of will to embrace the difficult right over the easy wrong. And please dear Lord, give their families grace and peace as their loved ones remain deployed.

And now Lord for those who stand here in the Senate Chamber, we thank you as well for their selfless service to neighbor. Give them desperate dependence upon you, that they might have wisdom in their decisions, understanding in their thinking, love in their attitudes, and mercy in their judgments. May we all hear on that day, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

In your holy name I pray,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: SB 129 suppresses the people's voice on who would be elected as their state senator. It is protection for incumbency. When there is a senate seat vacancy, precinct committee votes serve a purpose – but only until the next election. It is wrong to bypass the vote of the people in an election.—

MARY PILCHER-COOK

Senators Abrams and Lynn request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Pilcher-Cook on SB 129.

(a) No distributor licensed under this act shall purchase any alcoholic liquor from any manufacturer, owner of alcoholic liquor at the time it becomes a marketable product, exclusive agent of such manufacturer or owner, microbrewery, farm winery or distributor of alcoholic liquor bottled in a foreign country either within or without this state, unless the manufacturer, owner, exclusive agent, microbrewery, farm winery or distributor files with the director a written statement sworn to by the manufacturer, owner, exclusive agent, microbrewery, farm winery or distributor or, in case of a corporation, one of its principal officers, agreeing to sell any of the brands or kinds of alcoholic liquor manufactured or distributed by the manufacturer, owner, exclusive agent, microbrewery, farm winery or distributor to any distributor licensed in this state and having a franchise to distribute the alcoholic liquor pursuant to K.S.A. 41-410, and amendments thereto, and to make such sales to all such licensed distributors in this state at the same current price and without discrimination. Each manufacturer, owner, exclusive agent, microbrewery or farm winery shall provide to each distributor written notice not less than 45 days before any change in the current price of any spirits or wine which such manufacturer, owner, exclusive agent, microbrewery or farm winery sells to such distributor. If any manufacturer, owner, exclusive agent, microbrewery, farm winery or distributor making the agreement violates the agreement by refusing to sell such alcoholic liquor to any such franchised licensed distributor in this state or discriminates in current prices among such franchised licensed distributors making or attempting to make purchases of alcoholic liquor from the manufacturer, owner, exclusive agent, microbrewery, farm winery or distributor, the director shall notify, by registered mail, each such franchised licensed distributor in this state of the violation. Thereupon, it shall be unlawful for a franchised licensed distributor in this state to purchase any alcoholic liquor from the manufacturer, owner, exclusive agent, microbrewery, farm winery or distributor. If thereafter such a franchised licensed distributor purchases any alcoholic liquor from the manufacturer, owner, exclusive agent, microbrewery, farm winery or distributor, such franchised distributor's license shall be revoked by the director. If any manufacturer, owner, exclusive agent, microbrewery, farm winery or distributor of alcoholic liquor bottled in a foreign country, making any agreement hereunder, does not have a sufficient supply of alcoholic liquor of any of the brands or kinds which the manufacturer, owner, exclusive agent, microbrewery, farm winery or distributor manufactures or distributes to supply the demands of all licensed distributors having a franchise to distribute such alcoholic liquor, the manufacturer, owner, exclusive agent, microbrewery, farm winery or distributor may ration such alcoholic liquor and apportion the available supply among such franchised licensed distributors purchasing or attempting to purchase it, in accordance with a plan which shall be subject to the approval of the director.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in section 5, and amendments thereto, no retailer licensed under this act shall purchase any alcoholic liquor from any distributor licensed under this act unless the distributor files with the director a written statement sworn to by the distributor, or in case of a corporation by one of its principal officers, agreeing to sell any of the brands or kinds of alcoholic liquor distributed by the distributor and to provide service in connection therewith to any licensed retailer whose licensed premises are located within the geographic territory of the distributor's franchise for the alcoholic liquor, unless written approval to do otherwise is obtained from the director, and to make such sales to all such licensed retailers at the same current bottle, sleeve and case price and without discrimination. For purposes of this subsection the "same current bottle, sleeve and case price" for spirits and wine means a price effective for a specified period as designated by the distributor on or before the first day of each month. If any distributor making the agreement violates the agreement by refusing to sell or provide service to any such licensed retailer in this state without written approval of the director or discriminates in current prices among such licensed retailers making or attempting to make purchases of alcoholic liquor from the distributor, the director may revoke the license of the distributor. If any licensed distributor making any agreement hereunder does not have a sufficient supply of alcoholic liquor of any of the brands or kinds which the distributor distributes to supply the demands of all such licensed retailers, the distributor may ration such alcoholic liquor and apportion the available supply among such licensed retailers purchasing or attempting to purchase the same, in accordance with a plan which shall be subject to the approval of the director.

(c) No club or drinking establishment licensed in this state shall purchase any wine or beer from any distributor licensed under this act unless the distributor files with the director a written statement sworn to by the distributor, or in case of a corporation by one of its principal officers, agreeing to sell any of the brands or kinds of wine or beer distributed by the distributor to those clubs and drinking establishments to which the distributor is authorized to sell such wine or beer and to which the distributor desires to sell such wine or beer, unless written approval to do otherwise is obtained from the director and to make such sales to all such licensed clubs or drinking establishments at the same current bottle and case price and without discrimination. If any distributor making the agreement violates the agreement by refusing to sell to any such licensed club or drinking establishment in this state without written approval of the director or discriminates in current prices among such licensed clubs or drinking establishments making or attempting to make purchases of wine or beer from the distributor, the director may revoke the license of the distributor. If any licensed distributor making any agreement hereunder does not have a sufficient supply of wine or beer of any of the brands or kinds which the distributor distributes to supply the demands of all such licensed clubs or drinking establishments, the distributor may ration such wine or beer and apportion the available supply among such licensed clubs or drinking establishments purchasing or attempting to purchase the same, in accordance with a plan which shall be subject to the approval of the director.

For the purposes of this subsection, a delivery charge shall not be considered a part of the price of wine or beer sold by a distributor.

(d) No retailer licensed under K.S.A. 41-2701 et seq., and amendments thereto, shall purchase any cereal malt beverage from any distributor licensed under this act unless the distributor files with the director a written statement sworn to by the distributor, or in case of a corporation by one of its principal officers, agreeing to sell any of the brands or kinds of cereal malt beverage distributed by the distributor to those retailers to which the distributor is authorized to sell such cereal malt beverage, unless written approval to do otherwise is obtained from the director, and to make such sales to all such licensed retailers at the same current price and without discrimination. If any distributor making the agreement violates the agreement by refusing to sell to any such licensed retailer in this state without written approval of the director or discriminates in current prices among such licensed retailers making or attempting to make purchases of cereal malt beverage from the distributor, the director may revoke the license of the distributor. If any licensed distributor making any agreement hereunder does not have a sufficient supply of cereal malt beverage of any of the brands or kinds which the distributor distributes to supply the demands of all such licensed retailers, the distributor may ration such cereal malt beverage and apportion the available supply among such licensed retailers purchasing or attempting to purchase the same, in accordance with a plan which shall be subject to the approval of the director.

(e) No distributor shall sell alcoholic liquor or cereal malt beverage to a retailer licensed under the Kansas liquor control act, to a club, drinking establishment or caterer licensed under the club and drinking establishment act or to a retailer licensed under K.S.A. 41-2702, and amendments thereto, at a discount for multiple case lots.":

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

The following concurrent resolution was introduced and read by title:

By Senators Morris, Emler, Vratil, Abrams, Apple, Bruce, Brungardt, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Hensley, Holland, Huntington, Kelly, Kelsey, King, Kultala, Longbine, Love, Lynn, Marshall, Masterson, McGinn, Merrick, Olson, Ostmeyer, Owens, Petersen, Pilcher-Cook, Pyle, Reitz, A. Schmidt, V. Schmidt, Schodorf, Taddiken, Teichman, Umbarger and Wagle

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION urging the United States Congress to fund the construction of the National Bio and Agro-defense Facility (NBAF) and encouraging the Department of Homeland Security to advance the sale of Plum Island Animal Disease Center and direct the proceeds of the sale to be used to help fund the NBAF.

WHEREAS, When it comes to the critically urgent work of protecting America's food supply, the NBAF offers the only long-term solution to secure the nation's food supply and agricultural economy through integrated biosafety research, testing and evaluation of agricultural and public health threats; and

WHEREAS, Since 2004, the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) has reported on the defined capability gap in integrated biosafety research, development, testing and evaluation of agricultural and public health threats posed by foreign animal, emerging and zoonotic diseases in large livestock; and

WHEREAS, The NBAF will eliminate the capability gap outlined in 2004 by providing a domestic, modern, integrated high-containment facility containing BioSafety Level (BSL) 2/3/3Ag/4 laboratories for up to 350 scientists and support staff to safely and effectively address the accidental or intentional introduction of animal diseases into the United States; and

WHEREAS, In 2006, DHS implemented an exhaustive three-year selection process that, based on the merits of the site, resulted in the selection of Kansas as the best home for a new research facility to protect the American food supply and agriculture economy. Throughout the review, Kansas was noted for its internationally recognized animal health research expertise, state-of-the-art research and industry infrastructure, and deep agricultural heritage – all of which will significantly enhance research efforts; and

WHEREAS, In January 2009, the Department of Homeland Security sited the NBAF in Manhattan, Kansas on the campus of Kansas State University based upon the unanimous recommendation of a panel of biocontainment experts; and

WHEREAS, In its Record of Decision published in the Federal Register on January 16, 2009, the Department of Homeland Security noted that, "based on the numerous strengths that were evident when evaluating the Manhattan Campus Site against the evaluation criteria, DHS found that this location best met the purpose and need to site, construct and operate the NBAF. Specifically, the site location near KSU provides site proximity to existing research capabilities that can be linked to NBAF mission requirements. Additionally, the site's proximity to the KSU College of Veterinary Medicine, KSU College of Agriculture and the Biosecurity Research Institute is relevant to the NBAF mission and a significant strength."; and

WHEREAS, The bipartisan Commission on the Prevention of Weapons of Mass Destruction Proliferation and Terrorism's October 2009 progress report called the Clock is Ticking defined the critical importance of the NBAF by concluding that bioterrorism is the most imminent threat to our homeland security and called for investment to limit the consequences of a bioweapons attack and improve our nation's capabilities to recognize, respond and recover from such an attack; and

WHEREAS, The State of Kansas recognizes this threat and has committed to partner with the Department of Homeland Security and the United States Department of Agriculture to initiate NBAF related research during the construction of the NBAF to accelerate its critical mission of protecting our nation's agriculture economy; and

WHEREAS, Once construction is completed, the NBAF will serve as the nation's premier research facility for developing vaccines and countermeasures for diseases that threaten livestock and other animals, which agricultural and bioterrorism experts consider an urgent national priority; and

WHEREAS, President Obama's FY 2012 budget requests $150 million to initiate the construction of the NBAF; and

WHEREAS, The Consolidated Security, Disaster Assistance, and Continuing Appropriations Act, 2009 (P.L. 110-329) requires that, having chosen a site other than Plum Island, New York, the Department of Homeland Security Secretary is to sell Plum Island through the General Services Administration. Proceeds of the sale shall be available for site acquisition, construction and costs related to the construction of the NBAF: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the state of Kansas, the House of Representatives concurring therein: That we recognize the vital role the National Bio and Agro-defense Facility will play in the future to securing our country from natural and deliberate threats to our food supply, agricultural economy and public health posed by dangerous foreign animal diseases and that we urge the federal government to act aggressively in addressing the threats of bioterrorism; and

Be it further resolved: The construction and operations of the National Bio and Agro-Defense Facility must be accelerated to eliminate the capability gap outlined in 2004 by DHS, the 2009 Clock is Ticking report; and provide the research, testing and evaluation necessary to secure the nation's food supply and agricultural economy; and

Be it further resolved: That we urge the United States Congress to support President Obama's budget request of $150 million to ensure the timely construction and operations of the National Bio and Agro-Defense Facility and encourage the Department of Homeland Security and the General Services Administration to move quickly to sell Plum Island and to direct the proceeds to be used to help fund the NBAF; and

Be it further resolved: That copies of this resolution be provided to President Obama and Vice President Biden, Secretary Napolitano of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, Secretary Vilsack of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, Secretary Sebelius of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, the U.S. House of Representatives and U.S. Senate homeland security appropriations subcommittees, the Kansas congressional delegation and Governor Sam Brownback.

On emergency motion of Senator Emler SCR 1605 was adopted by voice vote.

Forgive us for being lukewarm about things that matter. When it comes to doing what is best for the people of Kansas, we pray You will find us:

On fire, not lukewarm.
Going full speed, not idling.
A participator, not a spectator.
Enthused, instead of defused.
More intense, than on the fence.
More ecstatic, than static.

After all, Lord, at the judgment we want to hear you say,
"Well done!" Not "Medium Rare!"

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, March 3, 2011, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present.
Senator Donovan was excused.
Invocation by Reverend Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Very deep within me
A battle scene unfolds:
A dual between two forces
For the capture of my soul.

One tells me not to worry
When I feel I need to lie.
The other force says lying
I must never justify.

One force says my survival
Rests on a simple plan:
Just realize most people
Will cheat me when they can.

But the other force reminds me
If that's what I believe,
I'll live a life of misery,
Because myself I will deceive.

I'm assuming that this battle
Will continue for my soul:
Please help me, Lord, to listen
To the force that You control.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 1606—

By Special Committee on Natural Gas Storage Fields and Facilities

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION urging the United States Department of Transportation to adopt regulations addressing the safety of vertical, down-hole operations in gas storage fields, thus creating an opportunity for the State Corporation Commission, operating as a designated agent of the Department, to regulate and ensure the safety of all natural gas storage fields in Kansas.

WHEREAS, It is vital to have regulatory oversight to ensure the safe operation of natural gas storage facilities within the State of Kansas; and

WHEREAS, For decades, natural gas transportation companies have integrated underground natural gas storage into their interstate pipeline operations to increase deliverability and decrease overall costs; and

WHEREAS, The growth of the production, transportation and storage of natural gas is an important element in the preservation and creation of jobs in Kansas; and

WHEREAS, The safe underground storage of natural gas within an interstate transportation system is a vital process to ensure efficient development and production of Kansas natural gas resources; and

WHEREAS, Several significant incidents across the United States have occurred where natural gas or hazardous liquids have escaped from storage and resulted in loss of life and property; and

WHEREAS, The Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, which is empowered to establish underground storage sites for interstate gas pipeline companies, and the Department of Transportation, which is empowered to regulate for safety operations of interstate gas pipeline companies, have regulations which do not sufficiently address the safety of vertical, down-hole operations in gas storage fields and do not maintain a physical presence in Kansas, making it difficult to properly regulate and ensure the safety of all natural gas storage facilities in Kansas; and

WHEREAS, The State Corporation Commission not only has the experience and technical ability to regulate the safety of underground storage of gas, but is also best positioned to monitor and safeguard natural gas storage facilities in Kansas; and

WHEREAS, Due to a recent adverse federal court ruling that held 49 U.S.C. § 60104(c) precludes a state authority from adopting or enforcing safety standards for interstate pipeline facilities or pipelines transporting gas in interstate transportation, the State of Kansas may not regulate the safety of underground storage of gas in interstate transportation; and

WHEREAS, It is imperative that the citizens of the State of Kansas be protected from accidents or mishaps at facilities used for the underground storage of natural gas that is in interstate transportation and that both interstate and intrastate gas storage companies be regulated to ensure facilities are operated in a safe manner: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas, the House of Representatives concurring therein: That the legislature urges the United States Department of Transportation to adopt regulations addressing the safety of vertical, down-hole operations in gas storage fields and to facilitate the ability of the Kansas Corporation Commission to act as its agent for the enforcement of the regulations, to assure the safety and security of Kansans is protected through the regulation of all operations of all natural gas storage facilities located in the State of Kansas; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of State be directed to send enrolled copies of this resolution to the Commissioners of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, the United States Secretary of Transportation, members of the Kansas Congressional Delegation, the Governor of Kansas and the Commissioners of the State Corporation Commission.

THIRTY-FIFTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Friday, March 4, 2011, 8:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-six senators present.
Senators Brungardt, Donovan, Kelsey and King were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Help us to be willing to pay the price for achievement. We ought to know by now there has to be:

A lot of hurt before the healing;
A lot of clouds before it clears.
A lot of tackles before a touchdown
That turns the silence into cheers.

A lot of battles before the victory;
A lot of sweat to grow the crop.
A lot of tears before the laughter;
A lot of climbing to the top.

A lot of pain before a birth;
A boot camp before the stripes.
Lots of study before diplomas;
A lot of growing before it's ripe.

We should have learned from You, O God, that Jesus had to endure the cross before the resurrection.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

THIRTY-SIXTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, March 7, 2011, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present.
Senator Donovan was excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

As we mature we tend to take pride in our ability to exercise restraint.
We learn to roll with the punches; stay calm under pressure; or as Kipling put it, "To keep our heads, when all around us others are losing theirs and blaming it on us." Or in the current lingo, "Be cool, man."

Composure is an admirable quality most of the time, O God.
But You have shown us that keeping cool, calm, and collected is not always a virtue.
Even Jesus vented his wrath on the money-changers and the Pharisees.
So forgive us, Lord, when we are so stoic nothing outrages us.
When someone is in dire need, we "pass by on the other side."
When we can tolerate injustice with no show of emotion.
Help us to never reach that point, O God, because when we do, we are no longer composed, we have stopped listening to You.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

THIRTY-SEVENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, March 8, 2011, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-eight senators present.
Senators Donovan and Petersen were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

As the pressure takes its toll,
Words are said and things are done
Which would never have occurred
If our temper had not won.

When we feel we've been betrayed
And our hopes are all undone,
The hardest thing we need to do
Is forgive the guilty ones.

We can ignore them or accept them,
And even understand them, too.
But trying to forgive them
Seems more than we can do.

But we hear your voice within us
Speaking words we know are true:
“What kind of person would you be
If I had not forgiven you?”

