§ 2. Senators and representatives.—The number of representatives and senators shall be regulated by law, but shall not exceed one hundred twenty-five representatives and forty senators. Representatives and senators shall be elected from single-member districts prescribed by law. Representatives shall be elected for two year terms. Senators shall be elected for four year terms. The terms of representatives and senators shall commence on the second Monday of January of the year following election.

§ 3. Compensation of members of legislature.—The members of the legislature shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law or such compensation as is determined according to law.

§ 4. Qualifications of members.—During the time that any person is a candidate for nomination or election to the legislature and during the term of each legislator, such candidate or legislator shall be and remain a qualified elector who resides in his or her district.

§ 5. Eligibility and disqualification of members.—No member of congress and no civil officer or employee of the United States or of any department, agency, or instrumentality thereof shall be eligible to be a member of the legislature. Any member of the legislature who accepts any appointment or election contrary to the foregoing shall be disqualified as a member of the legislature.

§ 7. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 8. Organization and sessions.—The legislature shall meet in regular session annually commencing on the second Monday in January, and all sessions shall be held at the state capital. The duration of regular sessions held in even-numbered years shall not exceed ninety calendar days. Such sessions may be extended beyond ninety calendar days by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. Bills and concurrent resolutions under consideration by the legislature upon adjournment of a regular session held in an odd-numbered year may be considered at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year, as if there had been no such adjournment.

The legislature shall be organized concurrently with the terms of representatives except that the senate shall remain organized during the terms of senators. The president of the senate shall preside over the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives shall preside over the house of representatives. A majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified of the house of representatives or the senate shall constitute a quorum of that house. Neither house, without the consent of the other, shall adjourn for more than two days, Sundays excepted.

Each house shall elect its presiding officer and determine the rules of its proceedings, except that the two houses may adopt joint rules on certain matters and provide for the manner of change thereof. Each house shall provide for the expulsion or censure of members in appropriate cases.

Each house shall be the judge of elections, returns and qualifications of its own members.

§ 9. Vacancies in legislature.—All vacancies occurring in either house shall be filled as provided by law.

§ 10. Journals.—Each house shall publish a journal of its proceedings. The affirmative and negative votes upon the final passage of every bill and every concurrent resolution for amendment of this constitution or ratification of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States shall be entered in the journal. Any member of either house may make written protest against any act or resolution, and the same shall be entered in the journal without delay or alteration.

§ 11. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 12. Origination by either house.—Bills and concurrent resolutions may originate in either house, but may be amended or rejected by the other.

§ 13. Majority for passage of bills.—A majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified of each house, voting in the affirmative, shall be necessary to pass any bill. Two-thirds (2/3) of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, voting in the affirmative, shall be necessary to ratify any amendment to the Constitution of the United States or to make any application for congress to call a convention for proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

§ 14. Approval of bills; vetoes.—(a) Within ten days after passage, every bill shall be signed by the presiding officers and presented to the governor. If the governor approves a bill, he shall sign it. If the governor does not approve a bill, the governor shall veto it by returning the bill, with a veto message of the objections, to the house of origin of the bill. Whenever a veto message is so received, the message shall be entered in the journal and in not more than thirty calendar days (excluding the day received), the house of origin shall reconsider the bill. If two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified shall vote to pass the bill, it shall be sent, with the veto message, to the other house, which shall in not more than thirty calendar days (excluding the day received) also reconsider the bill, and if approved by two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified, it shall become a law, notwithstanding the governor's veto.

If any bill shall not be returned within ten calendar days (excluding the day presented) after it shall have been presented to the governor, it shall become a law in like manner as if it had been signed by the governor.

(b) If any bill presented to the governor contains several items of appropriation of money, one or more of such items may be disapproved by the governor while the other portion of the bill is approved by the governor. In case the governor does so disapprove, a veto message of the governor stating the item or items disapproved, and the reasons therefor, shall be appended to the bill at the time it is signed, and the bill shall be returned with the veto message to the house of origin of the bill. Whenever a veto message is so received, the message shall be entered in the journal and, in not more than thirty calendar days, the house of origin shall reconsider the items of the bill which have been disapproved. If two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified shall vote to approve any item disapproved by the governor, the bill, with the veto message, shall be sent to the other house, which shall in not more than thirty calendar days also reconsider each such item so approved by the house of origin, and if approved by two-thirds of all the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified, any such item shall take effect and become a part of the bill.

§ 15. Requirements before bill passed.—No bill shall be passed on the day that it is introduced, unless in case of emergency declared by two-thirds of the members present in the house where a bill is pending.

§ 16. Subject and title of bills; amendment or revival of statutes.—No bill shall contain more than one subject, except appropriation bills and bills for revision or codification of statutes. JOINT RULES OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Joint rule 1. Joint rules; application and date of expiration; adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation. (a) Joint rules; expiration, adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation; vote required. Joint rules are adopted under the authority of section 8 of article 2 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas and shall govern matters made subject thereto except when otherwise specifically provided by joint rule. Joint rules shall expire at the conclusion of the terms of representatives. Joint rules shall be adopted, amended, suspended and revoked by concurrent resolution of the two houses of the legislature. Concurrent resolutions adopting joint rules shall receive the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house.

(b) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules; previous notice; vote required. After one day's previous notice, joint rules may be amended, suspended or revoked by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house. Upon the filing of such notice in either house, a message shall be sent to the other house advising of the filing of such notice and the reading of the message shall constitute notice to the members of such house. If such previous notice is not given, the affirmative vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house shall be required for the amendment, suspension or revocation of a joint rule.

(c) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules at commencement of legislative session; vote required; conditions. Notwithstanding any provision of this rule to the contrary, no notice shall be required for the adoption of a concurrent resolution amending, suspending or revoking any one or more joint rules at the commencement of a legislative session, and adoption of any such concurrent resolution shall require only the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, subject to the following conditions: (1) The concurrent resolution is sponsored by the speaker or the president, and (2) either (a) a copy thereof is mailed to each member of the legislature by deposit in the United States mails not later than 11:00 p.m. on the Thursday preceding the Monday on which the legislative session is to commence or (b) in lieu of mailing, copies of the concurrent resolution are made available to members on the first day of the legislative session and final action is taken on a subsequent legislative day.

Joint rule 2. Joint sessions. (a) Joint session called by concurrent resolution; vote required; time, place and subject matter. A joint session of the senate and house of representatives may be called by concurrent resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house of the legislature or as may otherwise be prescribed by law. Any such resolution shall fix the time and place of the joint session, and the subject matter to be considered at the joint session. Joint sessions shall consider only such matters as are prescribed by law or by the concurrent resolution calling such joint session.

(b) Presiding officer at joint sessions; record of joint session; rules applicable. The speaker of the house of representatives shall preside at all joint sessions of the senate and house of representatives, and the clerk of the house of representatives shall keep a record of the proceedings thereof and shall enter the record of each such session in the journal of the house of representatives. The rules of the house of representatives and the joint rules of the two houses, insofar as the same may be applicable shall be the rules for joint sessions of the two houses.

(c) Votes in joint session; taking; requirements. All votes in a joint session shall be taken by yeas and nays, and in taking the same it shall be the duty of the secretary of the senate first to call the names of the members of the senate, and after which the clerk of the house of representatives shall in like manner call the names of the members of the house. Each member of the senate and the house of representatives present shall be required to vote on all matters considered in joint session, unless excused by a vote of a majority of the members of both houses present.

Joint rule 3. Conference committee procedure. (a) Action by house of origin of bill or concurrent resolution amended by other house. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned to the house of origin with amendments by the other house, the house of origin may: (1) Concur in such amendments; (2) refuse to concur in such amendments; or (3) refuse to concur in such amendments and request a conference on the bill or concurrent resolution.

(b) Concurrence by house of origin; concurrence prior to taking action on conference committee report by other house; final action; effect of failure of motion to concur. The house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution may concur in any amendments made by the other house, except that if the bill or concurrent resolution has been referred to a conference committee such action may only be taken prior to the taking of final action upon the conference committee report upon such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house shall be considered action on the final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has been appointed and action has not been taken upon the report of such committee by the other house and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and the motion to concur may be renewed but not on the same legislative day. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has not been appointed and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(c) Motion to nonconcur; when considered final action; effect of adoption of motion. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to nonconcur or to refuse to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house which is not coupled with a request for the appointment of a conference committee shall be considered action on final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal, and the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed killed on the adoption thereof.

(d) House of origin refusal to concur or nonconcur; request for conference; procedure. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned by either house to the house of origin with amendments, and the house of origin refuses to concur or to nonconcur therein, a conference may be requested by a majority vote of the members present and voting. Such request shall be transmitted to the other house by message which shall include the names of the conferees on the part of the requesting house. Upon receipt of any such message, the receiving house may, in like manner, approve such conference, and shall thereupon notify the requesting house by message stating the names of its conferees.

(e) Membership; appointment; chairperson; house of origin of substitute or materially changed bill or concurrent resolution; meetings of conference committee. Each conference committee shall consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house of representatives, unless otherwise fixed by agreement of the president of the senate and speaker of the house. Senate members shall be appointed by the president of the senate and house members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not less than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house. In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the conference committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

(f) Conference committee reports; subject matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business. Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation. A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment. The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house, electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports. All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report. The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee; effect of failure of motion to adopt report requesting new conference committee. If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even-numbered year. Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.

Joint rule 4. Deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills. The senate and house of representatives shall observe the following schedule of deadlines in making requests for drafting and in the introduction and consideration of bills.

(a) Bill request deadline for individual members. Except for bills introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no request to draft bills, except those made by committees, through their respective chairpersons, shall be made to, or accepted by, the office of the revisor of statutes after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on February 4, 2013, during the 2013 regular session and on February 3, 2014, during the 2014 regular session.

(b) Bill introduction deadline for individual members. Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by a member or members shall be introduced in either house of the legislature after the hour of adjournment on February 13, 2013, during the 2013 regular session and on February 12, 2014, during the 2014 regular session. Such deadline for the introduction of bills by individual members may be changed to an earlier date in either house at any time by resolution duly adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in such house.

(c) Bill request deadline for certain committees. Except for bills to be introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no committee except the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall make a request to the office of the revisor of statutes for any bill to be drafted for sponsorship by such committee after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on February 11, 2013, during the 2013 regular session and on February 10, 2014, during the 2014 regular session.

(d) Bill introduction deadline for certain committees. Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by any committee of either house of the legislature, except the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be introduced in either house after the hour of adjournment on February 15, 2013, during the 2013 regular session and on February 14, 2014, during the 2014 regular session.

(e) House of origin bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered in the house in which such bill originated after the hour of adjournment on March 1, 2013, during the 2013 regular session and on February 28, 2014, during the 2014 regular session.

(f) Second house bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered by either house, not the house of origin of such bill, after the hour of adjournment on March 27, 2013, during the 2013 regular session and March 26, 2014, during the 2014 regular session.

(g) Exceptions to limitation of (d), (e) and (f); procedure. Specific exceptions to the limitations prescribed in subsections (d), (e) and (f) may be made in either house by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members of such house then elected (or appointed) and qualified.

(h) Deadline which falls on day neither house in session; effect. In the event that any deadline prescribed in this rule falls on a day that neither house of the legislature is in session, such deadline shall be observed on the next following day that either house is in session.

(i) Bills introduced in odd-numbered years after deadlines; effect. Bills may be introduced by members and committees in regular sessions occurring in an odd-numbered year after the times prescribed in (b) and (d) of this rule, but there shall be no final action thereon by either house during the session when introduced. Such bills shall be held over for consideration at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year.

(j) Modification of schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills; procedure. In any regular session a concurrent resolution may be adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house setting forth a different schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills for that session and the provisions of such concurrent resolution shall apply to such session notwithstanding provisions of this rule to the contrary.

(k) Bill consideration deadline; exceptions. No bills shall be considered by the Legislature after April 5, 2013, during the 2013 regular session and after April 4, 2014, during the 2014 regular session except bills vetoed by the Governor, the omnibus appropriation act and the omnibus reconciliation spending limit bill provided for under K.S.A. 75-6702, and amendments thereto. This subsection (k) may be suspended for the consideration of a specific bill or bills not otherwise exempt under this subsection by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in the house in which the bill is to be considered.

Joint rule 5. Closure of meetings to consider matters relating to security. Any standing committee of the House of Representatives, any standing committee of the Senate, the Legislative Coordinating Council, any joint committee of both houses of the legislature, any special or select committee of the House of Representatives or the Senate, the House of Representatives in session, the Senate in session or a joint session of the House of Representatives and the Senate may meet in closed, executive session for the purpose of receiving information and considering matters relating to the security of state officers or employees, or both, or the security of buildings and property under the ownership or control of the State of Kansas.

Joint rule 6. Floor amendments to bills making appropriations. Unless by majority consent to correct an error in drafting, no amendment from the floor in either house of the legislature to increase the amount of expenditures that would be authorized in a provision of an appropriations bill shall be in order unless the amendment contains a provision reducing, by a like or greater amount, expenditures that would be authorized in another provision of such appropriations bill. Notwithstanding any rule in either house of the legislature, those portions of a motion to amend a bill as described in this rule shall be indivisible.

Rule 2105. Dividing Amendments.

(a) When any motion to amend a bill or resolution contains distinct propositions, it shall be divided by the presiding officer at the request of any member. The division by the presiding officer shall be made in accordance with the following:

- (1) A motion to strike out and insert words of less than a sentence shall be indivisible;
- (2) the distinct propositions shall be only in the form submitted in the motion to amend;
- (3) each proposition must be so distinct that, one being removed, the remainder may stand entirely on their own; and
- (4) those portions of a motion to amend a bill as described in Rule 2110 shall be indivisible.

(b) Upon a request to divide a motion to amend a bill or resolution, the presiding officer shall inquire as to whether there is a request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend. If such a request is made, the issue of germaneness shall be determined prior to dividing the motion.

If no request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend is made, the presiding officer shall proceed to divide the motion to amend in accordance with this rule, and no subsequent request for a ruling on germaneness of any distinct proposition of the motion so divided shall be in order.

(c) The presiding officer, or any member, may request that the member requesting the division make the request in writing specifying the manner in which the motion to amend should be divided.

(d) The division of the motion to amend shall be in accordance with the rules of the House and with items (1) to (4), inclusive, of subsection (a). The ruling of the chairperson of the Committee on Rules and Journal, or in the chairperson's absence the vice chairperson of the Committee, on how to divide the motion to amend shall not be subject to appeal except that any member may appeal the ruling of the chairperson, or vice chairperson, on the grounds that the division is not in accordance with a rule of the House including the provisions of items (1), (2), (3) or (4) of subsection (a), or any combination thereof.

(b) The Speaker may determine when a bill is subject to subsection (a). An affirmative vote of 70 members shall be required to sustain a challenge to the Speaker's determination hereunder.

Rule 2108. Motions to Strike Out and Insert.

The rejection of a motion to amend a bill or resolution by striking out and inserting one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert another proposition, nor prevent a subsequent motion simply to strike out; nor shall the rejection of a motion simply to strike out prevent a subsequent motion to strike out and insert.

Rule 2109. Identical Motions.

Except upon the unanimous consent of the House, an identical motion to amend a bill or resolution shall not be made a second time on the same legislative day.

Rule 2110. Floor Amendments to Bills Making Appropriations.

A motion to reconsider shall take precedence of all other questions except the motion to adjourn. No motion for reconsideration of any vote shall be in order, unless made on the same day or the legislative day following that on which the decision to be reconsidered took place, nor unless a member voting with the prevailing side shall move such reconsideration. A motion for reconsideration, being put and lost, shall not be renewed, nor shall any subject or vote be a second time reconsidered without unanimous consent, but this provision shall not be construed as preventing the introduction of a bill on the same subject. The member moving for recon-

Such motion shall be subject to debate by any member, stating reasons in support or opposition to the motion. When voting on the previous question, the House decides that the main question shall not now be put, the main question shall be considered as still remaining under debate. The main question shall be on the passage of the bill, resolution or other matter under consideration. When amendments are pending, a vote shall first be taken upon such amendments in their order without further debate or amendment. A majority vote of the members present shall order the previous question.

Rule 2305. Motions Not Subject to Debate.

All questions relating to priority of business shall be decided without debate. Rule 2311. Suspension of Rules of the House.

(a) No rule of the House shall be suspended except by unanimous consent or by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House, subject to the following exceptions:

(1) A motion to suspend the rules, and to declare an emergency and to advance a bill to the order of business Final Action, as contemplated in article 2, section 15 of the Constitution shall require an affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the House.

(2) A motion to suspend the rules and to permit amendment and debate of a bill under the order of business Final Action shall require an affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the House.

(b) When under the rules of the House a motion, question or action requires a vote of a majority greater than a majority of the members present, the majority specified for such motion, question or action shall be required to suspend the rules for the purpose of such motion, question or action. When under the rules of the House notice of a motion reduces the required majority for adoption of the motion, the required majority shall not be reduced if the notice is disposed of by suspension of the rules.

Journal of the House

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Monday, January 13, 2014, 2:00 p.m.

This being the day fixed by the constitution of the State of Kansas for the assembling of the 2014 session of the legislature, the House was called to order at 2:00 p.m. by Speaker Ray Merrick.

Speaker Merrick announced that the Rev. Eunice Brubaker, Church of the Nazarene District Coordinator for Church Plants, Topeka, will serve as Chaplain of the House.

Prayer Chaplain Brubaker:

God of all heaven and earth, on this opening day I stand before you and ask for Your blessing upon this 2014 legislative session.
I pray for a spirit of community where each one will consider how they may encourage one another...
be patient with one another...
to do nothing out of selfish ambition,
but in humility consider others first...
to not look after their own individual interests,
but the interest of others.
As Aristotle once spoke of community,
“the whole is greater than the sum of its parts.”
I pray these members will accomplish more working together than they would working individually, putting everyone’s strengths together to produce a greater work.
I pray this in Your Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Carlson.

The roll was called with 121 members present.

Reps. Peterson and Petty were excused on verified illness.

Reps. Houston and Kleeb were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas, the Senate concurring therein: That Joint rule 3 shall be amended to read as follows:

Joint rule 3. Conference committee procedure. (a) Action by house of origin of bill or concurrent resolution amended by other house. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned to the house of origin with amendments by the other house, the house of origin may: (1) Concur in such amendments; (2) refuse to concur in such amendments; or (3) refuse to concur in such amendments and request a conference on the bill or concurrent resolution.

(b) Concurrence by house of origin; concurrence prior to taking action on conference committee report by other house; final action; effect of failure of motion to concur. The house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution may concur in any amendments made by the other house, except that if the bill or concurrent resolution has been referred to a conference committee such action may only be taken prior to the taking of final action upon the conference committee report upon such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house shall be considered action on the final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has been appointed and action has not been taken upon the report of such committee by the other house and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and the motion to concur may be renewed but not on the same legislative day. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has not been appointed and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(c) Motion to nonconcur; when considered final action; effect of adoption of motion. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to nonconcur or to refuse to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house which is not coupled with a request for the appointment of a conference committee shall be considered action on final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal, and the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed killed on the adoption thereof.

(d) House of origin refusal to concur or nonconcur; request for conference; procedure. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned by either house to the house of origin with amendments, and the house of origin refuses to concur or to nonconcur therein, a conference may be requested by a majority vote of the members present and voting. Such request shall be transmitted to the other house by message which shall include the names of the conferees on the part of the requesting house. Upon receipt of any such message, the receiving house may, in like manner, approve such conference, and shall thereupon notify the requesting house by message stating the names of its conferees.

(e) Membership; appointment; chairperson; house of origin of substitute or materially changed bill or concurrent resolution; meetings of conference committee. Each conference committee shall consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house of representatives, unless otherwise fixed by agreement of the president of the senate and speaker of the house. Senate members shall be appointed by the president of the senate and house members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not less than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house. In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the conference committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

(f) Conference committee reports; subject matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business. Except as otherwise provided, only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation. Only one additional bill or part of a bill in conference or in a bill which has passed in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill. A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment. The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house, electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports. All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report. The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee; effect of failure of motion to adopt report requesting new conference committee. If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even-numbered year. Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Yahweh, God,
Today, my prayer for this community of leaders,
is that you will bless them with good communication.
Help them to not talk at each other,
but with each other.
Help each one to be quick to hear,
slow to speak,
and slow to anger.
Help them realize that a soft answer turns away wrath, whereas a harsh word stirs up anger.
And remind them often that,
“they have two ears and one mouth so that they can listen twice as much as they speak.”
I ask these things in Your Name, Amen.

Remarks of Rep. Kelley:

Quality is never an accident; it is always the result of high intention, sincere effort, intelligent direction, and skillful execution - it is the wise choice of many alternatives.
---William A. Foster

We're privileged to have with us today a group of exceptional teachers who have achieved the honor of State and Regional Teachers of the Year.

They are confident...confident in their skills and abilities. They have compassion for their students. They have an understanding way about them, and they understand the demands and pressures on their students. They are patient, and dedicated to excellence.

They have an unwavering support for their students - for them, there are no lost causes. They have immense pride in their students. These qualities come from a fierce passion for their work, which is almost always their life's mission.

We know the most important ingredient in student achievement is an education filled with quality teachers. Each of us remembers those teachers who made a mark on our lives, and helped shape our worlds. For the rest of your lives, long after you no longer are actively teaching, you will have students who speak of what you meant to them and the indelible prints you left upon their lives.

I would like to again recognize this fine group of teachers: 2014 Kansas Teacher of the Year, Jeff Baxter, and 2014 Kansas Regional Teachers of the Year, Jennifer Bailey, Marney Hay, Brandi Leggett, Mary Lonker, Jenny Nash, Katie Perez, and Jennifer Smith.

Please join me in showing our gratitude for each of them with a heartfelt round of applause.

Remarks of Rep. Bradford:

I am delighted to speak to this resolution to honor the achievements of Mr. Baxter and all the runners-up. This resolution is significant for Leavenworth because last year, we had a teacher selected as a runner up for Teacher of the Year...and this year Teacher of the Year by Mr. Baxter. This resolution attests to the quality of teachers in the Leavenworth School system. I am proud to have Leavenworth as part of my districts.

Remarks of Rep. O'Brien:

It is an honor to be standing here to support this resolution honoring the teacher of the year for the state of Kansas, Jeff Baxter. Mr. Baxter teaches science at Leavenworth High School. I know Mr. Baxter will represent the state of Kansas very well. I am sure his students are grateful for his decision to become a teacher.

Remarks of Rep. Meier:

As a Leavenworth High School Pioneer myself with fond memories of my favorite teachers throughout the years, it makes me very proud to stand here with our top Kansas teachers this year. I thank them for their hard work and sacrifice and for making the choice to serve on the front lines for our children. Our children and their education are our number one priority, and these teachers are the ones who put in the long hours, their talents, and their very hearts and souls to ensure our bright future.

Good luck to Mr. Baxter in his national competition. I know you will represent our Leavenworth and Kansas Pioneer spirit to the Nation well; and you will prevail!

Governor Sam Brownback's Complete Text of the State of the State

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Madame President, Members of the Legislature, the Cabinet, the Judiciary.

My Fellow Kansans,

Welcome.

As had been foretold and promised to us: God is in Heaven, the Legislature is back and the crane is gone!

The Capitol, like Kansas itself, is open for business.

So friends, welcome back. Welcome back to the fellowship of this assembly. Welcome back to this special place and welcome back to the work of building a better Kansas.

For there is work to do.

When we gathered here three years ago, we faced two big challenges: the economy and the budget.

Kansas state government was flat broke. We had begun the fiscal year with $876.05 in the bank. The state couldn't even pay its own bills on time. Everyone from school districts to service vendors was suffering months of delays, because state government had no cash.

By January, the state budget was illegally in deficit. Even more daunting, we faced a $500 million pending shortfall, and that was AFTER taxes had been raised.

And even this dire situation understated the full scope of our challenge. After decades of neglect, Kansas had the second most underfunded pension system in America.

A decade of higher taxes, more spending and bigger government failed to deliver prosperity. In January 2011, fewer Kansans were working in the private sector than had been in January 2001.

All across Kansas, family budgets were hurting. No government can be more prosperous than its people for long.

The Government was not serving the people. Unfortunately, it was the other way around.

So we had two big challenges---get people working again and restore fiscal discipline.

We took action, breaking from the failed policies of the past.

In consultation with some of the best minds in America, we developed an action plan.

We streamlined regulations, reformed workers' compensation and went from the second highest tax burden in our region to the second lowest.

When we took office, we promised Kansans tax relief. Tax rates for all working men and women in Kansas just went down again at the beginning of 2014. Congratulations are in order.

We stopped counting on government to create prosperity and put our faith in the people of Kansas.

And three years in, we are in a much better position.

Since December 2010, Kansas has added on average, more than a thousand private sector jobs every month and our unemployment rate has gone from 6.9 percent to 5.1 percent tied for the tenth lowest rate in the United States.

We've put cash in the bank, we're paying our bills on time and we've balanced three budgets in a row.

And we've reversed a decades-long trend, as finally, the personal income of Kansas families is rising faster than government spending.

Simply put...the government is back in its proper place – serving the people.

Not only is Kansas Top 10 in employment, we are listed among the Top 10 best states in which to make a living and Top 10 for the lowest cost of living.

According to the most recent National Assessment of Educational Progress, Kansas fourth graders are in one of the 10 best states for reading proficiency.

Mr. Speaker, it is for these reasons and more that I can report to you that the State of our State is strong and getting much stronger!

That's good work...that's very good work...but a state is more than its balance sheet.

The 2.9 million souls that call Kansas home cherish a way of life that honors family, values education and embraces positive change.

In fact, by the end of this decade, for the first time in our history, Kansas' population will surpass three million people.

When that three millionth Kansan is born, what kind of state will we have built for her?

It has been my privilege to serve the people of Kansas as a Secretary, Congressman, Senator and Governor.

I have seen the majesty of this state and the wonder of its people.

They are amazing; infinite in their diversity and yet sharing basic values.

Kansans are decent. Kansans are honest. Kansans care about their fellow man, and they like it here.

If you ask them what kind of state they want to build for our three millionth Kansan, they'll tell you.

One of the key pieces is education.

We Kansans love our schools and they are great schools.

Start with K-12.

Kansas ranks fourth among all states in the percentage of our budget committed to education...more than 50 percent.

When we look at funding from all government sources, Kansas schools receive more than $12,500 per student.

For every classroom of 20 students, that's a quarter million dollars in taxpayer spending.

A state that cares enough to make that kind of annual commitment also cares enough to see that that money is spent wisely, and the best decisions are usually made by those closest to the students.

So it's worth noting that school districts across Kansas have made a priority of all-day Kindergarten, even while the state has funded only half.

It seems strange to me that the state counts all of the 12 and only half of the K.

Recently, the State Board of Education came forward with a bipartisan idea to achieve this goal---proposing an increase in the student count for kindergarten age students every year for the next five years.

This proposal is targeted. It is reasonable. It will benefit Kansas school kids.

And again, thanks to the growing economy and the work of this Legislature, it is affordable.

For the first time, we can ensure that every Kansas child has access to all-day kindergarten and we should do it now.

For districts who have already taken this step, increased student count will free up resources which can in turn be dedicated to other priorities that they have.

More money, more flexibility, more learning---all paid for out of a growing economy.

But that's just the beginning.

In the past two years, we have implemented programs to increase the reading abilities of our children, a vital skill for success in school and in life.

The first programs were in southeast Kansas where young at-risk students were given extra reading training after school and during the summer. More than half of the students had significant improvement in their reading abilities.

Based on that success, we now have a Reading Roadmap Initiative for more than 40 schools across the state and are working with non-profit organizations that specialize in education and family engagement.

Our technical education programs are soaring since the State committed to paying for all tech ed courses taken by high school students.

We have seen a 75 percent increase in enrollment in just two years.

With these skills our students will find a path to progress through education and good jobs with good wages. They will form the foundation for their families and the Kansas economy.

The Jobs for America's Graduates program reaches out to high school students at risk of falling through the cracks. It helps them build the skills to make the best of their lives.

A Wichita JAG student who has spent most of his life in foster care, describes the program by saying: "JAG is not a program or a class. JAG is family."

I have witnessed the impact of the JAG program first hand. One of our JAG leaders is Mike Munoz, who is working with students at Highland Park High School here in Topeka.

He has joined us this evening. Mike is an inspiration to all his students and proof that one man can make a big difference in many lives.

Would you join me in thanking Mike for his great work?

Our Kansas universities are critical. We have been making strategic investments in areas of unique excellence and importance to the Kansas economy – and more are included in my budget proposal.

In fact, one of these investments is bearing fruit already.

Years of hard, bipartisan work at both the State and Federal level have paid off, and there is now no doubt that NBAF will be built, and Kansas will be the center of the global animal health industry for generations to come.

In my budget proposal, I will continue to support our universities, community and technical colleges and I am confident they will produce the next generation of Kansas leaders.

A growing economy, a responsible state government, a world class education---these are wonderful legacies for our three millionth Kansan.

But for all the good happening in our state, too many of our fellow Kansans are still struggling.

As we continue our climb from the troughs of the Great Recession, there are still too many Kansans actively looking for work who can't find it, and others are working harder than ever and just can't seem to get ahead.

Our challenge is to take this restored growth and fiscal responsibility and make its benefits real for families across our state---to build a state and an economy that works for everyone.

We know the path is through education, employment and family stability.

All we have done – and will continue to do – is done with the goal of building a broad prosperity for all Kansans.

Now if you'll indulge a farm kid just a little bit, I hope our three millionth Kansan gets to grow up in rural Kansas like I did.

And there are reasons for optimism that she will.

Our Rural Opportunity Zones program is flourishing in a majority of our counties and there will be proposals this year to expand it to even more.

In fact, we now have a housing shortage in many of our rural communities.

In the budget, I will propose an additional $2 Million to address this shortage, focused on moderate income housing.

In addition to housing, rural communities need access to medical care. My budget will include money for the Rural Bridging Program to bring doctors to rural Kansas.

Cutting edge opportunities in agriculture and animal health are being complimented by an energy Renaissance where every sector from oil to wind and biofuels approaches historic production levels.

But all of these industries, all of our lives, depend on our most precious natural resource---clean water.

If the three millionth Kansan is to stay and build a life here then we must leave her a state with access to our lifeblood, water. And we are expending the liquid capital of our state.

