§ 2. Senators and representatives.—The number of representatives and senators shall be regulated by law, but shall not exceed one hundred twenty-five representatives and forty senators. Representatives and senators shall be elected from single-member districts prescribed by law. Representatives shall be elected for two year terms. Senators shall be elected for four year terms. The terms of representatives and senators shall commence on the second Monday of January of the year following election.

§ 3. Compensation of members of legislature.—The members of the legislature shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law or such compensation as is determined according to law.

§ 4. Qualifications of members.—During the time that any person is a candidate for nomination or election to the legislature and during the term of each legislator, such candidate or legislator shall be and remain a qualified elector who resides in his or her district.

§ 5. Eligibility and disqualification of members.—No member of congress and no civil officer or employee of the United States or of any department, agency, or instrumentality thereof shall be eligible to be a member of the legislature. Any member of the legislature who accepts any appointment or election contrary to the foregoing shall be disqualified as a member of the legislature.

§ 7. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 8. Organization and sessions.—The legislature shall meet in regular session annually commencing on the second Monday in January, and all sessions shall be held at the state capital. The duration of regular sessions held in even-numbered years shall not exceed ninety calendar days. Such sessions may be extended beyond ninety calendar days by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. Bills and concurrent resolutions under consideration by the legislature upon adjournment of a regular session held in an odd-numbered year may be considered at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year, as if there had been no such adjournment.

The legislature shall be organized concurrently with the terms of representatives except that the senate shall remain organized during the terms of senators. The president of the senate shall preside over the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives shall preside over the house of representatives. A majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified of the house of representatives or the senate shall constitute a quorum of that house. Neither house, without the consent of the other, shall adjourn for more than two days, Sundays excepted.

Each house shall elect its presiding officer and determine the rules of its proceedings, except that the two houses may adopt joint rules on certain matters and provide for the manner of change thereof. Each house shall provide for the expulsion or censure of members in appropriate cases.

Each house shall be the judge of elections, returns and qualifications of its own members.

§ 9. Vacancies in legislature.—All vacancies occurring in either house shall be filled as provided by law.

§ 10. Journals.—Each house shall publish a journal of its proceedings. The affirmative and negative votes upon the final passage of every bill and every concurrent resolution for amendment of this constitution or ratification of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States shall be entered in the journal. Any member of either house may make written protest against any act or resolution, and the same shall be entered in the journal without delay or alteration.

§ 11. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 12. Origination by either house.—Bills and concurrent resolutions may originate in either house, but may be amended or rejected by the other.

§ 13. Majority for passage of bills.—A majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified of each house, voting in the affirmative, shall be necessary to pass any bill. Two-thirds (2/3) of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, voting in the affirmative, shall be necessary to ratify any amendment to the Constitution of the United States or to make any application for congress to call a convention for proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

§ 14. Approval of bills; vetoes.—(a) Within ten days after passage, every bill shall be signed by the presiding officers and presented to the governor. If the governor approves a bill, he shall sign it. If the governor does not approve a bill, the governor shall veto it by returning the bill, with a veto message of the objections, to the house of origin of the bill. Whenever a veto message is so received, the message shall be entered in the journal and in not more than thirty calendar days (excluding the day received), the house of origin shall reconsider the bill. If two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified shall vote to pass the bill, it shall be sent, with the veto message, to the other house, which shall in not more than thirty calendar days (excluding the day received) also reconsider the bill, and if approved by two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified, it shall become a law, notwithstanding the governor's veto.

If any bill shall not be returned within ten calendar days (excluding the day presented) after it shall have been presented to the governor, it shall become a law in like manner as if it had been signed by the governor.

Joint Rule 1. Joint rules; application and date of expiration; adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation.

(a) Joint rules; expiration, adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation; vote required.

Joint rules are adopted under the authority of section 8 of article 2 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas and shall govern matters made subject thereto except when otherwise specifically provided by joint rule. Joint rules shall expire at the conclusion of the terms of representatives. Joint rules shall be adopted, amended, suspended and revoked by concurrent resolution of the two houses of the legislature. Concurrent resolutions adopting joint rules shall receive the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house.

(b) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules; previous notice; vote required.

After one day's previous notice, joint rules may be amended, suspended or revoked by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house. Upon the filing of such notice in either house, a message shall be sent to the other house advising of the filing of such notice and the reading of the message shall constitute notice to the members of such house. If such previous notice is not given, the affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house shall be required for the amendment, suspension or revocation of a joint rule.

(c) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules at commencement of legislative session; vote required; conditions.

Notwithstanding any provision of this rule to the contrary, no notice shall be required for the adoption of a concurrent resolution amending, suspending or revoking any one or more joint rules at the commencement of a legislative session, and adoption of any such concurrent resolution shall require only the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, subject to the following conditions: (1) The concurrent resolution is sponsored by the speaker or the president; and (2) either: (a) A copy thereof is mailed to each member of the legislature by deposit in the United States mails not later than 11:00 p.m. on the Thursday preceding the Monday on which the legislative session is to commence; or (b) in lieu of mailing, copies of the concurrent resolution are made available to members on the first day of the legislative session and final action is taken on a subsequent legislative day.

Joint Rule 2. Joint sessions.

(a) Joint session called by concurrent resolution; vote required; time, place and subject matter.

A joint session of the senate and house of representatives may be called by concurrent resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house of the legislature or as may otherwise be prescribed by law. Any such resolution shall fix the time and place of the joint session, and the subject matter to be considered at the joint session. Joint sessions shall consider only such matters as are prescribed by law or by the concurrent resolution calling such joint session.

(b) Presiding officer at joint sessions; record of joint session; rules applicable.

The speaker of the house of representatives shall preside at all joint sessions of the senate and house of representatives, and the clerk of the house of representatives shall keep a record of the proceedings thereof and shall enter the record of each such session in the journal of the house of representatives. The rules of the house of representatives and the joint rules of the two houses, insofar as the same may be applicable shall be the rules for joint sessions of the two houses.

(c) Votes in joint session; taking; requirements.

Each member of the senate and the house of representatives present shall be required to vote on all matters considered in joint session, unless excused by a vote of a majority of the members of both houses present.

Joint Rule 3. Conference committee procedure.

(a) Action by house of origin of bill or concurrent resolution amended by other house.

When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned to the house of origin with amendments by the other house, the house of origin may: (1) Concur in such amendments; (2) refuse to concur in such amendments; or (3) refuse to concur in such amendments and request a conference on the bill or concurrent resolution.

(b) Concurrence by house of origin; concurrence prior to taking action on conference committee report by other house; final action; effect of failure of motion to concur.

The house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution may concur in any amendments made by the other house, except that if the bill or concurrent resolution has been referred to a conference committee such action may only be taken prior to the taking of final action upon the conference committee report upon such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house shall be considered action on the final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has been appointed and action has not been taken upon the report of such committee by the other house and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and the motion to concur may be renewed but not on the same legislative day. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has not been appointed and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(c) Motion to nonconcur; when considered final action; effect of adoption of motion.

A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to nonconcur or to refuse to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house which is not coupled with a request for the appointment of a conference committee shall be considered action on final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal, and the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed killed on the adoption thereof.

(d) House of origin refusal to concur or nonconcur; request for conference; procedure.

When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned by either house to the house of origin with amendments, and the house of origin refuses to concur or to nonconcur therein, a conference may be requested by a majority vote of the members present and voting. Such request shall be transmitted to the other house by message which shall include the names of the conferees on the part of the requesting house. Upon receipt of any such message, the receiving house may, in like manner, approve such conference, and shall thereupon notify the requesting house by message stating the names of its conferees.

(e) Membership; appointment; chairperson; house of origin of substitute or materially changed bill or concurrent resolution; meetings of conference committee.

Each conference committee shall consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house of representatives, unless otherwise fixed by agreement of the president of the senate and speaker of the house. Senate members shall be appointed by the president of the senate and house members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not fewer than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house. In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the conference committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

- (f) Conference committee reports; matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business.

Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation. Subject to any limitations imposed under the constitution of the state of Kansas, no more than a total of four additional bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions in conference or bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions which have passed in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution, except that reports of conference committees on any taxation bill are not subject to the limitation contained in this provision. A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment. The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house, electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

- (g) Signatures required on conference committee reports.

All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report.

The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee; effect of failure of motion to adopt report requesting new conference committee.

If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even-numbered year.

Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.

(f) Second house bill consideration deadline.

No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered by either house, not the house of origin of such bill, after the hour of adjournment on March 31, 2021, during the 2021 regular session and on March 23, 2022, during the 2022 regular session.

(j) Modification of schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills; procedure.

In any regular session a concurrent resolution may be adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house setting forth a different schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills for that session and the provisions of such concurrent resolution shall apply to such session notwithstanding provisions of this rule to the contrary.

Rule 2105. Dividing Amendments.

(a) When any motion to amend a bill or resolution contains distinct propositions, it shall be divided by the presiding officer at the request of any member. The division by the presiding officer shall be made in accordance with the following:

(1) A motion to strike out and insert words of less than a sentence shall be indivisible;

(2) the distinct propositions shall be only in the form submitted in the motion to amend;

(3) each proposition must be so distinct that, one being removed, the remainder may stand entirely on their own; and

(4) those portions of a motion to amend a bill as described in Rule 2110 shall be indivisible.

(b) Upon a request to divide a motion to amend a bill or resolution, the presiding officer shall inquire as to whether there is a request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend. If such a request is made, the issue of germaneness shall be determined prior to dividing the motion.

If no request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend is made, the presiding officer shall proceed to divide the motion to amend in accordance with this rule, and no subsequent request for a ruling on germaneness of any distinct proposition of the motion so divided shall be in order.

(c) The presiding officer, or any member, may request that the member requesting the division make the request in writing specifying the manner in which the motion to amend should be divided.

(d) The division of the motion to amend shall be in accordance with the rules of the House and with items (1) to (4), inclusive, of subsection (a). The ruling of the chairperson of the Committee on Rules and Journal, or in the chairperson's absence the vice chairperson of the Committee, on how to divide the motion to amend shall not be subject to appeal except that any member may appeal the ruling of the chairperson, or vice chairperson, on the grounds that the division is not in accordance with a rule of the House including the provisions of items (1), (2), (3) or (4) of subsection (a), or any combination thereof.

(b) The Speaker may determine when a bill is subject to subsection (a). An affirmative vote of 70 members shall be required to sustain a challenge to the Speaker's determination hereunder.

Rule 2108. Motions to Strike Out and Insert.

The rejection of a motion to amend a bill or resolution by striking out and inserting one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert another proposition, nor prevent a subsequent motion simply to strike out; nor shall the rejection of a motion simply to strike out prevent a subsequent motion to strike out and insert.

Rule 2109. Identical Motions.

Except upon the unanimous consent of the House, an identical motion to amend a bill or resolution shall not be made a second time on the same legislative day.

Rule 2110. Floor Amendments to Bills Making Appropriations.

(a) Unless by majority consent to correct an error in drafting, no floor amendment to increase the amount of expenditures that would be authorized in a provision of an appropriations bill shall be in order unless the amendment contains a provision reducing, by a like or greater amount, expenditures that would be authorized in another provision of such appropriations bill.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply if the ending balance in the state general fund for the ensuing fiscal year is equal to 7.5% or more of the total amount authorized to be expended or transferred by demand transfer from the state general fund in such fiscal year based on the most recent budget profile of the Kansas legislative research department.

Rule 2302. Motion to Adjourn.

The motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except while a vote is being taken and until announced, or when a member has the floor, or when the previous question is pending; but a motion to recess is not equivalent to a motion to adjourn.

Rule 2303. Motion to Reconsider.

A motion to reconsider shall take precedence of all other questions except the motion to adjourn. No motion for reconsideration of any vote shall be in order, unless made on the same day or the legislative day following that on which the decision to be reconsidered took place, nor unless a member voting with the prevailing side shall move such reconsideration. A motion for reconsideration, being put and lost, shall not be renewed, nor shall any subject or vote be a second time reconsidered without unanimous consent, but this provision shall not be construed as preventing the introduction of a bill on the same subject. The member moving for reconsideration shall be allowed not more than two minutes for stating the reasons in support of the motion. Such motion shall be subject to debate by any member, stating reasons in support or opposition to the motion. Each of such members shall be allowed not more than one minute for the purpose of such debate. Such motion shall require the affirmative vote of members equal in number to that required to take the action proposed to be reconsidered. A motion to reconsider any final action of the House shall be in order at any time prior to the time at which the message of the House thereon is read into the record of the Senate. A motion to reconsider any final action of the House may be made after the time at which the message of the House thereon is read into the report of the Senate but any action taken pursuant thereto will be contingent upon the return of the measure to the House by the Senate.

Rule 2304. Previous Question.

The “previous question” shall be: “Shall the main question be now put?” and until it is decided shall preclude all amendments or debate. When voting on the previous question, the House decides that the main question shall not now be put, the main question shall be considered as still remaining under debate. The main question shall be on the passage of the bill, resolution or other matter under consideration. When amendments are pending, a vote shall first be taken upon such amendments in their order without further debate or amendment. A majority vote of the members present shall order the previous question.

Rule 2305. Motions Not Subject to Debate.

All questions relating to priority of business shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn, to change the order of consideration of a bill, for a call of the House, and to lay on the table shall be decided without amendment or debate. The several motions to postpone or commit shall preclude all debate on the main question.

Rule 2306. Motion to Refer Bills or Resolutions to Committee When Not in Committee of the Whole.

When not in the Committee of the Whole, a motion to refer a bill or resolution from the Calendar to a standing committee shall be in order only when the body is meeting as the House of Representatives and shall be authorized only when offered by the Majority Leader, or in the absence of the Majority Leader, by the Assistant Majority Leader. When not in the Committee of the Whole, a motion to strike a bill or resolution from the Calendar shall be in order only when the body is meeting as the House of Representatives and shall be authorized only when offered by the Majority Leader, or in the absence of the Majority Leader, by the Assistant Majority Leader. Such motion shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected

Every motion shall be first stated by the presiding officer or read by the chief clerk, before debate, and again immediately before putting the question.

Rule 2310. When Motions to be in Writing.

Every motion, except those specified in Rules 2301 and 2303, shall be in writing if the Speaker or any member desires it. All motions to amend a bill or resolution and all resolutions shall be in writing.

Rule 2311. Suspension of Rules of the House.

(a) No rule of the House shall be suspended except by unanimous consent or by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House, subject to the following exceptions:

(1) A motion to suspend the rules, and to declare an emergency and to advance a bill to the order of business Final Action, as contemplated in article 2, section 15 of the Constitution shall require an affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the House.

(2) A motion to suspend the rules and to permit amendment and debate of a bill under the order of business Final Action shall require an affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the House.

(b) When under the rules of the House a motion, question or action requires a vote of a majority greater than a majority of the members present, the majority specified for such motion, question or action shall be required to suspend the rules for the purpose of such motion, question or action. When under the rules of the House notice of a motion reduces the required majority for adoption of the motion, the required majority shall not be reduced if the notice is disposed of by suspension of the rules.

(c) Suspension of the rules or unanimous consent shall not reduce the majority required under subpart (1) of subsection (a) of this rule.

Rule 2312. Mason's Manual; When Applicable.

(a) In any case where rules of the House or the joint rules of the Senate and House do not apply, Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure (2020 edition), with the exception of section 4, paragraph 2, shall govern.

(b) Rules of legislative procedure are derived from several sources and take precedence in the order listed below. For the Kansas House of Representatives, the principal sources are as follows: (a) Constitutional provisions; (b) statutory provisions; (c) adopted rules; (d) adopted parliamentary authority; (e) custom, usage and precedents.

The electronic voting system shall be under the control of the Speaker or other presiding officer and shall be operated by the chief clerk. The electronic voting system shall be used to record the vote whenever a roll call vote is taken on any question and may be used for ascertaining the vote upon any measure upon which a division of the assembly has been called. In the event that the system is not operating properly, roll call votes may be taken by calling the roll.

Rule 2502. Procedure for Taking a Roll Call Vote.

When a roll call vote is taken, the presiding officer shall state the question and instruct the members to proceed to vote. When sufficient time has been allowed the members to vote, the presiding officer shall inquire: "Has every member had an opportunity to vote?" After a short pause the presiding officer shall direct the chief clerk to close the roll. After the roll has been closed, when Rule 2505 applies, the presiding officer shall inquire: "Does any member desire to explain his or her vote?" and any member so desiring may give such explanation when recognized by the presiding officer. The presiding officer shall inquire: "Does any member desire to change his or her vote?" If any member does desire to change his or her vote, such member when recognized by the presiding officer, shall advise how they desire to change such vote and the presiding officer shall then instruct the chief clerk to make the appropriate change. A member who has not previously voted may vote at this time when permitted by the presiding officer. Such member shall advise how they wish to vote and the presiding officer shall then instruct the chief clerk to record such vote. After all members who desire to vote or to change their votes have had reasonable opportunity to do so, the presiding officer shall announce the vote and, when the vote has been announced, shall direct the chief clerk to record the vote.

Rule 2503. Display of Recurring Totals.

Under Rule 2502, recurring totals shall be displayed only after the roll is closed. No recurring totals shall be displayed for a determination of the vote upon a division of the assembly.

Rule 2504. Voting by Members.

In addition to such penalties as may be prescribed by law, any member who votes or attempts to vote for another member shall be subject to Article 49 of these rules. If a person not a member votes or attempts to vote for any member, such person shall be barred from the floor of the House for the remainder of the session, and, in addition to penalties prescribed by law, may be punished further as the House determines.

(c) The Speaker shall not be compelled to vote except in case of a tie.

Rule 2505. Explaining Vote.