“Unforgiveness is an acid
Which cannot be safely stored;
The container's damaged more
Than the one on whom it's poured.”

I pray in the name of Jesus Christ.

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Journal of the Senate

THIRTY-EIGHTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, March 9, 2011, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present.
Senator Donovan was excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

In the twenty-fifth chapter of Matthew we read about the judgment scene where Jesus identified with those to whom the righteous had ministered on earth. Perhaps if Jesus was on earth today He might have put it in contemporary terms:

I was a different color and you showed me respect.
I had AIDS and you cared for me.
I was a battered wife and you comforted me.
I was homeless and you took me in.
I was a pregnant teenager and you wept with me.
I was a nursing home resident and you visited me.
I was a single mother and you comforted me.
I was unemployed and you helped me.
I was a wounded veteran and you saluted me.

Lord, help us to be found among those to whom Jesus could speak these words.

I pray in the name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote NO on Senate Bill 196. Although I agree with the changes to allow expensing and eliminate some of the exiting business tax credits, I do not agree with offering very different investment level thresholds for the High Performance Incentive Program – allowing businesses in most counties to get the credit for the portion of a qualified business facility investment which exceeds $50,000 but only allowing the portion that exceeds $1 million for businesses in Douglas, Johnson, Leavenworth, Sedgwick, Shawnee or Wyandotte counties. – MARCI FRANCISCO

MR. PRESIDENT: — I vote NO on SB 196.

Our state's economic incentives for both small and large businesses are working very well with great success. HPIP, IMPACT, KEOIF, the Business and Job Development Credit, and the Machinery and Equipment Tax Credit programs should continue as they are.

Based on testimony from business people in committee, there are grave concerns that the proposed Expensing model will be paid for by the elimination and changing of current programs that are working. They have also told us they believe the Expensing model will not be beneficial to as many companies as proposed. They believe this will be especially true for smaller companies that don't have the expertise to deal with the complications of Expensing.

Our existing economic incentives based on real life examples are better suited for businesses across the board.

There are a few old adages that come to mind when I consider this bill. One is, “A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush.” Another, “You can't buy a pig a poke.” And yet another, “If it ain't broke, don't fix it.”

For these reasons, I vote NO. – ANTHONY HENSLEY

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote no on SB 196 because my community is gravely concerned with the proposed changes to the current economic development tools available in the State of Kansas. These tools in their current form have not only brought new capital investment to our community but have allowed retraining dollars to be used which in turn has helped retain the existing workforce as well as adding new. Raising the threshold on HPIP in the larger metro areas will be harmful to our economic development efforts. And based on the advice of our economic development professionals the proposed Expensing model which would be “paid” for by the elimination and changing of the current economic development tools will not be beneficial to as many companies as proposed. I believe this will especially be the case with smaller companies as they may not have the expertise to deal with the proposed formula. – KELLY KULTALA

SB 213, AN ACT concerning lightweight roadable vehicles; relating to registration; uniform traffic code; property tax exemptions; amending K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 8-126 and 8-1486 and 79-201k and repealing the existing sections.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 39, Nays 0, Present and Passing 0, Absent or Not Voting 1.

Yeas: Abrams, Apple, Bruce, Brungardt, Emler, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Hensley, Holland, Huntington, Kelly, Kelsey, King, Kultala, Longbine, Love, Lynn,

Journal of the Senate

THIRTY-NINTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, March 10, 2011, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President John Vratil.
The roll was called with thirty-seven senators present.
Senators Donovan, Holland and Love were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

It's amazing the number of different ways some people view You. Please point out these false views of You and help us to see You as You really are.

Stop us from seeing You as a supernatural sounding board.

Stop us from treating You as kind of spiritual 9-1-1 who seldom responds to our call.

Correct us if we consider You as a cultural antique passed down from generation to generation.

Don't let us view You as a nationalistic symbol to keep the masses preoccupied.

Correct us from using You as a scapegoat to blame for our failures, aches and pains, untimely deaths and our own bad judgments.

Correct us when we see You as an indulgent grandfather who tolerates anything and everything.

Point out our error of using You as a lucky charm to rub when we encounter icy streets, tornadoes, lottery tickets, and flashing lights on patrol cars.

Convict those who seem to think that the words "God" and "Jesus" should never be spoken publicly except in profanity.

Remind us, Lord, that You can raise up nations and bring them down. That without You no government can survive very long.

Remind us that You are the Creator and we are the creatures, because we are prone to get them backwards.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ.

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-six senators present.
Senators Brungardt, Donovan, Kelsey and Masterson were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Speaking for a legislator, what is it about this job that will give me the most lasting satisfaction?

I suspect it won't be the bills I sponsored,
Nor the committees I chaired,
Nor the plaques on my wall,
Not even the elections I won.

I suspect it will be the times....

When I drove a hundred miles out of my way and lost half a day to help a nursing home resident get what was rightfully hers, knowing full well she voted for my opponent!

When I bypassed my favorite social event to encourage a sixth grade class to just say "No", while knowing that none of them could vote for another seven years.

When I spent half a night making calls in order to help a felon get rehabilitated.

When I skipped a speaking engagement arranged by an influential constituent so I could attend my five year old's birthday party.

Remind me, O God, that the times I will look back on as most satisfying will be those when I performed a service for people I knew had no way to repay me.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Who gave His life for those who could never repay Him,

AMEN

WHEREAS, protecting the revenue of this state and other Compacting States may be accomplished by facilitating the payment and collection of Premium Tax on Non-Admitted Insurance and providing for allocation of Premium Tax for Non-Admitted Insurance of Multi-State Risks among the States in accordance with Uniform Allocation Formulas;

WHEREAS, the efficiency of the surplus lines market may be improved by eliminating duplicative and inconsistent tax and regulatory requirements among the States, and by promoting and protecting the interests of Surplus Lines Licensees who assist such insureds and Non-Admitted Insurers, thereby ensuring the continued availability of Non-Admitted Insurance to consumers;

2. Each Member of the Commission shall have the right and power to cast a vote to which that Compacting State is entitled and to participate in the business and affairs of the Commission. A Member shall vote in person or by such other means as provided in the Bylaws. The Bylaws may provide for Members' participation in meetings by telephone or other means of communication.

5. The Commission shall promulgate Rules concerning its meetings consistent with the principles contained in the “Government in the Sunshine Act,” 5 U.S.C., § 552b, as may be amended.

6. The Commission and its committees may close a meeting, or portion thereof, where it determines by majority vote that an open meeting would be likely to:

- a. Relate solely to the Commission’s internal personnel practices and procedures;
- b. Disclose matters specifically exempted from disclosure by federal and State statute;
- c. Disclose trade secrets or commercial or financial information which is privileged or confidential;
- d. Involve accusing a person of a crime, or formally censuring a person;

7. For a meeting, or portion of a meeting, closed pursuant to this provision, the Commission’s legal counsel or designee shall certify that the meeting may be closed and shall reference each relevant exemptive provision. The Commission shall keep minutes which shall fully and clearly describe all matters discussed in a meeting and shall provide a full and accurate summary of actions taken, and the reasons therefore, including a description of the views expressed and the record of a roll call vote. All documents considered in connection with an action shall be identified in such minutes. All minutes and documents of a closed meeting shall remain under seal, subject to release by a majority vote of the Commission.

ARTICLE VIII

Rules and Operating Procedures: Rulemaking

Functions of the Commission

Rulemaking functions of the Commission:

1. Rulemaking Authority.—The Commission shall promulgate reasonable Rules in order to effectively and efficiently achieve the purposes of this Compact. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event the Commission exercises its rulemaking authority in a manner that is beyond the scope of the purposes of this Act, or the powers granted hereunder, then such an action by the Commission shall be invalid and have no force or effect.

2. Rulemaking Procedure.—Rules shall be made pursuant to a rulemaking process that substantially conforms to the “Model State Administrative Procedure Act,” of 1981 Act, Uniform Laws Annotated, Vol. 15, p.1 (2000) as amended, as may be appropriate to the operations of the Commission.

3. Effective Date — All Rules and amendments, thereto, shall become effective as of the date specified in each Rule, operating procedure or amendment.

4. Not later than thirty (30) days after a Rule is promulgated, any person may file a petition for judicial review of the Rule; provided that the filing of such a petition shall not stay or otherwise prevent the Rule from becoming effective unless the court finds that the Petitioner has a substantial likelihood of success. The court shall give deference to the actions of the Commission consistent with applicable law and shall not find the Rule to be unlawful if the Rule represents a reasonable exercise of the Commission’s authority.

ARTICLE IXCommission Records and Enforcement

1. The Commission shall promulgate Rules establishing conditions and procedures for public inspection and copying of its information and official records, except such information and records involving the privacy of individuals, insurers, insureds or Surplus Lines Licensee trade secrets. State Transaction Documentation and Clearinghouse Transaction Data collected by the Clearinghouse shall be used for only those purposes expressed in or reasonably implied under the provisions of this Compact and the Commission shall afford this data the broadest protections as permitted by any applicable law for proprietary information, trade secrets or personal data. The Commission may promulgate additional Rules under which it may make available to federal and State agencies, including law enforcement agencies, records and information otherwise exempt from disclosure, and may enter into agreements with such agencies to receive or exchange information or records subject to nondisclosure and confidentiality provisions.

2. Except as to privileged records, data and information, the laws of any Compacting State pertaining to confidentiality or nondisclosure shall not relieve any Compacting State Member of the duty to disclose any relevant records, data or information to the Commission; provided that disclosure to the Commission shall not be deemed to waive or otherwise affect any confidentiality requirement, and further provided that, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, the Commission shall not be subject to the Compacting State's laws pertaining to confidentiality and nondisclosure with respect to records, data and information in its possession. Confidential information of the Commission shall remain confidential after such information is provided to any Member, and the Commission shall maintain the confidentiality of any information provided by a member that is confidential under that Member's State Law.

3. The Commission shall monitor Compacting States for compliance with duly adopted Bylaws and Rules. The Commission shall notify any non-complying Compacting State in writing of its noncompliance with Commission Bylaws or Rules. If a non-complying Compacting State fails to remedy its noncompliance within the time specified in the notice of noncompliance, the Compacting State shall be deemed to be in default as set forth in Article XIV.

ARTICLE XDispute Resolution

1. Before a Member may bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction for violation of any provision, standard or requirement of the Compact, the Commission shall attempt, upon the request of a Member, to resolve any disputes or other issues that are subject to this Compact and which may arise between two or more Compacting States, Contracting States or Non-Compacting States, and the Commission shall promulgate a Rule providing alternative dispute resolution procedures for such disputes.

2. The Commission shall also provide alternative dispute resolution procedures to resolve any disputes between insureds or Surplus Lines Licensees concerning a tax calculation or allocation or related issues which are the subject of this Compact.

3. Any alternative dispute resolution procedures shall be utilized in circumstances where a dispute arises as to which State constitutes the Home State.

ARTICLE XI
Review of Commission Decisions

Regarding Commission decisions:

1. Except as necessary for promulgating Rules to fulfill the purposes of this Compact, the Commission shall not have authority to otherwise regulate insurance in the Compacting States.
2. Not later than thirty (30) days after the Commission has given notice of any Rule or Allocation Formula, any third party filer or Compacting State may appeal the determination to a review panel appointed by the Commission. The Commission shall promulgate Rules to establish procedures for appointing such review panels and provide for notice and hearing. An allegation that the Commission, in making compliance or tax determinations acted arbitrarily, capriciously, or in a manner that is an abuse of discretion or otherwise not in accordance with the law, is subject to judicial review in accordance with Article III, Section 6.
3. The Commission shall have authority to monitor, review and reconsider Commission decisions upon a finding that the determinations or allocations do not meet the relevant Rule. Where appropriate, the Commission may withdraw or modify its determination or allocation after proper notice and hearing, subject to the appeal process in Section 2 above.

ARTICLE XII
Finance

1. The Commission shall pay or provide for the payment of the reasonable expenses of its establishment and organization. To fund the cost of its initial operations the Commission may accept contributions, grants, and other forms of funding from the State stamping offices, Compacting States and other sources.
2. The Commission shall collect a fee payable by the insured directly or through a Surplus Lines Licensee on each transaction processed through the Compact Clearinghouse, to cover the cost of the operations and activities of the Commission and its staff in a total amount sufficient to cover the Commission's annual budget.
3. The Commission's budget for a fiscal year shall not be approved until it has been subject to notice and comment as set forth in Article VIII of this Compact.
4. The Commission shall be regarded as performing essential governmental functions in exercising such powers and functions and in carrying out the provisions of this Compact and of any law relating thereto, and shall not be required to pay any taxes or assessments of any character, levied by any State or political subdivision thereof, upon any of the property used by it for such purposes, or any income or revenue therefrom, including any profit from a sale or exchange.
5. The Commission shall keep complete and accurate accounts of all its internal receipts, including grants and donations, and disbursements for all funds under its control. The internal financial accounts of the Commission shall be subject to the accounting procedures established under its Bylaws. The financial accounts and reports including the system of internal controls and procedures of the Commission shall be audited annually by an independent certified public accountant. Upon the determination of the Commission, but not less frequently than every three (3) years, the review of the independent auditor shall include a management and performance audit of the Commission. The Commission shall make an annual report to the Governor and legislature of the Compacting States, which shall include a report of the independent audit. The Commission's internal accounts shall not be confidential and such materials may be shared with the Commissioner, the controller, or the stamping office of any Compacting State upon request provided, however, that any work papers related to any internal or independent audit and any information regarding the privacy of individuals, and licensees' and insurers' proprietary information, including trade secrets, shall remain confidential.

6. No Compacting State shall have any claim to or ownership of any property held by or vested in the Commission or to any Commission funds held pursuant to the provisions of this Compact.

7. The Commission shall not make any political contributions to candidates for elected office, elected officials, political parties nor political action committees. The Commission shall not engage in lobbying except with respect to changes to this Compact.

ARTICLE XIII

Compacting States, Effective Date and Amendment

1. Any State is eligible to become a Compacting State.

2. The Compact shall become effective and binding upon legislative enactment of the Compact into law by two (2) Compacting States, provided the Commission shall become effective for purposes of adopting Rules, and creating the Clearinghouse when there are a total of ten (10) Compacting States and Contracting States or, alternatively, when there are Compacting States and Contracting States representing greater than forty percent (40%) of the Surplus Lines Insurance premium volume based on records of the percentage of Surplus Lines Insurance premium set forth in Appendix A hereto. Thereafter, it shall become effective and binding as to any other Compacting State upon enactment of the Compact into law by that State. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Clearinghouse operations and the duty to report Clearinghouse Transaction Data shall begin on the first January 1st or July 1st following the first anniversary of the Commission effective date. For States which join the Compact subsequent to the effective date, a start date for reporting Clearinghouse Transaction Data shall be set by the Commission provided Surplus Lines Licensees and all other interested parties receive not less than 90 days advance notice.

3. Amendments to the Compact may be proposed by the Commission for enactment by the Compacting States. No amendment shall become effective and binding upon the Commission and the Compacting States unless and until all Compacting States enact the amendment into law.

ARTICLE XIV

Withdrawal, Default and Termination

1. Withdrawal

a. Once effective, the Compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each and every Compacting State, provided that a Compacting State may withdraw from the Compact ("Withdrawing State") by enacting a statute specifically repealing the statute which enacted the Compact into law.

b. The effective date of withdrawal is the effective date of the repealing statute. However, the withdrawal shall not apply to any tax or compliance determinations approved on the date the repealing statute becomes effective, except by mutual agreement of the Commission and the Withdrawing State unless the approval is rescinded by the Commission.

c. The Member of the Withdrawing State shall immediately notify the Executive Committee of the Commission in writing upon the introduction of legislation repealing this Compact in the Withdrawing State.

d. The Commission shall notify the other Compacting States of the introduction of such legislation within ten (10) days after its receipt of notice thereof.

e. The Withdrawing State is responsible for all obligations, duties and liabilities incurred through the effective date of withdrawal, including any obligations, the performance of which extend beyond the effective date of withdrawal. To the extent those obligations may have been released or relinquished by mutual agreement of the Commission and the Withdrawing State, the Commission's determinations prior to the effective date of withdrawal shall continue to be effective and be given full force and effect in the Withdrawing State, unless formally rescinded by the Commission.

f. Reinstatement following withdrawal of any Compacting State shall occur upon the effective date of the Withdrawing State reenacting the Compact.

2. Default

a. If the Commission determines that any Compacting State has at anytime defaulted ("Defaulting State") in the performance of any of its obligations or responsibilities under this Compact, the Bylaws or duly promulgated Rules then after notice and hearing as set forth in the Bylaws, all rights, privileges and benefits conferred by this Compact on the Defaulting State shall be suspended from the effective date of default as fixed by the Commission. The grounds for default include, but are not limited to, failure of a Compacting State to perform its obligations or responsibilities, and any other grounds designated in Commission Rules. The Commission shall immediately notify the Defaulting State in writing of the Defaulting State's suspension pending a cure of the default. The Commission shall stipulate the conditions and the time period within which the Defaulting State must cure its default. If the Defaulting State fails to cure the default within the time period specified by the Commission, the Defaulting State shall be terminated from the Compact and all rights, privileges and benefits conferred by this Compact shall be terminated from the effective date of termination.

b. Decisions of the Commission that are issued on the effective date of termination shall remain in force in the Defaulting State in the same manner as if the Defaulting State had withdrawn voluntarily pursuant to Section 1 of this Article.

c. Reinstatement following termination of any Compacting State requires a reenactment of the Compact.

3. Dissolution of Compact

a. The Compact dissolves effective upon the date of the withdrawal or default of the Compacting State which reduces membership in the Compact to one Compacting State.

b. Upon the dissolution of this Compact, the Compact becomes null and void and shall have no further force or effect, and the business and affairs of the Commission shall be wound up and any surplus funds shall be distributed in accordance with the Rules and Bylaws.

ARTICLE XV

Severability and Construction

1. The provisions of this Compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision is deemed unenforceable, the remaining provisions of the Compact shall be enforceable.