Fortunately, strong bipartisan majorities of this Legislature took steps to extend the life of the Ogallala Aquifer and encourage best practices towards water usage statewide.

As many of you came into this building tonight, you saw the words of our greatest Kansan, Dwight Eisenhower.

Ike said, "The opportunist thinks of me and today. The statesman thinks of us and tomorrow."

It's no coincidence that much of the water infrastructure we're spending through today was built in Ike's time. The fact is that from our reservoirs to our aquifers, we are relying on wise decisions made generations ago.

Those who come after us deserve that same statesmanship.

Throughout this year, people from across our state will gather to develop a comprehensive water strategy---a strategy to secure our water future for the next 50 years.

Without water...there is no future. Please, as Legislators and citizens, involve yourself in this process.

Next, we owe our three millionth Kansan a safe state.

Last September, the Legislature came together in a bipartisan fashion---strengthening penalties for the most serious crimes in a historically efficient Special Session.

Mr. Speaker...Madam President...Leader Hensley...Leader Davis.... Well done.

This cooperation can serve as a model going forward as we complete the work on Hard 50 sentencing early in this session.

Now if you go just a little bit farther on your journey into this building, you'll see another quote on the wall.

One from our Kansas Constitution, the one to which all public officers of this state swear an oath.

It reads,

"All political power is inherent in the people."

"All political power is inherent in the people."

That is a distinctly American idea.

In America there would be no kings and queens, no titles of nobility. Ours is a system of self-government of, by and for the people.

Here, for the first time, a person's station in life wouldn't be principally a product of the station of their birth.

In Kansas, you could go as far as your talents, hard work and the good Lord took you.

That freedom, that sovereignty, is also part of what we owe our three millionth Kansan and all who come after her.

One of the ironies, though, of our age is that government has become omnipresent, yet the people have never felt more distant from it.

Too many decisions are made by unaccountable, opaque institutions.

Elected officials are sometimes complicit in this transference of power, because it removes them from accountability.

So let's be clear.

On the number one item in the state budget – education – the Constitution empowers the Legislature---the people's representatives---to fund our schools.

This is the people's business, done by the people's house through the wonderfully untidy-- but open for all to see -- business of appropriations.

Let us resolve that our schools remain open and are not closed by the courts or anyone else.

Prosperity, responsibility.

Education, opportunity.

Safety, natural bounty.

Freedom, sovereignty.

Reconciliation.

These are fine things to leave our three millionth Kansan.

But as I conclude tonight, please allow me to add one more.

We owe her our example.

We have with us tonight some wonderful examples of what it means to be a Kansan.

Kansas has a long and distinguished relationship with our nation's military.

Tonight we recognize – and thank – two brave Ft. Riley soldiers wounded in service to our nation: Please welcome Captain Adam Cowan and Captain Casey Wolfe.

In Kansas we honor our veterans. We remember their service with gratitude and are humbled by their commitment to this great nation.

Honored by their commitment and sacrifice, inspired by this place, let us dedicate ourselves anew to doing the people's business.

And let us do so with a return to the virtues and character that allowed God to bless our founders.

Our state motto promises that the Kansas path is a difficult one.

We have been called to blaze the trail for America out of the wilderness on several occasions, with a willingness to stand for what is good, to oppose what is not, and acknowledge when we have been wrong.

Kansas marked the bloody trail out of slavery when the Nation was divided and undecided on whether to do so.

The chains of bondage of our brothers rubbed our skin and our hearts raw until we could stand it no more and erupted into "Bleeding Kansas."

The Summer of Mercy sprung forth in Kansas as we could no longer tolerate the death of innocent children.

Last year, I traveled with descendants of the survivors of the Pottawatomie Trail of Death to near Mound City to remember, acknowledge and apologize for the barbarous treatment of Native Americans moved to Kansas.

I was at the graveyard at Haskell where Native children, including infants, are buried. Children taken from Native families to be raised as Caucasians under the theme "Kill the Indian. Save the Man."

I was at the Monroe School here in Topeka where the doctrine of "separate but equal" was once the law of the land.

As Governor, I acknowledge and accept responsibility on behalf of the people of Kansas and I ask forgiveness for these wrongs we have done.

Today, the nation dithers while the path forward seems uncharted. America can't decide which way to go.

Yet, the path forward is clear. Kansas is leading an American Renaissance – a return to the virtue and character that built this state and a great nation in the first place.

The path is NOT uncharted. We know the way.

We must re-drill the wells that gave us life the first time. They will refresh and renew us again!

Today, we are growing and moving forward, but not for the sake of growth alone.

We grow because it helps everyone realize their God-given potential.

We rebuild our families so that our three millionth Kansan and all those like her can know the value of a family---none of which is perfect.

Yet we all aspire in them to be better, virtuous, just and righteous...that we might be blessed and a blessing.

Our dependence is not on Big Government but on a Big God that loves us and lives within us.

Our future is bright. Our renaissance is assured IF we move from dithering to action...

IF we listen to our own better Angels and the still, small voice that calls us onward

Yet listen carefully we must to the voice of hope and not to the noise of decline.

Which way to choose? We know the way. God wrote it in our hearts.

"Do the right thing, seek the truth, defend the weak, live courageous lives."

Thank you my fellow Kansans.

Thank you for all you do in service to our state.

May God bless you and may He continue to bless the great people of Kansas.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.

Rep. Peterson was excused on verified illness.

Rep. Henry was excused on legislative business.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Heavenly Father,
 Thank you for these leaders who are willing to serve and work together for the good of the whole state.
 Just as the physical body has many different parts with different roles, it is important that each part work together in order for the body to function in a healthy normal way.
 So it is with this body of leaders.
 Help them to bring their different perceptions, opinions and insights together to bring achievement of the goal and purpose of this body.
 Help them to be able to distinguish between unity and uniformity.
 Help them to collectively work for the good of the whole.
 Please continue to bring healing to Representative Peterson – a member of our body.
 Many parts – one body – working together,
 it is for this spirit of cohesiveness, I pray,
 Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Corbet.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Concannon are spread upon the Journal:

Today I would like to share information with you about the KARL Program. KARL stands for Kansas Agriculture and Rural Leadership. Many of you know, I was interested in running for the legislature for quite some time. While awaiting the right opportunity, I sought to learn more about ag and the ag industry. In order to better represent my rural district, I became a member of KARL Class VII. Our colleague Don Schroeder was a member of Class I. The KARL Program is similar to other leadership programs in the leadership curriculum and the sessions held across the state. What makes Karl unique is the focus on agriculture and on rural living. The two year commitment culminates with an international trip, giving a unique opportunity to travel abroad and to compare and contrast their country with ours. My class traveled to India in 2009. The current class will travel to South Africa next year. I am proud of my experiences with the KARL family of leaders. I am especially proud of the current class, two of which are from Beloit and here on the floor with me today. The rest of the thirty member class is in the balcony, along with the Executive Director Al Davis. Thank you, young leaders, for your time and commitment to Kansas, and specifically to rural Kansas.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. HCR 5023—

By Committee on Health and Human Services

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION designating January 20-26, 2014, as "Women's Reproductive Health Awareness Week."

WHEREAS, Women comprise more than half of the population of the United States of America, and are solely responsible for childbearing; and

WHEREAS, Women who plan their pregnancies are more likely to seek prenatal care, improving their own health and the health of their children; and

WHEREAS, The United States of America has one of the highest rates of maternal mortality among all developed nations; and

WHEREAS, Family planning services improve health care outcomes and wellness for women and families, and access to family planning is directly linked to declines in maternal and infant mortality rates. Women who do not receive prenatal care are three to four times more likely to die after a live birth than are women who have received even minimal prenatal care; and

WHEREAS, Contraception enables women to better prevent unintended pregnancies and plan for pregnancy when they do want to have a child; and

WHEREAS, Nearly half of all unintended pregnancies end in abortion and abortion rates in the United States of America increase during times when contraception is less accessible to low income women; and

WHEREAS, The United States of America has one of the highest rates of unintended pregnancy among the world's developed nations; and

WHEREAS, In addition to the primary purpose of allowing women to plan and prepare for pregnancy, other health benefits of contraception include reduced risk of endometrial and ovarian cancers, ectopic pregnancy, iron deficiency anemia related to heavy menstruation, osteoporosis and ovarian cysts; and

WHEREAS, Racial and ethnic health disparities are particularly pronounced in reproductive health, including disparities in rates of contraception usage, unintended pregnancies, maternal mortality and sexually transmitted infections. These disparities reveal significant barriers to access to sexual health care, including contraception, medical care and medically accurate sexuality education; and

WHEREAS, A majority of American voters believe that matters related to women's reproductive rights are personal issues that should be decided by women with their families, health care providers or clergy members: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas, the Senate concurring therein: That we designate January 20-26, 2014, as "Women's Reproductive Health Awareness Week." We recognize the importance of encouraging public awareness, conversation and support for reproductive health nationwide.

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to Governor Sam Brownback and Representative Bollier.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Cassidy are spread upon the Journal:

I would like to recognize Northwest Kansas Technical College and their President, Ed Mills, for receiving the Apple Distinguished School Award for 2013-2015.

The Apple Award is a prestigious award for innovation, leadership, and educational excellence. Northwest Kansas Technical College is the first two year college and the first college in Kansas to receive this award.

Dr. Mills began his presidency in 2009 and since that time the college has grown from 291 students to 626 students, an increase of 115%.

Every program at Northwest Tech emphasizes hands-on learning and real work experience in the field, supported by complete iPad integration in the classroom. Instructors work hard to help students connect mind, hand and heart, and the iPad Mobile Learning Initiative.

Rep. Cassidy introduced Dr. Mills and the others in attendance and presented them with a framed House certificate.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Ballard are spread upon the Journal:

The national holiday in Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s honor is a time to reflect on his lifelong dedication to advancing racial tolerance and equality of opportunity for all people.

We all know that on Monday, January 20, 2014, we celebrated the life and legacy of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

You should also know, that on April 4, 1968, Dr. King was taken from us, much too quickly and much too violently. Yet, the manner in which he left us is not what I wish to dwell on as we commemorate his life. Rather, I believe it is important to reflect on the lessons he left us, the lessons of his life and the lessons of his legacy.

Dr. Martin King's life was a life lived in service to others. His life was a life lived calling for an end to the injustice caused by racial inequality, the injustice caused by poverty, and the injustice caused by war. Despite his best efforts and unending dedication, he did not witness an end to these injustices in his lifetime.

Reverend Doctor King's legacy to us is this: that in our time and in our day, right here and now, we are called to end the injustice of racial inequality, the injustice of poverty, and the injustice of all war. We are the heirs of Dr. King's legacy. We must not falter in our efforts.

I want you to know of a sermon Dr. King delivered, just two short months before his untimely passing, at Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta, Georgia on February 4, 1968:

"And so Jesus gave us a new norm of greatness. If you want to be important—wonderful. If you want to be recognized—wonderful. If you want to be great—wonderful. But recognize that he who is greatest among you shall be your servant. That's a new definition of greatness. You don't have to have a college degree to serve. You don't have to make your subject and your verb agree to serve. You don't have to know about Plato and Aristotle to serve. You don't have to know Einstein's theory of relativity to serve. You don't have to know the second theory of thermodynamics in physics to serve. You only need a heart full of grace, a soul generated by love. And you can be that servant."

As we celebrate the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and his message of service and a more peaceful world, let us continue to imitate him in our deeds and in our actions. Let us be the servant that Dr. King so eloquently described.

– Thanks to Senator Rev. Ruben Diaz, District 32, Bronx County, New York

Dr. King talked about a drum major for justice. Let each one of us be a Drum Major for Justice in our community and in our state. I wish God's blessings on each and every one of you, my sisters and brothers.

We were reminded how important it is that we serve others.
Today I pray that we will serve with joyful hearts, never keeping score—always giving and never expecting to receive.
Help us to be willing to give of ourselves—
our talents, time, and energy.
Help us to understand the needs of others—never criticizing, demeaning, scolding or condemning.
Instead, help us to always be—understanding, listening, gentle and compassionate.
This is what You show to us—help us to show it to others.
For this spirit of servanthood, I pray,
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Waymaster.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. HR 6041—

A RESOLUTION congratulating and commending the residents of Kansas and the Kansas Volunteer Commission for their outstanding efforts in volunteerism and civic engagement.

WHEREAS, Kansas is now ranked fourth in the nation in volunteering with 807,860 volunteers providing over 82 million hours of service to Kansas communities; and

WHEREAS, Of the 626 cities in Kansas, 75% have populations of less than 1,500 persons and are most often led by community leaders that volunteer in service to these communities without paid city administrators or other paid staff; and

WHEREAS, Kansas State football coach Bill Snyder led the efforts to win the Coaches Mentoring Challenge for the sixth straight year, with 3,729 new mentors committed to assist Kansas youth. "Mentoring is a cost-effective and proven intervention that not only provides a safe and positive role model for our youth, but gives individuals in our communities a way to support their young people," said Coach Bill Snyder, "I want to thank the thousands of individuals who signed up to become mentors and also the mentoring programs that work tirelessly to serve our youth." Over the past six years, Kansas has recruited more than 27,000 new mentors during the Coaches Challenge competitions. Research shows that mentoring has long-term benefits for youth by increasing their chances of high school graduation and college attendance and decreasing the likelihood of substance abuse and other risky behaviors; and

WHEREAS, In Kansas, thousands have volunteered in various senior programs, such as Foster Grandparents, Senior Companions or the Retired and Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP), which have contributed to the benefit of and quality of life in our communities; and

WHEREAS, In Kansas, more than 6,200 people participate in national service each year through 1,100 locations in more than 45 national service projects and programs, providing direct services to our urban and rural communities; and

WHEREAS, Throughout this great state hundreds of thousands of our citizens are engaged in volunteer services to their communities each and every day, as individuals and as members of their churches and civic organizations, serving those in need and helping our communities thrive: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we congratulate and commend our Kansas citizens and the efforts of the Kansas Volunteer Commission for all their efforts in volunteering and civic engagement; and

Be it further resolved: That we congratulate and commend Kansas State football coach Bill Snyder for his leadership in mentoring while serving Kansas youth; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to the Kansas Volunteer Commission and Coach Bill Snyder.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Carlson are spread upon the Journal:

Today we honor the Kansas Volunteer Commission, empowering all Kansans to meet community needs through service.

- Kansas is ranked fourth in the nation in volunteering.
- Approximately one in three Kansans volunteered at an organization in 2012.
- Over 807,000 Kansans volunteered 82.9 million hours of service contributing $1.5 billion of service.
- A majority of volunteer time is spent in religious and educational institutions.

With me today are the Kansas Volunteer Commission Staff and Commissioners: Tom Bishop, Jeff Locke, Jolene Niernberger, Connie Stewart, Rod Buchele, Diane Caton, Matt Lindsey, Nicolette Geisler, Cheri Faunce, Nathan Crispin, Molly Turner and Travis Couture-Lovelady.

The Kansas Volunteer Commission supports a variety of volunteer organizations through its programming and funding opportunities. Among them are AmeriCorps, Volunteer Generation Fund and Kansas Mentors.

More than 360 Kansans are given the opportunity to serve as AmeriCorps State, AmeriCorps National Direct or AmeriCorps VISTA members.

In 2013, they raised more than $580,000 in cash or in-kind resources for the organizations they serve. At least 5,900 seniors will contribute more than 1.2 million hours of service, leveraging their time and talents. In 2013, they tutored and mentored more than 8,700 Kansas youth with special or exceptional needs. We thank all the commissioners and volunteers for your service.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Edwards are spread upon the Journal:

We make this Certificate of Award for Sedgwick County Deputy Lucas Powell, 33, five year veteran of the Sedgwick County Sheriff's Office, because he stood tall in the very time of danger and performed truly as an "Officer of Valor during Extreme Danger." Deputy Powell was shot in the line of duty.

On March 11, 2013, Sedgwick County Deputy Lucas Powell was on patrol in northern Sedgwick County. A report was put out on the radio about a person driving in a very erratic method. Deputy Powell saw the vehicle and when he tried to stop the vehicle, it began to elude the attempts to stop. The driver driving north on I-135 approaching the North County line, he passed many people on the right. Deputy Powell followed this person in an old Cadillac at a high rate of speed into Harvey County then east on K196 into Butler County. It was in Butler County that the Deputy saw that the vehicle was smoking and then stopped on a rural road just South of Potwin, Kansas near a farmhouse. The deputy was trying to send his K-9 dog, Riggs, when the people who had tried to elude was running away, the lady turned and shot a shotgun blast at the deputy hitting Deputy Powell in the right face and eye and side. Deputy Powell, though wounded in the right face and eye, stayed calm and collected and relayed that he had been shot and that the people who had done so were running to the east away from him. He was calm during all the radio traffic while officers from over a dozen agencies were responding to his location to help him and also help apprehend the people who had shot him. Deputy Powell gave out information that the one who shot him was a female with a shotgun and that there was a man that had a rifle running with this person. The time frame for this incident went on for over 12 minutes. Each time Deputy Powell was on the radio as he was requested to keep talking by the Sheriff of his county, he was under control and poised. Deputy Powell assisted in the incident by giving pertinent information to those that were responding.

The driver was apprehended after he was shot by a State Trooper in the chest when he refused to drop his weapon. The woman was taken into custody just after her male driver had been shot.

I personally have known the Powell family and Deputy Lucas Powell since he was born. This family is from the Mulvane area and this Deputy and his family lives in Mulvane, Kansas. I held this young man just days after he was born and even fed him at that time. These are good people and it is my distinct pleasure and privilege to bring this family and especially this fine Deputy before this august body of the Kansas House of Representatives honoring him for gallantry in the face of danger!

Rep. Edwards presented a framed House certificate to Deputy Powell.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Hutton are spread upon the Journal:

Ladies and Gentlemen, I come before this body today to recognize one of our past members for his service and commitment to our great State of Kansas. Robert Coldsnow served three terms in the Kansas House of Representatives from 1965 thru 1971. Later, in 1974, he accepted the position of Legislative Council to this body, a position he held for 16 years until his retirement in 1990. However, less than a year later in a testament to his knowledge and legislative skills he was asked by the Legislative Coordinating Council to come out of retirement to assist lawmakers on a reapportionment matter for two years until that was resolved in 1992 when he retired for the last time.

This last Thursday, January 23rd Representative Coldsnow passed away at the age of 89.

Although Robert Coldsnow was known by many as Bob, I knew him as my Uncle Bob and a man that had a profound effect on my life. It was his example of commitment and service to our State that I strive to model to this day. At the age of 12 he arranged for me to serve as a page in this chamber and it was that small taste of public service that ignited the spark that eventually led to my standing before you today. I was especially pleased and proud that he was able to join me on the House floor last year when I was sworn in for my first term.

As a Representative and Legislative Council, Bob Coldsnow was also known for his steadfast commitment to this state's constitution. In a 2005 article in the Topeka Capital Journal he was quoted as saying that some legislators "got tired of hearing me telling them that certain things weren't constitutional".

As my Uncle Bob I knew him as a compassionate man that began every relationship with respect and trust. His reputation for always telling the unvarnished truth along with his impeccable ethical standards provided legislators a trusted benchmark from which to work.

I'm really going to miss our visits where he helped me navigated my first term as a Representative and while we didn't always agree on our positions I always appreciated his sage advice, historical knowledge, and perspective.

And so today Mr. Speaker I would ask that this body join me in acknowledging the life, distinguished service, and legacy of Representative Robert Coldsnow by spreading my remarks upon today's journal and rising with me to applaud his job well done.

Heavenly Father,
Today as we celebrate the 153rd anniversary of the statehood of our great state, we would be remiss if we didn't pause to express our gratitude for the way You have watched over us and blessed us in so many different ways.
From the four corners of the state—
Elkhart to Reserve, St. Francis to Baxter Springs; from the farmland to the industrial plants,
from the stockyards to Corporate Woods,
You have blessed this state with hard-working, talented and gifted people with good old-fashioned work ethic and values.
And these leaders gathered here have the wonderful privilege of representing these people.
Today, Lord, remind them often of the great blessings they have.
And may they be grateful and take seriously

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Carlson are spread upon the Journal:

One year ago last Friday, our two granddaughters were in a very serious auto accident. Jordan and Bailey Carlson are doing great today. Bailey is paging for me today. She spent six weeks in a body brace, as she fractured every vertebrae in her back, but is now back to normal. We are so thankful to have these girls in our lives.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Kleeb are spread upon the Journal:

I want to thank everyone in the House for all of the support, condolences and expressions of sympathy during this difficult time. My family and I greatly appreciate the cards, emails, phone calls and your presence at the visitation and funeral.

As you know, my wonderful wife, Nancy, lost her battle with pancreatic cancer. And, I want to thank the members here who have contributed in memory of Nancy to the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network. We must continue our research for a cure and for earlier and better detection so other victims and their loved ones will not experience this pain.

It's at a time like this we realize how important our friends are to us. This House is made up of kind, caring and decent people. I am most fortunate to have you as my colleagues and friends. God bless each and everyone of you.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Dierks are spread upon the Journal:

Thank you Mr. Speaker for allowing me to share a piece of Kansas History.

As a child I was always aware that my Father was born in Marquette, Kansas on June 20, 1920, but that was all of my family's history that I knew at the time.

Several years later in looking through some of my Grandmother's pictures I discovered a very old picture of a couple circa the 1800's. I discovered that it was a picture of my great-grandfather Andrew Jackson Collier and his wife Leodicsa and was taken by a photographer in Council Grove in Morris Count, Kansas.

I was intrigued and decided to investigate the history of this picture.

It seems that the city fathers of Council Grove held an election for city officials and that my great-grandfather was elected the first sheriff of Council Grove, Kansas. They were so excited about the beginning of statehood that they waited to be sworn in on January 29, 1861 and become part of history by being some of the first elected officials of the new state.

As I walk through this amazing building we know as our Kansas State Capitol and look at the many paintings that adorn its walls I think about my great-grandfather and the pioneers who came here with all of their belongings and a dream for a future for generations to come. I am proud to know that one of them was my great-grandfather and the celebration which we acknowledge today includes not only the officials of many years ago but the generations that have come after.

Upon my election one of the first things that I wanted to do was stand in front of my great-grandfather's grave and say, "What do you think Grandpa?"

Thank you for allowing me to share this special part of history with you my honored colleagues.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Rep. Crum, HCR 5025, A concurrent resolution commending the recipients of the Peter John Loux Award, was adopted.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Crum are spread upon the Journal:

It's a pleasure to acknowledge the 25th anniversary of the Peter John Loux Award through this Concurrent Resolution.

This award recognized Kansans who have demonstrated exceptional desire and dedication in overcoming the difficulties presented to them by congenital or acquired physical or neurological disabilities.

This morning I would like to recognize Patrick Terick, Director of Governmental Affairs for the Cerebral Palsy Research Foundation and the chairman of the selection committee for the Peter Jon Loux Award. Joining Patrick are Judy Turner, Pete Loux's daughter, and Jessica Gainer, Pete Loux's granddaughter who serve on the selection committee. Also, with Patrick are the 2013 winners of the award.

Don Wistuba is no stranger to anyone in this body. Don has owned and operated the Kansas Capitol Snack Shop for 37 years.

Don is very appreciative of the wonderful education that he received at the Kansas School for the Blind.

I was not aware until recently that Don participated in track and cross country while in school and to this day speed-walks two to three miles nearly every morning.

Don is an inspiration to all in the capitol building. His warm smile and friendly greeting have endeared him to everyone who serves here. Don shines as a beacon of light to us all.

Mark has a long history of public service and commitment to his city, county, and state.

Most importantly, Mark has been a strong advocate for the disabled in Kansas and Washington, D.C. His Facebook page named: "Disabled: speak up and be heard: get involved" gives people with disabilities a forum.

Despite his personal challenges, Mark has consistently found the time to give back to his community.

Carmen Thomas of Olathe was born with Bilateral Amelia, a disease that left her without arms and shorter legs.

Carmen has never allowed personal challenges and hardships to stop her from pursuing her dreams. She graduated from the University of Kansas in May of 2012 with a Bachelor of Arts with emphasis in early childhood autism intervention.

Following graduation Carmen accepted a job as a para- professional with the Olathe school district working with children who exhibit autism.

For six years Carmen has volunteered at Camp Barnabas, a summer camp for children with special needs.

Northwest High School teacher, Loretta Shull, indicates that witnessing Carmen's spirit and determination makes it difficult to adequately describe her power.

All That Matters

I was born into this world
Looking different than the average girl
Though I am missing some body parts
I still have a big heart
And that's all that matters

From the beginning, doctors said I could not
But my family always fought
All they ever wanted was for me to fit in
And to belong within
And that's all that matters

My family raised me to try my hardest
Because they knew I could go the farthest

I try not to stand out
And I never pout
Because of my disability
I know I have the capability
To set myself free
And to always be me
And that's all that matters

I taught myself to do
The things that come easy to you
Most people have been amazed
By all of my successful days
Once I solve something
I never have to rethink
Or question what I did
I'm just glad to have it fixed
And that's all that matters

I enter school on week days
Always with a smile on my face
I never let my stress
Form to be a test
Of whom I really am
Because I am how I am
And that's all that matters

My life has always revolved
Around problems that need solved
I have help finding conclusions
And I always have solutions
And that's all that matters

Without my loved ones by my side
I would not have made it this far in life
Throughout the good and the bad
I never really had
To be all alone
With everyone gone
And that's all that matters

My hands are in heaven
I learned this when I was seven They're waiting up there for me
For whenever I am ready
To leave my surroundings
And discover new boundaries
And see many new faces
And overlook different places
And that's all that matters

My life does not revolve around my looks
 I did not learn this from any books
 But from those who love me
 And always make me happy
 And that's all that matters

They've always believed in me
 And taught me to be Myself
 Only then would I receive
 The courage to believe
 That I can do many things
 And mostly, I can be anything
 And that's all that matters

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was introduced and read by title:

By Committee on Energy and Environment

A RESOLUTION urging the United States Congress to oppose the assumptions and implementation of the President's climate action plan.

WHEREAS, On June 25, 2013, President Barack Obama issued "The President's Climate Action Plan," which has been followed by proposed actions to be taken by the United States Environmental Protection Agency in support of this Plan; and

WHEREAS, The Plan suggests that the activities of mankind are such that carbon pollution occurs as a result of the emission of the compound known as carbon dioxide, CO₂, which is fundamentally and chemically distinct from elemental carbon; and

WHEREAS, The Environmental Protection Agency believes the agency has just cause to execute the Plan, and in so doing promulgate dozens, if not hundreds of regulations related to the agency's believed responsibility to mitigate modeled weather and climatic events; and

WHEREAS, The core of the Plan is focused on climate management, believed to be necessary due to the emissions of carbon dioxide from various point and non-point sources largely related to the combustion of fossil fuels; and

WHEREAS, The Environmental Protection Agency asserts that extreme weather events are due to anthropogenic CO₂ emissions and must be controlled; and

WHEREAS, The climate of planet earth is somewhat predictable, from season to season, year to year, and decade to decade, due to cyclic variations that have been observed for hundreds, and in some cases thousands, of years; and

WHEREAS, The contents of the Plan are based on multiple erroneous assumptions and models that have been substantially refuted by a preponderance of scientific evidence; and

WHEREAS, The gaseous substance CO₂ is known to produce very desirable effects upon plant life, and is also known to be a colorless, odorless, tasteless and harmless component that is essential to earth's atmosphere; and

WHEREAS, Substantial amounts and types of real-data evidence clearly indicate a complete disconnect between anthropogenic emissions of CO₂ and the temperature of the earth; and

WHEREAS, Global sea level has been steadily increasing in most areas, with no association to human activity, due in part to continental glaciers that have been melting for hundreds of years as a result of the undeniable fact that the earth has been engaged in a warming period in relation to the most recent of many interglacial periods; and

WHEREAS, The sea ice of both the Arctic region of the northern hemisphere and the Antarctic region of the southern hemisphere have increased and reached record extents since satellite observation of these regions began in 1979, all while the concentration of CO₂ in the earth's atmosphere has increased from approximately 340 parts per million to 400 ppm; and

WHEREAS, There has been no increase in the number of tropical storms or hurricanes worldwide since 1971, regardless of the material increase of CO₂; and

WHEREAS, There has been no increase in the number of F3 or greater tornadoes during the period of 1954 to 2013, and in fact, the number of tornados has been trending downward since 1974; and

WHEREAS, The most severe droughts in the contiguous United States occurred during the periods 1930-1942 and 1953-1960, with materially wetter periods dominating the past five decades; and

WHEREAS, If allowed to become effective, the proposed rules and regulations resulting from EPA actions would be very detrimental to the economy of the United States as well as the State of Kansas: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That based on these, as well as other highly credible lines of actual scientific data, we urge the United States Congress to take action to materially counteract the factually incorrect, misinformed actions currently being considered by the EPA related to the Climate Action Plan; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to the majority leader of the United States Senate, the speaker of the United States House of Representatives and each member of the Kansas congressional delegation.

On motion of Rep. Vickrey, the House adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Friday, January 31, 2014.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Lord of all Creation,
In this place, many laws are determined.
Laws that are to be followed or a penalty will be imposed.
Laws that hopefully make things better, but sometimes can be painful.
There is, however, something that there can never be a law against.
We read about it in Your word,
“...the fruit of Your Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self control.
Against such things there is no law.”
(Galatians 5:22-23)
Help this fruit to be evident in our lives today.
In Christ's Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Burroughs.

"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to require the supreme court nominating commission to submit to the governor the names of all qualified persons who submit their names to the commission for consideration, and to require the governor to appoint one of such persons. The amendment would also require that a person deemed not qualified by the commission shall be given a written statement of the reasons they were deemed not qualified. Current law requires the supreme court nominating commission to submit the names of three qualified persons to the governor, and requires the governor to appoint one of such persons.

"A vote for this proposition would require the supreme court nominating commission to submit to the governor the names of all qualified persons who submit their names to the commission for consideration, and require the governor to appoint one of such persons.

"A vote against this proposition would continue the current law that requires the supreme court nominating commission to submit the names of three qualified persons to the governor, and requires the governor to appoint one of such persons."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2014 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

The following resolution was introduced and read by title:

By Representative Kuether

A RESOLUTION commemorating the 10th Anniversary of National Wear Red Day.

