§ 6. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 7. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 8. Organization and sessions.—The legislature shall meet in regular session annually commencing on the second Monday in January, and all sessions shall be held at the state capital. The duration of regular sessions held in even-numbered years shall not exceed ninety calendar days. Such sessions may be extended beyond ninety calendar days by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. Bills and concurrent resolutions under consideration by the legislature upon adjournment of a regular session held in an odd-numbered year may be considered at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year, as if there had been no such adjournment.

The legislature shall be organized concurrently with the terms of representatives except that the senate shall remain organized during the terms of senators. The president of the senate shall preside over the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives shall preside over the house of representatives. A majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified of the house of representatives or the senate shall constitute a quorum of that house. Neither house, without the consent of the other, shall adjourn for more than two days, Sunday excepted.

Each house shall elect its presiding officer and determine the rules of its proceedings, except that the two houses may adopt joint rules on certain matters and provide for the manner of change thereof. Each house shall provide for the expulsion or censure of members in appropriate cases.

6. To commit to a standing committee.
7. To commit to a special committee.
8. To commit to the Committee of the Whole.
9. To amend.
10. To postpone indefinitely.

The several motions specified in this rule shall have precedence in the order named and the first four shall be decided without debate.

Rule 27. Division of Question. (a) If the question in debate contains several points, any Senator may have the same divided, but a motion to strike out and insert shall be indivisible. When a bill or resolution is under consideration in the Senate and after debate is concluded and final action has been announced on the bill or resolution, a request for division of question shall not be in order.

(b) A request for division of question shall be in writing specifying the manner in which the question is to be divided.

(c) The rejection of a motion to strike out and insert one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert another proposition, nor prevent a subsequent motion simply to strike out; nor shall the rejection of a motion simply to strike out prevent a subsequent motion to strike out and insert.

Rule 28. Reconsideration of Pending Matters. When a question has been once put and decided it shall be in order for any Senator who voted with the prevailing side to move for a reconsideration thereof, but no motion for reconsideration of any vote shall be in order after the bill, resolution, message, report, amendment or motion, upon which the vote was taken, shall have gone out of the possession of the Senate, nor shall any motion for reconsideration be in order unless made on the same day on which the vote was taken or the next legislative day. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

Rule 29. Previous Questions. Five Senators shall have the right to move the previous question on any bill, resolution, message, report, amendment, or motion. If no amendment is pending the previous question shall be as follows: "Shall the main question be now put?" If the previous question is decided in the affirmative by a majority vote of those present the main question shall be put without further amendment or debate. If amendments are pending a motion for the previous question shall concern only the last amendment that is pending on which, if the previous question is adopted, the debate will be closed only upon such amendment. The previous question on other questions than the main question shall be as follows: "Shall the question on the (amendment, amendment of an amendment, substitute or other motion affecting same as the case may be) now be put?"

Rule 30. Endorsement on Bills, etc. Before any bill, resolution or petition, addressed to the Senate, shall be received or read, the title of the bill or resolution or a brief statement of the contents of the petition shall be typed on the jacket, with the name of the Senator or committee introducing it.

Rule 31. Introduction of Bills and Concurrent Resolutions. Every bill and concurrent resolution shall be introduced by a Senator, by a committee, on the report of a committee, by message from the House of Representatives, or by proper prefiling as provided by law. For the purpose of introduction, every bill and concurrent resolution shall be placed in the possession of the secretary and the reading clerk shall read the title, except citations of statutes amended or repealed. The reading clerk shall also read the name of the sponsor of the bill or resolution if it has a single sponsor. If the bill or resolution has two sponsors the reading clerk shall read the names of both sponsors, but if the bill or resolution has more than two sponsors the reading clerk shall read the name of the first sponsor together with the words "and others."

Rule 32. Reference of Bills and Resolutions. All bills shall be referred or rereferred to appropriate standing committees or the committee of the whole by the President.

Upon the day of its introduction or upon the next legislative day the President shall refer every bill and each concurrent resolution to be referred to the appropriate standing committee or the committee of the whole. Bills or resolutions prefiled under K.S.A. 46-801 et seq. and amendments thereto may be referred by the President to the appropriate standing committee or the committee of the whole at any time subsequent to the prefiling of such bill or resolution with the secretary of the senate. Bills introduced by committees, if germane to the purpose and scope of the committee, may be referred to the Committee of the Whole; otherwise to the appropriate standing committee. All bills making an appropriation shall be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means. The President may refer a bill or resolution to two or more standing committees jointly, or separately, in such order as the President may direct, and such bill or resolution, when so referred, shall be considered by the committees in joint meeting, or by each of the committees separately in the order named in the reference, and when the reference is made jointly, the chairperson of the committee named first shall be chairperson of the joint committee.

Rule 33. Consent Calendar and Recording Reports. Whenever a standing committee is of the opinion that a bill or resolution upon which it is reporting is of non-controversial nature, it shall so state in its committee report. Whenever a bill or resolution is so reported, it shall be placed upon a separate calendar, to be known as the Consent Calendar. Each bill or resolution appearing on the Consent Calendar shall remain thereon for at least two full legislative days before being considered under the order of business Final Action. At any time prior to the call for the vote under the order of business Final Action on a bill or resolution on the Consent Calendar, any member may object to the same as being controversial and the same shall be stricken from the Consent Calendar and take its place on General Orders in the usual order. If no such objection is made prior to the call for such vote on the bill or resolution, it shall be voted upon with other bills and resolutions under the order of business Final Action but before consideration of other bills or resolutions appearing on the calendar under such order of business.

Rule 34. Final Action on Bills and Concurrent Resolutions. On final action on any bill or concurrent resolution, the reading clerk shall read the title, except citations to statutes amended or repealed. If the bill is reported for final action without debate, the question shall be at once put: "Shall the bill pass?" No debate shall be allowed, and no motion shall be in order except the motion to adjourn, or for a call of the Senate, unless in case where a bill has been ordered to be placed on final action subject to amendment, or to amendment and debate or unless by the unanimous consent of the Senate, amendments may be made and considered. Like procedure shall apply to concurrent resolutions except that the question put shall be: "Shall the resolution be adopted?" On final action, bills and resolutions may be bulked together for roll call unless objection be made by any Senator.

Rule 35. Final Passage by Yeas and Nays. The question upon the final passage of a bill and every concurrent resolution for amendment of the constitution of Kansas or ratification of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States shall be taken by a roll call vote of the yeas and nays, which shall be entered on the Journal, and unless the bill or concurrent resolution receives the number of votes required by the constitution to pass it, it shall be declared lost, except in cases provided for in Rule 36 (relating to the absence of a quorum).

Rule 36. No Quorum on Final Vote – Effect. If, on taking the vote on final action on a bill or concurrent resolution, it shall appear that a quorum is not present, then the bill or concurrent resolution shall retain its place on the Calendar and shall again be considered for final action when that order of business is again taken up by the Senate.

Rule 37. Roll Call Vote. A roll call vote shall be taken upon all questions upon the demand of five Senators.

Rule 38. Call of Senate – When Made – How Enforced. A call of the Senate may be had upon the demand of five Senators, pending a roll call on the final passage of any bill or resolution, or on any motion to strike the enacting clause, or indefinitely postpone any bill or resolution, and before the result is announced. When a call is demanded, the President shall order the doors of the Senate to be closed, and direct the Secretary to call the roll of the Senators and note the absentees, after which the names of the absentees shall be again called, and those for whose absence no sufficient excuse is given may be sent for and taken into custody by the Sergeant at Arms, or by Assistant Sergeants at Arms appointed for the purpose, and brought before the bar of the Senate, where unless excused by a majority of the Senators present, they shall be reprovved by the President for the neglect of duty.

Rule 39. Dispense with Further Proceedings under Call of Senate. No motion to dispense with further proceedings under the call of the Senate shall be entertained until the President shall be satisfied that the Sergeant at Arms has made diligent effort to secure the attendance of the absentees.

Rule 40. Roll Call Votes. Every Senator in the Senate chamber when a roll call is taken shall respond when the Senator's name is called. If there is a call of the Senate, the Senator must vote Yea or Nay, except as provided in Rule 19 (senators excused from voting if directly interested in the question). When there is no call of the Senate, the Senator may pass and shall be recorded in the Journal as present and passing. After the roll is completed and before the roll is closed, a Senator may change such Senator's vote. No vote shall be recorded and no change in vote may be made without unanimous consent of the Senate after announcement by the presiding officer that the roll is closed.

Rule 41. Committee of the Whole. On motion the Senate may go into Committee of the Whole. The President shall appoint a chairperson to preside over the Committee of the Whole. The rules of the Senate shall be observed in the Committee of the Whole, so far as applicable except that there shall be no limit on the number of times of speaking and Rule 38 (authorizing a call of the senate) shall not apply. A motion to lay on the table or a call for the previous question shall not be in order. No substitute motion to amend a bill or resolution shall be in order. A substitute motion to report a bill or resolution to the full Senate once made shall be decided subject only to debate and Rule 51 (motion to strike the enacting or resolving clause). A roll call shall be had on any question subject to the requirements of Rule 37.

Rule 42. No Quorum in Committee of the Whole – Procedure. If at any time, when in Committee of the Whole, it be ascertained that there is no quorum present, the chairperson shall immediately vacate the chair and report the fact to the President.

Rule 43. How Bills or Resolutions Considered – Committee of the Whole. Bills or resolutions shall be considered in Committee of the Whole in the following manner: The standing committee report shall first be considered and if it is adopted the bill or resolution as amended by the committee report shall be considered section by section, and as each section is considered, amendments from the floor are in order to that section. If the committee report is not adopted, the bill or resolution, without committee amendments, shall be considered section by section, and as each section is considered amendments from the floor are in order to that section. After a section has been considered, no amendment thereto shall be in order until the whole bill or resolution has been read through. After the original bill or resolution, together with standing committee amendments, has been considered section by section the chairperson shall announce “Amendments to the bill (or resolution) generally are in order,” and amendments not before offered may be made to any part of the bill or resolution. A motion to amend the bill or resolution shall not be in order while a motion to strike the enacting clause or resolving clause is pending.

Rule 44. Amendments. (1) Amendments to bills shall be germane to the subject of the bill being amended, and the fact that an amendment is to a section in the same chapter of the Kansas Statutes Annotated as an existing section in the bill shall not automatically render the amendment germane. Amendments to concurrent resolutions for amendments of the constitution of Kansas or ratification of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States shall be germane to the subject of the resolution being amended.

(2) All amendments to bills or resolutions shall be submitted in writing on a form provided by the Senate or on a form substantially similar. All amendments to printed bills or resolutions shall specify the page and line number as shown on the printed bill or resolution. If a bill or resolution has not been printed, amendments must refer to the typed bill or resolution. All amendments offered, whether adopted or rejected, together with the action taken thereon, shall be recorded in the Journal. When a bill or resolution has been amended, it shall be engrossed before it is enrolled.

(3) In the case of amendment by substitute bill or by substitute concurrent resolution, motion shall be made to substitute a written bill or concurrent resolution for the bill or concurrent resolution under consideration.

Rule 45. Report of Committee of the Whole Subject to Amendment – Time for. The report of the Committee of the Whole is subject to amendment to correctly reflect what has occurred in the Committee of the Whole by motions made at the time the report is offered for adoption by the Senate. When a bill is reported with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken, and the report is agreed to by the Senate, the bill shall be considered killed.

Rule 46. Motion for Committee of the Whole to Arise and Report Progress. A motion that the Committee of the Whole shall rise and report progress on any bill shall always be in order and shall be decided without debate, and the matter being considered shall be the first order of business at the next session of the committee, subject to such postponement as the subsequent Committee of the Whole may determine.

Rule 47. Division of the Senate. Whenever a voice vote has been taken upon any question in either the Senate or the Committee of the Whole, any Senator may call for a division of the Senate or Committee of the Whole.

Rule 48. Bills and Resolutions to Final Action. When the Committee of the Whole shall favorably report a bill or resolution, and the report is adopted by the Senate, the bill or resolution shall be considered as ordered to the order of business Final Action. The vote upon the final passage of the bill shall not be taken on the same day on which the bill is placed on Final Action. Bills and resolutions to be sent to the House shall be properly corrected under the supervision of the Secretary of the Senate. The Secretary of the Senate is authorized to correct misspelled words, punctuation and “doublets” or repeated words when preparing bills, resolutions or other documents for signature by officers of the Senate and House.

Rule 49. Bills and Resolutions – Inclusion of Amendments. When a bill or resolution is amended, the Secretary of the Senate shall attach to the original copy all amendments made in the Senate. Rule 52. Two-thirds Vote Not Necessary Except on Final Passage of Resolution. When a resolution requiring a vote of $2/3$ of the Senate for adoption is under consideration, a vote of $2/3$ shall not be needed to decide any question short of its final passage, except as provided by these rules.

Rule 53. Bills Considered in Regular Order. The Subcommittee on Calendar of the Committee on Organization, Calendar and Rules shall designate from day to day and from time to time the bills to be considered that day and on the next legislative day, and the order of consideration fixed by this subcommittee shall not be changed, except by unanimous consent or by a $2/3$ vote of all the members of the Senate then elected (or appointed) and qualified, if unanimous consent is refused.

Rule 54. Changing Order on Calendar. Not more than one bill may be named in a motion to change the order of the Calendar, and on each motion no Senator except the Senator making the motion shall speak more than once, nor longer than five minutes.

Joint rules shall expire at the conclusion of the terms of representatives. Joint rules shall be adopted, amended, suspended and revoked by concurrent resolution of the two houses of the legislature. Concurrent resolutions adopting joint rules shall receive the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house.

(b) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules; previous notice; vote required. After one day's previous notice, joint rules may be amended, suspended or revoked by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house. Upon the filing of such notice in either house, a message shall be sent to the other house advising of the filing of such notice and the reading of the message shall constitute notice to the members of such house. If such previous notice is not given, the affirmative vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house shall be required for the amendment, suspension or revocation of a joint rule.

(c) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules at commencement of legislative session; vote required; conditions. Notwithstanding any provision of this rule to the contrary, no notice shall be required for the adoption of a concurrent resolution amending, suspending or revoking any one or more joint rules at the commencement of a legislative session, and adoption of any such concurrent resolution shall require only the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, subject to the following conditions: (1) The concurrent resolution is sponsored by the speaker or the president, and (2) either (a) a copy thereof is mailed to each member of the legislature by deposit in the United States mails not later than 11:00 p.m. on the Thursday preceding the Monday on which the legislative session is to commence or (b) in lieu of mailing, copies of the concurrent resolution are made available to members on the first day of the legislative session and final action is taken on a subsequent legislative day.

Joint rule 2. Joint sessions. (a) Joint session called by concurrent resolution; vote required; time, place and subject matter. A joint session of the senate and house of representatives may be called by concurrent resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house of the legislature or as may otherwise be prescribed by law. Any such resolution shall fix the time and place of the joint session, and the subject matter to be considered at the joint session. Joint sessions shall consider only such matters as are prescribed by law or by the concurrent resolution calling such joint session.

(b) Presiding officer at joint sessions; record of joint session; rules applicable. The speaker of the house of representatives shall preside at all joint sessions of the senate and house of representatives, and the clerk of the house of representatives shall keep a record of the proceedings thereof and shall enter the record of each such session in the journal of the house of representatives. The rules of the house of representatives and the joint rules of the two houses, insofar as the same may be applicable shall be the rules for joint sessions of the two houses.

(c) Votes in joint session; taking; requirements. All votes in a joint session shall be taken by yeas and nays, and in taking the same it shall be the duty of the secretary of the senate first to call the names of the members of the senate, and after which the clerk of the house of representatives shall in like manner call the names of the members of the house. Each member of the senate and the house of representatives present shall be required to vote on all matters considered in joint session, unless excused by a vote of a majority of the members of both houses present.

Joint rule 3. Conference committee procedure. (a) Action by house of origin of bill or concurrent resolution amended by other house. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned to the house of origin with amendments by the other house, the house of origin may: (1) Concur in such amendments; (2) refuse to concur in such amendments; or (3) refuse to concur in such amendments and request a conference on the bill or concurrent resolution.

(b) Concurrence by house of origin; concurrence prior to taking action on conference committee report by other house; final action; effect of failure of motion to concur. The house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution may concur in any amendments made by the other house, except that if the bill or concurrent resolution has been referred to a conference committee such action may only be taken prior to the taking of final action upon the conference committee report upon such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house shall be considered action on the final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has been appointed and action has not been taken upon the report of such committee by the other house and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and the motion to concur may be renewed but not on the same legislative day. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has not been appointed and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(c) Motion to nonconcur; when considered final action; effect of adoption of motion. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to nonconcur or to refuse to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house which is not coupled with a request for the appointment of a conference committee shall be considered action on final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal, and the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed killed on the adoption thereof.

(d) House of origin refusal to concur or nonconcur; request for conference; procedure. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned by either house to the house of origin with amendments, and the house of origin refuses to concur or to nonconcur therein, a conference may be requested by a majority vote of the members present and voting. Such request shall be transmitted to the other house by message which shall include the names of the conferees on the part of the requesting house. Upon receipt of any such message, the receiving house may, in like manner, approve such conference, and shall thereupon notify the requesting house by message stating the names of its conferees.

(e) Membership; appointment; chairperson; house of origin of substitute or materially changed bill or concurrent resolution; meetings of conference committee. Each conference committee shall consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house of representatives, unless otherwise fixed by agreement of the president of the senate and speaker of the house. Senate members shall be appointed by the president of the senate and house members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not less than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house. In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the conference committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

(f) Conference committee reports; subject matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business. Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation. A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment. The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house, electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports. All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report. The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee; effect of failure of motion to adopt report requesting new conference committee. If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even-numbered year. Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.

Joint rule 4. Deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills. The senate and house of representatives shall observe the following schedule of deadlines in making requests for drafting and in the introduction and consideration of bills.

(a) Bill request deadline for individual members. Except for bills introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no request to draft bills, except those made by committees, through their respective chairpersons, shall be made to, or accepted by, the office of the revisor of statutes after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on February 4, 2013, during the 2013 regular session and on February 3, 2014, during the 2014 regular session.

(b) Bill introduction deadline for individual members. Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by a member or members shall be introduced in either house of the legislature after the hour of adjournment on February 13, 2013, during the 2013 regular session and on February 12, 2014, during the 2014 regular session. Such deadline for the introduction of bills by individual members may be changed to an earlier date in either house at any time by resolution duly adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in such house.

(c) Bill request deadline for certain committees. Except for bills to be introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no committee except the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall make a request to the office of the revisor of statutes for any bill to be drafted for sponsorship by such committee after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on February 11, 2013, during the 2013 regular session and on February 10, 2014, during the 2014 regular session.

(d) Bill introduction deadline for certain committees. Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by any committee of either house of the legislature, except the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be introduced in either house after the hour of adjournment on February 15, 2013, during the 2013 regular session and on February 14, 2014, during the 2014 regular session.

(e) House of origin bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered in the house in which such bill originated after the hour of adjournment on March 1, 2013, during the 2013 regular session and on February 28, 2014, during the 2014 regular session.

(f) Second house bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered by either house, not the house of origin of such bill, after the hour of adjournment on March 27, 2013, during the 2013 regular session and March 26, 2014, during the 2014 regular session.

(g) Exceptions to limitation of (d), (e) and (f); procedure. Specific exceptions to the limitations prescribed in subsections (d), (e) and (f) may be made in either house by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members of such house then elected (or appointed) and qualified.

(h) Deadline which falls on day neither house in session; effect. In the event that any deadline prescribed in this rule falls on a day that neither house of the legislature is in session, such deadline shall be observed on the next following day that either house is in session.

(i) Bills introduced in odd-numbered years after deadlines; effect. Bills may be introduced by members and committees in regular sessions occurring in an odd-numbered year after the times prescribed in (b) and (d) of this rule, but there shall be no final action thereon by either house during the session when introduced. Such bills shall be held over for consideration at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year.

(j) Modification of schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills; procedure. In any regular session a concurrent resolution may be adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house setting forth a different schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills for that session and the provisions of such concurrent resolution shall apply to such session notwithstanding provisions of this rule to the contrary.

(k) Bill consideration deadline; exceptions. No bills shall be considered by the Legislature after April 5, 2013, during the 2013 regular session and after April 4, 2014, during the 2014 regular session except bills vetoed by the Governor, the omnibus appropriation act and the omnibus reconciliation spending limit bill provided for under K.S.A. 75-6702, and amendments thereto. This subsection (k) may be suspended for the consideration of a specific bill or bills not otherwise exempt under this subsection by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in the house in which the bill is to be considered.

Joint rule 5. Closure of meetings to consider matters relating to security. Any standing committee of the House of Representatives, any standing committee of the Senate, the Legislative Coordinating Council, any joint committee of both houses of the legislature, any special or select committee of the House of Representatives or the Senate, the House of Representatives in session, the Senate in session or a joint session of the House of Representatives and the Senate may meet in closed, executive session for the purpose of receiving information and considering matters relating to the security of state officers or employees, or both, or the security of buildings and property under the ownership or control of the State of Kansas.

Joint rule 6. Floor amendments to bills making appropriations. Unless by majority consent to correct an error in drafting, no amendment from the floor in either house of the legislature to increase the amount of expenditures that would be authorized in a provision of an appropriations bill shall be in order unless the amendment contains a provision reducing, by a like or greater amount, expenditures that would be authorized in another provision of such appropriations bill. Notwithstanding any rule in either house of the legislature, those portions of a motion to amend a bill as described in this rule shall be indivisible.

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT WAGLE

Thank you for that warm welcome. These are exciting times.

I am deeply humbled and honored by the privilege you have entrusted to me to lead this historic body for the next four years. Thank you for your trust, your faith, and your friendship. I cannot begin to tell you what it means to me.

I also want to thank my husband Tom, and my family. They are here with me today. My family has stood by my side during my entire legislative career. They have also walked with both me and my youngest son Paul through some well-known cancer bouts that threatened to take our lives. Both Paul and I would not be here today if it weren't for the prayers and the support of our family, our extended family and our faith family at our Church.

I'd like to take a moment to introduce them by name and if each of you would stand when I call you.

My husband Tom.

Next to Tom is his mother Julia Wagle. Tom is her first born of 12 children.

Next to Julia is my father, Willard Kratz and my mother, Linda Kratz. I'm the second born of six children. Holidays with our families are very big wonderful parties.

On the front row we have Riley Scott, who is married to my daughter Julia and their two children Olivia and Ben – and one on the way in March. Julia is an emergency room doctor at Stormont Vail.

Next to Julia, we have Mike Maas who married my second born daughter Andrea. Andrea is a nurse educator at the University of Kansas Hospital and is expecting a child in late May.

Next to Andrea is John Wagle, my first born son. John is a project manager for QSI which is a national real estate management company in Wichita. His wife Michelle is by John.

And Paul is here. Paul is my youngest. He's about to graduate from Benedictine College in Atchison with a degree in biochemistry, chemistry and philosophy. And my husband and I just wrote our last tuition check a couple of weeks ago. That is a good feeling! So please welcome my family.

Kansas faces a number of challenges, and I promise you, a full range of issues will be debated over the next four years. The latest challenge arose just last week with the school funding decision. How this body meets those challenges will help determine the quality of life that Kansans will enjoy for decades to come. The extent to which this legislature decides to tax and spend, will also determine what opportunities will arise to attract new private sector jobs, grow our economy, and bring additional prosperity to the families of this state.

Meeting these challenges will not be easy. We will be required to make tough choices. We will be required to say no sometimes, even when we may not want to. We will have to prioritize and determine what our true needs are, versus what would be nice to have. I am sure we will have a few spirited debates about those priorities.

However, if we adhere to fiscally responsible principles, demand accountability and transparency, and never forget that the reason we are here is to be the voice of the people we were elected to serve, we will spend the next four years making Kansas stronger and our future brighter.

I ask each of you to keep one thing in mind – no matter our individual differences, ultimately we each were driven to run by the desire to solve some problem we saw in Kansas. We are a citizen legislature. We did not run because we were looking for a job and we certainly did not run for the financial rewards. We all ran to help the people of Kansas by pushing for solutions to solve the problems we encountered. And, while debates on some issues may get heated, and tempers may even flare, we can never lose sight of the fact that we are here as a legislative body to do the business of the people of Kansas.

To do that business, I pledge to you to lead this body inclusively. Every member will be heard. My door will always be open. While we ultimately may not all agree on every issue that comes before us, I will work hard to keep this a body where the voice of every Senator, indeed every Kansan, is appreciated and respected.

Thank you.

REMARKS BY MINORITY LEADER HENSLEY

I appreciate that on the first day of a new term, it is customary for the Senate Minority Leader to make some remarks.

But first, I would like to take a moment to remember the lives of the twenty children and six adults who were the victims of the recent shootings at Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newtown, Connecticut, as well as the two brave Topeka police officers who were needlessly gunned down while responding to a call this past month.

While it will take time for our nation and the Topeka community to heal, we should not allow the lives of these innocent victims to be forgotten. We should call upon our fellow Kansans to remember these precious individuals by expressing love and gratitude to those we hold dear, especially our children.

And, the next time you are in the presence of an educator, police officer or emergency responder, please take time to thank them for their selfless sacrifice and service.

Madam President, on behalf of the Senate Democratic caucus, I want to congratulate you, the Vice President, the Majority Leader and the other elected leadership of the majority party.

The members of our caucus look forward to working with all of the members of the majority party. We pledge our cooperation but know there will be those times when we agree to disagree.

Madam President, I especially congratulate you for your unprecedented achievement. You are the first female Senate President in Kansas history and I ask my fellow Senators to join me in applauding you for this historic accomplishment.

Breaking glass ceilings and defying the odds is nothing new to President Wagle. I want to also recognize Senator Wagle for her personal triumph. She is a cancer survivor. She is a fighter and a person of sincere beliefs, both personally and politically.

Today, we salute you for being here, alive and well, as our new Senate President.

I want to thank my fellow Democrats for electing me to once again serve as their leader. This is a high honor you have given me and I will do my best to represent you.

I also want to welcome everyone to my hometown, especially the new members of the Kansas Senate – those of you who have been elected for the first time, and those of you who came over from serving in the Kansas House of Representatives.

And, I want to welcome our family members to the Senate Chamber and thank them for their support during the recent election campaigns.

We should also thank our families in advance for their patience and understanding while we are away from them during our time spent here in this legislative session and the sessions ahead.

Please allow me to take a moment of personal privilege to introduce the members of my own family who are here today. First, is my wife Deborah, who celebrated with me this past year, our 35th anniversary. She is the best door-to-door campaigner I've ever known!

Next, are our daughter Katie, her husband Jason Bivens, and our granddaughter, Brighton. I'm very proud that Katie is a 5th grade teacher at Whitson Elementary School here in Topeka and I'm very pleased to announce that she is expecting a baby girl in March.

And, I also want to introduce my mother, Georgina Webb, who has been through the years my greatest supporter and my greatest critic! A word of advice to those who don't know it, do not play poker with this woman!

Madam President, for me, it is hard to believe that 2013 is my 37th session. I point this out not to boast, nor to lecture you on why term limits are a bad idea. It is to recognize that whether this is your first or 37th session, what we did here today is still an awesome experience for us and our families as well.

And, even more awesome is that now we take on a great responsibility. We have been entrusted by the people of our district to represent them in this great legislative body.

Now that the elections are over and the oaths have been administered, we begin the process of debating and deciding public policy.

Legislative institutions are guided by basic principles, and I am reminded that a member of Congress once said, "Basic principles must endure if we are to have an effective institution, and chief among these is the belief that the principle of minority rights is equal in dignity and in importance and in no way subservient to the principle of majority rule."

The Congressman who made this statement was the former Republican Minority Leader Bob Michel of Illinois when he made his speech on the first day of a new term.

Madam President, the members of the minority party pledge our respect for the basic principle of majority rule. In return, we ask for your respect for our role and rights in this process.

The first day of this New Year, January 1, 2013, marked the 150th anniversary of the Emancipation Proclamation – an everlasting document that ushered in what President Lincoln would call "a new birth of freedom" for his era and for generations to come.

That moment in our history should serve as a reminder to all of us of our obligation to renew the uniquely American promises of freedom and progress for future generations of Kansans.

It is an understatement to say that the 2013 session will confront all of us with many great and difficult challenges.

The decisions we make in response to those challenges will have a profound impact on the citizens we represent.

Let us make those decisions in a spirit of inclusion and bi-partisanship.

Let us work together to maintain the best possible safety net we can for the people of Kansas, particularly the most vulnerable among us.

Let us work together to improve the Kansas economy by producing good-paying jobs and keeping our commitment to the 2010 comprehensive transportation plan.

Let us work together by fulfilling our constitutional duty to ensure that every Kansas child is given the best education possible regardless of their special needs, their family's income, or where they live.

This year, 2013, marks another anniversary.

It is the 50th anniversary of President Kennedy's assassination. For those of us who were aware of this tragic event, we well remember where we were when we first heard the news of it on Friday, November 22, 1963.

The most famous of President Kennedy's quotes was in his inaugural address when he asked of us what we could do for our country. But, on this occasion, I believe it is appropriate to recall a lesser known statement at the end of his speech:

"With a good conscience our only sure reward, with history the final judge of our deeds, let us go forth to lead the land we love, asking His blessing and His help, but knowing that here on earth God's work must truly be our own."

Over the next four years, let us lead the state we love while recognizing that the work we do here for the people we represent is to carry out what God would want us to do.

Thank you, Madam President.

Anthony Hensley
Senate Minority Leader

INVOCATION

President Wagle invited Archbishop Nauman to deliver the following invocation:

Heavenly Father,

We ask your blessing upon the newly sworn-in Senators for our State.

We give thanks for the generosity of these men and women, for the personal sacrifices that they have made in order to serve the people of the State of Kansas.

We ask Lord that you give them the strength to be faithful in fulfilling their sworn promise to uphold and support the Constitutions of the United States and the State of Kansas and to faithfully discharge the office of Senator.

Heavenly Father, give them the generosity to place the welfare of the people of the State of Kansas before self-interest and partisanship.

Endow them with wisdom as they strive to enact laws that will prudently utilize the precious resources of our State: 1) to maintain our roads, highways and bridges, 2) to educate well our young people, 3) to provide a safety net of care for the poor, the disabled, and the vulnerable, and 4) to provide for the safety and welfare of all Kansans.

Give them courage in protecting such fundamental rights as life and liberty – especially religious liberty and conscience rights.

Help them to develop public policies that 1) support strong marriages and family life, 2) create economic opportunity for all, and 3) protect the dignity of every citizen and resident of Kansas with special care for the weakest and most vulnerable.

In all their deliberations help them to be principled and prudent and even when they disagree to treat each other with respect.

Heavenly Father, give them enthusiasm and joy in their work, realizing the importance of their responsibilities and the precious opportunity that you and the people of Kansas have entrusted to them to strengthen our State and to improve the lives of thousands of their fellow citizens.

We ask your blessing on their spouses and families, who also make significant sacrifices as they support them in doing the people's work.