2. The provisions of this Compact shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purposes.

3. Throughout this Compact the use of the singular shall include the plural and vice-versa.

4. The headings and captions of articles, sections and sub-sections used in this Compact are for convenience only and shall be ignored in construing the substantive provisions of this Compact.

ARTICLE XVI

Binding Effect of Compact and Other Laws

1. Other Laws

a. Nothing herein prevents the enforcement of any other law of a Compacting State except as provided in Paragraph b. of this section.

b. Decisions of the Commission, and any Rules, and any other requirements of the Commission shall constitute the exclusive Rule, or determination applicable to the Compacting States. Any law or regulation regarding Non-Admitted Insurance of Multi-State Risks that is contrary to Rules of the Commission, is preempted with respect to the following:

- (i) Clearinghouse Transaction Data reporting requirements;
 - (ii) Allocation Formula;

(viii) Uniform Policyholder Notice; and

c. Except as stated in paragraph b, any Rule, Uniform Standard or other requirement of the Commission shall constitute the exclusive provision that a Commissioner may apply to compliance or tax determinations. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no action taken by the commission shall abrogate or restrict: (i) the access of any person to State courts; (ii) the availability of alternative dispute resolution under Article X of this Compact (iii) remedies available under State law related to breach of contract, tort, or other laws not specifically directed to compliance or tax determinations; (iv) State law relating to the construction of insurance contracts; or (v) the authority of the attorney general of the State, including but not limited to maintaining any actions or proceedings, as authorized by law.

2. Binding Effect of this Compact

a. All lawful actions of the Commission, including all Rules promulgated by the Commission, are binding upon the Compacting States, except as provided herein.

b. All agreements between the Commission and the Compacting States are binding in accordance with their terms.

Commission may issue advisory opinions regarding the meaning or interpretation in dispute. This provision may be implemented by Rule at the discretion of the Commission.

d. In the event any provision of this Compact exceeds the constitutional limits imposed on the legislature of any Compacting State, the obligations, duties, powers or jurisdiction sought to be conferred by that provision upon the Commission shall be ineffective as to that State and those obligations duties, powers or jurisdiction shall remain in the Compacting State and shall be exercised by the agency thereof to which those obligations, duties, powers or jurisdiction are delegated by law in effect at the time this Compact becomes effective.

New Sec. 2. The commissioner of insurance shall represent this state on the surplus lines insurance multi-state compliance compact.

New Sec. 3. The member representing this state on the surplus lines insurance multi-state compliance compact may be represented thereon by an alternate designated by the commissioner of insurance. Any such alternate shall be an assistant commissioner or a division director of the insurance department.

Sec. 4. K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 40-246b is hereby amended to read as follows: 40-246b. ~~The~~ Upon receipt of a proper application, the commissioner of insurance may issue to any duly licensed resident agent of this state, who has been licensed as a fire or casualty, or both, resident agent in this or any other state or combination thereof, for three consecutive years immediately prior to application for the type of license herein prescribed, upon proper application, an excess coverage license to negotiate an excess lines coverage license to any licensed property and casualty agent of this state or any other state. Any agent so licensed may negotiate for insureds whose home state is this state, the types of contracts of fire insurance enumerated in K.S.A. 40-901, and amendments thereto, and the type of casualty insurance contracts enumerated in K.S.A. 40-1102, and amendments thereto, or reinsurance, or to place risks, or to effect insurance or reinsurance for persons or corporations other than such agent, with insurers not authorized to do business in this state. An agent, as defined in K.S.A. 40-241e 2010 Supp. 40-4902, and amendments thereto, may place the kind or kinds of business specified in this act for which such agent is licensed pursuant to K.S.A. 40-240 and 40-241 2010 Supp. 40-4903 and subsection (d) of 40-4906, and amendments thereto, with an insurer not authorized to do business in this state by placing such business with a person licensed pursuant to the provisions of this act and may share in the applicable commissions on such business. Before any such license shall be issued, the applicant shall submit proper application on a form prescribed by the commissioner, which application shall be accompanied by a fee of $50. Such license shall be renewable each year on May 1, upon the payment of a $50 fee. Excess lines agents licensed by the ~~department on the effective date of this act shall be exempt from the experience requirement.~~

(b) The agent so licensed shall on or before March 1 of each year, file with the insurance department of this state, a sworn affidavit or statement to the effect that, after diligent effort, such agent has been unable to secure the amount of insurance required to protect the property, person, or firm described in such agent's affidavit or statement from loss or damage in regularly admitted companies during the preceding year. Mere rate differential shall not be grounds for placing a particular risk in a nonadmitted carrier when an admitted carrier would accept such risk at a different rate. The licensed excess coverage agent must, prior to placing insurance with an insurer not authorized to do business in this state, obtain the written consent of the prospective named insured and provide such insured the following information in a form promulgated by the commissioner:

(a) (1) A statement that the coverage will be obtained from an insurer not authorized to do business in this state;

(b) (2) a statement that the insurer's name appears on the list of companies maintained by the commissioner pursuant to K.S.A. 40-246e, and amendments thereto;

(c) (3) a notice that the insurer's financial condition, policy forms, rates and trade practices are not subject to the review or jurisdiction of the commissioner;

(d) (4) a statement that the protection of the guaranty associations is not afforded to policyholders of the insurer; and

(e) (5) a statement or notice with respect to any other information deemed necessary by the commissioner pertinent to insuring with an insurer not authorized to do business in this state.

(c) In the event the insured desires that coverage be bound with an insurer not admitted to this state and it is not possible to obtain the written consent of the insured prior to binding the coverage, the excess lines agent may bind the coverage after advising the insured of the information set out above and shall obtain written confirmation that the insured desires that coverage be placed with an insurer not admitted to this state within 30 days after binding coverage.

(d) When business comes to a licensed excess lines agent in which this state is the home state for placement with an insurer not authorized to do business in this state from an agent not licensed as an excess lines agent, it shall be the responsibility of the licensed excess lines agent to ascertain that the insured has been provided the preceding information and has consented to being insured with an insurer not authorized to do business in this state. Each excess lines agent shall keep a separate record book in such agent's office showing the transactions of fire and casualty insurance and reinsurance placed in companies not authorized to do business in this state, the amount of gross premiums charged thereon, the insurer ~~in which~~ with which the policy was placed, the date, term and number of the policy, the location and nature of the risk, the name of the ~~assured~~ insured and such other information as the commissioner may require and such record shall be available at all times for inspection by the commissioner of insurance or the commissioner's authorized representatives. The commissioner may revoke or suspend any license issued pursuant to the provisions of this act in the same manner and for the same reasons prescribed by K.S.A. 40-242 2010 Supp. 40-4909, and amendments thereto.

Any policy issued under the provisions of this statute shall have stamped or endorsed in a prominent manner thereon, the following: This policy is issued by an insurer not authorized to do business in Kansas and, as such, the form, financial condition and rates are not subject to review by the commissioner of insurance and the insured is not protected by any guaranty fund.

If business is placed with a nonadmitted company that is subsequently determined to be insolvent, the excess lines agent placing such business with such company is relieved of any responsibility to the insured as it relates to such insolvency, if the excess lines agent has satisfactorily complied with all requirements of this section pertaining to notification of the insured, has properly obtained the written consent of the insured and has used due diligence in selecting the insurer. It shall be presumed that due diligence was used in selecting the insurer if such insurer was on the list compiled pursuant to K.S.A. 40-246e, and amendments thereto, at the time coverage first became effective.

Sec. 5. K.S.A. 40-246c is hereby amended to read as follows: 40-246c. ~~Each licensed agent shall file with the commissioner on or before March 1 of each year a statement on a form prescribed by the commissioner, accounting for the gross premiums upon all policies written on risks situated in this state up to January 1 in each year for the year next preceding and the licensee shall transmit to the commissioner, with such affidavit or statement, a sum equal to 6% of the gross premiums upon all policies procured by such agent on risks situated in this state written under the provisions of this act. Any individual placing a policy with an insurer not authorized to do business in this state on a risk domiciled in a state other than this state, but also covering a risk or location in Kansas, shall file with the commissioner a statement in the form prescribed by the commissioner, describing the risk and shall pay to the commissioner a sum equal to 6% of the portion of the premium applicable to the risk located in Kansas within 120 days after writing the risk.~~

(a) On March 1 of each year, each licensed agent shall collect and pay to the commissioner a sum based on the total gross premiums charged, less any return premiums, for surplus lines insurance provided by the licensee pursuant to the license. Where the insurance covers properties, risks or exposures located or to be performed both in and out of this state, the sum payable shall be computed based on:

(1) An amount equal to 6% of that portion of the gross premiums allocated to this state; plus

(2) an amount equal to the portion of the premiums allocated to other states or territories on the basis of the tax rates and fees applicable to properties, risks or exposures located or to be performed outside of this state; less

(3) the amount of gross premiums allocated to this state and returned to the insured.

(b) The tax on any portion of the premium unearned at termination of insurance, if any, having been credited by the state to the licensee shall be returned to the policyholder directly by the surplus lines licensee or through the producing broker. The surplus lines licensee is prohibited from rebating any part of the tax for any reason. To the extent that other states where portions of the properties, risks or exposures reside have failed to enter into a compact or reciprocal allocation procedure with this state, the net premium tax collected shall be retained by this state.

(c) The individual responsible for filing the statement shall be the agent who signs the policy or the agent of record with the company. The commissioner of insurance shall collect double the amount of tax herein provided from any licensee or other responsible individual as herein described who shall fail, refuse or neglect to transmit the required affidavit or statement or shall fail to pay the tax imposed by this section; to the commissioner within the period specified.

Sec. 6. K.S.A. 40-246e is hereby amended to read as follows: 40-246e. The commissioner shall maintain a list of insurers not authorized to do business in this state for review by any interested person. Only those insurers who have filed a certified copy of their most recent annual statement with the commissioner in the form prescribed by K.S.A. 40-225, and amendments thereto, or, if domiciled outside the United States, have filed their most recent annual statement with the national association of insurance commissioners may appear on the list. No excess lines agent shall place insurance on a Kansas domiciled risk with an insurer whose name does not appear on this list. No company shall appear on the list whose capital or surplus as shown on the annual statement does not equal or exceed ~~$1,500,000~~ $4,500,000. Individual unincorporated insurers not listed by the national association of insurance commissioners may appear on the list if they are authorized to transact an insurance business in at least one state of the United States, possess assets which are held in trust for the benefit of American policyholders in the sum of not less than $50,000,000 and pay the filing fee required by this section. Journal of the Senate

FORTY-SECOND DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, March 15, 2011, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President John Vratil.
The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present.
Senator Donovan was excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father

Legislators get all kinds of messages.

Messages by letters,
Messages by phone.
Message by Email,
With varying tones.

Messages by visits,
Messages by texts,
Making them wonder
What's coming next?

Some messages are pleasant,
Some of them bland.
Some meant for Washington
For Jenkins or Moran.

There are at least hundreds,
On that we could bet.
But there's always one
They seldom get.

So I'm asking You, Lord,
When folks like their vote,
Would You inspire them to send
A little "Thank You" note?

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: Based on the empirical data made available during testimony before our Committee, "bath salts" (a street name for currently legal compounds ingested as a recreational drug) pose an undue risk to health and to public safety and have even resulted in death.

The Kansas Senate should not delay another moment in taking action to make these proven dangerous compounds (sold as "bath salts" and "potpourri" among other names) illegal. I vote "AYE" to ban "bath salts" immediately and wonder why any other of my responsible colleagues might wait until some other, future, time to, hopefully, potentially, do the same? – DAVID HALEY

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote "NO" on Senate Bill 51.

I strongly support parents' rights in requesting school officials to administer OTC medications to their children when the parents authorize them to do so. I also support the local school district's authority and responsibility to establish both a policy and a list of approved medications that may or may not be administered. This ensures both the medical oversight and board responsibility necessary.

I feel SB 51 is merely a recommendation. It lacks clarity, substance and direction to become an effective Kansas statute. – ALLEN SCHMIDT

The roll was called with thirty-seven senators present.
Senators Donovan, Ostmeyer and Taddiken were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

What an awesome God You are!

Powerful enough to create the universe;
Sensitive enough to notice a falling sparrow.

Powerful enough to guide the destiny of nations;
Sensitive enough to hear an infant cry.

Powerful enough to hear everyone's prayers;
Sensitive enough to hear the prayer of one Senator.

Powerful enough to influence the decisions of presidents;
Sensitive enough to listen to one tired Senator.

Powerful enough to create life;
Sensitive enough to empower a discouraged Senator.

Powerful enough to raise the dead;
Sensitive enough to raise the hopes of a defeated Senator.

What an awesome God You are!!

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote YES on SR 1819, disapproving Executive Reorganization Order No. 39 that would abolish the Kansas Arts Commission. In the legislature we have and are continuing, even in this difficult economy, to approve of funding to support businesses that create and retain jobs. There is a program in Lawrence for at-risk youth that goes by the acronym JAMS – Jobs in the Arts Make Sense. In many ways, our support for the Kansas Arts Commission is supporting jobs, and to me, and many others across the state, Jobs in the Arts Make Sense. — MARCI FRANCISCO

MR. PRESIDENT: Today we make a choice about where to put our treasured tax dollars. To date, we have not produced a recession budget and our revenues suffer daily from a down economy. Now is the time to produce different approaches to solving problems, to utilize our collective creative thinking, and to break out of old models and move eagerly towards new solutions. That is our charge, MR. PRESIDENT, and for this reason I vote No on SR 1819.—JULIA LYNN

FORTY-FOURTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, March 17, 2011, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President John Vratil.
The roll was called with thirty-eight senators present.
Senators Donovan and Wagle were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

They say everybody's Irish
On St. Patrick's Day.
Everyone is wearing green
And there's a parade today.

What St. Patrick's famous for
Is chasing out the snakes,
But what was more important
Was turning sinners into saints.

Actually, You did it, Lord,
But St. Patrick was Your man
Who helped sinners get to know You,
And built churches in the land.

But isn't that just like us, Lord,
To focus on the snakes,
While in the meantime peoples lives
Were being changed, for goodness sake!

We focus on the trivia,
And ignore important things.
We pacify our appetites
And ignore the KING OF KINGS!

Lord, Help us not to spend much time
On what happened to the snakes.

It's like consuming cotton candy
When we could be eating steaks!

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. VICE PRESIDENT: As seemingly the Kansas Senates' most stalwart civil libertarian and as a consistent fiscal conservative, it is my distinct honor to be the SOLITARY vote against HB 2049, intending to ban chemical compounds used as a recreational, euphoria-producing drug with nicknames such as "K-3."

Last year during the 2010 Session, I alone voted against a ban on “K-2” attempting to reason then that the demand for natural, and also now for synthetic, marijuana has not abated over many decades. I explained that a trillion-plus dollar “war on drugs” has been costly; ineffective and has created a “criminal” class of people whose only “crime” was in choosing to ingest a product proven to be safer to the human body than tobacco, alcohol, or many prescription drugs. I attempted to reason then, and now, that we should regulate and tax both this naturally grown crop and synthetic chemical compounds for recreational and/or medicinal uses. We should free our jail and prison beds of possession offenders and, since neither product has been found to be addictive, use those funds to help recovering alcoholics, prescription drug addicts and cigarette smokers to quit their habits.

Last year, “K-2” which, after the hyperbole died down, only fourteen (14) States ended up with a ban. This year, the hype is “K-3”. Next year, “K-?” Mr. Vice-President, why continue to waste the Legislature’s precious and costly time in attempting to prohibit people from the pursuit of ever-evolving relatively benign flights of fancy? There ARE legal, truly dangerous substances which cannot be outlawed found on hardware store shelves that folks might then turn to for euphoria (or “highs”). For the record, I DID vote to ban “bath salts” on a roll call vote amendment to HB 2023 on March 15 of this year. “Bath salts” were amended to this bill (HB 2049 pertaining to “K-3”) as if all chemical substances are all the same, which reasonable people realize is not so.

Today, Kansas Legislative history will once again record that only ONE Senator dared to brave the hypocrisy and to outspokenly support what the majority in this Chamber, I believe, TOO know to be the Truth. I am proud to be that one Senator. –
DAVID HALEY

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-FIFTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Friday, March 18, 2011, 8:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-two senators present.
Senators Brungardt, Donovan, Kelsey, King, Love, Masterson, Steineger and Taddiken were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

What if I come to believe that I have taken the wrong side of an issue. Do I switch sides?
But what will my colleagues think?
Even more important, what will my constituents think?
Just as important, years from now what will my grandchildren think?
More important than that, when I look in the mirror what will I think?
Most important of all, O God, what will You think?

After much soul-searching and prayer, and conferring with others I respect –
If I become convinced that in Your eyes I'm on the wrong side, help me to switch sides regardless of what others think, and even if no one else switches.

In the Name of Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-SIXTH DAY

Senate Chamber, Topeka, Kansas
Monday, March 21, 2011, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present.
Senator Donovan was excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

All of us would like to see
That quality of life
Where healthy children laugh and play
In streets devoid of strife.

Where people have enough to eat
And a roof above their head,
And able bodied people work
To earn their bed and bread.

Where those with disabilities
Receive the care they need,
And no one is prohibited
From trying to succeed.

But we should know by now, O God,
If all of this came true,
It would not assure the happiness
That all of us pursue.

Wealthy people take their lives
And healthy people find
A healthy body does not assure
Joy and peace of mind.

Educated people find
The going can be tough,
And even the unprejudiced
Find it's not enough.

Those of us who've lived a while
Should not find it odd
That fulfillment only comes to those Who find their peace with God.

In the Name of Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1831—

A RESOLUTION in memory of Robert V. Talkington.