Any member may, when a roll call vote is being taken on the passage or adoption of any bill or resolution, explain their vote. Such member shall be allowed not more than one minute for such explanation. Such explanation, if furnished in writing and signed, with printed name and district number, by such member upon the day the vote is taken within one-half hour after the adjournment of the House on that day, shall be entered in the Journal, provided it does not contain more than 100 words. Such submission should also be submitted in electronic format to the chief clerk under the same time deadline.

(a) Unless otherwise ordered, the chief clerk shall record each roll call vote and make copies available for the use of the news media. No record shall be made of the vote of any member voting upon any measure upon which a division of the assembly has been called.

(b) When a roll call vote is taken, it shall be recorded in the Journal by a statement of the names and total number voting in the affirmative, the names and total number voting in the negative, names and total number indicating presence but not voting and the names and total number absent or not voting, except that the provisions of this section shall not permit a member to fail to vote in violation of Rule 2508.

Rule 2507. When Roll Call Vote to be Taken.

(a) A roll call vote shall be taken for the passage of any bill.

(b) A roll call vote shall be taken for the adoption of any concurrent resolution to amend the Constitution of the state of Kansas, to call a Kansas constitutional convention, to extend a session of the Legislature in even-numbered years, to ratify any amendment of the Constitution of the United States, to make any application for Congress to call a convention for proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States and when required by the joint rules of the House and Senate. When the call of the House is invoked, the doors to the House chamber shall be secured and all members shall be required to be in their seats unless excused by the Speaker. All members present during the call shall be required to vote before the call is raised. The call of the House shall not be raised (so long as 10 members continue the demand) until a reasonable effort, as determined by the Speaker, has been exerted to secure absentees.

(b) Any member, who is directly interested in a question, may be excused from voting, when there is a call of the House. The member, who is requesting to be excused from voting, shall state the reasons therefor, occupying not more than five minutes. The question on excusing such member from voting shall be taken without debate and a 2/3 majority of members present shall be necessary to excuse such member. If a member refuses to vote, when not excused, such refusal shall constitute grounds for reprimand, censure or expulsion under Article 49 of the Rules of the House.

Rule 2509. Voice Vote; Division of the Assembly.

Except when a roll call vote is required, a voice vote shall be taken on all questions. Any member may call for a division of the assembly to determine the vote by the voting system.

Journal of the House

FIRST DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Monday, January 10, 2022, 2:00 p.m.

OATH OF OFFICE

I JENNIFER COOK, Assistant Secretary of State, hereby certify that Leah R. Howell was appointed by the Governor, January 10th, 2022, to fill the vacancy created by the temporary leave of absence for military duty of Blake Carpenter, State Representative for the 81st Legislative District.

Representative-elect Howell came forward, took and subscribed, or affirmed her oath of office, administered by Assistant Secretary of State, JENNIFER COOK as follows:

STATE OF KANSAS, COUNTY OF SHAWNEE, SS:

I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Kansas, and will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of

KANSAS STATE REPRESENTATIVE OF THE 81st Legislative District
so help me God.

LEAH R. HOWELL

Subscribed and Sworn to, or Affirmed, before me this 10th day of January, 2022.

JENNIFER COOK
Assistant Secretary of State

This being the day fixed by the constitution of the State of Kansas for the assembling of the 2022 session of the legislature, the House was called to order at 2:00 p.m. by Speaker Ron Ryckman.

Speaker Ryckman announced the appointment of Susan Kannarr as Chief Clerk, Foster Chisholm as Sgt. At Arms and The Rev. Eunice Brubaker as the House Chaplain for 2022.

The roll was called with 118 members present.

Reps. Collins, Finney, Meyer, Rahjes, Schreiber, Toplikar and Winn were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Almighty God,
 We come to You today with thanksgiving and gratitude for who You are and all that You have done for us.
 We are reminded of the many blessings
 we have because of this land in which we live.
 We have freedoms because of those who sacrificed their lives.
 We are fortunate to live in a nation where people can have a say.
 We are thankful to live in a nation where the government is of the people, by the people and for the people.
 Today, our leaders come together for a start of a new session.
 Over the next few weeks,
 they will address very important and crucial issues.
 These issues have the ability to either strengthen or divide us.
 Therefore, it is very important that we get it right.
 So, we need Your wisdom, not that of humankind.
 Your Word in The Message tells us,
 “This is the way God works, and most powerfully as it turns out.
 It’s written, I’ll turn conventional wisdom on its head,
 I’ll expose so-called experts as shams.
 So where can you find someone truly wise, truly educated, truly intelligent in this day and age?
 Hasn’t God exposed it all as pretentious nonsense?
 Since the world in all its fancy wisdom never had a clue when it came to knowing God, God in his wisdom took delight in using what the world considered stupid... to bring those who trust him into the way of salvation.”
 We need Your wisdom and salvation today, Lord.
 In Christ’s Name I pray, Amen.
 (I Corinthians 1:19-21 The Message)

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Proehl.

As the schedule gets busier and more hectic
With each day,
Remind us often that, in the midst of the busyness, we are to 'be still and know that You are God.'
We are to cease from our own efforts

STATE OF THE JUDICIARY
January 11, 2022
Chief Justice Marla Luckert

Mr. Speaker; Mr. President; Governor Kelly; other elected officials; Legislators; honored guests, including my wonderfully supportive and very patient spouse—Ken Morse, my daughter and her husband, all of whom are in the East gallery; my judicial branch colleagues; and my fellow Kansans—Good afternoon.

Thank you, Speaker Ryckman for generously offering me this chance to update this special joint session of the Legislature on the State of the Kansas judiciary. And thank you President Masterson for agreeing to the scheduling.

On behalf of my colleagues on the Supreme Court and throughout the judicial branch, I am honored to highlight a few of the judiciary's accomplishments during 2021. It was another unprecedented year marked by disruption of processes and tremendous uncertainty brought on by a worldwide pandemic.

During my video report to you last year, I noted the spirit of perseverance shown by judicial employees and judges. 2021 required these same individuals to be incredibly resilient.

In 2021, the vaccine rollout, coupled with declining new COVID case numbers, contributed to the feeling that we were about to cross the pandemic finish line. But new variants and the waxing and waning nature of the virus required the judicial branch to repeatedly adapt to the continually changing conditions.

Sadly, as in 2020, the judicial branch suffered losses, through death and disability, of co-workers and loved ones to COVID. I want to offer a special tribute to the employees we lost, their loved ones, and those who felt the pain of losing a co-worker. Despite the heavy toll, a resilient spirit came through.

Kansans have long shown resiliency when faced with hardship. The dust storms we experienced across the State about a month ago reminded us of the Dust Bowl of the 1930s, another period that tested Kansans' collective resilient spirit.

As a fourth generation Western Kansan, I grew up hearing stories of the dust storms that disrupted everyday life as dirt covered everything, making drifts as deep as would the snow of a different season. One-room schools dotted the Kansas landscape, and my parents spent many nights in their schools as they took shelter from the howling wind and blinding dust. They told stories of neighbors coming together to improve the shelter of the schoolhouses and of families who contributed food to the school, even though those families struggled to put food on their own tables.

The rains finally came, and Kansas farmers adopted new agricultural practices to temper the effects of the extreme storms. With time, these practices evolved into precision agriculture that relies heavily on technology.

Much as the Dust Bowl was a turning point for Kansas farmers, the pandemic became a turning point for Kansas courts. Over the past two years, the employees and judges of the Kansas judicial branch dug deep and found that same spirit of perseverance, resiliency, innovation, and adaptability. And, just as in the '30s, when neighbors came together to help each other and their schools, Kansas judicial branch employees forged ahead and improved the shelter courts provide.

I am very proud and grateful for the extraordinary work and heavy lifting done by our judges, staff, and justice partners this last year. Today, I want to highlight a few ways we transformed our processes and innovated.

Before doing so, I want to thank you for your efforts last session on behalf of the judicial branch. When I reported to you that the Kansas Supreme Court had been forced to impose a crippling hiring freeze because of a pandemic-related drop in revenue, you responded by filling that gap.

You also recognized we would need to fill our open positions with qualified individuals able to handle the courts' sensitive and technical duties. Because the work of courts affects public safety and the lives of Kansans, we partnered with you to overcome a long-term problem. For more than a decade, stagnant and under-market pay had plagued the judicial branch by hindering our ability to attract and retain employees. You responded to the need by committing to bring the pay of every employee position to last year's market rate by July 1, 2022.

To say the enhancement had a profound impact is an understatement. Your commitment made employees feel valued. And, in turn, morale improved, and resiliency grew. More tangible evidence of improvement exists as well. Since the start of fiscal year 2022, court administrators across the state have reported seeing improved qualifications in the candidates for many staff positions. They attribute that improvement to our market-competitive salaries.

We are also grateful for your commitment to increase judicial pay by five percent in both fiscal years 2022 and 2023. This increase softened the blow of cost-of-living increases.

And we thank you for the new court service officers you funded after we presented data showing we lacked sufficient staff to perform even fundamental, statutory duties you had imposed.

With these appropriations, you helped spark transformative change. The need for change may have never been greater given what we faced last year. The pandemic propelled public expectations that we would provide online services.

The Kansas judicial branch responded to court user needs and expectations by increasing online access to services and court hearings. We aggressively pursued grant opportunities and leveraged those funds to develop the technology necessary to modernize our court operations.

As one example of our newly developed technology, we are piloting an app that asks questions about a traffic citation and generates a “traffic pass” that instructs how to resolve the citation based on the answers provided. Given the success of our pilot, we hope to soon expand use of this app in other parts of the state.

Another innovation in on-line access is a web portal that allows Kansans to apply for protection from abuse orders. Within six months of statewide use, half of all protection orders are being filed through the portal. These applicants usually lack help from an attorney. And, because of their circumstances, they often find it difficult—or even unsafe—to come to the courthouse. The portal eases those burdens.

A popular, third web-based innovation allows couples to apply online for marriage licenses.

Kansas is a frontrunner in launching these technologies and is now presenting and sharing our experiences nationally as we help other states develop similar apps and portals.

We also used grant funding to acquire hardware and software for increased use of remote conferencing technology. Our clerks, court service officers, self-represented help centers, and interpreters have widely used remote conferencing technologies to help Kansans. Having found demand and success, they will continue to do so in the future.

And remote hearings became a valuable tool in every court's toolbox. District courts conducted all types of hearings remotely, unless constrained from doing so by constitutional protections. And our appellate courts quickly pivoted to conducting arguments remotely.

Many litigants and attorneys now ask for a remote hearing. Online hearings have allowed many Kansans to attend court without needing to take a day off work. This, in turn, benefits our business community. And we have found that judicious use of this technology can ease access and lower costs, which often improves due process and procedural fairness.

But remote hearings do not fit well for some proceedings and some circumstances. So Kansas courts also developed methods to protect the health of court users during in-person court proceedings.

Jury trials presented our biggest obstacle because they require bringing large groups of people together—people often reluctant to be in a large crowd. During the summer of 2020 we allowed jury trials when necessary to protect constitutional speedy trial rights. But we paused all others until a task force developed guidelines and courts worked with local health agencies to adapt those to their courthouses. Jury trials resumed in the late summer of 2020, meaning they were an available tool for courts during most of fiscal year 2021.

In sum, courts worked hard to keep cases moving forward. For example, statewide, courts resolved more than 31,000 criminal cases in fiscal year 2021.

Kansas courts, even though challenged with the need to remake our procedures, also did not lose sight of our goal to continually improve our justice system. I will not orally report on all the many powerful and transformative initiatives we have undertaken. I am electronically distributing to each of you a written report that will provide more information and detail about the state of the judiciary. But I will highlight a few of our initiatives.

The legislative and executive branches agreed to collaborate with us to plan a mental health summit that we previewed in a webinar last fall. The Summit itself will be April 13 and 14 of this year. Speaker Ryckman, President Masterson, Governor Kelly, and I will jointly welcome all attendees. Community leaders, behavioral health professionals, law enforcement, first responders, faith-based leaders, and others will attend and discuss how our courts, communities, and state can improve our response to individuals with behavioral health issues who become involved with the judicial system. I want to express gratitude and applaud the efforts of two of your colleagues: Representative Brenda Landwehr and Senator Pat Pettey have been instrumental in planning the summit.

In another interbranch collaborative project, we worked with the Kansas Department for Children and Families and the Kansas Strong for Children and Families grant project to develop a tracking tool designed to reduce time to adoption.

These are but two examples of the ways the court system has and will continue to join with the legislative and the executive branches on efforts to protect our most vulnerable Kansans.

On another front, to address the large problem of housing instability confronting our communities, we recently formed a committee that is working to improve processing of landlord-tenant disputes and to develop self-help resources for landlords and tenants. The committee's work will aid Kansas entrepreneurs, our neighbors, and our communities.

We also worked to support specialty courts. For those who may not be familiar with those courts, they focus on addressing the reasons for criminal behavior—such as behavioral health or substance abuse issues. Successfully completing specialty court is hard work, much harder than regular probation. A defendant must undertake sets of rigorous sessions designed to break hard-wired behavior. These courts' success rates in reducing recidivism are impressive. And they save Kansas money, costing a small fraction compared to incarceration.

To assist our efforts, we formed a committee to spearhead initiatives to support existing specialty courts and to help start new ones.

Also, early in 2021 the judicial branch completed a four-part webinar series on how to establish and operate specialty courts that provide supervision, mentoring, and treatment for veterans, usually with the support of the Veterans Administration.

We join you in supporting your criminal justice reform commission's specialty courts bill.

Outside the criminal arena, we have worked diligently to increase access to justice by developing more forms, with accompanying information, to help unrepresented litigants navigate legal filings. We have also increased support for self-help centers in our courthouses where individuals can access these forms and other information and can often find limited assistance from a volunteer attorney or Kansas Legal Services. And we made rule changes designed to increase access to assistance from an attorney at no- or low-costs.

During 2021, we have also sought to improve administrative efficiency and our stewardship of taxpayer resources. A key component of this effort is the continued rollout of our new case management system.

This rollout slowed during the pandemic. But we worked with our vendor to improve the system and the rollout process as we remained focused on ensuring smooth transitions to the new system. To date, 26 counties are using the new case management system, and more are scheduled to go live on June 6.

As courts join the system, they also move to a centralized payment system to process their district's portion of the millions of dollars Kansas courts collect for the benefit of state government.

Recently, we added a court service officer module to the case management system. This module will allow for enhanced client supervision and data collection.

We are proud of the progress we made on these efforts to improve the judicial system and better serve our communities despite the challenges presented in 2021.

As we look to 2022 and beyond, we ask for your budget help in three ways. First, we propose eliminating the judicial branch's dependence on volatile and unpredictable fee funding. Because most of our state budget funds our workforce, any budget shortfall falls on the shoulders of Kansans as we are unable to staff critical positions across the state. We request that the fees that now fund the judicial branch be redirected to the state general fund and that the judicial branch receive an amount equal in return. By redirecting certain fees from the judicial branch to the state general fund, the overall state budget would in most years achieve a net neutral exchange or even a positive gain for the state general fund, assuming past trends continue. Granted, in some years—like fiscal years 2020 and 2021—fee fund receipts may fall below projections. This occasional downward trend can be better absorbed in a fund the size of the state general fund than in the much smaller judicial branch budget, which constitutes less than one percent of the all-funds budget.

Second, we request funding for 13 new district judge positions, along with support staff, and 10 new district magistrate judge positions. A recently conducted weighted caseload study showed the need for these positions and more. New judge positions have not been added since 2008. Currently, workloads in some parts of the state far exceed judicial capacity and the need for more judges and staff is great.

Third, we ask that you continue your commitment to maintaining judicial branch employees at market wages by implementing the second year of the pay increases and by including the judicial branch in any cost of living increases you adopt.

While our budget requests this year do not ask for other salary increases, I want to alert you to challenges we continue to face at the two ends of our salary spectrum. On one end, we have had trouble filling our lowest paid trial court clerk positions. We must compete with rapidly increasing salaries that businesses across the economy are offering these entry level workers.

At the other end of our pay spectrum, we've also had trouble attracting judicial candidates. One recent magistrate judge opening in Dickinson County attracted no applicants, and another farther west had only one applicant by the initial deadline. Statewide, the number of applicants for all judicial openings has plunged and included few, if any, attorneys from the private sector. What this translates to is a pool of judicial applicants with little or no experience in complex civil litigation that, for example, our businesses often use to protect their interests and enforce their contracts.

We deeply appreciate your commitment to provide two years of salary increases for judges. But compensation for these highly responsible positions lags far behind the legal market. As of July 1, 2021, with the first 5 percent increase you approved last session in effect, our neighboring states paid their trial judges, on average, over $30,000 more per year than Kansas. And within Kansas, the pay for our judge positions still does not compete with what many attorneys command in the private or public sectors, especially the experienced attorneys Kansans hope to attract to the bench.

I look forward to continued collaboration to increase the pay of our entry level clerks and to increase judicial pay so it aligns with the high level of responsibility the position requires.

I will end where I began by expressing gratitude for the support received last year for our resilient staff. Those in the judicial branch are thankful to have legislative leaders and a governor who understand what happens in our courts and who understand that courts protect and strengthen Kansans, their businesses, and their communities. We are grateful that you share our vision and commitment to solving the problems that bring people to court. And we appreciate your working with us in the spirit of mutual respect. As leaders dedicated to upholding our constitution you recognized the importance of having courts with the resources to fairly and impartially resolve the over 300,000 cases a year that impact the lives of your constituents.

The Kansas court system still faces many challenges. But with the resiliency demonstrated by our families in the 1930s, and, more recently, by the employees and judges of the Kansas judicial system, we will continue to respond with creative solutions to ensure our courts operate at the level Kansans have come to expect. Just as Kansas farmers adopted new practices in reaction to the Dust Bowl and emerged stronger and better, the pandemic pushed the Kansas judicial branch to use new practices and technology that make it stronger and better.

We look forward to continuing to partner with our colleagues in the executive and legislative branches as we enter a new year in which we will work toward our joint goal of improving access to justice.