WHEREAS, Heart disease is the number one killer of women, yet is often preventable; and

WHEREAS, Cardiovascular diseases cause one in three women's deaths each year, killing approximately one woman every minute; and

WHEREAS, An estimated 43 million women in the United States are affected by cardiovascular diseases; and

WHEREAS, Heart disease kills more women than all forms of cancer combined, but is often undiagnosed; and

WHEREAS, Ninety percent of women have one or more risk factors for developing heart disease, yet only one in five American women believes that heart disease is her greatest health threat; and

WHEREAS, Women comprise only 24% of participants in all heart-related studies; and

WHEREAS, Since 1984, more women than men have died each year from heart disease and the gap between men's and women's survival continues to widen; and

WHEREAS, Women are less likely to call 911 for themselves when experiencing symptoms of a heart attack than they are if someone else were having a heart attack; and

WHEREAS, The American Heart Association's Go Red For Women movement has been impacting the health of women for 10 years. More than 627,000 women's lives have been saved and 330 fewer women are dying every day; and

WHEREAS, In celebration of the 10th Anniversary of National Wear Red Day on February 7, 2014, Go Red For Women is asking all women across America to 'Go Red' by wearing red and speaking about awareness. Women can prevent heart disease by: Asking their doctors to check their blood pressure and cholesterol; stopping smoking, losing weight, exercising and eating healthy; realizing their risk, since heart disease is the cause of one in three female deaths each year; making healthy food choices for themselves and their families and teaching their children the importance of staying active; and by telling every woman they know that heart disease is their number one killer; and

WHEREAS, By increasing awareness, speaking up about cardiovascular disease and empowering women to reduce their risk, thousands of women's lives can be saved each year: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we commemorate the 10th Anniversary of National Wear Red Day and urge all citizens to show their support for women and the fight against heart disease by wearing the color red; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to Representative Kuether.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Shultz are spread upon the Journal:

About 20 years ago I remember standing in the gallery, looking out across Representative Hall, and thinking about how great it must be to serve as a Representative in this chamber. Years later I stood in the front where the Oath of Office was administered and I looked up at the gallery where my family was seated. A couple years later when I chaired the Committee of the Whole, sitting in the chair I looked up at the gallery again and thought about what a great adventure it was to get from the gallery to the chair. And what an adventure it has been. I've spoken at this microphone literally hundreds of times over the past 17 years, and now I stand here for likely the last time. I have very mixed feelings. I have so many good friends over the years, all of you who are here today, some who have retired, and some who have left this earth. The legislature truly is like a family, we sometimes disagree on issues, but at the end of the day, we sit down with each other and are friends.

I want to thank our House leadership on both sides of the aisle, the members of the Rules Committee, the members of the Insurance Committee, the Chief Clerk and the assistants that make things run so smoothly in this Chamber.

Thank you for a wonderful 17 years.

On motion of Rep. Vickrey, the House adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Tuesday, February 4, 2014.

SIXTEENTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, February 6, 2014, 11:00 a.m.

The Legislature was not in session Tuesday, February 4, and Wednesday, February 5, because of inclement weather.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.
Rep. Peterson was excused on verified illness.

Upon the resignation of Rep. Shultz on Monday, February 3, the House is now organized with 124 members.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

God of Creation,
You really outdid Yourself this time with all this snow and sub-zero weather.
In the midst of this winter weather, help us to focus on the positives—such as the beauty of the pure white snow, the moisture that it brings to our farmlands, for the chance to pull back and slow down which gives way for time of reflection and contemplation.
Thank You for watching over all Kansans the last couple of days.
Thank you for all the public servants who have worked long hard hours to clear roads and highways.
Thank you for the way our citizens came together to help those who needed assistance.
Now I ask that you be with our leaders today
as they get back to work.
I pray that the climate inside will be much warmer than the climate outside.
This can only happen if everyone keeps focused on working together and with each other.
I pray this in Your name, Amen.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was introduced and read by title:

By Representatives Todd and Merrick

A RESOLUTION supporting Taiwan's participation in international trade agreements and an international climate organization and reaffirming Kansas' commitment to its relationship with Taiwan.

WHEREAS, Taiwan, officially known as the Republic of China, and the United States have a relationship marked by strong bilateral trade, educational and cultural exchange and tourism. Kansas and Taiwan share sister-city and sister-state relationships that are beneficial to all Taiwanese and Kansans; and

WHEREAS, Taiwan, the United States and Kansas all share the common values of freedom, democracy, human rights and rule of law; and

WHEREAS, The United States is Taiwan's third largest trading partner and Taiwan is the United States' 11th largest trading partner. Bilateral trade has reached $63 billion; and

WHEREAS, Taiwan and Kansas have enjoyed a long and mutually beneficial relationship. Both countries anticipate continuing growth, with Taiwan ranking as Kansas' 14th largest export destination. Kansas goods worth $128 million were shipped to Taiwan, including food, chemicals, computer and electronic products, transportation equipment and agricultural products; and

WHEREAS, Taiwan seeks to contribute to greater regional integration in the Asia-Pacific region and promote bilateral investment and trade relations with the United States. Taiwan applauds the United States' announcement of its intent, not only to join the Trans-Pacific Partnership, the proposed 21st century trade agreement between the U.S. and 11 other Asia-Pacific rim countries, but also to expand Trans-Pacific Partnership membership in the future to include other countries, such as Taiwan; and

WHEREAS, Taiwan has a dynamic market economy and is the leading supplier of high-tech products. Taiwan has the 17th largest economy in the world, is the 14th largest exporter and 16th largest importer. Taiwan ranks 20th in free trade according to the 2013 Prosperity Index. Taiwan is fifth out of 41 economies in the Asia-Pacific region. As an important economic power, Taiwan should be included in regional economic integration; and

WHEREAS, Negotiations for a Bilateral Investment Agreement between Taiwan and the United States are an important step toward strengthening bilateral trade. The Bilateral Investment Agreement will pave the way for entering into a Free Trade Agreement between the two countries, thereby increasing Kansas' exports to Taiwan and creating technical collaboration through tariff reduction and other trade facilitation measures; and

WHEREAS, Taiwan's absence from international organizations, such as the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change, has hampered its ability to participate in global climate initiatives and to respond to natural disasters such as

Typhoon Haiyan, which caused serious damage to the Philippines in November 2013. Because Taiwan and the Philippines are geographically close and both subject to the severe effects of typhoon, Taiwan should not be excluded from this international body; and

WHEREAS, Taiwan can be a valuable and constructive partner in the international response to adverse effects of climate change and severe weather emergencies, as evidenced by Taiwan's speedy and generous response to aid the victims of Typhoon Haiyan in the Philippines with donations of more than $10 million: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we support Taiwan's efforts to secure entry into the Trans-Pacific Partnership and endorse the signing of the Bilateral Investment Agreement with the United States; and

Be it further resolved: That we support Taiwan's participation in international organizations, such as the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change, that impact the health, safety and well-being of Taiwan; and

Be it further resolved: That we reaffirm Kansas' commitment to the strong and deepening sister-city and sister-state relationships between Taiwan and the state of Kansas; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to Jack J.C. Yang, Director General of the Taipei Economic and Cultural Office.

SEVENTEENTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Friday, February 7, 2014, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 120 members present.

Reps. Lusk and Peterson were excused on verified illness.

Rep. Christmann and Wilson were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

God our Provider,
As the Psalmist David once sang out,
“I lift up my eyes to the hills—where does my help come from?
My help comes from the Lord,
the Maker of heavens and earth,” Today I lift up my eyes and heart to You and ask that You provide Your help to these leaders.
Watch over them today as they meet in various committees with various people.
Guard their heart—
for what is in their heart will be revealed through their words and actions.
Be their refuge and strength
when they may feel beaten down and stepped upon.
Give them the courage to withstand in times of disagreement and opposition—but also a willingness to listen with an open mind.
Lord, please continue to be with Representative Peterson. Make Your presence known to him during this difficult time.
All these things You have promised to give if asked in Your name and within Your will.
For this I pray, Amen.
(Psalm 121:1-2)

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Victors.

Prayer by the Rev. Dr. Bradley K. Walker, pastor, First Presbyterian Church, Topeka:

O Lord, you are worshiped in many ways, in many languages, in many names, and we know that there are others who wonder about the existence of a God beyond ourselves. For all the ways in which the members of this body approach the life of the spirit, we pray for them this day.

In the deliberations and decisions of this House of Representatives we pray that they would be guided by the greatest of human virtues. We are all aware that the temptations and influence of wealth and power surround these representatives, so we pray that in the midst of those forces they would govern wisely for the benefit of all; from the powerful to the powerless, for both rich and poor alike, for those who have access to the centers of influence and for those who are left outside.

For religious and non-religious alike, humanity has exalted the virtuous life as the highest of ideals, and love in its many forms is the greatest virtue of all. May this body seek to embrace this great human virtue as the light that guides their way through this day's work, believing that love for all people, especially the least of those among us, will ultimately prove to be in the best interest of all, bringing forth the peace and justice that follows the light of love in our hearts and in our world.

May these legislators discover new ways to integrate the power of love into their important work this day.

We pray this today, Amen.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Rep. Boldra, HR 6047, A RESOLUTION designating February 11, 2014, as Multiple Sclerosis Day at the Capitol, was adopted:

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Boldra are spread upon the Journal:

What do Ozzie Osbourne, Mitt Romney, the Osmond Brothers, and J. K. Rowling have in common?

They all have family members victimized by Multiple Sclerosis. MS is often difficult to diagnose. A pain when you bend your head to read or tie your shoes – called Lhermittes; a pain behind an eye – optical neuritis that can lead to temporary or long-term blindness; loss of muscle control to paralysis.

Young adults are most often affected, women twice as likely as men – often young women of child bearing age. MS often goes undiagnosed until many lesions have formed in the brain and along the spinal cord; a disease with no known cause and no known cure.

Our youngest child, Chelsea, has MS. She will receive this resolution on behalf of the Mid America Chapter of the National MS Society. She is very active in the chapter, serving on the MS advisory board and volunteering much time and energy working and walking for a cure. She is also involved in the Traveling Turkeys event in Wichita. They distribute Thanksgiving meals to MS victims who have difficulty shopping and preparing for the holiday. A similar event is now taking place in Hays where Chelsea's father and I are delivering the meals.

Thank you, Chelsea. You are my inspiration.

We three (Representatives Boldra, Christmann, and Todd), have a common bond – a daughter, a wife, a mother with MS.

We are here today to raise awareness for MS that we may find a cure in our lifetime. Join us, wear your wrist bands, and Join the Movement!!

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Rep. Hedke, HR 6045, A RESOLUTION commending the nation of Israel for its cordial and mutually beneficial relationship with the United States and the State of Kansas, was adopted:

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Hedke are spread upon the Journal:

We talk a lot about State sovereignty, and with good reasons, none of which are going to occupy this podium today.

There is one very special country, some call Her the 'State' of Israel.

Her very existence as a state is viewed by some, actually by many, as a miraculous circumstance. It was prophesied that it would happen, and that prophecy became a reality on May 18, 1948.

From that moment of inception, she has been in battle after battle for her survival. She is surrounded by enemies on all sides, and others in very close proximity would wish she no longer existed.

However, her destiny is not controlled by mere human forces. She survives owing to a special something that is omniscient, omnipresent and omnipotent. All of these attributes are astounding, but being omnipotent, or all powerful, is the one that should be taken very seriously, and I do.

He is worthy of our praise, and She is worthy of our unending support and commendation for carrying the torch of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

O Lord, our Lord how excellent is your name in all the earth!
(Psalm 8:9)

We honor You and give You thanks for all the great and wonderful things You have done for us.

We thank you for the privilege to serve in the capacity of State Legislators and as we are faced with the daunting task of establishing policy for the people of this great State, we ask that Your divine wisdom and guidance be imparted to us, so that as we make decisions that touch the lives of all people, we will do so with grace and compassion.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Becker are spread upon the Journal:

Joining me at the Well this morning are:

Rep. Don Schroeder – Harvey County – Buhler High School Class of 1969

Rep. Keith Esau – Johnson County – Buhler High School Class of 1978

Rep. Dan Hawkins – Sedgwick County – Buhler High School Class of 1978

I represent Reno County and the City of Buhler – Buhler High School Class of 1965; making me the elder Statesman of the Four on the Floor.

It should be noted that my athletic experience in high school was once described by a classmate as what prepared me for a career on the bench.

The four of us join together to recognize our alma mater's football team for achieving its first state football championship in the history of Buhler High School.

As our guests this morning, with a record of 13 wins against only one loss, are members of the 2013 Kansas 4A Football State Champions and Coach Steve Warner. Please help us recognize them for their accomplishment.

Rep. Becker presented a framed House certificate to Coach Warner and the team.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Boldra are spread upon the Journal:

I would like to invite those representatives who have ties to Fort Hays State University and those who represent the districts of the students honored today, to join me at The Well.

Joining us today is the Seekers class of the Kansas Academy of Math and Science at Fort Hays State University. I would also like to welcome President Hammond, whom you all refer to as “the rock star of FHSU,” and Mr. Ron Keller, the Director of the KAMS program. The members of the 2015 graduating class are seated in the east gallery.

In 2006, the Legislature of the State of Kansas enacted legislation authorizing the establishment of the Kansas Academy of Mathematics and Science to promote mathematics and science education, increase retention of intellectual capital and promote economic development.

Fort Hays State University, selected by the State Board of Regents, was able to establish the Kansas Academy of Mathematics and Science in 2008. This allowed Kansas to become the 16th state in the country with an academic early-entry-to-college program offering a unique residential learning experience for high achieving high school juniors and seniors who are academically talented in science and mathematics.

These bright and highly motivated students come to KAMS from across Kansas and beyond, representing the best and brightest.

We congratulate and commend the 2015 graduates of the Kansas Academy of Mathematics and Science. We wish them continued success in their academic and personal pursuits and encourage them to use their significant gifts to improve the future of their home state.

The members of the Kansas House of Representatives also express their gratitude to the educators and support staff who, through their own dedication and commitment to excellence in education in the fields of mathematics and science, have brought this program to fruition through the successes of each graduating class. Their efforts are helping to forge the future for the State of Kansas.

Again, congratulations to the Seeker class, 2015 graduating class of the Kansas

Academy of Mathematics and Science. Please stand and be recognized.

Rep. Boldra presented a framed House certificate to Fort Hays State President Hammond.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: It is my deeply held sincere religious belief that the commandment to “Love one another” is contradicted by this legislation. This bill expressly permits discrimination against my neighbor in the name of religious freedom. I vote no on HB 2453.--Sydney Carlin

MR. SPEAKER: I strongly believe in preserving religious liberty. I also believe that between the constitutional amendment passed in 2005 and HB 2203 passed last year, we have accomplished most of the intent expressed in HB 2453. HB 2453 has created perceptions of promoting discrimination. This was quite evident as I listened to the discussions on the floor, and as I read the emails that I received yesterday. However, I firmly believe that HB 2453 does create a fertile ground for lawsuits. I do not think that prohibiting lawsuits as part of the bill is going to stop them. I vote no on HB 2453.--SHANTI GANDHI

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2453 because:

1. I believe it is unnecessary considering the constitutional amendment passed in 2005 and the Preservation of Religious Freedom Act passed in 2013;
2. The motive of the bill is a fear of a speculative federal appeals court opinion that may or may not find our constitutional amendment unconstitutional;
3. The bill would be personally hurtful to my friends when they are denied services available to everyone else based upon whom they love;
4. I believe the bill is much broader in scope than what was intended.--Tom SLOAN, DON HILL, JOHN E. BARKER, STEVEN R. BECKER

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2453. My closely held religious belief is that God is love. I cannot vote yes for this bill if I am to heed the words of Christ when he said “Inasmuch as you have done it unto one of the least of these, you have done it unto me.”--DON HINEMAN, BARBARA BOLLIER, TOM SAWYER

MR. SPEAKER: This bill is not discriminatory against any group of people. It only ensures that individuals are not forced to participate in an event that is contrary to their religious beliefs. Questions arise for me on how this bill affects people receiving lawful government services they have the right to receive. I vote no on HB 2453.--JAMES E. TODD

MR. SPEAKER: I strongly support religious freedom, but this bill is not about religious freedom. In my opinion, this is about legalized discrimination, and I cannot vote in support of this. I vote no on HB 2453.--PATRICIA M. SLOOP

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2453. I support freedom of religion, but proponents of this bill concede it addresses issues which Kansans are not currently facing. Kansans are facing the consequences of 2011 education cuts. A study last fall shows only three states have cut education deeper. Adjusted for inflation, per pupil school funding is below 1992 levels. Schools are closing, class sizes are growing, parents are paying higher fees, and our economy is struggling. The next generation of leaders, innovators, and job creators is being molded today in Kansas classrooms. We must invest in them because strong schools are the foundation of a stronger economy.--CAROLYN L. BRIDGES, RODERICK HOUSTON, ADAM LUSKER, ED TRIMMER.

MR. SPEAKER: I support religious freedoms, however, I cannot support any legislation that condones or licenses discriminatory behavior against any person. I vote no on HB 2453. GAIL FINNEY, JULIE MENGHINI, BRODERICK HENDERSON, TOM BURROUGHS, PAUL DAVIS

MR. SPEAKER: One of the founding principles of our country, inscribed in the First Amendment, is the right of the people to be led by their conscience and follow their own deeply held religious convictions without fear of penalty or reprisal. Because of that, I vote YES on HB 2453.--CONNIE O'BRIEN, TRAVIS COUTURE-LOVELADY, WILLIE DOVE, RONALD W. RYCKMAN, SR., BRETT HILDABRAND, JERRY LUNN, JOE EDWARDS, CRAIG MCPHERSON, RANDY GARBER, RICHARD CARLSON, LESLIE OSTERMAN, WILL CARPENTER, KEVIN JONES, ALLAN ROTHLSBERG, JOE SEIWERT, SHARON SCHWARTZ, KEN CORBET, RON HIGHLAND, AMANDA GROSSERODE

MR. SPEAKER: The Kansas Bill of Rights says, "The right to worship God according to the dictates of conscience shall never be infringed...Nor shall any control of or interference with the rights of conscience be permitted..." The bill's opponents have made false representations about new discrimination. States enacting same sex marriage – from New York to Hawaii – have also enacted specific protections for religious liberties as it relates to same-sex marriage, including Progressive governors like Andrew Cuomo and Martin O'Malley. Kansas is consistent with those states. It maintains the status quo. Nothing more, nothing less. I vote YES on HB 2453.--Charles Macheers, Keith Esau, Mario Goico, Jim Howell

MR. SPEAKER: There are substantial legal conflicts surrounding a possible U.S. 10th Circuit Court of Appeals opinion striking down the Kansas marriage amendment. Because of that, it is imperative that we protect individuals from penalty if they choose to decline to participate in a marriage event that conflicts with their religious beliefs. I vote YES on HB 2453.-- KASHA KELLEY, DENNIS HEDKE, KELLY MEIGS, BUD ESTES, JOHN BRADFORD, KENT THOMPSON, REID PETTY, DANIEL HAWKINS, MAVIN KLEEB

HB 2488, AN ACT concerning the Kansas electric transmission authority; purpose and composition of authority; creation of transmission advisory council; amending K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 74-99d01, 74-99d03, 74-99d04 and 74-99d07 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

Davis, P. Davis, DeGraaf, Dierks, Doll, Dove, Edmonds, Edwards, Esau, Estes, Ewy, Finch, Finney, Frownfelter, Gandhi, Garber, Goico, Gonzalez, Hawkins, Hedke, Henderson, Henry, Hibbard, Highland, Hill, Hineman, Hoffman, Houser, Houston, Howell, Huebert, Hutton, Jennings, Johnson, Kahrs, Kelley, Kelly, Kiegerl, Kinzer, Kleeb, Kuether, Lane, Lunn, Lusk, Lusker, Macheers, Mast, McPherson, Meier, Meigs, Menghini, Merrick, Moxley, O'Brien, Osterman, Pauls, Perry, Petty, Phillips, Powell, Proehl, Read, Rhoades, Rooker, Rothlisberg, Rubin, Ryckman Jr., Ryckman Sr., Sawyer, Schroeder, Schwartz, Seiwert, Sloan, Sloop, Suellentrop, Sutton, Thompson, Trimmer, Vickrey, Waymaster, Weigel, Whipple, Wilson, Winn, Wolfe Moore.

A RESOLUTION commemorating the University of Kansas Department of Ophthalmology's Centennial and designating February 19, 2014, as KU Eye Day.

WHEREAS, The University of Kansas founded the Department of Ophthalmology, commonly known as KU Eye, on January 1, 1914. Since its residency program began in 1946, 146 residents have graduated. The KU Eye Center opened its second clinic in March 2013; and

WHEREAS, Of the 250 licensed ophthalmologists in Kansas, 44 of them are KU Eye alumni. Many conditions of the eye, including glaucoma, retinal and neuro-ophthalmic diseases, as well as tissue engineering and genetic determinants of ocular physiology and pathology, can be explored using engineering principles. WHEREAS, KU Eye physicians and staff have several values: Providing patients with the highest quality eye care within a compassionate atmosphere; engaging in outreach through education and collaboration to promote excellence in eye care throughout the community; working closely in consultation with and support of the physicians and staff of the University of Kansas Hospital and Medical Center; performing cutting-edge, basic, clinical and applied research in ophthalmology and vision science; and inspiring students, residents and fellows to adopt the core values and support the mission of KU Eye; and

WHEREAS, KU Eye will celebrate its Centennial throughout 2014 with many events, including the Quarterly Century of Caring Lecture Series beginning in February 2014, the grand opening of the new KU Eye Surgery and Laser Center in April 2014, the 5th annual Kansas EyeCon CME Conference in May 2014, and an Awareness Walk with Sight Buddies to promote World Sight Day in October 2014: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we commemorate the 100th Anniversary of the Department of Ophthalmology and designate February 19, 2014, as KU Eye Day; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to the Department of Ophthalmology at the University of Kansas.

REPORT ON ENROLLED RESOLUTIONS

HR 6042, HR 6044 reported correctly enrolled and properly signed on February 12, 2014.

On motion of Rep. Vickrey, the House adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Thursday, February 13, 2014.

TWENTY-FIRST DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, February 13, 2014, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 120 members present.

Reps. Becker, Menghini and Peterson were excused on verified illness.

Rep. Thimesch was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by the Rev. Kent L. Otott, Executive Director, North Central Kansas Teens for Christ, Concordia, and guest of Rep. Pauls:

God in Heaven,

Today, with the desire not to sound as if I am praying on the street corner, I lift up the men and women assembled here to conduct business on behalf of the people of the State of Kansas. Draw them close to you and guide them in the discussions and decisions that must be made today and throughout the rest of the session.

Lives across the State of Kansas are affected by the legislation that comes out of this room. As their day begins, prepare their hearts in the way that David prayed in the 51st Psalm:

"Create in me a clean heart, O God, And renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me away from Thy presence, And do not take Thy Holy Spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of Thy salvation, And sustain me with a willing spirit." ~ Psalms 51:10-12 (NASB)

During this time as this elected body takes care of Kansas, let them seek You out on a daily basis for guidance. For those who profess a faith in You, continue to uplift them with your "righteous right hand". For those who claim no belief in You, draw them to You through Your "only begotten Son".

Give them the wisdom needed to allow the economy to flourish. Give them the compassion needed to finance the programs that are necessary. Give them the insight to know what their constituents want and what the government can actually provide.

As this day of business begins, let them debate and reason in such a way that brings honor upon our republic. Give them the strength to stand by their convictions and the convictions of those in their home districts.

On a personal level Father, I ask that you be with their families during the separation that is caused by their duties here in Topeka. Strengthen their relationships and meet their personal needs and private requests.

I ask for your blessing upon this body. I ask for your blessing upon the people they represent. I ask for your blessing upon the great State of Kansas.

All of these things I ask in the name of Your Risen Son, Jesus Christ! Amen!!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Edwards.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

On emergency motion of Rep. Lusk, HR 6052, by Reps. Lusk and Rooker, as follows, was introduced and adopted:

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. HR 6052—

A RESOLUTION commending the Kansas Parent Teacher Association's 100th

Anniversary and its century of advocacy and service on behalf of bettering the lives of all children in the realms of education, health and safety.

WHEREAS, The National Parent Teacher Association (PTA) was founded in 1897 as the National Congress of Mothers by Alice McLellan Birney and Phoebe Apperson Hearst to be a powerful voice for all children, a relevant resource for families and communities and a strong advocate for public education; and

WHEREAS, The Kansas PTA was established in 1914 by forward-thinking women and men who were deeply concerned about the welfare of children. Mrs. S. M. Williams, of Kansas City, was Chairwoman of the Committee on Arrangements and was elected the first president of the Kansas State Branch of the National Congress of Mothers and Parent Teacher Association. There were over 500 charter members; and

WHEREAS, The concerns of the Kansas PTA founders were: "Better babies; better mothers for babies; better home surroundings; better schools; better roads to get the children to schools; and closer relations between the parents and the school teachers"; and

WHEREAS, Through advocacy, as well as family and community education, the National PTA and the Kansas PTA established programs and called for legislation that improves our children's lives, such as the creation of kindergarten classes, the implementation of child labor laws, the establishment of hot and healthy school lunch programs and securement of the juvenile justice system; and

WHEREAS, Today's PTA is a network of millions of families, students, teachers, administrators and business and community leaders devoted to the educational success of children and the promotion of family engagement in schools; and

WHEREAS, The Kansas PTA founders represented women of imagination and courage. They had a simple idea, which was to improve the lives and futures of all children. They understood the power of individual action, worked beyond the accepted barriers of their day and took action to change the world for all children; and

WHEREAS, The Kansas PTA is the largest volunteer child advocacy organization in the state of Kansas with tens of thousands of members strong, and is the conscience of the state for childrens and youth issues; and

WHEREAS, For the past 100 years and continuing today, the members of the Kansas PTA across the state have stayed fast to the ideals of their mission, which are threefold: To support and speak on behalf of children and youth in schools, in the community and before governmental bodies and other organizations that make decisions affecting children; to assist parents in developing the skills they need to raise and protect their children; and to encourage parent and public involvement in the public schools of this state: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we commemorate the 100th Anniversary of the Kansas PTA and urge all citizens to show their support for the spirit of the PTA legacy to strive for the best interests of children; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to Representatives Lusk and Rooker.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Lusk are spread upon the Journal:

I am very pleased and happy we are taking this moment to celebrate the Kansas PTA on its 100th Anniversary year.

PTA has been THE leader in championing children's rights for the last century. And the Kansas PTA continues that proud legacy today with members across the state who are passionately committed to quality education for all children.

Here are some examples of their commitment – through its Myth Busters series and other documents on its website – authored by volunteers – the Kansas PTA provides straightforward, evidence based information regarding public education.

The PTA Reflections Program offers students from K-12 the opportunity to express themselves creatively through the visual arts, photography, music, dance and literature. This year's theme was "Believe. Dream. Inspire." And resulted in many amazing entries.

Kansas PTA also sponsors a Citizenship contest for fifth through ninth graders to write an essay or poem to encourage them to think about their role in the community. This year's theme was "I can influence my peers positively by..."

The people that you see before you today are people whom I have known and worked with for years. They are generous with their time, and dedicated to providing the volunteer support our schools need. They represent this organization well.

I will recognize them by introducing them:

Tammy Bartels - Kansas PTA President
Debbie Lawson - Kansas PTA VP Advocacy
Dianna Fabac - Kansas PTA Secretary
Matthew Fabac
Brian Hogsett - Kansas PTA Legislative Chair
Mary Sinclair, PhD - Advocacy Team Member
Pam Hale – Shawnee Mission Area Council PTA President
Laura Kaiser – past Kansas PTA President
Debbie Taylor – past Kansas PTA President

It is right to celebrate the Kansas PTA on its 100th Anniversary because it is the largest volunteer child advocacy organization in the state of Kansas and because of its dedication to being a powerful voice for all children.

Rep. Lusk presented a framed House certificate to the members of the Kansas PTA.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Rep. Howell, HCR 5028, A concurrent resolution honoring James Chitty for his over 10,000 hours of community service at the Robert J. Dole V.A. Medical Center, was adopted.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Howell are spread upon the Journal:

Today, we honor a hero. Jim Chitty honorably served our country for four years in the Army during World War II. I want to take time to recognize Mr. Chitty for his service to our country.

Accompanying Mr. Chitty today is Diane Henderson, Executive Secretary to the Medical Center Director and Mr. Rick Kennedy, Volunteer Service Specialist.

Mr. Chitty, I believe I can speak for the entire house chamber today when I say thank you for your sacrifice and service to us and our country! You, along with countless other brave warriors did what you had to do for our freedom and security. I am proud of you today for all you did for us. The amazing thing however, is that you did not stop serving.

On Independence Day last year, I took the opportunity to visit the Robert J. Dole VA Medical Center with Senator Mike Petersen. The patients and longer term residents I spoke with that day went out of their way to inform me of their desire to show you appreciation. They said they thought the experience there was positive but they wanted me to know that you are one that encouraged them. You continue to make a positive difference wherever you serve. The staff and other folks there told us of your extraordinary commitment and faithfulness to serve as a volunteer, doing anything and everything anyone would ask you to do. You do it with a cheerful heart and a smile. You are an amazing example to us all.

You also showed faithfulness in your aviation career at Beechcraft with 36 years of service in Wichita. You are also a teacher who taught history and social studies for 14 yrs. in St. Louis and Wichita. Your history is packed with impressive accomplishments and faithful service.

However, regarding your volunteerism at the hospital, Mr. Chitty, you served as a Volunteer Escort beginning on November 15, 1987. You have given your time five days a week for the last 25 years. The total hours served, if compared to a 40-hour/week job, means you have essentially sacrificed more than five years of full-time work in service to others at the hospital. During this time, you have done things like help wheelchair patients get to their appointments and deliver specimens to the lab, but you have always been willing to perform any other chore that will help at the Medical Center. With 10,551 hours of volunteer service, we honor you for your continued sacrifice, faithfulness, and service.