WHEREAS, Robert V. Talkington, 81, of Iola, passed away December 26, 2010. A former Kansas legislator, he served in the Senate from 1973 to 1988 and the House of Representatives from 1969 to 1972; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Talkington was born August 23, 1929, near Patrick, Texas, to William H. and Nannie Patrick Talkington. Mr. Talkington graduated from Wilmer-Hutchens High School, near Dallas, Texas. He attended Tyler Junior College, Tyler, Texas, on a football scholarship, and received an associates degree in 1949. He earned his juris doctor from the University of Kansas in 1954; and

WHEREAS, In his 15 years in the Kansas Senate, this big man with a big heart was well known as an effective lawmaker and leader, but was equally renowned for his raucous sense of humor and love for practical jokes. Virtually everyone knew him as "Talk," and he fostered warm, personal relationships with legislators, staff and lobbyists alike. He was generous and thoughtful to those with whom he served. "Talk" served as vice-president of the Senate from 1977 to 1981, majority leader from 1981 to 1985, and Senate president from 1985 to 1989. He was a member of the Capitol Dome Commission which issued a request for submission of sculpture designs to be considered for the top of the dome. The committee members reviewed the submissions and ultimately selected the regal and elegant design of the Kansas Indian statue, Ad Astra, that graces the dome today. "Talk" also left his mark through his dedicated efforts in defining the budgets for the Kansas Regents Universities, the state's transportation network and the state's judicial system; and

WHEREAS, In his private life, Mr. Talkington was an accomplished lawyer, serving as a private attorney in Iola, the county attorney for Allen County, the city attorney for Moran, the city attorney for Gas, and an attorney for Allen County Hospital and Allen County Community College; held numerous leadership posts, serving as a member of the Kansas Board of Regents from 1996 to 1999, including as its chairman from 1997 to 1998, and two terms on the Kansas Turnpike Authority, 1977 to 1985 and 1989 to 1993; and contributed to the University of Kansas, serving on its Greater University Fund, on its board of governors for the School of Law, and as a member of the Williams Educational Fund and Jayhawks for Higher Education; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Talkington has been further recognized for his commitment to public service. In 2002, the U.S. Highway 169 in Allen County was designated the "Senator Robert V. Talkington Highway" in recognition of his years of service to Kansas. In 2005, the Kansas Bar Association honored him with the Distinguished Government Service Award. In 1998, Tyler Junior College honored him with the Outstanding Public Service Award. In 2009, he was inducted into the Tyler Junior College Sports Circle of Honor for his outstanding achievements in athletics, professional activities and community service; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Talkington's marriage to Donna Schmaus spanned 58 years; she died in 2009. They were blessed with five children, Jill, Jacki, Lisa, Jim, and Tom, two children who died in infancy, Jeanne and Donald, and 11 grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Talkington was a great man and a great Jayhawk. He will be remembered for his many significant contributions to the legal profession and his dedicated service to the communities of Iola, Allen county and the state of Kansas, his love of his family; these are truly his legacy: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we extend our deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Robert V. Talkington for the loss of their father and grandfather and gratefully acknowledge the years of public service "Talk" gave to his state and community; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate provide 20 enrolled copies of this resolution to Senator Morris to provide to "Talk's" extended family.

On emergency motion of Senator King SR 1831 was adopted unanimously.

Senator King recognized a former Senate President, Robert V. Talkington, who passed away December 26, 2010. Senator Talkington served the Senate from 1973 to 1988 and House of Representatives from 1969 to 1972. The following family members were introduced: Jill McCaskill, Jacki Chase, Bob Chase, Jim Talkington, Staci Talkington, Will Talkington, Tom Talkington, Sherlyn Talkington, Jack Talkington, Camille Talkington, Lisa Dreasher, John Dreasher, Robbie Dreasher, Camden Dreasher, Fred Shaw, Kay Shaw and Bill Maness who were all acknowledged with a standing ovation.

Senators Taddiken, Abrams, Apple, Bruce, Brungardt, Emler, Francisco, Haley, Hensley, Holland, Kelly, Kelsey, King, Kultala, Longbine, Love, Marshall, Masterson, McGinn, Merrick, Morris, Olson, Ostmeyer, Petersen, Pilcher-Cook, A. Schmidt, V. Schmidt, Schodorf, Steineger, Teichman and Umbarger introduced the following Senate resolution, which was read:

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1832—

A RESOLUTION urging modifications to the National Broadband Plan for the benefit of rural residents of Kansas.

WHEREAS, Residents of this state living in rural areas deserve and expect the same high-quality, affordable communications services that are available to their urban neighbors; and

WHEREAS, Similar to businesses in urban areas, rural businesses, farmers and ranchers compete in the global marketplace and depend on affordable access to robust broadband services to market and sell their products around the world; and

WHEREAS, Children living in rural areas should have the same educational opportunities as their urban counterparts, and high-speed internet access is absolutely necessary to allow these students opportunities for advanced learning through distance education; and

WHEREAS, Residents living in rural areas face unique health care challenges because of the distances that must be traveled to seek basic and advanced medical care, and telemedicine delivered via broadband networks can improve the health of rural residents by reducing the time and travel needed for high-quality health care; and

WHEREAS, Many rural areas encounter significant challenges in pursuing and sustaining economic development plans that bring quality, higher-paying jobs to their communities, and insufficiently robust broadband speeds will further hamper the economic development needs of many rural communities; and

WHEREAS, The United States Department of Agriculture has rightfully placed significant importance on the need for broadband access in rural America to improve quality-of-life and economic development; and

WHEREAS, Communications providers that serve this state's rural areas have worked diligently to ensure that their consumers have access to affordable and reliable broadband services and have utilized the United States Department of Agriculture's Rural Utilities Service loan and grant programs for economic development; and

WHEREAS, Contrary to the progress rural communications providers have had in deploying broadband, the Federal Communications Commission is embarking on a National Broadband Plan that will negatively impact the ability of residents living in rural areas of this state to realize the true benefits of access to robust broadband speeds by limiting support to four megabits per second in rural, high-cost areas of the country, while calling for one hundred million urban homes to have access to broadband speeds at 100 megabits per second by 2020; and

WHEREAS, The National Broadband Plan runs counter to the federal universal service policy which ensures access to communications services at comparable rates regardless of the consumer's location: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we challenge the Federal Communications Commission to make substantive change to the National Broadband Plan so that the plan develops a universal service support mechanism that ensures accountability, promotes stability, provides efficient and effective incentives for broadband network deployment and operation and encourages broadband adoption by keeping broadband service affordable. The plan should also ensure high-quality service by linking funding to satisfying reasonable, but meaningful, carrier of last resort obligations. Consistent with the universal service principles in federal law, the plan should ensure that rural and urban consumers pay reasonably comparable rates for reasonably comparable services by providing adequate support in high-cost areas; and

Be it further resolved: That we urge the members of the Kansas Congressional Delegation to work with the Federal Communications Commission to ensure that commissioners understand the importance of robust broadband deployment to rural Kansas and how the current draft of the National Broadband Plan needs to be dramatically altered to ensure quality broadband service availability throughout this state; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate be directed to provide an enrolled copy of this resolution to the commissioners of the Federal Communications Commission, the members of the Kansas Congressional Delegation and the Governor.

On emergency motion of Senator Taddiken SR 1832 was adopted unanimously.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: Prior to amending SB 139 into HB 2119, HB 2119 wasn't a bad bill.

However, with the amendment, it does much the same as the original SB 139.

In an age of government transparency, for us to enable any part of government, including councils and committees, to not be transparent in their dealings, is the wrong direction for an open transparent government.

This bill, HB 2119 with the amended SB 139, puts the inquiries, reports and every piece of gathered information behind a wall that does not allow it to be revealed even with a court subpoena. That is the wrong direction for open transparent government. –

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-SEVENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, March 22, 2011, 9:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present.
Senator Donovan was excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Some people seem to think
You don't approve of laughter.
They were crying when delivered,
And they've been frowning ever after.

These same people seem to think
That humor is a sin.
Especially when praying
It's blasphemy to grin!

But I have found that when I suffer
From a sour disposition,
A little humor in my praying
Puts the blues into remission.

And You have done Your part, O God,
To make the matter even clearer.
All I have to do is take

(b) Recoupment of any disputed funds or repayment of funds to the entity by the pharmacy, if permitted pursuant to contracts, shall occur, to the extent demonstrated or documented in the pharmacy audit findings, after final internal disposition of the audit including the appeals process. If the identified discrepancy for an individual audit exceeds $20,000, any future payments to the pharmacy may be withheld pending finalization of the audit. Unless otherwise required by the federal or state law, any audit information may not be shared. Auditors shall only have access to previous audit reports on a particular pharmacy conducted by that same entity.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote "AYE" in support of the ruling of the chairman of the committee of the whole that the amendment offered (paraphrased: Freedom from Federal Healthcare Act) is germane to the underlying bill HB 2182 (Re: unused medications and mail service pharmacies).

Although personally, I do not see the link that would marry these two topics into one cohesive bill, it has been the long standing practice of this chamber to defer to the ruling of the chair who has ascended to this hoary post.

I respect this precedent. And defer, in faith, to the assumed impartiality as to the merit of the issue to he who bears the honor for the day to lead us. – DAVID HALEY

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-EIGHTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, March 23, 2011, 9:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President John Vratil.
The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present.
Senator Donovan was excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Yesterday there were a whole lot of children touring the State House. They should remind us that children are affected by what we say and what we do.

When we're tempted to deceive,
And teetering on the brink;
We should stop and ask ourselves,
“What will the children think?”

When we know we've past our limit,
And they say, “Just one more drink.”
We should stop and ask ourselves,
“What will the children think?”

When we need to take a stand,
And our courage starts to shrink;
We should stop and ask ourselves,
“What will the children think?”

When we start to break a promise
And dismiss it with a wink:
We should stop and ask ourselves,
“What will the children think?”

Even more important, Lord,
When our faith begins to shrink,
We should stop and ask ourselves,
“What will my Savior think?”

In the name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. VICE PRESIDENT: I vote "NO" on HB 2067. Although there are some good elements in this bill, the quantum shift in requiring every registered voter to show a valid state issued photo I.D. is a recipe, by design, to disenfranchise fragile legal voters from exercising their constitutional right to vote.

This chilling effect on our democracy is completely unnecessary. There is no, repeat no, substantial evidence of rampant voting fraud in the state of Kansas. None. Period. A photo ID requirement will stifle participation in our fragile democracy.

Voter apathy is high. Turnout is low. Government should be finding ways to get off of the backs of people not hinder legal voters more. Since we are the government, we should be getting and encouraging more people to vote and not fewer as this bill will result in doing.

Fragile voters will be "caged" and, thereby, disenfranchised from their ease in voting by this bill. There will be problems and a reduction in our proud democracy, by design, with its implementation. – DAVID HALEY

Senators Faust-Goudeau and Reitz request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Haley on HB 2067.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. VICE PRESIDENT: I vote NO on HB 2147. I am concerned we are allowing for increased capacity for these homes whose current standards only require meeting the plans for care, and do not address requirements for specialized training for the staff. If these home operators are offering nursing home levels of care, the administrators should be licensed and the staff caring for the residents should have disease specific training. – MARCI FRANCISCO

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. VICE PRESIDENT: This is an impressive list of industry partners who have lent their support for this legislation. I applaud the efforts of those who created this legislation. However, I have concerns regarding the timing of this effort. I cannot support an additional $195 million in debt which impacts all Kansas taxpayers and their children. Mr. Vice President, this year we are struggling to balance our current state budget and are making cuts to most every program. In addition, I am not convinced that this effort will solve the engineering “brain drain” or achieve the much needed return on taxpayers $195 million dollar investment – JULIA LYNN

Senator Abrams requests the record to show he concurs with the “Explanation of Vote” offered by Senator Lynn on HB 2149.

MR. VICE PRESIDENT: I vote No on HB 2149. The goal of creating and educating more engineers is laudable. Who could be against it? I vote no based on the method to gain the goal.

1. The Kansas Board of Regents has enough self executing authority to set this goal and these policies, except for the creation of funds with State General Fund.
2. I object to the $195 million in additional bonding authority to build more buildings, when they can't maintain the campuses and buildings they already have. The Board of Regents has been crying for four years about their $600 million of deferred maintenance needs. Adding more buildings to their inventory worsens this problem.
3. Most importantly, HB 2149 violates the higher education reform enacted in 1999. SB 345 was an attempt to improve coordination amongst the Board of Regents and Community Colleges. The goal was to eliminate duplicative programs, streamline, and focus resources. The methodology of HB 2149 reverses these reforms and incentives duplication. – CHRIS STEINEGER

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. VICE PRESIDENT: I vote “NO” on HB 2182, as amended by the Committee of the Whole. I support the underlying bill but wholly oppose the amendment regarding the so-called freedom from Healthcare Act, which is a feckless, meaningless attempt to decouple Kansas from provisions of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, signed into law exactly one year ago today (nicknamed “Obamacare”).

We should, as a mature, responsible legislature with little time or taxpayer dollars, stop wasting our limited session on political posturing, especially on a federal program which will potentially benefit all Kansans; all Americans.

Grow up; move forward colleagues.....ahead!

The U.S. Supreme Court will ultimately render a verdict affirming, or not, the constitutionality of the Healthcare Act. I believe we, who desire a healthier, more financially secure America, will prevail. And will then, unobstructed finally, go to work....for America.

So when Obamacare is working well for the majority of this country, please do yourself two favors, O.K.?

First: Continue to give credit, as Obamacare, to this Presidential Administration and to the visionary, brave, men and women of the last Congress for its passage, and

Second: “What will the children think?” Our chaplain, Fred Holloman asked us to consider during this morning's senate prayer, so when Obamacare is working and the stories of a healthier and more financially secure constituency abound, try not to hang your heads in shame when your children and grandchildren ask you: “Tell me why, again were you so against healthcare benefits...??” O.K.? – DAVID HALEY

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND SENATE RESOLUTIONS

Senators Kultala, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Huntington, Kelly, Lynn, McGinn, Pilcher-Cook, V. Schmidt, Schodorf, Teichman and Wagle introduced the following Senate resolution, which was read:

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1834—

A RESOLUTION recognizing March as National Women's History Month.

WHEREAS, Women of every race, class and ethnic background have made historic contributions to the growth and strength of Kansas and the United States in countless recorded and unrecorded ways; and

WHEREAS, Before the 1970's, women's history was largely missing from the public consciousness. To counter that trend, the education task force of the Sonoma County, California commission on the status of women initiated a women's history week celebration in 1978; and

WHEREAS, In 1987, the national women's history project petitioned congress to expand the celebration to the entire month of March. Since then, the national women's history month resolution has been approved every year with bipartisan support in both the United States house and senate; and

WHEREAS, Kansas has a unique and proud history of women who have led the way for the continued progress and strength of Kansas and the United States. Among these great Kansans are Mabel Chase, the first woman sheriff in the United States, Amelia Earhart, the first woman pilot to fly solo across the Atlantic Ocean, Georgia Neese

Clark Gray, the first woman treasurer of the United States, Peggy Hull, the first woman to become an official war reporter, Hattie McDaniel, the first African American to receive an academy award, Carry Nation, the famed prohibitionist, Susanna Madora Salter, the first woman mayor in the United States and Lucy Hobbs Taylor, the first female dentist in the United States: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: We honor the significant contributions women have made to the history, strength and future of Kansas and the United States by recognizing March as National Women's History Month; and

The recording shall include the advice of rights. The recording shall not end until the interrogation is concluded. EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. VICE PRESIDENT: I vote “NO” on SB 159. Under duress (that is, “sign a waiver consenting to be searched at all times or remain in prison”), an inmate waives their fourth and fifth amendment constitutional rights. (Prohibiting illegal search and seizures; Right against self-incrimination.) Can this be legal?

And is a search-of-person limited to the body of that person or expansive to include the car or the house? It is wrong to provide this foundation for legitimized harassment by stop-and-frisks done only because of parolee status. Imagine standing around at a function with associates and some random officer walks up and, with the force of this law, embarrasses the parolee for no reason. We should allow some modicum of respect of All people; irrespective of their past transgression(s). – DAVID HALEY

MR. VICE PRESIDENT: I vote “NO” on HB 2035 for a number of reasons. This bill makes an extraordinary number of changes to our existing statutes: it changes the definition of viable to remove the reference to the application of extraordinary measures, it calls for providing a woman with information that “the abortion will terminate the life of a whole, separate, unique, living human being” whether or not the physician has advised that that is the case, by changing notification to consent, it changes the access that minors may have to obtaining an abortion, it removes the existing civil immunity for physicians who comply with the statutes, and the public reporting detailing the number and nature of judicial bypass waivers may interfere with the independence of the judiciary. Most importantly this bill does nothing to prevent unintended pregnancies or show compassion for women who find themselves in extraordinarily difficult situations. I would hope that in the future we can find a more positive direction and truly move the state forward in expanding access to neonatal health care and reducing infant mortality. – MARCI FRANCISCO

Senators Faust-Goudeau, Haley, Hensley, Kultala and Teichman request the record to show they concur with the “Explanation of Vote” offered by Senator Francisco on HB 2035.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. VICE PRESIDENT: I vote “NO” on HB 2218. I want our statutes to be compassionate, both to unborn children and to their mothers and families. I had hoped that the body might consider adopting the amendment to this bill that would, for me, more accurately identify an unborn child as one possessing a cerebral cortex and truly capable of pain. Without that change, I cannot support this bill. – MARCI FRANCISCO

Senators Faust-Goudeau, Hensley, Kelly, Kultala and Owens request the record to show they concur with the “Explanation of Vote” offered by Senator Francisco on HB 2118.

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-NINTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, March 28, 2011, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-six senators present.
Senators Bruce, Donovan, Haley and Olson were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Some seem to think that Sunday
Is the only day God's alive,
And church the only place
In which You can survive.

Some say if You escape,
They will stop You at the door.
Since government and God
Cannot be friendly anymore.

But we need You at the State House,
And we need You every day;
Church is not the only place
Where we need to pray.

We need You in the chambers,
We need You in the halls;
We need You lots of places;
Outside the church's walls.

We need You in the office,
And we need You in committees;
We need You when we're getting down
To the nitty-gritty.