May all of you and our great state continue to be blessed. Thank you.

GOVERNOR KELLY'S COMPLETE TEXT OF THE STATE OF THE STATE

Mr. Speaker, Mr. President, Madam Chief Justice, Lt. Governor Toland, statewide elected officials, members of the Legislature, Cabinet officers, leaders of the Kansas tribes, honored guests, and fellow Kansans.

After two years of challenges, of limited gatherings, it is my high honor to stand before you once again this evening to deliver my fourth State of the State Address.

To report on our shared successes.

And to present a blueprint for the final year of my first term.

Joining me tonight in the east gallery is the third "First Gentleman" in Kansas history, my husband, Ted Daughety.

Ted has retired from practicing medicine.

But he returned during the pandemic to support our state's many dedicated healthcare professionals as they toiled to keep Kansans safe and healthy.

I'd also like to welcome my daughter Kathleen Daughety and my son-in-law Mathias Weiden. And I welcome, virtually, my other daughter Molly Daughety, who is watching online.

I also welcome and thank my Cabinet Secretaries who are seated behind me in the west gallery.

The COVID-19 pandemic brought challenges for every agency - and I could not have asked for a better, more prepared team.

They have not only faced those challenges head on, but each of them has steered their agency to be more fiscally responsible, more nimble, more efficient and more responsive than ever before.

And finally, it is my pleasure to welcome Lt. Governor David Toland and Second Lady Beth Toland, to their first State of the State in their new capacities.

David took the reins as Lt. Governor last January after I appointed our former Lt. Governor, Lynn Rogers, to serve as our State Treasurer.

Lynn is a compassionate, hard-working, and dedicated public servant ---- and he has been a fantastic Treasurer. Lynn has already returned more than $5 million dollars of unclaimed property to the rightful owners.

Thank you, Lynn, for your leadership and your continued service.

For the past three years, Lieutenant Governor Toland has worked tirelessly as the Secretary of the Department of Commerce.

He has spearheaded efforts to help small businesses weather the pandemic. He has rebuilt Commerce programs to - once again - make Kansas nationally and globally competitive.

I'm fortunate to have him by my side, as we continue to put his economic development expertise to good use for Kansans and Kansas communities.

Thank you, Lieutenant Governor.

It's not just the Lt. Governor and my Executive Cabinet who have gone above and beyond during the pandemic.

All of you seated here are serving during a uniquely challenging moment in our state's history.

And the work you're putting in, the collaboration, is helping Kansas turn the corner, paving the way for a more prosperous future for all who choose to call this place home.

Needless to say, it has been an arduous couple of years for Kansas and the nation.

We've lost loved ones, coworkers, friends, and neighbors.

Unfortunately, we continue to lose too many Kansans to this virus.

But we also saw, and we continue to see, the very best of Kansas rise up in every corner of our state.

Our health care professionals have persevered, working long, hard hours, for weeks, then months, now years, to save lives. They continue to be our heroes.

Here with us tonight is one of our heroes: Whitney Freel, a charge nurse on the medical intensive care unit at Stormont Vail Hospital right here in Topeka.

Whitney, could you please stand for a moment.

Whitney and her fellow front-line workers have risked their own lives for nearly two years, working around the clock to keep Kansans safe.

Please know how grateful I am, how grateful Kansas is, for your dedicated service.

In every corner of our state, ordinary people continue to do extraordinary things.

The Kansas spirit of neighbor-helping-neighbor has never been stronger.

The people of Kansas are getting back on their feet. The state of Kansas is getting back on track.

However, right now, and likely for the next few months, the threat of COVID-19 remains, particularly for the unvaccinated and the immuno-compromised.

While the long-term outlook is much more positive with the new Omicron variant, our hospitals and nursing homes have sounded the alarm.

Rising case numbers from the winter holidays and Omicron have created the toughest surge the medical community has faced since the pandemic began in 2020.

Last week, I issued two new executive orders that create staffing flexibility to keep residents, patients, and staff safe.

It will be imperative that we work together to quickly extend my orders through legislation to help our nursing homes and our hospitals.

For those of you watching at home, I ask that all of you think of your family, your friends, and our front-line health care workers.

Help each other by getting vaccinated, getting your children vaccinated, and getting the third shot.

This is how you keep yourself - and those around you - healthy.

We owe it to each other.

Folks, we are going to get through this.

Since we began the fight against this pandemic, we've taken a clear-eyed, balanced approach - acting responsibly to stop the spread of the virus, while also ensuring that our Kansas economy grows and stays strong.

And because we managed our budget responsibly and saw record economic growth and investment in our state, I'm now proud to say we have the largest budget surplus in the past 40 years.

That's the largest surplus in 40 years all while balancing the budget and fully funding our schools.

Whereas, just a few years ago, Kansas was making headlines for its budget mismanagement - I believe Kansas is now the most fiscally responsible state in the nation.

We've paid down state debts.

And we're adding $600 million dollars to the state's Rainy Day fund, the most money that's ever been put in there.

Growing the Rainy Day Fund is the responsible thing to do.

To make sure critical services like schools and law enforcement are always funded even if our economy takes a turn for the worse.

Because we've managed the budget so responsibly, I was proud to announce that every working Kansan who filed taxes in 2021 will get a $250 dollar rebate this year - $500 dollars for married couples filing jointly.

That's money back in your pocket to pay for child care, to take your family on a mini-vacation, or to buy groceries.

While we're on the topic of groceries...

Here's something we all know: Food in Kansas costs families way too much.

And even as we sit here with a record surplus, Kansans continue to pay higher taxes on groceries than anyone in the country.

It makes no sense.

For years, many of us, on both sides of the aisle, have been calling for an end to the state's sales tax on food.

Now, with this surplus in the bank and increased revenue because of our economic growth, we can finally, responsibly, afford to totally eliminate the grocery sales tax.

I've called on the legislature to send a bill to my desk to end this tax, once and for all.

It will save Kansas families hundreds, perhaps thousands, of dollars a year.

This is a commonsense policy on which Democrats and Republicans can completely agree.

The only obstacle that could block this legislation is the same type of toxic political games that have poisoned Washington D.C. where denying a political opponent a win has become more important than getting things done for the people they represent.

We are better than that in Kansas.

Let's not overcomplicate this.

The essence of the bill can be summed up in 13 words:

We hereby eliminate the state sales tax on food in Kansas, effective immediately.

Just 13 words.

Send me a clean, bi-partisan bill, that eliminates the state sales tax on food by Kansas Day, January 29th.

I'll sign it the moment it hits my desk.

We must not delay. Every day we delay costs Kansas families money, each and every day.

It will be a win for every one of you in this room. And, much more importantly, a win for working Kansans.

And, we know working families need a break, particularly, after the last two years.

This pandemic has created so many strains, so many stressors, and so many challenges, we simply cannot let it derail the careers or the dreams of our young people.

That's why we have remained laser-focused - to protect their futures.

That meant upholding my promise to bring fiscal sanity back to our state government.

It wasn't easy, and not a day has gone by that I haven't been tasked with making tough financial decisions.

But our resolve to keep the state checkbook balanced is paying off in a big way.

Today I'm announcing that my budget includes a total freeze on college tuition increases.

You heard that right. No tuition increases whatsoever.

This virus took something from our students. And, we are going to give them something back.

Again, it's a huge win for our young people and for all working Kansans.

These are the types of things we can do when our state's economy is growing the way it is.

And it is economic growth we should all be proud of.

Look at where we are...

We've created more than 30,000 new jobs. That's 30,000 - even during a pandemic.

Our unemployment rate has been below 4 percent for over a year.

And in 2021 alone, the private sector invested nearly $3.8 billion dollars in new facilities and equipment.

That's a new state record. By a long shot.

That means: new businesses coming to our state.

Existing businesses expanding.

Big companies opening new divisions.

Small businesses hiring new employees.

It means jobs for Kansans living in our cities.

And in our suburbs. And in our rural communities.

Our small businesses are growing.

Our big companies are hiring hundreds of new employees and expanding, like Hilmar Cheese in Dodge City, Superior Boiler in Hutchinson and the Schwan's Pizza Plant in Salina.

And big national companies, like Urban Outfitters, are choosing to build distribution centers here - because we have a strong economy and the best workforce in the nation.

Listen to this...

Over the past three years, we have secured a total of more than $7.6 billion dollars in new business investments in Kansas.

That's more than any previous administration's total in the entirety of their first term - and we still have another year left.

Remember several years back, Kansas was in the national news for all the wrong reasons.

Well, in 2019, we were back in the national news - but this time as CNBC's Comeback State of the Year.

And in 2021, Kansas was recognized with the prestigious Gold Shovel Award - a national award given to Governors who lead the way in attracting job-creating investments to their states.

There's more economic opportunity in the state of Kansas today than at any time in our history.

And Kansans should really take pride in the role they have played in helping our state and, all of the nation, successfully navigate through this pandemic.

Everyone here knows this: Kansas processes 25% of the nation's highest quality beef.

If our meatpacking plants had shut down during the pandemic, it would've created a food crisis for our entire country.

We really couldn't let that happen.

So, during those first days and weeks of the pandemic, I partnered with then-Senator, Pat Roberts, who was chair of the senate ag committee. Together, Senator Roberts and I worked with President Trump to make sure our meat-packing plants stayed open, safely.

It wasn't about political party, it was about keeping Kansans who feed our nation, and the world, on the job.

As a result, Kansas was the only state in the nation to keep our major meatpacking plants open during the entirety of the pandemic.

I'd like to thank our federal delegation, particularly Representative Sharice Davids and former Senator Pat Roberts, for their hard work in making that happen.

After all, we know that the agriculture industry is the lifeblood of our economy. And farmers are truly the heartbeat of our state.

Right now, our hearts go out to the Kansas farmers and ranchers who have lost their livestock, their crops, and even, in some cases, their own homes to wildfires.

I want you to know we're doing everything in our power to provide relief to restore your livestock, and rebuild your farms, your ranches, and your lives.

With us here tonight is Russell County Emergency Manager Keith Haberer.

Keith, could you please stand for a moment.

Keith has been a firefighter and an emergency manager in Russell for more than 20 years.

During the recent wildfires, I witnessed how hard Keith worked to help the people in his community stay safe.

For weeks he's been working nonstop. He coordinated the county's response to the raging fires and delivered resources to the families, farmers and ranchers who were impacted by the devastation.

He is one of the thousands of first responders all across the state: our firefighters, our law enforcement, our national guard, and our EMTs, who step up when a crisis hits.

Thank you Keith, for your service to your neighbors and to your community.

Our farming and ranching families are lucky to have men and women like Keith, who stand ready to provide support when times are tough.

This administration is equally committed to supporting our agriculture industry.

Whether it is through:

Being the only Democratic Governor in the country to support the USMCA trade agreement;

Responding to COVID-related challenges;

Or adding Short Line rail projects to move product to market more cost effectively, more efficiently.

But still, we know that farming isn't getting any easier – particularly with the natural disasters and global supply chain challenges.

But we also know, our farmers and ranchers are the most resilient people on earth.

As I travel across Kansas, the stories I hear are so inspiring.

Farmers like Vance and Louise Ehmke, owners of Ehmke Seed in Lane County.

They took over the family farm in the mid '70s, as the fourth generation of Ehmkes to operate it.

Now Louise is a Democrat from California, and Vance is a Republican from right here in Kansas. The two met while students at Bethany College in Lindsborg.

Recently, the Ehmkes celebrated 50 years of a happy, bi-partisan, marriage.

And they're with us tonight. I'd like to have Louise and Vance, representing all Kansas farmers and ranchers, please stand to be recognized.

You know, Louise and Vance are still out there each morning with their fellow farmers and ranchers, rain or shine, snow or sleet.

That toughness, that grit, that sense of pride, so often passed from one generation to the next that's what makes Kansas farmers so special.

Now, looking ahead, I'm excited to share with you that my budget this year also restores full funding to the State Water Plan for the first time in 15 years.

The water plan is a five-year blueprint for action that will ensure that we have a reliable, quality water supply to support not only the needs of Kansas communities, but a thriving farming economy.

Because everyone in this room knows, as I do, that agriculture built the Kansas economy, and it will always be the backbone of our state.

And, despite all of the obstacles that our farmers and ranchers have faced, and thanks to their unrivaled persistence, Kansas is on its way to another record year of agricultural exports.

In fact, we'll surpass the $4 billion-dollar mark in exports for the second consecutive year.

A feat not accomplished in nearly a decade.

Four billion dollars. That's a big deal.

Growing our rural economy has been a major focus of my Administration.

Our efforts to rebuild our rural economy began day one when we established the Office of Rural Prosperity.

We then moved expeditiously to re-start the Kansas Mainstreet program - to help our rural communities keep their downtowns vibrant.

We cherish our Main Streets - as the heart of our communities, the cultural centers of our communities, and as their economic engines.

And, if we've learned anything these past couple of years about doing business in this day and age, it's that if you don't have access to high-speed Internet – you are going to get left behind.

When I got into office, Kansas was way behind the eight ball on broadband development.

The state had no roadmap, no funding, and no plan.

So, we established the Office of Broadband Development, and now, we have expanded internet access to over 50,000 new households and businesses. We've connected rural communities that were frustrated for years by the lack of access.

During the pandemic, hotspots were strategically deployed to ensure that our students in low-income households could continue their education remotely.

We won't stop until every Kansan who wants, or needs, high-speed Internet has access to it.

For as much as rural Kansas - all of Kansas for that matter - needs a strong information superhighway, they also need better actual highways.

The type you drive on to get your product to market, to get to work, or get your kids to school.

Sadly, for the past 10 years, politicians have taken money that was supposed to go for roads and bridges and instead used it to clean up the mess created by the tax experiment.

The highway fund became known as: "the Bank of K-DOT."

Well, it's not a bank. It's been a slush fund.

And this year the slush fund goes away, and the "bank" closes for good.

We'll make sure that money meant for roads and bridges is actually used for roads and bridges.

We have already completed numerous projects across Kansas, and many others are in the pipeline.

They are important projects like:

The widening of U.S. 69 from a two-lane to a four-lane expressway in Crawford and Bourbon Counties.

This project completes the much-needed, long-overdue, 4-lane highway from Kansas City to Pittsburg. A promise made years ago, and, now, finally kept.

Late last year, we announced design modifications in Johnson County for K-10 that will improve a stretch of highway serving 65,000 drivers per day.

In Wichita - the state has partnered, for several years with the city, the County, and the federal government to finish the $86 million North Junction project.

When completed, it will, finally, alleviate Wichita's worst bottleneck. Every member of the Sedgwick County delegation sitting here tonight knows exactly what I'm talking about.

Now new road projects like North Junction don't always create splashy headlines.

But they do make communities safer.

They do create jobs.

They do stimulate economic activity.

And, they change the very quality of life for residents who rely on these roads every day.

While we're on the subject of improving quality of life for the people of Kansas, we cannot forget about our health care systems and our hospitals.

For years, we've debated Medicaid expansion..... round and round.

Folks, Medicaid expansion is the quickest, the easiest, and the most common sense way to help Kansans.

And we're not just talking about 150,000 Kansans accessing quality, affordable health care.

The fact is, communities can't grow or survive if their hospitals close.

Kansas has lost five hospitals in recent years.

We can't afford to lose another.

We owe it to our rural families and businesses.

Medicaid expansion won't just protect small towns and their residents, it will keep health care professionals from moving to neighboring states - most of which are Red states - all of which have expanded Medicaid.

Right now, we're the stubborn, self-defeating, state in the middle of all of them, we are sabotaging our rural communities and their efforts to recruit new jobs and residents.

We are shooting ourselves in the foot.

Medicaid expansion is something we can do right now.

It is well past time. Let's get this done.

A strong health care system will always be a hallmark of a healthy state and a healthy economy.

Just as important, however, is the strength of our public education system.

Four years ago, when I ran for office, I ran to be the Education Governor.

After years of budget cuts and neglect, Kansas needed one.

And, now, I am proud to say, that for the Fourth straight year: we are fully funding our public schools.

And, we are doing it with a balanced budget.

Because it's not an either-or.

We can balance the budget while also funding our schools, fixing our roads and bridges, funding other essential services, investing in economic development.

The full funding of our schools is something everyone in this Chamber can celebrate.

But, I also know that, for these past couple of years, during the pandemic, the challenges facing our schools have gone way beyond just funding.

Last year, in my State of the State, I spoke directly to teachers - who - nearly overnight - reinvented the way they taught, doing whatever it took to educate our children during the pandemic's worst days.

We've worked hard to get everyone back in the classroom, but the job of a teacher hasn't gotten any easier. If anything, it's more difficult and more stressful.

Teachers have always deserved our deepest gratitude, our respect, and our support.

To all the Kansas teachers out there, we thank you. We applaud you.

This year, I'd also like to take a moment to speak directly to Kansas parents. Especially those with school-aged children.

You have been through a lot these past couple of years. A whole lot.

Now I have two daughters, both well out of the house - thank goodness - but I often think about what it would have been like if they were still young and had been at home during the pandemic.

I know it would have been incredibly hard to balance their education and my job.

It would have been hard dealing with their losses not being able to hang out with their friends, not going to birthday parties, not participating in graduation ceremonies.

And with this virus, particularly because it has gone on for so long, sometimes, you feel like there's no right answer.

When all you really want is to do right by your children, to have a voice, to have a say, in the decisions that impact their lives.

I want you to know that I've heard you. I have approached decisions I've made not only as a Governor, but also as a parent.

I know, with all the ways this virus has changed and keeps changing our lives it can be difficult to keep up.

This has been uncharted territory.

This pandemic has deprived our kids of a normal childhood for far too long.

That's why our Department of Wildlife and Parks, together with our Tourism Division, partnered with the State Department of Education to launch the Kansas Sunflower Summer program.

This program provided kids and their families the opportunity to visit all of our state's first-class attractions: our museums, our parks, our zoos: free of charge.