Mr. Chitty, please accept this commemorative 10,000 hour volunteer service pin. We honor you for all you have done and commemorate you today with HCR 5028 which recognizes your outstanding service.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: My home district 13 contains the Toronto Honor Camp, a minimum security prison that has been maintained but left idle for the past five years. The prison was built in the mid-1960's and used continually until 2009. The facility provided jobs for the local area, and the work release program was utilized by Kansas Wildlife and Parks and surrounding cities and counties for maintenance work force. I will not support an expansion of the corrections budget until they utilize the facilities and equipment they already have. I vote no on H Sub for SB 245.--LARRY HIBBARD

MR. SPEAKER: Given the SGF ending balances well in excess of statutory requirements and the reality this is only day 32 of the session, I cannot support a budget measure which may address corrections but leave significant unmet needs including the Higher Education shortfall and other items, which the Governor has articulated well in his supplemental budget request. I vote no on H Sub for SB 245 and hope that in a matter of days we will have a more comprehensive budget measure to consider. --DON HILL, TOM MOXLEY, DON HINEMAN, MELLISSA ROOKER

MR. SPEAKER: I vote "NO" on H Sub for SB 245. While a bill is necessary to fund the Department of Corrections, this bill does not adequately fund the department. It underfunds staff and programs in both the adult and youth facilities. --JAN PAULS.

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on H Sub SB 245. I strongly support the Winn Amendment, which reverses a highly irresponsible public safety decision by the Brownback Administration to put sex offenders in close proximity to child care centers. However, I cannot support the bill in its entirety because it severely understaffs Kansas corrections facilities. This impairs the safety of both inmates and staff, particularly at the Topeka Correctional Facility, where the number of additional guards was reduced to 14 from the 28 originally proposed, despite the fact that a federal inspection found that it has insufficient staffing. I'm also concerned about cuts to education funding for juvenile offenders. --KATHY WOLFE MOORE, VIRGIL WEIGEL, PATRICIA SLOOP, RODERICK HOUSTON, GAIL FINNEY, ANNIE TIETZE, TOM SAWYER, CAROLYN BRIDGES, TOM BURROUGHS, PAUL DAVIS, STAN FROWNFELTER, BARBARA BALLARD, JOHN WILSON, SYDNEY CARLIN, ADAM LUSKER, JOHN CARMICHAEL.

On motion of Rep. Vickrey, the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole, with Rep. Rhoades in the chair.

"Sec. 66. K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 84-9-406 is hereby amended to read as follows: 84-9-406. (a) Discharge of account debtor; effect of notification. Subject to subsections (b) through (i), an account debtor on an account, chattel paper, or a payment intangible may discharge the account debtor's obligation by paying the assignor until, but not after, the account debtor receives a notification, authenticated by the assignor or the assignee, that the amount due or to become due has been assigned and that payment is to be made to the assignee. After receipt of the notification, the account debtor may discharge the account debtor's obligation by paying the assignee and may not discharge the obligation by paying the assignor.

(b) When notification ineffective. Subject to subsection (h), notification is ineffective under subsection (a):

(1) If it does not reasonably identify the rights assigned;

(2) to the extent that an agreement between an account debtor and a seller of a payment intangible limits the account debtor's duty to pay a person other than the seller and the limitation is effective under law other than this article; or

(3) at the option of an account debtor, if the notification notifies the account debtor to make less than the full amount of any installment or other periodic payment to the assignee, even if:

(A) Only a portion of the account, chattel paper, or payment intangible has been assigned to that assignee;

(B) a portion has been assigned to another assignee; or

(C) the account debtor knows that the assignment to that assignee is limited.

(c) Proof of assignment. Subject to subsection (h), if requested by the account debtor, an assignee shall seasonably furnish reasonable proof that the assignment has been made. Unless the assignee complies, the account debtor may discharge its obligation by paying the assignor, even if the account debtor has received a notification under subsection (a).

(d) Term restricting assignment generally ineffective. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e), subsection (g) of K.S.A. 17-76.134, K.S.A. 84-2a-303 and K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 84-9-407, and amendments thereto, and subject to subsection (h), a term in an agreement between an account debtor and an assignor or in a promissory note is ineffective to the extent that it:

(1) Prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the account debtor or person obligated on the promissory note to the assignment or transfer of, or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in, the account, chattel paper, payment intangible, or promissory note; or

(2) provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the account, chattel paper, payment intangible, or promissory note.

(e) Inapplicability of subsection (d) to certain sales. Subsection (d) does not apply to the sale of a payment intangible or promissory note, other than a sale pursuant to a disposition under K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 84-9-610, and amendments thereto, or an acceptance of collateral under K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 84-9-620, and amendments thereto.

(f) Legal restrictions on assignment generally ineffective. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (g) of K.S.A. 17-76,134, K.S.A. 84-2a-303 and K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 84-9-407, and amendments thereto, and subject to subsections (h) and (i), a rule of law, statute, or regulation that prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of a government, governmental body or official, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or creation of a security interest in, an account or chattel paper is ineffective to the extent that the rule of law, statute, or regulation:

(1) Prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the government, governmental body or official, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in the account or chattel paper; or

(2) provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the account or chattel paper.

(g) Subsection (b)(3) not waivable. Subject to subsection (h), an account debtor may not waive or vary its option under subsection (b)(3).

(h) Rule for individual under other law. This section is subject to law other than this article which establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(i) Inapplicability to health-care-insurance receivable. This section does not apply to an assignment of a health-care-insurance receivable.

(j) Section prevails over specified inconsistent law. This section prevails over any inconsistent provisions of any laws, rules, and regulations.

Sec. 67. K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 84-9-408 is hereby amended to read as follows: 84-9-408. (a) Term restricting assignment generally ineffective. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) and subsection (g) of K.S.A. 17-76,134, and amendments thereto, a term in a promissory note or in an agreement between an account debtor and a debtor which relates to a health-care-insurance receivable or a general intangible, including a contract, permit, license, or franchise, and which term prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor to, the assignment or transfer of, or creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in, the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible, is ineffective to the extent that the term:

(1) Would impair the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest; or

(2) provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, or perfection of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible.

(b) Applicability of subsection (a) to sales of certain rights to payment. Subsection (a) applies to a security interest in a payment intangible or promissory note only if the security interest arises out of a sale of the payment intangible or promissory note, other than a sale pursuant to a disposition under K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 84-9-610, and amendments thereto, or an acceptance of collateral under K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 84-9-620, and amendments thereto.

(c) Legal restrictions on assignment generally ineffective. Except as otherwise provided in and subsection (g) of K.S.A. 17-76,134, and amendments thereto, a rule of law, statute, or regulation that prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of a government, governmental body or official, person obligated on a promissory note, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or creation of a security interest in, a promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible, including a contract, permit, license, or franchise between an account debtor and a debtor, is ineffective to the extent that the rule of law, statute, or regulation:

(1) Would impair the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest; or
 (2) provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, or perfection of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible.

(d) Limitation on ineffectiveness under subsections (a) and (c). To the extent that a term in a promissory note or in an agreement between an account debtor and a debtor which relates to a health-care-insurance receivable or general intangible or a rule of law, statute, or regulation described in subsection (c) would be effective under law other than this article but is ineffective under subsection (a) or (c), the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible:

(1) Is not enforceable against the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor;

(2) does not impose a duty or obligation on the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor;

(3) does not require the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor to recognize the security interest, pay or render performance to the secured party, or accept payment or performance from the secured party;

(4) does not entitle the secured party to use or assign the debtor's rights under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible, including any related information or materials furnished to the debtor in the transaction giving rise to the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible;

(5) does not entitle the secured party to use, assign, possess, or have access to any trade secrets or confidential information of the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor; and

(6) does not entitle the secured party to enforce the security interest in the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible.

(e) Section prevails over specified inconsistent law. This section prevails over any inconsistent provisions of any laws, rules, and regulations of this state.;

Thank you for this legislative body which works so diligently and tirelessly on behalf of the people of Kansas. Bring unity and oneness to this group, and grant them wisdom so every decision they make aligns with Your will. Grant clarity when confusion tries to invade. Grant knowledge where ignorance begins to overpower. Lord, I ask that you would pour out Your peace and blessings upon each one here today. Thank you for their willingness to serve the people of Kansas. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Ballard.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Hibbard are spread upon the Journal:

Today, we have with us a group of 4-H youth who participated in a program called "Citizenship in Action." Last night, approximately 278 4-H members from across the state came to the Capitol, sat in the chairs of both the House and Senate, and conducted a mock legislative session.

The Kansas 4-H program, with the support of the Kansas 4-H Foundation, for years has developed leaders with club meetings, parliamentary procedures, and project talks. Last night's session was an extension of those programs for 4-H members who are in high school. No other youth program in Kansas presents its members with this kind of training. As I mentioned last year during session, it would be interesting to know just how many Legislators got our first exposure to leadership through a 4-H meeting.

Today, I would like to congratulate these young men and women for the way they conducted themselves last evening. I have no doubt that among them today are some of our future Representatives and Senators.

I would like to recognize Sara Keathley who is events coordinator for the Kansas 4-H program. She is responsible for doing the leg work that makes this event possible. The 4-H youth development staff works with local 4-H leaders to provide support for local 4-H programs.

The 4-H Foundation is the group that secures contributions to fund all the state activities, including Rock Springs Ranch and Clovia Scholarship House on the KSU campus.

I would like to introduce the 4-H members of the committee that organized the mock session.

We also have with us Rep. Swanson, Rep. Hoffman, Rep. Schroeder who is a sponsor; Rep. Johnson, member of the Financial Advisory Committee; and Gordon Hibbard, Director of the 4-H Foundation, whom many of you know and whom I call "brother."

Gordon, I present you with this official certificate from the House of Representatives to the Kansas 4-H Foundation in recognition of your efforts to provide leadership programs for Kansas youth that develop leaders for our future.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Schwartz are spread upon the Journal:

During the week of February 15-22, the Kansas FFA Association is celebrating 86 years of FFA. Programs are located in both rural and urban areas of Kansas with FFA members found in 88 of the 105 counties across Kansas.

Over 86 years, agricultural education, the National FFA Organization and the Kansas FFA Association have grown and developed with the changing times so as to aid members in continuing to be career ready and successful for a lifetime. Programming continues to be adjusted and developed to remain relevant in today's societal needs by expanding agricultural opportunities encompassing science, business and technology, in addition to production farming.

A quote from the FFA Creed, "I believe in the future of agriculture, with faith born not of words but of deeds – achievements won by the present and past generations of agriculturists; in the promise of better days through better ways, even as the better things we now enjoy have come to us from the struggles of former years."

Fifty-seven years ago my husband, Leo Schwartz, was awarded the first FFA Star Farmer of Kansas Degree. Thirty-three years ago our son, Douglas, was recognized as the Regional Star Farmer of America FFA Degree.

Today we welcome the state officer team of the Kansas FFA Association – six students who are attending college with diverse majors ranging from Bakery Science and Management, Computer Science Education, Agricultural Education to Agribusiness.

State University; Carrie Carlson, Vice President, from Lincolnville, a freshman at Kansas State University; Chance Hunley, Secretary, from Riverton, a freshman at Kansas State University; Cody Holliday, Treasurer, from Jackson Heights, a freshman at Kansas State University; Daryl Simmons, Reporter, from Minneapolis, a sophomore at Butler Community College; Elizabeth Allen, Sentinel, from Holton, a freshman at Kansas State University.

Please join me in welcoming the FFA Leadership team of 2013-1024.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Rep. Schwartz, HR 6048, A RESOLUTION congratulating and recognizing the Landoll Corporation's 50th Anniversary and its receiving of the Ad Astra Award from the Kansas Chamber of Commerce, was adopted.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Schwartz are spread upon the Journal:

It is a great honor to have this opportunity to introduce Mr. Don Landoll, his daughter Paula Landoll Smith, and his son Phil, owners of Landoll Corp. in Marysville, Kansas.

Don and I grew up as neighbors northwest of Hanover. Our parents were good friends and through the years we have shared a friendship living in the same community. I can remember my dad sharing the shop on our farm and working with Don as a young man.

Landoll Corp. is celebrating 50 years in business this year and will be presented the Ad Astra Award this evening at the annual Chamber event.

Don Landoll is a testimony to the power of the American dream and the result of hard work, sticking to core principles and investing in ideas, new technology, relationships and building a team to make it happen.

The Landoll Corporation, headquartered in Marysville, Kansas, has grown from a small welding, radiator and blacksmith shop to a global manufacturer of quality products and services for the agricultural, material handling, OEM/Government and transportation industries.

The Landoll Corporation employs approximately 1,000 dedicated employees.

The corporation attributes some of its growth from the state and local tax policy which allowed the company to invest in personnel, property, technology and modern equipment and which supported the acquisition and relocation of jobs to Kansas of the following product lines: Bendi forklifts from England, Drexel Industries forklifts from Pennsylvania and Brillion farm equipment from Wisconsin.

Please join me in recognizing Don, Paula, and Phil today for this accomplishment.

STATE OF KANSAS, COUNTY OF SHAWNEE, SS:

ERIC RUCKER
Assistant Secretary of State

The roll was called with 122 members present.

Reps. Houser and Thimesch were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

The House is now organized with 124 members.

Dear Lord,
First of all, I want to thank you for the break from the snowy cold weather we are experiencing.

There is something to be said about how sunshine and warmer weather can encourage the heart and soul.
Just as we tend to function better in warm weather, versus extreme cold or hot,
we can accomplish so much more in a warm atmosphere of community and collaboration, rather than a climate when discussion is either heated and angry, or cold and calculated.
Guard the hearts, minds and tongues of our leaders today as they work together in making decisions.
May everything that is accomplished bring honor and glory to You.
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Cassidy.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Whipple are spread upon the Journal:

The cities within Kansas believe in the mission of encouraging civic engagement and education. Over the last decade, the League of Kansas Municipalities has organized a junior high essay contest to encourage good government and to help satisfy the Kansas Board of Education civic requirements.

The award recognizes 5 regional winners and 1 overall state winner each year. It is an honor today to introduce Alex Cline, who has been selected as the overall winner for 2013-2014 “If I were Mayor” essay contest.

Alex is accompanied by his mother Ms. Brenda Stafford. We would also like to recognize his outstanding teacher, Ms. Elizabeth Brosius. Alex is a 7th grade student at The Independent School, a private PK-12 college preparation school in Wichita.

In Alex's essay, he writes that if he were mayor, he would focus on “the economy, city departments, and our community.” He says that “Our city is a reflection of our values” ... “Good schools, vibrant arts and entertainment, and highly skilled workers are appealing to business owners.”

He further adds, “Who does not want to decrease crime, play in green spaces, graduate intelligent thinkers, and care for the people and animals that cannot care for themselves?”

The last two lines Alex writes in his award winning essay are thought provoking. He ends it with, “My goals are lofty but not unobtainable. We do not live in a perfect world, but we can always build up to that expectation as much as we can.”

Alex, you represent the best of the next generation. You have both the heart to serve and the intellect to accomplish your dreams. I have no doubt that one day you will be a great public servant, if you choice to do so. You represent the City of Wichita well, and you make us proud.

Will you please join me in congratulating Alex Cline.

Rep. Whipple presented Alex with a framed House certificate.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Carlin are spread upon the Journal:

Kazakhstan in North/NW of Central Asia is the largest country 2 ½ times the size of Texas. Each of these countries has been independent from the Soviet Union for the past 22 years. Kazakhstan has oil and gas and is very agricultural (farmers and ranchers). Under Soviet rule there were massive industries, one per country. 3-4 generations of them knew nothing but Soviet control and at the collapse of the Soviet Union all of these massive industries were pulled out, taking the knowledge to operate with them. The Peace Corp put English teachers in within a year and volunteers teach the children today in this region.

Prayer by guest chaplain, J. Kevin Ingram, President, Manhattan Christian College, and guest of Rep. Hutton:

Father, thank you for a new day. I know that in the midst of each our days there will be both challenges and opportunities, and that is why I am especially grateful to know that You are here with us as this day begins. As the day unfolds use the intimate knowledge You have of each of us to comfort and strengthen us in the unique and special ways we each need.

Father, I also want to thank you for these servants of the great state of Kansas. Bless them as they serve, Lord. They, and their loved ones, all make sacrifices so they can fill their important roles and that is why I ask your blessing on all of them while they are apart from each other. Keep them safe Lord, and even provide special time to share together to help keep their relationships strong even in the midst of busy schedules.

Father, I humbly ask You to guide them in their deliberations and decisions today. As they interact and share ideas, and even share differing opinions, help them come together in unity for the best of the great citizens of Kansas. Provide your wisdom and insight individually and corporately, and help them wisely navigate the issues and challenges our state faces.

And Lord, I want to close this prayer by simply giving thanks to You! When you look around the world we live in we can't help but see how blessed we are to live where we do and are grateful to You, our Almighty God, for all that you bless us with. May we be ever mindful of those blessings and never take for granted the responsibility of stewardship You place on

In Christ name I pray, Amen.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Almighty God,
I ask that Your Presence be with us all right now as we pause for a moment of silence to remember our colleague, Representative Mike Peterson.
We stand here in a room that represents power and authority given by You.
Keep us mindful that one day we shall stand in a greater room and give an accounting of the decisions made this day.
I pray, O Lord, that You grant to these leaders of our state health, peace, concord, and stability that they may administer the government without failure.
Direct their counsel according to that which is good and well – pleasing in Your sight; and may it be said of them that they performed the duties of their office faithfully and impartially.
To You be the glory.
In Your most holy Name I pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Christmann.

TWENTY-NINTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, February 25, 2014, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.

Rep. Thompson was excused on verified illness.

Rep. Edmonds was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Brian Bauer, Salina, guest of Rep. Johnson:

Almighty and Gracious God, we lift before you during this turnaround week the concerns we have and the challenges and work that is yet to be done.

As St. Paul once advised, “Rejoice always, pray constantly, give thanks in all circumstances,” let us be about our tasks with full hearts.

Teach us to debate the issues before us with respect and understanding.

Guide us according to your will and purpose, that we may be known by all as your loyal servants.

Show us your grace and inspire us to reveal your grace to others. At the end of our day and our debates, give us peace.

Lead us all, in your mercy, to be faithful servants to all the people of Kansas. As we might take rightful pride in office or party, help us to put all of that aside so that we can continue to do the work of the people—of all the people.

Direct and guide each one of us by your greatest command: to love one another. Teach us each waking hour to be our neighbor’s keeper.

In these and in all things we seek your guidance, ask for your forgiveness, and dedicate ourselves to your never failing grace.

O God, in your blessed name, we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Weigel.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Winn are spread upon the Journal:

Ladies and Gentlemen, today I have the distinct honor and privilege to welcome members of six Kansas chapters of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority to the Kansas House of Representatives.

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority was founded on January 13, 1913 by 22 collegiate women in Washington, D.C. on the campus of Howard University. Their mission was to promote academic excellence; provide scholarships to those in need; to provide assistance to the under-served; to educate and stimulate participation in the establishment of positive public policy; and to highlight issues to provide solutions for problems in communities.

Today, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority has more than 1000 chapters worldwide and has initiated over 200,000 members. The collegiate and alumnae chapters are located throughout the United States, England, Japan, Germany, Virgin Island, Bermuda, Bahamas, Jamaica, and the Republic of Korea.

As a guide in creating its national programs, the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority uses its Five Point Programmatic Thrust of economic development, educational development, international awareness and involvement; physical and mental health, and political awareness and involvement.

For your information, and as a tribute to Black History Month, I would like to acknowledge a few outstanding women (in addition those present in the gallery) who were also members of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority:

Journal of the House

THIRTIETH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, February 26, 2014, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.

Rep. Edmonds was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Richard Sundermeyer, pastor, Family Life Church of the Nazerene, Topeka:

Heavenly Father, we come before you this day to acknowledge our trust and dependence in You as creator and sustainer of life. As men and women who have been given the high honor and privilege of representing the people of this great state of Kansas, we seek Your wisdom, Your understanding and Your discernment in every matter that will come before us.

The issues before us are diverse, complicated and even contentious at times with legitimate concerns from very well-meaning people. May every decision we make be bathed in Your character of righteousness, holiness and justice.

Most of all, may those who come after us be able to say that we have acted with complete integrity, honesty and compassion to the best of our abilities.

We pray these things to Your glory and in Jesus' name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Doll.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Carpenter are spread upon the Journal:

I am here before you today to recognize a great organization and their 25 years of service to our County. I can remember when this program was started... I was about 6, maybe 7 years old... By developing servant leaders through education and example, Leadership Butler provides people with tools and confidence to make their organizations and Butler County a place where we live well and laugh often.

- Primary focus is community leadership development for adults and youth.
- Leadership Butler Adult program began in 1988.

- 480 Adult Graduates - 89% still live in Kansas - 78% in the Butler County area.
 - Youth Program began in 1993.
 - 400 Youth Graduates - harder to track but 30% live in the Butler County area.
 - The Big Brothers Big Sister program in Butler County was started with the help of this youth program.
 - Through the Alumni Association they offer opportunities for education on community issues facing Butler County - like coming to Topeka.
 - Offer continuing education in leadership development.
 - 3 Youth Leadership Butler students have been awarded large scholarships through WSU - they attribute this to their participation in Youth Leadership Butler – (2 - $45,000) and (1 - $35,000).
 - Help participants of both programs to further their education by offering scholarship recommendations - send out over 40 each year.
- As usual, in the many times that I have been to the Well I could talk for hours, but I won't today. Thank you Leadership Butler for making a difference in our community!

We do so many things here to try and spur economic growth for our great State of Kansas. Anyone involved in business knows that business requires customers, suppliers, and partners.

To highlight a couple of items from the resolution:

- Taiwan is the 17th largest economy in the world
- The United States 11th largest trade partner
- Kansas exports $128 million in goods to Taiwan

We can do more. I want to welcome Director-General J.C. Wang, from the Taiwan Consulate in Kansas City. He has served his country for 35 years seeking to improve their economic relations around the world.

With this resolution we want to spur our governments to strengthen the friendship and economic cooperation between our countries and our people.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote "YES" on HB 2456. This bill is about preserving good-paying jobs in Kansas. The state cannot expect companies to come to Kansas, invest tens of millions of dollars in machinery and equipment; and then face unequal and unfair reclassification of their plant's production equipment as real estate. This was done in order to quadruple their property taxes to a level that was higher than their payroll. — MARIO GOICO

Journal of the House

THIRTY-FIRST DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, February 27, 2014, 10:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.

Rep. Edmonds was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Patrick W. Bullock, Sr., associate pastor, Summit Church, Wichita, and guest of Rep. Edwards:

Our heavenly Father, I thank you for all the blessings you have poured out on our nation. Thank you for the freedom we enjoy at this time to pray and to speak from our hearts. Help us to preserve that freedom by asking for your presence to be a priority in all we do.

Thank you for the unalienable rights that come from you and are guaranteed by our Constitution as expressed in the Declaration of Independence. Thank you for our founding fathers who recognized that freedom comes from you. We give you all the glory and praise for our freedom and for the greatness of our nation.

I come now asking that you would bless this legislative body with your wisdom as found in Proverbs where you say, "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." Fill their hearts with humility as found in Psalms where we find the great leader David praying, "Have mercy upon me, O God, according to your loving-kindness..." Give all of us an understanding that we will be held accountable for the way we live our lives privately and when in the place of leadership. Keep before us that "We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad..." as you say in your word. I pray that we all may be peacemakers and experience God's blessings. You said, "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the Sons of God."

Have mercy, Oh Lord, on us that we will seek your will and word as a nation and live according to your righteousness.

I ask all this in Jesus' name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Esau.

(a) "Facility" shall mean any factory, mill, plant, refinery, warehouse, feedlot, building or complex of buildings located within the state, including the land on which such facility is located and all machinery, equipment and other real and tangible personal property located at or within such facility used in connection with the operation of such facility. The word "building" shall include only structures within which individuals are customarily employed or which are customarily used to house machinery, equipment or other property.

(b) "Qualified business facility" shall mean a facility which satisfies the requirements of paragraphs (1) ~~and~~, (2) ~~and~~ (3) of this subsection.

(1) Such facility is employed by the taxpayer in the operation of a revenue producing enterprise, as defined in subsection (c). Such facility shall not be considered a qualified business facility in the hands of the taxpayer if the taxpayer's only activity with respect to such facility is to lease it to another person or persons. If the taxpayer employs only a portion of such facility in the operation of a revenue producing enterprise, and leases another portion of such facility to another person or persons or does not otherwise use such other portions in the operation of a revenue producing enterprise, the portion employed by the taxpayer in the operation of a revenue producing enterprise shall be considered a qualified business facility, if the requirements of paragraph (2) of this subsection are satisfied.

(2) If such facility was acquired by the taxpayer from another person or persons, such facility was not employed, immediately prior to the transfer of title to such facility to the taxpayer, or to the commencement of the term of the lease of such facility to the taxpayer, by any other person or persons in the operation of a revenue producing enterprise and the taxpayer continues the operation of the same or substantially identical revenue producing enterprise, as defined in subsection (i), at such facility.

(3) (A) On and after January 1, 2015, a qualified business facility shall employ a sufficient number of Kansas workers such that at least 70% of the employees assigned by such facility to perform work in the state of Kansas shall be Kansas workers. An employee shall be considered assigned to perform work in the state of Kansas if the employee performs any work that is performed in Kansas regardless of the proportion of such work to the employee's regular employment duties.

(B) For the purposes of this subsection:

(i) The term "Kansas worker" shall have the same meaning ascribed thereto in section 3, and amendments thereto; and

(ii) each subcontractor employed by the contractor and each employee of such subcontractor shall count as an employee of the contractor.

(4) The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to any contractor having less than 10 employees.

(c) "Revenue producing enterprise" shall mean:

(1) The assembly, fabrication, manufacture or processing of any agricultural, mineral or manufactured product;

(2) the storage, warehousing, distribution or sale of any products of agriculture, aquaculture, mining or manufacturing;

(3) the feeding of livestock at a feedlot;

(4) the operation of laboratories or other facilities for scientific, agricultural, aquacultural, animal husbandry or industrial research, development or testing;

(5) the performance of services of any type;

(6) the feeding of aquatic plants and animals at an aquaculture operation;

(7) the administrative management of any of the foregoing activities; or

(8) any combination of any of the foregoing activities.

"Revenue producing enterprise" shall not mean a swine production facility as defined in K.S.A. 17-5903, and amendments thereto, that is owned or leased by a corporation or limited liability company.

(d) "Qualified business facility employee" shall mean a person employed by the taxpayer in the operation of a qualified business facility during the taxable year for which the credit allowed by K.S.A. 79-32,153, and amendments thereto, is claimed:

(1) A person shall be deemed to be so engaged if such person performs duties in connection with the operation of the qualified business facility on: (A) A regular, full-time basis; (B) a part-time basis, provided such person is customarily performing such duties at least 20 hours per week throughout the taxable year; or (C) a seasonal basis, provided such person performs such duties for substantially all of the season customary for the position in which such person is employed. The number of qualified business facility employees during any taxable year shall be determined by dividing by 12 the sum of the number of qualified business facility employees on the last business day of each month of such taxable year. If the qualified business facility is in operation for less than the entire taxable year, the number of qualified business facility employees shall be determined by dividing the sum of the number of qualified business facility employees on the last business day of each full calendar month during the portion of such taxable year during which the qualified business facility was in operation by the number of full calendar months during such period. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, for the purpose of computing the credit allowed by K.S.A. 79-32,153, and amendments thereto, in the case of an investment in a qualified business facility, which facility existed and was operated by the taxpayer or related taxpayer prior to such investment, the number of qualified business facility employees employed in the operation of such facility shall be reduced by the average number, computed as provided in this subsection, of individuals employed in the operation of the facility during the taxable year preceding the taxable year in which the qualified business facility investment was made at the facility.

(2) For taxable years commencing after December 31, 1997, in the case of a taxpayer claiming a credit against the premium tax and privilege fees imposed pursuant to K.S.A. 40-252, and amendments thereto, or the privilege tax as measured by net income of financial institutions imposed pursuant to chapter 79 article 11 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, "qualified business employee" shall not mean any person who is employed in the operation of a qualified business facility in the state due to the merger, acquisition or other reconfiguration of the taxpayer unless such employee's position represents a net gain of total positions created by the taxpayer and the employee's position was not in existence at the time of the merger acquisition or other reconfiguration of the taxpayer.

(e) "Qualified business facility investment" shall mean the value of the real and tangible personal property, except inventory or property held for sale to customers in the ordinary course of the taxpayer's business, which constitutes the qualified business facility, or which is used by the taxpayer in the operation of the qualified business facility, during the taxable year for which the credit allowed by K.S.A. 79-32,153, and amendments thereto, is claimed. The value of such property during such taxable year shall be: (1) Its original cost if owned by the taxpayer; or (2) eight times the net annual rental rate, if leased by the taxpayer. The net annual rental rate shall be the annual rental rate paid by the taxpayer less any annual rental rate received by the taxpayer from subrentals. The qualified business facility investment shall be determined by dividing by 12 the sum of the total value of such property on the last business day of each calendar month of the taxable year. If the qualified business facility is in operation for less than an entire taxable year, the qualified business facility investment shall be determined by dividing the sum of the total value of such property on the last business day of each full calendar month during the portion of such taxable year during which the qualified business facility was in operation by the number of full calendar months during such period. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, for the purpose of computing the credit allowed by K.S.A. 79-32,153, and amendments thereto, in the case of an investment in a qualified business facility, which facility existed and was operated by the taxpayer or related taxpayer prior to such investment the amount of the taxpayer's qualified business facility investment in such facility shall be reduced by the average amount, computed as provided in this subsection, of the investment of the taxpayer or a related taxpayer in the facility for the taxable year preceding the taxable year in which the qualified business facility investment was made at the facility.

(f) "Commencement of commercial operations" shall be deemed to occur during the first taxable year for which the qualified business facility is first available for use by the taxpayer, or first capable of being used by the taxpayer, in the revenue producing enterprise in which the taxpayer intends to use the qualified business facility.

(g) "Qualified business facility income" shall mean the Kansas taxable income derived by the taxpayer from the operation of the qualified business facility. If a taxpayer has income derived from the operation of a qualified business facility as well as from other activities conducted within this state, the Kansas taxable income derived by the taxpayer from the operation of the qualified business facility shall be determined by multiplying the taxpayer's Kansas taxable income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor, as defined in paragraph (1), plus the payroll factor, as defined in paragraph (2), and the denominator of which is two. In the case of financial institutions, the property and payroll factors shall be computed utilizing the specific provisions of the apportionment method applicable to financial institutions, if enacted, and the qualified business facility income shall be based upon net income.

(1) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in connection with the operation of the qualified business facility during the tax period, and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the tax period. The average value of all such property shall be determined as provided in K.S.A. 79-3281 and 79-3282, and amendments thereto.