We're thankful, Lord, You're not confined
 To some sanctuary;
 You're always near to help us fight
 Our daily adversary.

We thank You in the Name of Jesus Christ. AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

The following bill and concurrent resolution were introduced and read by title:

SB 245, AN ACT concerning state expenditures; relating to allotments; amending K.S.A. 75-3722 and K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 72-6410, 75-2263, 79-2959, 79-2964, 79-3425i and 82a-953a and repealing the existing sections; also repealing K.S.A. 75-6704, by Committee on Federal and State Affairs.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 1607—

By Committee on Federal and State Affairs

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION outlining the principles of the State of Kansas regarding immigration reform policies.

WHEREAS, Failure to update our federal immigration system separates Kansas families, destabilizes Kansas communities, and creates uncertainty, inefficiency and an uneven playing field for Kansas businesses and economy; and

WHEREAS, The forced separation of working parents from their children weakens families and damages society; and

WHEREAS, Failure to address the system where it can be fixed – at the federal level – has left states searching for solutions in ways that have been costly and divisive: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas, the Senate concurring therein: That the Legislature recommends the following basic principles as a guide for state and federal policy on immigration:

1. Immigration is a federal policy issue between the United States government and other countries – not Kansas and other countries. The Legislature urges the Kansas congressional delegation to take action to create a workable immigration system that upholds our values and moves us forward; and

2. the Legislature respects the rule of law and supports law enforcement's professional judgment and discretion. Local law enforcement resources should focus on criminal activities, not civil violations of federal code; and

3. strong families are the foundation of successful communities. The Legislature opposes policies that unnecessarily separate families. The Legislature champions policies that support families and improve the health, education and well-being of all Kansas children; and

4. the Legislature acknowledges the important economic role immigrant Kansans play as workers, entrepreneurs and taxpayers. The immigration policies of Kansas must affirm its reputation as a welcoming and business friendly state; and

5. immigration is an important part of our past and our future. As in the past, immigrants are integrated into communities across Kansas. We must adopt a humane approach to this reality, reflecting our values, history and spirit of inclusion. The way we treat immigrants will say more about us as a society and less about our immigrant neighbors. Kansas should always be a place that welcomes people of goodwill. Our communities and our future will be best served by doing so.

Be it further resolved: That the Legislature urgently calls upon the Kansas congressional delegation and the United States Congress to enact thorough, common sense, workable and humane reforms that reflect the realities of our country's workforce needs and represents America at its best.

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to the President of the United States, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the President of the United States Senate and each member of the Kansas congressional delegation.

Journal of the Senate

FIFTIETH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, March 29, 2011, 9:30 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present.
Senator Donovan was excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Remind us of the surprising number of ways in which You bless us...
When someone else takes first place
And I join the celebration;
Even though I'm not the winner
You send me congratulations!

When someone's hurt me deeply,
But I manage to forgive;
I can almost hear You saying,
"Now you're learning how to live."

When I cannot understand
Why folks get mad at me;
When I treat them kindly
I know I'm pleasing Thee.

When others raise their voices
And tempers start to flare;
When I can keep my cool, O God,
I sense You smiling there.

When my job has been completed,
And I've really done my best,
I'll let others take the credit,
But I'm the one You bless.

When all the world is screaming,
"We're going to make them pay!"
Thank You, Lord, for teaching us
There is a better way.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote “No” on Sub SB 234. While this budget proposal valiantly works to stave off harmful cuts to state employee pay, special education and mental health services, it also inexorably leads us down the path of slowly but surely dismantling our K-12 public education system. With the state renegeing on its commitment to education, we will end up pitting poor school districts against more affluent ones. Kansas children, along with our state’s economy, will suffer as a result. – TOM HOLLAND

MR. PRESIDENT: I respect the hard work of the Senate Ways and Means Committee, and believe the budget they have drafted is a reasonable approach to shore up many essential state services. I applaud the committee for funding developmental disabilities and community mental health programs, among others. The latter directly impacts our veterans returning from the war.

Still, this budget does not go far enough to support our state’s biggest obligation – education. By cutting more than $225 from base per pupil aid in the next two years, we will force school districts to lay off teachers and increase class sizes. For the 36th Senate District, which includes 10 rural counties in North Central Kansas, a lack of education funding will lead to more school closings and massive property tax increases. Now what does this mean to us?

This administration is putting effort and investment into revitalizing rural Kansas. We absolutely want to partner in that effort. The long pole in that tent is available quality education. If we are truly going to invest in rural Kansas, we must ensure that quality education is available to every rural child – and not at a 40 mile bus ride away.

As a career Army officer, I have spent decades assessing risk for future endeavors. This budget is simply too risky for rural schools, teachers and students. I vote no on this bill, Sub SB 234. – ALLEN C. SCHMIDT

Journal of the Senate

FIFTY-FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, March 30, 2011, 9:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President John Vratil.
The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present.
Senator Donovan was excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Whenever one of the Kansas universities makes the “final four”, I usually talk to You about something which I'm sure is not on your agenda.

But neither KU and KState made the final four this year...however Wichita State has made it to the championship game in the N.I.T.

Last year (or the year before) Senator McGinn called my attention to how I omitted any reference to the Shockers, and I have tried to make sure I never do that again!

So, Lord, please bear with me
As I share, with You my attempt
To never, ever allow them
In my prayer to be exempt.

Everyone in Wichita
And the rest of Kansas, too,
Now know that the Shockers
Are in the N.I.T. final two.

So although I know that basketball
On Your agenda does not rate;
As long as one team has to win,
Why not Wichita State?!

Again trusting in Your sense of humor, Lord, I pray in the Name of Your Son, Jesus Christ. AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

WHEREAS, in compliance with NRRRA, no State other than the Home State of an insured may require any Premium Tax payment for Non-Admitted Insurance; and no State other than an insured's Home State may require a Surplus Lines Broker to be licensed in order to sell, solicit, or negotiate Non-Admitted Insurance with respect to such insured;

WHEREAS, the NRRRA intends that the States may enter into a compact or otherwise establish procedures to allocate among the States the premium taxes paid to an insured's Home State; and that each State adopt nationwide uniform requirements, forms, and procedures, such as an interstate compact, that provide for the reporting, payment, collection, and allocation of premium taxes for Non-Admitted Insurance;

WHEREAS, after the expiration of the two-year period beginning on the date of the enactment of the NRRRA, a State may not collect any fees relating to licensing of an individual or entity as a Surplus Lines Licensee in the State unless the State has in effect at such time laws or regulations that provide for participation by the State in the national insurance producer database of the NAIC, or any other equivalent uniform national database, for the licensure of Surplus Lines Licensees and the renewal of such licenses;

WHEREAS, a need exists for a system of regulation that will provide for Surplus Lines Insurance to be placed with reputable and financially sound Non-Admitted Insurers, and that will permit orderly access to Surplus Lines Insurance in this state and encourage insurers to make new and innovative types of insurance available to consumers in this state;

WHEREAS, protecting the revenue of this state and other Compacting States may be accomplished by facilitating the payment and collection of Premium Tax on Non-Admitted Insurance and providing for allocation of Premium Tax for Non-Admitted Insurance of Multi-State Risks among the States in accordance with Uniform Allocation Formulas;

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event the Commission exercises its rulemaking authority in a manner that is beyond the scope of the purposes of this Act, or the powers granted hereunder, then such an action by the Commission shall be invalid and have no force or effect.

2. Rulemaking Procedure.—Rules shall be made pursuant to a rulemaking process that substantially conforms to the "Model State Administrative Procedure Act," of 1981 Act, Uniform Laws Annotated, Vol. 15, p.1 (2000) as amended, as may be appropriate to the operations of the Commission.

3. Effective Date — All Rules and amendments, thereto, shall become effective as of the date specified in each Rule, operating procedure or amendment.

4. Not later than thirty (30) days after a Rule is promulgated, any person may file a petition for judicial review of the Rule; provided that the filing of such a petition shall not stay or otherwise prevent the Rule from becoming effective unless the court finds that the Petitioner has a substantial likelihood of success. The court shall give deference to the actions of the Commission consistent with applicable law and shall not find the Rule to be unlawful if the Rule represents a reasonable exercise of the Commission's authority.

ARTICLE IX

Commission Records and Enforcement

1. The Commission shall promulgate Rules establishing conditions and procedures for public inspection and copying of its information and official records, except such information and records involving the privacy of individuals, insurers, insureds or Surplus Lines Licensee trade secrets. State Transaction Documentation and Clearinghouse Transaction Data collected by the Clearinghouse shall be used for only those purposes expressed in or reasonably implied under the provisions of this Compact and the Commission shall afford this data the broadest protections as permitted by any applicable law for proprietary information, trade secrets or personal data. The

2. Except as to privileged records, data and information, the laws of any Compacting State pertaining to confidentiality or nondisclosure shall not relieve any Compacting State Member of the duty to disclose any relevant records, data or information to the Commission; provided that disclosure to the Commission shall not be deemed to waive or otherwise affect any confidentiality requirement, and further provided that, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, the Commission shall not be subject to the Compacting State's laws pertaining to confidentiality and nondisclosure with respect to records, data and information in its possession. Confidential information of the Commission shall remain confidential after such information is provided to any Member, and the Commission shall maintain the confidentiality of any information provided by a member that is confidential under that Member's State Law.

3. The Commission shall monitor Compacting States for compliance with duly adopted Bylaws and Rules. 3. Any alternative dispute resolution procedures shall be utilized in circumstances where a dispute arises as to which State constitutes the Home State.

ARTICLE XI

Review of Commission Decisions

Regarding Commission decisions:

1. Except as necessary for promulgating Rules to fulfill the purposes of this Compact, the Commission shall not have authority to otherwise regulate insurance in the Compacting States.

2. Not later than thirty (30) days after the Commission has given notice of any Rule or Allocation Formula, any third party filer or Compacting State may appeal the determination to a review panel appointed by the Commission. The Commission shall promulgate Rules to establish procedures for appointing such review panels and provide for notice and hearing. An allegation that the Commission, in making compliance or tax determinations acted arbitrarily, capriciously, or in a manner that is an abuse of discretion or otherwise not in accordance with the law, is subject to judicial review in accordance with Article III, Section 6.

3. The Commission shall have authority to monitor, review and reconsider Commission decisions upon a finding that the determinations or allocations do not meet the relevant Rule. Where appropriate, the Commission may withdraw or modify its determination or allocation after proper notice and hearing, subject to the appeal process in Section 2 above.

ARTICLE XII

5. The Commission shall keep complete and accurate accounts of all its internal receipts, including grants and donations, and disbursements for all funds under its control. The internal financial accounts of the Commission shall be subject to the accounting procedures established under its Bylaws. The financial accounts and reports including the system of internal controls and procedures of the Commission shall be audited annually by an independent certified public accountant. Upon the determination of the Commission, but not less frequently than every three (3) years, the review of the independent auditor shall include a management and performance audit of the Commission. The Commission shall make an annual report to the Governor and legislature of the Compacting States, which shall include a report of the independent audit. The Commission's internal accounts shall not be confidential and such materials may be shared with the Commissioner, the controller, or the stamping office of any Compacting State upon request provided, however, that any work papers related to any internal or independent audit and any information regarding the privacy of individuals, and licensees' and insurers' proprietary information, including trade secrets, shall remain confidential.

6. No Compacting State shall have any claim to or ownership of any property held by or vested in the Commission or to any Commission funds held pursuant to the provisions of this Compact.

7. The Commission shall not make any political contributions to candidates for elected office, elected officials, political parties nor political action committees. The Commission shall not engage in lobbying except with respect to changes to this

Compact.

ARTICLE XIII

Compacting States, Effective Date and Amendment

1. Any State is eligible to become a Compacting State.
2. The Compact shall become effective and binding upon legislative enactment of the Compact into law by two (2) Compacting States, provided the Commission shall become effective for purposes of adopting Rules, and creating the Clearinghouse when there are a total of ten (10) Compacting States and Contracting States or, alternatively, when there are Compacting States and Contracting States representing greater than forty percent (40%) of the Surplus Lines Insurance premium volume based on records of the percentage of Surplus Lines Insurance premium set forth in Appendix A hereto. Thereafter, it shall become effective and binding as to any other Compacting State upon enactment of the Compact into law by that State. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Clearinghouse operations and the duty to report Clearinghouse Transaction Data shall begin on the first January 1st or July 1st following the first anniversary of the Commission effective date. For States which join the Compact subsequent to the effective date, a start date for reporting Clearinghouse Transaction Data shall be set by the Commission provided Surplus Lines Licensees and all other interested parties receive not less than 90 days advance notice.
3. Amendments to the Compact may be proposed by the Commission for enactment by the Compacting States. No amendment shall become effective and binding upon the Commission and the Compacting States unless and until all Compacting States enact the amendment into law.

ARTICLE XIV

Withdrawal, Default and Termination

1. Withdrawal
 - a. Once effective, the Compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each and every Compacting State, provided that a Compacting State may withdraw from the Compact ("Withdrawing State") by enacting a statute specifically repealing the statute which enacted the Compact into law.
 - b. The effective date of withdrawal is the effective date of the repealing statute. However, the withdrawal shall not apply to any tax or compliance determinations approved on the date the repealing statute becomes effective, except by mutual agreement of the Commission and the Withdrawing State unless the approval is rescinded by the Commission.
 - c. The Member of the Withdrawing State shall immediately notify the Executive Committee of the Commission in writing upon the introduction of legislation repealing this Compact in the Withdrawing State.
 - d. The Commission shall notify the other Compacting States of the introduction of such legislation within ten (10) days after its receipt of notice thereof.
 - e. The Withdrawing State is responsible for all obligations, duties and liabilities incurred through the effective date of withdrawal, including any obligations, the performance of which extend beyond the effective date of withdrawal. To the extent those obligations may have been released or relinquished by mutual agreement of the Commission and the Withdrawing State, the Commission's determinations prior to the effective date of withdrawal shall continue to be effective and be given full force and effect in the Withdrawing State, unless formally rescinded by the Commission.

f. Reinstatement following withdrawal of any Compacting State shall occur upon the effective date of the Withdrawing State reenacting the Compact.

2. Default

a. If the Commission determines that any Compacting State has at anytime defaulted ("Defaulting State") in the performance of any of its obligations or responsibilities under this Compact, the Bylaws or duly promulgated Rules then after notice and hearing as set forth in the Bylaws, all rights, privileges and benefits conferred by this Compact on the Defaulting State shall be suspended from the effective date of default as fixed by the Commission. The grounds for default include, but are not limited to, failure of a Compacting State to perform its obligations or responsibilities, and any other grounds designated in Commission Rules. The Commission shall immediately notify the Defaulting State in writing of the Defaulting State's suspension pending a cure of the default. The Commission shall stipulate the conditions and the time period within which the Defaulting State must cure its default. If the Defaulting State fails to cure the default within the time period specified by the Commission, the Defaulting State shall be terminated from the Compact and all rights, privileges and benefits conferred by this Compact shall be terminated from the effective date of termination.

b. Decisions of the Commission that are issued on the effective date of termination shall remain in force in the Defaulting State in the same manner as if the Defaulting State had withdrawn voluntarily pursuant to Section 1 of this Article.

c. Reinstatement following termination of any Compacting State requires a reenactment of the Compact.

3. Dissolution of Compact

a. The Compact dissolves effective upon the date of the withdrawal or default of the Compacting State which reduces membership in the Compact to one Compacting State.

b. Upon the dissolution of this Compact, the Compact becomes null and void and shall have no further force or effect, and the business and affairs of the Commission shall be wound up and any surplus funds shall be distributed in accordance with the Rules and Bylaws.

Severability and Construction

2. The provisions of this Compact shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purposes.

3. Throughout this Compact the use of the singular shall include the plural and vice-versa.

4. The headings and captions of articles, sections and sub-sections used in this Compact are for convenience only and shall be ignored in construing the substantive provisions of this Compact.

ARTICLE XVI

1. Other Laws

a. Nothing herein prevents the enforcement of any other law of a Compacting State except as provided in Paragraph b. of this section.

b. Decisions of the Commission, and any Rules, and any other requirements of the Commission shall constitute the exclusive Rule, or determination applicable to the Compacting States. Any law or regulation regarding Non-Admitted Insurance of Multi-State Risks that is contrary to Rules of the Commission, is preempted with respect to the following:

This provision may be implemented by Rule at the discretion of the Commission.

d. In the event any provision of this Compact exceeds the constitutional limits imposed on the legislature of any Compacting State, the obligations, duties, powers or jurisdiction sought to be conferred by that provision upon the Commission shall be ineffective as to that State and those obligations duties, powers or jurisdiction shall remain in the Compacting State and shall be exercised by the agency thereof to which those obligations, duties, powers or jurisdiction are delegated by law in effect at the time this Compact becomes effective.

New Sec. 6. The commissioner of insurance shall represent this state on the surplus lines insurance multi-state compliance compact.

New Sec. 7. The member representing this state on the surplus lines insurance multi-state compliance compact may be represented thereon by an alternate designated by the commissioner of insurance. Any such alternate shall be an assistant commissioner or a division director of the insurance department.