In total, more than 70,000 Kansans participated in the program. Sunflower Summer was so successful that we have every intention, to not only do it again next summer – but also to expand it.

Our schools are now open and they will stay open, but the Sunflower Summer program helped make this uneasy time a little more manageable, a little more affordable, and a little more normal.

Back in the classrooms, we also know our kids are feeling the lingering effects of the pandemic.

Not every parent has the means to help their children get the attention or the tools they need to fill the learning gaps created by the pandemic.

Just yesterday, we announced a bipartisan agreement to allocate $50 million dollars in Learning Recovery Grants for students who need that extra help to get caught up.

These grants will give parents the ability to sign their kids up for counseling, tutoring, summer camps, whatever their child needs to close the learning gap.

We can't turn back the clock on the last two years, but we can lay out the path to support parents and put students in the best position to find success.

Another thing on the minds of parents these days is not having to worry about their child's safety.

I know I'm speaking for parents when I say that the world is a whole lot bigger and much more complicated than when we were growing up.

We sense it as leaders as well, and I've made protecting children and keeping them safe a top priority as Governor.

That starts by supporting our law enforcement officers.

My budget contains historic levels of funding for law enforcement.

Funding that will provide better equipment, better training facilities, and greater public safety.

And for our state highway patrol - a much deserved pay-increase.

We're also increasing funding for evidence-based juvenile delinquency programs, so we can reach these kids before it's too late and keep them out of the system.

There's no question that as the world has changed, it has become harder to be a kid.

From social media pressures, to life during a pandemic, growing up in 2022 is a lot more complicated, and difficult.

Imagine, dealing with all that they have to deal with - and what's happened over the last 2 years - while also being a child in foster care.

When I took office, our foster care system was a mess.

It was an embarrassment, it was immoral and it did not reflect how Kansans value and cherish their children.

It wasn't going to be easy.

But I knew if we were going to create real accountability, that we would have to pull the curtain back and do a full, honest assessment of our foster care system and make the necessary and critical changes, to protect our kids.

And after three years, we have made significant progress.

We have decreased the number of children in foster care by over 15 percent. That's one thousand fewer kids in the system.

That progress started with the tireless work done by Secretary Laura Howard and her team at the Department for Children and Families.

They studied the mistakes of the past and they took an intentional approach, to move the state away from a child welfare system and toward a child and family well-being system.

Secretary Howard directed the agency to focus on things like kinship care, where a child is placed with a family member or a very close family friend, instead of being placed in the system.

Kansas was also one of the first states in the nation to implement the Family First Prevention Services Act.

This program provides support services for struggling parents to increase their ability to care for their own children, in their own home, rather than in the foster care system.

Just last year, I signed an executive order creating the Division of Child Advocate.

The Child Advocate will ensure that the progress we have made is not fleeting or subject to political manipulation.

The advocate will ensure an independent, accountable system to investigate complaints, to help families navigate a very complex system, and act as a data-resource for further improvement of the system.

Most importantly, the child advocate will make sure kids in our care are healthier and safer.

The Division of Child Advocate has been a deeply bipartisan effort and would not have been possible without the support and input of legislators and stakeholders on both sides of the aisle.

I know some of you here have spent years working to get this issue over the finish line, and I'm grateful for your efforts.

Likewise, an area where we should be able to find common ground is our state's mental health system.

Whether we talk about children or their parents, veterans or farmers, small business owners or health care workers, this pandemic has exacerbated mental health challenges for so many Kansans.

That's why I've included additional funding in my budget, to make it easier for local communities to provide critical mental health services closer to home, and reduce the strain on our law enforcement agencies, our jails and our hospital emergency rooms.

It will save lives and it will protect our communities.

I know many of you care deeply about this issue, and I look forward to working with you to create a mental health system in Kansas that is second to none.

Speaking about second to none, as you all know, just last month, we lost our proudest native son, Bob Dole.

Senator Dole was a passionate voice for Kansas. He was also a passionate voice for an entire generation, the greatest generation.

In fact, it's because of people like Bob Dole that the greatest generation got its name.

Senator Dole once told us: “In politics, honorable compromise is no sin. It is what protects us from absolutism and intolerance.”

Senator Dole also said: “When it's all over, it's not about who you were, it's about whether you made a difference.”

These are words we should all keep close to our hearts.

Whether you made a difference.

Now, if you only looked at social media, you'd think nothing gets done around here, at all ... just a bunch of bickering.

But the truth is - that's not the case.

Thanks to the good work of the people in this Chamber, I have signed 187 bipartisan bills.

Let's look at the list:

- A bi-partisan bill to fully fund our public schools.
- A bi-partisan transportation plan, which will lead to 130 new infrastructure projects.
- A bi-partisan scholarship program for our students in high-demand, high-skilled fields.
- A bi-partisan bill that extends the tax credit program that helps Kansas start-ups succeed.
- A bi-partisan bill to support our military families and encourage them to stay in Kansas.
- A bi-partisan emergency loan program to help families and businesses pay their utility bills when they skyrocketed last February.

The list goes on and on.

When we think back several years, and reflect on why things in Kansas went so far in the wrong direction, it's because we weren't prioritizing what Kansans want and what they need.

Kansans want their government to focus on the day-to-day needs that most of us can agree on - and not on the ideological issues, or the culture wars, that divide us.

That means they want:

New businesses that bring good jobs.

Strong public schools.

Roads that don't wreck their cars.

Safe communities.

Access to basic health care.

A balanced budget.

And when possible, and when responsible, tax relief to help working families.

When I talk to Kansans from all political parties in all corners of the state, the most common theme I hear is: “I am so sick and tired of all the political fighting.”

And usually, they're not talking about the people in this building.

They're talking about in their own lives.

And the feeling that politics now dominates everything.

The friendships that are being torn apart.

Social media feeds you're afraid to look at anymore.

Family members you can barely talk to.

Politics rearing its ugly head in our children's schools.

I'm sure all of you in this room can think of people in your lives who, just a few years ago, you could have a civil conversation and talk about the issues of the day - and now, you really can't.

It's all become so toxic.

Now the people in this Chamber didn't cause this problem. Much bigger forces are at play.

But the people in this Chamber can be part of the solution.

We can turn down the temperature.

We can be civil and compromise.

We can be role models for our children.

We can put allegiance to Kansans ahead of allegiance to political party.

We can be as good and as decent as the people who sent us here.

Now, some of you may know that I am a baseball fan.

And one of the great joys of my life was spending a day, 20-some years ago, with the great Buck O'Neil, at the Negro League Museum.

Buck was an iconic player for the Kansas City Monarchs, but his larger contributions to baseball and to this country came in his later years, when he led the campaign to establish the Negro League Museum.

He did it to make sure we never forget those players, the injustices they faced, and their rightful place in history.

Buck passed away about fifteen years ago, at the age 94.

Just a few weeks ago, we learned that Buck was, posthumously, voted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame to, finally, be honored alongside the game's very best.

Long overdue in my opinion, and it's a shame he wasn't alive to see it.

But Buck was an eternal optimist, even toward the end of a life that had had so many hardships.

One of Buck's more delightful sayings was:

"Hold hands with the person next to you. That way, they can't get away. And neither can you."

So, let us all hold hands these next few months.

And not let go until we finally get things done.

God bless our great and beloved state of Kansas.

Thank you and goodnight.

A PROPOSITION to amend sections 2 and 5 of article 9 of the constitution of the state of Kansas to require that a sheriff be elected in each county for a term of four years.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Sections 2 and 5 of article 9 of the constitution of the state of Kansas are hereby amended to read as follows:

"§ 2. County and township officers. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), each county shall elect a sheriff for a term of four years by a majority of the qualified electors of the county voting thereon at the time of voting designated for such office pursuant to law in effect on January 11, 2021, and every four years thereafter.

(b) *The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply to a county that abolished the office of sheriff prior to January 11, 2021. Such county may restore the office of sheriff as provided by law and such restoration shall be irrevocable. A county that restores the office of sheriff shall elect a sheriff by a majority of the qualified electors of the county voting thereon for a term of four years. Such sheriff shall have such qualifications and duties as provided by law. The amendment would also provide that a county sheriff only may be involuntarily removed from office pursuant to either a recall election or a writ of quo warranto initiated by the attorney general.

"A vote for this proposition would preserve the right of citizens of each county that elected a county sheriff as of January 11, 2021, to continue electing the county sheriff via popular vote. The amendment would also direct that a county sheriff only may be involuntarily removed from office pursuant to either a recall election or a writ of quo warranto initiated by the attorney general."

"A vote against this proposition would not make any changes to the constitution and would retain current law concerning the election of a sheriff and the procedures for involuntary removal of a sheriff from office."

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Heavenly Father,
I come to You today to first express our gratitude for this day that You have given us.
As we continue in the celebration of the great impact and influence of Dr. Martin Luther King, remind us often of how Your Word teaches us to love one another.
Loving one another involves acceptance, respect, and value.
It is loving, not just in words or speech, but loving with actions and in truth.
Your Word also tells us that anyone who hates a brother or sister is in darkness and walks around in darkness.
Help us, Lord, to walk in enlightenment and to truly walk in the light of loving God and loving our neighbor.
This I ask in Christ's Name,
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Eplee.

The House met session pro forma pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. French are spread upon the Journal:

It is my honor today to present to you for your recognition, the Lansing High School Lady Lions Volleyball Team, the Kansas 5A Volleyball Champions. Theirs is a story of determination and dedication. They began the season with an opening loss to last year's championship team. That could have been the end of their season but these girls had more in mind than just quitting after one loss. They recovered quickly from that opening loss and won 38 straight matches in a row with only one goal in mind, win the state championship.

Through their determination and experience, they were able to win state with a 38-1 record and create history by giving Lansing volleyball their first state title in 5A Girls Volleyball. They never lost sight of their goal throughout the season as with each practice and each game they got closer to their goal. This team was and always will be unique because of their senior leadership and great coaching.

Today before you, I would like to introduce the coaches and team members who join me on the House floor. Head Coach of the team is Lindsay Zych with Assistant Coach Wes Cackler. Seniors are Caitlin Bishop, Kamryn Farris, Iyannah Jackson, Mackenzie Manthe, McKenzie Moburg, and Olivia Mae VanDerWerff. The rest of the Lansing Lady Lions joining me are Skylar Weaver, Taelyn Jones, Jessi Ritchhart, Anna Laincz, Ashlynn Jaccard, Tabor Scanlon, Virginia VanDerWerffand Mikenna Matzeder.

Coach Zych, because of your team's outstanding accomplishment, the Kansas House of Representatives would like to present to you this Certificate of Recognition for your team's ability to reach their 2021 goal in volleyball and for further success in their future lives.

Rep. French presented coach Zych with a framed House certificate in recognition of the team's accomplishments.

WHEREAS, All Kansans will continue to experience significant financial impacts from the cold weather event as the unprecedented utility costs are passed through to Kansas utility customers over the next decade; and

WHEREAS, The Attorney General of the State of Kansas possesses legal authority to investigate and take corrective action if any natural gas or utility price increases were a result of profiteering during a natural disaster; and

WHEREAS, Currently, the Attorney General has announced that the Office of the Attorney General is investigating whether any such profiteering occurred and whether any corrective action is justified; and

WHEREAS, The Federal Energy Regulatory Commission possesses legal authority to investigate natural gas market behavior and take corrective action if a market participant participated in price gouging or market manipulation; and

WHEREAS, Currently, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission is investigating potential instances of natural gas market manipulation during the cold weather event and continues to review actions of market participants during such cold weather event to determine whether further investigations are merited; and

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I have voted No on HB 2477 because although I know we have a critical shortage in health care providers, I do not believe this body should be facilitating the use of not fully trained professionals in our health care system when fully qualified professional health care workers are being forced out of the system because of government or employer mask and vaccine mandates. – DAVID FRENCH

MR. SPEAKER: The states' past failures of not protecting Doctors and medical professionals is the reason for the labor shortage. Now the state is allowing lesser qualified persons to practice medicine which in return will bring on less quality of care. The state is also guilty of pushing good doctors and nurses out because they stand for the liberty to choose alternative medicine not pushed by big pharma. "Realize that the doctor's fight against socialized medicine is your fight. We can't socialize the doctors without socializing the patients." Ronald Reagan. This is why I vote "NO" on HB 2477 – TREVOR JACOBS

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we strongly support pregnancy maintenance resource centers for their unique and positive contributions to the individual lives of women, men and babies—both born and unborn; and

Be it further resolved: That we honor pregnancy maintenance resource centers in Kansas and across the United States; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to Kansans for Life and Representative Lynn.

There being no objection the following remarks of Rep. Lynn are spread upon the Journal.

House Resolution 6022 honors the work and support that pregnancy maintenance centers offer to women, men, children and their families throughout Kansas. Pregnancy is a life changing moment for a woman: from that first feeling of excitement and anxiety and trying to understand what one pink line, or 2 blue lines mean on a home pregnancy test, to the shock of disbelief, and then realization that is often joined by laughter or tears, and then the overwhelming sense of, well now what? A feeling many of us in this chamber know first-hand. Personally, I researched embryonic development for years, and even I was afraid about how my child could ever be born healthy, and how in the world could I ever do this right. It is easy for women to struggle to find resources and support to help them know where to turn, what to do, what to expect. Pregnancy maintenance centers provide that network of support.

We know how important maternal health is for both mother and child. Pregnancy maintenance centers aim to help women, men, family and friends who find themselves with an unplanned pregnancy. Not only do they include pregnancy testing and medical referrals, they also provide STI testing and treatment, ultrasounds, information regarding adoption, infant loss support, referrals for rape and domestic abuse, emotional support, men's peer support. They provide pregnancy education services, including childbirth, and parenting classes, as well as community resource referrals, and maternity and infant clothing.

As a mother to three wonderful children, I had help and supports that many Kansas women do not. I can't imagine going through a pregnancy without that. Our communities are best served when we have access to these complete supports, honoring both the dignity of women and pregnancy, and understanding how it impacts our lives.

So, in honor of these centers and the help they provide, I hope you will stand with me and support this resolution.

On motion of Rep. Hawkins, the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole, with Rep. Barker in the chair.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on Sub SB 355 because it makes a mockery of the principle of keeping communities of interest together, because it effectively disenfranchises almost all of my constituents, and because District 1 looks like an elephant.—BOOG HIGHBERGER

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes on Sub SB 355. This process has been transparent from the start. We held dozens of public hearings, traveling the state and putting hundreds of miles on our vehicles visiting committees and gathering public input. For the first time in Kansas history folks could testify in committee from the comfort of their homes. They could also follow along and watch the committee proceedings online in real time. We conducted two days of hearings on this map, even adding extra hearing time when we found documents were delayed in being posted publicly. This process was transparent.—NICK HOHEISEL

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on Sub for SB 355. Since August, we have heard from constituents that the Kansas City area should not be divided. This bill strips urban areas of Federal representation and dilutes their voting strength with population declining rural counties, who have drastically different needs. This map is partisanship at its worst and an insult to all those who attended our hearings last year. I urge my colleagues to respect the peoples' interests over partisan political goals. —STEPHANIE CLAYTON

MR. SPEAKER: All power is inherent in the people. This inherent truth from our state constitution guides the redistricting process. The redistricting committee and the committee of the whole have been transparent in trying to accomplish this outcome. The map drawn is fair to all four incumbents, and each of them would have won their district with the election totals in 2020. We have followed the guidelines and listened to the comments of Kansans throughout this process. Ultimately each of us, as representatives, are responsible to our constituents in making decisions on redistricting for the next ten years. I believe we have done that, have been fair and transparent, and I support Sub SB 355, the Ad Astra map, that we passed yesterday. —STEVEN HUEBERT, CHARLES E. SMITH

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes on Sub SB 355. Although this map is not my first choice, I am excited for my counties of Anderson, Franklin, and Miami to grow and work more closely alongside our friends and neighbors in Johnson and Wyandotte counties. With the more diverse district, we get better representation.

Leadership and the tone for our next decade starts in this building. We are not a red state or a blue state. But rather, a United State of America. As we strive to lead the world, I hope we all keep at the forefront that what unites us is far more than what divides us. —MARK SAMSEL

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on S Sub SB 355. This map is a textbook definition of racial and partisan gerrymandering, and I simply cannot support a map that blatantly disregards the agreed upon guidelines. People from across the state were clear: Keep the cores of Wyandotte and Johnson county intact. Wyandotte's unique demographics -- from its large disabled population to high numbers of ethnic and racial minorities -- require special consideration. Residents were spurned for the purposes of weakening Democratic strongholds, strengthening the Republican position and diluting the minority vote. This is completely unacceptable.— TOM BURROUGHS, BRODERICK HENDERSON, JOHN ALCALA, VIRGIL WEIGEL

MR. SPEAKER: Yesterday, I wore my Kansas socks to mark a debate over something very important to the people of Kansas – the drawing of fair and mindful congressional maps. Today, as we cast a final vote on the Ad Astra 2 map, I wore my Taco, Avocado, and Alien socks – because putting those three things together makes far more sense than putting Lawrence in the same district as Bird City, or Wyandotte County with Mulberry. I vote no on S Sub SB 355 – JASON PROBST

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on S Sub SB 355. There was an overwhelming vocalization from Johnson County residents that was egregiously ignored, dismissed, and silenced during this process. We work on behalf of the public; they deserve to be heard. Hundreds of Kansans from every congressional district submitted testimony demanding Wyandotte and Johnson Counties stay intact at their core because of the strong intra-community ties, ranging from cultural interests to health care access. I cannot support this gerrymandered map because of the inevitable dilution of the minority and Democratic votes. – BRANDON WOODARD, CINDY NEIGHBOR, JO ELLA HOYE, RUI XU, MARI-LYNN POSKIN, SUSAN RUIZ, LINDA FEATHERSTON, HEATHER MEYER, LINDSAY VAUGHN, DAN OSMAN, JERRY W. STOGSDILL

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on S Sub SB 355. Ad Astra 2 undercuts numerous communities of interest -- racial, ethnic, economic, and others -- and abuses the public trust. Voters should choose their legislators, not the other way around.