(2) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid during the tax period by the taxpayer for compensation to persons qualifying as qualified business facility employees, as determined under subsection (d), at the qualified business facility, and the denominator of which is the total amount paid in this state during the tax period by the taxpayer for compensation. The compensation paid in this state shall be determined as provided in K.S.A. 79-3283, and amendments thereto.

The formula set forth in this subsection (g) shall not be used for any purpose other than determining the qualified business facility income attributable to a qualified business facility.

(h) "Related taxpayer" shall mean: (1) A corporation, partnership, trust or association controlled by the taxpayer; (2) an individual, corporation, partnership, trust or association in control of the taxpayer; or (3) a corporation, partnership, trust or association controlled by an individual, corporation, partnership, trust or association in control of the taxpayer. For the purposes of this act, "control of a corporation" shall mean ownership, directly or indirectly, of stock possessing at least 80% of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote and at least 80% of all other classes of stock of the corporation; "control of a partnership or association" shall mean ownership of at least 80% of the capital or profits interest in such partnership or association; and "control of a trust" shall mean ownership, directly or indirectly, of at least 80% of the beneficial interest in the principal or income of such trust.

(i) "Same or substantially identical revenue producing enterprise" shall mean a revenue producing enterprise in which the products produced or sold, services performed or activities conducted are the same in character and use, are produced, sold, performed or conducted in the same manner and to or for the same type of customers as the products, services or activities produced, sold, performed or conducted in another revenue producing enterprise.

Sec. 7. K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 79-32,243 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-

32,243. Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Sovereign God,
 Today I come before You
 so thankful for the freedoms we have.
 As a citizen of this state and nation,
 I am thankful to have a voice in decisions made through representation.
 I am thankful for a system that allows a variety of philosophies that can be discussed, debated, negotiated and collaborated upon in making decisions that are to benefit the masses.
 Although we may get frustrated and irritated with the debates and disagreements, at least we have the freedom for this to occur.
 Most of all, I am thankful for the freedom granted to each of us acknowledging that You have created us all equally and that we are endowed by You with certain unalienable rights, including those of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.
 Many people are not able to experience
 this in their daily life.
 Help us never to take this freedom for granted.
 Lastly, but most importantly,
 I am thankful for those who willingly put their lives on the line so we may have these freedoms.
 In an attitude of deep gratitude
 I pray this prayer of thanksgiving in Your Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Burroughs.

Great God, Alpha and Omega, Mighty Counselor, Everlasting, the I Am, Holy God, by many and through Your Holy Word, you have been described with many descriptive words. This morning I simply and humbly say...

Father in heaven, I come before you today on behalf of these who assemble in this house, for the common good of those they serve, the men, women and children of this great land called Kansas.

I thank you today for the abundance of this great state, for the many blessings that have come and continue to be evident. I acknowledge your guiding hand in the lives that are called by your name and according to your purposes, those who have been established as leaders in this house by the hand of God and the will of the people, to represent the needs of all who dwell here.

Today, I do not pray, only, for the work that these, that serve, do, but recognizing that each of them come from homes across this state where family and loved ones abide, I life up to you, O God, the needs that may be represented here. To those who endure illness or injury today, I pray for healing. For those who are lonely, I pray for Your comforting presence. For those who have children who suffer or are wayward, I pray for peace and reconciliation. For those who are weary or discouraged, I pray for rest, strength and encouragement.

Lord, we do acknowledge the work that is done and needs to be done in this place. Work that addresses the needs of all Kansans. Strengthen the resolve of these servants as they work together, to, in unity, accomplish much in these turbulent and needful days that we face. May the hand of God guide and direct those who have weighty decisions before them, this day, may they receive wisdom from on high to navigate the complexities of every issue and may the decisions they make, together here, bring comfort to those who call this great state their home.

O God, today, help each of us, to be able to pray the prayer, as credited to St. Francis of Assisi.

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace;

Where there is hatred, let me sow love;

Where there is injury, pardon;

Where there is error, truth;

Where there is doubt, faith;

Where there is despair, hope;

Where there is darkness, light;

And where there is sadness, joy.

O Lord may these be the attributes of our lives as we serve.

I humbly ask these things on behalf of these assembled here, this day, in the mighty name of Jesus Christ, my Lord. Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Perry.

(b) There shall be added to federal adjusted gross income:

(i) Interest income less any related expenses directly incurred in the purchase of state or political subdivision obligations, to the extent that the same is not included in federal adjusted gross income, on obligations of any state or political subdivision thereof, but to the extent that interest income on obligations of this state or a political subdivision thereof issued prior to January 1, 1988, is specifically exempt from income tax under the laws of this state authorizing the issuance of such obligations, it shall be excluded from computation of Kansas adjusted gross income whether or not included in federal adjusted gross income. Today we have the opportunity to recognize Kansas Small Business Development Center's emerging and existing 2014 businesses of the year. These sixteen businesses represent economic vitality and human vibrancy and growth potential in the communities they serve. These businesses have achieved major accomplishments: established growing businesses, demonstrated vision, problem solving and exemplary corporate citizenship. Entrepreneurship is one of the most powerful drivers of growth and prosperity in our Kansas economy. It is the primary source of job creation and economic competitiveness. Challenging economic times have proven to be good times to launch a new business. In 2013 there were over 2,000 businesses in Kansas that received KSBDC services including our honorees today. It is the priority of KSBDC to reach as many potential entrepreneurs as possible and provide tools and services for Kansans in all parts of the state. As we face challenging times ahead The entrepreneurial spirit and energy represented by those we recognize today provide a source of encouragement and optimism.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. O'Brien are spread upon the Journal:

Today we have two groups from Leavenworth County here in the Capitol to learn what State Government and the Legislature is all about. They are sponsored by the Leavenworth/Lansing, Basehor and Tonganoxie Chambers of Commerce.

They formed as classes last fall and have been studying local history, the local economy, the legal and legislative systems, health and social service agencies, civic and community groups, education programs and technology ever since.

The Classes were originally started in 1985 and 1990 when local government, schools, and community based organizations had difficulty in filling positions on committees, boards of directors and other responsible organizations that rely on citizen input and participation to make decisions for the benefit of the community as a whole. It was determined that many citizens were reluctant to volunteer because of lack of familiarity with the issues and organizations and a feeling that they were not prepared or qualified to participate in deciding community issues.

Graduates have included mayors, city administrators, city council members, librarians, police officers, firefighters, local business owners and their employees, homemakers and students. The goal is to prepare interested community citizens for positions of leadership in civic, educational and governmental organizations. The programs also encourage inter-community networking and foster healthy business relationships.

My fellow Representatives, please help me welcome the 2014 Leavenworth/Lansing and Southern Leavenworth County Leadership Classes to the House. They are in the gallery above.

All such transfers are subject to reduction under K.S.A. 75-6704, and amendments thereto. All transfers made in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be considered to be demand transfers from the state general fund, ~~except that all such transfers during fiscal year 2016 shall be considered to be revenue transfers from the state general fund.~~

(c) The state treasurer shall apportion and pay the amounts transferred under subsection (b) to the several county treasurers on January 15 and on July 15 in each year as follows: (1) Sixty-five percent of the amount to be distributed shall be apportioned on the basis of the population figures of the counties certified to the secretary of state pursuant to K.S.A. 11-201, and amendments thereto, on July 1 of the preceding year; and (2) thirty-five percent of such amount shall be apportioned on the basis of the equalized assessed tangible valuations on the tax rolls of the counties on November 1 of the preceding year as certified by the director of property valuation.

The budget of each political subdivision also shall show that the aggregate levies made by such tangible property tax-levying political subdivisions will produce a sum less than the amount which the aggregate levy would produce in an amount equal to or in excess of the aggregate amount of the budget items of such distribution shown in the aggregate levy that property tax revenues from the preceding year have been reduced by an amount equal to 80% of the amount received by the political subdivision from the local ad valorem tax reduction fund.~~

(b) Possession of a firearm under the influence is a class A nonperson misdemeanor.

(c) This section shall not apply to:

(1) A person who possesses or carries a firearm while in such person's own dwelling or place of business or on land owned or possessed by such person; or

(2) the transitory possession or use of a firearm during an act committed in self-defense or in defense of another person or any other act committed if legally justified or excused, provided such possession or use lasts no longer than is immediately necessary.

(d) If probable cause exists for a law enforcement officer to believe a person is in possession of a firearm under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or both, such law enforcement officer shall request such person submit to one or more tests of the person's blood, breath, urine or other bodily substance to determine the presence of alcohol or drugs. The selection of the test or tests shall be made by the officer.

(e) (1) If a law enforcement officer requests a person to submit to a test of blood under this section, the withdrawal of blood at the direction of the officer may be performed only by:

(A) A person licensed to practice medicine and surgery, licensed as a physician's assistant, or a person acting under the direction of any such licensed person;

(B) a registered nurse or a licensed practical nurse;

(C) any qualified medical technician, including, but not limited to, an emergency medical technician-intermediate, mobile intensive care technician, an emergency medical technician-intermediate/defibrillator, an advanced emergency medical technician or a paramedic, as those terms are defined in K.S.A. 65-6112, and amendments thereto, authorized by medical protocol; or

(2) A law enforcement officer may direct a medical professional described in this subsection to draw a sample of blood from a person if the person has given consent or upon meeting the requirements of subsection (d).

(3) When so directed by a law enforcement officer through a written statement, the medical professional shall withdraw the sample as soon as practical and shall deliver the sample to the law enforcement officer or another law enforcement officer as directed by the requesting law enforcement officer as soon as practical, provided the collection of the sample does not jeopardize the person's life, cause serious injury to the person or seriously impede the person's medical assessment, care or treatment. The medical professional authorized herein to withdraw the blood and the medical care facility where the blood is drawn may act on good faith that the requirements have been met for directing the withdrawing of blood once presented with the written statement provided for under this subsection. The medical professional shall not require the person to sign any additional consent or waiver form. In such a case, the person authorized to withdraw blood and the medical care facility shall not be liable in any action alleging lack of consent or lack of informed consent.

(4) Such sample or samples shall be an independent sample and not be a portion of a sample collected for medical purposes. The person collecting the blood sample shall complete the collection portion of a document provided by law enforcement.

(5) If a sample is to be taken under authority of a search warrant, and the person must be restrained to collect the sample pursuant to this section, law enforcement shall be responsible for applying any such restraint utilizing acceptable law enforcement

When possible, the supervising person shall be a law enforcement officer. The results of qualitative testing for drug presence shall be admissible in evidence and questions of accuracy or reliability shall go to the weight rather than the admissibility of the evidence. If the person is medically unable to provide a urine sample in such manner due to the injuries or treatment of the injuries, the same authorization and procedure as used for the collection of blood in paragraphs (2) and (3) shall apply to the collection of a urine sample.

(8) The person performing or assisting in the performance of any such test and the law enforcement officer requesting any such test who is acting in accordance with this section shall not be liable in any civil and criminal proceeding involving the action.

(f) (1) The person's refusal shall be admissible in evidence against the person at any trial on a charge arising out of possession of a firearm under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or both.

(2) Failure of a person to provide an adequate breath sample or samples as directed shall constitute a refusal unless the person shows that the failure was due to physical inability caused by a medical condition unrelated to any ingested alcohol or drugs.

(3) In any criminal prosecution for a violation of this section, if the court finds that a person refused to submit to testing when requested pursuant to this section, the county or district attorney, upon petition to the court, may recover on behalf of the state, in addition to the criminal penalties provided in this section, a civil penalty not exceeding $1,000 for each violation.

(g) If a person who holds a valid license to carry a concealed handgun issued pursuant to K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 75-7c01 et seq., and amendments thereto, is convicted of a violation of this section, such person's license to carry a concealed handgun shall be revoked for a minimum of one year for a first offense and three years for a second or subsequent offense.

(h) In any criminal prosecution for possession of a firearm under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or both, evidence of the concentration of alcohol or drugs in the defendant's blood, urine, breath or other bodily substance may be admitted and shall give rise to the following:

(1) If the alcohol concentration is less than .08, that fact may be considered with other competent evidence to determine if the defendant was under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or both.

(2) If the alcohol concentration is .08 or more, it shall be prima facie evidence that the defendant was under the influence of alcohol.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Dave Hintz, senior pastor, Flint Hills Christian Church, Emporia, and guest of Rep. Mast:

Father God, we come before you as the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords. And we ask for your help, as these men and women counsel together and make decisions which impact our state.

I pray that you will give them wisdom. May they know that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of all wisdom. And that they not only answer to the voters, but to you.

I pray that you will give them humility, that they may think before they speak and weigh a matter before making a decision.

I pray that you will give them selflessness, that they will don the attitude of Jesus Christ who did not abuse his power, but used it to serve others.

I pray that you will give them courage. Lord I pray that they will be driven to do and say that right thing, even if it is not perceived that way by onlookers.

Lord bless these men and women, and use their decisions to bless this state.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Rep. Victors, HR 6057, A RESOLUTION commemorating the 80th Anniversary of Newman University in Wichita, Kansas, was adopted.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Victors are spread upon the Journal:

Today marks the 80th Anniversary for Newman University. In 1933, the Sacred Heart Junior College was established at the height of the Great Depression. It provided education and training to many sisters and women in the area. Over the years, the school's growth in enrollment and campus facilities helped transform into what is now called Newman University.

Newman University provides many educational opportunities for their students whether it is in areas of health care, education, or business. They do an excellent job at helping their students strive to be the best and prepare them for the workforce or higher education.

I experienced this first hand while attending Newman. I received my undergraduate degree in Biology in 2005 and the science department faculty was outstanding in helping me achieve my academic goals. I had a very good experience at Newman and can't thank the university enough for their support over the years.

I would like to introduce the President of Newman University, Dr. Noreen Carrocci and other students and guests.

Please help me in applauding Newman University for 80 years of excellence and achievement.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Rep. Finney, HR 6060, A RESOLUTION designating March 13, 2014, as Kidney Awareness Day, was adopted.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Finney are spread upon the Journal:

Today is World Kidney Day and Kidney Awareness Day at the Capital. World Kidney Day (WKD) is a global health awareness campaign focusing on the importance of the kidneys and reducing the frequency and impact of kidney disease and its associated health problems worldwide. It is observed annually on the second Thursday in March.

Across the globe, 1 out of 10 adults has some form of kidney damage yet the level of awareness of the important role the kidneys play in our health is low. In the United States, 1 out of 8 American adults has some form of kidney damage. Diabetes plus high blood pressure can cause kidney damage. Many people with diabetes and high blood pressure do not realize their kidney functioning could be at risk. Kidney disease may happen slowly over a long period of time. Early detection and treatment can often keep chronic kidney disease from getting worse. When kidney disease progresses, it leads to kidney failure, which requires dialysis or a kidney transplant to maintain life. Over 2,722 Kansans currently are receiving life-saving dialysis treatment.

One of the best ways to delay or prevent chronic kidney disease is by controlling high blood pressure. Today three organizations have come together with a United Health Initiative Focus to bring kidney awareness to the Kansas Capital and offer each of you an opportunity to get your blood pressure checked. Those organizations are: The National Kidney Foundation, The Kansas Kidney Coalition, and the Kansas Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority.

The National Kidney Foundation is the leading organization in the U.S. dedicated to the awareness, prevention and treatment of kidney disease for hundreds of thousands of healthcare professionals, millions of patients and their families, and tens of millions of Americans at risk.

The Kansas Kidney Coalition's mission is to improve the lives of Kansans with kidney disease by providing education through sharing information, collaborating by building connections and working together, and advocating for positive change and better services for people living with kidney failure.

The Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority (AKA) is the first Greek-lettered sorority established and incorporated by African-American college women. Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Father God,
As we get into this time of longer days, extended debate, and final action,
be with our leaders.
As Your Word admonished, help them be men and women of integrity.
Let wisdom enter their hearts, and let knowledge be pleasant to them.
Let discretion preserve them and understanding keep them.
Make their hearts and ears attentive to Godly counsel, and help them to do what is right in Your eyes.
And although they do represent a multitude of people,
when it is all said and done, they must answer to You as to whether what they do is fair and just,
that they are compassionate,
and that they don't take themselves too seriously, but take You very seriously.
In Your Son's Name I pray, Amen.

(Ps. 25:21, Prov. 2:10-11, Ps. 1:1, 2 Chron. 20:32, Micah 6:8)

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: Driving under the influence, even for a young first-time offender, can hardly be dismissed as a youthful indiscretion or innocent "mistake," as some here have tried to characterize it. Why? Because drunk drivers at any age kill people. Moreover, because most first time DUI offenders are granted diversion, a first time DUI conviction usually addresses a repeat offender. Do we really want to lighten the expungement requirements for habitual drunk drivers? For these reasons, I will always oppose any attempts to weaken Kansas' drunk driving laws. I vote no on HB 2662.--JOHN RUBIN, MIKE KIEGERL, KASHA KELLEY.

MR. SPEAKER: HB 2662 does nothing to change Kansas' DUI penalties and does nothing to keep repeat DUI offenders from being prosecuted accordingly. This bill is about allowing a more timely opportunity for a DUI offender who has paid his or her debt to society to move on with a successful career. A good job can be a strong deterrent to repeating the offense. After the penalties have been paid, it is unreasonable to cut off a decade from someone's career and retirement. A five-year waiting period bring DUI closer in line with the expungement waiting period for all other misdemeanors. I vote Yes on HB 2662.--JACK THIMESCH.

Sub for Sub HB 2721, AN ACT concerning business entities; relating to business formation and filing requirements; enacting the business entity standard treatment act; amending K.S.A. 17-6002, 17-7673, 17-7674 and 17-7677 and K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 17-6003 and 56a-1102 and repealing the existing sections; also repealing K.S.A. 17-6003a, 17-6201, 17-6202, 17-6203, 17-6205, 17-6206, 17-7303, 17-7306, 17-7402, 17-7664, 17-7665, 17-7666, 17-7676, 17-7683, 17-76,120, 17-76,121, 17-76,121a, 17-76,123, 17-76,124, 17-76,125, 17-76,136, 17-76,142, 56-1a102, 56-1a103, 56-1a105, 56-1a108, 56-1a154, 56-1a155, 56-1a501, 56-1a502, 56-1a503, 56-1a505, 56-1a506, 56-1a511, 56-1a605, 56a-1002, 56a-1101, 56a-1104 and 56a-1105 and K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 17-6204, 17-7301, 17-7506, 17-7678, 56-1a104, 56-1a504, 56a-1005 and 56a-1106, was considered on final action.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Roger Gustafson, Bishop, Central States Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, and guest of Rep. Gandhi:

Good and gracious Creator, we gather before you this morning as leaders of a great state in our great country. For all of the blessings that you have entrusted to us to use and to share, we give you thanks. We gather also as leaders is deep need of your guidance and counsel. The responsibility of leadership comes as a gift and trust from you alone, but it is a responsibility that we dare not assume on our own. We know this. We know that, left to our own devices, we so often seek our own advantage rather than the good of all your children; so we pray for hearts and minds that are open first of all to you. We are bold this morning to ask for the gifts of wisdom and compassion and humility as we do the work of your people. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Menghini.

CELEBRATION OF ST. PATRICK'S DAY

In celebration of St. Patrick's Day, former Senator Rich Gannon played traditional Irish melodies on the bagpipes.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Hibbard are spread upon the Journal:

Today, I have with me the Class 2A State and Regional Scholars' Quiz Bowl Champions from Yates Center High School. Included in this group are: Seniors – Myles Dice and Ryan Mentzer; Juniors – Rhett Stratman and Andrew Pringle; Sophomores – Hayden Splechter and Charles Hess, and their coach, Collette Jacobs.

An interesting side note is that in the final match, they defeated West Elk High School from Howard, another 2A school in my District.

Even with the challenges we are having in education, District 13 is putting out a great group of students.

Rep. Hibbard presented the team with a framed House certificate.

By Committee on Appropriations

A PROPOSITION to amend article 11 of the constitution of the state of Kansas by adding a new section thereto, concerning a budget stabilization fund and a disaster relief fund in the state treasury.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Article 11 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

§ 14. Budget Stabilization Fund and Disaster Relief Fund. (a) On July 1, 2015, a budget stabilization fund and a disaster relief fund shall be established and maintained in the state treasury.

(b) For any fiscal year that commences on or after July 1, 2015, if the total state revenue exceeds the total fiscal year spending for that fiscal year, then, on July 1 of the ensuing fiscal year, 50% of such excess amount shall be transferred as follows: 70% to the budget stabilization fund; and 30% to the disaster relief fund. Any amount required to be maintained in the ending balance of the state general fund as provided by law shall be excluded from the amount available for transfer to the budget stabilization fund or disaster relief fund by this section.

(c) Amounts in the budget stabilization fund and the disaster relief fund may be invested as provided by law and the earnings thereon shall be retained in the budget stabilization fund and the disaster relief fund.

(d) Pursuant to this section, no additional moneys shall be transferred into the budget stabilization fund if the balance in the fund is equal to or more than 7% of the total fiscal year spending for the preceding fiscal year. Pursuant to this section, no additional moneys shall be transferred into the disaster relief fund if the balance in the fund is equal to or more than 3% of the total fiscal year spending for the preceding fiscal year. The legislature may provide, by law, for additional amounts of total state revenue to be deposited in the budget stabilization fund and the disaster relief fund.

(e) (1) (A) For any fiscal year that commences on or after July 1, 2015, if the amount of the total state revenue is less than the amount of the total state revenue for the prior fiscal year, the legislature may provide by enactment of a law for the transfer of moneys from the budget stabilization fund to the state general fund in an amount equal to the lesser of:

(i) Not more than the difference between the amount of the total state revenue for the prior fiscal year and the amount of the estimated total state revenue for the current fiscal year; or

(ii) 50% of the balance in the budget stabilization fund.

(B) Under no other circumstances shall moneys be transferred or expended from the budget stabilization fund.

(2) (A) Moneys in the disaster relief fund may be expended only for an emergency declared by the governor to exist within the state.

(B) Under no other circumstances shall moneys be transferred or expended from the disaster relief fund.

(f) As used in this section:

(1) "Emergency" means an extraordinary event or occurrence that could not have been reasonably foreseen or prevented and that requires immediate expenditures to preserve the health, safety and general welfare of the people within the state and "emergency" does not mean a revenue shortfall or budget shortfall.

(2) "Fiscal year spending" means all expenditures and reserve increases except, as to both, (A) expenditures for refunds of any kind, (B) expenditures of moneys received from the federal government, moneys received as grants, gifts or donations which are to be expended for purposes specified by the donor, moneys that are collections for another government, moneys received for pension contributions by employees and pension fund earnings, or (C) budget stabilization fund transfers, disaster relief fund transfers, or expenditures in accordance with this section.

(3) "Total state revenue" means all moneys received by the state from any source except any of the following:

(A) Moneys received as grants, gifts or donations which are to be expended for purposes specified by the donor;

(B) moneys received from the federal government; and

(C) moneys which are income earned on moneys in permanent endowment funds, trust funds, deferred compensation funds or pension funds that are credited to such funds.

(g) The legislature may enact laws to carry out the purposes of this section.

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to establish a budget stabilization fund and a disaster relief fund in the state treasury.

"A vote for this proposition will:

(1) Establish a budget stabilization fund and a disaster relief fund in the state treasury. Each year, if the total state revenue exceeds the total spending for that fiscal year, then, 50% of such excess amount shall be transferred as follows: 70% to the budget stabilization fund; and 30% to the disaster relief fund.

Additional amounts could be deposited in these funds by act of the legislature.

(2) Provide that amounts could be withdrawn from the budget stabilization fund if the amount of the estimated total state revenue for the current fiscal year is less than the amount of the total state revenue for the prior fiscal year, the legislature may transfer moneys from the budget stabilization fund to the state general fund in an amount equal to the lesser of: (A) Not more than the difference between the amount of the total state revenue for the prior fiscal year and the amount of the estimated total state revenue for the current fiscal year; or (B) 50% of the balance in the budget stabilization fund.

(3) Provide that amounts could be withdrawn from the disaster relief fund only for an emergency declared by the governor to exist within the state.

"A vote against this amendment would make no changes in current law concerning the state's finance."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in the year 2014 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: While I strongly support the initial underlying bill, Sub HB 2541 was materially altered by an un-friendly, un-vetted amendment that had no hearing in committee. With this amendment, Sub HB 2541 became a bill that would allow residents of Missouri to dispose of recyclable materials in the Johnson County landfill, threatening the longevity of this facility and greatly increasing the likelihood that residents of Kansas' most populous county will soon have to dispose of their waste in neighboring counties. This bill is hostile to sensible solid waste plans from responsible governments, and therefore, I vote NO on Sub HB 2541. – STEPHANIE S. CLAYTON, DON HINEMAN, EMILY PERRY, MELISSA ROOKER, BARBARA BOLLIER

Journal of the House

FORTY-THIRD DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, March 19, 2014, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.

Rep. Seiwert was excused on legislative business.

Reps. Gonzalez and Thimesch were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Dr. Bruce L. Emmert, senior pastor, First United Methodist Church of Topeka, and guest of Rep. Tietze:

Sovereign, All Wise God, we give you thanks for the men and women of this chamber who were elected by the people of Kansas to make our state more just and caring. We give you thanks for their willingness to give their full attention to the complex problems and possibilities of insuring that all Kansans have the opportunity to prosper and lead productive and meaningful lives.

In James 3:17, Merciful God, you teach us that “the wisdom from above is first of all pure. It is also peace loving, gentle at all times, and willing to yield to others. It is full of mercy and good deeds. It shows no favoritism and is always sincere. And those who are peacemakers will plant seeds of peace and reap a harvest of righteousness (NLT).”

Pour out your wisdom from above on the men and women of the Kansas House so that they may fulfill the high and lofty calling of representing we the people. When the way forward seems difficult, give them peaceful hearts willing to yield to others for the sake of our common good.

Lord God, many times the demands we citizens make of them are unrealistic, self-serving or short-sighted. In those times we pray that you would give our representatives an extra measure of your peace.

We pray for our Governor, Sam Brownback, and the men and women of the Senate. Bless them and keep them in your care, all wise and merciful God.

And once again, wisdom-giving God, we give you thanks for the men and women of the Kansas House of Representatives.

When they are longing for home give them comfort. When the day drags on give them strength. And when they wonder why they ever offered themselves for public service in the first place, assure them that their personal sacrifice on our behalf is blessed by you. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Rothlisberg.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Mast are spread upon the Journal:

Earlier this month several individuals had the opportunity to be involved in watching and judging the American Legion State High School Oratorical Contest. It was exciting to see students from across the state of Kansas come to demonstrate their knowledge of the Constitution as well as their oratory skills and presentations. Winners of the competition win a total of $2,400 from the American Legion as well as opportunities for scholarships offered from Emporia State University or Tabor College. Not just one time scholarships but for the entire four year program. On the National level, the top three National orators earn scholarships of $18,000 for first place, $16,000. Second place and $14,000 third place.

James Davis from Newton walked away the winner that day but it was not easy. He had some very tough competition. In my personal evaluation of James that day, I noted comments like: Excellent reference and knowledge of History. Thoughtful Logic. Impressive knowledge of subject. Sought to understand the feelings of those who founded our nation. Demonstrates relationship between states and the Federal Government. Good understanding of Federalist papers as well. Referred to court cases and great knowledge of historical context. Professional. Add to that, great body language, eye contact, poise, diction, and well, what more could I say.

I want to commend the American Legion on their investment in our youth and the value they place in knowledge and understanding of the Constitution. I have with me here today James Davis, the State champion of the oratorical contest.

When I asked Chuck Yunker of the American Legion how I could help in the future, he told me I should tell others about this great program and encourage my colleagues to support it. Well, that is what I am doing. I hope you can watch for this contest to come close to your district and offer to participate in any way possible. I promise you will be blessed.

With that I would like to present James Davis with a certificate of commendation and again thank the American Legion for continuing to stress the importance of knowing and understanding our Constitution.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Finney are spread upon the Journal:

Lupus affects 1 in 185 individuals; yet despite its prevalence, lupus remains one of the least recognizable and most misunderstood diseases in both the medical and lay communities.

The most common form is systemic lupus erythematosus, which accounts for nearly 70 percent of cases. It's an autoimmune disease that causes the immune system to attack normal tissue and organs, including the kidneys, heart, lungs and skin.

This major health issue has a significant impact on our state economy, with one in five lupus patients receiving disability. The effects on many families can be devastating, chronic, life-long and life threatening.

Lupus affects primarily young women in their crucial childbearing years but also men, children and women of all ages and can result in immeasurable physical, financial and emotional toll on many families in our state.

The Lupus Foundation of America, Kansas Chapter is part of a national force devoted to solving the cruel mystery of lupus, one of the world's cruelest, most unpredictable and devastating diseases, while giving caring support to those who suffer from its brutal impact.

There are Lupus Activists here in the capitol today, many of them wearing the color purple. They will be visiting with different legislators to discuss issues of importance to people living with Lupus in Kansas, and they will be hosting deserts in the first floor rotunda north wing today immediately following adjournment of the House.

As a Lupus patient, I am pleased that they are here today and ask each of you to join us for dessert today and welcome them.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was introduced and read by title:

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. HR 6065—

By Committee on Transportation

A RESOLUTION urging the United States Environmental Protection Agency to recognize the primacy of states when developing emissions standards.