Sec. 8. K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 40-246b is hereby amended to read as follows: 40-246b. ~~The (a) Upon receipt of a proper application, the commissioner of insurance may issue to any duly licensed resident agent of this state, who has been licensed as a fire or casualty, or both, resident agent in this or any other state or combination thereof, for three consecutive years immediately prior to application for the type of license herein prescribed, upon proper application, an excess coverage license to negotiate an excess lines coverage license to any licensed property and casualty agent of this state or any other state. Any agent so licensed may negotiate for insureds whose home state is this state, the types of contracts of fire insurance enumerated in K.S.A. 40-901, and amendments thereto, and the type of casualty insurance contracts enumerated in K.S.A. 40-1102, and amendments thereto, or reinsurance, or to place risks, or to effect insurance or reinsurance for persons or corporations other than such agent, with insurers not authorized to do business in this state. An agent, as defined in K.S.A. 40-241e-2010 Supp. 40-4902, and amendments thereto, may place the kind or kinds of business specified in this act for which such agent is licensed pursuant to K.S.A. 40-240 and 40-241-2010 Supp. 40-4903 and subsection (d) of 40-4906, and amendments thereto, with an insurer not authorized to do business in this state by placing such business with a person licensed pursuant to the provisions of this act and may share in the applicable commissions on such business. Before any such license shall be issued, the applicant shall submit proper application on a form prescribed by the commissioner, which application shall be accompanied by a fee of $50. Such license shall be renewable each year on May 1, upon the payment of a $50 fee. Excess lines agents licensed by the department on the effective date of this act shall be exempt from the experience requirement.~~

(b) The agent so licensed shall on or before March 1 of each year, file with the insurance department of this state, a sworn affidavit or statement to the effect that, after diligent effort, such agent has been unable to secure the amount of insurance required to protect the property, person, or firm described in such agent's affidavit or statement from loss or damage in regularly admitted companies during the preceding year. Mere rate differential shall not be grounds for placing a particular risk in a nonadmitted carrier when an admitted carrier would accept such risk at a different rate. The licensed excess coverage agent must, prior to placing insurance with an insurer not authorized to do business in this state, obtain the written consent of the prospective named insured and provide such insured the following information in a form promulgated by the commissioner:

~~(a)~~-(1) A statement that the coverage will be obtained from an insurer not authorized to do business in this state;

~~(b)~~-(2) a statement that the insurer's name appears on the list of companies maintained by the commissioner pursuant to K.S.A. 40-246e, and amendments thereto;

~~(c)~~ (3) a notice that the insurer's financial condition, policy forms, rates and trade practices are not subject to the review or jurisdiction of the commissioner;

~~(d)~~ (4) a statement that the protection of the guaranty associations is not afforded to policyholders of the insurer; and

~~(e)~~ (5) a statement or notice with respect to any other information deemed necessary by the commissioner pertinent to insuring with an insurer not authorized to do business in this state.

(c) In the event the insured desires that coverage be bound with an insurer not admitted to this state and it is not possible to obtain the written consent of the insured prior to binding the coverage, the excess lines agent may bind the coverage after advising the insured of the information set out above and shall obtain written confirmation that the insured desires that coverage be placed with an insurer not admitted to this state within 30 days after binding coverage.

(d) When business comes to a licensed excess lines agent in which this state is the home state for placement with an insurer not authorized to do business in this state from an agent not licensed as an excess lines agent, it shall be the responsibility of the licensed excess lines agent to ascertain that the insured has been provided the preceding information and has consented to being insured with an insurer not authorized to do business in this state. Each excess lines agent shall keep a separate record book in such agent's office showing the transactions of fire and casualty insurance and reinsurance placed in companies not authorized to do business in this state, the amount of gross premiums charged thereon, the insurer ~~in which~~ with which the policy was placed, the date, term and number of the policy, the location and nature of the risk, the name of the ~~assured~~ insured and such other information as the commissioner may require and such record shall be available at all times for inspection by the commissioner of insurance or the commissioner's authorized representatives. The commissioner may revoke or suspend any license issued pursuant to the provisions of this act in the same manner and for the same reasons prescribed by K.S.A. ~~40-242~~ 2010 Supp. 40-4909, and amendments thereto.

Any policy issued under the provisions of this statute shall have stamped or endorsed in a prominent manner thereon, the following: This policy is issued by an insurer not authorized to do business in Kansas and, as such, the form, financial condition and rates are not subject to review by the commissioner of insurance and the insured is not protected by any guaranty fund.

If business is placed with a nonadmitted company that is subsequently determined to be insolvent, the excess lines agent placing such business with such company is relieved of any responsibility to the insured as it relates to such insolvency, if the excess lines agent has satisfactorily complied with all requirements of this section pertaining to notification of the insured, has properly obtained the written consent of the insured and has used due diligence in selecting the insurer. It shall be presumed that due diligence was used in selecting the insurer if such insurer was on the list compiled pursuant to K.S.A. 40-246e, and amendments thereto, at the time coverage first became effective.

Sec. 9. K.S.A. 40-246c is hereby amended to read as follows: 40-246c. ~~Each licensed agent shall file with the commissioner on or before March 1 of each year a statement on a form prescribed by the commissioner, accounting for the gross premiums upon all policies written on risks situated in this state up to January 1 in each year for the year next preceding and the licensee shall transmit to the commissioner, with such affidavit or statement, a sum equal to 6% of the gross premiums upon all policies procured by such agent on risks situated in this state written under the provisions of this act. Any individual placing a policy with an insurer not authorized to do business in this state on a risk domiciled in a state other than this state, but also covering a risk or location in Kansas, shall file with the commissioner a statement in the form prescribed by the commissioner, describing the risk and shall pay to the commissioner a sum equal to 6% of the portion of the premium applicable to the risk located in Kansas within 120 days after writing the risk:~~

(a) On March 1 of each year, each licensed agent shall collect and pay to the commissioner a sum based on the total gross premiums charged, less any return premiums, for surplus lines insurance provided by the licensee pursuant to the license. Where the insurance covers properties, risks or exposures located or to be performed both in and out of this state, the sum payable shall be computed based on:

(1) An amount equal to 6% of that portion of the gross premiums allocated to this state; plus

Journal of the Senate

FIFTY-SECOND DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, March 31, 2011, 9:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-seven senators present.
Senators Donovan, McGinn and Taddiken were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

I am honored to be a Kansas Senator.
But sometimes the Senate makes me feel like paraphrasing the 23rd Psalm.

The Senate is my shepherd, I want much more.
It maketh me to lie down in exhaustion.
It leadeth me by General Orders.
It restoreth my confusion.
It leadeth me in the path of multiple committee meetings, for fatigue's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of frustration, I will fear no relief, the Senate offers none.
Its two-thirds majority vote sometimes surprises me.
It prepareth legislation before me in the presence of disappointment.
It anointeth my head with statistics.
My calendar runneth over.
Surely reporters and lobbyists will follow me all the days of my term,
Even if I dwell in the House of the Senate forever.

Although I rarely feel this way, Lord, I am very grateful that You are my real Shepherd.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION urging the President of the United States of America and members of the United States Congress not to authorize more than a 7% Community Services Block Grant program budget reduction for federal fiscal years 2011 and 2012.

WHEREAS, The Kansas legislature supports the positive impacts of the Community Services Block Grant program; and

WHEREAS, Kansas has eight community action agencies that employ nearly 900 Kansans and which helped 1,322 people attain or retain meaningful employment in 2010; and

WHEREAS, Each community action agency is governed by a community-based volunteer board of directors consisting of elected officials, private sector representatives and low-income individuals; and

WHEREAS, In 2010, more than 76,899 individuals in Kansas (over 20,109 households) were helped in their fight for economic stability through services supported by the Federal community service block grant program; and

WHEREAS, More than 81% of the families receiving community action services in Kansas have household incomes at or below 125% of the Federal poverty level ($23,163 annually for a family of three); and

WHEREAS, Less than 8.5% of those served by Kansas' eight community action agencies have a two or four-year college degree; and

WHEREAS, More than 74% of the persons served by the eight community action agencies are employed or are receiving social security as their source of income; and

WHEREAS, Federal funding for the eight community action agencies helps generate $6,347,446 in local and state funding, and $1,301,670 in private funds; and

WHEREAS, Community Services Block Grant program funding for Kansas' eight community action agencies helps generate $13,776,916 in in-kind goods and services and donated items; and

WHEREAS, Kansas' community action agencies receive $5,004,000 in community services block grant program funds to operate community-based services and those funds are the necessary "glue" that enables the eight community action agencies to administer otherwise inaccessible private, state and federally funded programs; and

WHEREAS, President Obama has proposed a 50% reduction of the Community Services Block Grant program funding and to make the remaining funds competitive instead of continuing the current allocation formula that brings stability to Kansas' community and economic development initiatives; and

WHEREAS, The United States House of Representatives propose to eliminate Community Services Block Grant program funding for the remainder of the current Federal fiscal year; and

WHEREAS, The Kansas legislature is supportive of Congress finding effective ways to reduce the federal deficit while protecting the current and future economic security of all Kansans: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas, the House of Representatives concurring therein: That the legislature urges the President and the members of the United States Congress not to reduce Community Services Block Grant program funding for federal fiscal years 2011 and 2012 beyond 7% of 2010 funding; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of State be directed to send enrolled copies of this resolution to the President and Secretary of the United States Senate, the Speaker and Clerk of the United States House of Representatives, and each member of the Kansas congressional delegation as well as the President of the United States.

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1845—

A RESOLUTION designating May as Lupus Awareness Month.

WHEREAS, Every year, the Lupus Foundation of America designates May as National Lupus Awareness Month to show support for the estimated 1.5 million Americans who have lupus; and

WHEREAS, Lupus is an acute and chronic autoimmune disease in which the immune system is unbalanced, causing inflammation and tissue damage to virtually every organ system in the body; and

WHEREAS, Lupus can affect any part of the body, including the skin, lungs, heart, kidneys, and brain; causing seizures, strokes, heart attacks, miscarriages and organ failure; and

WHEREAS, Despite striking mostly women of childbearing age, no one is safe from lupus. African-Americans, Hispanics, Asians and Native Americans are two to three times more likely to develop lupus – a disparity that remains unexplained; and

WHEREAS, Lupus can be particularly difficult to diagnose because its symptoms are similar to those of many other illnesses, and major gaps exist in understanding the causes and consequences of lupus. Symptoms, such as fatigue, skin rashes, joint pain and hair loss mimic other conditions and appear differently in different people. More than half of all people with lupus take four or more years and visit three or more doctors before obtaining a correct diagnosis as there is no single test to diagnose lupus; and

WHEREAS, A late diagnosis of lupus contributes to significant disability and death. If left untreated, the health consequences of lupus can be devastating and potentially fatal. People with lupus suffer tremendous emotional and physical pain, one in four are permanently disabled, and thousands die each year from lupus complications; and

WHEREAS, The awareness of lupus is extremely low, as only one in five Americans is aware of lupus symptoms and health effects. Young women ages 18-34 are least aware of lupus, yet they are the group most often affected, and nearly all Americans lack the understanding of the serious and life-threatening complications of lupus; and

WHEREAS, Recent medical advances in the treatment of lupus have been recently announced and signify the potential for an improvement in the standard of treatment for this dreaded disease: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we designate the month of May as Lupus Awareness Month in the State of Kansas and that we urge all Kansans to observe this month by educating themselves on the symptoms and impact of lupus, and to join the Lupus Foundation of America in supporting programs of research, education, and community service; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send three enrolled copies of this resolution to Senator Faust-Goudeau.

On emergency motion of Senator Faust-Goudeau SR 1845 was adopted unanimously.

SPECIAL REMARKS

MR. PRESIDENT: It is an honor for me to have this opportunity to say a few words about SR 1845. This resolution designates May as National Lupus Awareness Month to show our support for the nearly 1.5 million Americans who have Lupus. This disease mainly affects women of childbearing age, however, no one is safe from Lupus. One of our own colleagues in the House, Representative Gail Finney, of Wichita, suffers from this chronic autoimmune disease and suffers its effect every day. It has been found that African-Americans, Hispanics, Asians and Native Americans are two to three times more likely to develop Lupus, although it is unknown why. The awareness of Lupus is extremely low, as only one in five Americans is aware of Lupus symptoms and the health effects of this disease. Symptoms, such as fatigue, skin rashes, joint pain and hair loss mimic other conditions and are often not associated with Lupus. People with Lupus suffer emotional and physical pain, one in four is permanently disabled, and thousands die each year from Lupus complications. As we designate May as National Lupus Awareness Month, let us all become more aware, and make others more aware of this painful disease. — OLETHA FAUST-GOUDEAU

Journal of the Senate

FIFTY-THIRD DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Friday, April 1, 2011, 9:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-eight senators present.
Senators Donovan and McGinn were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

The first day of April has been called April Fools Day for a long time. While there have been lots of tricks pulled, sometimes "April Fool" can be heard with a sigh of relief.

If I get a call from home
Saying my kid's dropped out of school,
Let me hear those welcome words,
"It's just April Fool."

And the I.R.S. tells me
That I broke some rules,
Let the words that follow say
"It's just April Fool."

And should my hometown paper
Hold me up to ridicule,
It would be a relief to read,
"It's just April Fool."

After telling my son to buy a horse,
And my wife says it's a mule;
Please let me hear her say,
"It's just April Fool."

And most of all....
If the President announces,
"An extra session would be cool"
Please let us hear him quickly add,

I pray this in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote NO on S Sub for HB 2049. Once again I remain this Senate's most consistent civil libertarian on the issue of the failed war on relatively benign drugs. Quit wasting time and money; attempting, and unsuccessfully, to prevent people's flights of fancy. Regulate them; tax them; put them behind the counters of drug stores but stop criminalizing substances less toxic to the human body than abused prescription drugs, tobacco and alcohol. Explore medicinal values to authentic and manufactured substances. Let us quit driving these people to inhaling more dangerous substances that can not be made illegal and find after these hard, very expensive failed lessons of history, at long last, realistic drug policies that work with public health and safety. —DAVID HALEY

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT

MR. PRESIDENT and MR. SPEAKER: Your committee on conference on Senate amendments to HB 2192 submits the following report:

The House accedes to all Senate amendments to the bill, and your committee on conference further agrees to amend the bill, as printed with Senate Committee amendments as follows:

On page 1, after line 7, by inserting:

"Section 1. K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 8-116a is hereby amended to read as follows: 8-116a. (a) Except as provided in K.S.A. 8-170, and amendments thereto, when an application is made for a vehicle which has been assembled, reconstructed, reconstituted or restored from one or more vehicles, or the proper identification number of a vehicle is in doubt, the procedure in this section shall be followed. The owner of the vehicle shall request the Kansas highway patrol to check the vehicle and the highway patrol shall within a reasonable period of time perform such vehicle check. At the time of such check the owner shall supply the highway patrol with information concerning the history of the various parts of the vehicle. Such information shall be supplied by affidavit of the owner, if so requested by the highway patrol. If the highway patrol is satisfied that the vehicle contains no stolen parts, it shall assign an existing or new identification number to the vehicle and direct the places and manner in which the identification number is to be located and affixed or implanted. A charge of ~~$10~~ $15 per hour or part thereof, with a minimum charge of ~~$10~~ $15, and on and after July 1, 2012, a charge of $20 per hour or part thereof, with a minimum charge of $20, shall be made to the owner of a vehicle requesting check under this subsection, and such charge shall be paid prior to the check under this section. When a check has been made under subsection (b), not more than 60 days prior to a check of the same vehicle identification number, requested by the owner of the vehicle to obtain a regular certificate of title in lieu of a nonhighway certificate of title or to obtain a rebuilt salvage title in lieu of a salvage title, no charge shall be made for such second check.

(b) Any person making application for any original Kansas title for a used vehicle which, at the time of making application, is titled in another jurisdiction, as a condition precedent to obtaining any Kansas title, shall have such vehicle checked by the Kansas highway patrol for verification that the vehicle identification number shown on the foreign title is genuine and agrees with the identification number on the vehicle. Checks under this section may include inspection for possible violation of K.S.A. 21-3757, and amendments thereto, or other evidence of possible fraud. The verification shall be made upon forms prescribed by the division of vehicles which shall contain such information as the secretary of revenue shall require by rules and regulations. A charge of ~~$10~~ $15 per hour or part thereof, with a minimum charge of ~~$10~~ $15, and on and after July 1, 2012, a charge of $20 per hour or part thereof, with a minimum charge of $20, shall be made for checks under this subsection. When a vehicle is registered in another state, but is financed by a Kansas financial institution and is repossessed in another state and such vehicle will not be returned to Kansas, the check required by this subsection ~~(b)~~ shall not be required to obtain a valid Kansas title or registration.

(c) As used in this act, "identification number" or "vehicle identification number" means an identifying number, serial number, engine number, transmission number or other distinguishing number or mark, placed on a vehicle, engine, transmission or other essential part by its manufacturer or by authority of the division of vehicles or the Kansas highway patrol or in accordance with the laws of another state or country.

(d) The checks made under subsection (b) may be made by:

- (1) A designee of the superintendent of the Kansas highway patrol; or
- (2) an employee of a new vehicle dealer, as defined in subsection (b) of K.S.A. 8-2401, and amendments thereto, for the purposes provided for in subsection (f). For checks made by a designee or new vehicle dealer, ~~$1~~ 10% of each charge shall be remitted to the Kansas highway patrol and the balance of such charges shall be retained by such designee or new vehicle dealer. If the designee is a city or county law enforcement agency, then the balance shall be paid to the law enforcement agency that conducted the inspection. When a check is made under either subsection (a) or (b) by personnel of the Kansas highway patrol ~~or when a check is made under subsection (b) by an employee of a new vehicle dealer,~~ the entire amount of the charge therefor shall be paid to the highway patrol.

(e) There is hereby created the vehicle identification number fee fund. The Kansas highway patrol shall remit all moneys received by the Kansas highway patrol from fees collected under subsection (d) to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury to the credit of the vehicle identification number fee fund. All expenditures from the vehicle identification number fee fund shall be made in accordance with appropriations acts upon warrants of the director of accounts and reports issued pursuant to vouchers approved by the superintendent of the Kansas highway patrol or by a person or persons designated by the superintendent.

(f) An employee of a new vehicle dealer, who has received initial training and certification from the highway patrol, and has met continuing certification requirements, in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the superintendent of the highway patrol, may provide the checks under subsection (b), in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the superintendent of the highway patrol, on motor vehicles that a new vehicle dealer purchases through a manufacturer's sponsored auction or on motor vehicles repurchased or reacquired by a manufacturer, distributor or financing subsidiary of such manufacturer and which are purchased by the new vehicle dealer. At any time, after a hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Kansas administrative procedure act, the superintendent of the highway patrol may revoke, suspend, decline to renew or decline to issue certification for failure to comply with the provisions of this subsection, including any rules and regulations.