Kansans received inadequate opportunity to speak to this map. Ad Astra 2 draws just Lawrence into the Big First, despite not a single member of the public asking for this. Lawrence, exclusively, was cut out with surgical precision and placed into a district with which it has little in common. This makes no logical sense. This will inevitably dilute the Democratic and minority votes in Lawrence.— BARBARA BALLARD, MIKE AMYX, CHRISTINA HASWOOD

MR. SPEAKER: While there are many issues, I disagree with in this map. It puts two research Universities in one Congressional district, thereby diluting representation in Congress. Therefore, I vote No on Sub SB 355. – SYDNEY CARLIN

MR. SPEAKER: I vote “NO” on Sub SB 355. The deliberate placement of our two Tribal Nations in separate Congressional districts is exactly the dilution of communities of interest that violate principles embodied in our United States Constitution and as applied by our Courts. The fact that Jackson County had to be split to achieve this end underscores the egregious nature and illegality of this act. – VIC MILLER

MR. SPEAKER: For obvious reasons, I considered whether or not I should participate in the vote on Sub SB 355. It is a good map for the 87th District and our region. I believe it is in the best interests of the 87th District for me to participate in this important vote. – SUSAN ESTES

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no. In spite of very short notice, we got input from over 500 people across the state, not a single one said put Lawrence in the first district. A majority of them said keep the core of Kansas City area together. They also spoke against political gerrymandering. In my time up here, this is the most political gerrymandering map I've ever seen. We did not listen to the people. This also dilutes the votes of minority voters. Mr. Speaker, I must vote no. Let's vote this map down and let's work together to get fair maps. – TOM SAWYER

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on Sub SB 355. Most of us here are trying to do the right thing. There are a few who are here to score political points.

We all heard the quiet part said out loud about how we could manipulate this redistricting map for political advantage. I believe that is exactly what we have done with Ad Astra. A few people drew this map and many who know better have failed to speak out.

We are making a choice today. Let's spend our time working to solve problems. I urge you to reject the Ad Astra map and work for something that is more fair.—CHUCK SCHMIDT

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Monday, February 7, 2022, 11:00 a.m.

The House met session pro forma pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Proctor are spread upon the Journal.

I served with Colonel Chuck Rambo in the Mission Command Training Program at Fort Leavenworth until my retirement in July 2019. Chuck was a consummate professional and had an infectious energy that inspired everyone around him. Chuck was not the kind of man to brag about himself, so I had no idea at the time just how distinguished his career had been.

Chuck was an Army Aviator. He served in command and staff positions in bases from Fort Campbell, Kentucky to South Korea. He was a combat veteran, serving one tour in Iraq and four tours in Afghanistan. He was awarded the Bronze Star an incredible four times! He was also the recipient of the Legion of Merit, two Meritorious Service Medals, and three Air Medals.

Chuck was also a devoted husband to his wife and a devoted father to his five sons and his foster daughter. He was committed to the Leavenworth community, coaching our local little league team to the most championships ever in league history.

Colonel Rambo was tragically taken from us in October of last year. He was 52 years old and only one year from retirement. After retirement, he planned to make Leavenworth his home.

Today I have with me—here at the well and in the balcony—Colonel Rambo's family and many, many friends in the community, including parents and kids from his little league team. Joining me are: Colonel Rambo's widow, Ms. Janel Rambo, his five sons, Charlie, Henry, Oliver, Elliot and Samuel; his foster daughter, Faith Clark; and his sister, Karen Arnold.

And so, on behalf of the Kansas House of Representatives, I am honored to present this tribute in memoriam of Colonel Chuck Rambo for a lifetime of exemplary service to his nation and his community, which stands as an example of the service and sacrifice of so many who serve in uniform here in the state of Kansas.

Rep. Proctor presented Janel Rambo with a framed House certificate in recognition of Colonel Rambo's many achievements.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on H Sub for SB 347. My thoughts on this matter are best summarized in an excerpt of Bruce Hornsby's song, "Look Out Any Window."

...Far away, they bend the rules so secretly - Close their eyes - And let it all out into the sea - Hoping nobody else would see.

....Look out, look out for the big boys - Telling you everything they're gonna do - Look out, look out for the fat cat builder man - Turning this into a wasteland - Look out, look out for the back room boys - That say the smoke is gonna blow away - Look out, look out for the men who say it's okay. Sitting in a building far away. – STEVEN K. HOWE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on H Sub Senate Bill 347 not because of the financial bill, but because the implementation of this will negatively affect my district and goes against the people's wishes in the 38th District. – TIMOTHY JOHNSON

MR. SPEAKER: Although I am an advocate of economic development for the State of Kansas I feel that I should not vote in favor of House Sub for Senate Bill 347. I would like to see more transparency, I do understand that non-disclosure agreements have their place but the citizens should know more about who this corporation is. The majority of my constituents that I have heard from on this bill would like to know more. – KEN COLLINS, CHARLES E. SMITH

MR. SPEAKER: I vote No on House Sub for SB 347. Paying $1.2 to $1.5 billion in public cash incentives to win a $4.0 billion private investment is two to three times the going rate. Kansas tax burden on established firms is one of the worst in the nation. The legislature should devote time and resources to fixing that existing tax problem rather than pursuing the dubious eco-devo strategy that is strong on headlines but weak on actual results. The taxpayers and existing businesses in our districts deserve better than the “deal” they got with H Sub for SB 347. – PAUL WAGGONER, CARL TURNER

MR. SPEAKER: I vote “NO” on H Sub for SB 347. It was once said, “We have to pass the bill so we can find out what is in it, away from the fog of controversy.” To take hard earned Kansas taxpayers’ money in the tune of over $1Billion to benefit a nameless faceless business is atrocious. So, is this how it is when government puts local and loyal businesses on the backburner and gambles with out of state businesses first in economic incentives? Disappointing...“Government is not a solution to our problem; government is the problem...government does not solve problems it subsidizes them.” Ronald Reagan. – TREVOR JACOBS

TWENTY-FIRST DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.

Reps. Finney and Victors were excused on verified illness.

Rep. Henderson was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Excused later: Rep. Poetter Parshall.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Pastor Dean Apel, Assaria Lutheran Church, Assaria and guest of Rep. Steven Johnson:

Dear Lord, You remind us through Peter in Your Word, “Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins.” (1 Peter 4:8)

We thank You for the many relationships in which You have set us as legislators, relationships with our own families, with constituents, with all others in our state, country and world, with each other and with You. Fill our hearts with love for You and for all those whom You call us to serve.

Bless our spouses, children, other family members and friends who must sometimes suffer for the sacrifices of time and energy we spend on state business.

Bless our constituents, those who voted for us and those who did not. Remind us that we are here to serve all of them and not our own interests and ideologies. Bless us to be responsible for the needs of our constituents and the needs of others in our state, country and world. Give us wisdom to make decisions which benefit the “common good” (1 Cor 12:7) and not only the narrower interests of our supporters.

Bless us to love one another, our fellow legislators here, so that we treat each other with civility and respect (Col 4:6; Eph 4:29) and are open to each others needs, views and priorities (Phil 2:4).

Finally, and most importantly, bless us with a good relationship with You, our Lord, so that we may find wisdom, courage and guidance from You for all the matters which are before us today and this season. Make our hearts grateful for Your willingness to befriend and save us through the death and resurrection of Jesus, in Whose name we pray. Amen.

“Above all, keep loving one another earnestly.....” (1 Peter 4:8)

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Featherston.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

Announcing the Senate herewith transmits the veto message from the Governor, together with the enrolled copy of Sub SB 355,

AN ACT concerning reapportionment; relating to congressional districts; providing for the reapportionment thereof; repealing K.S.A. 2021 Supp. 4-137 and 4-143., which was received on February 3, 2022 and read on February 7, 2022.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR REGARDING VETO OF SENATE BILL 355

The process of drawing districts each decade is the core to ensuring that all Kansans have the opportunity to participate in their government and have their voices heard. The courts and the Legislature have established case law and criteria on how to draw Kansas districts fairly and constitutionally.

Those guidelines call for ensuring that districts are nearly equal to 734,470 in population as practicable while ensuring that plans have neither the purpose nor effect of diluting minority communities' voting strength. The guidelines call for protecting communities of interest, preserving the core of existing congressional districts, and ensuring that whole counties are in the same congressional district if possible. The Legislature's guidelines further state that "to a considerable degree most counties in Kansas are economic, social, and cultural units, or parts of a larger socioeconomic unit. These communities of interest should be considered during the creation of congressional districts."

SB 355, known as Ad Astra 2, does not follow these guidelines and provides no justification for deviation from those guidelines. Wyandotte County is carved into two separate congressional districts. Without explanation, this map shifts 46% of the Black population and 33% of the Hispanic population out of the third congressional district by dividing the Hispanic neighborhoods of Quindaro Bluffs, Bethel-Welborn, Strawberry Hill, Armourdale and others from Argentine, Turner and the rest of Kansas City, Kansas south of I-70. To replace lost population in the third district, this map adds in counties that are more rural to the south and west of the core of the Kansas City metropolitan area.

Ad Astra 2 also separates the city of Lawrence from Douglas County and inserts urban precincts of Lawrence into the largely rural Big First Congressional District, reducing the strength of communities of interest in Western Kansas and unnecessarily dividing communities of interest in Eastern Kansas.

Several alternatives would allow for the same deviation as Ad Astra 2 while protecting the core of the existing congressional districts and without diluting minority communities' voting strength. I am ready to work with the Legislature in a bipartisan fashion to pass a new congressional map that addresses the constitutional issues in Senate Bill 355. Together, we can come to a consensus and pass a compromise that empowers all people of Kansas.

For those reasons, under Article 2, Section 14(a) of the Constitution, I hereby veto Senate Bill 355.

A motion was made that Sub SB 355 be passed notwithstanding the Governor's veto. By vote of 27 Yeas and 11 Nays, the motion having received the required two-thirds constitutional majority of the members elected or appointed to the Senate, voting in the affirmative, the bill passed.

VETO CONSIDERATION

On motion of Rep. Rep. Croft the House proceeded to reconsider Sub SB 355 AN ACT concerning reapportionment; relating to congressional districts; providing for the reapportionment thereof; repealing K.S.A. 2021 Supp. 4-137 and 4-143.

The Governor's objection to Sub SB 355 having been read, the question being: Shall the bill be passed notwithstanding the Governor's veto?

A two-thirds majority of the members elected to the House having voted in favor of the bill over the Governor's veto, the motion did prevail, the bill did pass.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 85; Nays 37; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 3.

Yeas: Anderson, Arnberger, Averkamp, Baker, Barker, Bergkamp, Bergquist, Blex, Borjon, Burris, Carlson, W. Present but not voting: None.

Absent or not voting: Finney, Henderson, Victors.

Having voted on the prevailing side, Rep. Finch moved that the House of Representatives reconsider its action to override the Governor's veto of Sub SB 355. The motion did not prevail.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on overriding the Governor's veto of Sub SB 355. This map was rammed through the legislature at the cost of public trust, transparency, and accountability. Backroom trading brought this map before us today. I cannot support legislation -- let alone a congressional map governing the next decade's socioeconomic lines -- that undercuts every single Kansan who elected us and the rule of law. We heard that gerrymandering and partisanship "just happens;" this was intentional. I refuse to support a gerrymandered map that dilutes the minority voice. I will not dignify this effort with my support and I expect this map to be challenged in court as litigation "just happens." -- TOM SAWYER, MARI-LYNN POSKIN, JO ELLA HOYE, CINDY NEIGHBOR, LINDSAY VAUGHN, KC OHAEBOSIM, JASON PROBST, STEPHANIE CLAYTON, BARBARA W. MR. SPEAKER: The Ad Astra map proposal is textbook gerrymandering, splitting the most diverse county, Wyandotte County, between Congressional districts and splits up the greater Kansas City region, an obvious community of interest. My constituents overwhelmingly supported their current member of the United States House, and this map is a blatant attempt to elect someone of the opposing party. Gerrymandering, in every case, is wrong, regardless of party. Sub SB 355 should more appropriately be named the “Per Aspera” proposal. I vote NO. – BRANDON WOODARD

MR. SPEAKER: District 1 still looks like an elephant. The Committee could have made the map bipartisan by making one of the other districts look like a donkey, but they chose not to. I vote NO. – DENNIS “BOOG” HIGHBERGER, JARROD OUSLEY, PAM CURTIS

MR. SPEAKER: Who is surprised the GOP has targeted Kansas’ only female member of Congress? Who is surprised the GOP has targeted the only person of color to represent Kansas in Congress in almost 100 yrs? This map is not about Democrats, New Yorkers or liberals. It is about being anti-woman, anti-people of color, anti-LGBTQ and anti-Native American. I vote to sustain the Governor’s veto of Substitute for SB 355. Representative – VIC MILLER

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. HCR 5028—

By Representatives Garber, Huebert, Jacobs, Lee-Hahn, Murphy and Rhiley

A PROPOSITION to amend section 1 of the bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas; relating to equal rights.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Section 1 of the bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"§ 1. Equal rights. All men are possessed of equal and inalienable natural rights, among which are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Recognizing the authority of the state of Kansas to exercise its police power and its sovereign right to adopt individual liberties in the constitution of the state of Kansas more expansive than those conferred by the constitution of the United States, the state of Kansas shall hereby guarantee the inalienable rights, equal protection and due process of law of every human being from the beginning of the biological development of that human being, including fertilization."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to expand the class of human beings who currently enjoy inalienable rights, equal protection and due process of the law under the constitution of the state of Kansas to every human being from the beginning of the biological development of that human being, including fertilization.

"A vote for this proposition would amend the constitution of the state of Kansas to explicitly incorporate into it the inalienable right to life of every human being irrespective of age, race, gender, health, function, condition of dependency, including physical or mental dependency, or method of reproduction, from the beginning of their biological development, including fertilization. The proposed constitutional amendment would also prohibit the state from discriminating against any class of human beings in the application, interpretation and enforcement of its laws.

"A vote against this proposition would not amend the constitution of the state of Kansas, in which case the current federally mandated legal status of preborn humans would remain that of a class of human beings that can intentionally be killed."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2022, unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

On motion of Rep. Hawkins the House adjourned pro forma until 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, February 10, 2022.

Journal of the House

TWENTY-SECOND DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, February 10, 2022, 11:00 a.m.

The House met session pro forma pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Williams and Rep. Ballard are spread upon the Journal:

Rep. Williams: I am pleased to co-sponsor this resolution with the Representative from Douglas County designating today, February 10, 2022, as JAG-K Day at the Capitol. Most of the members of this body are familiar with Jobs for America's Graduates - Kansas and their remarkable outcomes.

- JAG-K is an in-school, elective class that helps prepare students for successful futures.
- JAG-K Career Specialists work with their students all 12 months of the year and provide 12 months of support following their senior year.
- Over the past four years, JAG-K students have a 97% graduation rate.
- Eighty-nine percent of the JAG-K graduates of the Class of 2020 are now in post-secondary education, military service, or working full-time.

It is exciting to have hundreds of JAG-K students from across the state in the Capitol today, including those on the House floor this morning. I am especially proud to recognize Devin Russell-Unger and Christy Pray from Augusta. Devin is a senior at Augusta High School and the JAG-K State Career Association President. Christy is the Career Specialist at AHS and was also awarded JAG-K Career Specialist of the Year last year. Please help me recognize each of them. I would now yield time to Representative Ballard, who is a member of the JAG-K Board of Directors.

Rep. Ballard: Thank you Representative, it is a pleasure to share the podium with you this morning. One of the reasons I serve on the Board of Directors for JAG-K is because this program works. Representative Williams mentioned some their outstanding performance measures, but JAG-K also does things for students that cannot be measured: Instilling confidence, increasing self-worth, and recognizing great potential.

In October, the University of Kansas campus in Lawrence hosted JAG-K's Leadership Development Conference. I was able to meet with a small group of their leaders at the Robert J. Dole Institute of Politics. The entire staff raved what a joy they were to work with. The next day, I had the opportunity to speak at lunch to 300 plus JAG-K students and staff during the Leadership Conference.

I appreciate Governor Kelly including a $3.5 million appropriation in her budget this year, so JAG-K may expand from 81 programs to more than 120 over the next two years.

It was a pleasure to meet Devin and Christy earlier at the Dole Institute, and now I would like to recognize the rest of the group from JAG-K here on the floor with us this morning.

Students: Karin Moorhous from Hiawatha; Dakota Aumiller from Great Bend; Shyree Jackson from Royal Valley; Coby Mick from El Dorado; Jesse Bartlett from Stafford; and Devin Russell-Unger from Augusta.

They are accompanied by Christy Pray, the JAG-K Specialist of the Year, the VP of Programming, Bev Mortimer, and Chuck Knapp, the President and CEO. Chuck, we have worked together for many years, and you do an absolutely outstanding job. Thank you so much for all your work and efforts in the JAG-K Program.

Finally, please join me in recognizing some of the JAG-K students joining us in the East Gallery this morning.

Thank you for joining us in recognizing JAG-K Day here at the Capitol, in the House of Representatives.

Reps. Williams and Ballard presented the JAG-K representatives with certificates in recognition of their achievements.

(1) Place the juvenile on probation for a fixed period pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2391, and amendments thereto, subject to terms and conditions the court deems appropriate consistent with juvenile justice programs in the community. Any juvenile placed on probation shall be supervised according to the juvenile's risk and needs as determined by a risk and needs assessment. Placement of juvenile offenders to community corrections for probation supervision shall be limited to offenders adjudicated for an offense that are determined to be moderate-risk, high-risk or very high-risk on a risk and needs assessment using the cutoff scores established by the secretary pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2360, and amendments thereto.

