

2018 Kansas Statutes

3-117. Police power extended. The police power of all cities is hereby extended to all airports and municipal fields for aviation purposes, controlled or operated by any city outside of the city limits, and the governing body of all cities is hereby empowered to enact ordinances not in conflict with state laws affecting the use of said property, the conduct of persons thereon, and the navigation of aircraft over cities.

History: L. 1929, ch. 5, § 5; March 16.