Sec. 2. K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 8-173 is hereby amended to read as follows: 8-173. (a) An application for registration of a vehicle as provided in article 1 of chapter 8 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, shall not be accepted unless the person making such application shall exhibit:

(b) An application for registration of a vehicle as provided in article 1 of chapter 8 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated shall not be accepted if the records of the county treasurer show that the applicant is delinquent and owes personal property taxes levied against the applicant for any preceding year.

(c) An original application for registration ~~or renewal of registration~~ of a motor vehicle shall not be accepted until the applicant signs a certification, provided by the director of motor vehicles, certifying that the applicant has and will maintain, during the period of registration, the required insurance, self-insurance or other financial security required pursuant to K.S.A. 40-3104, and amendments thereto.

(d) An application for registration or renewal of registration of a vehicle shall not be accepted if the applicant is unable to provide proof of the insurance, self-insurance or other financial security required by article 31 of chapter 40 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated. Proof of insurance shall be verified by examination of the insurance card or other documentation issued by an insurance company, a certificate of self-insurance issued by the commissioner, a binder of insurance, a certificate of insurance, a motor carrier identification number issued by the state corporation commission, proof of insurance for vehicles covered under a fleet policy, a commercial policy covering more than one vehicle or a policy of insurance required by K.S.A. 40-3104, and amendments thereto, and for vehicles used as part of a drivers education program, a dealership contract and a copy of a motor vehicle liability insurance policy issued to a school district or accredited nonpublic school. Examination of a photocopy or facsimile of any of these documents shall suffice for verification of registration or renewal. Proof of insurance may also be verified on-line or electronically and the commissioner of insurance may require, by duly adopted rules and regulations, any motor vehicle liability insurance company authorized to do business in this state to provide verification of insurance in that manner. Any motor vehicle liability insurance company which is providing verification of insurance on-line or electronically on the day preceding the effective date of this act may continue to do so in the same manner and shall be deemed to be in compliance with this section.";

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR PRESIDENT: Although the majority of S Sub for HB 2080 is good policy which I support and every other Senator does too, as the nominee twice for Kansas Secretary of State, I promised all voting Kansans that I would support our democracy and vote to fund our presidential preference primary. Every four years, this Legislature suggests the ability to hold a free and open statewide election to select a nominee for U.S. President costs too much! Give me a break. Tell that to the Egyptians. Tell that to the millions of people around the world who too (eerily similar to voting Kansans every four years) are being denied the opportunity to vote in a public secure election for the candidate of their choice.

I again declare that our Legislature's priorities in this regard are misguided. We all got here by a vote of a majority. As a Democrat, I already know who I intend to see renominated and reelected President in 2012. Most Democrats do not see a need to fund the 2012 Primary. But with all the choices Republicans might have, whether good or bad, one wonders why democracy loving elected Kansas Republicans wouldn't want to give their constituents the right to choose in 2012. — DAVID HALEY

Sub HB 2135, AN ACT concerning certain employees; relating to misclassification of employees to avoid tax withholding, contributions and reporting requirements; amending K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 44-703, 44-766 and 79-3234 and repealing the existing sections.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 36, Nays 2, Present and Passing 0, Absent or Not Voting 2.

Yeas: Abrams, Apple, Bruce, Brungardt, Emler, Faust-Goudeau, Haley, Hensley, Huntington, Kelly, Kelsey, King, Kultala, Longbine, Love, Lynn, Marshall, Masterson, Merrick, Morris, Olson, Ostmeyer, Owens, Petersen, Pilcher-Cook, Pyle, Reitz, Schmidt A, Schmidt V, Schodorf, Steineger, Taddiken, Teichman, Umbarger, Vratil, Wagle.

Nays: Francisco, Holland.

Absent or Not Voting: Donovan, McGinn.

The substitute bill passed, as amended.

S Sub for HB 2267, AN ACT concerning homeowners associations; amending K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 58-4608, 58-4610 and 58-4618 and repealing the existing sections.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 38, Nays 0, Present and Passing 0, Absent or Not Voting 2.

Yeas: Abrams, Apple, Bruce, Brungardt, Emler, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Hensley, Holland, Huntington, Kelly, Kelsey, King, Kultala, Longbine, Love, Lynn, Marshall, Masterson, Merrick, Morris, Olson, Ostmeyer, Owens, Petersen, Pilcher-Cook, Pyle, Reitz, Schmidt A, Schmidt V, Schodorf, Steineger, Taddiken, Teichman, Umbarger, Vratil, Wagle.

Journal of the Senate

FIFTY-FOURTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, April 27, 2011, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-nine Senators present.
Senator Donovan was excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

One of the first things we discovered after we got here, if we had not already learned it, is that regardless of what we do, some people, maybe most people, are going to be upset.

Some will say we did too much,
Others.....“Not enough”.
Some will say we're soft on crime,
Others say, “Too tough”.

Some say the social issues
Take entirely too much time.
Others say they're more important
Than those that take our time.

Some will say we cut too much,
Some will say, “Not so”.
“We cut too little on some of them
Although they had the dough.”

Some will say we quit too soon,
But from others we will hear
How much it costs the taxpayers
The extra days we're here.

Just help us, Lord, to buckle down
And do the best we can.
After all, they crucified
The only perfect Man.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: All Kansans, regardless of gender, deserve to be safe when any procedure of an invasive nature is performed upon their person. While there may be emotional issues incident to an abortion that are different from other procedures, the patients in those other procedures are just as vulnerable to infections and complications as the patient receiving an abortion. Because I believe in the sanctity of the life of every patient, I vote no on H Sub for SB 36 and urge the proponents to introduce legislation that protects the life of every patient, regardless of gender or procedure.—JAY SCOTT EMLER

Senators Francisco, Haley, Huntington, Kelly, Kultula, Owens, V. Schmidt and Schodorf request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Emler on H Sub for SB 36 .

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote NO on the H Sub for SB 36.

I agree with other concerns that have been raised, and I am also disturbed by the serious lack of clarity in the wording of the bill. The act says that it relates to licensure of abortion clinics, however "abortion clinic" is not defined nor is it used in the bill. Wording in the bill seems to restrict all abortions performed in a clinic to a facility licensed pursuant to this act, not allowing for a limit of fewer than five per month as indicated in the definition of facility. Furthermore, it calls for the secretary to adopt rules and regulations requiring laboratory tests and then offers the review of the laboratory results weeks after the procedure. If we truly want to protect the health of women, we should work with physicians to write legislation to address issues of concern and write the legislation in a way that makes the regulations and restrictions clear. — MARCI FRANCISCO

MR. PRESIDENT: The added expense of a safe, legal abortion in a registered clinical environment is completely unnecessary and only puts greater burden on average and low income women in a crisis, unplanned or unwanted pregnancy. Kansas government needs to get out of the personal lives of people. With no deaths reported, this can lead us back to "back alley" abortions which no reasonable Legislature should want to go.—DAVID HALEY

Senator Francisco requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Haley on H Sub for SB 36.

MR. PRESIDENT: I am shocked and dismayed that men and women of this chamber would show blatant discrimination against women at one of the most vulnerable times in their lives – having an abortion.

Inspection of abortion facilities will protect the life and health of women much like the legislation this body passed last year regarding inspection of child care homes to protect the life and health of children. — JULIA LYNN

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote "NO" on H Sub for SB 36 because the bill represents an egregious example of government waste. This bill provides for two annual inspections of three abortion clinics in the state, a total of six annual inspections. The fiscal note on this bill is $67,000 per year and one full time equivalent employee. It is incomprehensible to me that the Kansas Department of Health and Environment needs to pay an inspector $67,000 per year to perform six inspections. That is truly government waste of taxpayer dollars and I oppose such waste. —JOHN VRATIL

Senator Francisco requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Vratil on H Sub for SB 36

Senator Teichman moved the Senate concur in House amendments to SB 136.

SB 136, AN ACT concerning insurance; relating to the recovery of economic or noneconomic loss sustained as a result of an accident while operating an uninsured motor vehicle.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 39, Nays 0, Present and Passing 0, Absent or Not Voting 1.

Yeas: Abrams, Apple, Bruce, Brungardt, Emler, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Hensley, Holland, Huntington, Kelly, Kelsey, King, Kultala, Longbine, Love, Lynn, Marshall, Masterson, McGinn, Merrick, Morris, Olson, Ostmeyer, Owens, Petersen, Pilcher-Cook, Pyle, Reitz, Schmidt A, Schmidt V, Schodorf, Steineger, Taddiken, Teichman, Umbarger, Vratil, Wagle.

Absent or Not Voting: Donovan.

The Senate concurred.

FIFTY-FIFTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, April 28, 2011, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-eight senators present.
Senators Donovan and Taddiken were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father:

How do I deal with someone with whom I totally disagree?
Who I believe is totally wrong?
When I cannot understand how an intelligent person could possibly hold such views?

Help me, Lord, to listen when I don't want to listen.
To attack the person's position without attacking the person.
To use my head more than my voice.
To be courteous without becoming a doormat.
To be persistent without being patronizing.
To be firm without belittling.
To consult You, Lord, before I start talking.

And most of all, help me to remember that You love me even though You know me so well!

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Journal of the Senate

FIFTY-SIXTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Friday, April 29, 2011, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.

The roll was called with thirty-nine Senators present.

Senator Donovan was excused.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Our hearts go out to sections of the South where an incredibly powerful tornado left unbelievable destruction in the South Wednesday night. The state hardest hit was Alabama where much of Tuscaloosa was destroyed.

This great tragedy reminds us of the earthquakes and tsunamis which have reeked havoc throughout the world in this year and the last.

Lord, we pray for the survivors who have lost loved ones in these disasters and also in the revolutions being carried on in the middle east.

We pray for healing for the injured and for those who have lost their homes and their businesses.

Remind us of those who have suffered losses in the tornadoes in Kansas in the past years.

Where possible, lead us to offer help. I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: For the third time this session (2011) on "K-3", etc. as well as thrice last session (2010) on K-2, once again I proudly remain this Senate's most consistent civil libertarian on the issue of the failed war on relatively benign drugs. Quit wasting time and money; attempting, and unsuccessfully, to prevent people's flights of fancy. Regulate them; tax them; put them behind the counters of drug stores but stop criminalizing substances less toxic to the human body than abused prescription drugs, tobacco and alcohol. Explore medicinal values to authentic and manufactured substances. Let us quit driving these people to inhaling more dangerous substances that can not be made illegal and find after these hard, very expensive failed lessons of history, at long last, realistic drug policies that work with public health and safety. —

Journal of the Senate

FIFTY-SEVENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, May 2, 2011, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President John Vratil.
The roll was called with thirty-eight Senators present.
Senators Donovan and Merrick were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

There is a lady in this room
Who has a lot of skill:
She's Secretary of the Senate,
And her name is Pat Saville.

She works and works real hard
Even when it's all uphill;
Even late into the night.
She's our Pat Saville.

I've been here longer than she has,
But she's the one who knows the drill.
She knows how to straighten me out;
She's in charge and she's Pat Saville.

When I bring my family to visit,
I introduce her the same way still.
"Here's the lady who runs this place,
And her name is Pat Saville."

At first I considered it a joke,
But my joke was suddenly fulfilled.
President Morris asked if it was time to start,
And who was he asking? It was Pat Saville!

Pat's respected and liked by all,
And helps things to run downhill,
Everyone knows that she's in charge,
God bless our Pat Saville,

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

Journal of the Senate

FIFTY-EIGHTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, May 3, 2011, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-nine Senators present.
Senator Donovan was excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

We've caught a lot of flack
For what has not been done.
We've been called most everything
By almost everyone.

People have a right to gripe,
That we do not doubt.
We are not unanimous
With how wrap-up's turning out.

But it seems somewhat presumptuous
When in media and in letter
It is stated or implied
That they could do it better.

Of course we've heard it all before,
In fact we said it, too,
Before we were elected
How much better we would do.

But soon we realized, O God,
We only had one vote,
And twenty-seven must agree
Before this boat will float.

So we thought it would be great
Since time immemorial,
To let the editors wrap it up,
And let us write the editorials!

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND SENATE RESOLUTIONS

Senators Morris, Emler, Hensley and V. Schmidt introduced the following Senate resolution, which was read:

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1853—

A RESOLUTION congratulating and commending Janet L. (Jan) Locke.

WHEREAS, Janet L. (Jan) Locke retired on January 1, 2011, after serving the Kansas Legislature for over 23 years through her outstanding efforts in the Kansas Legislative Research Department; and

WHEREAS, Janet L. (Jan) Locke commenced working for the State of Kansas at the Kansas Legislative Research Department in August 1987 as a Secretary III; she began working for the Director Alan D. Conroy and Associate Director William Wolff as secretary in June 2003. Upon Associate Director William Wolff's, retirement in July 2004, she continued working for Alan D. Conroy, Director, and Raney Gilliland, Assistant Director, until her retirement; and

WHEREAS, Janet L. (Jan) Locke is known throughout the Research Department and in many other departments in the Statehouse for her kind smile, helpful ways, proofing skills and delicious white desserts; and

WHEREAS, Janet L. (Jan) Locke was married to Michael A. Locke on November 2, 1963. They have two sons, Matthew Locke and Christopher Locke and are proud grandparents of two grandchildren, Gavin Locke and Grayson Locke: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we congratulate and commend Janet L. (Jan) Locke for her more than 23 years of devoted service to the State of Kansas; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to Janet L. Locke, 5240 W. 25th Terrace, Topeka, Kansas 66614; Matt and Melinda Locke, 4824 SW 28th Street, Topeka, Kansas 66614; and Chris and Christina Locke, 1745 Cardinal Drive, Griffin, Georgia 30223.

On emergency motion of Senator V. Schmidt SR 1853 was adopted unanimously.

Senator V. Schmidt introduced and congratulated Janet (Jan) Locke upon her retirement after serving the Kansas Legislative Research Department for over 23 years. Her husband, Michael was also introduced. Janet was congratulated by the Senate with a standing ovation on her achievements.

Senator Haley introduced the following Senate resolution, which was read:

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1854—

A RESOLUTION recognizing the misuse and abuse of prescription drug medications as a major threat to public health and safety in Kansas and nationwide.

WHEREAS, Drug abuse in the United States increasingly means the misuse and abuse of prescription drug medications. Drug overdose is now the second most common cause of accidental death in the nation, killing more than gunshot wounds and behind only traffic accidents; and

WHEREAS, Prescription drugs are a substantial factor in a growing number of American deaths considered to be drug induced. Emergency room visits and unintentional overdose deaths involving prescription drugs have increased sharply; and

WHEREAS, Barry R. Grissom, United States Attorney, District of Kansas, has declared that "prescription drugs are being used, misused, and abused at an alarming rate" and that he is "seeing more cases of accidental poisoning, addiction and overdose deaths. It is not an overstatement to call this an epidemic in the truest sense of the word. It has become a major threat to public health and public safety"; and

WHEREAS, Unused prescription narcotics at home contribute to drug abuse and risks of accidental deaths of children and the elderly. The 2010 Monitoring the Future survey found that six of the top 10 substances abused by high school seniors are prescription drugs. Federal studies show that many teens use the prescription drugs because they think they are safer than illegal drugs; and

WHEREAS, The second leading source of abused prescription drugs is the home medicine cabinet. The number one source are friends and relatives, who often get the prescription drugs from other people's medicine cabinets. This demonstrates the importance of disposing unused prescription medications rather than leaving them in a medicine cabinet at home; and

WHEREAS, The federal Drug Enforcement Administration sponsored this past weekend's National Prescription Drug Take-Back Day on April 30, 2011, where more than 4,000 locations nationwide, including more than 50 locations in Kansas, had bins set up for people to dispose of any and all unused prescription drugs. National Prescription Drug Take-Back Day is part of a federal aim to cut prescription drug abuse by 15% in the next 10 years. The first nationwide prescription drug drop-off event occurred in September of 2010 and resulted in 121 tons of prescription drug medications being collected and incinerated nationwide; and

WHEREAS, It must be recognized that a drug cabinet full of old or unused prescription medicine is a health hazard, increasing the risk of poison and abuse among adults, teenagers and children across the state and across the nation: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we recognize the misuse and abuse of prescription drug medications as a major threat to public health and safety in Kansas and nationwide; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to Senator Haley.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-nine Senators present.
Senator Donovan was excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Sometimes when I'm discouraged
And cannot get things done;
It helps a lot for me to pray,
"Lord, thy will be done."

I recommend that Senators
When disagreeing with someone;
Silently pray to You, O God,
"Lord, thy will be done."

When we have alternatives
And we can't decide which one,
Utter a silent prayer to You,
"Lord, thy will be done."

When we thought it was complete,
And it never was begun,
Quietly pray to You, O God,
"Lord, thy will be done."

When I thought we had a victory,
And found out we had not won;
Confidently pray, "Not my will,
But Lord, Thy will be done."