(2) Order the juvenile to participate in a community based program available in such judicial district subject to the terms and conditions the court deems appropriate. This alternative shall not be ordered with the alternative in paragraph (1). Requirements pertaining to child support may apply if custody is vested with other than a parent.

(3) Place the juvenile in the custody of a parent or other suitable person, which is not a group home or other facility licensed pursuant to article 5 of chapter 65 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, subject to terms and conditions consistent with juvenile justice programs in the community. This alternative shall not be ordered with the alternative in paragraph (11). Requirements pertaining to child support may apply if custody is vested with other than a parent.

(4) Order the juvenile to attend counseling, educational, mediation or other sessions, or to undergo a drug evaluation pursuant to subsection (b).

(5) Suspend or restrict the juvenile's driver's license or privilege to operate a motor vehicle on the streets and highways of this state pursuant to subsection (c).

(6) Order the juvenile to perform charitable or community service work.

(7) Order the juvenile to make appropriate reparation or restitution pursuant to subsection (d).

(8) Order the juvenile to pay a fine not exceeding $1,000 pursuant to subsection (e).

(9) Place the juvenile under a house arrest program administered by the court pursuant to K.S.A. 2021 Supp. 21-6609, and amendments thereto.

(10) Place the juvenile in the custody of the secretary of corrections as provided in K.S.A. 38-2365, and amendments thereto. This alternative shall not be ordered with the alternative in paragraph (3) or (12). Except for mandatory drug and alcohol evaluation, when this alternative is ordered with alternatives in paragraphs (2), (4) and (9), such orders shall constitute a recommendation by the court. Requirements pertaining to child support shall apply under this alternative. The provisions of this paragraph shall expire on January 1, 2018.

(11) Upon a violation of a condition of sentence, other than a technical violation pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2368, and amendments thereto, commit the juvenile to detention for a period no longer than 30 days subject to the provisions of subsection (g).

(12) If the judge finds and enters into the written record that the juvenile poses a significant risk of harm to another or damage to property, and the juvenile is otherwise eligible for commitment pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2369, and amendments thereto, commit the juvenile directly to the custody of the secretary of corrections for placement in a juvenile correctional facility or a youth residential facility. Placement in a youth residential facility shall only be permitted as authorized in K.S.A. 38-2369(e), and amendments thereto. If the court elects, a period of conditional release pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2369, and amendments thereto, may also be ordered. The period of conditional release shall be limited to a maximum of six months and shall be subject to graduated responses. Twenty-one days prior to the juvenile's release from a juvenile correctional facility, the secretary of corrections or designee shall notify the court of the juvenile's anticipated release date. This alternative may be ordered with the alternative in paragraph (7). Requirements pertaining to child support shall apply under this alternative.

(13) Upon a finding by the trier of fact during adjudication that a firearm was used in the commission of an offense by the accused which, if committed by an adult, would constitute a felony, a judge may commit the juvenile directly to the custody of the secretary of corrections for placement in a juvenile correctional facility or youth residential facility for a minimum term of six months and up to a maximum term of 18 months, regardless of the risk level of such juvenile as determined by a risk and needs assessment. If the juvenile is committed to the custody of the secretary, and the court elects, a period of conditional release, pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2369, and amendments thereto, may also be ordered. The period of conditional release shall be limited to a maximum of six months and shall be subject to graduated responses. Twenty-one days prior to the juvenile's release from a juvenile correctional facility or youth residential facility, the secretary of corrections or the secretary's designee shall notify the court of the juvenile's anticipated release date.

(b) If the court orders the juvenile to attend counseling, educational, mediation or other sessions, or to undergo a drug and alcohol evaluation pursuant to subsection (a) (4), the following provisions apply:

(1) The court may order the juvenile offender to participate in counseling or mediation sessions or a program of education, including placement in an alternative educational program approved by a local school board. The costs of any counseling or mediation may be assessed as expenses in the case. No mental health center shall charge a fee for court-ordered counseling greater than what the center would have charged the person receiving the counseling if the person had requested counseling on the person's own initiative. No mediator shall charge a fee for court-ordered mediation greater than what the mediator would have charged the person participating in the mediation if the person had requested mediation on the person's own initiative. Mediation may include the victim but shall not be mandatory for the victim; and

(2) if the juvenile has been adjudicated to be a juvenile by reason of a violation of a statute that makes such a requirement, the court shall order and, if adjudicated for any other offense, the court may order the juvenile to submit to and complete a drug and alcohol evaluation by a community-based drug and alcohol safety action program certified pursuant to K.S.A. 8-1008, and amendments thereto, and to pay a fee not to exceed the fee established by that statute for such evaluation. The court may waive the mandatory evaluation if the court finds that the juvenile completed a drug and alcohol evaluation, approved by the community-based alcohol and drug safety action program, within 12 months before sentencing. If the evaluation occurred more than 12 months before sentencing, the court shall order the juvenile to resubmit to and complete the evaluation and program as provided herein. If the court finds that the juvenile and those legally liable for the juvenile's support are indigent, the court may waive the fee. In no event shall the fee be assessed against the secretary of corrections or the department of corrections nor shall the fee be assessed against the secretary of the department for children and families or the Kansas department for children and families if the juvenile is in the secretary's care, custody and control.

(c) If the court orders suspension or restriction of a juvenile offender's driver's license or privilege to operate a motor vehicle on the streets and highways of this state pursuant to subsection (a)(5), the following provisions apply:

(1) The duration of the suspension ordered by the court shall be for a definite time period to be determined by the court. Upon suspension of a license pursuant to this subsection, the court shall require the juvenile offender to surrender the license to the court. The court shall transmit the license to the division of motor vehicles of the department of revenue, to be retained until the period of suspension expires. At that time, the licensee may apply to the division for return of the license. If the license has expired, the juvenile offender may apply for a new license, which shall be issued promptly upon payment of the proper fee and satisfaction of other conditions established by law for obtaining a license unless another suspension or revocation of the juvenile offender's privilege to operate a motor vehicle is in effect. As used in this subsection, "highway" and "street" have the meanings provided by K.S.A. 8-1424 and 8-1473, and amendments thereto. Any juvenile offender who does not have a driver's license may have driving privileges revoked. No Kansas driver's license shall be issued to a juvenile offender whose driving privileges have been revoked pursuant to this section for a definite time period to be determined by the court; and

(2) in lieu of suspending a juvenile offender's driver's license or privilege to operate a motor vehicle on the highways of this state, the court may enter an order which places conditions on the juvenile offender's privilege of operating a motor vehicle on the streets and highways of this state, a certified copy of which the juvenile offender shall be required to carry any time the juvenile offender is operating a motor vehicle on the streets and highways of this state. The order shall prescribe a definite time period for the conditions imposed. Upon entering an order restricting a juvenile offender's license, the court shall require the juvenile offender to surrender such juvenile offender's license to the court. The court shall transmit the license to the division of vehicles, together with a copy of the order. Upon receipt thereof, the division of vehicles shall issue without charge a driver's license which shall indicate on its face that conditions have been imposed on the juvenile offender's privilege of operating a motor vehicle and that a certified copy of the order imposing the conditions is required to be carried by the juvenile offender when operating a motor vehicle on the streets and highways of this state. If the juvenile offender is a nonresident, the court shall cause a copy of the order to be transmitted to the division and the division shall forward a copy of it to the motor vehicle administrator of the juvenile offender's state of issuance. The court shall furnish to any juvenile offender whose driver's license has had conditions imposed on it under this section a copy of the order, which shall be recognized as a valid Kansas driver's license until the division issues the restricted license provided for in this subsection. Upon expiration of the period of time for which conditions are imposed pursuant to this subsection, the juvenile offender may apply to the division for the return of the license previously surrendered by the juvenile offender. In the event the license has expired, the juvenile offender may apply to the division for a new license, which shall be issued immediately by the division upon payment of the proper fee and satisfaction of the other conditions established by law unless such juvenile offender's privilege to operate a motor vehicle on the streets and highways of this state has been suspended or revoked prior thereto. If any juvenile offender violates any of the conditions imposed under this subsection, the juvenile offender's driver's license or privilege to operate a motor vehicle on the streets and highways of this state shall be revoked for a period as determined by the court in which the juvenile offender is convicted of violating such conditions.

(d) The following provisions apply to the court's determination of whether to order reparation or restitution pursuant to subsection (a)(7):

(1) The court shall order the juvenile to make reparation or restitution to the aggrieved party for the damage or loss caused by the juvenile offender's offense unless it finds compelling circumstances that would render a plan of reparation or restitution unworkable. If the court finds compelling circumstances that would render a plan of reparation or restitution unworkable, the court shall enter such findings with particularity on the record. In lieu of reparation or restitution, the court may order the juvenile to perform charitable or social service for organizations performing services for the community; and

(2) restitution may include, but shall not be limited to, the amount of damage or loss caused by the juvenile's offense. Restitution may be made by payment of an amount fixed by the court or by working for the parties sustaining loss in the manner ordered by the court. An order of monetary restitution shall be a judgment against the juvenile that may be collected by the court by garnishment or other execution as on judgments in civil cases. Such judgment shall not be affected by the termination of the court's jurisdiction over the juvenile offender.

(e) If the court imposes a fine pursuant to subsection (a)(8), the following provisions apply:

(1) The amount of the fine may not exceed $1,000 for each offense. The amount of the fine should be related to the seriousness of the offense and the juvenile's ability to pay. Payment of a fine may be required in a lump sum or installments;

(2) in determining whether to impose a fine and the amount to be imposed, the court shall consider that imposition of a fine is most appropriate in cases where the juvenile has derived pecuniary gain from the offense and that imposition of a restitution order is preferable to imposition of a fine; and

(3) any fine imposed by the court shall be a judgment against the juvenile that may be collected by the court by garnishment or other execution as on judgments in civil cases. Such judgment shall not be affected by the termination of the court's jurisdiction over the juvenile.

(f) Before the court sentences a juvenile offender pursuant to subsection (a), the court shall administer a risk assessment tool, as described in K.S.A. 38-2360, and amendments thereto, or review a risk assessment tool that was administered within the past six months to the juvenile and use the results of that assessment to inform orders made pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2369 and 38-2391, and amendments thereto.

(g) If the court commits the juvenile to detention pursuant to subsection (a)(11), the following provisions shall apply:

(1) The court shall only order commitment to detention upon violation of sentencing conditions where all other alternatives have been exhausted.

(2) In order to commit a juvenile to detention upon violation of sentencing conditions, the court shall find that the juvenile poses a significant risk of harm to another or damage to property, is charged with a new felony offense, or violates conditional release.

(3) The court shall not order commitment to detention upon adjudication as a juvenile offender pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2356, and amendments thereto, for solely technical violations of probation, contempt, a violation of a valid court order, to protect from self-harm or due to any state or county failure to find adequate alternatives.

(4) Cumulative detention use shall be limited to a maximum of ~~45~~ 90 days over the course of a juvenile offender's case pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2391, and amendments thereto. The court shall review any detention commitment every seven days and may shorten the initial commitment or extend the commitment. In no case, however, may the term of detention or any extension thereof exceed the cumulative detention limit of ~~45~~ 90 days or the overall case length limit.

(5) A juvenile over 18 years of age and less than 23 years of age at sentencing shall be committed to a county jail, in lieu of a juvenile detention center, under the same time restrictions imposed by paragraph (1), but shall not be committed to or confined in a juvenile detention facility.

(h) Any order issued by the judge pursuant to this section shall be in effect immediately upon entry into the court's minutes.

(i) In addition to the requirements of K.S.A. 38-2373, and amendments thereto, if a person is under 18 years of age and convicted of a felony or adjudicated as a juvenile offender for an offense if committed by an adult would constitute the commission of a felony, the court shall forward a signed copy of the journal entry to the secretary of corrections within 30 days of final disposition.

(j) Except as further provided, if a juvenile has been adjudged to be a juvenile offender for an offense which, if committed by an adult would constitute the commission of: (1) Aggravated human trafficking, as defined in K.S.A. 2021 Supp. 21-5426(b), and amendments thereto, if the victim is less than 14 years of age; (2) rape, as defined in K.S.A. 2021 Supp. 21-5503(a)(3), and amendments thereto; (3) aggravated indecent liberties with a child, as defined in K.S.A. 2021 Supp. 21-5506(b)(3), and amendments thereto; (4) aggravated criminal sodomy, as defined in K.S.A. 2021 Supp. 21-5504(b)(1) or (b)(2), and amendments thereto; (5) commercial sexual exploitation of a child, as defined in K.S.A. 2021 Supp. 21-6422, and amendments thereto, if the victim is less than 14 years of age; (6) sexual exploitation of a child, as defined in K.S.A. 2021 Supp. 21-5510(a)(1) or (a)(4), and amendments thereto, if the victim is less than 14 years of age; or (7) an attempt, conspiracy or criminal solicitation, as defined in K.S.A. 2021 Supp. 21-5301, 21-5302 or 21-5303, and amendments thereto, of an offense defined in paragraphs (1) through (6); the court shall issue an order prohibiting the juvenile from attending the attendance center that the victim of the offense attends. If only one attendance center exists, for which the victim and juvenile are eligible to attend, in the school district where the victim and the juvenile reside, the court shall hear testimony and take evidence from the victim, the juvenile, their families and a representative of the school district as to why the juvenile should or should not be allowed to remain at the attendance center attended by the victim. After such hearing, the court may issue an order prohibiting the juvenile from attending the attendance center that the victim of the offense attends.

(k) The court may order a short-term alternative placement of a juvenile pursuant to subsection (a)(3) in an emergency shelter, therapeutic foster home or community integration program if:

(1) Such juvenile has been adjudicated to be a juvenile offender for an offense which, if committed by an adult would constitute the commission of:

(A) Aggravated human trafficking, as defined in K.S.A. 2021 Supp. 21-5426(b), and amendments thereto, if the victim is less than 14 years of age;

(B) rape, as defined in K.S.A. 2021 Supp. 21-5503, and amendments thereto;

(C) commercial sexual exploitation of a child, as defined in K.S.A. 2021 Supp. 21-6422, and amendments thereto, if the victim is less than 14 years of age;

(D) sexual exploitation of a child, as defined in K.S.A. 2021 Supp. 21-5510(a)(1) or (a)(4), and amendments thereto, if the victim is less than 14 years of age;

(E) aggravated indecent liberties with a child, as defined in K.S.A. 2021 Supp. 21-5506, and amendments thereto, if the victim is less than 14 years of age; or

(F) an attempt, conspiracy or criminal solicitation, as defined in K.S.A. 2021 Supp. 21-5301, 21-5302 or 21-5303, and amendments thereto, of an offense defined in paragraphs (1) through (4); and

(2)(A) the victim resides in the same home as the juvenile offender;

(B) a community supervision officer in consultation with the department for children and families determines that an adequate safety plan, which shall include the physical and psychological well-being of the victim, cannot be developed to keep the juvenile in the same home; and

(C) there are no relevant child in need of care issues that would permit a case to be filed under the Kansas code for care of children.

The presumptive term of commitment shall not extend beyond the overall case length limit but may be modified pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2367 and 38-2397, and amendments thereto. If a child is placed outside the child's home at the dispositional hearing pursuant to this subsection and no reintegration plan is made a part of the record of the hearing, a written reintegration plan shall be prepared pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2397, and amendments thereto, and submitted to the court within 15 days of the initial order of the court.

(l) The sentencing hearing shall be open to the public as provided in K.S.A. 38-2353, and amendments thereto.

(m) The overall case length limit shall be calculated by the court and entered into the written record when one or more of the sentencing options under this section are imposed. The period fixed by the court pursuant to subsection (a) shall not extend beyond the overall case length limit.";

"Sec. 6. K.S.A. 38-2392 is hereby amended to read as follows: 38-2392. (a) The department of corrections shall, in consultation with the supreme court, adopt rules and regulations by January 1, 2017, for a statewide system of structured community-based graduated responses for technical violations of probation, violations of conditional release and violations of a condition of sentence by juveniles. Such graduated responses shall be utilized by community supervision officers to provide a continuum of community-based responses. These responses shall include sanctions that are swift and certain to address violations based on the severity of the violation as well as incentives that encourage positive behaviors. Such responses shall take into account the juvenile's risks and needs.

(b) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (4), when a juvenile is placed on probation pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2361, and amendments thereto, community supervision officers shall utilize graduated responses, targeted to the juvenile's risks and needs based on the results of a risk and needs assessment to address technical violations. A technical violation shall only be considered by the court for revocation if:

~~(1)~~(A) It is a third or subsequent technical violation;

~~(2)~~(B) prior failed responses are documented in the juvenile's case plan; and

~~(3)~~(C) the community supervision officer has determined and documented that graduated responses to the violation will not suffice.

(2) Unless a juvenile poses a significant risk of physical harm to another or damage to property, community supervision officers shall issue a summons rather than request a warrant on a third or subsequent technical violation subject to review by the court.

(3) Absconding from supervision shall not be considered a technical violation of probation and, after reasonable efforts to locate a juvenile that has absconded are unsuccessful, the court may issue a warrant for the juvenile pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2342, and amendments thereto.

(4) When a juvenile is placed on probation pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2361, and amendments thereto, a judge may commit such juvenile to detention for a violation of probation, including a technical violation, and for contempt of court. A juvenile may be committed to detention for a period not to exceed:

(A) 24 hours for a first violation;

(B) 48 hours for a second violation; and

(C) 15 days for a third or subsequent violation.

(c) When a juvenile is placed on probation pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2361, and amendments thereto, the community supervision officer responsible for oversight of the juvenile shall develop a case plan in consultation with the juvenile and the juvenile's family. The department for children and families and local board of education may participate in the development of the case plan when appropriate.

(1) Such case plan shall incorporate the results of the risk and needs assessment, referrals to programs, documentation on violations and graduated responses and shall clearly define the role of each person or agency working with the juvenile.

(2) If the juvenile is later committed to the custody of the secretary, the case plan shall be shared with the juvenile correctional facility.

(d) This section shall be a part of and supplemental to the revised Kansas juvenile justice code.";

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, February 15, 2022, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Finch in the chair.

The roll was called with 118 members present.

Reps. Donohoe, Finney and Poetter Parshall were excused on verified illness.

Reps. Lynn, Samsel, Toplikar and Xu were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Present later: Rep. Toplikar.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Rev. Rachael Pryor, Chairman of Kansas Interfaith Action, and guest of Rep. Ousley:

Let us pray. Across the differences of our many faiths, across divides of conscience and culture, we call with varied names upon the holy presence that inspires and surrounds us; and one name we give this holiness, is Truth. As witnesses we swear to tell the whole truth and nothing but the truth; it is a reference to the sacred words of Exodus 23:3: "Don't take sides with important people to do wrong. And when you act as a witness, don't stretch the truth to favor important people." Some of us call upon a God who demands truth even in the most hidden places; some of us seek salvation through a rabbi who said "you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."

Truth distorted is a bully; truth sanitized is manipulation; truth censored or stretched is no truth at all. We are living in a moment when the very existence of truth is called into question; yet, who is God if not the source of truth? When we speak of what we hold sacred, no matter the convictions of our faith or conscience, we are speaking of truth.

The whole truth is wisdom and life. Where lies sow hate and build barricades, truth nurtures trust, compassion, and unity. Truth can be costly, but it is the price of freedom. So may the work of this House, of these who serve the cause of liberty and justice, be guided by an unaltered truth that favors all Kansans, important and unimportant, of equal human dignity. May we speak truth, know truth, and live truth, whether in this lofty chamber, behind closed doors, or in the hidden depths of our own hearts. May truth be our way and our life, for the sake of whatever we hold sacred. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by by Rep. Chuck Smith.

By Representatives Sutton, W. Carpenter, Clifford, Fairchild, Murphy, Owens, Resman, Sanders, Tarwater and Waggoner

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION making application to the Congress of the United States for a limited national convention for the exclusive purpose of proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States establishing term limits for members of Congress.

WHEREAS, The framers of the Constitution of the United States of America intended that the U.S. House of Representatives and the U.S. Senate of the United States of America should be "dependent on the people alone" (James Madison, Federalist 52); and

WHEREAS, Throughout American history, this dependency has evolved from a dependency on the American people alone to a dependency on powerful special interests, through spending by third-party groups, campaigns or out-of-state donors, which have created a fundamental imbalance in our representative democracy and eroded the people's trust in government; and

WHEREAS, Americans across the political spectrum agree that elections in the United States of America should be free from the disproportional influence of special interests and fair enough that any citizen can be elected into office; and

WHEREAS, The Constitution of the State of Kansas states that "all political power is inherent in the people, and all free governments are founded on their authority, and are instituted for their equal protection and benefit" (Bill of Rights, Section 2); and

WHEREAS, Article V of the Constitution of the United States requires the Congress of the United States to call a convention for proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States upon the application of two-thirds of the legislatures of the several states; and

WHEREAS, The Kansas Legislature perceives the need for a convention in order to ensure balance and integrity in our elections by proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States that will establish term limits for members of Congress to prevent the accumulation of inordinate power in members with longevity who are able to amass high amounts of funds for reelection; and

WHEREAS, A national convention would give the American people an opportunity to come together as a nation, by discussing solutions on how to ensure the integrity of our elections and renew the American people's trust in government; and

WHEREAS, Article V of the Constitution of the United States clearly states that any amendment, whether proposed by the Congress of the United States or by a convention, must be ratified by 75% of the states, presently 38 states, ensuring that only the most reasonable proposals with widespread support shall become part of the Constitution of the United States; and

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, February 16, 2022, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 121 members present.

Rep. Finney was excused on verified illness.

Reps. Lynn, Meyer and Poetter Parshall were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Present later: Rep. Meyer.

Prayer by Rep. Brubaker:

Almighty Lord God,
thank You for the opportunity to once again come before You on behalf of our leaders.
In the Old Testament, when told he could ask for anything, King Solomon requested wisdom and knowledge, that he may lead his people.
God was pleased with this request and granted to him the wisdom and knowledge to lead.
This wisdom was not of human wisdom,
but wisdom that comes from God.
Today we recognize that we need Your wisdom and knowledge—because You know the past, the present, and all that lies ahead in the future.
And, we acknowledge that to gain this wisdom and knowledge, we must begin with fear, awe and respect for You.
I pray this for our leaders today in Your great Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Baker.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following words of Rep. Dodson are spread upon the Journal:

I rise to recognize the service of Richard B. Myers, who is departing as President of Kansas State University.

President Myers is unique in the history of the University. He graduated from Kansas State University in 1965. He earned a degree in mechanical engineering, and a commission as a Second Lieutenant through the ROTC program.

He joined the U.S. Air Force and rose through the ranks to become a Four-Star General, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and principal advisor to the President of the United States.

In honor of his exemplary military service to his country, on November 9, 2006, the Kansas Board of Regents and Kansas State University named the military science building Richard B. Myers Hall.

General Myers first served as the interim president from April to November 2016, and then as the fourteenth president of Kansas State University from November, 2016 to February, 2022.

Under his leadership, the University added and/or renovated 1.9 million square feet to its campuses, and K-State Athletics alone completed $98 million in new and renovated facilities. Importantly, university research and development reached a record high of $218.6 million.

Throughout his career, President Myers held critical positions in many aspects of national security. In 2009, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security selected the Kansas State University campus as the new home of the National Bio and Agro-Defense Facility (NBAF) and its construction was completed during his tenure. He brought the blue-ribbon study panel on biodefense to KSU at which time former senate majority leader Tom Daschle declared K-State and Manhattan, Kansas, to be “the Silicon Valley for biodefense.”

President Myers served as president through difficult and largely unprecedented times. The University had challenges in students finding their way into adulthood, in enrollment, and in obtaining resources. This was all under the conditions of the Covid-19 pandemic. His inspirational leadership was key to the university being able to successfully navigate through these challenges. He led Kansas State University in a way that made us all proud, even as other great institutions faltered. President Richard Myers and First Lady Mary Jo Myers served as co-chairs for the KSU Foundation Innovation and Inspiration Campaign, which raised $1.6 billion in private monies, surpassing the original goal by $600 million. This will greatly enhance opportunities for student success, facilities enhancements, faculty development, and support to programs. President Myers term as KSU president has benefitted not only the university, but Manhattan and the state of Kansas. He and First Lady Mary Jo reintroduced the meaning of family to KSU and to all of us as Kansans. He has earned a legacy as one of the great leaders of Kansas.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Woodard and Rep. Ballard are spread upon the Journal.

Rep. Woodard: Thank you, Mister Speaker!

Colleagues, I rise today in honor of the incredible work and dedication of Dale Seuferling. Dale is the president of the KU Endowment Association and earlier this year announced that he will be retiring later this summer.

Dale joined KU Endowment Association in 1981, over forty years ago when he began his work as the director of public affairs. Subsequently, he served in roles with increasing responsibility, including the director of Major Gifts, vice president for Development, and executive vice president before being named President in 2002.

During his tenure, Seuferling has been involved with three of the four major fundraising campaigns undertaken by KU Endowment, including the most recent, Far Above: The Campaign for Kansas, which raised more than $1.66 billion for the benefit of KU, transforming education for decades of future Jayhawks to come.

As a former student, student leader, university employee, and now a member of the KU Endowment Association team, I appreciate the work Dale, his organization, and his leadership have done to make the University of Kansas and the State of Kansas a better place.

Today, Dale is joined by his wife, Marianne Seuferling; his daughter, Tess Seuferling; colleagues Christi Hinkle and Laurie Comstock, and KU Chancellor Doug Girod.

Colleagues, please join me in thanking Dale for his forty years of service to KU Endowment Association, the University of Kansas, and the State of Kansas.

Rep. Ballard: Good morning! Thank you, Representative Woodard for including me. As Dale's State Representative, I want to thank him for his dedication to the University of Kansas.

As a member of the KU faculty and staff, I can speak firsthand about his commitment to all operations of the KU system, from Liberal Arts to KU Medical Hospital.

Under his leadership, the KU Endowment has become one of the top performers in terms of effectiveness, raising more money as a percentage of their operating costs than any other public institution nationwide. KU Endowment now has over 131,000 donors, 49% of them new from all 50 states and 59 countries.

Dale is also a great colleague to work with. He is personable, warm, caring, and always willing to help.

Thank you, Dale, you will be missed, and your shoes will be hard ones to fill.

Rep. Woodard presented Mr. Seuferling with a framed House certificate in honor of his many contributions to The University of Kansas.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote in favor of HCR 5014. NCSL reports 28 states who have “some type of authority to review and veto certain administrative rules set by bureaucracies, yet to hear tell from many yesterday, the Kansas House is inventing an excuse to attack a governor when we try to provide the same oversight. We are the lawmaking body. We have that absolute OBLIGATION. When bureaucracies pass rules and regulations that have the same power and standing of law, we MUST be able to address them. It is our duty to the people we represent. – ERIC SMITH

MR. SPEAKER: There is already a thorough review process for our rules and regulations, including a review by the Attorney General to ensure that the agency has not exceeded its statutory authority. If someone still believes that the agency has exceeded its authority, the regulations are subject to judicial review, or they may be overruled by a bill in the legislature. This resolution is just more election-year grandstanding. I vote NO on HCR 5014. – Dennis “BOOG” HIGHBERGER

MR. SPEAKER: I wholeheartedly support HCR 5014. It is a commonsense measure designed to limit the increasing role of an unelected bureaucracy and allow the legislature to pare down the ever-growing number of rules and regulations that affect nearly every aspect of the lives of Kansans. I voted “no” only for the purpose of bringing a motion to reconsider and a second attempt to pass this important measure. – BLAINE FINCH

TWENTY-NINTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Monday, February 21, 2022, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 124 members present.

Rep. Finney was excused on verified illness.

Prayer by Rep. Brubaker:

Jehovah God,
we thank You for this new week – this new day in which You so graciously give us new mercies.
Today, Presidents' Day, as we reflect upon the leaders of this great nation, we think of those traits which made them such great leaders:
compassion, patience, drive, attention to detail, strong sense of responsibility, firm moral conscience, honesty, humility, courage, justice, and grace.
These traits enabled Presidents Washington and Lincoln to lead our nation during difficult and trying times.
Today, I pray that these same traits be manifested in our leaders as they make serious and life-changing decisions for the people of our great state.
And may it all glorify You.
I pray this in Christ's Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Neighbor.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following words of Rep. Adam Smith are spread upon the Journal:

Rep. Smith asked fellow representatives who had sponsored 4-H members in attendance to join him at the well.

Thank you Mr. Speaker. Colleagues, it is my pleasure to welcome the future to the House of Representatives this morning!

In the gallery and around the Capitol, we have young adults from across the state joining us today as a part of the Citizenship In Action conference. This two-day event is organized and sponsored by the State 4-H Youth Leadership Council, and was designed to be a hands-on learning experience about the legislative process and objective decision making.

It began yesterday afternoon at the hotel as they discussed several key issues in a committee format and then the groups gathered in the House and Senate chambers last night for the final debate and voting. Today, they will be touring the Capitol and visiting with their elected officials to finish up the event.

I am honored to have these young adults in our Capitol today. They are already leaders in their local communities, showing by example what it means to have a strong work ethic, integrity, and grit.

I have high hopes for their futures and the future of Kansas. Who knows, perhaps some of them will even be sitting at these desks someday... or maybe even a desk on the second floor of the Capitol!

Rest assured, Kansas is in good hands.

You give us forgiveness for our love of things, our pursuit of self-indulgence,
our trust in our own human minds.
You long to give us Your wisdom and to prove to us Your trustworthiness.
We humble ourselves to accept Your gifts and ask for mercy in our shortcomings, and for Your grace as we endeavor to follow You today.
Oh, and help us all to be gracious

Amen.

Prayer by Rep. Jacobs:

Heavenly Father God, we come to You in the Name of Jesus who is the way, the Truth, and the Life, the Creator of all the universe, and the Judge and Redeemer of men's souls. We thank You God that You love us and You remind us in Your Holy Word that, "You know the plans that You have for us, plans to prosper us, and not to harm us, plans to give us a Hope and a Future, and You said, if we would call upon You, You would listen to us and that we would find You when we seek for You with all of our hearts." So, this morning we acknowledge that You are the Potter, and we are the clay, and we humbly ask that You mold and shape us to the men and women You've called us to be. We ask for Your forgiveness of our sins and we humbly ask for Your amazing grace, wisdom and Your divine boldness to stand for what is right according to Your Holy Word, no matter the cost or the loss. Let us be a people who seek Your face with all our hearts in obedience. And it's in Jesus Mighty Name I pray, Amen.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes on HB 2110 because as more children are suffering from diseases that are hard to diagnose and come on suddenly, part of the conversation needs to be vaccine injury and holding the vaccine manufacturers accountable.

We cannot keep injecting our children with poison and increasing the vaccines given and then wonder why we have an epidemic of undiagnosed diseases. I suggest we make vaccine companies liable, I would hope eventually we can focus on the root issue of vaccine injuries and PANDAS will become extinct in our kids.

Today, I cast this vote in honor of every family in Kansas that has suffered in silence.
 – TATUM LEE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote “NO” on HB 2110. While my heart goes out to the families who will experience this terrible health issue, I cannot in good conscience appropriate money the constituents of my district have given to the state for the purpose of funding our government and expend it for some other cause. It would, in my opinion, be a violation of the oath of office I have sworn to uphold. In the words of Colonel Davy Crockett, the is “No Ours to Give.” – RANDY GARBER

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: Today, I vote NO on HB 2559. In the 1985 Farm Bill, the mandatory beef check off tax was enacted. It was previously voluntary, but the government got involved and made it a tax that producers in 2021 are still being required to pay. In 2021 The Beef Check Off tax, generated over 77Mil! An average steer is 1300 lbs. Less than a cotton bale. Producers in 2021 pay a mandated $1/head every time they buy and sell and that money goes to private cattle associations they may not even agree or be members of. This cotton fund is currently voluntary, if cotton producers felt there was value in this fee, there would be no need to come to the legislature. Take it from the Beef Producers that are stuck since 1985, don't mandate this tax. – TATUM LEE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote No on HB 2559. Control of the Boll Weevil is vital to the success of the cotton farming industry in Kansas; but levying a fee on cotton producers to be paid to a private organization which keeps any unspent funds for its own use is wrong. Control of Boll Weevils is important. It is the responsibility of government. These fees should be paid to the Kansas Department of Agriculture, not a private organization. I therefore vote No on HB 2559. – JOHN CARMICHAEL

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes on HB 2567. Rarely do you have the opportunity to help both the taxpayer and government. This bill reduces the final cost for each motor vehicle registration and targets more dollars to your local offices to cover the expense of providing motor vehicle services in your community. This bill also provides transparency and property tax relief for Kansans because, as a former county commissioner, I can assure you the treasurers have been going to the county for years to subsidize shortfalls when the fees don't cover expenses. A "YES" vote is a vote for lower fees and lower property taxes. — ADAM SMITH, SUSAN OLIVER ESTES, LISA M. MOSER

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote No on HB 2579. Requiring all campaigns for state Representative or state Senate to file electronically is bad public policy. Most persons who run for the legislature are 60 or above. First-time candidates, in particular, can struggle to find anyone willing to put up with the hassle of being a campaign treasurer. We need to not put barriers in the way for newcomers to the legislature. Most campaigns enjoy the ability to file electronically and that is great. This bill should be amended to grant an automatic exemption for any campaign that requests it. — PAUL WAGGONER

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: As far as I can tell, the office of elected sheriff is under no threat whatsoever in at least 103 counties. Allowing the citizens of the entire state to vote to tell an individual county that it must have an elected sheriff is just as much an infringement of local control as when a majority of members of this body vote to tell my community what it can and can't do. I vote NO on HCR 5022. – DENNIS "BOOG" HIGHBERGER, JOHN CARMICHAEL

On motion of Rep. Hawkins, the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole, with Rep. Owens in the chair.

Present but not voting: None.

Absent or not voting: Donohoe, Finney, Huebert, Wolfe Moore.

The bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2605. The bill takes a program that currently only exists in rural counties and potentially expands it to more urban areas of the state. Since there are a limited number of scholarships in the bill, I believe this bill is more likely to harm our rural communities than help them. The bill also creates a new committee, which expands government. — BRETT FAIRCHILD, BILL RHILEY grateful for the blessings that You bestow upon us daily.

Our Heavenly Father,

Today we have many plans, various agendas, a list of expectations, numerous intentions and busy schedules.
Our day already seems driven by demands on our time, goals to accomplish and deadlines to meet.
It can be so easy for each one to get so involved with the busy-ness of the day that we neglect to remember that You establish our steps.
Help us to commit to You all that we hope to accomplish today and ask that You would allow all our plans to prosper.
This I pray in Your gracious Name, Amen.

Prayer by Rep. Steven Johnson:

Gracious God,

We have so much for which to be thankful.

We are thankful to be here.

We are thankful for all you have given us.

We pray that your providence be with those fighting in Ukraine, that your kingdom may be established and prevail there and throughout the world.

May we all continually consider how our actions and words serve your kingdom above our earthly kingdoms.

Today, we pray again for our sister Eunice, that your healing hand is upon her.

In our journey together to the stars, we can only make it with Your great love and guidance.

When hate, envy or deceit wells within or around us, help us to instead reflect Your love, understanding and truth.

Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Blex.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Delperdang are spread upon the Journal:

I stand here today to address the House over an event that happened a little more than a year ago. We all know why I did not address this a year ago, but a lot has transpired since then.