Help them to work diligently and wisely so that at the conclusion of this legislative session they can take satisfaction that the lives of all Kansans will be better for their service. We ask this prayer of you the One God and Lord of all. Amen.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 1601

By Senator King

A PROPOSITION to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas by revising article 3 thereof, relating to the judiciary.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Article 3 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Article 3.—JUDICIAL

"§ 1. Judicial power; seals; rules. The judicial power of this state shall be vested exclusively in one court of justice, which shall be divided into one supreme court, one court of appeals, district courts, and such other courts as are provided by law; and all courts of record shall have a seal. The supreme court shall have general administrative authority over all courts in this state.

"§ 2. Supreme court. The supreme court shall consist of not less than seven justices who shall be selected as provided by this article. All cases shall be heard with not fewer than four justices sitting and the concurrence of a majority of the justices sitting and of not fewer than four justices shall be necessary for a decision. The term of office of the justices shall be six years except as hereinafter provided. The justice who is senior in continuous term of service shall be chief justice, and in case two or more have continuously served during the same period the senior in age of these shall be chief justice. A justice may decline or resign from the office of chief justice without resigning from the court. Upon such declination or resignation, the justice who is next senior in continuous term of service shall become chief justice. During incapacity of a chief justice, the duties, powers and emoluments of the office shall devolve upon the justice who is next senior in continuous service.

"§ 3. Jurisdiction and terms. The supreme court shall have original jurisdiction in proceedings in quo warranto, mandamus, and habeas corpus; and such appellate jurisdiction as may be provided by law. It shall hold one term each year at the seat of government and such other terms at such places as may be provided by law, and its jurisdiction shall be co-extensive with the state.

"§ 4. Reporter; clerk. There shall be appointed, by the justices of the supreme court, a reporter and clerk of such court, who shall hold their offices two years, and whose duties shall be prescribed by law.

"§ 5. Selection of justices of the supreme court. (a) (1) Any vacancy occurring in the office of any justice of the supreme court and any position to be open on the supreme court as a result of enlargement of such court, or the retirement or failure of an incumbent to file such justice's declaration of candidacy to be retained in office as hereinafter required, or failure of a justice to be elected to be retained in office, shall be filled by appointment by the governor, with the consent of the senate, of a person possessing the qualifications of office.

(2) Whenever a vacancy occurs, will occur or position opens on the supreme court, the clerk of the supreme court shall promptly give notice to the governor.

(3) In event of the failure of the governor to make the appointment within 60 days from the date such vacancy occurred or position became open, the chief justice of the supreme court, with the consent of the senate, shall make the appointment of a person possessing the qualifications of office.

(4) Whenever a vacancy in the office of justice of the supreme court exists at the time the appointment to fill such vacancy is made pursuant to this section, the appointment shall be effective at the time it is made, but where an appointment is made pursuant to this section to fill a vacancy which will occur at a future date, such appointment shall not take effect until such date.

(b) No person appointed pursuant to subsection (a) shall assume the office of justice of the supreme court until the senate, by an affirmative vote of the majority of all members of the senate then elected or appointed and qualified, consents to such appointment. The senate shall vote to consent to any such appointment not later than 60 days after such appointment is received by the senate. If the senate is not in session and will not be in session within the 60-day time limitation, the senate shall vote to consent to any such appointment not later than 20 days after the senate begins its next session. In the event a majority of the senate does not vote to consent to the appointment, the governor, within 60 days after the senate vote on the previous appointee, shall appoint another person possessing the qualifications of office and such subsequent appointment shall be considered by the senate in the same procedure as provided in this article. The same appointment and consent procedure shall be followed until a valid appointment has been made. No person who has been previously appointed but did not receive the consent of the senate shall be appointed again for the same vacancy. If the senate fails to vote on an appointment within the time limitation imposed by this subsection, the senate shall be deemed to have given consent to such appointment.

(c) (1) Each justice of the supreme court appointed pursuant to subsection (a) and consented to pursuant to subsection (b) shall hold office for an initial term ending on the second Monday in January following the first general election that occurs after the expiration of 12 months in office.

(2) Not less than 60 days prior to the holding of the general election next preceding the expiration of the term of any justice of the supreme court, the justice may file in the office of the secretary of state a declaration of candidacy for retention in office. If a declaration is not filed as provided in this section, the position held by the justice shall be vacant upon the expiration of the justice's term of office. If such declaration is filed, the justice's name shall be submitted at the next general election to the electors of the state on a separate judicial ballot, without party designation, reading substantially as follows:

"Shall (Here insert name of justice), Justice of the Supreme Court, be retained in office?"

(3) If a majority of those voting on the question vote against retaining the justice in office, the position which the justice holds shall be vacant upon the expiration of the justice's term of office. Otherwise, unless the justice is removed for cause, the justice shall remain in office for the regular term of six years from the second Monday in January following the election. At the expiration of each term, unless by law the justice is compelled to retire, the justice shall be eligible for retention in office by election in the manner prescribed in this section.

(4) If a majority of those voting on the question vote against the justice's retention, the secretary of state, following the final canvass of votes on the question, shall certify the results to the clerk of the supreme court. Any such justice who has not been retained in office pursuant to this section shall not be eligible for nomination or appointment to the office of justice of the supreme court prior to the expiration of six years after the expiration of the justice's term of office.

"§ 6 Court of appeals. (a) (1) The court of appeals shall consist of 14 judges whose positions shall be numbered one to 14. Any vacancy occurring in the office of any judge of the court of appeals and any position to be open on the court of appeals as a result of enlargement of such court, or the retirement or failure of an incumbent to file such judge's declaration of candidacy to be retained in office as hereinafter required, or failure of a judge to be elected to be retained in office, shall be filled by appointment by the governor, with the consent of the senate, of a person possessing the qualifications of office.

(2) Whenever a vacancy occurs, will occur or position opens on the court of appeals, the clerk of the supreme court shall promptly give notice to the governor.

(3) In event of the failure of the governor to make the appointment within 60 days from the date such vacancy occurred or position became open, the chief justice of the supreme court, with the consent of the senate, shall make the appointment of a person possessing the qualifications of office.

(4) Whenever a vacancy in the office of judge of the court of appeals exists at the time the appointment to fill such vacancy is made pursuant to this section, the appointment shall be effective at the time it is made, but where an appointment is made pursuant to this section to fill a vacancy which will occur at a future date, such appointment shall not take effect until such date.

(b) No person appointed pursuant to subsection (a) shall assume the office of judge of the court of appeals until the senate, by an affirmative vote of the majority of all members of the senate then elected or appointed and qualified, consents to such appointment. The senate shall vote to consent to any such appointment not later than 60 days after such appointment is received by the senate. If the senate is not in session and will not be in session within the 60-day time limitation, the senate shall vote to consent to any such appointment not later than 20 days after the senate begins its next session. In the event a majority of the senate does not vote to consent to the appointment, the governor, within 60 days after the senate vote on the previous appointee, shall appoint another person possessing the qualifications of office and such subsequent appointment shall be considered by the senate in the same procedure as provided in this article. The same appointment and consent procedure shall be followed until a valid appointment has been made. No person who has been previously appointed but did not receive the consent of the senate shall be appointed again for the same vacancy. If the senate fails to vote on an appointment within the time limitation imposed by this subsection, the senate shall be deemed to have given consent to such appointment.

(c) (1) Each judge of the court of appeals appointed pursuant to subsection (a) and consented to pursuant to subsection (b) shall hold office for an initial term ending on the second Monday in January following the first general election that occurs after the expiration of 12 months in office.

(2) Not less than 60 days prior to the holding of the general election next preceding the expiration of the term of any judge of the court of appeals, the judge may file in the office of the secretary of state a declaration of candidacy for retention in office. If a declaration is not filed as provided in this section, the position held by the judge shall be vacant upon the expiration of the judge's term of office. If such declaration is filed, the judge's name shall be submitted at the next general election to the electors of the state on a separate judicial ballot, without party designation, reading substantially as follows:

"Shall (Here insert name of judge.), Judge of the Court of Appeals, be retained in office?"

(3) If a majority of those voting on the question vote against retaining the judge in office, the position which the judge holds shall be vacant upon the expiration of the judge's term of office. Otherwise, unless the judge is removed for cause, the judge shall remain in office for the regular term of four years from the second Monday in January following the election. At the expiration of each term, unless by law the judge is compelled to retire, the judge shall be eligible for retention in office by election in the manner prescribed in this section.

(4) If a majority of those voting on the question vote against the judge's retention, the secretary of state, following the final canvass of votes on the question, shall certify the results to the clerk of the supreme court. Any such judge who has not been retained in office pursuant to this section shall not be eligible for nomination or appointment to the office of judge of the court of appeals prior to the expiration of four years after the expiration of the judge's term of office.

(d) The supreme court may assign a judge of the court of appeals to serve temporarily on the supreme court.

(e) The supreme court or the court of appeals may assign a district judge to serve temporarily on the court of appeals.

"§ 7. District courts. (a) The state shall be divided into judicial districts as provided by law. Each judicial district shall have at least one district judge. The term of office of each judge of the district court shall be four years. District court shall be held at such times and places as may be provided by law. The district judges shall be elected by the electors of the respective judicial districts unless the electors of a judicial district have adopted and not subsequently rejected a method of nonpartisan selection. The legislature shall provide a method of nonpartisan selection of district judges and for the manner of submission and resubmission thereof to the electors of a judicial district. A nonpartisan method of selection of district judges may be adopted, and once adopted may be rejected, only by a majority of electors of a judicial district voting on the question at an election in which the proposition is submitted. Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of district judge, it shall be filled by appointment by the governor until the next general election that occurs more than 30 days after such vacancy, or as may be provided by such nonpartisan method of selection.

(b) The district courts shall have such jurisdiction in their respective districts as may be provided by law.

(c) The legislature shall provide for clerks of the district courts.

(d) Provision may be made by law for judges pro tem of the district court.

(e) The supreme court or any justice thereof shall have the power to assign judges of district courts temporarily to other districts.

(f) The supreme court may assign a district judge to serve temporarily on the supreme court.

(g) The supreme court or the court of appeals may assign a district judge to serve temporarily on the court of appeals.

"§ 8. Qualifications of justices and judges. Justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals and judges of the district courts shall be at least 30 years of age and shall be duly authorized by the supreme court of Kansas to practice law in the courts of this state and shall possess such other qualifications as may be prescribed by law.

"§ 9. Prohibition of political activity by justices and certain judges.

No justice of the supreme court who is appointed or retained under the procedure of section 5 of this article, nor any judge of the court of appeals who is appointed or retained under the procedure of section 6 of this article, nor any judge of the district court holding office under a nonpartisan method authorized in subsection (a) of section 7 of this article, shall directly or indirectly make any contribution to or hold any office in a political party or organization or take part in any political campaign.

"§ 10. Extension of terms until successor qualified. All judicial officers shall hold their offices until their successors shall have qualified.

"§ 11. Compensation of justices and judges; certain limitation. The justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals and judges of the district courts shall receive for their services such compensation as may be provided by law, which shall not be diminished during their terms of office, unless by general law applicable to all salaried officers of the state. Such justices or judges shall receive no fees or perquisites nor hold any other office of profit or trust under the authority of the state, or the United States except as may be provided by law, or practice law during their continuance in office.

"§ 12. Removal of justices and judges. Justices of the supreme court may be removed from office by impeachment and conviction as prescribed in article 2 of this constitution. In addition to removal by impeachment and conviction, justices may be retired after appropriate hearing, upon certification to the governor, by the supreme court that such justice is so incapacitated as to be unable to perform adequately such justice's duties. Other judges shall be subject to retirement for incapacity, and to discipline, suspension and removal for cause by the supreme court after appropriate hearing.

"§ 13. Savings clause. Nothing contained in this amendment to the constitution shall: (a) Shorten the term of office or abolish the office of any justice of the supreme court, any judge of the court of appeals, any judge of the district court, or any other judge of any other court who is holding office at the time this amendment becomes effective, or who is holding office at the time of adoption, rejection, or resubmission of a nonpartisan method of selection of district judges as provided in subsection (a) of section 7 of this article, and all such justices and judges shall hold their respective offices for the terms for which elected or appointed unless sooner removed in the manner provided by law; (b) repeal any statute of this state relating to the supreme court, the supreme court nominating commission, the court of appeals, district courts, or any other court, or relating to the justices or judges of such courts, and such statutes shall remain in force and effect until amended or repealed by the legislature."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to place the law concerning the court of appeals into the constitution and to do away with the supreme court nominating commission. The governor will appoint a qualified person, or if the governor fails to act, the chief justice of the supreme court would appoint a qualified person, and such person's appointment would be required to be confirmed by the senate. A procedure is established whereby senate confirmation would occur within 60 days of receiving the appointment. If the senate does not confirm the appointment a majority vote, the governor would then appoint another qualified person, and such person's appointment would again go to the senate for confirmation. The same appointment and confirmation procedure would be followed until a valid appointment is made. If the senate fails to vote on an appointment within 60 days, it will be considered that the senate has confirmed the appointment.

"A vote for this proposition would provide a procedure whereby the governor or chief justice would appoint a person to be a supreme court justice or court of appeals judge and the senate, by majority vote, would confirm the appointment of the supreme court justice or court of appeals judge.

"A vote against this proposition would continue in effect the current provision whereby the supreme court nominating commission nominates three persons for the office of the supreme court or court of appeals and the governor appoints one of such persons."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the election in August in the year 2014 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 1602

By Senator LaTurner

A PROPOSITION to amend section 2 of article 2 of the constitution of the state of Kansas, relating to senators and representatives.

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. Rule 28. Reconsideration of Pending Matters. When a question has been once put and decided it shall be in order for any Senator who voted with the prevailing side to move for a reconsideration thereof, but no motion for reconsideration of any vote shall be in order after the bill, resolution, message, report, amendment or motion, upon which the vote was taken, shall have gone out of the possession of the Senate, nor shall any motion for reconsideration be in order unless made on the same day on which the vote was taken or the next legislative day. Such request shall be transmitted to the other house by message which shall include the names of the conferees on the part of the requesting house. Upon receipt of any such message, the receiving house may, in like manner, approve such conference, and shall thereupon notify the requesting house by message stating the names of its conferees.

(e) Membership; appointment; chairperson; house of origin of substitute or materially changed bill or concurrent resolution; meetings of conference committee. Each conference committee shall consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house of representatives, unless otherwise fixed by agreement of the president of the senate and speaker of the house. Senate members shall be appointed by the president of the senate and house members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not less than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house. In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the conference committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

(f) Conference committee reports; subject matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business. Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation. A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment. The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house, electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports. All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report. The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee; effect of failure of motion to adopt report requesting new conference committee. If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even-numbered year. Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.

Such bills shall be held over for consideration at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year.

(j) Modification of schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills; procedure. In any regular session a concurrent resolution may be adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house setting forth a different schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills for that session and the provisions of such concurrent resolution shall apply to such session notwithstanding provisions of this rule to the contrary.

(k) Bill consideration deadline; exceptions. No bills shall be considered by the Legislature after April 5, 2013, during the 2013 regular session and after April 4, 2014, during the 2014 regular session except bills vetoed by the Governor, the omnibus appropriation act and the omnibus reconciliation spending limit bill provided for under K.S.A. 75-6702, and amendments thereto. The concurrent resolution was adopted.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: The Pay-Go amendment to Senate Concurrent Resolution 1604 is designed to limit the ability of senators to represent their constituents without injuring the constituents of other senators. Each of the duly elected senators has a right to seek the aid of every other senator.

This amendment basically provides six individuals on the Senate Ways and Means Committee to determine overall spending and eliminate the rights of the individual senators and their constituents. – JAY SCOTT EMLER

Mr. Vice President: I oppose the Pay-Go amendment that was added to SR 1604. I strongly believe that it limits each Senator's ability to represent their constituents and districts. I'm especially concerned about the discussion on limiting "Gotcha Votes." To adopt an amendment based on position in the next election over good public policy leads us to a path similar to Congress. I believe in the process and respect the majority vote and found no reason to vote no on the underlying bill. – JEFF LONGBINE

On motion of Senator Bruce, the Senate adjourned until 2:30 p.m., Thursday, January 17, 2013.

SIXTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, January 22, 2013, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.

The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present.

Senator Pettey was excused.

Invocation by Father Don Davidson:

Heavenly Father,

We thank you today for the life, words, work and ministry of Martin Luther King who said, "I have decided to stick with love. Hate is too great a burden to bear." Martin Luther King raised the common conscience of a nation reminding us that there is one God and that no matter how we differ, we are all God's children. Help us to consider his life, the tragedy of his death, the enormity of his legacy and the gifts he has left for us and for our children.

Thank you Lord, Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Susan Wagle.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Haley rose on a Point of Personal Privilege to deliver the following remarks:

Madame President; Gentle Colleagues of the Kansas Senate: Thank you for allowing these, my annual remarks (now, 19th Legislative observation) of the Martin Luther King, Junior Holiday, to be spread upon the Journal. However, this is the first time that this salute has followed, not preceded, the holiday. I appreciate those of you of the Chamber who commented to me. And Madame President and fellow members, here's why ...

Wherever you fall across the political diaspora that's the multi-hued patchwork quilt of our great democracy, by any account yesterday, Monday, January 21, 2013, was an extraordinary day for the United States of America. I mean, here we have the holiday bearing the name of an American who just wanted to insure that justice and equal access and life and liberty and the pursuit of happiness and all of those inalienable rights imagined in our federal Constitution and in subsequent defining papers like the Bill of Rights, that these ideals would not be the sole province of one race or one culture or one religion or one political persuasion or one gender (well, maybe one gender Madame President, but a much deserved subsequent Amendment changed all that!) but that's the beauty and the bounty of being American and should belong to ALL Americans, irrespective of other pre-existing or adopted conditions that might repress or divide us.

Then, of course, on the same day as the Martin Luther King federal holiday, our Nation and our world saw the President of these United States, the most powerful man of the most powerful country on the planet Earth today, inaugurated to a second term of office. When President Barack H. Obama, an American of a decidedly distinct hue and tone from that of his every predecessor, spoke to the Nation during the Inaugural Address, it was an epiphany; a remarkable intertwining of kismet that we, as a great country, are perhaps never likely to see again.

The vision of the framers of our Constitution was once again lived out and on the very day that celebrates and remembers the struggles of but some of the tireless advocates who worked to see it! Extraordinary!

And so, the true meaning of the King Holiday I once again implore this body ... this body and those here gathered to foster and to inculcate in your being throughout the year. We are an inclusive America. We are a broad America. We are the greatest country in the world. And the pinnacle of our strength, like a rope, is composed of many different fibers intertwined. We should share that diversity and celebrate it.

U.S. Senator Lamar Alexander (R-Tennessee) quoted my late uncle, ROOTS author Alex Haley, in his Inaugural Remarks yesterday. Uncle Alex often said "Find the good, and praise it." Isn't it good that we are all, as Americans, able to reach towards points of true freedom? Isn't it good that fewer Americans are dividing ourselves by race or by religion or by culture or creed or, MADAME President, by GENDER. Each American is being judged now by ability or by character instead in OUR proud time?

It IS good, Madame President. It IS the enduring aspiration of America, fellow Senators. So, Let's praise it!

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Message to the Senate of the State of Kansas:

Enclosed herewith is Executive Reorganization Order No. 42 and the Governor's Message for that ERO for your information.

Governor's Message
Executive Reorganization No. 42
January 18, 2013

Pursuant to Article 1, Section 6(b) of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I am transmitting this day Executive Reorganization Order No. 42 to both houses of the Kansas Legislature. Simultaneously with this Order, I am transmitting the accompanying Governor's Message.

The post audit report regarding the Juvenile Justice Authority released this summer highlighted how the decades-old social services approach taken by policy makers and previous administrations failed to provide the safety and security that our juvenile offenders require and deserve. The audit clearly shows that juvenile offenders must be served by a professional corrections agency.

This re-organization calls for the facilities and programs administered by the Juvenile Justice Authority to be transferred to the Department of Corrections. Moving JJA to KDOC will increase the emphasis on safety while continuing to provide programs proven to get our youth back on the right path. It will also provide opportunities to strengthen public safety, build upon successes realized through a minimal administrative consolidation of functions two years ago, and provide for the unique needs of these two populations.

While there are some distinct differences in program needs and management strategies for juveniles, and we will continue the rehabilitation of the juvenile population, it is imperative that basic safety and security practices are routinely employed in correctional environments. Many steps have recently been taken to improve the quality of juvenile corrections and a consolidation will make both agencies stronger and better equipped to provide comprehensive corrections in the State of Kansas.

With a broader organizational base, we can focus on the work necessary to make the Kansas juvenile justice system a nationally-recognized model—one that promotes public safety through sound correctional practices and reduces recidivism through the provision of well researched, evidence-based services. The youth, families, staff, and citizens of the State of Kansas deserve nothing less.

My administration looks forward to working with the Kansas Legislature on this longer term, structural solution to the issues at JJA.

Section 1. (a) The Juvenile Justice Authority created by K.S.A. 75-7001, and amendments thereto, is hereby abolished.

(b) Except as otherwise provided by this order, all of the jurisdiction, powers, functions and duties of the juvenile justice authority and the commissioner of juvenile justice are hereby transferred to and conferred and imposed upon the department of corrections and the secretary of corrections.

(c) Except as otherwise provided by this order, the department of corrections and the secretary of corrections shall be the successor in every way to the jurisdiction, powers, duties and functions of the juvenile justice authority and the commissioner of juvenile justice in which the same were vested prior to the effective date of this order. Every act performed in the exercise of such jurisdiction, powers, duties and functions by or under the authority of the department of corrections and the secretary of corrections shall be deemed to have the same force and effect as if performed by the juvenile justice authority or the commissioner of juvenile justice, respectively, in which such jurisdiction, powers, duties and functions were vested prior to the effective date of this order.

(d) Except as otherwise provided by this order, whenever the juvenile justice authority, or words of like effect, is referred to or designated by a statute, contract or other document, such reference or designation shall be deemed to apply to the department of corrections.

(e) Except as otherwise provided by this order, whenever the commissioner of juvenile justice, or words of like effect, is referred to or designated by a statute, contract or other document, such reference or designation shall be deemed to apply to the secretary of corrections.

(f) All rules and regulations, internal management policies and procedures (IMPP), facility orders and post orders of the juvenile justice authority which relate to the functions transferred by this order and which are in effect on the effective date of this order shall continue to be effective and shall be deemed to be rules and regulations, internal management policies and procedures (IMPP), facility orders and post orders of the department of corrections until revised, amended, revoked, or nullified pursuant to law.

(g) All orders and directives of the juvenile justice authority or the commissioner of juvenile justice in existence on the effective date of this order shall continue to be effective and shall be deemed to be orders and directives of the department of corrections or secretary of corrections until revised, amended or nullified pursuant to law.

(h) On the effective date of this order, the department of corrections shall succeed to whatever right, title or interest the juvenile justice authority has acquired in any real property in this state, and the department of corrections shall hold the same for and in the name of the state of Kansas. On and after the effective date of this order, whenever any statute, contract, deed or other document concerns the power or authority of the juvenile justice authority or the commissioner of juvenile justice to acquire, hold or dispose of real property or any interest therein, the department of corrections shall succeed to such power or authority.

(i) The department of corrections and the secretary of corrections shall be continuations of the juvenile justice authority and the commissioner of juvenile justice.

Section 2. (a) All officers and employees in the juvenile justice authority who, immediately prior to the effective date of this order, are engaged in the exercise and performance of the powers, duties, and functions transferred by this order, are hereby transferred to the department of corrections unless the secretary of corrections determines that some officers or employees are not performing necessary services. All classified employees so transferred shall retain their status as classified employees. Thereafter, the secretary of corrections may convert vacant classified positions to positions in the unclassified service under the Kansas civil service act.

(b) Officers and employees in the juvenile justice authority transferred by this order shall retain all retirement benefits and leave balances and rights which had accrued or vested prior to the date of transfer. The service of each such employee so transferred shall be deemed to have been continuous. Any subsequent transfers, layoffs, or abolition of classified service positions under the Kansas civil service act shall be made in accordance with the civil service laws and any rules and regulations adopted thereunder. Nothing in this order shall affect the classified status of any transferred person employed by the juvenile justice authority prior to the date of transfer.

(c) The Memorandum of Agreement between the Kansas Juvenile Justice Authority and Kansas Department of Administration and Teamsters Union Local #696 that is in existence on the effective date of this order shall continue to be effective until revised, amended or nullified pursuant to the terms of the Memorandum of Agreement.

(d) The Memorandum of Agreement between the State of Kansas and the Kansas Organization of State Employees that is in existence on the effective date of this order shall continue to be effective until revised, amended or nullified pursuant to the terms of the Memorandum of Agreement.

Section 3. (a) When any conflict arises as to the disposition of any power, function or duty or the unexpended balance of any appropriation as a result of any abolition, transfer, attachment or change made by or under authority of this order, such conflict shall be resolved by the governor, whose decision shall be final.

(b) The department of corrections shall succeed to all property and records which were used for or pertain to the performance of the powers, duties and functions transferred to the department of corrections from the juvenile justice authority. Any conflict as to the proper disposition of property or records arising under this section, and resulting from the transfer or attachment of any state agency, or all or part of the powers, duties and functions thereof, shall be determined by the governor, whose decision shall be final.

Section 4. (a) The department of corrections shall have the legal custody of all records, memoranda, writings, entries, prints, representations or combinations thereof of any act, transaction, occurrence or event of the juvenile justice authority and any agency or office transferred thereto under previous law.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with thirty-six senators present.
Senators Fitzgerald, Haley, Longbine and Olson were excused.
Invocation by Father Don Davidson:

The prophet Micah exhorts us “To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God,” and so with that advice we begin another week. As we move forward we face the unknown difficulties. We humans, no matter of our intentions, cannot always see what is to come or have plans at the ready. We must rely on you, Oh Lord, our faith gives us sight and our humility gives us the chance to perceive the wonder of your work and the mystery of your love. Help us to continue to walk in your Name. Amen.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 1607—

By Senators Holland, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Hawk, Hensley, Kelly and Pettey

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION urging congress to pass an amendment to the United States constitution to overturn the holding in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission.

WHEREAS, The protections afforded by the first amendment to the United States constitution to the people of our nation are fundamental to our democracy; and

WHEREAS, The founders of the republic and the signers of the United States constitution clearly and emphatically intended freedom of speech to mean freedom to communicate with and by natural persons either directly or through the free press; and

WHEREAS, Such freedoms were never intended by the founders to apply to corporations, which have special advantages not enjoyed by natural persons, such as limited liability, perpetual life and favorable treatment of the accumulation and distribution of assets, that allow them to spend prodigious sums on campaign messages that have little or no correlation with the beliefs held by natural persons; and

WHEREAS, Free and fair elections are essential to democracy and effective self-governance; and

WHEREAS, The United States Supreme Court ruled on January 21, 2010, in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission, that corporations have the same first amendment rights as naturally born persons, and that corporations can spend unlimited amounts of money on elections; and

WHEREAS, There is an unequal playing field that allows corporations to spend without limit to influence elections, candidate selection and policy decisions and to sway votes; and

WHEREAS, Corporations own most of America's mass media and use that media as a megaphone to loudly express such corporations' political agenda and to convince the citizens of this country that the citizen's role is that of consumer, rather than a sovereign citizen with rights and responsibilities within our democracy, and this forces citizens to toil to discern the truth behind headlines and election campaigning; and

WHEREAS, Article V of the United States constitution empowers and obligates the people and states of the United States of America to use the constitutional amendment process to correct those egregiously wrong decisions of the United States Supreme Court that go to the heart of our democracy and republican form of self-government; and

WHEREAS, The United States Supreme Court is misguided in principle, and wrong on the law, because in a democracy the people rule: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas, the House of Representatives concurring therein: That congress is hereby urged to immediately transmit to the several states for ratification an amendment to the United States constitution that would effectively overturn the holding in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission thereby returning our democracy, our elections and our communities to the people, and thus reclaiming our sovereign right to self-governance; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to each member of the Kansas Congressional Delegation.

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1706—

A RESOLUTION recognizing National Catholic Schools Week.

WHEREAS, The week of January 27, 2013, to February 2, 2013, has been designated as National Catholic Schools Week by the National Catholic Educational Association and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops; and

WHEREAS, The theme for the National Catholic Schools Week 2013 is "Catholic Schools Raise the Standards." The 2013 theme supports the recent launch of the National Standards and Benchmarks for Effective Catholic Elementary and Secondary Schools, that ensures the effective operation and responsible governance of Catholic schools across the country, thus promoting high academic standards and Catholic identity; and

WHEREAS, Catholic schools in the United States are internationally acclaimed for their academic excellence and provide students with more than an exceptional scholastic education; and

WHEREAS, Catholic schools instill a broad, values-added education emphasizing the lifelong development of moral, intellectual and social values in young people in the United States; and

WHEREAS, Catholic schools produce students strongly dedicated to their faith, values, families and communities by providing an intellectually stimulating environment rich in spiritual character and moral development; and

WHEREAS, Catholic schools are committed to community service, producing graduates who hold "helping others" as one of their core values; and

WHEREAS, In the 1972 pastoral message concerning Catholic education, the National Conference of Catholic Bishops stated, "Education is one of the most important ways by which the Church fulfills its commitment to the dignity of the person and building of community. Community is central to education ministry, both as a necessary condition and an ardently desired goal. The educational efforts of the Church, therefore, must be directed to forming persons-in-community; for the education of the individual Christian is important not only to his solitary destiny, but also the destinies of the many communities in which he lives."; and

WHEREAS, There are 45 Catholic schools of the Archdiocese of Kansas City in Kansas, with a total enrollment of 15,234 students and 7 Catholic schools of the Diocese of Dodge City, Kansas, with a total enrollment of 989 students. There are 16 Catholic schools of the Diocese of Salina, Kansas, with a total enrollment of 2,798 students and 38 Catholic schools of the Diocese of Wichita, Kansas, with a total enrollment of 10,671 students; and

WHEREAS, There are a total of 90 elementary schools and 16 high schools within the Kansas Catholic schools system, totaling 29,692 enrolled students; and

WHEREAS, Examples of activities undertaken by Kansas Catholic schools during National Catholic Schools Week include writing letters to nursing homes or homeless ministries, praying each class hour and baking cookies for parents who drop off their children at school each morning; and

WHEREAS, Eight Catholic elementary schools and one Catholic high school in Kansas received the 2012 Kansas Governor's Achievement Award. To receive such a prestigious award, a school must have achieved the Standard of Excellence in both reading and mathematics and been among the top 5% of schools in both reading and mathematics in 2012: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we support the continued dedication of Catholic schools across Kansas toward academic excellence and the key role Catholic schools play in promoting and ensuring a brighter, stronger future for students; and

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 39; Nays 1; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Yeas: Abrams, Apple, Arpke, Bowers, Bruce, Denning, Donovan, Emler, Faust-Goudeau, Fitzgerald, Francisco, Hawk, Hensley, Holland, Holmes, Kelly, Kerschen, King, Knox, LaTurner, Longbine, Love, Lynn, Masterson, McGinn, Melcher, O'Donnell, Olson, Ostmeyer, Petersen, Pettey, Pilcher-Cook, Powell, Pyle, V. Schmidt, Smith, Tyson, Wagle, Wolf.

Nays: Haley.

The bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: I vote no on SB 18. A temporary restraining order (or "TRO") is often the only means by which a party can prevent real, or perceived, "irreparable harm." Going to court every two weeks to show cause and extend a TRO can create economic hardship for a working party to hire counsel and keep up the review process on the merits of their claim for injunctive relief. I would support a longer, definitive time other than fourteen (14) days but not indefinite but two (2) weeks is too often so I vote "no." — DAVID HALEY

SB 20, AN ACT concerning civil procedure; relating to docket fees and costs; poverty affidavit; amending K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 60-2001 and repealing the existing section, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 39; Nays 1; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Yeas: Abrams, Apple, Arpke, Bowers, Bruce, Denning, Donovan, Emler, Faust-Goudeau, Fitzgerald, Francisco, Hawk, Hensley, Holland, Holmes, Kelly, Kerschen, King, Knox, LaTurner, Longbine, Love, Lynn, Masterson, McGinn, Melcher, O'Donnell, Olson, Ostmeyer, Petersen, Pettey, Pilcher-Cook, Powell, Pyle, V. Schmidt, Smith, Tyson, Wagle, Wolf.

Nays: Haley.

The bill passed.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: I vote no on SB 20. Allowing a preliminary ruling, as to a party's ability to afford a docket fee and/or costs to an action, by the same court later hearing and ruling on the merits of a matter may prejudice the same court on essentially the same matter; the court having to independently weigh and rule both the financial status and on the veracity of the moving party. — DAVID HALEY

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Committee on Federal and State Affairs recommends SB 28 be passed and, because the committee is of the opinion that the bill is of a noncontroversial nature, be placed on the consent calendar.

Also, SB 21 be amended on page 2, by striking all in lines 10 through 43;

By striking all on pages 3 through 5;

On page 6, by striking all in lines 1 through 11;

On page 23, in line 15 by striking "21-5111,";

On page 1, in the title, in line 4 by striking "21-5111,"

And by renumbering sections accordingly; and the bill be passed as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: The current system of selecting judges and justices is not broken. Could it be improved? Probably. Is amending the Kansas Constitution pursuant to SCR 1601 the best solution? Absolutely not. SCR 1601, if passed, will subject Kansas to pure, unadulterated Washington D.C. style politics when all future appellate judges are chosen. I believe the voters of Kansas deserve better. Madam President, I vote no. – JAY EMLER

Senator Kelly requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Emler on SCR 1601.

Madam President: I vote no on SCR 1601. Any change made to the constitution should be held in a General Election, not a Primary Election. According to the Kansas Secretary of State's website, voter turnout is consistently higher during general elections than primary. For example, in 2012, the general election had a 66.8% turnout while the primary election had a 23.2% turnout. That's a difference of 43.6%.

Furthermore, the people of Kansas made it clear in the late 1950s that they prefer an independent, non-partisan judiciary branch of government. They voted in Article 3 of the Kansas Constitution after witnessing the most blatant example of a politicized judicial system – Governor Hall's "triple play."

The judiciary branch is the last remaining branch of government free from Governor Brownback's control. Voting for SCR 1601 would give the Governor control of all three branches of government.

The people of Kansas deserve a system of checks and balances. It is not necessary to repeat Kansas history and politicize the judicial system. I do not agree with replacing a non-partisan system that was voted into place by the people of Kansas and has worked well for the past 55 years. – ANTHONY HENSLEY

Senators Francisco, Kelly and Pettey request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hensley on SCR 1601.

Madam President: Sadly, SCR 1601 is but a politically-motivated solution in search of a problem. I vote "No". – TOM HOLLAND

SB 8, AN ACT concerning judicial appointments; creating the Kansas commission on judicial nominations; relating to senate confirmation; amending K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 75-4319 and repealing the existing section.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 28; Nays 11; Present and Passing 1; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Yeas: Abrams, Apple, Arpke, Bowers, Bruce, Denning, Donovan, Fitzgerald, Holmes, Kerschen, King, Knox, LaTurner, Longbine, Love, Lynn, Masterson, Melcher, O'Donnell, Olson, Ostmeyer, Petersen, Pilcher-Cook, Powell, Pyle, Smith, Tyson, Wagle.

Nays: Emler, Faust-Goudeau, Haley, Hawk, Hensley, Holland, Kelly, McGinn, Pettey, V. Schmidt, Wolf.

Present and Passing: Francisco.

The bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: SB 8 is a companion to SCR 1601. Since SCR 1601 is not in the best interests of the people of this great state, SB 8 is unnecessary. Madam President, I vote no. – JAY EMLER

Senator Kelly requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Emler on SB 8.

Invocation by Father Don Davidson:

Heavenly Father I wish to give thanks for our soles that give us comfort and stability. With all the hustle of this place, they may indeed become worn and maybe work is needed to keep them in shape. The worst of heels cannot take the place of a faithful sole. Dear Lord help us to be cobbled together in your name and please bless our shoes and the people who wear them. Amen

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 1608—
By Committee on Education

A PROPOSITION to amend section 6 of article 6 of the constitution of the state of Kansas; relating to school finance.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Section 6 of article 6 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"§ 6. Finance. (a) The legislature may levy a permanent tax for the use and benefit of state institutions of higher education and apportion among and appropriate the same to the several institutions, which levy, apportionment and appropriation shall continue until changed by statute. Further appropriation and other provision for finance of institutions of higher education may be made by the legislature.

(b) The legislature shall make suitable provision for finance of the educational interests of the state. The financing of the educational interests of the state is exclusively a legislative power under article 2 of the constitution of the state of Kansas and as such shall be established solely by the legislature.

(c) No tuition shall be charged for attendance at any public school to pupils required by law to attend such school, except such fees or supplemental charges as may be authorized by law. The legislature may authorize the state board of regents to establish tuition, fees and charges at institutions under its supervision.

(~~e~~) (d) No religious sect or sects shall control any part of the public educational funds."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to expressly state that the financing of the educational interests of this state is exclusively a legislative power and is to be determined solely by the legislature.

"A vote for this proposition would make financing of the educational interests of this state determined solely by the legislature.

"A vote against this proposition would retain the current provision in the Kansas constitution, which has been interpreted by the Kansas Supreme court as empowering that court to order the Kansas legislature to fund public schools in whatever amounts that the Kansas Supreme court may determine necessary."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the election in August in the year 2014 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

Committee on Assessment and Taxation recommends SB 79 be amended on page 3, following line 5, by inserting:

"Sec. 2. K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 79-32,117 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-32,117. (a) The Kansas adjusted gross income of an individual means such individual's federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year, with the modifications specified in this section.

(b) There shall be added to federal adjusted gross income:

(i) Interest income less any related expenses directly incurred in the purchase of state or political subdivision obligations, to the extent that the same is not included in federal adjusted gross income, on obligations of any state or political subdivision thereof, but to the extent that interest income on obligations of this state or a political subdivision thereof issued prior to January 1, 1988, is specifically exempt from income tax under the laws of this state authorizing the issuance of such obligations, it shall be excluded from computation of Kansas adjusted gross income whether or not included in federal adjusted gross income. Interest income on obligations of this state or a political subdivision thereof issued after December 31, 1987, shall be excluded from computation of Kansas adjusted gross income whether or not included in federal adjusted gross income.

(ii) Taxes on or measured by income or fees or payments in lieu of income taxes imposed by this state or any other taxing jurisdiction to the extent deductible in determining federal adjusted gross income and not credited against federal income tax. (iii) The federal net operating loss deduction.

(iv) Federal income tax refunds received by the taxpayer if the deduction of the taxes being refunded resulted in a tax benefit for Kansas income tax purposes during a prior taxable year. Such refunds shall be included in income in the year actually received regardless of the method of accounting used by the taxpayer. For purposes hereof, a tax benefit shall be deemed to have resulted if the amount of the tax had been deducted in determining income subject to a Kansas income tax for a prior year regardless of the rate of taxation applied in such prior year to the Kansas taxable income, but only that portion of the refund shall be included as bears the same proportion to the total refund received as the federal taxes deducted in the year to which such refund is attributable bears to the total federal income taxes paid for such year. For purposes of the foregoing sentence, federal taxes shall be considered to have been deducted only to the extent such deduction does not reduce Kansas taxable income below zero.

(v) The amount of any depreciation deduction or business expense deduction claimed on the taxpayer's federal income tax return for any capital expenditure in making any building or facility accessible to the handicapped, for which expenditure the taxpayer claimed the credit allowed by K.S.A. 79-32,177, and amendments thereto.

(ix) The amount of any ad valorem taxes and assessments paid and the amount of any costs incurred for habitat management or construction and maintenance of improvements on real property, claimed for deduction in determining federal adjusted gross income, to the extent the same is claimed as the basis for any credit allowed pursuant to K.S.A. 79-32,203, and amendments thereto.

(x) Amounts received as nonqualified withdrawals, as defined by K.S.A. 2012

Supp. 75-643, and amendments thereto, if, at the time of contribution to a family postsecondary education savings account, such amounts were subtracted from the federal adjusted gross income pursuant to paragraph (xv) of subsection (c) of K.S.A. 79-32,117, and amendments thereto, or if such amounts are not already included in the federal adjusted gross income.

(xi) The amount of any contribution made to the same extent the same is claimed as the basis for the credit allowed pursuant to K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 74-50,154, and amendments thereto.

(xii) For taxable years commencing after December 31, 2004, amounts received as withdrawals not in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 74-50,204, and amendments thereto, if, at the time of contribution to an individual development account, such amounts were subtracted from the federal adjusted gross income pursuant to paragraph (xiii) of subsection (c), or if such amounts are not already included in the federal adjusted gross income.

EIGHTEENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, February 7, 2013, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff King.

The roll was called with thirty-eight senators present.

Senators Apple and Powell were excused.

Invocation by Father Don Davidson:

Heavenly Father, we your children are called upon many times in life to be new at something. It might be the first day of school, or that first date. It might be the first day of married life or as a parent. It could be the first day we try a new skill or a new sport or try as we might to figure out some new easy whiz-bang of technology.

Today we give thanks for the faithful and the fearless that have joined this body of legislators this year. We thank you for their willingness to serve and their personal desire to make their state and nation a wonderful place to live. May your grace be with them always.

We also celebrate the life of Margaret Ann Apple, the mother of our Senator Apple. May she rest this day in your arms. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Jeff King.

Committee on Financial Institutions and Insurance introduced the following Senate resolution, which was read:

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1710—

A RESOLUTION encouraging the state of Kansas to enter into a state partnership health insurance exchange.

WHEREAS, The patient protection and affordable care act (public law 111-148), as amended by the federal health care and education reconciliation act of 2010 provided that states have the option to establish their own health insurance exchange; and

WHEREAS, The time for the state of Kansas to establish its own health insurance exchange pursuant to the patient protection and affordable care act (public law 111-148), as amended by the federal health care and education reconciliation act of 2010 has passed; and

WHEREAS, If the state of Kansas wishes to have any control over any health care exchange which may sell health insurance policies in this state, then the state of Kansas should seriously consider entering into a state partnership health insurance exchange with the federal department of health and human services; and

WHEREAS, Entry into a state partnership health insurance exchange with the federal department of health and human services would be highly beneficial to the people of this state because the department of insurance then could continue to approve insurance rates, as well as approve policies offered on the exchange, and assist Kansas consumers with their complaints; and

WHEREAS, The time period in which the state of Kansas can enter into a state partnership health insurance exchange is quite short and ends on February 15, 2013: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we encourage the commissioner of insurance to take all steps necessary to enter into a state partnership health insurance exchange with the federal department of health and human services.

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send enrolled copies of this resolution to Governor Sam Brownback; Sandy Praeger, Commissioner of Insurance; and Kathleen Sebelius, Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services.

Committee on Federal and State Affairs introduced the following Senate resolution, which was read:

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1711—

A RESOLUTION opposing the black-footed ferret programmatic safe harbor agreement and environmental assessment.

WHEREAS, The United States fish and wildlife service reintroduced black-footed ferrets into Logan county, Kansas as part of a recovery effort in December 2007; and

WHEREAS, The reintroduction has been expensive, unsuccessful and wrought with problems ranging from destructive prairie dog infestations to monetary losses for Kansas landowners; and

WHEREAS, The U.S. fish and wildlife service has drafted a black-footed ferret programmatic safe harbor agreement and an environmental assessment to encourage non-federal landowners to voluntarily allow reintroduction of black-footed ferrets on their properties; and

WHEREAS, The safe harbor agreement and environmental assessment is insufficient and misleading. It was developed rashly and without adequate information; and

WHEREAS, No environmental impact statement was conducted despite the fact that it is required when major federal action significantly impacts the human environment; and

WHEREAS, The U.S. fish and wildlife service did not coordinate with county or local governments in the development of the safe harbor agreement; and

WHEREAS, The safe harbor agreement included no reference or discussion of conflicts with local government plans, even though Logan county has a plan opposing the ferret introduction; and

WHEREAS, The safe harbor agreement failed to mention the impact to non-enrolled, adjacent landowners in the present and the future, despite the fact that there is evidence that the introduction of black-footed ferrets in Logan county has detrimentally affected neighboring landowners; and

WHEREAS, There has been a complete disregard for the risk to the health and safety of Kansans because of plague outbreaks. The plague is now present in all 12 states where black-footed ferrets have been introduced: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we have an obligation and responsibility to represent the interests of the people of this state and promote economic stability, encourage a sound environment and protect the health, safety and welfare of our citizens.

Be it further resolved: That we oppose the black-footed ferret programmatic safe harbor agreement and environmental assessment, request that the U.S. fish and wildlife service exclude Kansas from the territory contained in the safe harbor agreement and request that the U.S. fish and wildlife service refrain from further releases of black-footed ferrets in Kansas.

Be it further resolved: That should the U.S. fish and wildlife service move forward with the safe harbor agreement in Kansas against the wishes of the Senate of the State of Kansas, we strongly encourage the U.S. fish and wildlife service to use a formal rule-making process to stipulate protection of all private landowners in areas where releases of the black-footed ferret might occur, rather than utilize the informal safe harbor agreement.

Be it further resolved: That should the U.S. fish and wildlife service move forward with the safe harbor agreement in Kansas against the wishes of the Senate of the State of Kansas, we strongly encourage the U.S. fish and wildlife service to conduct an environmental impact statement before moving forward.

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to the administrator of the U.S. fish and wildlife service; the governors, state legislatures and congressional delegations of Arizona, Colorado, Montana, New Mexico, South Dakota, Utah and Wyoming; the Kansas congressional delegation; the U.S. secretary of agriculture; and the Kansas secretary of agriculture.

NINETEENTH DAY

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff King.
The roll was called with thirty-three senators present.
Senators Apple, Donovan, Fitzgerald, Longbine, Masterson, Olson and Pettey were excused.

Invocation by Father Don Davidson:

On this Friday morning we thank you Lord for the mistakes we make that make us human. The slips of the tongue which cause our faces to become red; the wrong word said, that confirms our humanity; the bloopers that we wish we could forget and maybe the hat we never should have worn. We thank you Lord for our ability to laugh with each other even at times when we are less than delighted with our own behavior. All of these miss-steps in their own way give us moments of humility that touches our inner selves and gives us a chance to let go of the seriousness and see the beauty. We are all your children Lord, thank you for the moments when the relationship shines through. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Jeff King.

We have the most wonderful vision Lord when it comes to what happened yesterday, but our sight is never clear about what may happen tomorrow. On this traditional “fat” Tuesday for many Christians, let us give pause to the wonder of life and the mystery of your continuing creation.

Each day our world changes, sometimes in huge ways other times in ways almost invisible to our eyes yet change it does. We know that we cannot predict every happenstance that might possibly occur, for that knowledge is known only by you who live without the boundary of time.

Help us Lord to respect the decisions of the past, to carefully make the choices of the day and prepare for whatever tomorrow may bring.

In your holy name we pray. Amen

Invocation by Father Don Davidson:

Today Lord is Ash Wednesday for many Christians around the world. The ashes are a reminder of our mortality that each of us have been given a number of days to live and accomplish the works you have called us to do. No matter our individual faith tradition, we give you thanks for our lives, our families and our loved ones. We give you thanks for the land in which we live and the freedoms we enjoy; and with great hope we pray that in breathing the air of each new day, we may serve and love our brothers and sisters on earth and our forebearers in the paradise of heaven. With your help we pray. Amen

Madame President: Reluctantly, I vote “No” on SB 92.

There is no need for this bill; and none has been articulated either in the Senate Judiciary Committee or here on the Senate floor. Like adding misdemeanors to a Kansas Racketeering (“R.I.C.O.”) bill that caused me to “Pass” on final action last week. I ask now, what good does checking a box off showing the existence of pornographic materials of someone already arrested for a related crime? And why does this bill have so high of (upwards of $700,000.) a fiscal note? Where is the transparency promised by your new “Pay As You Go” (Pay-Go) rule if all we really do is inflate legislation with sensitive “act like you're getting tough on crime language?”

Let's keep it real, Madame President. – DAVID HALEY

Journal of the Senate

TWENTY-THIRD DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, February 14, 2013, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with forty senators present.
Invocation by Father Don Davidson:

“God is love and where true love is, God himself is there.” By a mysterious tradition, today our thoughts turn to the wonder of human love and relationships. Those of us who have made vows of lasting commitment; normally make sure that we find an opportunity to send a gift, a card, or song to our love. We thank you Lord for the example of marriages lasting decades and we know in our heart that nothing so rare and wonderful is possible without your presence. Today we give thanks for love, that human mystery that makes life so much more interesting, wonderful if not always unpredictable. We give thanks for those we love and we pray that while we are absent from them, we may love them even more...in your name. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Susan Wagle.

Journal of the Senate

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY

Wednesday, February 20, 2013, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with forty senators present.
Invocation by Father Don Davidson:

How do we know when making a decision if the answer should be yes or no? We learn and read and grow, we research and chat and refine. Help us O Lord not to leave you out of those critical moments, help us O Lord to pray. Give us the patience to listen for your response and know that you are God. Then, Lord, give us your peace once the decision is made.

In your holy name. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Susan Wagle.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: The Technical Education Authority was created and charged with creating a tiered funding formula for vocational/technical programs within a 3 year timeframe. They have done an outstanding job accomplishing their charge. However, like so many other government programs, it has taken on a life of its own and now seeks to perpetuate itself for another three years. It should be no surprise in three years if this entity again asks for another 3 year extension to the sunset, or even a complete repeal of the sunset. At this point, the Board of Regents is completely capable of taking on any additional development of technical program development without a separate commission. I vote "No" on SB 22. —MITCH HOLMES

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: I vote "no" on SB 141. In a world, in a country, that longs for less governmental intrusion, it is ironic to me that elected leadership imposes its will on the most private and personal of decisions; a decision which should be left to the woman and her physician...alone. Whatever motivation brings a woman to make crucial personal reproductive health decisions should be left as undisturbed as possible. My constituents did not elect me to tell them what to do with their bodies. And frankly, Madam President, it always amazes me when it's obvious that other elected members think that theirs did vote for them in order to be told how to conduct their personal lives. This bill is only intended as a set up to harass legal providers of safe abortion services which is why it is not about “gender selection”; it is about damages for lawsuit both criminal and civil.—DAVID HALEY

Madam President: Horrific is the word used during debate to describe sex-selection abortion. Why is it horrific? Is a medical procedure to discard a blob of tissue horrific? NO! It is horrific because this is not a sufficient reason to kill a human being. Horrific describes the killing of a baby, for any reason. The vote today reflects the belief that abortion is indeed horrific. I vote Aye on SB 141 because abortion, for any reason, is horrific because abortion kills a human being; abortion kills an innocent baby.—FORREST KNOX

Senators Abrams, Arpke, Fitzgerald, Lynn, Olson and Smith request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Knox on SB 141.

SB 163, AN ACT concerning health insurance; relating to mandate lite health benefits plans; commissions; specially designed policies, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 38; Nays 1; Present and Passing 1; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Yeas: Abrams, Apple, Arpke, Bowers, Bruce, Denning, Donovan, Emler, Faust-Goudeau, Fitzgerald, Hawk, Hensley, Holland, Holmes, Kelly, Kerschen, King, Knox, LaTurner, Longbine, Love, Lynn, Masterson, McGinn, Melcher, O'Donnell, Olson, Ostmeyer, Petersen, Pettey, Pilcher-Cook, Powell, Pyle, V. Schmidt, Smith, Tyson, Wagle, Wolf.

Nays: Haley.

Present and Passing: Francisco.

The bill passed.

SR 1711, opposing the black-footed ferret programmatic safe harbor agreement and environmental assessment, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 31; Nays 9; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Yeas: Abrams, Apple, Arpke, Bowers, Bruce, Denning, Donovan, Faust-Goudeau, Fitzgerald, Holmes, Kerschen, King, Knox, LaTurner, Longbine, Love, Lynn, Masterson, Melcher, O'Donnell, Olson, Ostmeyer, Petersen, Pettey, Pilcher-Cook, Powell, Pyle, Smith, Tyson, Wagle, Wolf.

Nays: Emler, Francisco, Haley, Hawk, Hensley, Holland, Kelly, McGinn, V. Schmidt.

The resolution was adopted, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: I vote “No” on SR 1711 and I would like to explain my vote. I am in agreement with some of the recommendations made in the resolution. I would like to see expansion of the limits of the size of the management zone and more informed discussion about the habitat and activity of prairie dogs. However I am very concerned that we are suggesting Kansas be excluded from the territory contained in the programmatic safe harbor agreement for the black-footed ferret. The exclusion would reduce conservation benefits for Kansas and regulatory protection for Kansans and fail to address the important issues of balancing private property rights in this state.—MARCI FRANCISCO

Senator Hawk requests the record to show he concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Francisco on SR 1711.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: I vote no on SCR 1608. The commitment to education being a fundamental right was placed in the Kansas constitution at the beginning of our statehood. It was amended in 1966 by the people of Kansas to read "The legislature shall make suitable provision for finance of the education interest of the state." Since 1966, the Kansas system has worked extremely well. Measures of educational attainment have steadily increased. Kansas ranks among the top states in education not just in our region but nationally. While the cost of providing this system has increased, the level of funding from the state has fallen behind. The Kansas Constitution currently gives sole power to the Legislature to appropriate money through Article 2, Section 24. The Legislature is certainly able to make decisions about whether to fully fund the current school finance formula and each year, this body exercises that power. However, when the Legislature fails to provide for a suitable education for Kansas children, the people of Kansas must have an avenue for relief. That relief is the Kansas court system. That is why I vote no.—ANTHONY HENSLEY

Senators Francisco, Haley, Hawk, Holland, Pettey and Kelly request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hensley on SCR 1608.

Madam President: The people have constitutionally charged the Kansas legislature to adequately fund K-12 education and likewise seek to hold the legislature accountable in carrying out that duty. As a duly-elected Kansas official, I fully embrace this and all other constitutionally charged duties. I vote "no" on SCR 1608.—TOM HOLLAND

Senators Kelly, Pettey, Hawk, Francisco and Haley request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Holland on SCR 1608.

Madam President: I vote NO on SCR 1608. I do not believe that is it necessary to add the statement that financing the educational interests of this state is exclusively a legislative power because the legislature has the exclusive power to make appropriations for education and everything else. I object to the explanatory statement that is to be printed on the ballot. Both a vote for and a vote against this amendment would retain the current provision in the constitution that "The legislature shall make suitable provision for finance of the educational interests of the state" that has been interpreted by the Kansas Supreme Court. The court has made decisions to ask the legislature to fund education in amounts that the legislature has determined are necessary. I voted to increase funding for education in 2005 and regret that the legislature has not lived up to its promises to continue to make adequate appropriations for suitable funding for education.—MARCI FRANCISCO

Senators Haley and Holland request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Francisco on SCR 1608.

Invocation by Father Don Davidson:

Snow days bring various reactions: children are thrilled with visions of what a day away from school might bring. Parents who work away from home might not know the difference but woe unto the parent that finds a full day with their beloved off-spring without a single thing to do. First elation, followed by realization, then frustration, and capitulation, leading to appreciation when the weather turns warm again. So let us remember those patient parents of today and pray that God will grant them a lively sense of understanding, forgive them for untoward thoughts and bless them tonight with blissful sleep. The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with forty senators present.
Invocation by Father Don Davidson:

Heavenly Father:

There are times in life when it is good that we have been given so many gifts. We are thankful that we human beings have the gift of music, speech and reason. We thank you for our ability to think things through and for our skills at concentration and memory. Yet Lord, remind us not to be so totally convinced of our own abilities that we listen not to those who love or to you. Make us mindful of your presence and hopeful for your guidance.

In your Holy Name we pray. Amen

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Chairman: I fully support the idea that legislators should be tested for use of illegal drugs under the same standards as others affected by this bill. In fact, I voted for the amendment to this bill that does so. As a legislator, I took an oath to uphold the constitutions of the United States and State of Kansas. In Chandler v. Miller, 520 U.S. 305 (1997), the U.S. Supreme Court clearly found unconstitutional a bill identical to this proposed amendment. I will not vote for blatantly unconstitutional legislation like this proposed amendment. To protect the United States Constitution and the trust placed in me by my constituents, I reject this unconstitutional amendment. I vote "No" on SB 149. – JEFF KING

Senators Abrams, Apple, Arpke, Bruce, Denning, Kerschen, Knox, Longbine, Lynn, Melcher, Olson, Pilcher-Cook, Pyle and Tyson request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator King on SB 149.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Chairman: I campaigned on the promise to solve major problems facing Kansans, such as job creation, improvement of education for our children, and the wise use of taxpayer dollars. I arrived in the Senate ready to fulfill this promise, not participate in political theatrics. My constituents and I have grown weary of such antics, and that is why I oppose this amendment. I vote “no” on SB 149. – JEFF MELCHER

Senators Lynn and Holmes request the record to show they concur with the “Explanation of Vote” offered by Senator Melcher.

Mr. Chairman: My constituents sent me to Topeka to protect their hard-earned tax dollars. This amendment would require the expenditure of millions of taxpayer dollars for drug testing and treatment of out-of-state and even foreign officers and owners of any business receiving incentives from the State of Kansas. That's absurd. I don't want dollars meant to help Kansans spent to benefit foreign workers. I promised my constituents that I would spend public funds wisely and only support legislation that truly helps Kansans in need. I intend on keeping that promise. I vote “no” on SB 149. – JEFF KING

Senators Apple and Petersen request the record to show they concur with the “Explanation of Vote” offered by Senator King on SB 149.

Senator Haley offered an amendment on SB 149; a ruling of the Chair was requested as to the germaneness of the amendment. The Chair ruled the amendment was not germane. The Chair was challenged and the rules committee concurred. A voice vote sustained the ruling of the Chair.

Senator McGinn moved SB 149 be rereferred to the Committee on Commerce. The motion failed.

SB 136 be amended by adoption of the committee amendments, be further amended by motion of Senator Petersen, on page 5, in line 24, by striking "served under honorable conditions" and inserting "was honorably discharged" and SB 136 be passed as further amended.

The committee report on SB 199 be adopted and the bill be passed over and retain a place on the calendar.

On motion of Senator Bruce, the Senate adjourned until 9:00 a.m., Thursday, February 28, 2013.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: I VOTE "NO" on SB 142 an act concerning abortion. As previously stated in other anti-womens' choice legislation this Session (one speaking to prohibiting gender selection and authorizing causes of actions and exorbitant damages), safe, legal access to abortion & other reproductive health services should be a right that we extol not constantly try to limit. In my opinion, this bill makes murky the reasonable expectation of full disclosure from physicians/medical professionals to their pregnant patients; even if there is a fetal anomaly found in tests of which, if she were made aware, she may elect to abort due to the condition of the pregnancy. Again, what business does the Legislature have in impairing the right of a woman to be fully informed of her physical condition? Further, why create a right for a legal action against a provider who respects whatever her choice is for WHATEVER her reason(s) are? And who decides that we step into the most private of basic personal consultation(s)? Finally, once again the terminology as "unborn child" being from fertilization to birth is a biological misnomer. Stages of human development, where recognized in the true scientific lexicon of human gestation and not manipulated by political zealotry, define, roughly, fertilization through first several months of pregnancy as the "zygote" phase; the "fetus" phase follows until viability and THEN the loose phrase "unborn child". As an ardent and consistent proponent of a woman's right to choose and respecting ALL adult women, again, I VOTE "NO" on SB 142. – DAVID HALEY

SB 149, AN ACT concerning drug screening; relating to recipients of cash assistance and unemployment benefits; amending K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 39-709e and 44-706 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 31; Nays 8; Present and Passing 1; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Yeas: Abrams, Apple, Arpke, Bowers, Bruce, Denning, Donovan, Fitzgerald, Francisco, Holmes, Kerschen, King, Knox, LaTurner, Longbine, Love, Lynn, Masterson, McGinn, Melcher, O'Donnell, Olson, Ostmeyer, Petersen, Pilcher-Cook, Powell, Pyle, Smith, Tyson, Wagle, Wolf.

Nays: Emler, Faust-Goudeau, Haley, Hawk, Hensley, Kelly, Pettey, V. Schmidt.

Present and Passing: Holland.

The bill passed as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: I Vote “NO” on SB 149. Remembering the revulsion I felt in my younger years when a group called Bruce Hornsby and the Range intoned: “The man in the silk suit hurries by ... catches the poor old lady’s eye ... Just for fun he says ‘Get a job’ ... it shames me to be a part of any elitist entity that, in its own proportional wealth and power, adds needless insult to the injury of poverty. By requiring drug tests on our FELLOW Kansans; those who rely on, through no desire or fault of their own, State assistance to economically survive, you become that spiteful silk-suited callous man rushing headlong through your days; pausing only to inflict additional barbs on the less fortunate. From wherever inside of you emanates the classism and audacity to support the underpinning of this bill ... it is a bad part of your soul. There, but for the grace of God, go you. “That’s just the way it is ... some things will never change ... that’s just the way it is....” Madam President , again I vote “NO”. – DAVID HALEY

Madam President: Like all of you, I came here to try to make a difference; to make things better for people. For me, SB 149 is not based on solid assumptions. I asked one of the top Addiction Counselor professionals in Kansas about this bill. Here is the response: “I think that drug testing (the poor and unemployed) is more political posturing than good public policy. Drug testing is a blunt instrument—ineffective in detecting most alcohol /drug use (except marijuana) because of short detection periods for alcohol and other drugs. TANF applicants are already screened with a validated questionnaire”. As a Senator, I believe if I voted for this bill, instead of helping people, I would be hurting people, breaking up families, disrupting children’s lives, and ultimately taking away hope from those people we should be trying to help. I vote no on SB 149. – TOM HAWK Senators Hensley and Kelly request that the record show they support the “Explanation of Vote” offered by Senator Hawk.

Madam President: While this bill contains an amendment that I proposed to drug test legislators, I vote no because I still believe this bill is unfair and unnecessary. SB 149 is punitive – especially for single mothers who are already working hard and struggling to provide for their children – and unfairly perpetuates the stereotype that poor people are drug addicts. As legislators, we are stewards of taxpayers’ money. If we’re going to mandate drug tests for one group of individuals under reasonable suspicion, we should do it for all Kansans who receive any state funds. In 1983 Justice Rehnquist wrote, “Both tax exemptions and tax-deductibility are a form of subsidy that is administered through the tax system. A tax exemption has much the same effect as a cash grant to the organization of the amount of tax it would have to pay on its income.” However, we did not extend the drug testing under reasonable suspicion to people who financially benefit from state dollars to subsidize their economic development activities. Finally, the Department of Children and Families is already conducting drug screenings and placing individuals in treatment with a favorable success rate. SB 149 is unnecessary. That is why I vote no. — ANTHONY HENSLEY

Senators Kelly and Pettey request the record show they concur with the “Explanation of Vote” offered by Senator Hensley.