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. President: I support the National Prescription Drug Take-Back Day and sponsor and join the Committee of the Whole in unanimous support of this Resolution. According to Kansas US Attorney Grissom, last year, (2010) six people died in Kansas due to accidental overdose of prescription drugs not prescribed to them. The Senate accedes to all House amendments to the bill, and your committee on conference further agrees to amend the bill, as printed with House Committee of the Whole amendments as follows:

On page 17, after line 31, by inserting the following:

"Sec. 4. On and after July 1, 2011, K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 79-1701a is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-1701a. Any taxpayer, the county appraiser or the county clerk shall, on their own motion, request the board of county commissioners to order the correction of the clerical errors in the appraisal, assessment or tax rolls as described in K.S.A. 79-1701, and amendments thereto. The board of county commissioners of the several counties are hereby authorized to order the correction of clerical errors, specified in K.S.A. 79-1701, and amendments thereto, in the appraisal, assessment or tax rolls for the current year and the immediately preceding two years during the period on and after November 1 of each year. If a county treasurer has collected and distributed the property taxes of a taxpayer and it shall thereafter be determined that the tax computed and paid was based on an erroneous assessment due to a clerical error which resulted in an overpayment of taxes by the taxpayer, and such error is corrected under the provisions hereof then the county commissioners may direct a refund in the amount of the overpayment plus interest at the rate prescribed by K.S.A. 79-2968, and amendments thereto, plus two percentage points, per annum, from the date of payment from tax moneys collected during the current year and approve a claim therefor. If all or any portion of the taxes on such property remain unpaid, the board of county commissioners shall cancel that portion of such unpaid taxes which were assessed on the basis of the error which is being corrected. In lieu of taking such a refund the taxpayer may, at the taxpayer's option, be allowed a credit on the current year's taxes in the amount of the overpayment plus interest at the rate prescribed by K.S.A. 79-2968, and amendments thereto, from the date of payment for the previous year. In the event the error results in an understatement of value or taxes as a result of a mathematical miscomputation on the part of the county, the board of county commissioners of the several counties are hereby authorized to correct such error and order an additional assessment or tax bill, or both, to be issued, except that, in no such case shall the taxpayer be assessed interest or penalties on any tax which may be assessed. If such error applies to property which has been sold or otherwise transferred subsequent to the time the error was made, no such additional assessment or tax bill shall be issued.

Sec. 5. On and after July 1, 2011, K.S.A. 79-2968 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-2968. Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, whenever interest is charged under any law of this state upon any delinquent or unpaid taxes levied or imposed by the state of Kansas or any taxing subdivision thereof, or whenever interest is allowed under any law of this state upon any overpayment of taxes levied or imposed by the state of Kansas or any taxing subdivision thereof, the rate thereof shall be: ~~(a) One and one-half percent per month for any period prior to January 1, 1995, 1% per month for the period commencing on January 1, 1995, and ending on December 31, 1997, and 1/12 of the annual rate prescribed in subsection (b) thereafter, if computed monthly; and (b) eighteen percent per annum for any period prior to January 1, 1995; 12% per annum for the period commencing on January 1, 1995, and ending on December 31, 1997, and for any period thereafter;~~ the underpayment rate per annum prescribed and determined under paragraph (2) of subsection (a) of section 6621, without regard to subsection (c) thereof, of the federal internal revenue code, as in effect on September 1, 1996, and which rate is in effect thereunder on July 1 of the year immediately preceding the calendar year for which the rate is being annually fixed hereunder, plus one percentage point, if computed annually. Beginning on January 1, 2012, the rate for property tax delinquencies or underpayments of $10,000 or more shall be as provided for under this section or 10% per annum, whichever is greater.

In the event the interest rate prescribed under this section cannot be determined by reference to section 6621 of the federal internal revenue code, as in effect on September 1, 1996, the rate at which interest shall be collected on underpayments shall be the rate prescribed by K.S.A. 16-204, and amendments thereto, for interest on judgments for the applicable period.

Sec. 6. On and after July 1, 2011, K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 79-3609 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-3609. (a) Every person engaged in the business of selling tangible personal property at retail or furnishing services taxable in this state, shall keep records and books of all such sales, together with invoices, bills of lading, sales records, copies of bills of sale and other pertinent papers and documents. Such books and records and other papers and documents shall, at all times during business hours of the day, be available for and subject to inspection by the director, or the director's duly authorized agents and employees, for a period of three years from the last day of the calendar year or of the fiscal year of the retailer, whichever comes later, to which the records pertain. Such records shall be preserved during the entire period during which they are subject to inspection by the director, unless the director in writing previously authorizes their disposal. Any person selling tangible personal property or furnishing taxable services shall be prohibited from asserting that any sales are exempt from taxation unless the retailer has in the retailer's possession a properly executed exemption certificate provided by the consumer claiming the exemption, except as follows: (1) A retailer is relieved of liability for tax otherwise applicable if the retailer obtains a fully completed exemption certificate or captures the relevant data elements required by the director within 90 days subsequent to the date of the sale; or (2) if the retailer has not obtained an exemption certificate or all relevant data elements, the retailer, within 120 days subsequent to a request for substantiation by the director, either may obtain a fully completed exemption certificate from the purchaser, taken in good faith which meets the requirements specified in this subsection, or obtain other information establishing that the transaction was not subject to tax. Otherwise, the sales shall be deemed to be taxable sales under this act. The seller shall obtain an exemption certificate that claims an exemption that was authorized pursuant to Kansas law on the date of the transaction in the jurisdiction where the transaction is sourced pursuant to law, could be applicable to the item being purchased and is reasonable for the purchaser's type of business. If the seller obtains an exemption certificate or other information as described in this subsection, the seller is relieved of any liability for the tax on the transaction unless it is discovered through the audit process that the seller had knowledge or had reason to know at the time such information was provided that the information relating to the exemption claimed was materially false or the seller otherwise knowingly participated in activity intended to purposefully evade the tax that is properly due on the transaction, and it must be established that the seller had knowledge or had reason to know at the time the information was provided that the information was materially false.

(b) The amount of tax imposed by this act is to be assessed within three years after the return is filed, and no proceedings in court for the collection of such taxes shall ~~be begun~~ begin after the expiration of such period. In the case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax, the tax may be assessed or a proceeding in court for collection of such tax may ~~be begun~~ begin at any time; within two years from the discovery of such fraud. No assessment shall be made for any period preceding the date of registration of the retailer by more than three years except in cases of fraud. For any refund or credit claim filed after ~~June 15, 2009~~ July 1, 2011, no refund or credit shall be allowed by the director after ~~one year~~ three years from the due date of the return for the reporting period as provided by K.S.A. 79-3607, and amendments thereto, unless before the expiration of such period a claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer, and, except as otherwise provided in K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 79-3694, and amendments thereto, no suit or action to recover on any claim for refund shall be commenced, until after the expiration of six months from the date of filing such claim satisfying the requirements specified by K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 79-3693, and amendments thereto, therefor with the director. A refund claim shall not be deemed filed unless such claim is complete as required by K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 79-3693, and amendments thereto. For all mailed returns, including refund claims, each return or refund claim shall be presumed to have been filed with the department on the postmark date of such return or refund claim or if such date is illegible, the date three days prior to the date such return or refund claim is received.

(c) Before the expiration of time prescribed in this section for the assessment of additional tax or the filing of a claim for refund, the director is hereby authorized to enter into an agreement in writing with the taxpayer consenting to the extension of the periods of limitations for the assessment of tax or for the filing of a claim for refund, at any time prior to the expiration of the period of limitations. The period so agreed upon may be extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expiration of the period previously agreed upon. In consideration of such agreement or agreements, interest due in excess of 48 months on any additional tax shall be waived.

(d) Interest at the rate prescribed by K.S.A. 79-2968, and amendments thereto, shall be allowed on any overpayment of tax computed from the filing date of the return claiming the refund, except that no interest shall be allowed on any such refund if the same is paid within 120 days after the filing date of the return claiming the refund or the date of payment, whichever is later, provided that such return or refund claim satisfies the requirements specified by K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 79-3693, and amendments thereto, at the time the return or refund claim is received.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section or the provisions of the Kansas compensating tax act:

(1) (A) Any claim for refund of tax imposed by the Kansas retailers' sales tax act or the Kansas compensating tax act based upon the provisions of subsection (kk) of K.S.A. 79-3606 in existence prior to its amendment by this act which is without dispute shall be allowed, but, with respect to any claim exceeding $10,000, the refund associated therewith shall not be paid until after 510 days from the date such claim was filed and shall not include interest from such date. As used in this subparagraph, a claim for refund without dispute shall not include any claim the basis for which is a judicial or quasi-judicial interpretation of such subsection occurring after the effective date of this act.

(B) Any refund of tax resulting from a final determination or adjudication with regard to any claim submitted or to be submitted for refund of tax imposed by the Kansas retailers' sales tax act or the Kansas compensating tax act based upon the provisions of subsection (kk) of K.S.A. 79-3606 in existence prior to its amendment by this act not described by subparagraph (A) shall, with respect to any refund exceeding $50,000, be paid in equal annual installments over 10 years commencing with the year of such final determination or adjudication. Interest shall not accrue during the time period of such payment.

(2) No claim for refund of tax imposed by the Kansas retailers' sales tax act or the Kansas compensating tax act based upon the application of the provisions of subsection (n) of K.S.A. 79-3606, and amendments thereto, pursuant to its interpretation by the court of appeals of the state of Kansas in its opinion filed on August 13, 1999, in the case entitled In re appeal of Water District No. 1 of Johnson County shall be allowed for tax paid prior to the effective date of this act. EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. President: I vote "NO" on the conference committee report on SB 93. I appreciate the good work and progress made by the committee, however I believe that the state's Human Rights Commission should continue to be involved in the process for reviewing complaints. —MARCI FRANCISCO

Mr. President: I vote "NO" on the Conference Committee report on SB 93. (If only all of the Conference Committee members voting "No" now, had not signed the report.) Actually empowering those who practice profiling and harassment of motorists based on race, skin color, county of origin should never be the function of any American Legislature. SB 93 does just that today. And the sad thing is, all of you that vote for this bill know it. With a wink-and-a-nod, this Legislature looks away from those crooked cowards hiding behind tarnished badges to harass and degrade based on their antique prejudices. And by making a part of Kansas, some Kansans less secure in their person; subject to "unreasonable searches and seizures", you inflict all Kansans.—DAVID HALEY

 (b) A water right may be enrolled in the program for a period that shall not exceed 10 years. A water right enrolled in the program may be re-enrolled within two years of the expiration date of the previous enrollment period, subject to the approval of the chief engineer.
 (c) Each application for enrollment in the program and each application for renewal of enrollment shall include a non-refundable fee not to exceed $300.
 (d) All fees collected by the chief engineer pursuant to this section shall be remitted to the state treasurer as provided in K.S.A. 82a-731, and amendments thereto.
 (e) The chief engineer shall adopt rules and regulations to effectuate and administer the provisions of this section.

Sec. 26. K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 82a-718 is hereby amended to read as follows: 82a-718. (a) All appropriations of water must be for some beneficial purpose. Every water right of every kind shall be deemed abandoned and shall terminate when without due and sufficient cause no lawful, beneficial use is henceforth made of water under such right for five successive years. Before any water right shall be declared abandoned and terminated the chief engineer shall conduct a hearing thereon. Notice shall be served on the user at least 30 days before the date of the hearing. The determination of the chief engineer pursuant to this section shall be subject to review in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 82a-1901, and amendments thereto.

The verified report of the chief engineer or such engineer's authorized representative shall be prima facie evidence of the abandonment and termination of any water right.

(b) When no lawful, beneficial use of water under a water right has been reported for three successive years, the chief engineer shall notify the user, by certified mail, return receipt requested, that: (1) No lawful, beneficial use of the water has been reported for three successive years; (2) if no lawful, beneficial use is made of the water

(c) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply to a water right that has not been declared abandoned and terminated before the effective date of this act if the five years of successive nonuse occurred exclusively and entirely before January 1, 1990. However, the provisions of subsection (a) shall apply if the period of five successive years of nonuse began before January 1, 1990, and continued after that date.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a), an eligible water right enrolled in and continually in compliance with the water rights conservation program, pursuant to section 25, and amendments thereto, shall be deemed to have due and sufficient cause for nonuse and shall not be deemed abandoned.

~~(d)~~(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a), a groundwater right, which has as its local supply an aquifer area that has been closed to new appropriations by rule, regulation or order of the chief engineer and where means of diversion are available to put water to a beneficial use within a reasonable time, shall be deemed to have due and sufficient cause for nonuse and shall not be deemed abandoned.

Sec. 27. K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 82a-731 is hereby amended to read as follows: 82a-731. There is hereby created in the state treasury the water appropriation certification fund. The chief engineer of the division of water resources of the Kansas department of agriculture shall remit all moneys received under K.S.A. 82a-708a, 82a-708b and 82a-727, and amendments thereto, and section 25, and amendments thereto, to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury to the credit of the water appropriation certification fund. All expenditures from the water appropriation certification fund shall be made in accordance with appropriation acts upon warrants of the director of accounts and reports issued pursuant to vouchers approved by the secretary of agriculture or by a person designated by the secretary.

Sec. 28. K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 82a-736 is hereby amended to read as follows: 82a-736. (a) As used in this section:

(1) "Base average usage" means: (A) The average amount of water actually used for a beneficial use under a groundwater water right during calendar years ~~1992~~2000 through ~~2002~~2009, excluding any amount used in any such year in excess of the amount authorized by such water right; or (B) if the holder of a groundwater water right shows to the satisfaction of the chief engineer that the holder has implemented significant water conservation measures during calendar years ~~1992~~ 2000 through ~~2002~~2009, the average amount of water actually used for a beneficial use under such right during the five calendar years immediately before the calendar year when such measures were implemented, excluding any amount used in any such year in excess of the amount authorized by such water right.

(2) "Chief engineer" means the chief engineer of the division of water resources of the department of agriculture.

(b) Any holder of a groundwater water right which has not been deposited or placed in a safe deposit account in a chartered water bank may establish a flex account where the holder may deposit, in advance, water from such water right for any five consecutive calendar years, subject to the following:

(2) the withdrawal of water pursuant to the water right shall be properly and adequately metered;

(4) the amount of water that shall be deposited in the account shall not exceed 90% of the amount of the holder's base average usage times five.

(c) The chief engineer shall implement a program providing for the issuance of term permits to holders of groundwater water rights who have established flex accounts in accordance with this section. Such term permits shall authorize the use of water in a flex account at any time during the five consecutive calendar years for which the application for the term permit is made, without annual limits on such use. ~~Application for any such term permit shall be filed not later than October 10, of the year preceding the first year for which the application is made.~~

(d) Term permits provided for by this section shall be subject to the following:

(4) The chief engineer may establish, by rules and regulations, criteria for such term permits when the water right authorizes multiple points of diversion or multiple water rights authorize a single point of diversion or overlapping places of use.

(5) Except as explicitly provided for by this section, such term permits shall be subject to all provisions of the Kansas water appropriation act, and rules and regulations adopted under such act, and nothing in this section shall authorize impairment of any vested right or prior appropriation right by the exercise of such term permit.

(e) Unless a term permit is issued pursuant to an application filed before November 1 of the year prior to the first year for which the application is made, the quantity of water used under the water right during the year in which the application for the term permit is filed shall be deducted from the amount of water deposited into the account authorized by the term permit.

~~(f)~~ (f) All costs of administration of this section shall be paid from fees for term permits provided for by this section. Any appropriation or transfer from any fund other than the water appropriation certification fund for the purpose of paying such costs shall be repaid to the fund from which such appropriation or transfer is made. At the time of repayment, the secretary of agriculture shall certify to the director of accounts and reports the amount to be repaid and the fund to be repaid. Upon receipt of such certification, the director of accounts and reports shall promptly transfer the amount certified to the specified fund.

~~(g)~~ (g) The chief engineer shall submit a written report on the implementation of this section to the house standing committee on environment and the senate standing committee on natural resources on or before February 1 of each year.

New Sec. 29. (a) (1) There is hereby established in the state treasury the Arkansas river gaging fund, which shall be administered by the secretary of agriculture. EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Journal of the Senate

SIXTIETH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, May 5, 2011, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-eight Senators present.
Senators Donovan and Masterson were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

When my days are getting longer
And my nights are getting short;
When my patience's wearing thin,
And I'm feeling out of sorts.

When I think I've been mistreated,
And I find it hard to pray;
When my body's gaining weight,
And my hair is turning gray.

When I thought I'd done my best,
But just made people mad;
When things start out so good,
But wind up really bad.

When I stop to smell the roses
And the thorns all prick my nose;
When I go to church for comfort
And get stepped upon my toes.

That's when I turn to You, O God,
Who's there each time I call;
Who is my closest friend,
Who loves me—warts and all.

And that's when You remind me,
Though life seems so unfair;
You promised I would never have
More than I can bear!

I thank You in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

SIXTY-FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Friday, May 6, 2011, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.

The roll was called with twenty-nine Senators present.

Senators Abrams, Brungardt, Donovan, Kelsey, Lynn, Masterson, Ostmeyer, Owens, Schodorf, Steineger and Taddiken were excused.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

As we try to bring this session to a successful close, fatigue starts playing a major part.

The President's tired of presiding,
And the Houses of legislating.
The Doormen are tired of watching the doors,
And the Aides are tired of aiding.

The Chairmen are tired of chairing,
And the Clerks are tired of clerking.
The Leaders are tired of leading,
And everyone's tired of working.

The Speaker's tired of speaking,
And the Reader's tired of reading.
The Secretaries are tired of being tired,
And the Committees are tired of meeting.

The Researchers are tired of researching
And the Lobbyists of counting votes.
The Revisors are tired of revising,
And the Reporters of taking notes.

Lord, could it be the Chaplains who are Responsible for keeping us staying?
Could it be we could all go home,
If the Chaplains grew tired of praying?
(Probably not)

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS

The following petition was presented, read and filed:

SP 1, by Senator Terrie Huntington at the request of her constituents: The Supreme Court ruling in January of 2010 on Citizens United v. the Federal Elections Commission, a 5-4 decision that overturned prior campaign law, has extended First Amendment Rights to corporations. We, the undersigned, feel this decision corrupts our democratic process, and we ask the Kansas State Legislature to support an amendment to the U.S. Constitution that reverses the ruling and returns elections to the will of the voting public, signed by 55 constituents from Senate District #7.

SIXTY-SECOND DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, May 9, 2011, 2:00 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-nine Senators present.
Senator Donovan was excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Yesterday some worshiped
And prayed for new insight
To loosen up the logjam,
And shed some needed light.

Many think that we've examined
Every combination
Of pro and con solutions
Which ended in frustration.

But we have seen it happen
When we thought there was no way,
One of us had a brainstorm
Which brightened up our day.

And most of the Republicans
And most of the Democrats
Would say, "It isn't perfect
But we can live with that."

So please bestow a brainstorm
On one of us today,
And hopefully it won't be long
Until we're on our way!

I request this in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN
