

SESSION OF 2021

SUPPLEMENTAL NOTE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 2106

As Amended by Senate Committee on Assessment and Taxation

Brief*

HB 2106, as amended, would amend income tax law related to fraudulently obtained income, income tax return filings, and retirement income.

The bill would be in effect upon publication in the Kansas Register.

Fraudulent Compensation

The bill would clarify that victims of identify theft would not owe Kansas individual income tax on any compensation that was fraudulently obtained by another individual and would require the Department of Revenue to provide a method for any taxpayer to report whether the taxpayer was a victim of fraud and the amount of fraudulent income for the taxpayer reported to the Internal Revenue Service.

Income Tax Returns

The bill would extend the deadline for the filing of Kansas corporation income tax returns to one month after the due date established under federal law. The bill would also provide that no late-filing penalty could be assessed on taxpayers filing state corporation income tax returns when the return is filed within 30 days after having received extensions to file federal returns by the Internal Revenue Service.

*Supplemental notes are prepared by the Legislative Research Department and do not express legislative intent. The supplemental note and fiscal note for this bill may be accessed on the Internet at <http://www.kslegislature.org>

For all taxpayer returns other than corporate returns, the bill would provide for filing deadlines to be the due date established by the federal Internal Revenue Code, including any applicable extensions provided by the Internal Revenue Service.

The provisions of the bill would be applicable to returns for tax year 2020 and all future years.

Retirement Income

The bill would, beginning in tax year 2021, exempt amounts received by retired individuals under all retirement plans from the Kansas income tax to the extent such income is included in federal adjusted gross income.

Background