Madam President: My understanding of SB 149 is to help poor people who use drugs and receive cash assistance from DCF to receive drug treatment and job training to help them become self-sufficient and remove them from the welfare role to the workplace.

I offered an amendment yesterday that would require the individual who tested positive for drug use to receive a comprehensive clinical evaluation and correct diagnosis that would provide the appropriate treatment and that amendment failed. These individuals are already humiliated and embarrassed enough to ask for help and then to be required to be drug tested too. That is just outrageous! Madam President, scripture says: “Open thy mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy.” Proverbs 31:9. I vote “NO” on SB 149. — OLETHA FAUST-GOUDEAU

Madam President: Regrettably, I Vote “NO” on SB 63 simply because of the unprecedented, and unwarranted, prosecutorial power granted to the Kansas Secretary of State. And it is NOT, Madam President, just because of the incumbent Secretary of State, Secretary Kobach. As a two time statewide nominee for Kansas’ Secretary of State AND as a former Assistant County Prosecutor, I can personally underscore the lack of necessity. The Kansas Attorney General’s office did not support this bill. The Kansas Association of County District Attorney’s does not support it either. As a matter of local control, a county district attorney has the jurisdiction and the temerity to review and prosecute, where necessary, election fraud and/or irregularity. The AG’s office is the back-up, rightfully, for any inaction at the local level. There is no need for miscreants or malfeasance who pose as chief election officers to “go rogue” into local affairs with prosecutorial powers that are not necessary. No other State has granted this authority to their chief election officers and with good reason. We are sad to be the first.—DAVID HALEY

Nays: Haley, Pettey.

The bill passed as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: I Vote "NO" on SB 88. Although raising the fee from $100 to $400 to be paid by defendants convicted of crimes involving child victims seems reasonable, striking the time honored provision of Kansas existing law that a court, looking at the specifics of each case, can waive any part of or all of such payment. We should continue to support the ability of our local courts and judges to review and make these decisions and to maintain this option for swift and accurate justice.—DAVID HALEY

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: In response to the Kansas Supreme Court's decision in O'Brien v. Leegin, 294 Kan.318 (2012), a wide range of businesses and other groups in Kansas are calling on the legislature to reform the Kansas Restraint of Trade Act (KRTA) this session. The Court in O'Brien deviated from a Kansas historical reasonableness standard. Today, there is almost uniform support for adopting the federal "reasonableness standard" as the basis for deciding antitrust cases under the KRTA. New Section 1(b) of this bill states that, except as provided, the KRTA shall be construed in harmony with ruling judicial interpretations of federal antitrust law by the United States Supreme Court has applied landmark case in Standard Oil Co. v. United States (1911), the United State Supreme Court has applied the "Rule of Reason," or reasonableness test, to antitrust cases. Section 1 (B) would require the Kansas Supreme Court to undertake the reasonableness test in regard to cases brought under the KRTA. Because this bill will require Kansas Courts to use this rich history of federal antitrust jurisprudence in deciding upon cases under the KRTA, I vote "Yes" on SB 124. —TERRY BRUCE

Senators LaTurner, Love and Petersen request the record to show they concur with the explanation of vote offered by Senator Bruce.

Madam President: I vote "yes" on SB 124. I would also note that reestablishing the reasonableness standard for deciding anti-trust cases under the Kansas Restraint of Trade Act ensures that contrary to the Kansas Supreme Court's opinion in the O'Brian decision reasonable contracts, arrangements, and policies existing in Kansas remain valid and are not void. I strongly support SB 124 and urge this chamber to pass it. —GARRETT LOVE

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: The Kansas Senate is breaking dangerous new ground by creating a medical advisory board comprised of a majority of political appointees. The goals of this center on adult stem cells, while highly laudable, would best be advanced by ringing together the leading scientific experts in this arena. Instead, we run the risk of impeding the work of the center with political interference. Let's let the science lead the way, not the politics. I vote "no" on SB 199. – LAURA KELLY

Senators Hawk, Hensley, Holland and Pettey request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Kelly on SB 199.

His leadership brought order and justice to a people in great need and his legacy has cemented them through many trials since his time. THIRTY-NINTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, March 13, 2013, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.

The roll was called with forty senators present.

President Wagle introduced, as guest chaplain, The Reverend Jill Jarvis, Unitarian Fellowship of Lawrence who delivered the invocation:

In the spirit of love and compassion, let us pray.

Spirit of Love, Holy One, Source of all Life in which we live and move and have our being,

Let us know that each from our own tradition comes today to lift our spirit in unity.

We hold in loving memory Sally Bottorf, trusted staff member of the Revisor of Statutes and beloved friend, who died yesterday. Her loved ones are in our hearts in their time of grief, as we acknowledge the sadness of our own loss.

Be in our hearts and minds as we come together, seeking blessings on these men and women and on the tasks before them.

Source of all Creation, may your gift of reason help them engage in a responsible search for truth. May your gift of insight fill them with a sense of gratitude for the gifts that are theirs – knowledge, skills, hard won insights. May your gift of compassion inspire them to give back, to reach out, to those who are discouraged or disheartened, the young, the dispossessed, the sick, the elderly.

We pray that the members of this body may be humble and able stewards of this work. That they may be open to one another's ideas and beliefs, and respectful of their differences. That they be a force for replacing fear with insight, and that working together they find a common ground, move forward with a shared purpose, banishing roadblocks of ego and fear, each of them working for the good of all.

Spirit of Life and Love, Bless their efforts with clear insight, their deliberations with wisdom, their decisions with impartiality. May they seek to represent fairly and well those who have given them this sacred task. May their personal faiths give each of them strength to act honestly and well in all matters before them, recognizing their responsibility to both the past and the future.

May wisdom, understanding, and compassion reside in the hearts and minds of all who undertake this work entrusted to them today.

In your name we renew these goals in our hearts. May it be so. Amen

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madame President: I Vote "NO" on HB 2019. As the Ranking Minority Member of our Senate Judiciary Committee for over a dozen years now, I can say, most assuredly, that THIS House Bill (though similar in its mechanics to the failed SCR 1601 attempting to adopt the federal model for Kansas Supreme Court Justices by direct gubernatorial designation), is not the same as THAT measure. With such a quantum leap in the appointment of Appellate Judges, the Senate Judiciary Committee should have at least afforded a hearing. It is difficult to understand what we are accomplishing here with this change to a time honored system of merit selection to what may regrettably become a system of appointment by ideology by some governor's social or fiscal philosophy. Why change; really? It would have been consistent to have heard the proponents and the opponents to this sweeping change before the Senate Judiciary Committee. Since I for one, after all of these years in the Senate, still respect the committee process to reach clear understanding and consensus, it would appear suspicious (and therefor untenable) for me to support the measure. Madam President, again, I Vote "NO" on HB 2019. —DAVID HALEY

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Chairman: I vote "NO" on this fifth provision as it has been explained by the Senator from Brown. This provision allows the onerous, but THEN necessary, sales tax increase (passed in 2010) to expire this year (2013) just as we were assured it would when it was first passed.

I promised my constituents when running for re-election to this seat that I would always vote to LESSEN the tax and fee burden that government imposes on us all.

Today is the first chance I have gotten to keep my word. And I am. Right here. Right now. To do otherwise is precisely what gives "politicians" a bad name.

You know, Mr. Chairman, my county retailers, Wyandotte County retailers, of all sizes from mom-and-pop small businesses (like Anna's BLD and Roger's and Carpet Corner) to "big boxes" (like Nebraska Furniture Mart and Walmart and Cabela's) often LOSE sales to our neighboring state (Missouri).

This is the first of what may be several opportunities to reduce the tax burden on all Kansans. No matter what games or prestidigitational procedural maneuvers that "tax and spend republicans" employ, I intend to keep voting to ease the tax burden on my constituency ... and on all hard-working Kansans. This is THE most regressive of all taxes. — DAVID HALEY

The vote to retain the sixth part prevailed by voice vote.

The entire bill HB 2059 was considered.

there is a change in the lowest marginal income tax rate, the secretary shall establish such ratio by dividing such lowest marginal income tax rate by the baseline lowest marginal income tax rate of 3.5%. In any year in which both the lowest and highest marginal income tax rates change, the secretary shall use the greater ratio established pursuant to this subsection in determining the maximum total amount of deductions. The resulting number, rounded up to the nearest two decimal points, shall be the ratio for each tax year to be established annually by the secretary of revenue. The ratio established by the secretary of revenue under this subsection shall not exceed a maximum of 1.00.

(d) In determining the maximum total amount of deductions from federal adjusted gross income that can be claimed by an individual under this section, an individual shall multiply the total amount of deductions from federal adjusted gross income allowed under this section by the ratio established by the secretary of revenue in subsection (c). EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Chairman: I voted to repeal the sales tax when I was in the House in 2011. That was the promise I made when I ran for the House. When I ran for the Senate it was not an issue. It never came up. Not once. People in my district are concerned about an unfair school finance formula that picks winners and losers. They are worried about a tax plan that picks winners and losers. We are on our way to a zero income tax state. I appreciate the work of the tax chair and tax committee. Ultimately I would like to see our tax policy go to the Fair Tax, which is in the House in the form of HB 2355. It didn't get a hearing and we, in the Senate, did not give it Legislative scrutiny. That is disappointing. Repealing this tax would cause harm to schools. I vote "no." – GREG SMITH

Senator Fitzgerald requests the record to show he concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" on HB 2059 offered by Senator Smith.

Mr. Chairman: I vote "AYE" on the amendment which keeps the promise I made to my constituents to insure the one time sales tax increase to expire (or "sunset") after three (3) years.

Some here may be eager to explore other, potentially reckless tax configurations, that may or may not balance our three-legged revenue stool. But in this economy where every extra penny on the dollar does count (whether the constituent/consumer actually notices or not), it is disingenuous for us to not keep our word on this most regressive of all taxes which disaffects all working Kansans. Keeping our word to the constituents who vote in our districts should be easy.

Removing tax burdens ... seen or unseen ... painful OR painless ... should be the right thing reflected by all of our votes. To me, to do otherwise only makes an oxymoron of the words “integrity” and “politician.” – DAVID HALEY

Senator Francisco requests the record to show she concurs with the “Explanation of Vote” on HB 2059 offered by Senator Haley.

A motion by Senator Faust-Goudeau to amend HB 2059 failed and the following amendment was rejected: on page 4, in line 35, before the period, by inserting "including refunds authorized under the provisions of the food sales tax refund act, and amendments thereto";

On page 31, following line 43, by inserting:

"New Sec. 13. The provisions of sections 13 through 20, K.S.A. 79-3632 and 79-3639a, and amendments thereto, shall be known and may be cited as the food sales tax refund act.

New Sec. 14. As used in the food sales tax refund act unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(a) "Income" means adjusted gross income determined under the Kansas income tax act without regard to the modifications specified by subsections (c)(i), (ii) regarding Kansas public employee retirement system retirement benefits, (vii), (ix) and (xii) of K.S.A. 79-32,117, and amendments thereto.

(b) "Household" means a claimant and all other persons for whom a personal exemption is claimed who together occupy a common residence.

(d) "Head of household" means the person filing a claim under the provisions of this act.

(e) "Disability" means: (1) Inability to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than 12 months, and an individual shall be determined to be under a disability only if the physical or mental impairment or impairments are of such severity that the individual is not only unable to do the individual's previous work but cannot, considering age, education and work experience, engage in any other kind of substantial gainful work which exists in the national economy, regardless of whether such work exists in the immediate area in which the individual lives or whether a specific job vacancy exists for the individual, or whether the individual would be hired if application was made for work. For purposes of the preceding sentence, with respect to any individual, "work which exists in the national economy" means work which exists in significant numbers either in the region where the individual lives or in several regions of the country; for purposes of this subsection, a "physical or mental impairment" is an impairment that results from anatomical, physiological or psychological abnormalities which are demonstrable by medically acceptable clinical and laboratory diagnostic techniques; or

(f) "Blindness" means central visual acuity of $20/200$ or less in the better eye with the use of a correcting lens. New Sec. 15. The right to file a claim for a refund under the food sales tax refund act shall be personal to the claimant and shall not survive such claimant's death, but such right may be exercised on behalf of a claimant by such claimant's legal guardian, conservator or attorney-in-fact. When a claimant dies after having filed a timely claim, the amount of such claim shall be disbursed to another member of the household as determined by the director of taxation. If the claimant was the only member of such claimant's household, the claim may be paid to such claimant's executor or administrator, but if neither is appointed and qualified, the amount of the claim may be paid upon a claim duly made to any heir at law. In the absence of any such claim within two years of the filing of the claim, the amount of the claim shall escheat to the state.

New Sec. 16. (a) (1) A claimant shall be entitled to a refund of retailers' sales taxes paid upon food during the calendar year 2013 and each year thereafter in the amount hereinafter provided. There shall be allowed for a claimant who qualifies for an additional personal exemption amount pursuant to K.S.A. 79-32,121, and amendments thereto, an additional amount of $47 or $94, as the case requires. All such claims shall be paid from the sales tax refund fund upon warrants of the director of accounts and reports pursuant to vouchers approved by the director of taxation or by a person or persons designated by the director.

(2) As an alternative to the procedure described by subsection (a)(1), for all taxable years commencing after December 31, 2012, there shall be allowed as a credit against the tax liability of a resident individual imposed under the Kansas income tax act an amount equal to $47 or $94, as the case requires, for each member of a household. There shall be allowed for a claimant who qualifies for an additional personal exemption amount pursuant to K.S.A. 79-32,121, and amendments thereto, an additional amount of $47 or $94, as the case requires. If the amount of such tax credit exceeds the claimant's income tax liability for such taxable year, such excess amount shall be refunded to the claimant.

(b) A head of household shall make application for refunds for all members of the same household upon a common form provided for the making of joint claims. All claims paid to members of the same household shall be paid as a joint claim by means of a single warrant.

(c) No claim for a refund of taxes under the provisions of the food sales tax refund act shall be paid or allowed unless such claim is actually filed with and in the possession of the department of revenue on or before April 15 of the year next succeeding the year in which such taxes were paid. The director of taxation may: (1) Extend the time for filing any claim under the provisions of this act when good cause exists therefor; or (2) accept a claim filed after the deadline for filing in the case of sickness, absence or disability of the claimant if such claim has been filed within four years of such deadline.

(d) In the case of all tax years commencing after December 31, 2012, the threshold income amounts prescribed in this section and section 14, and amendments thereto, and the amounts of refund of taxes and the amounts of the tax credit, both as prescribed in this section, shall be increased by an amount equal to such threshold amount multiplied by the cost-of-living adjustment determined under section 1(f)(3) of the federal internal revenue code for the calendar year in which the taxable year commences.

New Sec. 17. (a) In administering the food sales tax refund act, the division of taxation shall make available suitable forms with instructions for claimants. Copies of such forms shall also be made available to all county clerks and county treasurers in sufficient numbers to supply claimants residing in their respective counties. It shall be the duty of the county clerk to assist any claimant seeking assistance in the filing of a claim under the provisions of this act. The county treasurer of each county shall mail to each taxpayer with the property tax statement of such taxpayer information on the claiming of a refund of retailers' sales taxes paid upon food, which shall be provided by the secretary of revenue.

(b) The secretary of revenue is hereby authorized to adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the administration of the provisions of this act.

New Sec. 18. Every claimant for the refund of taxes under the provisions of the food sales tax refund act shall supply to the division, in support of a claim, a valid social security number issued by the social security administration for each claimant, every household member and every dependent child, a clear statement as to whether such claimant qualifies for a refund under the provisions of section 14, and amendments thereto, reasonable proof of age or disability, and household income. A claim alleging disability shall be supported by a report of the examining physician of the claimant with a statement or certificate that the applicant has a disability within the meaning of section 14, and amendments thereto.

New Sec. 19. In any case in which it is determined that a claim was filed with fraudulent intent, the claim shall be disallowed, and, if the claim has been paid, the amount paid may be recovered by assessment as income taxes are assessed, and such assessment shall bear interest from the date of payment of the claim, until recovered, at the rate prescribed by subsection (a) of K.S.A. 79-2968, and amendments thereto. The claimant in such case, and any person who assisted in the preparation or filing of such claim, or supplied information upon which such claim was prepared, with fraudulent intent, shall be guilty of a class B misdemeanor.

New Sec. 20. The director of taxation shall examine all claims for refund under the food sales tax refund act, and shall issue final determinations of such claims in the manner prescribed by K.S.A. 79-3226, and amendments thereto, relating to income taxes.";

New Sec. 14. (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a), if the amount of the taxpayer's tax liability is less than \$2,250 in the first year in which the credit is claimed under this section, an amount equal to the amount by which $\frac{1}{4}$ of the credit allowable under this section exceeds such tax liability shall be refunded to the taxpayer and the amount by which such credit exceeds such tax liability less the amount of such refund may be carried over for the next three succeeding taxable years. If the amount of the taxpayer's tax liability is less than \$2,250 in the second year in which the credit is claimed under this section, an amount equal to the amount by which $\frac{1}{3}$ of the amount of the credit carried over from the first taxable year exceeds such tax liability shall be refunded to the taxpayer and the amount by which the amount of the credit carried over from the first taxable year exceeds such tax liability less the amount of such refund may be carried over for the next two succeeding taxable years. The motion failed and the amendment was rejected.

A motion by Senator Francisco to amend HB 2059 failed and the following amendment was rejected on page 31, following line 43, by inserting:

"Sec. 13. K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 79-4501 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-4501. The title of this act shall be the homestead property tax refund act. The purpose of this act shall be to provide ad valorem tax refunds to: (a) Certain persons who are of qualifying age who own or rent their homestead; (b) certain persons who have a disability, who own or rent their homestead; and (c) certain persons other than persons included under the provisions of (a) or (b) who have low incomes and dependent children and own or rent their homestead.

Sec. 14. K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 79-4502 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-4502. As used in this act, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(a) "Income" means the sum of adjusted gross income under the Kansas income tax act, maintenance, support money, cash public assistance and relief, not including any refund granted under this act, the gross amount of any pension or annuity, including all monetary retirement benefits from whatever source derived, including, but not limited to, all payments received under the railroad retirement act, except disability payments, payments received under the federal social security act, except that for determination of what constitutes income such amount shall not exceed 50% of any such social security payments and shall not include any social security payments to a claimant who prior to attaining full retirement age had been receiving disability payments under the federal social security act in an amount not to exceed the amount of such disability payments or 50% of any such social security payments, whichever is greater, all dividends and interest from whatever source derived not included in adjusted gross income, workers compensation and the gross amount of "loss of time" insurance. Income does not include gifts from nongovernmental sources or surplus food or other relief in kind supplied by a governmental agency, nor shall net operating losses and net capital losses be considered in the determination of income. Income does not include veterans disability pensions. Income does not include disability payments received under the federal social security act.

(b) "Household" means a claimant, a claimant and spouse who occupy the homestead or a claimant and one or more individuals not related as husband and wife who together occupy a homestead.

(c) "Household income" means all income received by all persons of a household in a calendar year while members of such household.

(d) "Homestead" means the dwelling, or any part thereof, whether owned and or rented, which is occupied as a residence by the household and so much of the land surrounding it, as defined as a home site for ad valorem tax purposes, and may consist of a part of a multi-dwelling or multi-purpose building and a part of the land upon which it is built or a manufactured home or mobile home and the land upon which it is situated. "Owned" includes a vendee in possession under a land contract, a life tenant, a beneficiary under a trust and one or more joint tenants or tenants in common.

(e) "Claimant" means a person who has filed a claim under the provisions of this act and was, during the entire calendar year preceding the year in which such claim was filed for refund under this act, except as provided in K.S.A. 79-4503, and amendments thereto, both domiciled in this state and was: (1) A person having a disability; (2) a person who is 55 years of age or older; (3) a disabled veteran; (4) the surviving spouse of active duty military personnel who died in the line of duty; or (5) a person other than a person included under (1), (2), (3) or (4) having one or more dependent children under 18 years of age residing at the person's homestead during the calendar year immediately preceding the year in which a claim is filed under this act. The surviving spouse of a disabled veteran who was receiving benefits pursuant to subsection (e)(3) of this section at the time of the veterans' death, shall be eligible to continue to receive benefits until such time the surviving spouse remarries.

When a homestead is occupied by two or more individuals and more than one of the individuals is able to qualify as a claimant, the individuals may determine between them as to whom the claimant will be. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the secretary of revenue whose decision shall be final.

(f) "Property taxes accrued" means property taxes, exclusive of special assessments, delinquent interest and charges for service, levied on a claimant's homestead in 1979 or any calendar year thereafter by the state of Kansas and the political and taxing subdivisions of the state. When a homestead is owned by two or more persons or entities as joint tenants or tenants in common and one or more of the persons or entities is not a member of claimant's household, "property taxes accrued" is that part of property taxes levied on the homestead that reflects the ownership percentage of the claimant's household. For purposes of this act, property taxes are "levied" when the tax roll is delivered to the local treasurer with the treasurer's warrant for collection. When a claimant and household own their homestead part of a calendar year, "property taxes accrued" means only taxes levied on the homestead when both owned and occupied as a homestead by the claimant's household at the time of the levy, multiplied by the percentage of 12 months that the property was owned and occupied by the household as its homestead in the year. When a household owns and occupies two or more different homesteads in the same calendar year, property taxes accrued shall be the sum of the taxes allocable to those several properties while occupied by the household as its homestead during the year. Whenever a homestead is an integral part of a larger unit such as a multi-purpose or multi-dwelling building, property taxes accrued shall be that percentage of the total property taxes accrued as the value of the homestead is of the total value. For the purpose of this act, the word "unit" refers to that parcel of property covered by a single tax statement of which the homestead is a part.

(g) "Disability" means:

(1) Inability to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than 12 months, and an individual shall be determined to be under a disability only if the physical or mental impairment or impairments are of such severity that the individual is not only unable to do the individual's previous work but cannot, considering age, education and work experience, engage in any other kind of substantial gainful work which exists in the national economy, regardless of whether such work exists in the immediate area in which the individual lives or whether a specific job vacancy exists for the individual, or whether the individual would be hired if application was made for work. With respect to any individual, for purposes of the preceding sentence ~~(with respect to any individual)~~, "work which exists in the national economy" means work which exists in significant numbers either in the region where the individual lives or in several regions of the country; for purposes of this subsection, a "physical or mental impairment" is an impairment that results from anatomical, physiological or psychological abnormalities which are demonstrable by medically acceptable clinical and laboratory diagnostic techniques; or

(2) blindness and inability by reason of blindness to engage in substantial gainful activity requiring skills or abilities comparable to those of any gainful activity in which the individual has previously engaged with some regularity and over a substantial period of time.

(h) "Blindness" means central visual acuity of $^{20}/_{200}$ or less in the better eye with the use of a correcting lens. An eye which is accompanied by a limitation in the fields of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than 20 degrees shall be considered for the purpose of this paragraph as having a central visual acuity of $^{20}/_{200}$ or less.

(i) "Disabled veteran" means a person who is a resident of Kansas and has been honorably discharged from active service in any branch of the armed forces of the United States or Kansas national guard and who has been certified by the United States department of veterans affairs or its successor to have a 50% permanent disability sustained through military action or accident or resulting from disease contracted while in such active service.

(j) "Gross rent" means the rental paid at arm's length solely for the right of occupancy of a homestead or space rental paid to a landlord for the parking of a mobile home, exclusive of charges for any utilities, services, furniture and furnishings or personal property appliances furnished by the landlord as a part of the rental agreement, whether or not expressly set out in the rental agreement. Whenever the director of taxation finds that the landlord and tenant have not dealt with each other at arm's length and that the gross rent charge was excessive, the director may adjust the gross rent to a reasonable amount for the purposes of the claim.

(k) "Rent constituting property taxes accrued" means 15% of the gross rent actually paid in cash or its equivalent in 2013 or any taxable year thereafter by a claimant and claimant's household solely for the right of occupancy of a Kansas homestead on which ad valorem property taxes were levied in full for that year. When a household occupies two or more different homesteads in the same calendar year, rent constituting property taxes accrued shall be computed by adding the rent constituting property taxes accrued for each property rented by the household while occupied by the household as its homestead during the year.

Sec. 15. K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 79-4508 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-4508. (a) Commencing in the tax year beginning after December 31, 2005, the amount of any claim pursuant to this act shall be computed by deducting the amount computed under column (2) from the amount of claimant's property tax accrued or rent constituting property tax accrued, or both.

(b) The director of taxation shall prepare a table under which claims under this act shall be determined. The amount of claim for each bracket shall be computed only to the nearest $1.

(c) The claimant may elect not to record the amount claimed on the claim. The claim allowable to persons making this election shall be computed by the department which shall notify the claimant by mail of the amount of the allowable claim.

(d) ~~In the case of all tax years commencing after December 31, 2004,~~ The upper limit threshold amount prescribed in this section, shall be increased by an amount equal to such threshold amount multiplied by the cost-of-living adjustment determined under section 1(f)(3) of the federal internal revenue code for the calendar year in which the taxable year commences.

Sec. 16. K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 79-4509 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-4509. In the event property taxes accrued or rent constituting property tax accrue, or the sum of both exceeds $700 for a household in any one year, the amount thereof shall, for purposes of this act, be deemed to have been $700.

Sec. 17. K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 79-4511 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-4511. (a) Every claimant under this act shall supply to the division, in support of a claim, reasonable proof of age or disability, and changes of homestead, household membership, household income, and size and nature of property claimed as the homestead. A claim alleging disability shall be supported by a report of the examining physician of the claimant with a statement or certificate that the applicant has a disability within the meaning of subsection (g) of K.S.A. 79-4502, and amendments thereto.

(b) Every claimant who is a homestead owner, or whose claim is based wholly or partly upon homestead ownership at some time during the calendar year, shall supply to the division, in support of a claim, the amount of property taxes levied upon the property claimed as a homestead and a statement that the property taxes accrued used for purposes of this act have been or will be paid by the claimant. Upon request by the division, such claimant shall provide a copy of the statement of property taxes levied upon the property claimed as a homestead. The amount of personal property taxes levied on a manufactured home or mobile home shall be set out on the personal property tax statement showing the amount of such tax as a separate item.

(c) Every claimant who is a homestead renter, or whose claim is based wholly or partly upon homestead rental at some time during the calendar year, shall supply to the division, in support of a claim, a statement prescribed by the director certifying the amount of gross rent paid and that ad valorem property taxes were levied in full for that year on the property, all or a part of which was rented by the claimant. When such claimant reports household income that is 150% or less of the homestead rental amount and such claimant has failed to provide any documentation or information requested by the division to verify such household income in support of a claim as required pursuant to subsection (a), within 30 days of such request, such homestead property tax refund claim shall be denied.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: When the temporary sales tax was passed, Kansas was in dire straits financially. There was no other plausible solution to balancing the budget. The Legislature promised the public to sunset the tax. This bill makes the tax permanent. I believe that violates the trust my constituents placed in me. Mr. Chairman, I vote No on HB 2059.—JAY EMLER

Mr. Vice President: As a young child, I recall my mother and the other elders in my community saying the rich get richer and the poor get poorer and when I asked what that meant I was simply told, "Honey, don't worry about that, you are rich with love." However, I never truly understood what that statement meant until now! Because the poor and working middle class families of the state of Kansas will bear the financial burden of the passage of this legislation. Mr. Vice President, I vote NO on HB 2059. —OLETHA FAUST-GOUDEAU

Mr. Vice President: With this tax plan, hardworking, average Kansas families will further bear the burden while wealthy Kansans and large corporations will prosper. I believe that is unfair, so I vote no on HB 2059.

The people of Kansas deserve leaders who are good on their word. I promised my constituents that I would allow the 2010 sales tax rate to expire after three years. By voting no, I'm keeping my promise.

Do not be fooled. Retaining this sales tax is not a way to fund schools; saying so is a serious misrepresentation. This sales tax will pay for the self-inflicted budget crisis that has come with these reckless and irresponsible income tax cuts.

This path to be like Texas has become a roadmap to ruin. We will have a Texas-sized hole in our budget with increased property taxes, higher poverty rates, and further cuts to education.

I believe everyday Kansas taxpayers do not want to be like Texas. They want Kansas to remain a state where everyone pays their fair share, poverty rates decline, and our schools are adequately and fairly funded.

This tax plan leaves hardworking, average Kansas taxpayers with the burden of doing more with less and having much to be desired. That is why I vote no.—ANTHONY HENSLEY

Senators Haley, Hawk, Holland, Kelly and Pettey request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hensley.

Mr. Vice President: In addition to being one of the largest tax increases in Kansas' history, HB 2059 also violates the so-called principles of reform that Governor Brownback laid out last year. It further complicates the Kansas tax code by treating certain itemized deductions differently than others. Much more importantly, it actually takes more money out of the pockets of Kansas families than it puts in during the first four years of implementation. Even more disturbingly, the bill reneges on the promise that the Kansas Legislature made to sunset the temporary sales tax. This bill only makes worse Kansas' regressive tax system while creating massive out year fiscal deficits. The legislation is a continuation of tax policy designed to benefit big business and the wealthy at the expense of hardworking Kansas taxpayers. I vote no on HB 2059. — TOM HOLLAND

Senators Francisco, Haley, Hawk, Hensley, Kelly and Pettey request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Holland.

Mr. Vice President: I think everyone in this body and in my district knows where I stand on the political spectrum so my vote might be confusing.

Last summer when I was running for the senate against a long-time incumbent I heard continuous frustration of my predecessors vote regarding raising the sales tax. I promised my district in person and in campaign mailers that I would fight to repeal that sales tax when I was serving them in Topeka. Regardless of other changes with the tax policy I will stand by my promise to my district because people can call me plenty of things (which they do) but I'm not a liar.

Furthermore, I would like to thank my colleagues for fighting for the future of Kansas. Being a somewhat recent college graduate I've been dismayed at the number of my friends who moved away from Kansas to states with better economies due to their tax structure. This chamber is making the difficult decisions and taking the critical steps necessary to ensure that Kansas retains our young people. Thank you. — MICHAEL O'DONNELL

Senator LaTurner requests the record show he concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" on HB 2059 offered by Senator O'Donnell.

HB 2081, AN ACT concerning civil procedure; relating to the forfeiture of instrumentalities of a crime; amending K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 60-4104 and 60-4105 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 40; Nays 0; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Yeas: Abrams, Apple, Arpke, Bowers, Bruce, Denning, Donovan, Emler, Faust-Goudeau, Fitzgerald, Francisco, Haley, Hawk, Hensley, Holland, Holmes, Kelly, Kerschen, King, Knox, LaTurner, Longbine, Love, Lynn, Masterson, McGinn, Melcher, O'Donnell, Olson, Ostmeyer, Petersen, Pettey, Pilcher-Cook, Powell, Pyle, V. Schmidt, Smith, Tyson, Wagle, Wolf.

The bill passed, as amended.