WHEREAS, A reliable, affordable energy supply is vital to the nation's future economic growth, security and quality of life; and

WHEREAS, Compliance with expected environmental regulations regulating greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions will affect ratepayers differently depending upon each state's existing electricity generation capacity, energy resources, electricity market and state commission decisions; and

WHEREAS, States have jurisdiction over the reliability and affordability of electricity provided to retail customers; and

WHEREAS, Incorporating flexibility in the implementation of Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) regulations to allow for unique state or regional strategies can lessen generation cost increases because of improved planning, greater use of energy efficiency, demand-side resources and orderly decision-making; and

WHEREAS, The state of Kansas at this time takes no position regarding the merits of EPA rulemakings for the purpose of regulating GHG from new or existing power plants; and

WHEREAS, In 2009, President Obama made a pledge that by 2020, America would reduce its greenhouse gas emissions in the range of 17 percent below 2005 levels; and

WHEREAS, The Regional Greenhouse Gas Initiative implemented by nine states is recognized as reducing emissions and provides a net consumer and economic benefit; and

WHEREAS, Ten states have successfully implemented market-based emissions trading systems applicable to the electrical power sectors for the purpose of reducing emissions; and

WHEREAS, Many states have: Implemented mandatory or voluntary renewable portfolio and energy standards, implemented energy efficiency or peak load reduction programs, experienced significant retirements of coal-based generating plans and mandated emission reductions programs; all of which have already contributed to a reduction in GHG emissions; and

WHEREAS, It may be in the best interest of ratepayers to maintain the operation of certain existing coal-based electricity generating plants that meet environmental performance requirements for priority pollutants for a period of time; and

WHEREAS, On June 25, 2013, the President issued a memorandum to the U.S. EPA Administrator directing the EPA to: Issue proposed carbon pollution standards, regulations or guidelines, as appropriate, for modified, reconstructed and existing power plants by no later than June 1, 2014; issue final standards, regulations or guidelines as appropriate for modified, reconstructed and existing power plants by no later than June 1, 2015; and include in the guidelines addressing existing power plants a requirement that states submit to the U.S. EPA the implementation plans required under Section 111(d) of the Clean Air Act and its implementing regulations by no later than June 30,

WHEREAS, The President instructed the EPA, in its efforts to address GHG emissions from modified, reconstructed and existing power plants to engage directly with states, and expressly recognized that states "will play a central role in establishing and implementing standards for existing power plants"; and

WHEREAS, The President instructed the EPA to work with state agencies to "promote the reliable and affordable provision of electric power through the continued development and deployment of cleaner technologies and by increasing energy efficiency, including through stronger appliance efficiency standards and other measures"; and

WHEREAS, Section 111(d)(1)(A) requires the EPA to establish a procedure under which each state shall submit to the Administrator a plan which establishes standards of performance for existing sources; and

WHEREAS, Section 111(d)(1)(B) requires the plan submitted by the state to provide for the implementation and enforcement of such standards of performance and the Administrator may permit a state, in applying such standards of performance, "to take into consideration, among other factors, the remaining useful life of the existing source to which such standard applies"; and

WHEREAS, The states rely on the EPA to issue a procedure under Section 111(d) that reflects the best system or systems of emission reductions that have been adequately demonstrated at affected facilities; and

WHEREAS, State utility regulators have jurisdiction over decisions regarding integrated resource planning or resource adequacy, processes which ultimately determine the mixes of fuels and resources in state generation portfolios, which differ from state to state; and

WHEREAS, States have different mixes of fuels and resources in their existing generation portfolios; and

WHEREAS, States have achieved different levels of GHG reductions to date, and have diverse economies and face different economic conditions, including states with energy intensive manufacturing industries that provide goods for the entire nation: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we urge the EPA, in developing any emissions guidelines for regulating carbon emissions from existing power plants, to recognize the primacy of states to rely on both state utility and environmental regulators to lead the creation of emission performance systems that reflect the policies, energy needs, resource mix and economic conditions of each state and region; and

Be it further resolved: That the guidelines should be flexible enough to allow states individually or regionally to take into account, when establishing standards of performance, the different makeup of existing power generation in each state and region; and

Be it further resolved: That the states need the EPA, under the relevant statutory factors, to issue guidelines that avoid GHG emissions reductions that are not feasible; and

Be it further resolved: That the guidelines should provide sufficiently flexible compliance pathways or mechanisms that recognize state and regional variations to achieve the most cost-effective emissions reductions in each state; and

Be it further resolved: That the guidelines recognize and credit states' emissions reduction achievements to date, recognize any and all existing state emission reduction programs and shall not intrude on the states' jurisdiction over decisions regarding integrated resource planning or resource adequacy or otherwise mandate specific modifications to the mix of fuels and resources in existing and future state generation portfolios; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to the U.S. EPA Administrator.

FORTY-FOURTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, March 20, 2014, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.

Rep. Pauls was excused on legislative business.

Rep. Thimesch was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Robert E. Schmutz, pastor, The United Methodist Church at Park City, and guest of Rep. Huebert:

Dear God we thank you so much for this day. Thank you for loving us, and for giving us the gift of life. Thank you for waking us up this morning and for giving us another chance today, God. Truly, this is the day that the Lord has made and we choose today to rejoice and to be glad in it.

Help us today Oh God, to remember our place. Help us to remember that we are your servants and the servants of your people. Help us to remember to call on you when we lack wisdom, when we need help, when we don't know where to turn, or what to do. Thank you, Lord that you have told us that "All who call on the name of the Lord will be saved." Help us to be those who call on the name of the Lord. Help us this day to call on you when we need wisdom. Help us this day to call on you, and to know that when we do, you will show us great and mighty things which we do not know. And, that when we humble ourselves and pray, you will hear from heaven and heal our land.

God, we thank you so much for this great Nation in which we live, and for this great State we call home. Thank you, God, for the rich, daring, and colorful history, of our State, and for the women, men and families of faith, courage and character who settled it so many, years ago. And, thank you also God, for all of the generations that have courageously followed since. We are so grateful God for all of the ways you have blessed us. Please continue to pour out your Grace upon us.

Thank you God, today, for the public servants gathered here in this room, servant leaders actually, the representatives of the men, women, children, persons, families, townships, counties, and communities that populate this Great State of Kansas. Bless them Lord, I pray. Truly God, Bless them indeed. Make them conscious of the fact that they have ultimately been chosen by you, and been placed in the positions in which they find themselves by your hand of providence. Bless them with the realization that they have been raised up for such a time as this, so that at the end of the day, at the end or their terms in office, and ultimately, at the end of their lives, it will be said and known of them that they acted faithfully, that their actions reflected your will, and that they were used by you to better and bless the lives of your people. Grant them wisdom God as they face some of the most challenging and divisive issues of our day. Empower them to plot a course that draws us closer to you, and that helps us as a State to find and follow the path that you have for us.

Forgive us Lord, for any ways that we have turned aside, both individually and corporately. Bring us back to you God, as close as we can be. Please bring about whatever circumstances are necessary to help our hearts be softened and open to your leading. And, as you soften our hearts, help our hands be strengthened and hardened as we put them zealously to the tasks you set before us.

God Bless Kansas, we pray. And, may Kansas be a blessing to you. Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Meier.

(4) "layaway sale" means a transaction in which property is set aside for future delivery to a customer who makes a deposit, agrees to pay the balance of the purchase over a period of time and, at the end of the payment period, receives the property. An order is accepted for layaway by the seller, when the seller removes the property from normal inventory or clearly identifies the property as sold to the purchaser;

(5) "rain check" means the seller allows a customer to purchase an item at a certain price at a later time because the particular item was out of stock;

(b) The secretary of revenue shall provide notice of the exemption period to retailers at least 60 days prior to the first day of the calendar quarter in which the exemption period established in subsection (hhhh) of K.S.A. 79-3606, and amendments thereto, commences.

(c) The following procedures are to be used in administering the exemption as provided in subsection (hhhh) of K.S.A. 79-3606, and amendments thereto:

(1) A sale of eligible property under a layaway sale qualifies for the exemption if:

(A) Final payment on a layaway order is made by, and the property is given to, the purchaser during the exemption period; or

(B) the purchaser selects the property and the retailer accepts the order for the item during the exemption period, for immediate delivery upon full payment, even if delivery is made after the exemption period;

(2) there shall be no change during the period of exemption for the handling of a bundled sale as treated for sales tax purposes at times other than the exemption period;

(3) a discount by the seller reduces the sales price of the property and the discounted sales price determines whether the sales price is within the price threshold provided in subsection (hhhh) of K.S.A. 79-3606, and amendments thereto. A coupon that reduces the sales price is treated as a discount if the seller is not reimbursed for the coupon amount by a third party. If a discount applies to the total amount paid by a purchaser rather than to the sales price of a particular item and the purchaser has purchased both eligible property and taxable property, the seller should allocate the discount based on the total sales prices of the taxable property compared to the total sales prices of all property sold in that same transaction;

(4) articles that are normally sold as a single unit must continue to be sold in that manner. Such articles cannot be priced separately and sold as individual items in order to obtain the exemption;

(5) a rain check allows a customer to purchase an item at a certain price at a later time because the particular item was out of stock. Eligible property that customers purchase during the exemption period with use of a rain check will qualify for the exemption regardless of when the rain check was issued. Issuance of a rain check during the exemption period shall not qualify eligible property for the exemption if the property is actually purchased after the exemption period;

(6) the procedure for an exchange in regards to an exemption is as follows:

(A) If a customer purchases an item of eligible property during the exemption period, but later exchanges the item for a similar eligible item, even if a different size, different color or other feature, no additional tax is due even if the exchange is made after the exemption period;

(B) if a customer purchases an item of eligible property during the exemption period, but after the exemption period has ended, the customer returns the item and receives credit on the purchase of a different item, the appropriate sales tax is due on the sale of the new item; and

(C) if a customer purchases an item of eligible property before the exemption period, but during the exemption period the customer returns the item and receives credit on the purchase of a different item of eligible property, no sales tax is due on the sale of the new item if the new item is purchased during the exemption period;

(7) delivery charges, including shipping, handling and service charges, are part of the sales price of eligible property. For the purpose of determining the price threshold, if all the property in a shipment qualifies as eligible property and the sales price for each item in the shipment is within the price threshold, then the seller does not have to allocate the delivery, handling or service charge to determine if the price threshold is exceeded. The shipment will be considered a sale of eligible products. If the shipment includes eligible property and taxable property, including an eligible item with a sales price in excess of the price threshold, the seller should allocate the delivery charge by using:

(A) A percentage based on the total sales prices of the taxable property compared to the total sales prices of all property in the shipment; or

(B) a percentage based on the total weight of the taxable property compared to the total weight of all property in the shipment; and

(C) the seller must tax the percentage of the delivery charge allocated to the taxable property but does not have to tax the percentage allocated to the eligible property;

(8) for the purpose of an exemption, eligible property qualifies for the exemption if:

(A) The item is both delivered to and paid for by the customer during the exemption period; or

(B) the customer orders and pays for the item and the seller accepts the order during the exemption period for immediate shipment, even if delivery is made after the exemption period. The seller accepts an order when the seller has taken action to fill the order for immediate shipment. Actions to fill an order include placement of an in date stamp on a mail order or assignment of an order number to a telephone order. An order is for immediate shipment when the customer does not request delayed shipment. An order is for immediate shipment, notwithstanding that the shipment may be delayed because of a backlog of orders or because stock is currently unavailable to, or on back order by, the seller;

(9) for a 60-day period immediately after the exemption period, when a customer returns an item that would qualify for the exemption, no credit for or refund of sales tax shall be given unless the customer provides a receipt or invoice that shows tax was paid, or the seller has sufficient documentation to show that tax was paid on the specific item. This 60-day period is set solely for the purpose of designating a time period during which the customer must provide documentation that shows that sales tax was paid on returned merchandise. The 60-day period is not intended to change a seller's policy on the time period during which the seller will accept returns; and

(10) the time zone of the seller's location determines the authorized time period for a sales tax holiday when the purchaser is located in one time zone and a seller is located in another.";

(d) The provisions of this section shall be a part of and supplemental to the Kansas retailers' sales and compensating tax act.";

FORTY-FIFTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Friday, March 21, 2014, 10:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 117 members present.

Rep. Pauls was excused on legislative business.

Reps. Ballard, Claey's, Kelley, Sawyer, Thimesch, Victors and Winn were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Present later: Rep. Kelley.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Deacon Everett Schultz, First Mennonite Church, Pretty Prairie, guest of Rep. Seiwert:

Father in heaven,

We come before you this morning and ask that you be with Representative Jack Thimesch as he cares for his wife Diane. We pray that you will give him strength, comfort, and peace during this difficult time. Help him to feel your presence and under gird him with your love and care. Reach down and touch him with your loving hand and comfort him today and in the days to come.

We come today with thankful hearts for all that you have provided us. We praise you for the many blessings you have showered upon us. We have so much more than many other countries of the world because of your loving-kindness. We are thankful for our forefathers who used much wisdom and leadership in forming a government of the people, by the people, and for the people. I pray that the people in all levels of our government will continue to preserve this form of government in our great nation. I thank you for each person in this room, and pray that you will bless them in their work for our state.

I pray also for wisdom and understanding so they may be able to provide a budget that meets the needs of the state and yet does not put an unruly burden on the taxpayers. These people need wisdom to understand how to meet the mandate for equitable funding of schools and to provide for the needs of the agricultural and business aspects of our state. I pray they will cooperate with each other without regard to party affiliation so that these matters can be settled quickly and be done so in a manner such that all will benefit. I pray for the people of our state that they might see their impact on water and the future natural resources of our state. I pray that all the people of Kansas will do the right things so that our posterity can enjoy the benefits of their decisions. Many Kansans are concerned for their grandchildren, and I pray that you will rule and overrule our people's actions so that our grandchildren can enjoy a life as good as we have enjoyed.

And now Father, bless each one in this room and continue to bless them each day as they finish this legislative session. May they cooperate in such a way that the needs of our state will be met both today and in the future.

I ask these things in Thy name O Lord. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Seiwert.

Journal of the House

FORTY-SIXTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Monday, March 24, 2014, 10:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Mast in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.

Reps. Claeys, Sawyer and Thimesch were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Present later: Rep. Sawyer.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Dr. L. D. Holmes, pastor, Wanamaker Woods Church of the Nazarene, Topeka:

Dear God,

You are a mighty and awesome God, and we give you praise for your unconditional love.

We thank you that your arm is not shortened when it comes to touching the hurting, and responding to the cries and pleas of your people.

In your perfect timing, you have lifted up these called the Kansas House of Representatives. No one is here by accident, but rather by Divine Decree. Remind each of them that, "They who dwell in the shadow of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty. They will say to the Lord, my refuge and my fortress, my God in whom I trust."

We invite you, Great God, to sit in on committee hearings, be the vigilant member in every deliberation, and whisper words of wisdom, counsel and encouragement to all who will listen.

We also want to remember those husbands and wives, sons and daughters, who have released these who serve our great state. Remind them, if you would, Lord, that they are not forgotten and their sacrifice of sharing is so appreciated.

Thank you for the state of Kansas, the place we all call home. We do not claim to be a perfect state, but we do love freedom, democracy and the God-given right to prevail in our quest of what is right and best for our state.

Now, may your blessings rest upon those who have made themselves available for service.

In the name of the Great God of all creation, we pray. AMEN.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Hutton.

St. Patrick Catholic School has received the Governor's Award for Academic Achievement for the 2012-2013 academic year awarded by the Kansas State Board of Education. In order to receive this award, the state test scores for reading and math must be in the top five percent of all schools in the state. This is the sixth consecutive year for which they have received this honor. I am proud to have them in our district.

In addition, for the fourth straight year, St. Patrick Catholic School has won the Banner School Award from the diocese of Wichita. This award signifies that they are one of the best schools out of the forty-two in the Diocese of Wichita.

Please join me in congratulating Principal Robert Lyall, Father Benjamin Shockey, Lead Teacher Ann Vaughn, and the students representing their school: Audrey Birkenbaugh, Aubry Campbell, Colby Schreiner, Grant Harden and Jaxson Reed.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: While I understand the issue of State sovereignty, HB 2553 if enacted, has a high price tag. Administrative programs would be required for Medicare and the Healthcare Exchange that are not accounted for in the bill. These programs would significantly increase the size and scope of State Government. For those reasons, I vote no on HB 2553. -- DON SCHROEDER

MR. SPEAKER: Although Indian Health Services would be exempted, the rights and privileges of Native Americans under federal programs like Medicare, Medicaid are not specifically protected, as the law would allow the States to redesign or reject those programs altogether. Tribal clinics are severely underfunded already and putting the state in charge could let them do away with Medicare entirely which would have a huge impact on the tribal clinics. I vote No to HB 2553. -- PONKA-WE VICTORS

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes on HB 2553 because I believe the Affordable Care Act, otherwise known as Obamacare, is a seriously flawed federal policy. It harms hardworking Kansans and does not properly deliver healthcare reform. While HB 2553 would create serious implementation issues if it should ever be endorsed by Congress, I consider that to be an unlikely outcome. My vote in the affirmative is intended to send a message to Congress: Obamacare is an ill-conceived and unworkable program. I implore congree to work diligently toward effective healthcare reform. -- DON HINEMAN, TOM PHILLIPS, SUE BOLDRA, STEVEN C. JOHNSON, J. RUSSELL JENNINGS, STEPHEN ALFORD, DIANA DIERKS

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2553. Although we have been told that HB 2553 would not impact health services for veterans, most veterans would not be protected under this bill. Retired veterans who are not disabled have Medicare as their primary health insurance and TriCare as their secondary coverage. This legislation offers no assurance that these benefits will not be impacted if the state takes over their administration. I cannot support this bill knowing that veterans could be harmed in the process. -- ED TRIMMER, MELANIE MEIER, ADAM LUSKER, VALDENIA C. WINN, SYDNEY CARLIN, CAROLYN BRIDGES

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2553. Does the Affordable Care Act have its flaws? Yes, but privatizing Medicare is not the answer. The Kansas Insurance Commissioner, the AARP and our Kansas hospitals have all expressed serious concerns about this legislation. We cannot in good faith put the care of our seniors in the hands of a body that has already shown the propensity to divert funds to pet projects. Because of the very real risk this legislation presents to keeping Medicare sound and solvent for the nearly 450,000 Kansans who depend upon it, we must vote no. -- TOM BURROUGHS, VALDENIA C. WINN, ANNIE TIETZE, JOHN CARMICHAEL, BARBARA W. BALLARD, BRANDON WHIPPLE, JULIE MENGHINI, GAIL FINNEY, PATRICIA M. SLOOP, VIRGIL WEIGEL, JOHN WILSON, RODERICK HOUSTON, BRODERICK HENDERSON, NANCY LUSK, HAROLD LANE, JOHN ALCALA, LOUIS RUIZ, STAN FROWNFELETER, KATHY WOLFE MOORE, CAROLYN BRIDGES, SYDNEY CARLIN, ANNIE KUETHER, PAM CURTIS, PAUL DAVIS

MR. SPEAKER: I was prepared to vote for this legislation because it is the first opportunity we've been given to send a message to Congress on Obamacare. But, after studying this proposal and its impact on Medicare, it became clear this bill was not the way to do it. I will not jeopardize health care for Johnson County's senior citizens. They have paid into Medicare for decades with the promise that they would have the security of health coverage in their retirement years. I voted no on HB 2553 today because I will not break the promise we've made to our senior citizens. -- STEPHANIE S. CLAYTON

SB 311, AN ACT concerning civil procedure and civil actions; relating to noneconomic damages cap; expert or other testimony; amending K.S.A. 60-456, 60-457, 60-458 and 60-19a02 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 119; Nays 3; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 3.

Yeas: Alcalá, Alford, Anthimides, Ballard, Barker, Becker, Boldra, Bollier, Bradford, Bridges, Bruchman, Brunk, Burroughs, Couture-Lovelady, Campbell, Carlin, Carlson, Carmichael, Carpenter, Cassidy, Christmann, Clayton, Concannon, Corbet, Crum, Curtis, E. Eternal God,

We come to you humbly and we petition your presence in this Kansas House meeting. We thank You, Almighty God for your presence here today. We are thankful for those who serve in this House. This House has some difficult decisions to make for the future of our people. They will make decisions today and in the next few months that will guide this State in its present time and for years to come. These decisions they make will affect the lively hood and health of this State's people. You have guided them in the past through a bad economy, the loss of jobs and the general welfare of Your people. You made sure that even while people were hurting in those times, provision was made! So, as this House makes decisions that will affect all people, give them wisdom and courage to do what is right for the people.

Some of the decisions they make will not be popular with everyone. But guide them and protect them and may they trust you and allow you to direct their path. Let their decisions glorify you and lift communities across this State. Give them an ear to hear the concerns of everyday people from the farm lands to the urban communities. Give them an ear to hear from you. Touch their hearts Father! Bless them with wisdom and grace as they make decisions for the great State of Kansas and its people!

In Your Holy Name, Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Frownfelter.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply in any case or category of cases in which the agency head of a state agency finds that:

- (1) Their application would "be inconsistent with the public interest";
- (2) such materials and products are not produced in the United States in sufficient and reasonably available quantities and of a satisfactory quality; or
- (3) that the inclusion of domestic material will increase the cost of the overall project contract by more than 25%.

(c) If the agency head of a state agency receives a request for a waiver under subsection (b), the secretary shall provide notice of and an opportunity for public comment on the request at least 30 days before making a finding based on the request of the agency head.

(1) The notice required under this subsection shall:

(B) be provided to the public by publishing such notice and the information made available to the secretary on the internet web site of the state agency.

(2) If the secretary issues a waiver under subsection (b), the secretary shall publish in the Kansas register a detailed justification for the waiver that:

(A) Addresses the public comments received under subsection (c)(1); and

(B) is published before the waiver takes effect.

(d) (1) No person shall intentionally:

(A) Affix a label bearing a "Made in America" inscription, or any inscription with the same meaning, to any iron, steel or manufactured good used in projects to which this section applies, sold in or shipped to this state that was not made in the United States; or

(B) represent that any iron, steel or manufactured good used in projects to which this section applies was produced in the United States when, in fact, such good was not produced in the United States.

(2) If it has been determined by a court or the secretary that any person has violated any provision of paragraph (1), such person shall be ineligible to receive any contract or subcontract with this state pursuant to the debarment or suspension provisions provided under article 37 of chapter 75 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto.

(e) This section shall be applied in a manner consistent with the state's obligations under any applicable international agreements pertaining to government procurement.

(f) The state agency shall give preference to goods that are manufactured in Kansas when possible.;

"New Sec. 3. (a) Sections 3 through 8, and amendments thereto, shall be known and may be cited as the taxpayer empowerment, accountability and transparency in state contracting act.

(b) As used in sections 3 through 8, and amendments thereto, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Agency" means any state agency, authority or any political subdivision of state or local government, including, but not limited to, county, city, township, village or municipal government, local school districts, institutions of higher education, any state-supported institution or a joint agency composed of political subdivisions.

(2) "Privatization" means a contract or a lease between an agency and a person or firm, regardless of whether the person or firm is a for-profit entity or a not-for-profit entity, for any function, operation or service performed by personnel employed by an agency on July 1, 2014, or the termination of a state-provided function, operation or service where the practical impact is that such function, operation or service will be performed by another entity.

New Sec. 4. (a) The division of purchases of the department of administration shall establish and maintain an online database that is accessible, searchable, sortable and downloadable. The database shall include the following:

- (1) A description of the contract for services being purchased;
- (2) the name of the agency, department or division contracting for the service;
- (3) the name of the contractor and any and all subcontractors;
- (4) effective and expiration dates of the contract;
- (5) the annual amount paid to the contractor in the past fiscal years and the current fiscal year under the contract by funding source;
- (6) the annual amount proposed to be paid to the contractor in the fiscal years beyond the approved budget;

(7) the total projected cost of the contract for all fiscal years by funding source; and
 (8) a list of private contractor employees for each contract, reflected as full-time equivalent positions, their hourly wage rate and the number of private contractor employees and consultants for the current and previous fiscal years.

(b) The information described in subsection (a) shall be compiled in an annual service contractor expenditure budget accompanying the governor's budget, detailing total spending on total service contracts for the state.

(c) Each service contract in excess of $25,000 between an agency and a person or firm for the performance of a governmental function shall:

(1) Provide that the agency is entitled to receive a copy of records and files related to the performance of the governmental function; and

(2) indicate that such records and files are subject to the Kansas open records act, K.S.A. 45-215 et seq., and amendments thereto, and shall be disclosed by the agency.

(d) Any contractor doing business with an agency shall:

(1) Keep and maintain the public records that ordinarily and necessarily would be kept and maintained by the agency in order to perform the service or activity;

(2) provide the agency with access to such public records on the same terms and conditions and at a cost that does not exceed costs as defined in K.S.A. 45-222, and amendments thereto, or as otherwise provided by law; and

(3) abide by the provisions of the Kansas open meetings act, K.S.A. 75-4317 et seq., and amendments thereto, ensuring that any and all meetings between the private contractor and officials acting on behalf of the jurisdiction are open to the public.

New Sec. 5. (a) Before any contract is finalized, the contracting agency shall prepare a request to the governing body for an appropriation and any authority that is necessary for the contracting agency to hire personnel and obtain resources necessary to oversee and monitor performance of service contracts and enforce other conditions required by law. No procurement for such contract shall proceed unless the necessary appropriation and authority have been granted.

(b) If the contracting agency procures services, the contracting agency shall:

(1) Keep a record of the cost analysis and findings that the contracting agency makes for each procurement the agency conducts, along with the basis for the decision to proceed with the procurement;

(2) properly ensure that the contractor is providing services as required by the contract within the costs as established by the contract;

(3) enforce performance standards established by the contract;

(4) collect and provide copies of the records required by law; and

(5) ensure that any and all aspects of the contract are properly enforced.

(c) Any service contract shall incorporate specific performance criteria and cost parameters, and the contractor shall submit quarterly reports to the secretary of administration on the contractor's compliance with the performance criteria and actual costs incurred. The service contract may be cancelled if the contractor fails to comply with the performance criteria and other requirements set out in the contract and if annual costs exceed those established by the contract. The contract may be cancelled at any time if the contractor fails to comply with all applicable local, state and federal laws, rules and regulations and statutes.

(d) Any private entity that has a contract with the state of Kansas can have no adjudicated record of substantial or repeated willful noncompliance with any relevant federal, state or local statute or rules and regulations, including payment of taxes or other payments owed to a public entity. Prior to awarding a contract, bidders are required to submit documentation to the secretary of administration, signed by the bidder under penalty of perjury, attesting to compliance with all applicable local, state and federal laws, including health and safety, labor and employment and licensing laws, that affect the employees, worksite or performance of the contract. All bidders and contractors shall complete a pledge of compliance provided by the secretary of administration attesting under penalty of perjury to comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations and statutes.

New Sec. 6. (a) Prior to entering into a private service contract, the secretary of administration shall make public a cost comparison. No agency may enter a private service contract, unless the proposed contract is projected to result in overall cost savings to the state of at least 10% less than the projected cost of having the services provided by public employees. Contract costs shall include direct costs, including salaries and fringe benefits, indirect overhead costs, including the contractor's proportional share of existing administrative salaries and benefits, rent and equipment costs, utilities and materials. Additionally, transition costs, including unemployment compensation, shall be included in the analysis of contractor costs.

(b) Projected cost savings may not derive from a bidder's failure to provide health and retirement benefits and adequate wages to its employees. Contractors are required to pay wages comparable to step one of current wages for public employees performing similar work or the average private sector wage, whichever is less. In addition, contractors must pay no less than the current percentage for health benefits comparable to those offered current public employees or a wage differential sufficient to cover the cost of the health benefits. The wages and benefits must be included in any bid and actual wages and benefits shall be reported to the contracting agency on a quarterly basis. This information shall be public record, and itemized per employee of the contractor.

New Sec. 7. (a) Prior to entering into a private contract for public services, the secretary of administration or agency designee shall produce a thorough analysis of the possible impacts of the private contract. The analysis shall include, but is not limited to, the following:

- (1) Possible loss of employment or income in a local area;
- (2) impacts on social services in the local area;
- (3) impacts on public assistance programs;
- (4) economic impact on local businesses;
- (5) any possible loss or increase in tax revenue for the local area; and
- (6) any environmental impacts that may result from the private contract, including any upgrades or possible degradation.

(b) This report detailing the analysis conducted pursuant to subsection (a) shall be made public and posted on the department of administration public website. The contracting agency shall conduct public meetings in order for all citizens to have an opportunity to address concerns and obtain information.

(c) No contract shall be automatically renewed without utilizing the competitive bidding process. Any in-house bids submitted shall be considered. If an in-house bid or proposal meets the cost and performance criteria specified in the law or the request for proposal, it shall be deemed the most qualified bid.

(d) No agency may enter into a contract that guarantees payment for services not provided. Service or asset contracts shall not unduly restrict the government from taking actions in the public interest and shall not unfairly place the burden of risk on taxpayers.

(e) No contracts shall:

(1) Provide for guaranteed occupancy rates for private prisons, dormitories or any other contracted facility;

(2) prohibit a government entity from maintaining, improving or building public infrastructure; and

(3) penalize a jurisdiction if a contractor loses revenue as a result of natural or man-made emergencies, such as acts of terrorism or acts of mother nature.

(f) Any increases in fees or charges for public services shall be submitted to the governing body of the jurisdiction for approval. The decision to approve or disallow increases shall be made in a public manner, subject to the requirements of the Kansas open meetings act.

New Sec. 8. Prior to outsourcing any work, both the in-house and proposed contractors' costs and scope of work shall be estimated by the head of the agency and provided to affected bargaining representatives, along with all source information on all cost estimates. The bargaining representative shall be provided a full and fair opportunity to present its own cost estimates and recommendations for the new work processes. Such estimates and recommendations shall be given full consideration. ";

Almighty God, as the hours wind down on this year's session of the Kansas legislature, we are reminded afresh and anew of our deep need for Your leading in everything we consider as a legislative body.

May this day be one that finds all of us willing to be led by Your presence and inspiration affording us the ability to unite for the greater benefit of this great state and its citizens.

May this day be one that enables us to move beyond past differences into a united body only doing what is best for everyone, great and small alike.

INTRODUCTION OF SENATE BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

The following Senate bills were thereupon introduced and read by title:

SB 375, SB 405.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Rep. Edwards, HR 6064, A RESOLUTION congratulating Campus High School, Chapman High School, Mission Trail Elementary School, Oswego Neosho Heights Elementary School and West Franklin High School on receiving 2013 Blue Ribbon awards from the U.S. Department of Education, was adopted.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Edwards are spread upon the Journal:

On September 24, 2013, U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan recognized 286 schools as the 2013 cohort of National Blue Ribbon Schools, based on their overall academic excellence or their progress in improving student academic achievement.

Haysville USD 261's Campus High School has been recognized as an "Exemplary Improving" National Blue Ribbon School.

The program recognizes schools in one of two performance categories. The first category is "Exemplary High Performing," in which schools are recognized among their state's highest performing schools, as measured by state assessments or nationally-normed tests. The second category is "Exemplary Improving," in which schools that have at least 40 percent of their students from disadvantaged backgrounds demonstrate the most progress in improving student achievement levels as measured by state assessments or nationally-normed test.

The Department honored 286 public and 50 private schools at a recognition ceremony this past November in Washington, D.C. In its 31 year history, the National Blue Ribbon Schools Program has bestowed this coveted award on nearly 7500 of America's schools.

"Excellence in education matters and we should honor the schools that are leading the way to prepare students for success in college and careers," Said Secretary Duncan. "National Blue Ribbon schools represent examples of educational excellence, and their work reflects the belief that every child in America deserves a world-class education."

The National Blue Ribbon Schools award honors public and private elementary, middle, and high schools where students perform at very high levels or where significant improvements are being made in students' levels of achievement.

We have five schools in Kansas that have won this prestigious award as the resolution has stated.

I am proud to honor my children's High School, Campus High of Haysville USD 261 and the leadership of this school, Superintendent of USD 261, Dr. John Burke, and Principal Myron Regeir and the Assistant Principal's Joe Sailors, and Mark Foster.

Rep. Edwards presented a framed House certificate to the representatives from Campus High School.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Rep. Gonzalez, HR 6067, A RESOLUTION designating March 30, 2014, as Welcome Home Vietnam Veterans Day, was adopted.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Meier, Goico and Gonzalez are spread upon the Journal:

Remarks of Rep. Meier:

Welcome Home. Vietnam War veterans have waited over four decades to hear those two words.

This Sunday is the anniversary of the United States Armed Forces withdrawal of combat units from South Vietnam in 1973.

Unfortunately, 40 years ago, our service members were not always treated with the support and respect they deserved. I'll always remember my father's story of being directed to purchase civilian clothes at the airport, before being allowed to go home in an attempt to avoid the attention of the protesters would gather to heckle the servicemen. There were no parades or welcome home ceremonies. Veterans just tried to quietly blend back in.

Today these same Vietnam Veterans, who were treated so poorly, support and stand up for our young veterans. They have educated our society that the men and women who volunteer to put their lives on the line for their neighbors are not the ones to blame for disagreements on policy.

Thanks to them, our servicemen and women of today are encouraged to wear their uniforms home. Crowds actually gather at the airports to cheer for them and thank them. It was quite the experience for me, to emerge from the international terminal in Dallas to a cheering crowd and everyone wanting to shake your hand.

I have with me, two Veterans currently serving in the Legislature: Mario Goico, our chairman of the House Veterans Committee and Vietnam Veteran Ramon Gonzalez. They have joined me today to acknowledge our guests and their fellow Veterans.

Remarks of Rep Goico:

We, the Kansas Legislature, have worked together to recognize our Vietnam Veterans and welcome them home.

In 2010, the Kansas Legislature created a Vietnam War Era Medallion to be issued to any Kansas veteran who served during the Vietnam Conflict. We also created the Kansas Vietnam Veteran license plate to thank and honor these humble men and women. These are just two of our humble attempts to recognize our veterans and their service to our nation.

Kansas had 627 casualties during the Vietnam War and there are 3,130 women and 73,010 men in Kansas today who are Vietnam Veterans. I am honored to introduce some of these Kansans today:

Lynn Rolf, Jr, Vice President of Chapter 75 of the Kansas Vietnam Veterans of America in Leavenworth

Brad Stauffer of the Kansas Veterans of Foreign Wars

Terry Bender, who served in the Women's Army Corps in Vietnam

Steve Curtis, who is Representative Pam Curtis' husband

Mike Devlin from Lawrence

We also have some representatives from the Kansas Commission on Veteran Affairs with us, who spend each day serving veterans:

Gregg Burden, the Executive Director; Wayne Bollig; Kafer Peele; and Carol Passiagno

Remarks of Rep. Gonzalez:

Our quiet heroes of Vietnam slogged through jungles. We fought side by side. We helped our wounded comrades and watched helplessly as comrades died. Despite all this, Vietnam Veterans have always considered themselves just ordinary people. We are humble and patriotic Americans. All we asked for in return for our service was respect and dignity.

Despite the lack of respect they received when they returned home, Vietnam Veterans fight today to honor and assist the young returning veterans from the wars since 9-11. Our nation and our state has learned to recognize that we must separate the war from the warrior.

Always remember that we do not celebrate war. We historically recognize war.

We celebrate our warriors who put their lives on the line to protect us and our way of life. We remember that the character of a nation is measured in how it treats its veterans.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote No on Sub SCR 1618. While charitable raffles are understandably viewed by many as harmless, the context in which they often occur is worrisome. Raffles held at schools and other youth activities contribute to the normalization of gambling, with games of chance being presented to our children as normal course socially acceptable and benign forms of entertainment. The social science data paints a different picture, gambling and especially youth gambling, carries with it significant social costs for many. Legislative endorsement of a form of gaming that will inevitably occur in the presence of, and as a practical reality with the active participation of our children is in my view ill advised.--LANCE KINZER, JOE EDWARDS, STEVEN R. BRUNK, KASHA KELLEY, JOSH POWELL, KEITH ESAU, S. MIKE KIEGERL, STEVEN R. BECKER

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

On emergency motion of Rep. Vickrey, HR 6070, as follows, was introduced and adopted:

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 6070—

A RESOLUTION congratulating the Paola Panther Robotics team on its success at the Crossroads Regional FIRST Robotics competition.

WHEREAS, The FIRST Robotics Competition is an international high school robotics competition organized by For Inspiration and Recognition of Science and Technology (FIRST). Each year, teams of high school students compete to build robots weighing 120 pounds that can complete a task, which changes every year. Teams are given a standard set of parts and are required to set a budget when building their robot, and the team has six weeks to build a competitive robot that can operate autonomously as well as when guided by wireless controls to accomplish the game's tasks; and

WHEREAS, FIRST was founded in 1989 by inventor and entrepreneur Dean Kamen, with inspiration and assistance from physicist and MIT professor emeritus Woodie Flowers; and

WHEREAS, There are 44 FIRST district competitions, 54 regional competitions and one championship event held each year; and

WHEREAS, FIRST Team 1108 was founded in 2003 at Paola High School and made an immediate impact on the robotics scene. The team won the Rookie All-Star Award during its first season at the championship event; and

WHEREAS, This season, the team traveled to Terre Haute, Indiana, and participated in the Crossroads Regional where it received four major awards. The team received its record-tying eighth Regional Chairman's Award, mentor Gregg Rupp was named as a Woodie Flowers Award Finalist and team president Kate Sample was named as a Dean's List Finalist. Topping the weekend off for Panther Robotics, FIRST Team 1108 was captain of the winning alliance, its first regional win since its inception in 2003; and

WHEREAS, The Chairman's Award is the most prestigious award a team can win at a regional competition or at the championship, more so than even winning the competition itself. The Woodie Flowers Award is awarded to a mentor within a team who the team believes has made a large contribution and deserves to be recognized, with criteria based on how well the mentor inspires the students toward better communication and engineering. The Dean's List Award recognizes individual students for their technical knowledge, leadership skills and their ability to inspire their team toward FIRST's mission; and

WHEREAS, Members of Panther Robotics will compete at the championship competition on April 23-26 in St. Louis, Missouri. They will compete against other regional tournament and Chairman Award winners from across the country. Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we congratulate the Paola Panther Robotics team on its success at the Crossroads Regional FIRST Robotics competition. The FIRST Robotics competition is a way to boost the science, technology, engineering and math fields at all levels of education, and the Paola Panther Robotics team exemplifies this mission. We wish them tremendous success at the championship competition; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send five enrolled copies of this resolution to Representative Vickrey.

On motion of Rep. DeGraaf, HR 6069, A RESOLUTION honoring the American Legion Post 408 Flag Etiquette Team, was adopted.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. DeGraaf are spread upon the Journal:

With us today, on behalf of the John M. West Derby/Haysville American Legion Post 408 Flag Etiquette Team is Legion Commander Terry Marr and his wife Brenda.

Members of the House, with your help, we are here today to applaud those who saw a need and took the initiative to address that need. Representative Jim Howell and I wish to recognize outstanding volunteerism and initiative with House Resolution 6069.

For more than 200 years, the American flag has been the symbol of our nation's strength and unity. It's been a source of pride and inspiration for millions of citizens. The American Flag continues to be a prominent icon in our national history.

Throughout American history, the flag has symbolized Hope, Hardiness, Valor, Perseverance, Purity and Justice.

The flag further reminds us of the many generations that have shed their blood with courage to secure our freedom. The American Flag with all its meaning is extraordinary and deserving of honor! Unfortunately, there are some among us today who do not know the rich history and simply do not know why or how to demonstrate respect for the symbol of our blessed nation.

The John M. West Derby/Haysville American Legion Post 408 has many great members who know that part of the American Legion's charter is to mentor youth and sponsor wholesome programs in the community by advocating patriotism and honor. Under the commander's leadership, a number of these patriots took the initiative to develop a comprehensive program to teach the history, symbolism and respectful etiquette for the American Flag.

At the encouragement of Commander Marr, this team has developed a unique and outstanding program that they hope to expand to more schools and community organizations. They have already volunteered hundreds of hours and are energetic and excited to deliver this program to more students, seniors and citizens.

Commander Marr, on behalf of those gathered here today, we thank you for your service and ask you to extend our deep appreciation to the American Legion Post 408 Flag Etiquette Team for their service and sacrifice!

FIFTIETH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Mast in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.

Rep. Kiegerl was excused on verified illness.

Rep. Thimesch was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Dr. LeRoy Herder, pastor, First Christian Church, Phillipsburg, and guest of Rep. Couture-Lovelady:

Almighty and everlasting God

We come before you today in a time of great anxiety and concern for the world in which we live. There are wars and rumors of war, brave soldiers who defend our freedom many have paid the ultimate price, financial institutions are on shaky ground, and families wondering how they will pay the bills.

Give us exceptional vision and the courage to dream new dreams; to see new possibilities. To look forward with hope, resting in your blessed assurance that you will never leave us or forsake us.

So, today, with abiding faith and calm assurance, we invoke your presence on these preceding.

Where we lack wisdom let us humbly ask God who gives wisdom to all men generously and without reproach, that the decisions made in this house will be touched by God himself.

Father, You guide and govern everything with order and love. Look upon the assembly of these leaders and fill them with the spirit of Your wisdom. May they always act in accordance with Your will and their decisions be for the peace and well-being of all. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Houston.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Howell and DeGraaf are spread upon the Journal:

Thank you Madam Speaker, Representative DeGraaf, Representative Clayton and I stand together today to recognize Derby High School athletics and their extracurricular activities for their recent successes. This year, Derby has many students that are literally at the top of their game. These spirited, hard-working students have demonstrated a competitive nature bringing themselves, their teams, and their community much enjoyment.

To commemorate today's recognition, we welcome Derby High School Principle Tim Hamblin and Head Coach Brandon Clark, along with several high-performing athletes from the School. Please welcome Tanner Anderson who played on the offensive line. He is headed to the University of S. Dakota where he will play football. We recognize Cole Hanson who also played on the offensive line and is set to play football at the Air Force Academy. Luke Palmer played wide receiver for Derby and now heads to Emporia State. Finally, Caleb Arnold also played wide receiver and is now signed up to play football at Dodge City Community College.

The Derby Panther Football Team, led by Coach Clark, finished the 2013 football season with a remarkable 12-1 record including an 11-game winning streak. The 2013 Derby High School Football Panthers won the Kansas State Title Game for the second time in Derby's history. This is the first championship victory since 1994 which was before these players were even born. Out of the thirty-two largest Kansas schools in the state, Derby is just one of 15 schools that has ever won this title and one of the elite nine that has now won it more than once.

In their final victory, the Derby Panthers Football team won the 2013 Kansas 6A State championship with a 28-21 victory over Shawnee Mission East High School Lancers on November 30, 2013, in Topeka, Kansas. Although Representative Stephanie Clayton represents the Shawnee Mission East District, she is here today to help us celebrate the Panthers win! Representative Clayton is wearing Derby football jersey number one because she is the number one Derby Panther fan today!

The 2013 Derby High School Football team's extraordinary season includes many accomplishments including ranking as the number one scoring offense in 6A with 615 points in 13 games, as well as the number one scoring defense during the season. The varsity starters only allowed eight touchdowns in 13 games. Additionally, 10 players received 6A All-State honors and 14 players were offered college football scholarships. Furthermore, knowing that the Panthers have made it to the state football semifinals in three of the last four years demonstrates the extraordinary leadership skills of Coach Clark.

That is not all. Other Derby High School athletic teams and extracurricular activities have had successful seasons this past year. The baseball and softball teams both were regional champions and placed fourth at the state tournament. The wrestling team was the regional runner-up and placed third at the state tournament. The boys' basketball team were named league champions and placed third at the state tournament. The boys' and girls' tennis teams were both regional runners-up. In 2013, the boys' soccer team were the league champions, regional champions, quarterfinal champions and placed fourth at the state tournament. The marching band was named Grand Champion at the Neewollah Marching Band Competition. The Air Force Junior ROTC earned more top place finishes than ever before.

The Derby High School athletics and extracurricular activities are off to a great start in 2014, with the boys' basketball team being named league champions for the third year in a row. The girls' bowling team has been named league champions. The boys' bowling team has been named league champions and state runner-up; boys bowling team member Noah Brooks was named state champion. The wrestling team was named regional champions and state runner-up; team member Tanner Smith was named state champion. Finally, the scholars bowl team made it to the state tournament.

Derby High School students who participate in athletics and extracurricular activities work hard in school and for their team. The students' dedication to their teams is a point of pride for their families, school and the Derby community.

Therefore Madam Speaker, we congratulate Derby High School athletic teams and extracurricular activities on their outstanding seasons. We wish the students and their coaches continued success.

Colleagues, please stand with us and congratulate the Derby High School for their outstanding and extraordinary sports and extracurricular accomplishments!

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Ryckman, Jr. are spread upon the Journal:

It's a tremendous privilege for me to recognize my college basketball coach from Mid-America Nazarene University, Rocky Lamar. Coach Lamar was just elected to the NAIA Hall of fame.

Standing with me today are current and former players, including teammates of mine. In addition we have MNU President, Dr. David Spittal; Athletic Director, Kevin Steele and Coach Lamar's wife and the world's second best cookie baker, Dr. Jo Lamar.

In addition to this year's accomplishments, Coach Lamar's teams have won 20 games, 21 times. He has been named Heart of America Athletic Conference Coach of the Year six times. He was named NAIA Coach of the Year. The Pioneers have won 12 conference championships and have been to the NAIA national tournament 18 times--reaching the final four 8 times, the finals 3 times and were National Champions in 2007.

Those wins are evident to all, but we players know what our coach is truly about.

When I think of coach, I don't think about the national championship, the final four this year, or the scores of victories. I, like everyone who played for you, think about character. I think about values. I think of learning and growing, of commitment and the reward of hard work. I think of respect, and I think of love.

What is team? It's a group working together for a common goal. It's sacrificing so that those around you succeed. It's putting what's best for the whole ahead of what's best for you. Coach, you taught me that.

Let me tell you a story about a kid from Meade, Kansas. Olathe was the big city to me. It was a foreign and frightening place, and I remember the feeling I had when I arrived on campus that first day. There was excitement, but I have to admit it was overshadowed by anxiety. That was until I met the family coach had created. And I stand with that family today.

I remember my first practice, and I thought I was giving it my all. You got in my face and yelled, "Ryckman, you are not in Meade, KS anymore." As usual, you were right. I wasn't, and that was a lesson I carry today. You made me realize that if I was going to be a successful member of your team or in life, I needed to dig deeper. We all always have more to offer than we realize.

Coach, the bottom line is this. YOU helped make me the man I am today. The father, the friend, the colleague, the devoted church member. I'm just one of the hundreds of lives you've helped shape, but I suspect you will hear these very same thoughts and themes echoed by each one of them.

On behalf of every player you coached and every fan to whom you've brought joy, thank you.

Rep. Ryckman, Jr. presented a framed House certificate to Coach Lamar.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Christmann are spread upon the Journal:

In a few moments, you will hear Representative Ryckman Sr. introduce a resolution. In special regards to that resolution, I would like to introduce an individual who has become a familiar face in these hallowed halls. Many of you were probably unaware he has Parkinson's Disease. Goodness knows his fast pace and passion overshadow his illness. But there is much more about J. Basil Dannebohm you don't know. I would like to take a moment to share with you a bit and help you put a name with the face.

As a youth in his hometown of Ellinwood, Kansas; Basil worked as a tour guide for the underground tunnels and recruited young people to assist with a community recycling project as well as the Wheat Bowl Football Classic. He was mentored by some of the community's finest and had instilled in him an understanding of service that remains with him to this day.

Over the course of his career, Basil traveled far from home, but he kept his love for Kansas within his heart.

As Representative Ryckman will share with you in a few moments, in September of 2012 while living in California, Basil was diagnosed with Young Onset Parkinson's Disease. But Basil vowed that the infirmity would not infringe on his lifestyle. He recognized that health is important and life is short and he longed to return to Kansas so that he might once again serve the state he so loved. So he returned home to the plains of Kansas from California on Kansas Day, January 29th, 2013 and in a short time, has once again been a trailblazer in our great state, organizing rural leadership workshops, festivals, bringing the community together for a common good; and serving on several leadership committees.

After 18 years of being away from Ellinwood, Basil returned home to serve as Administrator of the Ellinwood Chamber of Commerce. The accomplishments are too many to mention. Under his leadership, the organization has soared to new heights. Membership has increased, there is a new positive energy in the community. I can say with certainty that the Ellinwood Chamber is one of the most active in my district. Today I am proud that a contingent from Ellinwood joins us on the floor. Ellinwood, Kansas is a city on the move and I am honored to be able to celebrate the community's accomplishments. Basil credits his members and his board for the chamber's success and today, both have accompanied him here on the house floor. He speaks highly of these individuals and considers them extended family. Without fail, each time I am with Basil he shares with me how important these people are to him and how the decisions we make on this very floor affect life in Ellinwood, Kansas. Luckily, he has been proud of our work thus far. But more important than our work here, Basil is profoundly impressed at the hard work of his board and the many volunteers who contribute to the success of the Ellinwood Chamber.

I think they would agree that Basil's life experiences and "can do" personality, give him a high potential for making a difference not only locally in his community, but also broadly at a state or even national level if afforded the opportunity.

It is with this reason in mind that I celebrate the accomplishments of the Ellinwood Chamber of Commerce and applaud Basil for his passion, his service and his genuine love and dedication to the great state of Kansas.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Rep. Ryckman, Sr., HR 6061, A RESOLUTION designating April 2014 as Parkinson's Disease Awareness Month, was adopted.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Ryckman, Sr. are spread upon the Journal:

It is once again my honor to take time to recognize Parkinson's Awareness Month. On this, a day commonly associated with trickery, I am here to remind you that Parkinson's Disease is no foolish matter. It affects far more than simply the elderly.

Take for example, those joining me on the floor today.

Some of you may recognize Rob Peppers. For 19 years, he was chief meteorologist for CBS-affiliated television station WIBW here in Topeka, Kansas. In 2007, he stepped down due to his health. Today, Rob is a Parkinson's patient and advocate. I'm truly honored that he could join us on the floor today and commend his good work here in Northeast Kansas to move the cause along and provide support for those in need.

Some of you may remember Lisa Reser from last year's proclamation. She's a teacher suffering from Parkinson's Disease. Though she faces the daily challenges of living with the disease, she is committed to broadening the minds of her students. I'm really delighted that Lisa could be with us again this year.

Finally, I am pleased to welcome a friend of the Kansas Legislature, J. Basil Dannebohm. I know most of you recognize Basil though you probably didn't realize that he lives each day with Young Onset Parkinson's Disease. My esteemed colleague, Representative Christmann would like to share a bit more with you about Basil.

In the meantime, before I conclude, I would like to recognize the individuals who came to support Rob, Lisa and Basil. Joining us on the floor are: Lloyd Kurtz, John and Jacque Isern, Taylor Schartz, Gayle Christy, Linda Borrer, Sharon Schartz, Dr. Catherine Strecker and Father Pascal Klein - if I have left anybody out, I hope you will forgive me.

Members of the House, this is the second year we have recognized the month of April as Parkinson's Awareness Month. This year, our colleagues in the Senate as well as Governor Brownback will do the same. I hope you will join me this month in remembering those who suffer from this disease in our thoughts and prayers. They do a lot for our great state.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

On emergency motion of Rep. Bollier, HR 6071, by Rep. Bollier, as follows, was introduced and adopted:

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 6071—

A RESOLUTION designating April 7-13, 2014, as National Public Health Week in Kansas and supporting the American Public Health Association and the Kansas Public Health Association.

WHEREAS, The week of April 7-13 is National Public Health Week and the theme is Public Health: Start Here; and

WHEREAS, Since 1995, the American Public Health Association, through its sponsorship of National Public Health Week, has educated the public, policy-makers and public health professionals about issues important to improving the public's health;

and

WHEREAS, Seven in 10 deaths in the U.S. are related to preventable diseases such as obesity, diabetes, high blood pressure, heart disease and cancer; and

WHEREAS, One in two deaths in Kansas are related to preventable diseases such as diabetes, high blood pressure, heart disease and cancer; and

WHEREAS, Seventy-five percent of our nation's healthcare dollars are spent treating such diseases. However, only 3% of our health care dollars go toward prevention; and

WHEREAS, Nearly $\frac{1}{3}$ of all students in the United States do not graduate from high school on time. Students who do not graduate face lifelong health risks and high medical costs, and are more likely to engage in risky health behaviors. They are less likely to be employed and insured, and they earn less, all of which continues the cycle of poverty and disparity; and

WHEREAS, More than half of all cancer deaths could be prevented by making healthy choices, such as not smoking, staying at a healthy weight, eating right, keeping active and getting recommended screening tests; and

WHEREAS, Foodborne contaminants cause an average of 5,000 deaths, 325,000 hospitalizations, 76 million illnesses and cost billions of dollars annually. The five most common foodborne pathogens cost the U.S. economy more than $44 billion each year in medical costs and lost productivity; and

WHEREAS, Strong public health systems are critical for sustaining and improving the health of all Kansas communities: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we support the efforts of the American Public Health Association and the Kansas Public Health Association. Specifically, we recognize the week of April 7-13, 2014, as National Public Health Week in Kansas. We call upon the people of Kansas to observe this week by helping our families, friends, neighbors, co-workers and leaders better understand the importance of public health to a successful health system by remembering this year's theme, Public Health: Start Here; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send one enrolled copy of this resolution to the Kansas Department of Health and Environment and one enrolled copy to the University of Kansas Medical Center.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Bollier are spread upon the Journal:

It is a privilege to stand before you today to introduce HR 6071 recognizing the week of April 7-13 as National Public Health Awareness Week. The students with me in front of you are Masters of Public Health students at KU Med Center and attend colleges around the state. I am proud of the work they are doing to bring awareness to public health issues in Kansas. Health matters!

As you listened to the reading of the Resolution, you heard many different facets that are encompassed by public health, including cancer, diabetes, graduation from high school, preventive medicine, and public policy. Each of our individual health affects the sum of our public health. All of you have voted on numerous bills that affect health policy in our state, and dollars that we appropriate facilitate the administration of our public health policy. I encourage each of you next week, April 7-13, to reach out to your constituents to become aware of public health issues in Kansas and the need to be a part of improving all health in the state. Thank you to these wonderful students.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HR 6071. While public health is an important and valid matter of legislative concern, I cannot support this Resolution. At the core of our concern for public health must be an acknowledgment of the sanctity of every human life. The American Public Health Association, a group acknowledged in the resolution, has a disgraceful history of supporting a virtually unlimited abortion license, including taxpayer funding for abortion. As a matter of conscience I cannot support any endorsement, direct or indirect, of an organization that supports a culture of death.-- LANCE KINZER, WILLIE DOVE, JOHN RUBIN, VIRGIL PECK, JR., CHARLES MACHEERS, JOSH POWELL, RANDY GARBER, JIM HOWELL

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Heavenly Father,
As we draw nearer to the close of this session,
thank You for your guidance, patience, faithfulness, and wisdom.
Thank You for helping us to listen with our ears and hearts, and to recognize that our questions have been just as important as our answers.
Thank You for helping us keep our minds focused more on the positive, and if we have been negative towards one another, please forgive us.
Thank You for helping us work together, and if at any time we have lost our temper with one another,
please forgive us.
There may have been times when we have been very stressed due to the confusion created in our minds that overrode the body's desire to choke someone.
Thank You for helping us to have restraint.
For the remainder of our days, I pray Your Word that admonishes us to,
"listen to advice and accept instruction, and in the end we will be wise."
I pray this in Your Name, Amen.
(Proverbs 19:20)

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Kuether.

The roll was called with 124 members present.

Rep. Thimesch was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Dr. Keith Peters, pastor, Cheney Baptist Church, Cheney, and guest of Rep. Thompson:

Dear Lord,

We gather together today mindful of the awesome responsibility and sacred trust that is ours. These men and women were chosen to grapple with the challenges facing this great State. You are intimately aware and infinitely concerned about the many challenges we face. As Benjamin Franklin declared during the difficult process of producing a National Constitution amid the many "special interests" of his day: "The longer I live, the more convincing proofs I see of this truth- that God Governs in the affairs of men. And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without His notice, is it probable that an empire can rise without His aid? ...I therefore beg leave to move that henceforth prayers imploring the assistance of heaven, and His blessings on our deliberations be held every morning before we proceed to business."

Here we are centuries later, still wrestling with the many and varied interests and concerns of our country and constituents. The responsibilities are still great; the challenges, still daunting; and our need of your Wisdom and Blessing are still necessary. Grant us the wisdom to face these challenges with courage, comprehension and compassion and to conduct ourselves with integrity and grace.

Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Lane.

On motion of Rep. Vickrey, the House recessed until 6:00 p.m.

EVENING SESSION

Sec. 4. K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 79-1703 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-1703. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b) or as otherwise provided by law, no board of county commissioners or other officer of any county shall have power to release, discharge, or remit or commute any portion of the taxes assessed or levied against any person or property within their respective jurisdictions for any reason whatever. Any taxes so discharged, released, or remitted or commuted may be recovered by civil action from the members of the board of county commissioners or such other officer and the sureties of their official bonds at the suit of the attorney general, the county attorney, or of any citizen of the county or the board of education of any school district a part of the territory of which is in such county, as the case may be, and when collected shall be paid into the county treasury to be properly apportioned and paid to the county, municipalities, school districts and other taxing subdivisions entitled thereto. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prohibit a board of county commissioners from entering into an agreement whereby the board agrees to pay the full amount of the taxes assessed or levied against any person or property on behalf of such person, as long as such amount is properly apportioned and paid to the county, municipalities, school districts and other taxing subdivisions entitled to a portion of such amount.

(b) In the event a person, partnership or corporation has failed to pay any portion of the taxes assessed or levied against its property located within any county and such person, partnership or corporation is a debtor in an action filed pursuant to the United States bankruptcy code, the county commissioners of any such county may compromise, assign, transfer or otherwise settle such tax claim in such fashion as the commissioners deem to be in the best interest of the state and all taxing subdivisions affected thereby, subject to approval by the state court of tax appeals; except that, the state and each other taxing subdivision affected by any such settlement shall receive the same proportional share of its respective tax claim. The state court of tax appeals shall respond to such settlement request within 30 days from the date of receiving such request or such request shall be deemed approved.

Sec. 5. K.S.A. 79-2109 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-2109. ~~If any owner of personal property after the date as of which personal property is assessed and before the tax thereon is paid, shall sell all of a class of the same to any one person, the tax for that year shall be a lien upon the property so sold, and shall at once become due and payable, and the county treasurer shall at once issue a tax warrant for the collection thereof, and the sheriff shall forthwith collect it as in other cases. The property so sold shall be liable in the hands of the purchaser for such tax, but in the event that a purchaser shall pay the tax or any part thereof or, if said property be seized and sold for such tax the seller thereof, shall be civilly liable to the purchaser for the amount of the taxes the purchaser has paid or the amount of taxes due on the property so seized; but if the property be sold in the ordinary course of retail trade it shall not be so liable in the hands of the purchasers.~~ (a) On and after January 1, 2015, if any owner of personal property sells or transfers such property to another after the date such property is assessed and before the tax thereon is paid, then the taxes on the personal property of such taxpayer which is being sold or transferred shall fall due immediately, and a lien shall attach to the property so sold or transferred. The lien shall be for an amount equal to the tax assessment for the year in which the sale or transfer is made and shall become due and payable immediately. The lien shall attach to the property and is not a personal debt of the purchaser or transferee. In no circumstance shall the purchaser or transferee be liable for any taxes owed by the seller or transferor prior to the year in which the sale or transfer occurred. Such lien shall be in preference to all other claims against such property. The county treasurer, after receiving knowledge of any such surrender or transfer, shall issue immediately a tax warrant for the collection thereof and the sheriff shall collect it as in other cases. The lien shall remain on the property and any person taking possession of the property does so subject to the lien. The one owing such tax shall be liable civilly to any person taking possession of such property for any taxes owing thereon, but the property shall be liable in the hands of the person taking possession thereof for such tax. If the property is sold in the ordinary course of retail trade it shall not be liable in the hands of the purchasers. No personal property which has been transferred in any manner after it has been assessed shall be liable for the tax in the hands of the transferee after the expiration of three years from the time such tax originally became due and payable.

(b) If, at the time of the sale, taxes on the personal property remain due and unpaid for any tax year or years prior to the year of the sale, then such unpaid taxes shall be a personal debt of the seller, subject to collection under K.S.A. 79-2017 or 79-2101, and amendments thereto, as the case may be. The county treasurer of the county where such personal property taxes remain due and unpaid shall update the records of the county treasurer to show that the seller or transferor is delinquent and owes personal property taxes levied against the seller or transferor for such previous year or years for the purposes of vehicle registration under K.S.A. 8-173, and amendments thereto.

Sec. 6. K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 79-32,117 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-32,117. (a) The Kansas adjusted gross income of an individual means such individual's federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year, with the modifications specified in this section.

(b) There shall be added to federal adjusted gross income:

(i) Interest income less any related expenses directly incurred in the purchase of state or political subdivision obligations, to the extent that the same is not included in federal adjusted gross income, on obligations of any state or political subdivision thereof, but to the extent that interest income on obligations of this state or a political subdivision thereof issued prior to January 1, 1988, is specifically exempt from income tax under the laws of this state authorizing the issuance of such obligations, it shall be excluded from computation of Kansas adjusted gross income whether or not included in federal adjusted gross income. For purposes hereof, a tax benefit shall be deemed to have resulted if the amount of the tax had been deducted in determining income subject to a Kansas income tax for a prior year regardless of the rate of taxation applied in such prior year to the Kansas taxable income, but only that portion of the refund shall be included as bears the same proportion to the total refund received as the federal taxes deducted in the year to which such refund is attributable bears to the total federal income taxes paid for such year. For purposes of the foregoing sentence, federal taxes shall be considered to have been deducted only to the extent such deduction does not reduce Kansas taxable income below zero.

(v) The amount of any depreciation deduction or business expense deduction claimed on the taxpayer's federal income tax return for any capital expenditure in making any building or facility accessible to the handicapped, for which expenditure the

(a) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 2011, a taxpayer may elect to take an expense deduction from Kansas net income before expensing or recapture allocated or apportioned to this state for the cost of the following property placed in service in this state during the taxable year: (1) Tangible property eligible for depreciation under the modified accelerated cost recovery system in section 168 of the internal revenue code, as amended, but not including residential rental property, nonresidential real property, any railroad grading or tunnel bore or any other property with an applicable recovery period in excess of 25 years as defined under section 168(c) or (g) of the internal revenue code, as amended; and (2) computer software as defined in section 197(e)(3)(B) of the internal revenue code, as amended, and as described in section 197(e)(3)(A)(i) of the internal revenue code, as amended, to which section 167 of the internal revenue code, as amended, applies. If such election is made, the amount of expense deduction for such cost shall equal the difference between the depreciable cost of such property for federal income tax purposes and the amount of bonus depreciation being claimed for such property pursuant to section 168(k) of the internal revenue code, as amended, for federal income tax purposes in such tax year, but without regard to any expense deduction being claimed for such property under section 179 of the internal revenue code, as amended, multiplied by the applicable factor, determined by using, the table provided in subsection (f), based on the method of depreciation selected pursuant to section 168(b)(1), (2), or (3) or (g) of the internal revenue code, as amended, and the applicable recovery period for such property as defined under section 168(c) or (g) of the internal revenue code, as amended. If the section 179 expense deduction election has been made for federal income tax purposes for any asset, the applicable factor to be utilized is in the IRC § 168 (b)(1) column of the table provided in subsection (f) for the applicable recovery period of the respective assets.

(b) If the amount of expense deduction calculated pursuant to subsection (a) exceeds the taxpayer's Kansas net income before expensing or recapture allocated or apportioned to this state, such excess amount shall be treated as a Kansas net operating loss as provided in K.S.A. 79-32,143, and amendments thereto.

(c) If the property for which an expense deduction is taken pursuant to subsection (a) is subsequently sold during the applicable recovery period for such property as defined under section 168(c) of the internal revenue code, as amended, and in a manner that would cause recapture of any previously taken expense or depreciation deductions for federal income tax purposes, or if the situs of such property is otherwise changed such that the property is relocated outside the state of Kansas during such applicable recovery period, then the expense deduction determined pursuant to subsection (a) shall be subject to recapture and treated as Kansas taxable income allocated to this state. The amount of recapture shall be the Kansas expense deduction determined pursuant to subsection (a) multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of years remaining in the applicable recovery period for such property as defined under section 168(c) or (g) of the internal revenue code, as amended, after such property is sold or removed from the state including the year of such disposition, and the denominator of which is the total number of years in such applicable recovery period.

(d) The situs of tangible property for purposes of claiming and recapture of the expense deduction shall be the physical location of such property. If such property is mobile, the situs shall be the physical location of the business operations from where such property is used or based. The situs of computer software shall be apportioned to Kansas based on the fraction, the numerator of which is the number of the taxpayer's users located in Kansas of licenses for such computer software used in the active conduct of the taxpayer's business operations, and the denominator of which is the total number of the taxpayer's users of the licenses for such computer software used in the active conduct of the taxpayer's business operations everywhere.

(e) Any member of a unitary group filing a combined report may elect to take an expense deduction pursuant to subsection (a) for an investment in property made by any member of the combined group, provided that the amount calculated pursuant to subsection (a) may only be deducted from the Kansas net income before expensing or recapture allocated to or apportioned to this state by such member making the election.

(f) The following table shall be used in determining the expense deduction calculated pursuant to subsection (a):

Sec. 9. K.S.A. 79-3492 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-3492. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this act, a tax per gallon, or fraction thereof, at the rate computed as prescribed in K.S.A. 79-34,141, and amendments thereto, is hereby imposed on the LP-gas user or LP-gas dealer who places such LP-gas fuel into the fuel supply tank or tanks of any motor vehicle while such vehicle is within this state except that in those instances in which LP-gas is withdrawn from the cargo tank of a motor vehicle for the operation thereof upon the public highways of the state, the tax shall be imposed upon and measured only by that volume of LP-gas so withdrawn and used multiplied by the tax rate per gallon provided in this act.

(b) The conversion formula to be used to convert compressed natural gas and liquefied natural gas per gallon for the tax imposed pursuant to K.S.A. 79-34,141, and amendments thereto, shall be as follows:

(1) For purposes of converting the energy equivalent of compressed natural gas to a gasoline gallon energy equivalent, 126.67 cubic feet or 5.66 pounds of compressed natural gas shall equal one gasoline gallon; or

(2) for purposes of converting the energy equivalent of liquefied natural gas to a diesel gallon energy equivalent, 6.06 pounds of liquefied natural gas shall equal one diesel gallon.

Sec. 10. K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 79-3495 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-3495. (a) Each LP-gas user or LP-gas dealer subject to the provisions of this act must, on or before the 25th day of each calendar month, file with the director a report, certified to be true and correct, on a form prescribed and furnished by the director, showing the total number of gallons of LP-gas placed into fuel supply tank or tanks of any motor vehicle while such vehicle is within this state during the preceding calendar month, including the number of gallons on hand at the beginning and end of each month, the number of gallons received from any and all sources supported by detailed schedules of receipts, purchases and withdrawals for sale or use, and such other information as the director may require. Each LP-gas user or LP-gas dealer at the time of filing each monthly report must pay to the director the full amount of tax due for the preceding calendar month at the rate provided for in this act.

(b) Any tax imposed under the provisions of this act not paid on or before the 25th of the month succeeding the calendar month in which the LP-gas was used shall be deemed delinquent and shall bear interest at the rate per month, or fraction thereof prescribed by subsection (a) of K.S.A. 79-2968, and amendments thereto, from such due date until paid, and in addition thereto there is hereby imposed upon all amounts of such tax remaining due and unpaid after such due date a penalty in the amount of 5% thereof, and such penalty shall be by the director added to and collected as a part of such tax. If the LP-gas user or LP-gas dealer furnishes evidence to the director that the delinquency was due to causes beyond such user's or dealer's reasonable control, and if in the opinion of the director the delinquency was not the result of willful negligence of the LP-gas user or LP-gas dealer the penalty or interest or both may be waived or reduced by the director.

(c) The director, if satisfied that the enforcement of the act is not adversely affected, may exempt any LP-gas user or LP-gas dealer from the monthly reporting and payment requirements of this act and require in lieu thereof annual payment of the tax due hereunder and annual reporting on forms provided by the director.

(d) Whenever the secretary or the secretary's designee determines that the failure of the taxpayer to comply with the provisions of subsection (b) was due to reasonable causes, the secretary or the secretary's designee may waive or reduce any of the penalties and may reduce the interest rate to the underpayment rate prescribed and determined for the applicable period under section 6621 of the federal internal revenue code as in effect on January 1, 1994, upon making a record of the reasons therefor.

(e) It shall be unlawful for any LP-gas user or LP-gas dealer to use or sell any LP-gas within this state unless such LP-gas user or LP-gas dealer is a holder of an uncanceled, unsuspended or unrevoked license issued by the director, unless such user has remitted the tax to a licensed LP-gas dealer. To procure such license every applicant shall file with the director an application upon oath and in such form as the director may prescribe, setting forth the name and addresses, the kind of business, and the designation of the exact locations or places of business where LP-gas is delivered or placed into the fuel supply tank or tanks of a motor vehicle, and such other information as the director may require. Such application must also contain, as a condition to the issuance of the license, an agreement by the applicant to comply with the provisions and requirements of this act and the rules and regulations promulgated by the director. If the applicant is a partnership or association, the application shall set forth the name and address of each partner or person constituting the partnership, or association, and if a corporation, the names and addresses of the principal officers thereof, and any other information prescribed by the director for the purposes of identification. The application shall be signed and verified by oath or affirmation by the owner, if a natural person, and in case of partnership or association, by a partner or member thereof, and in case of a corporation, by an executive officer thereof or some person specifically authorized by the corporation to sign the application, to which shall be attached written evidence of such person's authority. Any valid LP-gas user's or LP-gas dealer's license in effect on the effective date of this act shall remain in full force and effect and no new application need be made under this act.

(f) In the event that any application for a license to use LP-gas as an LP-gas user or LP-gas dealer in this state shall be filed by any person whose license shall at any time theretofore have been canceled for cause, or in case the director shall be of the opinion that such application is not filed in good faith, or that such application is filed by some person as a subterfuge for the real person in interest whose license or registration shall theretofore have been canceled for cause, then and in any of such events, the director may refuse to issue to such person a license in this state. Notice of such refusal shall be mailed to the applicant. Any applicant aggrieved by the order of the director refusing to issue a license may request a hearing of the director on such application by filing with the director a written request therefor. Upon such filing the director shall conduct a hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Kansas administrative procedure act. If the director finds upon such hearing that applicant is entitled to a license, the director shall order its issuance, but if the director finds that such applicant is not entitled to a license, such director shall enter an order refusing issuance.

(g) Upon the filing of the application for a license, a filing fee of $5 shall be paid to the director. All such fees collected by the director shall be remitted to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury to the credit of the state general fund. The application in proper form having been accepted for filing, the bond hereafter provided for having been accepted and approved by the director and the other conditions and requirements of this act having been complied with, the director shall issue to such applicant a license and such license shall be in force so long as the holder thereof has in force a bond as required by this act deposited with the director, or until such license is suspended, surrendered, or revoked for cause by the director. The license issued by the director shall not be assignable and shall be valid only for the LP-gas user or LP-gas dealer in whose name issued, and shall be displayed conspicuously by the LP-gas user or LP-gas dealer at the user's or dealer's principal place of business as set forth in the application.

(h) In the event a person qualifies for both a user's and dealer's license, only one license shall be required. A copy of such user's or dealer's license shall be required for each place of business of the licensee where LP-gas is sold or dispensed. No charge shall be made for additional copies of such user's or dealer's license when such copies are required for multiple business locations.

Sec. 11. K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 79-34,141 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-34,141. The tax imposed under this act shall be not less than:

(1) On motor-vehicle fuels other than E85 fuels, $.24 per gallon, or fraction thereof;

(2) on special fuels, $.26 per gallon, or fraction thereof;

(3) on LP-gas, other than compressed natural gas and liquefied natural gas, $.23 per gallon, or fraction thereof; ~~and~~

(4) on E85 fuels, $.17 per gallon, or fraction thereof;

(5) on compressed natural gas, $.24 per gallon, or fraction thereof; and

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on SB 311 because although the bill provides for a long overdue increase in the caps for non-economic loss, the bill also changes the standard for admission of expert opinion in both criminal and civil litigation. As a result, the bill substantially impairs the successful prosecution of DUI offenders and other criminals and will significantly increase the cost of litigation. I must therefore reluctantly vote no on SB 311.--JOHN CARMICHAEL

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER, Nancy Pelosi recently said, "...we have to pass the bill so that you can find out what is in it..." I voted for HB 2101 as originally passed from the House but the Senate made substantive changes. Not having received a report or being able to review the current version forces me to oppose the substitute motion to concur. Asking the body to support legislation without an opportunity to really know what we are voting on is bad policy! Mr. Speaker, I vote NO on S Sub for HB 2001.--JIM HOWELL, RANDY GARBER, AMANDA GROSSERODE, VIRGIL PECK, JR.

On motion of Rep. Vickrey, the House recessed until 11:00 p.m.

NIGHT SESSION

The House met pursuant to recess with Speaker pro tem Mast in the chair.

REPORT ON ENGROSSED BILLS

FIFTY-THIRD DAY

Prayer by guest chaplain, Captain Chris Cairns, Squadron Chaplain, 1-4 Cavalry Squadron, Fort Riley, and guest of Rep. Swanson:

Gracious heavenly Father, I thank you for the privilege to ask for the riches of your blessings upon these your public servants of the State of Kansas. Please give them the grace to honor the memory of those who have gone before them, through right decisions and just actions, as they steward the sacred trust you and the people of this State have bestowed upon them. Fill them to overflowing with a love of the common good, that they might be overcome with a desire to work tirelessly together toward a preferred future. Where those who would isolate us from one another have sown mistrust and cynicism, I pray that you would induce a unity brought about by a hunger and thirst for righteousness. Fill these your servants with renewed imagination and creativity to build an exciting future for the people who have sent them to this historic place with the hope of being well represented. And, above all, refresh us with a profound awe of our original vows to be servant leaders, that we might never think too highly of ourselves or too lowly of our calling. In these difficult days, we ask your special blessing on Representative Thimesch, and pray that he and his family would have a palpable sense of your love and nearness. All this we ask in the matchless name of the One who was, and is, and is to come. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Perry.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Garber are spread upon the

Each year several transportation organizations across Kansas sponsor a “Put the Brakes on Fatalities Day.” This event is part of a nationwide effort to increase roadway safety and reduce traffic fatalities.

In 2013, 867 students throughout the state entered the poster contest. From the entries, 18 students received regional honors and three of those received statewide honors.

Sabetha Elementary second-grade student Laura Edelman's poster was one of three selected as a northeast Kansas regional winner. This entitled Laura to a new bicycle and riding helmet. Since the weather is finally beginning to cooperate, I am sure she will be getting a lot of use out of her trophy.

All of Laura's family, father Ryan, mother Brandy, big brother Kendrick and little sister Ava, also benefited from her artistic efforts as Laura's poster was selected as one of the three statewide winners. This award brought with it a trip for the whole family to the Great Wolf Lodge Water Park in Kansas City, Kansas. I have been told it was an awesome experience and the whole family had a wonderful time.

Laura, the Kansas House of Representatives congratulates you for a job well done and wishes you continued success in any endeavor you undertake.

Rep. Garber presented Laura Edelman with a framed House Certificate.

The court shall provide a court-appointed counsel to represent the minor at no cost to the minor.

(c) Court proceedings under this section shall be anonymous and the court shall ensure that the minor's identity is kept confidential. The court shall order that a confidential record of the evidence in the proceeding be maintained. All persons shall be excluded from hearings under this section except the minor, her attorney and such other persons whose presence is specifically requested by the applicant or her attorney.

(d) Consent shall be waived if the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that either: (1) The minor is mature and well-informed enough to make the abortion decision on her own; or (2) the consent of the individuals specified in subsection (a) would not be in the best interest of the minor.

(e) A court that conducts proceedings under this section shall issue written and specific factual findings and legal conclusions supporting its decision as follows:

(1) Granting the minor's application for waiver of consent pursuant to this section, if the court finds that the minor is mature and well-enough informed to make the abortion decision without the consent of the individuals specified in subsection (a);

(2) granting the minor's application for waiver of consent if the court finds that the minor is immature but that consent of the individuals specified in subsection (a) would not be in the minor's best interest; or

(3) denying the application if the court finds that the minor is immature and that waiver of the consent of the individuals specified in subsection (a) would not be in the minor's best interest.

(f) The court shall give proceedings under this section such precedence over other pending matters as necessary to ensure that the court may reach a decision promptly. The court shall issue a written order which shall be issued immediately to the minor, or her attorney or other individual designated by the minor to receive the order. If the court fails to rule within 48 hours, excluding Saturdays and Sundays, of the time of the filing of the minor's application, the application shall be deemed granted.

(g) An expedited anonymous appeal shall be available to any minor. The record on appeal shall be completed and the appeal shall be perfected within five days from the filing of the notice to appeal.

(h) The supreme court shall promulgate any rules it finds are necessary to ensure that proceedings under this act are handled in an expeditious and anonymous manner.

(i) No fees shall be required of any minor who avails herself of the procedures provided by this section.

(j) (1) ~~No consent shall be required under this section if in the best medical judgment of the attending physician based on the facts of the case, an emergency exists that threatens the health, safety or well-being of the minor as to require an abortion when a medical emergency exists.~~

(2) A physician acting pursuant to this subsection shall state in the medical record of the abortion the medical indications on which the physician's judgment was based. The medical basis for the determination shall also be reported by the physician as part of the written report made by the physician to the secretary of health and environment under K.S.A. 65-445, and amendments thereto.

(k) Any person who intentionally performs an abortion with knowledge that, or with reckless disregard as to whether, the person upon whom the abortion is to be performed is an unemancipated minor, and who intentionally and knowingly fails to conform to any requirement of this section, is guilty of a class A person misdemeanor.

(l) Except as necessary for the conduct of a proceeding pursuant to this section, it is a class B person misdemeanor for any individual or entity to willfully or knowingly: (1) Disclose the identity of a minor petitioning the court pursuant to this section or to disclose any court record relating to such proceeding; or (2) permit or encourage disclosure of such minor's identity or such record.

(m) Prior to conducting proceedings under this section, the court may require the minor to participate in an evaluation session with a psychiatrist, licensed psychologist or licensed clinical social worker. Such evaluation session shall be for the purpose of developing trustworthy and reliable expert opinion concerning the minor's sufficiency of knowledge, insight, judgment and maturity with regard to her abortion decision in order to aid the court in its decision and to make the state's resources available to the court for this purpose. Persons conducting such sessions may employ the information and materials referred to in K.S.A. 65-6708 et seq., and amendments thereto, in examining how well the minor is informed about pregnancy, fetal development, abortion risks and consequences and abortion alternatives, and should also endeavor to verify that the minor is seeking an abortion of her own free will and is not acting under intimidation, threats, abuse, undue pressure or extortion by any other persons. The results of such evaluation shall be reported to the court by the most expeditious means, commensurate with security and confidentiality, to assure receipt by the court prior to or at the proceedings initiated pursuant to this section.

(n) In determining if a minor is mature and well-enough informed to make the abortion decision without parental consent, the court shall take into account the minor's experience level, perspective and judgment. In assessing the minor's experience level, the court shall consider, along with any other relevant factors, the minor's age, experience working outside the home, living away from home, traveling on her own, handling personal finances and making other significant decisions. In assessing the minor's perspective, the court shall consider, along with any other relevant factors, what steps the minor has taken to explore her options and the extent to which she considered and weighed the potential consequences of each option. In assessing the minor's judgment, the court shall consider, along with any other relevant factors, her conduct since learning of her pregnancy and her intellectual ability to understand her options and to make informed decisions.

(o) The judicial record of any court proceedings initiated pursuant to this section shall upon final determination by the court be compiled by the court. One copy of the judicial record shall be given to the minor or an adult chosen by the minor to bring the initial petition under this section. A second copy of the judicial record shall be sent by the court to the abortion provider who performed or will perform the abortion for inclusion in the minor's medical records and shall be maintained by the abortion provider for at least 10 years.

(p) The chief judge of each judicial district shall send annual reports to the department of health and environment disclosing in a nonidentifying manner:

(2) the number of petitions granted;

(3) the reasons for granting such petitions;

(4) any subsequent actions taken to protect the minor from domestic or predator abuse;

(5) each minor's state of residence, age and disability status; and

(6) the gestational age of the unborn child if the petition is granted.

(q) (1) A custodial parent or legal guardian of the minor may pursue civil remedies against individuals, including the physician and abortion clinic staff, who violate the rights of parents, legal guardian or the minor as set forth in this section.

(2) Such relief shall include:

(A) Money damages for all injuries, psychological and physical, occasioned by the violation of this section;

(B) the cost of any subsequent medical treatment such minor might require because of the abortion performed without parental consent or knowledge, or without a court order, in violation of this section;

(C) statutory damages equal to three times the cost of the abortion; and

(D) reasonable attorney fees.

(r) In the course of a judicial hearing to waive parental consent, if the court has reason to suspect that a minor has been injured as a result of physical, mental or emotional abuse or neglect or sexual abuse, the court shall report the matter promptly as provided in subsection (c) of K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 38-2223, and amendments thereto. In the course of reporting suspected child abuse or neglect to the appropriate state authorities, nothing in this section shall abridge or otherwise modify the anonymity or confidentiality provisions of the judicial waiver proceeding as specified in this section.

(s) Nothing in this section shall be construed to create a right to an abortion. Notwithstanding any provision of this section, a person shall not perform an abortion that is prohibited by law.

Sec. 6. K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 65-6709 is hereby amended to read as follows: 65-6709. No abortion shall be performed or induced without the voluntary and informed consent of the woman upon whom the abortion is to be performed or induced. Except in the case of a medical emergency, consent to an abortion is voluntary and informed only if:

(a) At least 24 hours before the abortion the physician who is to perform the abortion or the referring physician has informed the woman in writing of:

(1) The name of the physician who will perform the abortion;

(2) a description of the proposed abortion method;

(3) a description of risks related to the proposed abortion method, including risk of premature birth in future pregnancies, risk of breast cancer and risks to the woman's reproductive health and alternatives to the abortion that a reasonable patient would consider material to the decision of whether or not to undergo the abortion;

(4) the probable gestational age of the unborn child at the time the abortion is to be performed and that Kansas law requires the following: "No person shall perform or induce an abortion when the unborn child is viable unless such person is a physician and has a documented referral from another physician not financially associated with the physician performing or inducing the abortion and both physicians determine that: (1) The abortion is necessary to preserve the life of the pregnant woman; or (2) a continuation of the pregnancy will cause a substantial and irreversible physical impairment of a major bodily function of the pregnant woman." If the child is born alive, the attending physician has the legal obligation to take all reasonable steps necessary to maintain the life and health of the child;

(5) the probable anatomical and physiological characteristics of the unborn child at the time the abortion is to be performed;

(6) the contact information for counseling assistance for medically challenging pregnancies, the contact information for perinatal hospice services and a listing of websites for national perinatal assistance, including information regarding which entities provide such services free of charge;

(7) the medical risks associated with carrying an unborn child to term; and

(8) any need for anti-Rh immune globulin therapy, if she is Rh negative, the likely consequences of refusing such therapy and the cost of the therapy.

(b) At least 24 hours before the abortion, the physician who is to perform the abortion, the referring physician or a qualified person has informed the woman in writing that:

(1) Medical assistance benefits may be available for prenatal care, childbirth and neonatal care, and that more detailed information on the availability of such assistance is contained in the printed materials given to her and described in K.S.A. 65-6710, and amendments thereto;

(2) the informational materials in K.S.A. 65-6710, and amendments thereto, are available in printed form and online, and describe the unborn child, list agencies which offer alternatives to abortion with a special section listing adoption services and list providers of free ultrasound services;

(3) the father of the unborn child is liable to assist in the support of her child, even in instances where he has offered to pay for the abortion except that in the case of rape this information may be omitted;

(4) the woman is free to withhold or withdraw her consent to the abortion at any time prior to invasion of the uterus without affecting her right to future care or treatment and without the loss of any state or federally-funded benefits to which she might otherwise be entitled;

(5) the abortion will terminate the life of a whole, separate, unique, living human being; and

(6) by no later than 20 weeks from fertilization, the unborn child has the physical structures necessary to experience pain. There is evidence that by 20 weeks from fertilization unborn children seek to evade certain stimuli in a manner that in an infant or an adult would be interpreted to be a response to pain. Anesthesia is routinely administered to unborn children who are 20 weeks from fertilization or older who undergo prenatal surgery.

(c) At least 30 minutes prior to the abortion procedure, prior to physical preparation for the abortion and prior to the administration of medication for the abortion, the woman shall meet privately with the physician who is to perform the abortion and such person's staff to ensure that she has an adequate opportunity to ask questions of and obtain information from the physician concerning the abortion.

(d) At least 24 hours before the abortion, the woman is given a copy of the informational materials described in K.S.A. 65-6710, and amendments thereto. If the woman asks questions concerning any of the information or materials, answers shall be provided to her in her own language.

All physicians who perform abortions shall report the total number of certifications received monthly to the department. The total number of certifications shall be reported by the physician as part of the written report made by the physician to the secretary of health and environment under K.S.A. 65-445, and amendments thereto. The department shall make the number of certifications received available on an annual basis.

(f) Prior to the performance of the abortion, the physician who is to perform the abortion or the physician's agent receives a copy of the written certification prescribed by subsection (e) of this section.

(g) The woman is not required to pay any amount for the abortion procedure until the 24-hour waiting period has expired.

(h) A physician who will use ultrasound equipment preparatory to or in the performance of the abortion, at least 30 minutes prior to the performance of the abortion:

(3) offers the woman the opportunity to view the ultrasound image and receive a physical picture of the ultrasound image;

(4) certifies in writing that the woman was offered the opportunity to view the ultrasound image and receive a physical picture of the ultrasound image at least 30 minutes prior to the performance of the abortion; and

If the woman accepts the offer and requests to view the ultrasound image, receive a physical picture of the ultrasound image or both, her request shall be granted by the physician at no additional expense to the woman. The physician's certification shall be time-stamped at the time the opportunity to view the ultrasound image and receive a physical picture of the ultrasound image was offered.

If the woman accepts the offer and requests to listen to the heartbeat of her unborn child, her request shall be granted by the physician at no additional expense to the woman. The physician's certification shall be time-stamped at the time the opportunity to listen to the heartbeat of her unborn child was offered.

(j) The physician's certification required by subsections (h) and (i) together with the pregnant woman's signed acceptance or rejection of such offer shall be placed in the woman's medical file in the physician's office and kept for 10 years. However, in the case of a minor, the physician shall keep a copy of the certification and the signed acceptance or rejection in the minor's medical file for five years past the minor's majority, but in no event less than 10 years.

(k) Any private office, freestanding surgical outpatient clinic or other facility or clinic in which abortions are performed shall conspicuously post a sign in a location so as to be clearly visible to patients. (l) Any private office, freestanding surgical outpatient clinic or other facility or clinic in which abortions are performed that has a website shall publish an easily identifiable link on the homepage of such website that directly links to the department of health and environment's website that provides informed consent materials under the woman's-right-to-know act. (i) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other statute, the board of regents shall enter into one or more contracts with the division of facilities management for each project for the services performed by the division of facilities management for the project as required by this section or at the request of the board of regents. The division of facilities management shall receive fees from the board of regents to recover the costs incurred to provide such services pursuant to such contracts.

(j) Design development reviews and construction document reviews conducted by the division of facilities management shall be limited to ensuring only that the construction documents do not change the project description and that the construction documents comply with the standards established under K.S.A. 75-3783, and amendments thereto, by the secretary of administration for the planning, design and construction of buildings and major repairs and improvements to buildings for state agencies, including applicable building and life safety codes and appropriate and practical energy conservation and efficiency standards.

(k) Each project for a state educational institution shall receive a final joint inspection by the division of facilities management and the board of regents. Each such project shall be officially accepted by the board of regents before such project is occupied or utilized by the state educational institution, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the contractor and the board of regents as to the satisfactory completion of the work on part of the project that is to be occupied and utilized, including any corrections of the work thereon.

The board of regents shall report to the joint committee on state building construction all action relating to such change orders or changes in plans.

(4) If the board of regents determines that it is in the best interest of the state to authorize or approve a change order, a change in plans or a change in the proposed use of any project that the board of regents is required to first advise and consult with the joint committee on state building construction prior to issuing such approval and if no meeting of the joint committee is scheduled to take place within the next 10 business days, then the board of regents may use the procedure authorized by subsection (d) of K.S.A. 75-1264, and amendments thereto, in lieu of advising and consulting with the joint committee at a meeting. In any such case, the board of regents shall mail a summary description of the proposed change order, change in plans or change in the proposed use of any project to each member of the joint committee on state building construction and to the director of the legislative research department. If the board of regents provides notice and information to the members of the joint committee and to such director in the manner required and subject to the same provisions and conditions that apply to the secretary of administration under such statute, and if less than two members of the joint committee contact the director of the legislative research department within seven business days of the date the summary description was mailed and request a presentation and review of any such proposed change order, change in plans or change in use at a meeting of the joint committee, then the board of regents shall be deemed to have advised and consulted with the joint committee about such proposed change order, change in plans or change in proposed use and may authorize or approve such proposed change order, change in plans or change in proposed use.

(m) The provisions of this section shall apply to each project authorized by the board of regents under this act and shall not apply to any other capital improvement project of the board of regents or of any state educational institution that is specifically authorized by any other statute.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 91; Nays 31; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 3.

Present but not voting: None.

Absent or not voting: Read, Schwartz, Thimesch.

The substitute bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes on H Sub for SB 218. Even though the bill unnecessarily cuts funding for at-risk students without a rational basis for those cuts, because the bill increases overall funding for public schools and provides property tax relief for my constituents, I vote yes. — JOHN CARMICHAEL

Mr. Speaker: H Sub for SB 218 violates the principle of fiscal responsibility because it sets up unsustainable monetary policy. Passing this untenable fiscal burden to a future legislature is irresponsible. The legislature has failed thus far to produce a balanced solution for the Gannon decision that keeps a positive ending balance without a tax increase. It can be done. There are options and there is time to do it right. Benjamin Franklin said, 'Take time for all things: great haste makes great waste.' Therefore, I vote No on H Sub for SB 218. — JIM HOWELL, VIRGIL PECK, JR., KEVIN JONES, KEITH ESAU, DAN HAWKINS

MR. SPEAKER: Despite my yes vote on H Sub for SB 218 I am disappointed in the elimination of at risk services for students over 19 years of age and those who are part time. Poor urban school districts spend a great many resources keeping at risk students in school. Many of these students have to work. These students take an untraditional route to graduation but they do graduate. The finance formula should not punish districts that help these kids. The Conference Committee should restore these funds.--

The Senate accedes to all House amendments to the bill, and your committee on conference further agrees to amend the bill as printed as Amended by House Committee of the Whole, (Corrected) as follows:

On page 12, following line 19, by inserting:

"(xxi) For all taxable years beginning after December 31, 2013, amounts equal to the unreimbursed travel, lodging and medical expenditures directly incurred by a taxpayer while living, or a dependent of the taxpayer while living, for the donation of one or more human organs of the taxpayer, or a dependent of the taxpayer, to another person for human organ transplantation. The expenses may be claimed as a subtraction modification provided for in this section to the extent the expenses are not already subtracted from the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income. In no circumstances shall the subtraction modification provided for in this section for any individual, or a dependent, exceed $5,000. As used in this section, "human organ" means all or part of a liver, pancreas, kidney, intestine, lung or bone marrow.