HB 2252, AN ACT concerning crimes, criminal procedure and punishment; relating to the statute of limitations for rape prosecutions; amending K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 21-5107 and repealing the existing section, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 40; Nays 0; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Yeas: Abrams, Apple, Arpke, Bowers, Bruce, Denning, Donovan, Emler, Faust-Goudeau, Fitzgerald, Francisco, Haley, Hawk, Hensley, Holland, Holmes, Kelly, Kerschen, King, Knox, LaTurner, Longbine, Love, Lynn, Masterson, McGinn, Melcher, O'Donnell, Olson, Ostmeyer, Petersen, Pettey, Pilcher-Cook, Powell, Pyle, V. Mr. Vice President: During my 40 years in the dairy business and still even today, we had the benefit to deduct our PAC contribution from our paycheck. On emergency motion of Senator Faust-Goudeau SR 1736 was adopted unanimously. Senator Faust-Goudeau presented the resolution to Sloane Lewis, Miss Kansas 2012. Senators rose to honor her with a standing ovation.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Holmes rose on a Point of Personal Privilege to introduce his daughter, Noelle, who is the third of five children: “Noelle has quite a story that I’d like to share. She turned 18 just 2 weeks before the 2012 primary election and was thrilled to help me campaign and then vote for her Daddy.

“Then on September 20, I got the phone call that every parent dreads...my daughter had been in a serious accident at an intersection notorious for its deadly accidents. She had not seen a semi approaching before she started to cross the highway, and was T-boned by a tanker truck traveling at highway speed. A helicopter was dispatched to take her to Wesley Trauma Center in Wichita, but we were able to see her for a few minutes at the Stafford Hospital as we waited for the helicopter.

“As we chased the helicopter to Wichita, I called our church’s prayer chain, which immediately got the word out to our local friends. But I was trying to think of who I could call to get the word out to all my colleagues. Then it dawned on me...Martin Hawver! Martin sent out a newsflash, and I immediately started getting texts from my friends saying they were praying for Noelle.

“When we got to Wesley, Noelle was in a coma. She had suffered what is called Diffuse Axonal Injury, which is a shearing between brain cells caused by rapid acceleration and rotation. The doctors told us that the length of time she spent in a coma would be indicative of the amount of damage her brain had sustained. It might be 2 days, or it could be 2 months; there was no way to know. Noelle lay in a coma for 10 days, then a semi-coma for another 4 days before being transferred to Madonna Rehabilitation Hospital in Lincoln, NE. Judging by the length of her coma, the doctors said it would take 12-18 months of therapy. The evaluation at Madonna predicted mid-December to complete in-patient therapy and the remainder in out-patient therapy. At that time, she was in a neck brace, her right arm and leg were non-functioning, and her left side was extremely limited.

“To everyone’s surprise, including her doctors and therapists, she made extremely rapid recovery. She was released from in-patient rehabilitation 3 weeks prior to predictions...just in time for Thanksgiving. Her neck brace was gone and she could walk good enough to navigate stairs with help. She could play some of her piano pieces, although very slowly.

“She just finished her out-patient therapy last week, which was less than 6 months after the accident...far shorter than the 12-18 months we expected. She will continue to recover, as brain injuries take time to fully heal. But she is able to do things she had previously been able to do with the exception that her right hand isn’t as strong as her left. This causes a little lopsidedness when it’s her turn to milk our goats.

“One thing that stood out to us throughout the whole ordeal was the support and prayers from friends from the statehouse: legislators, staff, the Governor, and lobbyists. Rep. Pete DeGraaf and Sen. Jeff King helped establish a fund to assist with our deductibles, co-pays, and related expenses. We had cards and letters pouring in with support, as well as calls and text messages. Everyone expressed they were praying and we could feel the power of God throughout the ordeal.

“Today, I present to you Noelle Holmes...our version of a walking miracle. She’s shy and doesn’t really enjoy being “shown off” in front of y’all. But she and the rest of the Holmes family wish to say thanks to our friends in the Statehouse for all the support and prayers you showed us during this difficult time.”

The Senators rose to give Noelle a standing ovation.

Senator Love rose on a Point of Personal Privilege to recognize the students of Cimarron Christian School visiting the Senate. The Senators acknowledged the students with applause.

Any violation of the conditions of such supervision may subject such person to revocation of supervision and imprisonment in jail for the remainder of the period of imprisonment, the remainder of the supervision period, or any combination or portion thereof.

(4) In addition, prior to sentencing for any conviction pursuant to subsection (b)(1) (A), the court shall order the person to participate in an alcohol and drug evaluation conducted by a provider in accordance with K.S.A. 8-1008, and amendments thereto. The person shall be required to follow any recommendation made by the provider after such evaluation, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(c) Any person convicted of violating this section or an ordinance which prohibits the acts that this section prohibits who had one or more children under the age of 14 years in the vehicle at the time of the offense shall have such person's punishment enhanced by one month of imprisonment. This imprisonment must be served consecutively to any other minimum mandatory penalty imposed for a violation of this section or an ordinance which prohibits the acts that this section prohibits. Any enhanced penalty imposed shall not exceed the maximum sentence allowable by law. During the service of the enhanced penalty, the judge may order the person on house arrest, work release or other conditional release.

(d) The court may establish the terms and time for payment of any fines, fees, assessments and costs imposed pursuant to this section. Any assessments and costs shall be required to be paid not later than 90 days after imposed, and any remainder of the fine shall be paid prior to the final release of the defendant by the court.

(e) In lieu of payment of a fine imposed pursuant to this section, the court may order that the person perform community service specified by the court. The person shall receive a credit on the fine imposed in an amount equal to $5 for each full hour spent by the person in the specified community service. The community service ordered by the court shall be required to be performed not later than one year after the fine is imposed or by an earlier date specified by the court. If by the required date the person performs an insufficient amount of community service to reduce to zero the portion of the fine required to be paid by the person, the remaining balance of the fine shall become due on that date.

(f) Prior to filing a complaint alleging a violation of this section, a prosecutor shall request and shall receive from the:

(1) Division a record of all prior convictions obtained against such person for any violations of any of the motor vehicle laws of this state; and

(2) Kansas bureau of investigation central repository all criminal history record information concerning such person.

(g) The court shall electronically report every conviction of a violation of this section and every diversion agreement entered into in lieu of further criminal proceedings on a complaint alleging a violation of this section to the division. Prior to sentencing under the provisions of this section, the court shall request and shall receive from the division a record of all prior convictions obtained against such person for any violations of any of the motor vehicle laws of this state.

(h) For the purpose of determining whether a conviction is a first, second, third, fourth or subsequent conviction in sentencing under this section:

(1) Convictions for a violation of K.S.A. 8-1567, and amendments thereto, or a violation of an ordinance of any city or resolution of any county which prohibits the acts that such section prohibits, or entering into a diversion agreement in lieu of further criminal proceedings on a complaint alleging any such violations, shall be taken into account, but only convictions or diversions occurring: (A) On or after July 1, 2001; and (B) when such person was 18 years of age or older. Nothing in this provision shall be construed as preventing any court from considering any convictions or diversions occurring during the person's lifetime in determining the sentence to be imposed within the limits provided for a first, second, third, fourth or subsequent offense;

(2) any convictions for a violation of the following sections which occurred during a person's lifetime shall be taken into account, but only convictions occurring when such person was 18 years of age or older: (A) This section; (B) driving a commercial motor vehicle under the influence, K.S.A. 8-2,144, and amendments thereto; (C) operating a vessel under the influence of alcohol or drugs, K.S.A. 32-1131, and amendments thereto; (D) involuntary manslaughter while driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs, K.S.A. 21-3442, prior to its repeal, or subsection (a)(3) of K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 21-5405, and amendments thereto; (E) aggravated battery as described in subsection (b)(3) of K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 21-5413, and amendments thereto; and ~~(E) (F)~~ aggravated vehicular homicide, K.S.A. 21-3405a, prior to its repeal, or vehicular battery, K.S.A. 21-3405b, prior to its repeal, if the crime was committed while committing a violation of K.S.A. 8-1567, and amendments thereto;

(3) "conviction" includes: (A) Entering into a diversion agreement in lieu of further criminal proceedings on a complaint alleging a violation of a crime described in subsection (h)(2); (B) conviction of a violation of an ordinance of a city in this state, a resolution of a county in this state or any law of another state which would constitute a crime described in subsection (h)(1) or (h)(2); and (C) receiving punishment under the uniform code of military justice or Kansas code of military justice for an act which was committed on a military reservation and which would constitute a crime described in subsection (h)(1) or (h)(2) if committed off a military reservation in this state;

(4) it is irrelevant whether an offense occurred before or after conviction for a previous offense;

(5) multiple convictions of any crime described in subsection (h)(1) or (h)(2) arising from the same arrest shall only be counted as one conviction;

(6) the prior conviction that is an element of the crime of refusing to submit to a test to determine the presence of alcohol or drugs shall not be used for the purpose of determining whether a conviction is a first, second, third or subsequent conviction in sentencing under this section and shall not be considered in determining the sentence to be imposed within the limits provided for a first, second, third or subsequent offense; and

(7) a person may enter into a diversion agreement in lieu of further criminal proceedings for a violation of this section, or an ordinance which prohibits the acts of this section, only once during the person's lifetime.

(i) Upon conviction of a person of a violation of this section or a violation of a city ordinance or county resolution prohibiting the acts prohibited by this section, the division, upon receiving a report of conviction, shall suspend, restrict or suspend and restrict the person's driving privileges as provided by K.S.A. 8-1014, and amendments thereto.

(j) (1) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as preventing any city from enacting ordinances, or any county from adopting resolutions, declaring acts prohibited or made unlawful by this act as unlawful or prohibited in such city or county and prescribing penalties for violation thereof.

(2) The minimum penalty prescribed by any such ordinance or resolution shall not be less than the minimum penalty prescribed by this section for the same violation, and the maximum penalty in any such ordinance or resolution shall not exceed the maximum penalty prescribed for the same violation.

(3) An ordinance may grant to a municipal court jurisdiction over a violation of such ordinance which is concurrent with the jurisdiction of the district court over a violation of this section, notwithstanding that the elements of such ordinance violation are the same as the elements of a violation of this section that would constitute, and be punished as, a felony.

(4) Any such ordinance or resolution shall authorize the court to order that the convicted person pay restitution to any victim who suffered loss due to the violation for which the person was convicted.

(k) (1) Upon the filing of a complaint, citation or notice to appear alleging a person has violated a city ordinance prohibiting the acts prohibited by this section, and prior to conviction thereof, a city attorney shall request and shall receive from the:

(A) Division a record of all prior convictions obtained against such person for any violations of any of the motor vehicle laws of this state; and

(B) Kansas bureau of investigation central repository all criminal history record information concerning such person.

(2) If the elements of such ordinance violation are the same as the elements of a violation of this section that would constitute, and be punished as, a felony, the city attorney shall refer the violation to the appropriate county or district attorney for prosecution.

(l) No plea bargaining agreement shall be entered into nor shall any judge approve a plea bargaining agreement entered into for the purpose of permitting a person charged with a violation of this section, or a violation of any ordinance of a city or resolution of any county in this state which prohibits the acts prohibited by this section, to avoid the mandatory penalties established by this section or by the ordinance. For the purpose of this subsection, entering into a diversion agreement pursuant to K.S.A. 12-4413 et seq. or 22-2906 et seq., and amendments thereto, shall not constitute plea bargaining.

(m) As used in this section, "imprisonment" shall include any restrained environment in which the court and law enforcement agency intend to retain custody and control of a defendant and such environment has been approved by the board of county commissioners or the governing body of a city.

(n) On and after July 1, 2012, the amount of $250 from each fine imposed pursuant to this section shall be remitted by the clerk of the district court to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall credit the entire amount to the community corrections supervision fund established by K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 75-52,113, and amendments thereto.

Any exceptions to remaining within the boundaries of the offender's residence provided for in the house arrest agreement shall not be counted as part of the 2,160 hours.

(2) The court may order that the term of imprisonment imposed pursuant to subsection (b)(1)(D) or (b)(1)(E) be served in a state facility in the custody of the secretary of corrections in a facility designated by the secretary for the provision of substance abuse treatment pursuant to the provisions of K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 21-6804, and amendments thereto. The person shall remain imprisoned at the state facility only while participating in the substance abuse treatment program designated by the secretary and shall be returned to the custody of the sheriff for execution of the balance of the term of imprisonment upon completion of or the person's discharge from the substance abuse treatment program. Custody of the person shall be returned to the sheriff for execution of the sentence imposed in the event the secretary of corrections determines: (A) That substance abuse treatment resources or the capacity of the facility designated by the secretary for the incarceration and treatment of the person is not available; (B) the person fails to meaningfully participate in the treatment program of the designated facility; (C) the person is disruptive to the security or operation of the designated facility; or (D) the medical or mental health condition of the person renders the person unsuitable for confinement at the designated facility. The determination by the secretary that the person either is not to be admitted into the designated facility or is to be transferred from the designated facility is not subject to review. The sheriff shall be responsible for all transportation expenses to and from the state correctional facility.

(3) In addition, for any conviction pursuant to subsection (b)(1)(C), (b)(1)(D) or (b)(1)(E), at the time of the filing of the judgment form or journal entry as required by K.S.A. 22-3426 or K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 21-6711, and amendments thereto, the court shall cause a certified copy to be sent to the officer having the offender in charge. The court shall determine whether the offender, upon release from imprisonment, shall be supervised by community correctional services or court services based upon the risk and needs of the offender. The risk and needs of the offender shall be determined by use of a risk assessment tool specified by the Kansas sentencing commission. The law enforcement agency maintaining custody and control of a defendant for imprisonment shall cause a certified copy of the judgment form or journal entry to be sent to the supervision office designated by the court and upon expiration of the term of imprisonment shall deliver the defendant to a location designated by the supervision office designated by the court. After the term of imprisonment imposed by the court, the person shall be placed on supervision to community correctional services or court services, as determined by the court, for a mandatory one-year period of supervision, which such period of supervision shall not be reduced. During such supervision, the person shall be required to participate in a multidisciplinary model of services for substance use disorders facilitated by a department of social and rehabilitation services designated care coordination agency to include assessment and, if appropriate, referral to a community based substance use disorder treatment including recovery management and mental health counseling as needed. The multidisciplinary team shall include the designated care coordination agency, the supervision officer, the social and rehabilitation services department designated treatment provider and the offender. Any violation of the conditions of such supervision may subject such person to revocation of supervision and imprisonment in jail for the remainder of the period of imprisonment, the remainder of the supervision period, or any combination or portion thereof.

(4) In addition, prior to sentencing for any conviction pursuant to subsection (b)(1)(A) or (b)(1)(B), the court shall order the person to participate in an alcohol and drug evaluation conducted by a provider in accordance with K.S.A. 8-1008, and amendments thereto. The person shall be required to follow any recommendation made by the provider after such evaluation, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

Any enhanced penalty imposed shall not exceed the maximum sentence allowable by law. During the service of the enhanced penalty, the judge may order the person on house arrest, work release or other conditional release.

(d) If a person is charged with a violation of this section involving drugs, the fact that the person is or has been entitled to use the drug under the laws of this state shall not constitute a defense against the charge.

(e) The court may establish the terms and time for payment of any fines, fees, assessments and costs imposed pursuant to this section. Any assessment and costs shall be required to be paid not later than 90 days after imposed, and any remainder of the fine shall be paid prior to the final release of the defendant by the court.

(f) In lieu of payment of a fine imposed pursuant to this section, the court may order that the person perform community service specified by the court. The person shall receive a credit on the fine imposed in an amount equal to $5 for each full hour spent by the person in the specified community service. The community service ordered by the court shall be required to be performed not later than one year after the fine is imposed or by an earlier date specified by the court. If by the required date the person performs an insufficient amount of community service to reduce to zero the portion of the fine required to be paid by the person, the remaining balance of the fine shall become due on that date.

(g) Prior to filing a complaint alleging a violation of this section, a prosecutor shall request and shall receive from the:

Prior to sentencing under the provisions of this section, the court shall request and shall receive from the division a record of all prior convictions obtained against such person for any violations of any of the motor vehicle laws of this state.

(1) Convictions for a violation of this section, or a violation of an ordinance of any city or resolution of any county which prohibits the acts that this section prohibits, or entering into a diversion agreement in lieu of further criminal proceedings on a complaint alleging any such violations, shall be taken into account, but only convictions or diversions occurring on or after July 1, 2001. "Sec. 250. On July 1, 2013, K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 72-6415b is hereby amended to read as follows: 72-6415b. (a) School facilities weighting may be assigned to enrollment of a district only if the district has adopted a local option budget in an amount equal to at least 25% of the amount of the state financial aid determined for the district in the current school year. School facilities weighting may be assigned to enrollment of the district only in the school year in which operation of a new school facility is commenced and in the next succeeding school year.

(b) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any school district for school years 2013-2014 and 2014-2015.

Sec. 251. On July 1, 2013, K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 72-6441 is hereby amended to read as follows: 72-6441. (a) (1) The board of any district to which the provisions of this subsection apply may levy an ad valorem tax on the taxable tangible property of the district each year for a period of time not to exceed two years in an amount not to exceed the amount authorized by the state court of tax appeals under this subsection for the purpose of financing the costs incurred by the state that are directly attributable to assignment of ancillary school facilities weighting to enrollment of the district. The state court of tax appeals may authorize the district to make a levy which will produce an amount that is not greater than the difference between the amount of costs directly attributable to commencing operation of one or more new school facilities and the amount that is financed from any other source provided by law for such purpose, including any amount attributable to assignment of school facilities weighting to enrollment of the district for each school year in which the district is eligible for such weighting. If the district is not eligible, or will be ineligible, for school facilities weighting in any one or more years during the two-year period for which the district is authorized to levy a tax under this subsection, the state court of tax appeals may authorize the district to make a levy, in such year or years of ineligibility, which will produce an amount that is not greater than the actual amount of costs attributable to commencing operation of the facility or facilities.

(2) The state court of tax appeals shall certify to the state board of education the amount authorized to be produced by the levy of a tax under subsection (a).

(3) The state court of tax appeals may adopt rules and regulations necessary to effectuate the provisions of this subsection, including rules and regulations relating to the evidence required in support of a district's claim that the costs attributable to commencing operation of one or more new school facilities are in excess of the amount that is financed from any other source provided by law for such purpose.

(4) The provisions of this subsection apply to any district that: (A) Commenced operation of one or more new school facilities in the school year preceding the current school year or has commenced or will commence operation of one or more new school facilities in the current school year or any or all of the foregoing; (B) is authorized to adopt and has adopted a local option budget which is at least equal to that amount required to qualify for school facilities weighting under K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 72-6415b, and amendments thereto, if any; and (C) is experiencing extraordinary enrollment growth as determined by the state board of education.

(b) The board of any district that has levied an ad valorem tax on the taxable tangible property of the district each year for a period of two years under authority of subsection (a) may continue to levy such tax under authority of this subsection each year for an additional period of time not to exceed three years in an amount not to exceed the amount computed by the state board of education as provided in this subsection if the board of the district determines that the costs attributable to commencing operation of one or more new school facilities are significantly greater than the costs attributable to the operation of other school facilities in the district. The tax authorized under this subsection may be levied at a rate which will produce an amount that is not greater than the amount computed by the state board of education as provided in this subsection. In computing such amount, the state board shall: (1) Determine the amount produced by the tax levied by the district under authority of subsection (a) in the second year for which such tax was levied and add to such amount the amount of general state aid directly attributable to school facilities weighting that was received by the district in the same year; (2) compute 75% of the amount of the sum obtained under (1), which computed amount is the amount the district may levy in the first year of the three-year period for which the district may levy a tax under authority of this subsection; (3) compute 50% of the amount of the sum obtained under (1), which computed amount is the amount the district may levy in the second year of the three-year period for which the district may levy a tax under authority of this subsection; and (4) compute 25% of the amount of the sum obtained under (1), which computed amount is the amount the district may levy in the third year of the three-year period for which the district may levy a tax under authority of this subsection.

In determining the amount produced by the tax levied by the district under authority of subsection (a), the state board shall include any moneys which have been apportioned to the ancillary facilities fund of the district from taxes levied under the provisions of K.S.A. 79-5101 et seq. and 79-5118 et seq., and amendments thereto.

(c) The proceeds from the tax levied by a district under authority of this section shall be remitted to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury to the credit of the state school district finance fund.";

(b) A school district which offers a virtual school shall determine the full-time equivalent enrollment of each pupil enrolled in the virtual school on September 20 of each school year as follows:

(1) Determine the number of hours the pupil was in attendance on a single school day on or before September 19 of each school year;

(2) determine the number of hours the pupil was in attendance on a single school day on or after September 20, but before October 4 of each school year;

(3) add the numbers obtained under paragraphs (1) and (2);

(4) divide the sum obtained under paragraph (3) by 12. The quotient is the full-time equivalent enrollment of the pupil.

(c) The school days on which a district determines the full-time equivalent enrollment of a pupil under paragraphs (1) and (2) of subsection (b) shall be the school days on which the pupil has the highest number of hours of attendance at the virtual school. No more than six hours of attendance may be counted in a single school day. Attendance may be shown by a pupil's on-line activity or entries in the pupil's virtual school journal or log of activities.

(d) (1) Subject to the availability of appropriations for virtual school state aid and within the limits of any such appropriations, each school year a school district which offers a virtual school shall be entitled to virtual school state aid.

(2) The state board of education shall determine the amount of virtual school state aid a school district is entitled to receive as follows:

(A) Multiply the full-time equivalent enrollment of the virtual school by an amount equal to 105% of the amount of base state aid per pupil;

(B) multiply the full-time equivalent enrollment of nonproficient at-risk pupils enrolled in an approved at-risk program offered by the virtual school, if any, by an amount equal to 25% of the amount of base state aid per pupil;

(C) add any amount determined under K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 72-3716, and amendments thereto; and

(D) add the amounts obtained under subparagraphs (A) through (C). The sum is the amount of the virtual school state aid to which the school district is entitled.

(3) There is hereby established in every school district a fund which shall be called the virtual school fund, which fund shall consist of all moneys deposited therein or transferred thereto according to law. Moneys received as virtual school state aid shall be deposited in the general fund of the school district and transferred to the virtual school fund of the district. The expenses of a district directly attributable to virtual schools offered by a school district shall be paid from the virtual school fund. The cost of an advance placement course provided to a pupil described in subsection (d)(2)(D) shall be paid by the virtual school.

Any balance remaining in the virtual school fund at the end of the budget year shall be carried forward into the virtual school fund for succeeding budget years. Such fund shall not be subject to the provisions of K.S.A. 79-2925 through 79-2937, and amendments thereto.

Any unencumbered balance of moneys remaining in the virtual school fund of a school district on June 30, 2012, may be expended in the school year that immediately succeeds such date by the school district for general operating expenses of the school district as approved by the board of education.

In preparing the budget of such school district, the amounts credited to and the amount on hand in the virtual school fund, and the amount expended therefrom shall be included in the annual budget for the information of the residents of the school district.

Interest earned on the investment of moneys in any such fund shall be credited to that fund.

(e) For the purposes of this section, a pupil enrolled in a virtual school who is not a resident of the state of Kansas shall not be counted in the full-time equivalent enrollment of the virtual school.

(f) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any school district for school years 2013-2014 and 2014-2015.

Sec. 251. On July 1, 2013, K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 72-3716 is hereby amended to read as follows: 72-3716. (a) As used in this section:

(1) "Pupil" means a pupil who is a resident of and enrolled, on a full-time basis, in a school district.

(2) "School district" means a school district which does not offer advanced placement courses and which is either more than 200 square miles in area or has an enrollment of at least 260 pupils and does not offer advance placement courses.

(b) If a pupil is enrolled in at least one advanced placement course provided by a virtual school, the school district offering the virtual school shall be paid an amount equal to 8% of the amount of base state aid per pupil for such pupil as additional virtual school state aid. Such state aid shall be paid in each semester in which a pupil is enrolled in at least one advanced placement course provided by a virtual school.

(c) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any school district for school years 2013-2014 and 2014-2015.";

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-FIFTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, March 21, 2013, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with forty senators present.
Invocation by Guest Chaplain Reverend Kent L. Ottott:

Heavenly Father, At this moment, I lift up the men and women assembled here to conduct business on behalf of the people of the State of Kansas. Give them wisdom and insight as they perform the job they have been chosen for.

The Psalmist wrote that You are the eternal provider of counsel and blessing for a nation and state in need: "The counsel of the LORD stands forever... The plans of His heart from generation to generation. Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord, the people whom He has chosen for His own inheritance." Psalms 33:11-12 (NASB)

The tasks before this body of officials are many. Give them the wisdom only You can provide as You did for Solomon. Give them the sureness in their decisions they will need, as the media, the pundits and even the electorate watches over them. Give them the peace of mind as they choose to do what is right instead of what is popular. Give them the compassion needed to protect the Kansans who cannot defend themselves whether they are waiting to draw their first breath, or living through a childhood encompassed with difficulties, or are near the end of their final breath. Give them the determination to "bear the sword" of Romans 13 when called upon to protect the innocent and punish the guilty.

As this time of business begins, let them reason and debate in such a way that brings honor upon our republic. Let them lay aside the trials they face as individuals and let their focus be on their duties. Be with those who are facing problems known by all and be with those who have not let their needs be publicly known. Strengthen their families and relationships as their attention has been focused greatly upon this body.

I ask for your blessing upon the members of the Kansas Senate. I ask for your blessing upon the people they represent. I ask for your blessing upon the great State of Kansas. All of these things I ask in the name of Your Risen Son, Jesus Christ! Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Susan Wagle.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: I have served in our esteemed body for seven years and have not, until this day, had the opportunity to vote on a budget that reflects sound fiscal principals with an emphasis on job growth and innovation. Kansas is on the right track to creating a robust economy and continued high quality of life. — JULIA LYNN

Madam President: With state general fund spending reduced from last year along with the amendment, I offered, giving those accountable to the voters and not career bureaucrats more control over mandated Federal Funds, this budget is one I can support. I don't like the extension of the sales tax and I opposed it. However, if the overall goal is a Kansas state government that spends less of our precious tax dollars, provides services more efficiently and gives the public more control via those they elect, this year's budget is an acceptable start.—DENNIS PYLE

Madam President: I vote no on S Sub for HB 2143. I proudly represent a district that is home to Wichita State University. This budget cuts more than $3 million from this college, including an aviation training program. This budget also cuts funding to services that impact children and families. It cuts $5 million in mental health reform grants that had been used by children and families who are not eligible for Medicaid. Finally, this budget is premised on reducing itemized deductions that I know many of my constituents rely on. These reductions result in a tax increase on people who are already struggling. I also cannot support a budget that cuts funding to services or further increases the burden on the hardworking Kansans in the district that I am so proud to serve. That is exactly what this budget does. So, I vote no. I vote no on S Sub for HB 2143. — OLETHA FAUST-GOUDEAU

Senators Francisco and McGinn request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Faust-Goudeau.

Madam President: I vote "No" on S Sub for HB 2143. It is unfortunate that we started the budget process with lowered revenue projections based not on reductions in economic activity, but on changes to tax policy adopted by the legislature last year. The budget does not adequately address important state responsibilities and investments: public education, the arts, our state workers and our state water plan. The legislature rejected the amendment I offered that recognizes the real opportunity the state would have with the expansion of Medicaid with a 100% federal match. Such expansion would provide benefits to Kansans, the Kansas economy, and our hospitals. Monies allocated to disproportional share hospital (DSH) funding, if not needed, especially in FY 2015, could have been redirected to restore cuts made to community mental health centers, corrections, the courts, higher education and other truly necessary state spending.—MARCI FRANCISCO

Madam President: I would like to thank the Chair and members of the Senate Ways and Means Committee for their hard work on our budget. I vote no on S Sub for HB 2143. I do this for the unmet needs of the students, the faculty and staff of Kansas Regents universities. The 2% cut across the board to higher education results in a total loss of more than $20 million. This will only force Regents schools to increase tuition. College students and their parents will carry the burden of the income tax cuts. Additionally, as part of these 2% cuts, $1.2 million is eliminated from post-secondary tiered technical state aid. This undermines the statute that we passed to fund technical education programs. I also vote no for the hardworking Kansas families and the state employees of Kansas. This budget relies on the permanent increase of sales tax, or $1.5 billion in increases over five years. It also neglects to provide state employees with any pay adjustment. We fail to make our commitment to the legislative work of the Joint State Employee Pay Committee and to the "market adjustments" needed for the final and fifth year. Once again, average Kansas taxpayers carry the burden of the income tax cuts when they are already struggling to make ends meet. For these unmet needs in S Sub for HB 2143, I vote no. — TOM HAWK

Senators Francisco and Kelly request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hawk on S Sub for HB 2143.

Madam President: There are more than a dozen reasons why I vote no on S Sub for HB 2143, but I'll elaborate on three. First, I vote no for the state employees of Kansas. We failed to keep our promise by not funding the 5th year of the under market pay plan. The "Pay-go" rule prevented the $8.5 million appropriation needed to improve the pay for many of our lowest paid state employees. Second, I vote no for average Kansas homeowners. Again, we failed to keep our word to provide property tax relief. An increase in property taxes is an inevitable result of the reckless income tax cuts. This budget eliminates $27 million for the Local Ad Valorem Tax Reduction Fund, preventing local governments from providing some property tax relief to hardworking Kansans. Finally, I vote no because it is our responsibility to follow the laws we put into place. The transfer of $37.5 million of ELARF money to pay for the employer contribution to the school KPERS system I believe is in direct violation of the statute that outlines how ELARF money can be distributed. This statute specifically states that ELARF funding can only be applied to reduce the KPERS unfunded actuarial liability.

— ANTHONY HENSLEY

Senators Francisco and Kelly request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hensley on S Sub for HB 2143.

Madam President: This budget fails miserably in its responsibility to provide adequate investments in Kansas' economic infrastructure. Ironically, the bill is still far too expensive to transition the state into a fiscally responsible posture for supporting Governor Brownback's out year income tax rate reductions as outlined in HB 2059. The Governor's "glide path to zero" is merely a fiscal mirage, Madam President. What we are left with at the end of the day is instead a budgetary crash and burn that only tears down ladders of opportunity for Kansas citizens and businesses. I vote "No" on S Sub for HB 2143.—TOM HOLLAND

Senator Francisco requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Holland.

Madam President: There are many reasons I am unable to support S Sub for HB 2143. Current law requires that we fund K-12 Education base state aid per pupil at $4,492. The current budget before us fails to adequately fund schools and address our constitutional duty in Article 6 of our Constitution.

This budget violates state law by using Expanded Lottery Act Revenues to pay for the employer contribution to the KPERS pension which is not an authorized use of the funds. Instead, this money should be used to fund the transfer to the Local Ad Valorem Tax Reduction Fund to provide needed property tax relief for hard working Kansas homeowners.

Furthermore, this budget provides no funding for community corrections programs which are used to reduce recidivism. The Justice Reinvestment in Kansas plan talks about reducing bed space by keeping parole violators from going back into the system with the support of improved community services. This cannot happen without increased funding.

For those reasons and many others, Madam President, I vote NO on S Sub for HB 2143. — PAT PETTEY

Senators Francisco and Kelly request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Pettey on S Sub for HB 2143.

Sub HB 2183, AN ACT concerning the designation and control of infectious and contagious diseases; amending K.S.A. 65-116a and 65-128 and repealing the existing sections; also repealing K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 65-129a, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 29; Nays 11; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Yeas: Abrams, Apple, Arpke, Bowers, Bruce, Denning, Donovan, Emler, Fitzgerald, Haley, Holmes, Kerschen, King, Knox, LaTurner, Longbine, Love, Lynn, Masterson, Melcher, O'Donnell, Olson, Ostmeyer, Petersen, Pilcher-Cook, Powell, Pyle, Smith, Wagle.

Nays: Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Hawk, Hensley, Holland, Kelly, McGinn, Pettey, V. Schmidt, Tyson, Wolf.

The substitute bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: I appreciate the work that legislators and KDHE have put into this bill, Sub HB 2183, and I support many parts of the bill intended to update our state's infectious disease policy. As other speakers have said, this bill would not discriminate, in the sense that it would subject all individuals with the infectious diseases listed to the same government quarantine power. However, in not making a distinction between different kinds of pathogens with different levels of infectiousness, this bill gives the government the excessive power to quarantine a group of Kansans that it has not had or needed for 30 years. I cannot support this bill. I hope that in the future, we will act to reign in this expansion of the government's quarantine power, so that individuals living with HIV/AIDS in the state of Kansas can once again have security from government overreach. — CAROLYN MCGINN

Senators Francisco, Hawk, Kelly, Pettey and Wolf request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator McGinn on Sub HB 2183.

Madam President: I vote "Aye" on Sub HB 2183. Anybody who has truly known David Haley for any length of time will tell you that I believe truly in liberty and justice for all people; regardless of race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, culture or social status. Every Kansan, Every AMERICAN should be held to consistent laws and any special emphasis (or "carve out") which deviates from that consistency only diminishes the continuity of any law and only diminishes the strength of all remaining laws. There has been no showing, EVER in Kansas, that any individual or group with H.I.V. has been quarantined or even requested to be quarantined by a Kansas health official. Equal protection under all laws to me means all laws should apply equally to all people. Understandably, the Kansas House of Representatives supported this same bill this month; 122-1. Further, Madam President, I am pleased to see this measure dedicated to Chy J. Miller, a long time advocate on this issue from Rice County who passed earlier this year at an early age, and whose name has now been forever affixed to this measure by State Representative Marshall Christmann.—DAVID HALEY

Senator Francisco requests the record show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Haley on Sub HB 2183.

HB 2319, AN ACT creating the coalition of innovative districts act, was considered on final action.

The contributions so picked up shall be treated as employer contributions for purposes of determining the amounts of federal income taxes to withhold from the member's compensation.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President : I concur with the unanimous passage of HB 2025. The Robert G. "Bob" Bethell joint committee on home and community based services. Few, during my twenty year tenure here in the Kansas Legislature, approach the combination of intellect, tenacity and perseverance that Representative Bob Bethell brought to the legislative process. His unique and untiring advocacy on behalf of quality senior living ; his mixture of wit, sometimes self-effacing humor ("Well, if it isn't the late David Haley!" ...a standard greeting underscoring my penchant for tardiness); his appreciation for Disney's lovable Mickey Mouse and so many fond and respected memories punctuate his very being throughout our Rotunda and this building to this very day. A minister of sorts, Bob would no doubt have some philosophical irony attributed to his final day of service to his family, his community and the causes he championed ... all which he loved dearly. His life lost in a car accident heading home after a marathon day at the Legislature ... what would HE say ? All I can say now, Madame President, is that we should all be so fortunate to have an identifiable legacy as enviable as Bob's. This bill is an important part of his advocacy which will now be long remembered, appropriately, in statute. Truly ... his very living was not in vain.—DAVID HALEY

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: I vote “no” on HB 2203. I am concerned that there is no requirement in the bill that a burden be in any way substantial; rather the definition of burden is stated as meaning “any government activity that directly or indirectly constrains, inhibits, curtails, or denies the exercise of religion...” With this definition the bill does not restore a known and effective legal protection, but rather establishes an uncertain standard. Furthermore, this bill does nothing to clarify that it cannot be used to withhold public safety and healthcare services. Expansion of religious freedom should not come at the expense of the existing civil rights protections for Kansans, nor should the state sanction the use of religion in any way to further discrimination.—

Heavenly Father, the people of Israel were held as slaves by the Pharaohs until one of their own was called to lead them to freedom. On Monday, the Holy Days of Passover will begin with their focus on justice and freedom for all people. The story of the Exodus will be retold in many languages and in many lands, and the hope of Peace in Jerusalem will be lifted in prayer. The retirant shall not receive a refund or interest of any amounts already paid to fund the original joint annuitant benefit. The retirant may not name a subsequent joint annuitant once the original joint annuitant option has been canceled.

(b) The amount of retirement annuity payable under an option shall be based on the age of the judge and, if applicable, the age of the joint annuitant, and shall be such amount as to be the actuarial equivalent of the retirement annuity otherwise payable under K.S.A. 20-2610, and amendments thereto, as prescribed in subsection (c). Whenever the amount of any benefit is to be determined on the basis of actuarial assumptions, the assumptions shall be specified in a way that precludes employer discretion. In the event that the designated joint annuitant under this option predeceases the retired judge, the amount of the retirement annuity otherwise payable to the judge under this option shall be adjusted automatically to the retirement annuity which the judge would have received if no option had been elected under this section.

(2) Joint and survivor. A reduced retirement annuity payable to the judge during the judge's lifetime in a monthly amount equal to the product of (A) the monthly payment of the retirement annuity otherwise payable under K.S.A. 20-2610, and amendments thereto, and (B) the percentage equal to 83% minus 0.6% for each year by which the

A RESOLUTION recognizing March 26th as American Diabetes Association Alert Day.

WHEREAS, The state of Kansas recognizes that healthy citizens are essential for strong communities to thrive; and

WHEREAS, Diabetes is a devastating disease that affects nearly 26 million Americans, including 8.6% of Kansas adults. More than 179,000 Kansans have been diagnosed with diabetes and over 90% of those Kansans have type 2 diabetes, which can be prevented or delayed. If current trends continue, one out of every three American adults will have diabetes by 2050; and

WHEREAS, The prevalence of diabetes is significantly higher among Kansas adults 18 years and older who are obese (16.1%) as compared to those who are not obese (5.4%). Obesity is one of the most well-established and modifiable risk factors for diabetes; and diabetes, which means that their blood sugar is higher than normal, but not high enough to be classified as diabetes. Without intervention, individuals with pre-diabetes are at a much higher risk for developing type 2 diabetes. The American Diabetes Association estimates that the total cost of diagnosed diabetes in the United States is $174 billion. Studies suggest that when additional costs for gestational diabetes, pre-diabetes and undiagnosed diabetes are included, the total diabetes-related costs in the United States could exceed $218 billion; and

WHEREAS, Approximately 79 million, or one in three American adults have pre-

WHEREAS, Early detection and disease management can help prevent complications of diabetes, including cardiovascular disease, blindness, nervous system damage and kidney failure; and

WHEREAS, Reducing the burden associated with diabetes may be enhanced through the state Kansas Medicaid reform efforts; and

WHEREAS, Diabetes advocates and stakeholders from across the state, including representatives from disparate populations, have come together to form the Chronic Disease Action of Kansas to develop and implement the Kansas Diabetes Plan 2008-2013, which is a plan to reduce the negative clinical and economic impact on individuals and on the state of Kansas; and

WHEREAS, The goals of the Kansas Diabetes Plan 2008-2013 are to increase awareness of prevention and to control diabetes, improve the capacity to address the prevention and control of diabetes, increase Kansas health care workforce competency in diabetes standards of care, improve awareness of and access to public policy to support improving diabetes prevention, detection, and care throughout Kansas; and

WHEREAS, At the end of 2012 the American Diabetes Association surpassed their goal of inspiring one million Americans to be a part of the American Diabetes Association's movement to stop diabetes. To continue this momentum, the American Diabetes Association is asking the American public to "Take it. Share it." by rallying one million people to take the diabetes risk test beginning on Diabetes Alert Day on March 26, 2013: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we hereby endorse the Kansas Diabetes Plan 2008-2013, recognize March 26th as American Diabetes Association Alert Day in the state of Kansas and invite the Kansas Diabetes Action Council to submit a final report to the state legislature in 2013 on the results of the Kansas Diabetes Plan 2008-2013; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send five enrolled copies of this resolution to Senators V. Schmidt and Masterson.

On emergency motion of Senator V. Schmidt SR 1742 was adopted unanimously.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: I vote no on SB 72. Passing this bill reinforces what much of the public believes about the political process –people who write the biggest checks, write the laws. I am not, and have never been, a part of that. $45,000 in campaign contributions were made by just one proponent of this bill to Senators in the last campaign. That's a lot of money spent, a lot of tax revenue lost. This bill is about nothing but money. It's a significant tax break for a large campaign contributor for a class of business that doesn't create a significant number of high paying jobs for any community. It compares nonprofit, community-oriented organizations such as the YMCA and YWCA to for-profit health clubs. Usually, private health clubs do not provide after school programs and affordable childcare, promote youth sports, help empower women, work to eliminate racism, or offer services to help low- and middle-income families. This is just an example of special interest legislation that sets a precedent for other for-profit organizations to be given the same status as nonprofit organizations, and enhances the perception that you can just pay into several politicians' campaigns and the system – whether it benefits the public good or not – is yours. – DAVID HALEY

Senator Hensley requests the record to show he concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Haley on SB 72.

Madam President: I vote no on SB 72. The YMCA and similar organizations have strayed from their original mission. These organizations have an unfair advantage over private sector businesses. A yes vote is certainly a step toward leveling the playing field. However, I vote no as this inequity needs to be corrected at the root cause. The appropriate solution is to disallow the YMCA and similar private organizations an exemption from property and sales tax. — JIM DENNING

Senator Wolf requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Denning on SB 72.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote no on S Sub HB 2052. While I support the second amendment and people's rights to protect themselves and their families, I believe S Sub for HB 2052 is too big, tries to do too much, and takes away local government's ability to decide what would work best in their communities. Furthermore, as a former educator and school administrator, I am not comfortable with the thought of having guns in schools and on college campuses. That is why I vote no on S Sub HB 2052.—TOM HAWK

Senator Francisco requests the record show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hawk on S Sub for HB 2052.

Mr. Vice President: I vote no on S Sub for HB 2052. While I support the second amendment and people's rights to protect themselves and their families, I believe S Sub for HB 2052 is too big and takes away local control. As a former county commissioner, I believe it is important for local government to have a say in what buildings in their communities will allow guns. Finally, as a former educator who used to worry about where to keep my purse in my classroom where my students wouldn't get into it, I can't even fathom allowing guns in a school building or on a college campus. That is why I vote no on S Sub for HB 2052.—PAT PETTEY

Senator Hawk requests the record to show he concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Pettey on S Sub for HB 2052.

The substitute bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote no on Sub for HB 2105. I know that unemployed Kansans do not want to be unemployed and they do all they can to get re-employed. That is why the average unemployed Kansan collects unemployment benefits for 15 weeks before finding new employment. This bill changes the amount of time an unemployed Kansan can receive benefits from 26 weeks to 16 weeks while finding new employment in our current economy, according to studies, can take anywhere up to 31 weeks. This bill is a slap in the face of unemployed Kansans struggling to make ends meet for themselves and their families. We don't need to change a system that has worked very well for years. That is why I vote no.—ANTHONY HENSLEY

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote no on S Sub for HB 2140, the Reading to Succeed Act. I believe in the importance of school children learning how to read and reading at grade level, but I don't believe that's what this bill is really all about. In his Roadmap for Kansas, Governor Brownback said he wants to see an increase in the percentage of 4th graders reading at grade level. I believe that his proposal to retain students at the 3rd grade level is an effort to achieve this goal. He's willing to do whatever may make the numbers look good, even if it means bad policy. I do not believe retention is the answer. Study after study has shown that retention is bad policy, while other studies show the effectiveness of early childhood education programs. Yet, Governor Brownback insists on pulling $6 million out of essential early childhood education programs to fund his Reading to Succeed Act. This bill gives $6 million to a group of individuals who were hand selected by Governor Brownback to distribute to any organization they deem fit. I am not willing to gamble with the education of Kansas school children. That is why I vote no on the Reading to Succeed Act.—ANTHONY HENSLEY

Senators Faust-Goudeau and Pettey request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hensley on S Sub for HB 2140.

Mr. Vice President: I support local schools and locally elected school boards. Local educators know best how to educate their students. They know the situations of their schools and their communities. The local educational environment varies greatly across this great state. I believe that state mandates on our local schools are often counterproductive and stifle creativity, innovation, and the ability of teachers to do their job. S Sub for HB 2140 mandates actions of local schools. While I support the intent of the bill, I do not support such mandates. I vote NO on S Sub HB 2140. —FORREST KNOX

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote NO on HB 2201. K.S.A. 66-2001 makes it clear that the current public policy of the state, among other intents, is to ensure that every Kansan will have access to a first class telecommunications infrastructure that provides excellent services at an affordable price and to promote consumer access to a full range of telecommunications services that are comparable in urban and rural areas throughout the state. Telecommunications services are changing at a rapid pace; we need to keep up. I believe that we could do this best by reviewing and confirming or updating our statement of policy before we pass a bill on telecommunications, especially a bill that is starkly in contrast with much of that stated public policy by eliminating specific responsibilities for carrier of last resort and the Kansas Lifeline Services Program.—

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote no on HB 2234. By all accounts, the Kansas Turnpike Authority is a well-run and efficient agency entirely self-supported from toll revenues paid by cars and trucks that choose to use it. It generates about $90 million a year which is used to make payments on its revenue bonds and make capital improvements. Governor Brownback's proposal suggests that merging the Turnpike into KDOT would generate $15 million in savings each of the next two years. However, none of these savings have been documented in any way. This proposal will be seen by investors as politicizing the Kansas Turnpike, since KDOT is ultimately answerable to elected officials and the Secretary of Transportation will serve as CEO of the Kansas Turnpike. The proposed takeover of the Kansas Turnpike is a bad idea. Its costs very likely will far outweigh any minor cost savings that might be achieved in the short term. The Legislature would be wise to leave this well run, autonomous agency alone. For those reasons, I vote NO on HB 2234.—ANTHONY HENSLEY

Senators Francisco, Holland and Kelly request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hensley on HB 2234.

Mr. Vice President: I vote NO on HB 2234. I agree with the question that was asked about the bill: why on earth would we make these changes to an agency that provides tremendous value to the state at no cost to the state? The Kansas Turnpike Authority provides for a truly great roadway by collecting tolls from both residents and non-residents that pay for construction, maintenance, and patrol services with no state appropriations. Many claims are made that private businesses can do a better and more efficient job of providing services than the government. Votes to merge this well-run private agency into a government entity fly in the face of those claims. This is a sad day for Kansas, and it will result in a less than glorious future for the state.—CAROLYN MCGINN

EXPLANATION VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I am appalled that the senate would condone the underlying message this bill is giving. What kind of message are we sending to the citizens of our great state? To think that we even have penalties for third and fourth DUI convictions is completely unacceptable. Having been involved in an accident with an inebriated driver that was over two and a half times the legal limit, and having been seriously injured in that accident and seeing the result of the death of that driver on the family leave me incensed that our penalties are lax and needing additional review. I feel that every licensed driver in the vehicle should receive the same DUI ticket and the same exact penalty as the vehicle operator. Looking at the monetary penalties, I have seen bar tabs larger than the penalties we are recommending. I do agree with the higher penalties but allowing these individuals the privilege of driving past the first conviction their license needs to be revoked and that penalty enforced. I also would support any effort to review our DUI penalties as measured with the rest of the world. I vote no on HB 2303.

Journal of the Senate

FIFTIETH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, April 1, 2013, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with forty senators present.
Invocation by Father Don Davidson:

Heavenly Father, being a fool is a matter both of recognition and appreciation. Some who appear foolish accomplish great things, and those with eyes and ears to see the good, appreciate the wisdom in what appears on the surface as not meeting that standard. May we enjoy this day with its tradition of pranks and silliness as a part of the richness of being human, the gift of humor, and the joy of laughter. In your holy name we pray. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Susan Wagle.

Absent or Not Voting: Donovan.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: The amendment that was defeated by this roll call voted proposed that the provisions of this bill shall not apply to an abortion if the pregnancy is the result of an act of rape, aggravated indecent liberties with a child or incest, as those crimes are defined under the Kansas criminal code. That is why I voted for the amendment on HB 2253. It is a sad day in the Senate to watch our colleagues vote against these exceptions.

—DAVID HALEY

Senator Hensley requests the record to show he concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Haley on HB 2253.

Mr. Vice President: I vote no on the amendment. Current Kansas law and HB 2253 allows an abortion up to 22 weeks of a pregnancy and does not prevent a woman who has been raped or is a victim of incest from having an abortion. HB 2253 does prevent public taxpayer funds from being used to perform an abortion. This bill respects the rights of Kansas taxpayers who are morally opposed to not be involved in the abortion procedure through the use of public funds.— SUSAN WAGLE

A motion by Senator Francisco to amend HB 2253 failed and the following amendment was rejected: on page 5, following line 6, by inserting:

"Sec. 10. K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 40-2,190 is hereby amended to read as follows: 40-2,190. (a) Any individual or group health insurance policy, medical service plan, contract, hospital service corporation contract, hospital and medical service corporation contract, fraternal benefit society or health maintenance organization, municipal group-funded pool and the state employee health care benefits plan which is delivered, issued for delivery, amended or renewed on or after July 1, 2011, shall exclude coverage for elective abortions, unless the procedure is necessary to preserve the life of the mother or because the pregnancy is the result of an act of rape. Coverage for abortions may be obtained through an optional rider for which an additional premium is paid. The premium for the optional rider shall be calculated so that it fully covers the estimated cost of covering elective abortions per enrollee as determined on an average actuarial basis.

(b) No health insurance exchange established within this state or any health insurance exchange administered by the federal government or its agencies within this state shall offer health insurance contracts, plans, or policies that provide coverage for elective abortions, nor shall any health insurance exchange operating within this state offer coverage for elective abortions through the purchase of an optional rider.

(c) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Abortion" means the use or prescription of any instrument, medicine, drug or any other substance or device to terminate the pregnancy of a woman known to be pregnant with an intention other than to increase the probability of a live birth, to preserve the life or health of the child after live birth, or to remove a dead unborn child who died as the result of natural causes in utero, accidental trauma or a criminal assault on the pregnant woman or her unborn child and which causes the premature termination of the pregnancy.

(2) "Elective" means an abortion for any reason other than to prevent the death of the mother upon whom the abortion is performed; provided, that an abortion may not be deemed one to prevent the death of the mother based on a claim or diagnosis that she will engage in conduct which will result in her death.

(d) The provisions of this section shall be effective from and after July 1, 2011.";

And by renumbering sections accordingly;

On page 72, in line 27, after "Supp." by inserting "40-2,190,";

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote "aye" on this amendment to HB 2253. During the discussion of an earlier amendment that would have added an exception to the prohibition for insurance policies, plans, contracts, etc., to exclude coverage for abortions when the pregnancy is the result of an act of rape, the comment was made that current exception that is granted for those insurance policies when the procedure is necessary to preserve the life of the mother is one that most Kansans agree with. If that is the case, it should be appropriate to allow Kansas taxpayers to deduct expenses for medical procedures necessary to preserve the live of a woman if they have been claimed as an itemized deduction for federal income tax purposes. Mr. Vice President, we can and therefore should, show compassion to women who have had medical emergencies in our tax laws.—MARCI FRANCISCO

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: This amendment is the best of both worlds. It eliminates the reduction in the Kansas Earned Income Tax Credit while keeping the increase in refunds for those who qualify for the Kansas Homestead Refund. It represents tax policy that is really fair while taking care of those who benefit from the EITC and those who benefit from the homestead tax refund. I believe we should help both.—ANTHONY HENSLEY

Senator Haley requests the record to show he concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hensley on HB 2060.

On motion of Senator Bruce, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Tuesday, April 2, 2013.

FINAL ACTION ON BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

HB 2060, AN ACT concerning taxation; relating to food sales tax refunds and homestead property tax refunds; certain confined persons; earned income tax credit; amending K.S.A. 79-4505 and K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 79-32,205, 79-4502, 79-4508 and 79-4509 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

The bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: I vote NO on HB 2060. The Earned Income Tax Credit provides an important tax benefit for low-wage workers and encourages employment. I do not support, especially without an analysis of the effects, reducing this benefit to provide benefits to others. I recognize that the majority of the Senate feels differently and is suggesting that the EITC be reduced and some 42 million dollars be used to expand Homestead Property Tax Refunds. If that is the desire of the Senate, and the goal is to help "those who most need our help", then the program for Homestead Property Tax Refunds should be expanded to also reinstate the program for renters.—MARC FRANCISCO

Senators Haley and Kelly request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Francisco on HB 2060.

Madam. President: While I (we) support property tax relief, I (we) do not believe the best way to provide that relief is by reducing the Earned Income Tax Credit. This bill takes from one group of low income families and redistributes it to another group of low income families/individuals. These two groups do not necessarily overlap. HB 2060 makes us choose between two worthy causes, which causes me discomfort voting either way. Reluctantly, we must choose to maintain existing assistance for the low income earner over expanding another benefit. I (we) must vote no to HB 2060, but will look for other opportunities for property tax relief in future bills.—MITCH HOLMES

Senators Emler, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Hawk, Holland, Kelly, McGinn, Petersen, Pettey and Wolf requests the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Holmes on HB 2060.

Madam President: I do support the provision in this bill that disallows incarcerated persons from receiving a food sales tax rebate or a homestead tax refund, but I vote no. I proposed and voted for an amendment to this bill that would have eliminated the Kansas Earned Income Tax Credit reduction while keeping the increase in refunds for recipients of the Kansas Homestead Refund program. I did so because it represented a tax policy that is really fair and takes care of those who benefit from the EITC and those who benefit from the Homestead Tax Refund. And, I believe we should help both. That amendment failed. This bill cuts $42 million from a program that President Ronald Reagan contended was the best anti-poverty measure ever passed by Congress, and I agree. The EITC encourages work and supplements wages of low income Kansans who are struggling to make ends meet. Reducing the Kansas Earned Income Tax Credit to expand the Homestead Property Tax Refund program is taking money away from the least among us to give money to the least among us. That is why I vote no.—ANTHONY HENSLEY

Senators Faust-Goudeau, Hawk, and Kelly request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hensley on HB 2060.

HB 2253, AN ACT concerning abortion; relating to the funding of abortion services; relating to prenatally and postnatally diagnosed conditions; relating to restrictions on late-term abortions; relating to the woman's-right-to-know act; amending K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 40-2246, 65-6701, 65-6703, 65-6709, 65-6710, 76-3308, 79-32,117, 79-32,138, 79-32,182b, 79-32,195, 79-32,261 and 79-3606 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 29; Nays 11; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Yeas: Abrams, Apple, Arpke, Bowers, Bruce, Denning, Donovan, Fitzgerald, Holmes, Kerschen, King, Knox, LaTurner, Longbine, Love, Lynn, Masterson, McGinn, Melcher, O'Donnell, Olson, Ostmeyer, Petersen, Pilcher-Cook, Powell, Pyle, Smith, Tyson, Wagle.

Nays: Emler, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Hawk, Hensley, Holland, Kelly, Pettey, V. Schmidt, Wolf.

The bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: I vote NO on HB 2253. The issue of abortion is complex, and I came to the debate on this bill knowing that there was strong support in the legislature for changes to our abortion statutes. I offered amendments that I believed were looking for common ground: to allow insurance policies to cover expenses for a pregnancy that was the result of rape, to allow for tax deductions for medical expenses for an abortion necessary to save the life of a mother, and to be inclusive of domestic partners as well as spouses in programs and services for women who have received a positive diagnosis of Down Syndrome or other conditions for their child. These amendments were rejected. The bill contains unsubstantiated definitions, references, and requirements, and increased costs for health care clinics. I would hope that we would take a closer look at the language before it becomes law. Ultimately, I don't believe that more government intrusion into a woman's personal decisions makes Kansas families or our state stronger.

—MARCI FRANCISCO

Senator Kelly requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Francisco on HB 2253.

Madam President: Every child deserves a family that loves and nurtures them. Unfortunately life challenges can force a woman and her family to make a difficult choice. She may not have chosen to become pregnant but she should have factual information if she is going to choose to have an abortion. She is not well-served by false health alarms. I vote no on HB 2253.—PAT PETTEY

Senator Francisco requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Pettey on HB 2253.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: I vote NO on S Sub for HB 2055 because of the rushed way the bill has been brought to this chamber and represented. S Sub for HB 2055 would expand gaming in Kansas by substantially lowering the "buy in" threshold for a casino in southeast Kansas. This bill was sold on the premise that it would limit gambling in Kansas by eliminating the possibility for three racetracks to reopen. However, there are already significant impediments to these racetracks reopening, otherwise they would have done so. In fact, an amendment was offered to cut the proceeds the Woodlands racetrack would have to pay because under current law the operation is not financially feasible. If we are going to seriously look at gambling bills, they should go through the proper committee process to provide transparency and security for the citizens of Kansas.— CAROLYN MCGINN

(b) Any ruling, agreement or contract, whether written or oral, express or implied, between a retailer and this state's executive branch, or any other state agency or department, stating, agreeing or ruling that the retailer is not required to collect sales and use tax in this state despite the presence of a warehouse, distribution center or fulfillment center in the state that is owned or operated by the retailer or an affiliated person of the retailer shall be null and void, unless it is specifically approved by a majority vote of each of the chambers of the Kansas legislature.

(c) As used in this section, "affiliated person" means any person that is a member of the same "controlled group of corporations" as defined in section 1563(a) of the federal internal revenue code as the retailer or any other entity that, notwithstanding its form of organization, bears the same ownership relationship to the retailer as a corporation that is a member of the same "controlled group of corporations" as defined in section 1563(a) of the federal internal revenue code.

New Sec. 10. (a) On and after July 1, 2013, watercraft shall be appraised at fair market value determined therefor pursuant to K.S.A. 79-503a, and amendments thereto, and assessed at the percentage of value as follows: (1) 11.5% in tax year 2014; and (2) 5% in tax year 2015 and all tax years thereafter. In no case shall the assessed value of any watercraft, as determined under the provisions of this section, cause the tax upon such watercraft to be less than $12.

(b) As used in this section, "watercraft" means any vessel requiring numbering pursuant to K.S.A. 32-1110, and amendments thereto. Each watercraft may include one trailer which is designed to launch, retrieve, transport and store such watercraft and any nonelectric motor or motors which are necessary to operate such watercraft on the water.

Sec. 11. On July 1, 2013, K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 74-2433f is hereby amended to read as follows: 74-2433f. (a) There shall be a division of the state court of tax appeals known as the small claims and expedited hearings division. Hearing officers appointed by the chief hearing officer shall have authority to hear and decide cases heard in the small claims and expedited hearings division.

(b) The small claims and expedited hearings division shall have jurisdiction over hearing and deciding applications for the refund of protested taxes under the provisions of K.S.A. 79-2005, and amendments thereto, and hearing and deciding appeals from decisions rendered pursuant to the provisions of K.S.A. 79-1448, and amendments thereto, and of article 16 of chapter 79 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and ~~acts amendatory thereof or supplemental amendments~~ thereto, with regard to single-family residential property. The filing of an appeal with the small claims and expedited hearings division shall be a prerequisite for filing an appeal with the state court of tax appeals for appeals involving single-family residential property.

(c) At the election of the taxpayer, the small claims and expedited hearings division shall have jurisdiction over: (1) Any appeal of a decision, finding, order or ruling of the director of taxation, except an appeal, finding, order or ruling relating to an assessment issued pursuant to K.S.A. 79-5201 et seq., and amendments thereto, in which the amount of tax in controversy does not exceed $15,000; (2) hearing and deciding applications for the refund of protested taxes under the provisions of K.S.A. 79-2005, and amendments thereto, where the value of the property, other than property devoted to agricultural use, is less than $2,000,000 as reflected on the valuation notice; and (3) hearing and deciding appeals from decisions rendered pursuant to the provisions of K.S.A. 79-1448, and amendments thereto, and of article 16 of chapter 79 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and ~~acts amendatory thereof or supplemental amendments~~ thereto, other than those relating to land devoted to agricultural use, wherein the value of the property is less than $2,000,000 as reflected on the valuation notice.

(d) In accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 74-2438, and amendments thereto, any party may elect to appeal any application or decision referenced in subsection (b) to the state court of tax appeals. Except as provided in subsection (b) regarding single-family residential property, the filing of an appeal with the small claims and expedited hearings division shall not be a prerequisite for filing an appeal with the state court of tax appeals under this section. Final decisions of the small claims and expedited hearings division may be appealed to the state court of tax appeals. An appeal of a decision of the small claims and expedited hearings division to the state court of tax appeals shall be de novo.

(e) A taxpayer shall commence a proceeding in the small claims and expedited hearings division by filing a notice of appeal in the form prescribed by the rules of the state court of tax appeals which shall state the nature of the taxpayer's claim. Notice of appeal shall be provided to the appropriate unit of government named in the notice of appeal by the taxpayer. In any valuation appeal or tax protest commenced pursuant to articles 14 and 20 of chapter 79 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, the hearing shall be conducted in the county where the property is located or a county adjacent thereto. In any appeal from a final determination by the secretary of revenue, the hearing shall be conducted in the county in which the taxpayer resides or a county adjacent thereto.

(f) The hearing in the small claims and expedited hearings division shall be informal. The hearing officer may hear any testimony and receive any evidence the hearing officer deems necessary or desirable for a just determination of the case. A hearing officer shall have the authority to administer oaths in all matters before the hearing officer. All testimony shall be given under oath. A party may appear personally or may be represented by an attorney, a certified public accountant, a certified general appraiser, a tax representative or agent, a member of the taxpayer's immediate family or an authorized employee of the taxpayer. A county or unified government may be represented by the county appraiser, designee of the county appraiser, county attorney or counselor or other representatives so designated. No transcript of the proceedings shall be kept.

(g) The hearing in the small claims and expedited hearings division shall be conducted within 60 days after the appeal is filed in the small claims and expedited hearings division unless such time period is waived by the taxpayer. A decision shall be rendered by the hearing officer within 30 days after the hearing is concluded and, in cases arising from appeals described by subsections (b) and (c)(2) and (3), shall be accompanied by a written explanation of the reasoning upon which such decision is based. Documents provided by a taxpayer or county or district appraiser shall be returned to the taxpayer or the county or district appraiser by the hearing officer and shall not become a part of the court's permanent records. Documents provided to the hearing officer shall be confidential and may not be disclosed, except as otherwise specifically provided.

(h) With regard to any matter properly submitted to the division relating to the determination of valuation of property for taxation purposes, it shall be the duty of the county appraiser to initiate the production of evidence to demonstrate, by a preponderance of the evidence, the validity and correctness of such determination. No presumption shall exist in favor of the county appraiser with respect to the validity and correctness of such determination. With regard to leased commercial and industrial property, the presumption of validity and correctness of such determination shall exist in favor of the county appraiser unless the taxpayer has furnished the county or district appraiser, within 30 calendar days following the informal meeting required by K.S.A. 79-1448, and amendments thereto, or within 30 calendar days following the informal meeting required by K.S.A. 79-2005, and amendments thereto, a complete income and expense statement for the property for the three years next preceding the year of appeal.

Sec. 12. On July 1, 2013, K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 79-306e is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-306e. (a) The value for property tax purposes of any ~~vessel watercraft~~, as defined by ~~K.S.A. 32-1102 section 10~~, and amendments thereto, which is acquired or sold after January 1 and prior to September 1 of any taxable year shall be equal to the value determined therefor pursuant to ~~K.S.A. 79-503a section 10~~, and amendments thereto, multiplied by: (1) In the case of a sale, a fraction the numerator of which is the number of months, or major portion thereof, such ~~vessel watercraft~~ was owned by the record owner thereof during the taxable year in which such ~~vessel watercraft~~ was sold, and the denominator of which is 12; and (2) in the case of an acquisition, a fraction the numerator of which is the number of months, or major portion thereof, remaining in the taxable year after the date of acquisition by the record owner thereof, and the denominator of which is 12.

(b) On or after July 1, 2007, notice of the acquisition or sale of any such ~~vessel watercraft~~ shall be provided by the record owner thereof to the appropriate county appraiser on or before December 20 of the year of such acquisition or sale. Upon receipt of such notice, and after computation of the value of any such ~~vessel watercraft~~ in accordance with the provision of subsection (a), a notification or revised notification of value shall be mailed to the taxpayer.

(c) ~~Vessels-Watercraft~~ acquired after September 1 of a taxable year shall not be subject to assessment and taxation for such year, except as provided by paragraph (1) of subsection (a).

(d) The provisions of this section shall apply to all taxable years commencing after December 31, ~~2002~~ 2013.

Sec. 13. On July 1, 2013, K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 79-1448 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-1448. Any taxpayer may complain or appeal to the county appraiser from the classification or appraisal of the taxpayer's property by giving notice to the county appraiser within 30 days subsequent to the date of mailing of the valuation notice required by K.S.A. 79-1460, and amendments thereto, for real property, and on or before May 15 for personal property. The county appraiser or the appraiser's designee shall arrange to hold an informal meeting with the aggrieved taxpayer with reference to the property in question. At such meeting it shall be the duty of the county appraiser or the county appraiser's designee to initiate production of evidence to substantiate the valuation of such property, including the affording to the taxpayer of the opportunity to review the data sheet of comparable sales utilized in the determination of such valuation. In any appeal from the appraisal of leased commercial and industrial property, the county or district appraiser's appraised value shall be presumed to be valid and correct and may only be rebutted by a preponderance of the evidence, unless the property owner furnishes the county or district appraiser a complete income and expense statement for the property for the three years next preceding the year of appeal within 30 calendar days following the informal meeting. The county appraiser may extend the time in which the taxpayer may informally appeal from the classification or appraisal of the taxpayer's property for just and adequate reasons. Except as provided in K.S.A. 79-1404, and amendments thereto, no informal meeting regarding real property shall be scheduled to take place after May 15, nor shall a final determination be given by the appraiser after May 20. Any final determination shall be accompanied by a written explanation of the reasoning upon which such determination is based when such determination is not in favor of the taxpayer. Any taxpayer who is aggrieved by the final determination of the county appraiser may appeal to the hearing officer or panel appointed pursuant to K.S.A. 79-1611, and amendments thereto, and such hearing officer, or panel, for just cause shown and recorded, is authorized to change the classification or valuation of specific tracts or individual items of real or personal property in the same manner provided for in K.S.A. 79-1606, and amendments thereto. In lieu of appealing to a hearing officer or panel appointed pursuant to K.S.A. 79-1611, and amendments thereto, any taxpayer aggrieved by the final determination of the county appraiser, except with regard to land devoted to agricultural use, wherein the value of the property, is less than $2,000,000, as reflected on the valuation notice, or the property constitutes single family residential property, may appeal to the small claims and expedited hearings division of the state court of tax appeals within the time period prescribed by K.S.A. 79-1606, and amendments thereto. Any taxpayer who is aggrieved by the final determination of a hearing officer or panel may appeal to the state court of tax appeals as provided in K.S.A. 79-1609, and amendments thereto. An informal meeting with the county appraiser or the appraiser's designee shall be a condition precedent to an appeal to the county or district hearing panel.

Sec. 14. On July 1, 2013, K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 79-1609 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-1609. Any person aggrieved by any order of the hearing officer or panel may appeal to the state court of tax appeals by filing a written notice of appeal, on forms approved by the state court of tax appeals and provided by the county clerk for such purpose, stating the grounds thereof and a description of any comparable property or properties and the appraisal thereof upon which they rely as evidence of inequality of the appraisal of their property, if that be a ground of the appeal, with the state court of tax appeals and by filing a copy thereof with the county clerk within 30 days after the date of the order from which the appeal is taken. A county or district appraiser may appeal to the state court of tax appeals from any order of the hearing officer or panel. With regard to any matter properly submitted to the court relating to the determination of valuation of residential property or real property used for commercial and industrial purposes for taxation purposes, it shall be the duty of the county appraiser to initiate the production of evidence to demonstrate, by a preponderance of the evidence, the validity and correctness of such determination ~~except that no such duty shall accrue with regard to leased commercial and industrial property unless the property owner has furnished to the county or district appraiser a complete income and expense statement for the property for the three years next preceding the year of appeal. No presumption shall exist in favor of the county appraiser with respect to the validity and correctness of such determination.~~ With regard to leased commercial and industrial property, the presumption of validity and correctness of such determination shall exist in favor of the county or district appraiser unless, within 30 calendar days following the informal meeting required by K.S.A. 79-1448, and amendments thereto, the taxpayer furnished to the county or district appraiser complete income and expense statements for the property for the three years next preceding the year of appeal.

Sec. 15. On July 1, 2013, K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 79-1701a is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-1701a. Any taxpayer, the county appraiser or the county clerk shall, on their own motion, request the board of county commissioners to order the correction of the clerical errors in the appraisal, assessment or tax rolls as described in K.S.A. 79-1701, and amendments thereto. The board of county commissioners of the several counties are hereby authorized to order the correction of clerical errors, specified in K.S.A. 79-1701, and amendments thereto, in the appraisal, assessment or tax rolls for the current year and the immediately preceding two years during the period on and after November 1 of each year. If a county treasurer has collected and distributed the property taxes of a taxpayer and it shall thereafter be determined that the tax computed and paid was based on an erroneous assessment due to a clerical error which resulted in an overpayment of taxes by the taxpayer, and such error is corrected under the provisions hereof then the county commissioners may direct a refund in the amount of the overpayment plus interest at the rate prescribed by K.S.A. 79-2968, and amendments thereto, plus two percentage points, per annum, from the date of payment from tax moneys collected during the current year and approve a claim therefor. If all or any portion of the taxes on such property remain unpaid, the board of county commissioners shall cancel that portion of such unpaid taxes which were assessed on the basis of the error which is being corrected. In lieu of taking such a refund the taxpayer may, at the taxpayer's option, be allowed a credit on the current year's taxes in the amount of the overpayment plus interest at the rate prescribed by K.S.A. 79-2968, and amendments thereto, from the date of payment for the previous year. In the event the error results in an understatement of value or taxes as a result of ~~a mathematical miscalculation on the part of the county,~~ the correction of the clerical errors listed in subsection (a), (c), (f) or (g) of K.S.A. 79-1701, and amendments thereto, and the board of county commissioners of the several counties are hereby authorized to correct such error and order an additional assessment or tax bill, or both, to be issued, except that, in no such case shall the taxpayer be assessed interest or penalties on any tax which may be assessed. If such error applies to property which has been sold or otherwise transferred subsequent to the time the error was made, no such additional assessment or tax bill shall be issued.

Sec. 16. On July 1, 2013, K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 79-1702 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-1702. If any taxpayer, municipality or taxing district shall have a grievance described under the provisions of K.S.A. 79-1701 or 79-1701a, and amendments thereto, which is not remediable thereunder solely because not reported within the time prescribed therein, or which was remediable thereunder and reported to the proper official or officials within the time prescribed but which has not been remedied by such official or officials, such grievance may be presented to the state court of tax appeals and if it shall be satisfied from competent evidence produced that there is a real grievance, it may direct that the same be remedied either by canceling the tax, if uncollected, together with all penalties charged thereon, or if the tax has been paid, by ordering a refund of the amount found to have been unlawfully charged and collected and interest at the rate prescribed by K.S.A. 79-2968, and amendments thereto, minus two percentage points.

In all cases where the identical property owned by any taxpayer has been assessed for the current tax year in more than one county in the state, the court is hereby given authority to determine which county is entitled to the assessment of the property and to charge legal taxes thereon, and if the taxes have been paid in a county not entitled thereto, the court is hereby empowered to direct the authorities of the county which has so unlawfully collected the taxes to refund the same to the taxpayer with all penalties charged thereon.

No tax grievance shall be considered by the state court of tax appeals unless the same is filed within four years from the date the tax would have become a lien on real estate.

In all cases where an error results in an understatement of values or taxes as a result of ~~a mathematical miscalculation on the part of a county~~ the correction of the clerical errors listed in subsection (a), (c), (f) or (g) of K.S.A. 79-1701, and amendments thereto, the state court of tax appeals, if it shall be satisfied from competent evidence produced that there is an understatement as a result of a clerical error, may order an additional assessment or tax bill, or both, to be issued so that the proper value of the property in question is reflected, except that, in no such case shall the taxpayer be assessed interest or penalties on any tax which may be assessed. No increase shall be ordered to correct such error that extends back more than two years from the date of the most recent tax year. If such error applies to property which has been sold or otherwise transferred subsequent to the time the error was made, no such additional assessment or tax bill shall be issued.

Errors committed in the valuation and assessment process that are not specifically described in K.S.A. 79-1701, and amendments thereto, shall be remediable only under the provisions of K.S.A. 79-2005, and amendments thereto.

Sec. 17. On July 1, 2013, K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 79-2005 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-2005. (a) Any taxpayer, before protesting the payment of such taxpayer's taxes, shall be required, either at the time of paying such taxes, or, if the whole or part of the taxes are paid prior to December 20, no later than December 20, or, with respect to taxes paid in whole or in part in an amount equal to at least $\frac{1}{2}$ of such taxes on or before December 20 by an escrow or tax service agent, no later than January 31 of the next year, to file a written statement with the county treasurer, on forms approved by the state court of tax appeals and provided by the county treasurer, clearly stating the grounds on which the whole or any part of such taxes are protested and citing any law, statute or facts on which such taxpayer relies in protesting the whole or any part of such taxes. When the grounds of such protest is an assessment of taxes made pursuant to K.S.A. 79-332a and 79-1427a, and amendments thereto, the county treasurer may not distribute the taxes paid under protest until such time as the appeal is final. When the grounds of such protest is that the valuation or assessment of the property upon which the taxes are levied is illegal or void, the county treasurer shall forward a copy of the written statement of protest to the county appraiser who shall within 15 days of the receipt thereof, schedule an informal meeting with the taxpayer or such taxpayer's agent or attorney with reference to the property in question. The county appraiser shall review the appraisal of the taxpayer's property with the taxpayer or such taxpayer's agent or attorney and may change the valuation of the taxpayer's property, if in the county appraiser's opinion a change in the valuation of the taxpayer's property is required to assure that the taxpayer's property is valued according to law, and shall, within 15 business days thereof, notify the taxpayer in the event the valuation of the taxpayer's property is changed, in writing of the results of the meeting. In the event the valuation of the taxpayer's property is changed and such change requires a refund of taxes and interest thereon, the county treasurer shall process the refund in the manner provided by subsection (l).

(b) No protest appealing the valuation or assessment of property shall be filed pertaining to any year's valuation or assessment when an appeal of such valuation or assessment was commenced pursuant to K.S.A. 79-1448, and amendments thereto, nor shall the second half payment of taxes be protested when the first half payment of taxes has been protested. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this provision shall not prevent any subsequent owner from protesting taxes levied for the year in which such property was acquired, nor shall it prevent any taxpayer from protesting taxes when the valuation or assessment of such taxpayer's property has been changed pursuant to an order of the director of property valuation.

(c) A protest shall not be necessary to protect the right to a refund of taxes in the event a refund is required because the final resolution of an appeal commenced pursuant to K.S.A. 79-1448, and amendments thereto, occurs after the final date prescribed for the protest of taxes.

(d) If the grounds of such protest shall be that the valuation or assessment of the property upon which the taxes so protested are levied is illegal or void, such statement shall further state the exact amount of valuation or assessment which the taxpayer admits to be valid and the exact portion of such taxes which is being protested.

(e) If the grounds of such protest shall be that any tax levy, or any part thereof, is illegal, such statement shall further state the exact portion of such tax which is being protested.

(f) Upon the filing of a written statement of protest, the grounds of which shall be that any tax levied, or any part thereof, is illegal, the county treasurer shall mail a copy of such written statement of protest to the state court of tax appeals and the governing body of the taxing district making the levy being protested.

(g) Within 30 days after notification of the results of the informal meeting with the county appraiser pursuant to subsection (a), the protesting taxpayer may, if aggrieved by the results of the informal meeting with the county appraiser, appeal such results to the state court of tax appeals.

(h) After examination of the copy of the written statement of protest and a copy of the written notification of the results of the informal meeting with the county appraiser in cases where the grounds of such protest is that the valuation or assessment of the property upon which the taxes are levied is illegal or void, the court shall conduct a hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Kansas administrative procedure act, unless waived by the interested parties in writing. If the grounds of such protest is that the valuation or assessment of the property is illegal or void the court shall notify the county appraiser thereof.

(i) In the event of a hearing, the same shall be originally set not later than 90 days after the filing of the copy of the written statement of protest and a copy, when applicable, of the written notification of the results of the informal meeting with the county appraiser with the court. With regard to any matter properly submitted to the court relating to the determination of valuation of residential property or real property used for commercial and industrial purposes for taxation purposes, it shall be the duty of the county appraiser to initiate the production of evidence to demonstrate, by a preponderance of the evidence, the validity and correctness of such determination except that no such duty shall accrue to the county or district appraiser with regard to leased commercial and industrial property unless the property owner has furnished to the county or district appraiser a complete income and expense statement for the property for the three years next preceding the year of appeal. No presumption shall exist in favor of the county appraiser with respect to the validity and correctness of such determination. In all instances where the court sets a request for hearing and requires the representation of the county by its attorney or counselor at such hearing, the county shall be represented by its county attorney or counselor.

(j) When a determination is made as to the merits of the tax protest, the court shall render and serve its order thereon. The county treasurer shall notify all affected taxing districts of the amount by which tax revenues will be reduced as a result of a refund.

(k) If a protesting taxpayer fails to file a copy of the written statement of protest and a copy, when applicable, of the written notification of the results of the informal meeting with the county appraiser with the court within the time limit prescribed, such protest shall become null and void and of no effect whatsoever.

(l) (1) In the event the court orders that a refund be made pursuant to this section or the provisions of K.S.A. 79-1609, and amendments thereto, or a court of competent jurisdiction orders that a refund be made, and no appeal is taken from such order, or in the event a change in valuation which results in a refund pursuant to subsection (a), the county treasurer shall, as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable, refund to the taxpayer such protested taxes and, with respect to protests or appeals commenced after the effective date of this act, interest computed at the rate prescribed by K.S.A. 79-2968, and amendments thereto, minus two percentage points, per annum from the date of payment of such taxes from tax moneys collected but not distributed. Upon making such refund, the county treasurer shall charge the fund or funds having received such protested taxes, except that, with respect to that portion of any such refund attributable to interest the county treasurer shall charge the county general fund. In the event that the state court of tax appeals or a court of competent jurisdiction finds that any time delay in making its decision is unreasonable and is attributable to the taxpayer, it may order that no interest or only a portion thereof be added to such refund of taxes.

(2) No interest shall be allowed pursuant to paragraph (1) in any case where the tax paid under protest was inclusive of delinquent taxes.

(m) Whenever, by reason of the refund of taxes previously received or the reduction of taxes levied but not received as a result of decreases in assessed valuation, it will be impossible to pay for imperative functions for the current budget year, the governing body of the taxing district affected may issue no-fund warrants in the amount necessary. Such warrants shall conform to the requirements prescribed by K.S.A. 79-2940, and amendments thereto, except they shall not bear the notation required by such section and may be issued without the approval of the state court of tax appeals. The governing body of such taxing district shall make a tax levy at the time fixed for the certification of tax levies to the county clerk next following the issuance of such warrants sufficient to pay such warrants and the interest thereon. All such tax levies shall be in addition to all other levies authorized by law.

(n) Whenever a taxpayer appeals to the court of tax appeals pursuant to the provisions of K.S.A. 79-1609, and amendments thereto, or pays taxes under protest related to one property whereby the assessed valuation of such property exceeds 5% of the total county assessed valuation of all property located within such county and the taxpayer receives a refund of such taxes paid under protest or a refund made pursuant to the provisions of K.S.A. 79-1609, and amendments thereto, the county treasurer or the governing body of any taxing subdivision within a county may request the pooled money investment board to make a loan to such county or taxing subdivision as provided in this section. The pooled money investment board is authorized and directed to loan to such county or taxing subdivision sufficient funds to enable the county or taxing subdivision to refund such taxes to the taxpayer. The pooled money investment board is authorized and directed to use any moneys in the operating accounts, investment accounts or other investments of the state of Kansas to provide the funds for such loan. Each loan shall bear interest at a rate equal to the net earnings rate of the pooled money investment portfolio at the time of the making of such loan. The total aggregate amount of loans under this program shall not exceed $50,000,000 of unencumbered funds pursuant to article 42 of chapter 75 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto. Such loan shall not be deemed to be an indebtedness or debt of the state of Kansas within the meaning of section 6 of article 11 of the constitution of the state of Kansas. Upon certification of the pooled money investment board by the county treasurer or governing body of the amount of each loan authorized pursuant to this subsection, the pooled money investment board shall transfer each such amount certified by the county treasurer or governing body from the state bank account or accounts prescribed in this subsection to the county treasurer who shall deposit such amount in the county treasury. Any such loan authorized pursuant to this subsection shall be repaid within four years. The county or taxing subdivision shall make not more than four equal annual tax levies at the time fixed for the certification of tax levies to the county clerk following the making of such loan sufficient to pay such loan within the time period required under such loan. All such tax levies shall be in addition to all other levies authorized by law.

(o) The county treasurer shall disburse to the proper funds all portions of taxes paid under protest and shall maintain a record of all portions of such taxes which are so protested and shall notify the governing body of the taxing district levying such taxes thereof and the director of accounts and reports if any tax protested was levied by the state.

(p) This statute shall not apply to the valuation and assessment of property assessed by the director of property valuation and it shall not be necessary for any owner of state assessed property, who has an appeal pending before the state court of tax appeals, to protest the payment of taxes under this statute solely for the purpose of protecting the right to a refund of taxes paid under protest should that owner be successful in that appeal.

Sec. 18. On July 1, 2013, K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 79-3702 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-3702. For the purposes of this act: (a) "Purchase price" means the consideration paid or given or contracted to be paid or given by any person to the seller of an article of tangible personal property for the article purchased. The term shall include, in addition to the consideration paid or given or contracted to be paid or given, the actual cost of transportation from the place where the article was purchased to the person using the same in this state. If a cash discount is allowed and taken on the sale it shall be deducted in arriving at the purchase price.

(b) The meaning ascribed to words and phrases in K.S.A. 79-3602, and amendments thereto, insofar as is practicable, shall be applicable herein unless otherwise provided. The provisions of K.S.A. 79-3601 to 79-3625, inclusive, 79-3650,

K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 79-3693 and 79-3694, and amendments thereto, relating to enforcement, collection and administration, insofar as practicable, shall have full force and effect with respect to taxes imposed under the provisions of this act.

(c) "Use" means the exercise within this state by any person of any right or power over tangible personal property incident to the ownership of that property, except that it shall not include processing, or the sale of the property in the regular course of business, and except storage as hereinafter defined.

(d) "Storage" means any keeping or retaining in this state for any purpose except sale in the regular course of business or subsequent use solely outside this state of tangible personal property purchased from a retailer.

(e) "Storage" and "use" do not include the keeping, retaining or exercising of any right or power over tangible personal property shipped or brought into this state for the purpose of subsequently transporting it outside the state for use thereafter solely outside the state, or for the purpose of being processed, fabricated, or manufactured into, attached to or incorporated into, other tangible personal property to be transported outside the state and thereafter used solely outside the state.

(f) "Property used in processing" means: (1) Any tangible personal property which, when used in fabrication, compounding, manufacturing or germination, becomes an integral part of the new article resulting from such fabrication, compounding, manufacturing, or germination, and intended to be sold ultimately at retail; and (2) fuel which is consumed in creating power, heat, or steam for processing or for generating electric current.

(g) "Retailer" means every person engaged in the business of selling tangible personal property for use within the meaning of this act, except that, when in the opinion of the director it is necessary for the efficient administration of this act to regard any salesperson, representatives, truckers, peddlers or canvassers as the agents of the dealers, distributors, supervisors, employers or persons under whom they operate or from whom they obtain the tangible personal property sold by them, irrespective of whether they are making sales on their own behalf or on behalf of such dealers, distributors, supervisors, employers, or persons, the director may so regard them and may regard the dealers, distributors, supervisors, employers, or persons as retailers for the purposes of this act.

(h) (1) "Retailer doing business in this state" or any like term, means: (A) Any retailer ~~having or~~ maintaining in this state, permanently, temporarily, directly or indirectly through a subsidiary, agent or representative, an office, distribution house, sales house, warehouse or other place of business;

(B) any retailer ~~having~~ utilizing an employee, independent contractor, agent, representative, salesperson, canvasser ~~or~~, solicitor or other person operating in this state either permanently or temporarily, ~~under the authority of the retailer or its subsidiary,~~ for the purpose of selling, delivering, installing, assembling, servicing, repairing, soliciting sales or the taking of orders for tangible personal property;

(C) any retailer, including a contractor, repair person or other service provider, who enters this state to perform services that are enumerated in K.S.A. 79-3603, and amendments thereto, and who is required to secure a retailer's sales tax registration certificate before performing those services;

(D) any retailer deriving rental receipts from a lease of tangible personal property situated in this state;

(E) ~~any person having a franchisee or licensee operating under its trade name if the franchisee or the licensee is required to collect the tax under the Kansas retailers' sales tax act;~~

~~(F)~~—any person regularly maintaining a stock of tangible personal property in this state for sale in the normal course of business; and

~~(G)(F)~~ any retailer who has any other contact with this state that would allow this state to require the retailer to collect and remit tax under the provisions of the constitution and laws of the United States.

(2) A retailer shall be presumed to be doing business in this state if any of the following occur:

(A) ~~Both of the following conditions exist:~~

(i) The retailer holds a substantial ownership interest in, or is owned in whole substantial part by, a retailer maintaining a sales location in Kansas; and

(ii) the retailer sells the same or a substantially similar line of products as the related Kansas retailer and does so under the same or a substantially similar business name, or the Kansas facilities or Kansas employees of the related Kansas retailer are used to advertise, promote or facilitate sales by the retailer to consumers.

(B) The retailer holds a substantial ownership interest in, or is owned in whole or in substantial part by, a business that maintains a distribution house, sales house, warehouse or similar place of business in Kansas that delivers property sold by the retailer to consumers.

(C) For purposes of paragraphs (A) and (B):

(i) "Substantial ownership interest" means an interest in an entity that is not less than the degree of ownership of equity interest in an entity that is specified by Section 78p of Title 15 of the United States Code, or any successor to that statute, with respect to a person other than a director or officer; and

~~(ii) "ownership" means and includes both direct ownership, and indirect ownership through a parent, subsidiary or affiliate. Any person, other than a common carrier acting in its capacity as such, that has nexus with the state sufficient to require such person to collect and remit taxes under the provisions of the constitution and laws of the United States if such person were making taxable retail sales of tangible personal property or services in this state:~~

(i) Sells the same or a substantially similar line of products as the retailer and does so under the same or a substantially similar business name;

(ii) maintains a distribution house, sales house, warehouse or similar place of business in Kansas that delivers or facilitates the sale or delivery of property sold by the retailer to consumers;

(iii) uses trademarks, service marks, or trade names in the state that are the same or substantially similar to those used by the retailer;

(iv) delivers, installs, assembles or performs maintenance services for the retailer's customers within the state;

(v) facilitates the retailer's delivery of property to customers in the state by allowing the retailer's customers to pick up property sold by the retailer at an office, distribution facility, warehouse, storage place or similar place of business maintained by the person in the state;

(vi) has a franchisee or licensee operating under its trade name if the franchisee or the licensee is required to collect the tax under the Kansas retailers' sales tax act; or

(vii) conducts any other activities in the state that are significantly associated with the retailer's ability to establish and maintain a market in the state for the retailer's sales.

(B) Any affiliated person conducting activities in this state described in subparagraph (A) or (C) has nexus with this state sufficient to require such person to collect and remit taxes under the provisions of the constitution and laws of the United States if such person were making taxable retail sales of tangible personal property or services in this state.

(C) The retailer enters into an agreement with one or more residents of this state under which the resident, for a commission or other consideration, directly or indirectly refers potential customers, whether by a link or an internet website, by telemarketing, by an in-person oral presentation, or otherwise, to the retailer, if the cumulative gross receipts from sales by the retailer to customers in the state who are referred to the retailer by all residents with this type of an agreement with the retailer is in excess of $10,000 during the preceding 12 months. This presumption may be rebutted by submitting proof that the residents with whom the retailer has an agreement did not engage in any activity within the state that was significantly associated with the retailer's ability to establish or maintain the retailer's market in the state during the preceding 12 months. Such proof may consist of sworn written statements from all of the residents with whom the retailer has an agreement stating that they did not engage in any solicitation in the state on behalf of the retailer during the preceding year, provided that such statements were provided and obtained in good faith. This subparagraph shall take effect 90 days after the enactment of this statute and shall apply to sales made and uses occurring on or after the effective date of this subparagraph and without regard to the date the retailer and the resident entered into the agreement described in this subparagraph. The term "preceding 12 months" as used in this subparagraph includes the 12 months commencing prior to the effective date of this subparagraph.

(D) The presumptions in subparagraphs (A) and (B) may be rebutted by demonstrating that the activities of the person or affiliated person in the state are not significantly associated with the retailer's ability to establish or maintain a market in this state for the retailer's sales.

(3) The processing of orders electronically, by fax, telephone, the internet or other electronic ordering process, does not relieve a retailer of responsibility for collection of the tax from the purchaser if the retailer is doing business in this state pursuant to this section.

(i) "Director" means the director of taxation.

(j) As used in this section, "affiliated person" means any person that is a member of the same "controlled group of corporations" as defined in section 1563(a) of the federal internal revenue code as the retailer or any other entity that, notwithstanding its form of organization, bears the same ownership relationship to the retailer as a corporation that is a member of the same "controlled group of corporations" as defined in section 1563(a) of the federal internal revenue code."

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT

MADAM PRESIDENT and MR. SPEAKER: Your committee on conference on Senate amendments to HB 2043 submits the following report:

The House accedes to all Senate amendments to the bill, and your committee on conference further agrees to amend the bill, as printed as Senate Substitute for House Bill No. 2043, as follows:

On page 1, following line 5, by inserting:

"Section 1. K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 21-6617 is hereby amended to read as follows: 21-6617. (a) If a defendant is charged with capital murder, the county or district attorney shall file written notice if such attorney intends, upon conviction of the defendant, to request a separate sentencing proceeding to determine whether the defendant should be sentenced to death. In cases where the county or district attorney or a court determines that a conflict exists, such notice may be filed by the attorney general. Such notice shall be filed with the court and served on the defendant or the defendant's attorney not later than seven days after the time of arraignment. If such notice is not filed and served as required by this subsection, the ~~county or district~~ prosecuting attorney may not request such a sentencing proceeding and the defendant, if convicted of capital murder, shall be sentenced to life without the possibility of parole, and no sentence of death shall be imposed hereunder.

(b) Except as provided in K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 21-6618 and 21-6622, and amendments thereto, upon conviction of a defendant of capital murder, the court, upon motion of the ~~county or district~~ prosecuting attorney, shall conduct a separate sentencing proceeding to determine whether the defendant shall be sentenced to death.

The proceeding shall be conducted by the trial judge before the trial jury as soon as practicable. If any person who served on the trial jury is unable to serve on the jury for the sentencing proceeding, the court shall substitute an alternate juror who has been impaneled for the trial jury. If there are insufficient alternate jurors to replace trial jurors who are unable to serve at the sentencing proceeding, the trial judge may summon a special jury of 12 persons which shall determine the question of whether a sentence of death shall be imposed. Jury selection procedures, qualifications of jurors and grounds for exemption or challenge of prospective jurors in criminal trials shall be applicable to the selection of such special jury. The jury at the sentencing proceeding may be waived in the manner provided by K.S.A. 22-3403, and amendments thereto, for waiver of a trial jury. If the jury at the sentencing proceeding has been waived or the trial jury has been waived, the sentencing proceeding shall be conducted by the court.

(c) In the sentencing proceeding, evidence may be presented concerning any matter that the court deems relevant to the question of sentence and shall include matters relating to any of the aggravating circumstances enumerated in K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 21-6624, and amendments thereto, and any mitigating circumstances. Any such evidence which the court deems to have probative value may be received regardless of its admissibility under the rules of evidence, provided that the defendant is accorded a fair opportunity to rebut any hearsay statements. Only such evidence of aggravating circumstances as the state has made known to the defendant prior to the sentencing proceeding shall be admissible, and no evidence secured in violation of the constitution of the United States or of the state of Kansas shall be admissible. No testimony by the defendant at the sentencing proceeding shall be admissible against the defendant at any subsequent criminal proceeding. At the conclusion of the evidentiary presentation, the court shall allow the parties a reasonable period of time in which to present oral argument.

(d) At the conclusion of the evidentiary portion of the sentencing proceeding, the court shall provide oral and written instructions to the jury to guide its deliberations.

(e) If, by unanimous vote, the jury finds beyond a reasonable doubt that one or more of the aggravating circumstances enumerated in K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 21-6624, and amendments thereto, exist and, further, that the existence of such aggravating circumstances is not outweighed by any mitigating circumstances which are found to exist, the defendant shall be sentenced to death; otherwise, the defendant shall be sentenced to life without the possibility of parole. The jury, if its verdict is a unanimous recommendation of a sentence of death, shall designate in writing, signed by the foreman of the jury, the statutory aggravating circumstances which it found beyond a reasonable doubt. If, after a reasonable time for deliberation, the jury is unable to reach a verdict, the judge shall dismiss the jury and impose a sentence of life without the possibility of parole and shall commit the defendant to the custody of the secretary of corrections. In nonjury cases, the court shall follow the requirements of this subsection in determining the sentence to be imposed.

(f) Notwithstanding the verdict of the jury, the trial court shall review any jury verdict imposing a sentence of death hereunder to ascertain whether the imposition of such sentence is supported by the evidence. If the court determines that the imposition of such a sentence is not supported by the evidence, the court shall modify the sentence and sentence the defendant to life without the possibility of parole, and no sentence of death shall be imposed hereunder. Whenever the court enters a judgment modifying the sentencing verdict of the jury, the court shall set forth its reasons for so doing in a written memorandum which shall become part of the record.

(g) A defendant who is sentenced to imprisonment for life without the possibility of parole shall spend the remainder of the defendant's natural life incarcerated and in the custody of the secretary of corrections. A defendant who is sentenced to imprisonment for life without the possibility of parole shall not be eligible for parole, probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, conditional release, postrelease supervision, or suspension, modification or reduction of sentence. Upon sentencing a defendant to imprisonment for life without the possibility of parole, the court shall commit the defendant to the custody of the secretary of corrections and the court shall state in the sentencing order of the judgment form or journal entry, whichever is delivered with the defendant to the correctional institution, that the defendant has been sentenced to imprisonment for life without the possibility of parole.";

And by redesignating sections accordingly;

Also on page 1, in line 22, following "Supp." by inserting "21-6617 and"; also in line 22, by striking "is" and inserting "are";

Each individual insurance agent shall maintain a record of all courses attended together with a certificate of attendance for the remainder of the biennium in which the courses were attended and the entire next succeeding biennium.

(2) If the required report showing proof of continuing education completion is not received by the commissioner by the individual insurance agent's biennial due date, such individual insurance agent's qualification and each and every corresponding license shall be suspended automatically for a period of 90 calendar days or until such time as the producer satisfactorily demonstrates completion of the continuing education requirement whichever is sooner. In addition the commissioner shall assess a penalty of $100 for each license suspended. If such insurance agent fails to furnish to the commissioner the required proof of continuing education completion and the monetary penalty within 90 calendar days of such insurance agent's biennial due date, such individual insurance agent's qualification and each and every corresponding license shall expire on such insurance agent's biennial due date. If after more than three but less than 12 months from the date the license expired, the insurance agent wants to reinstate such insurance agent's license, such individual shall provide the required proof of continuing education completion and pay a reinstatement fee in the amount of $100 for each license suspended. If after more than 12 months from the date an insurance agent's license has expired, such insurance agent wants to reinstate such insurance agent's license, such individual shall apply for an insurance agent's license, provide the required proof of continuing education completion and pay a reinstatement fee in the amount of $100 for each license suspended. Upon receipt of a written application from such insurance agent claiming extreme hardship, the commissioner may waive any penalty imposed under this subsection.

(4) Upon receipt of a written application from an individual insurance agent, the commissioner, in cases involving medical hardship or military service, may extend the time within which to fulfill the minimum continuing educational requirements for a period of not to exceed 180 days.

(5) This section shall not apply to any inactive insurance agent during the period of such inactivity. For the purposes of this paragraph, "inactive period" or "period of inactivity" shall mean a continuous period of time of not less than two years and not more than four years starting from the date inactive status is granted by the commissioner. Before returning to active status, such inactive insurance agent shall:

(A) File a report with the commissioner certifying that such agent has met the continuing education requirement; and

(B) pay the renewal fee. If the required proof of continuing education completion and the renewal fee is not furnished at the end of the inactive period, such individual insurance agent's qualification and each and every corresponding license shall expire at the end of the period of inactivity. For issuance of a new license, the individual shall apply for a license and pass the required examination.

(6) Any individual who allows such individual's insurance agent license in this state and all other states in which such individual is licensed as an insurance agent to expire for a period of four or more consecutive years, shall apply for a new insurance agent license and pass the required examination.

(g) (1) Each course, program of study, or subject shall be submitted to and certified by the commissioner in order to qualify for purposes of continuing education.

(3) Upon receipt of such information, the commissioner shall grant or deny certification of any submitted course, program of study or subject as an approved subject, program of study or course and indicate the number of C.E.C.'s that will be recognized for each approved course, program of study or subject. Each approved course, program of study or subject shall be assigned by the commissioner to one or both of the following classes:

- (A) Property and casualty; or
- (B) life insurance ~~(including annuity and variable contracts)~~, and accident and health insurance.

(4) Each course, program of study or subject shall have a value of at least one C.E.C.

Each provider shall maintain a list of all individuals who attend courses offered by such provider for continuing education credit for the remainder of the biennium in which the courses are offered and the entire next succeeding biennium.

Journal of the Senate

FIFTY-THIRD DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, April 4, 2013, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff King.
The roll was called with forty senators present.
Invocation by Father Don Davidson:

Dear Lord, on this date in 1887 Susanna Medora Salter was elected 1st US woman mayor of Argonia, Kansas. Also on this date in 1818 the Congress decided the form and shape of the American Flag. We do not know what amazing thing might happen today that will be reported hundreds of years from now, but let us never lose sight that what we do here may well have an effect on the days and years to come. It is much too easy to live in the “now” without a sense of the “tomorrow.” Help us O Lord to keep one eye focused on our current situation, and one eye always looking forward. In your holy name, Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Jeff King.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND SENATE RESOLUTIONS

Senators Love, Hensley, Kelly and V. Schmidt introduced the following Senate resolution, which was read:

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1753—

A RESOLUTION congratulating and commending Washburn alumni
Michael Wilhoite and Cary Williams for competing in the 2013 Super Bowl, and the leadership of Washburn Head Football Coach Craig Schurig.

WHEREAS, Michael Wilhoite, of Topeka, Kansas, where he attended Highland Park High School, earned All-MIAA honors as a senior linebacker at Washburn University after recording 81 tackles in one season. He finished his Washburn career with over 200 total tackles, which ranked him high in the Washburn record book. He finished his career at Washburn with 109 solo stops. Following his Washburn career, Michael signed with the Omaha Nighthawks, a professional team in the UFL (United Football League). Through his talent, character and work ethic, he was then signed by the San Francisco 49ers and was eventually selected to be a team captain; and

WHEREAS, Cary Williams came to Washburn University (WU) in 2006. He was named to the AP Little All-American Team as well as the Daktronics All-American team his senior season. Williams was named unanimous first team All-MIAA at defensive back after recording seven INTs. He also ranked fifth in NCAA Division II in interceptions per game as a senior. His seven INTs are the second most in WU single-season history. He returned two kickoffs for TDs which tied a WU single-season record and is a WU career record as well. His 100-yard kickoff return is tied for the longest return in school history. He finished his career with 94 tackles including 67 solo stops with 11 interceptions. He was then drafted by the Tennessee Titans, before he was eventually signed by the Baltimore Ravens where he has recorded close to 200 tackles and 4 interceptions; and

WHEREAS, It is very rare for two individuals who were teammates at a Kansas Division II school to be signed to an NFL team. Both of these young men had the goal of playing in the NFL, and both of them achieved this goal. Further, it is even more unheard of for two Division II teammates to play against each other in a Super Bowl. This occurred on February 3, 2013, when the San Francisco 49ers played against the Baltimore Ravens in the Super Bowl; and

WHEREAS, Much of the success of the Washburn University football program can be attributed to the leadership of Head Coach Craig Schurig. In ten seasons as the Ichabods' head coach, Craig Schurig has built one of the most respected programs in the MIAA with three NCAA playoff appearances and the 2005 MIAA title coming on the heels of 2007, 2009 and 2011 runner-up finishes in the conference race. He has completed a 72-44 record at Washburn. He is the all-time winningest coach at Washburn, with 9 consecutive winning seasons (after Washburn had only one winning season in the 15 seasons before he arrived). He has coached 171 MIAA Academic Honor Roll members, 133 All-MIAA players, 18 All-Americans, 5 NFL players, 3 Academic All-Americans and 2 NFL draft picks: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we congratulate and commend Washburn Alum and Baltimore Ravens cornerback Cary Williams, Washburn Alum and San Francisco 49ers linebacker Michael Wilhoite and Washburn Head Coach Craig Schurig for their success and representation of Washburn and our state on a national level, and wish them much more success in future endeavors. We also thank them for serving as role models to our Kansas youth; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send five enrolled copies of this resolution to Senator Love.

On emergency motion of Senator Love SR 1753 was adopted unanimously.

The Senators honored those present with a standing ovation.

Senator Tyson introduced the following Senate resolution, which was read:

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1752—

A RESOLUTION congratulating the Ottawa High School men's basketball team on its class 4A state championship.

WHEREAS, The Ottawa High School men's basketball team won the class 4A state basketball championship against Highland Park High School; and

WHEREAS, The game took place at the Bicentennial Center in Salina. Ottawa won the game 54-45; and

WHEREAS, The Ottawa High School men's basketball team went undefeated this season with a record of 25-0. This is the first state championship for the high school in 41 years; and

WHEREAS, The seniors on the team began their playing careers with undefeated seasons as both 7th and 8th graders at Ottawa Middle School; and

WHEREAS, The Ottawa High School men's basketball team is also academically successful. They have an overall GPA of 3.62 and an average ACT score of 22; and

WHEREAS, Head Coach, Jon McKowen, and Assistant Coaches, Evan Shaffer and Blake Lasley, worked diligently with the team throughout the season to improve their skills and lead them to the state championship game; and

WHEREAS, The members of the 2013 Ottawa High School men's basketball team were Semi Ojeleye, Kaden Shaffer, Wyatt Peters, Dillon Boeh, Jordan Markley, Austin Blaue, Alex Hasty, Dallas Natt, Taylor Graf, Tyler Smith, Rob Hedrick, Ian Mathews and Quentin Blaue. Semi Ojeleye currently holds the Kansas state scoring record at 2,763 points. The team managers were Alexis Dunnivan, Steph Brands, Erika Doty and Nate Rodriguez: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we congratulate the 2013 Ottawa High School men's basketball team on its class 4A state championship. These young men have worked very hard throughout the season, and this state championship is a testament to that hard work; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate be directed to provide five enrolled copies of this resolution to Senator Tyson.

On emergency motion of Senator Tyson SR 1752 was adopted unanimously.

Team members were introduced and the Senators honored them with a standing ovation.

REPORT ON ENROLLED BILLS

On motion of Senator Bruce, the Senate recessed until 2:00 p.m.

The Senate met, pursuant to recess, with President Wagle in the chair.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Haley rose on a point of personal privilege: Two score and five years this very evening, a single rifle shot emanated from a depraved and racist would-be assassin. Now the bullet struck and took the mortal life of Martin Luther King, Jr. as he stood with several of his associates on a balcony at the Lorraine Hotel in Memphis, Tennessee. My dad was a member of the Kansas Senate that fateful day. He had been a classmate of Dr. King's just twenty years before at Morehouse College in Atlanta, Georgia and had just hosted an event with him in Kansas City a few months before. As a boy of nine or so, it frightened me to see the shock and to hear the quivering fear in my mother's voice as she stood at the kitchen phone talking to dad there in that house in Kansas City. What of it...momma...why are you upset...what does it mean...he isn't a relative...or even a friend...why...tell me, please, why are you so sad? My mother couldn't explain the incredible loss that she and countless millions of people were feeling at that moment. Even today, at this hour forty-five years later, living in America that has made great strides to move ever closer to the realism of his dream...I still, now as a grown man, can feel the echo...the sting...the immeasurable loss of that day. But thank God, Madam President, Thank God. The dream didn't die with the dreamer. The movement for civil rights and for personal dignity to be heir every American regardless of social or economic station...regardless of race, or of religion or of class or of gender...the dream has made great strides in forty-five years, and a martyr at only 39, Dr. King's legacy has lived longer than he did and it holds significant truths...evident at so many levels. In this forty-fifth anniversary year, for example, America has grown tolerant enough, big enough, mature enough to elect to high office persons on the basis of the content of their character and on their ability and not on their gender or on their age or on their race. Every year that I've been in this Legislature, I have commemorated the greatness of Dr. King and of his message; now enshrined in a great monument bearing his likeness and much of his insightful eloquence by the Reflecting Pool on the Mall in Washington, D.C. A message that human rights and equality are the birthright of every human being...a message which he, and so many others have lived, fought, died and continue to work towards...around the world. In closing, Madam President, Dr. King's remembrance from the moment that we heard that the fatal shot had been fired until this very moment should be an inspiration to us all to participate in the equality that comes of justice and the commitment to uplift all humanity through understanding and that our differences are not as diverse as our similarities. — DAVID HALEY

Senator Faust-Goudeau requests the record to show she joins with Senator Haley on his point of personal privilege.

(b) No policy, agreement, contract or certificate issued by a corporation to which this section applies shall contain a provision which excludes, limits or otherwise restricts coverage because medicaid benefits as permitted by title XIX of the social security act of 1965 are or may be available for the same accident or illness.

(c) Violation of subsection (b) shall be subject to the penalties prescribed by K.S.A. 40-2407 and 40-2411, and amendments thereto.

New Sec. 12. (a) This section shall apply to all insurers transacting business in the state offering individual or group sickness and accident insurance. Such insurers also may offer a mandate lite health benefit plan. A group or individual carrier may also offer a mandate lite health benefit plan.

(b) A mandate lite health benefit plan means an individual or group sickness and accident insurance plan that does not contain one or more of the Kansas-mandated benefits other than K.S.A. 40-2,100 and 40-2,166, and amendments thereto.

(c) The mandate lite health benefit plan shall contain the definitions of group or individual sickness and accident insurance with respect to major medical benefits and standard provisions or rights of coverage.

(d) The mandate lite health benefit plan may be issued on a group or individual basis.

(e) The insured shall be provided with a written notice that one or more of the state-mandated benefits are not included in the mandate lite health benefit plan.

(1) The mandate lite health benefit plan shall specify the health services that are included and shall specifically list the health services that will be limited or not covered from the list of state-mandated coverage other than K.S.A. 40-2,100 and 40-2,166, and amendments thereto.

(2) The insurer is required to retain a signed copy of this notice on file as a part of the original application as evidence that the insured has acknowledged such notice.

(3) Such signed copy may be in original form, electronic file form or in any other reproducible file form as may be consistent with the insurer's method of retaining application copies.

(f) The definition of preexisting conditions may not be more restrictive than the definition of preexisting conditions normally used for the corresponding regular individual or group insurance contracts.

(g) The mandate lite health benefit plan may offer:

(1) Various optional combinations of coverage for generic, formulary and non-formulary drugs.

(2) The mandate lite health benefit plan may offer drug discount plans.

(h) A mandate lite health benefit plan may charge additional premiums for each optional benefit offered. Optional benefits may include mandated benefits that are not included in the mandate lite health benefit plan.

(i) This section shall be known and may be cited as the mandate lite health benefit plan act.

New Sec. 13. (a) Any portion of the health insurance premiums paid by consumers that are in fact passed through as commissions shall not be considered a part of administrative expenses and shall be excluded from all determinations of the medical loss ratio calculations when totaling the ratio of premiums paid by a consumer used for claims versus administrative expenses for a policy. Any portion of premiums identified as commissions must be paid to a nonemployee in order to be excluded. Any portion of the premiums retained by the insurance company or its employees must be considered as a part of the calculation of the medical loss ratio as administrative related income.

(b) For the purposes of this section, "commission" means commissions to agents, consultation fees, counseling fees, consultant fees, and similar advising or sales compensation to a nonemployee licensed agent.

New Sec. 14. (a) For the purposes of this section:

(2) "Short-term" means an insurance policy period of six months or 12 months, based upon policy design, which offers not more than one renewal period with or without a requirement of medical re-underwriting or medical requalification.

(A) Because a short-term policy addresses the special needs for temporary coverage, a short-term policy is not subject to continuation provisions of the health insurance portability and accountability act of 1996 (public law 104-191).

(B) Because a short-term policy addresses the special needs for temporary coverage, a short-term policy shall be exempt from medical loss ratio calculations associated with individual sickness and accident insurance issued within the state unless such calculation excludes any monthly administration fee associated with the sale of such policy.

(b) Specially designed policies shall include policies designed to provide sickness and accident insurance for specific coverage of benefits or services that may be excluded as benefits or services cited under section 12, and amendments thereto. Specially designed policies may include the following stand-alone policies and coverages:

(1) Chiropractic plans;
 (2) acupuncture coverage plans;
 (3) holistic medical treatment plans;
 (4) podiatrist plans;
 (5) pharmacy plans;
 (6) psychiatric plans;
 (7) allergy plans; and
 (8) such other stand-alone plans or combinations of plans of accepted traditional and nontraditional medical practice as shall be allowable for exclusion from group or individual plans under section 12, and amendments thereto.

(c) No specially designed policy shall be deemed to be included under the definition of group sickness and accident insurance, including short-term, limited-duration health insurance, issued or renewed inside or outside of this state and covering persons residing in this state.

Sec. 15. K.S.A. 39-719e, 40-254, 40-2,112, 40-12a08, 40-1612 and 40-19a10 and K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 40-19c09 and 40-2124 are hereby repealed.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MADAM PRESIDENT: We concur with the unanimous passage of the conference committee report on HB 2025, the Robert G. "Bob" Bethell joint committee on home and community based services. Few here in the Kansas Legislature, approach the combination of intellect, tenacity and perseverance that Representative Bob Bethell brought to the legislative process. His unique and untiring advocacy on behalf of quality senior living; his mixture of wit, sometimes self-effacing humor; his appreciation for Mickey Mouse and so many fond and respected memories punctuate his very being throughout our Rotunda and this building to this very day. A minister of sorts, Bob would no doubt have some philosophical irony attributed to his final day of service to his family, his community and the causes he championed ... all which he loved dearly. His life lost in a car accident heading home after a marathon day at the Legislature ... what would HE say? All we can say now, Madame President, is that we should all be so fortunate to have an identifiable legacy as enviable as Bob's. This bill is an important part of his advocacy which will now be long remembered, appropriately, in statute. Truly ... his very living was not in vain.—DAVID HALEY

Senators Bruce, Hawk, Holland, Kelly, Love, McGinn, Petersen and Schmidt request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Haley on HB 2025.

In that event, departure may be imposed to extend the postrelease supervision to a period of up to 60 months.

(ii) If the sentencing judge departs from the presumptive postrelease supervision period, the judge shall state on the record at the time of sentencing the substantial and compelling reasons for the departure. Departures in this section are subject to appeal pursuant to K.S.A. 21-4721, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 21-6820, and amendments thereto.

Early discharge from postrelease supervision is at the discretion of the board.

(viii) Persons convicted of K.S.A. 21-3510 or 21-3511, prior to their repeal, or K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 21-5508, and amendments thereto, shall be required to participate in a treatment program for sex offenders during the postrelease supervision period.

(E) The period of postrelease supervision provided in subparagraphs (A) and (B) may be reduced by up to 12 months and the period of postrelease supervision provided in subparagraph (C) may be reduced by up to six months based on the offender's compliance with conditions of supervision and overall performance while on postrelease supervision. The reduction in the supervision period shall be on an earned basis pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the secretary of corrections.

(F) In cases where sentences for crimes from more than one severity level have been imposed, the offender shall serve the longest period of postrelease supervision as provided by this section available for any crime upon which sentence was imposed irrespective of the severity level of the crime. Supervision periods will not aggregate.

(G) Except as provided in subsection (u), persons convicted of a sexually violent crime committed on or after July 1, 2006, and who are released from prison, shall be released to a mandatory period of postrelease supervision for the duration of the person's natural life.

(G) aggravated indecent solicitation of a child, K.S.A. 21-3511, prior to its repeal, or subsection (b) of K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 21-5508, and amendments thereto;

(H) sexual exploitation of a child, K.S.A. 21-3516, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 21-5510, and amendments thereto;

(I) aggravated sexual battery, K.S.A. 21-3518, prior to its repeal, or subsection (b) of K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 21-5505, and amendments thereto;

(J) aggravated incest, K.S.A. 21-3603, prior to its repeal, or subsection (b) of K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 21-5604, and amendments thereto; or

(K) aggravated human trafficking, as defined in K.S.A. 21-3447, prior to its repeal, or subsection (b) of K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 21-5426, and amendments thereto, if committed in whole or in part for the purpose of the sexual gratification of the defendant or another;

(3) As used in this subsection, "sexually motivated" means that one of the purposes for which the defendant committed the crime was for the purpose of the defendant's sexual gratification.

(e) If an inmate is sentenced to imprisonment for a crime committed while on parole or conditional release, the inmate shall be eligible for parole as provided by subsection (c), except that the prisoner review board may postpone the inmate's parole eligibility date by assessing a penalty not exceeding the period of time which could have been assessed if the inmate's parole or conditional release had been violated for reasons other than conviction of a crime.

(f) If a person is sentenced to prison for a crime committed on or after July 1, 1993, while on probation, parole, conditional release or in a community corrections program, for a crime committed prior to July 1, 1993, and the person is not eligible for retroactive application of the sentencing guidelines and amendments thereto pursuant to K.S.A. 21-4724, prior to its repeal, the new sentence shall not be aggregated with the old sentence, but shall begin when the person is paroled or reaches the conditional release date on the old sentence. If the offender was past the offender's conditional release date at the time the new offense was committed, the new sentence shall not be aggregated with the old sentence but shall begin when the person is ordered released by the prisoner review board or reaches the maximum sentence expiration date on the old sentence, whichever is earlier. The new sentence shall then be served as otherwise provided by law. The period of postrelease supervision shall be based on the new sentence, except that those offenders whose old sentence is a term of imprisonment for life, imposed pursuant to K.S.A. 1993 Supp. 21-4628, prior to its repeal, or an indeterminate sentence with a maximum term of life imprisonment, for which there is no conditional release or maximum sentence expiration date, shall remain on postrelease supervision for life or until discharged from supervision by the prisoner review board.

(g) Subject to the provisions of this section, the prisoner review board may release on parole those persons confined in institutions who are eligible for parole when: (1) The board believes that the inmate should be released for hospitalization, deportation or to answer the warrant or other process of a court and is of the opinion that there is reasonable probability that the inmate can be released without detriment to the community or to the inmate; or (2) the secretary of corrections has reported to the board in writing that the inmate has satisfactorily completed the programs required by any agreement entered under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto, or any revision of such agreement, and the board believes that the inmate is able and willing to fulfill the obligations of a law abiding citizen and is of the opinion that there is reasonable probability that the inmate can be released without detriment to the community or to the inmate. Parole shall not be granted as an award of clemency and shall not be considered a reduction of sentence or a pardon.

(h) The prisoner review board shall hold a parole hearing at least the month prior to the month an inmate will be eligible for parole under subsections (a), (b) and (c). At least one month preceding the parole hearing, the county or district attorney of the county where the inmate was convicted shall give written notice of the time and place of the public comment sessions for the inmate to any victim of the inmate's crime who is alive and whose address is known to the county or district attorney or, if the victim is deceased, to the victim's family if the family's address is known to the county or district attorney. Except as otherwise provided, failure to notify pursuant to this section shall not be a reason to postpone a parole hearing. In the case of any inmate convicted of an off-grid felony or a class A felony, the secretary of corrections shall give written notice of the time and place of the public comment session for such inmate at least one month preceding the public comment session to any victim of such inmate's crime or the victim's family pursuant to K.S.A. 74-7338, and amendments thereto. If notification is not given to such victim or such victim's family in the case of any inmate convicted of an off-grid felony or a class A felony, the board shall postpone a decision on parole of the inmate to a time at least 30 days after notification is given as provided in this section. Nothing in this section shall create a cause of action against the state or an employee of the state acting within the scope of the employee's employment as a result of the failure to notify pursuant to this section. If granted parole, the inmate may be released on parole on the date specified by the board, but not earlier than the date the inmate is eligible for parole under subsections (a), (b) and (c). At each parole hearing and, if parole is not granted, at such intervals thereafter as it determines appropriate, the board shall consider: (1) Whether the inmate has satisfactorily completed the programs required by any agreement entered under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto, or any revision of such agreement; and (2) all pertinent information regarding such inmate, including, but not limited to, the circumstances of the offense of the inmate; the presentence report; the previous social history and criminal record of the inmate; the conduct, employment, and attitude of the inmate in prison; the reports of such physical and mental examinations as have been made, including, but not limited to, risk factors revealed by any risk assessment of the inmate; comments of the victim and the victim's family including in person comments, contemporaneous comments and prerecorded comments made by any technological means; comments of the public; official comments; any recommendation by the staff of the facility where the inmate is incarcerated; proportionality of the time the inmate has served to the sentence a person would receive under the Kansas sentencing guidelines for the conduct that resulted in the inmate's incarceration; and capacity of state correctional institutions.

(i) In those cases involving inmates sentenced for a crime committed after July 1, 1993, the prisoner review board will review the inmate's proposed release plan. The board may schedule a hearing if they desire. The board may impose any condition they deem necessary to insure public safety, aid in the reintegration of the inmate into the community, or items not completed under the agreement entered into under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto. The board may not advance or delay an inmate's release date. Every inmate while on postrelease supervision shall remain in the legal custody of the secretary of corrections and is subject to the orders of the secretary.

(j) (1) Before ordering the parole of any inmate, the prisoner review board shall have the inmate appear either in person or via a video conferencing format and shall interview the inmate unless impractical because of the inmate's physical or mental condition or absence from the institution. Every inmate while on parole shall remain in the legal custody of the secretary of corrections and is subject to the orders of the secretary. Whenever the board formally considers placing an inmate on parole and no agreement has been entered into with the inmate under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto, the board shall notify the inmate in writing of the reasons for not granting parole. If an agreement has been entered under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto, and the inmate has not satisfactorily completed the programs specified in the agreement, or any revision of such agreement, the board shall notify the inmate in writing of the specific programs the inmate must satisfactorily complete before parole will be granted. If parole is not granted only because of a failure to satisfactorily complete such programs, the board shall grant parole upon the secretary's certification that the inmate has successfully completed such programs. If an agreement has been entered under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto, and the secretary of corrections has reported to the board in writing that the inmate has satisfactorily completed the programs required by such agreement, or any revision thereof, the board shall not require further program participation. However, if the board determines that other pertinent information regarding the inmate warrants the inmate's not being released on parole, the board shall state in writing the reasons for not granting the parole. If parole is denied for an inmate sentenced for a crime other than a class A or class B felony or an off-grid felony, the board shall hold another parole hearing for the inmate not later than one year after the denial unless the board finds that it is not reasonable to expect that parole would be granted at a hearing if held in the next three years or during the interim period of a deferral. In such case, the board may defer subsequent parole hearings for up to three years but any such deferral by the board shall require the board to state the basis for its findings. If parole is denied for an inmate sentenced for a class A or class B felony or an off-grid felony, the board shall hold another parole hearing for the inmate not later than three years after the denial unless the board finds that it is not reasonable to expect that parole would be granted at a hearing if held in the next 10 years or during the interim period of a deferral. In such case, the board may defer subsequent parole hearings for up to 10 years, but any such deferral shall require the board to state the basis for its findings.

(2) Inmates sentenced for a class A or class B felony who have not had a board hearing in the five years prior to July 1, 2010, shall have such inmates' cases reviewed by the board on or before July 1, 2012. Such review shall begin with the inmates with the oldest deferral date and progress to the most recent. Such review shall be done utilizing existing resources unless the board determines that such resources are insufficient. If the board determines that such resources are insufficient, then the provisions of this paragraph are subject to appropriations therefor.

(k) (1) Parolees and persons on postrelease supervision shall be assigned, upon release, to the appropriate level of supervision pursuant to the criteria established by the secretary of corrections.

(2) Parolees and persons on postrelease supervision are, and shall agree in writing to be, subject to search or seizure by a parole officer or a department of corrections enforcement, apprehension and investigation officer, at any time of the day or night, with or without a search warrant and with or without cause. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to authorize such officers to conduct arbitrary or capricious searches or searches for the sole purpose of harassment.

(3) Parolees and persons on postrelease supervision are, and shall agree in writing to be, subject to search or seizure by any law enforcement officer based on reasonable suspicion of the person violating conditions of parole or postrelease supervision or reasonable suspicion of criminal activity. Any law enforcement officer who conducts such a search shall submit a written report to the appropriate parole officer no later than the close of the next business day after such search. The written report shall include the facts leading to such search, the scope of such search and any findings resulting from such search.

(l) The prisoner review board shall promulgate rules and regulations in accordance with K.S.A. 77-415 et seq., and amendments thereto, not inconsistent with the law and as it may deem proper or necessary, with respect to the conduct of parole hearings, postrelease supervision reviews, revocation hearings, orders of restitution, reimbursement of expenditures by the state board of indigents' defense services and other conditions to be imposed upon parolees or releasees. Whenever an order for parole or postrelease supervision is issued it shall recite the conditions thereof.

(m) Whenever the prisoner review board orders the parole of an inmate or establishes conditions for an inmate placed on postrelease supervision, the board:

(1) Unless it finds compelling circumstances which would render a plan of payment unworkable, shall order as a condition of parole or postrelease supervision that the parolee or the person on postrelease supervision pay any transportation expenses resulting from returning the parolee or the person on postrelease supervision to this state to answer criminal charges or a warrant for a violation of a condition of probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, parole, conditional release or postrelease supervision;

(2) to the extent practicable, shall order as a condition of parole or postrelease supervision that the parolee or the person on postrelease supervision make progress towards or successfully complete the equivalent of a secondary education if the inmate has not previously completed such educational equivalent and is capable of doing so;

(3) may order that the parolee or person on postrelease supervision perform community or public service work for local governmental agencies, private corporations organized not-for-profit or charitable or social service organizations performing services for the community;

(4) may order the parolee or person on postrelease supervision to pay the administrative fee imposed pursuant to K.S.A. 22-4529, and amendments thereto, unless the board finds compelling circumstances which would render payment unworkable;

(5) unless it finds compelling circumstances which would render a plan of payment unworkable, shall order that the parolee or person on postrelease supervision reimburse the state for all or part of the expenditures by the state board of indigents' defense services to provide counsel and other defense services to the person. In determining the amount and method of payment of such sum, the prisoner review board shall take account of the financial resources of the person and the nature of the burden that the payment of such sum will impose. Such amount shall not exceed the amount claimed by appointed counsel on the payment voucher for indigents' defense services or the amount prescribed by the board of indigents' defense services reimbursement tables as provided in K.S.A. 22-4522, and amendments thereto, whichever is less, minus any previous payments for such services;

(6) shall order that the parolee or person on postrelease supervision agree in writing to be subject to search or seizure by a parole officer or a department of corrections enforcement, apprehension and investigation officer, at any time of the day or night, with or without a search warrant and with or without cause. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to authorize such officers to conduct arbitrary or capricious searches or searches for the sole purpose of harassment; and

(7) shall order that the parolee or person on postrelease supervision agree in writing to be subject to search or seizure by any law enforcement officer based on reasonable suspicion of the person violating conditions of parole or postrelease supervision or reasonable suspicion of criminal activity.

(n) If the court which sentenced an inmate specified at the time of sentencing the amount and the recipient of any restitution ordered as a condition of parole or postrelease supervision, the prisoner review board shall order as a condition of parole or postrelease supervision that the inmate pay restitution in the amount and manner provided in the journal entry unless the board finds compelling circumstances which would render a plan of restitution unworkable.

(o) Whenever the prisoner review board grants the parole of an inmate, the board, within 14 days of the date of the decision to grant parole, shall give written notice of the decision to the county or district attorney of the county where the inmate was sentenced.

(p) When an inmate is to be released on postrelease supervision, the secretary, within 30 days prior to release, shall provide the county or district attorney of the county where the inmate was sentenced written notice of the release date.

(q) Inmates shall be released on postrelease supervision upon the termination of the prison portion of their sentence. Time served while on postrelease supervision will vest.

(r) An inmate who is allocated regular good time credits as provided in K.S.A. 22-3725, and amendments thereto, may receive meritorious good time credits in increments of not more than 90 days per meritorious act. These credits may be awarded by the secretary of corrections when an inmate has acted in a heroic or outstanding manner in coming to the assistance of another person in a life threatening situation, preventing injury or death to a person, preventing the destruction of property or taking actions which result in a financial savings to the state.

(s) The provisions of subsections (d)(1)(A), (d)(1)(B), (d)(1)(C) and (d)(1)(E) shall be applied retroactively as provided in subsection (t).