On August 29, 2020, a Sedgwick County 911-Dispatch was advised of a wrong-way driver on K-96 Highway, Northwest of Wichita. Minutes later, police units were advised of a head-on collision on K-96.

Officer Ohlemeier arrived on the scene to find two vehicles fully engulfed in flames with both drivers trapped inside. Officer Ohlemeier accessed the vehicles and removed the drivers. During the incident, one of the vehicles had small explosions believed to be ammunition.

Once the drivers were removed from the vehicles, Officer Ohlemeier and other first responders attended to the driver's needs. During this time, a third vehicle with an intoxicated driver ran directly into the emergency scene at highway speeds, ultimately killing one of the original drivers.

I wanted to bring Officer Ohlemeier before the Legislature, to recognize him for his heroic efforts that August evening. So I contacted his Chief, Mark Hinkle — who stands with me now. This was meant to be a surprise to Officer Ohlemeier.

But plans change. Officer Ohlemeier contracted COVID-19 on December 4th, By December 7th, he was admitted to the hospital. And by the morning of December 8th, he had died from COVID-19.

With me today are Officer Ohlemeier's daughters, Elizabeth Hemingway, who is a police officer in St. Louis MO and Lindsay Gallagher, and Officer Ohlemeier's sister, Cay Ohlemeier. I asked Chief Mark Hinkle if he would come to Topeka to stand before you as I present a recognition for Officer Ohlemeier's actions on the evening of August 29, 2020.

Rep. Delperdang presented a framed House certificate to the Ohlemeier family in memory of Officer Ohlemeier's heroic efforts.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: "The Congress, whenever two thirds of both Houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose Amendments to this Constitution, or, on the Application of the Legislatures of two thirds of the several States, shall call a Convention for proposing Amendments" I voted against HCR 5027 because it will not do what some claim and reel in Congress. If the required number of states pass an Article V resolution it will be Congress who calls the convention and makes the rules. There are too many unanswered questions now about how it will work and I do not want to bet our Constitution to find out. I vote No on HCR 5027. – KEN COLLINS

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes on HCR 5027. I have serious concerns about possible serious consequences with the passage of this. However, I am elected to represent my district, my constituents. I have heard from the majority of my constituents. They want a yes vote from their representative, therefore I vote yes. – SUZI CARLSON

MR. SPEAKER: Between debate and independent research, I cannot in good conscience support HCR 5027. The evidence is clear that an Article V convention will grant unmitigated power to a dysfunctional and untrustworthy Congress to determine the scope, rules, and mechanics of any proceeding. Kansas will cede its sovereignty to some unknowable future body, while abandoning the enduring security of our Constitution. A better America isn't found in wholesale rewriting of a document penned by brilliant minds guided by Providence; it lies in our shared sense of civic duty, community, and faith in our ability to build a more perfect union. — JASON PROBST, JOHN CARMICHAEL

MR. SPEAKER: I VOTE "NO" ON HCR 5027. Because our government has rejected God's Law the Ten Commandments, we must now contend with a corrupt government that does not fear man nor God. Since we have chosen not to self-govern by God's Word, we must now be governed by corrupt men.

"We have staked the whole future of American civilization, not upon the power of government, far from it. We have staked the future of all our political institutions upon the capacity of mankind for self-government; upon the capacity of each...of us to govern ourselves, to control ourselves...according to the Ten Commandments of God." James Madison — TREVOR JACOBS

MR. SPEAKER: I proudly vote Yes on HCR 5027, the Convention of States. This convention is explicitly set up in Article V of our Constitution as an alternative method to amending the constitution. It gives the states a way to bypass a dysfunctional Congress. What had been prepared for us in A.D. 1789 is more than useful in A.D. 2022. A $30 trillion federal deficit, unsustainable federal spending, federal overreach and career politicians with 20, 30 or 40 years of "service" are ruining our land. Kansas needs to push back using all means possible. HCR 5027 does that. — PAUL WAGGONER

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on H Sub SB 286 because of the amendment added that would give hospitals MORE immunity and less accountability. Many hospitals during COVID are already impeding medical freedom by withholding life saving drugs like ivermectin. When those patients die because of denied treatment of COVID, the families will now have no recourse. We've seen the damage that giving immunity to vaccine companies has done. This is an example of "getting the best legislation that money can buy." – TATUM LEE

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Lynn are spread upon the Journal:

Today I am here to recognize the 2022 Kansas and 2020 National Miss Amazing Representatives.

Miss Amazing is founded on the principles of ensuring equal opportunities for girls and women living with disabilities. The Organization's mission is to equip girls and women to write their own story, build meaningful relationships with peers, empower parents and family and support professionals to be effective allies. Miss Amazing looks to dismantle stereotypes and open up pathways for personal growth while building self esteem, and promoting their boundless potential. They hold regular opportunities to teach leadership skills, including one where I got to teach the girls how Kansas laws are made. And then they have fun events like fashion shows, karaoke, and painting classes, among others.

Miss Amazing looks to challenge these young women to take pride in their identities and strengths, set ambitious goals, advocate for better policy, to speak up for others, and pursue their greatest versions of themselves. And by their contributions, we as a society will reap those benefits as well.

Every year Miss Amazing holds their Amplify Event. I was privileged to be a judge in 2020. And today, I'd like to honor our crowned Kansas and National Miss Amazing Representatives.

Isabella Culross is our 2022 Miss Amazing Kansas Pre-Teen (age 10-12) from Gardner. The most important thing for her is accepting others for who they are and knowing she can do anything she wants to regardless of her disability.

Jennifer Jennings is our 2022 Kansas Miss Amazing Teen (16-19) from Overland Park. Jennifer hopes to attend Calvary University and would like to have her own ministry where she can help people with disabilities of all ages find their courage and inner strength to amplify their voices.

Autumn Bertels is our 2022 Kansas Miss Amazing Junior Miss (20-23) from Lawrence, and she loves informing and advocating for people with disabilities. Autumn is also currently a student at KU where she is majoring in Engineering.

Sara Pietig is our Kansas Miss Amazing Miss (24-27) from Shawnee. Sara works at Chick-fil-A and is part of an inclusive dance team and a cheer squad. Sara spends her spare time volunteering for Children's Mercy.

Shirley Cook is our current Kansas Senior Miss from Olathe (28-35). Shirley loves to educate others about sharks and their importance. She lives independently with her cat and is currently engaged and planning her wedding. And I am lucky to call her my constituent!

In addition to these State Representatives, Kansas is proud to have two National Miss Amazing Representatives.

Abby Martin is a 13-year-old resident of Chanute and is now the National Miss Amazing Preteen Queen 2020. Recently, Abby's disabilities have become more challenging, from being a competitive dancer to using her wheelchair more frequently. But through these circumstances she continues to help others regardless of her own challenges. She visits nursing homes to comfort those with dementia and collects items for the homeless. Abby advocates for others because she believes everyone deserves to be treated equally and fairly.

Kirstianna Guerrero is from Topeka (National Miss Amazing Teen 2020) is a funky and spunky 20 year old who's personality can't be summed up. She loves bringing everything she is, to everything she does, and brightens every day to those around her. She lives life boldly being herself while encouraging and engaging with everyone she meets. Kirstianna is putting together the first disability pride parade that she hopes to hold in Topeka in July of this year. She knows that she doesn't need to measure up or change herself to fit her crown, but the crown amplifies who she is, and gives her opportunities to reach others. Her biggest passion is reminding everyone that they are loved, encouraging you to love yourself, and empowering you with ways to live boldly.

And finally, Kansas Miss Amazing is led by their amazing Director, Michelle Roberts.

Rep. Lynn presented her guests with House certificates in recognition of their achievements.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Schreiber are spread upon the Journal:

Colleagues, Today, I am honored to introduce the 2020 and 2022 classes of Kansas Master Teachers. We were not able to honor the 2020 class due to the pandemic. The pandemic also caused the cancellation of the teacher selection in 2021.

The Kansas Master Teacher program was established in 1954 by the Kansas State Teachers College (now called Emporia State University). The recipients of this award are selected by a 10-member committee. Since 1980, Bank of America has pledged more than $100,000 to permanently endow the program. Additionally, in 1984, the Black family of Broken Bow, Oklahoma, established an endowed chair for Kansas Master Teachers. The fund provides a stipend to bring two Master Teachers to Emporia State for several days, so they can share their teaching experiences with education students. By taking the time to give back, these Master Teachers strengthen the teaching profession and serve as role models for new teachers.

The class members for 2022 are:

- Andy Battenfield, Physical Education Teacher, Village Elementary, Emporia USD 253
- Melanie Hammond, Chemistry/Physical Science Teacher, South High School, Salina USD 305

I want to share the words of another great teacher named Barbara Morgan. Ms. Morgan is better known as the backup to Christa McCauliffe, the teacher on the Challenger mission that ended in disaster.

Ms. Morgan began her teaching career on a reservation in Montana. She was selected as the alternate for the Challenger mission in 1985. She later became a full-time astronaut. When she finished her space career, she continued to teach at Boise State University, and condensed her philosophy on teaching with these words, "Reach for your dreams ... the sky is no limit."

We recognize our Master Teachers this morning, but every school day there are teachers across Kansas urging their students to reach for their dreams.

The 2020 and 2022 classes of Master Teachers are in the east gallery today. I ask them to now stand and be recognized. Please help me congratulate them.

Journal of the House

FORTY-SECOND DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, March 16, 2022, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Finch in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.

Reps. Meyer and Poetter Parshall were excused on verified illness.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Dr. L.D. Holmes, Wanamaker Woods, Church of the Nazarene, Topeka.

Dear Father,

Our state and our world need Your divine intervention today. In the midst of pandemics and questions, divergent world views, and clashing values we need You.

In the providence of time, You have lifted up these gathered today to seek and find a path of legislative wisdom and unity of purpose.

Thank You for their willingness to serve and give of themselves to this worthy cause.

Today, if there are moments of disagreement, I pray Your peace might prevail.

If they must wrestle with questions beyond their human capacity to solve, I pray for Your wisdom to infuse them.

In the debate and decision encountered, I pray that Your grace might abound.

May these words of Joshua of the Old Testament guide their steps. "Be strong and courageous! Do not tremble or be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

In Jesus name,

Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Kelly.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Schmidt are spread upon the Journal:

After the end of World War II the U.S. Government evacuated Enewetak Atoll of its inhabitants so the islands could be used as a U.S. Government atomic bomb testing site of 43 atomic bombs during the 1940s and 1950s. From 1977 to 1980, 6,000 troops were deployed to the Marshall Islands to clean the nuclear fallout. These troops moved the radioactive debris to a 370 ft diameter concrete containment center on Runit Island. After three years of work the project was completed.

Servicemen were exposed to radiation 24 hours a day for up to 6 months at a time. As you might expect, participants in the cleanup are at a much greater risk of cancer and other health complications. These soldiers put themselves in harm's way for their country and now they are dealing with the health issues.

The Atomic Veterans' main focus is to help support each other via the exchange of information and to provide a sense of community during these challenging times. Their secondary focus is to urge Congress to change the current laws and recognize soldiers of the cleanup mission as "veterans who participated in radiation-risk activities during active service." Enewetak cleanup participants are not included in federal financial aid for health complications due to radiation exposure.

The Enewetak veterans from Kansas who are here to be recognized today are: Edward Acosta, Mark Bradbury, Victor Czarnecki, Jeffrey Logan, Jeffrey Van Wey and Ronald Weber. Larry Handy and David Hale could not be with us today.

Rep. Schmidt presented each of his guests with a House certificate.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Arnberger-Blew are spread upon the Journal:

Body, Today I'd like to recognize Taylor Clark. Taylor, a St. John, Kansas native and a senior at Kansas State University majoring in Music Education, was crowned Miss Kansas 2021. As Miss Kansas, Taylor will make over 400 appearances during her year-of-service, many of them motivational presentations to students in Kansas schools. Taylor's social impact initiative is Sound for Common Ground: Music Connects. Her focus for this initiative is to break down barriers and have courageous conversation around inequities, hardships and unforeseen circumstances. Throughout her year-of-service, Taylor will work to connect her social impact initiative with the Miss America and Miss Kansas Organizations. She will serve as an ambassador, representing the organization across the State of Kansas.

Taylor represented Kansas at the 2021 Miss America Competition in December. She performed a drum solo for her talent and competed with 50 other young women from across the nation for the title of Miss America 2022.

Miss Kansas travels throughout the state working closely with the Kansas Department of Wildlife, Parks and Tourism, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Kansas, and with the Kansas Department of Transportation, providing education, establishing relationships, and learning more about individuals of all ages for whom she will advocate during her year as Miss Kansas.

In addition to her work with her social impact initiative, Taylor is musically talented. While she claimed the title of Miss Kansas with a drum performance, her skills as a percussionist include being able to perform percussion instruments. Not only is she the first Miss Kansas to have also been awarded the title of Miss Kansas' Outstanding Teen, Taylor also participated in the organization's mentoring program as a Sunflower Princess. This involvement and accomplishment resulted in Taylor being awarded nearly $17,400 in cash scholarships through the Miss Kansas, Miss Kansas' Outstanding Teen, and Miss America's Outstanding Teen competitions to apply toward her education. The Miss Kansas Organization is a state licensee of the Miss America Organization, one of the nation's leading achievement programs and the worlds' largest provider of scholarship assistance for young women.

The Miss Kansas Scholarship Foundation makes available academic, community service, and other scholarships to women between the ages of 17 and 25. Annually, the Miss Kansas Organization provides over $5,000,000 in cash and in-kind scholarship assistance.

Body, please help me recognize Taylor Clark, Miss Kansas 2021 to the House floor.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR SPEAKER, I vote yes on HCR 5032. I'm supporting this resolution under the assumption that providing aid and support to the Ukrainian people doesn't involve using military action in this conflict. I believe that we've gotten involved in far too many military conflicts over the years, and I don't believe that we should go to war with Russia, the world's third leading superpower, unless it's necessary to repel an active attack on the United States. – BRETT FAIRCHILD, AARON COLEMAN

MR SPEAKER: I vote NO on HCR 5032 because of page 2, line 6 that offers aid to Ukraine. Borders of countries do matter. There is an invasion happening on the southern border of the United States and we are doing nothing about it. The United States is silent on protecting the citizens of the USA. I do not agree with sending aid to a country that's been riddled with much corruption while we are not spending a dime at home. American taxpayers deserve better. I do empathize with the people of Ukraine, but while the USA is sliding into a recession, there's no wisdom in propping up another country while ours is on the precipice of collapse. – TATUM LEE

MR SPEAKER: I vote Yes on HCR 5032, the Resolution supporting the people and nation of Ukraine in their defense of their land from Russian aggression. But I think we should point out that our own national borders are being violated constantly and in violation of the will of the American people as expressed in our own laws. The situation on the southern border of the United States is an outrage, of a lower level to be sure, but nonetheless an illustration of why all peoples and nations should respect national borders and sovereignty. – PAUL WAGGONER

MR SPEAKER: I support the sovereign nation of Ukraine and their right to defend themselves against the invasion of Russia. However, I do not believe the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA should engage militarily in this conflict in Europe. We do not need to police the world when we will not even protect our own borders here from illegal invaders. Our own nation is spiraling down in economic failure, our citizens are hurting and now the Kansas government suggests more aid to another foreign nation. When will they stand to protect the rights of our own Nation and its citizens first? Therefore, I vote "No" on HCR 5032 – TREVOR JACOBS

Continue to lead us with your Spirit.
Watch over us this weekend, as many travel back home.
May we have quality time with families and come back ready for the new tasks of the new week.
In honor of St. Patrick's Day, I give you this blessing –

*May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face;
the rains fall soft upon your field and until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of His hand.
Amen*

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Helmer are spread upon the Journal:

Carly Collins is a junior at Mulvane High School. She is an active member of Sedgwick County 4-H Club where she has received championship awards for her livestock and showmanship through her 10 years of competition and raising show livestock. She is also very active in Citizenship through 4-H and FFA, receiving the Kansas Award for Citizenship for Sedgwick County for five consecutive years. Carly currently serves as the President of the Peck Ramblers 4-H Club, and she is the Junior Leader for the Meat Goat Project.

She also resides on the Livestock sale committee for the Sedgwick County Fair and shows all four market species at county level and shows sheep at State level. In FFA she is just as active with judging competitions from Meat Judging to Agriculture Mechanics. She recently placed 10th overall in districts for her speech presentation on Agriculture. She currently serves as the Secretary of the Mulvane FFA chapter and was recently elected Vice President of the chapter for the upcoming year.

She has a true passion for helping others improve their skills and gain knowledge of Agriculture. Her plan to continue education will be attending Cowley County Community College on a Livestock Judging Scholarship and then to move to K-State to complete her degree in Agriculture education which will also include a welding degree. She was awarded three Kansas titles at the Midwest Miss United States Agriculture Pageant in December of 2021. She is the current 2022 Kansas Teen Miss United States Agriculture Queen, overall 2022 Kansas People's Choice, and overall 2022 Kansas Agriculture Advocate. The pageant's motto is to Teach, Inspire, and Advocate for Agriculture. She will also be competing again this year.

When Carly thinks of what Agriculture Advocacy means to her, the first word that comes to mind is education. Agriculture is truly an industry, open to countless learning opportunities. With agriculture, we must never stop educating ourselves and others! There is more involvement in this industry than most could ever imagine. From the soil preparation to the crops we grow, to the livestock that depends on the grain, to the meat and food on everyone's table. As consumers we have the right to know what's in our food and the amount we are feeding our livestock. It is very important to understand how to read a nutrition label on the food we purchase. Having this knowledge will help us better understand what we are consuming from the end product. There will always be additives to preserve our food. It is crucial to understand what the good and bad preservatives are. This education can help us prevent diseases such as diabetes and cancer.

Carly's passion for agriculture continues to grow. She is thankful to be part of the Mulvane FFA Chapter and the doors that are opening because of it. The depth of this industry, truly has her attention and she wants to give back to others as much as possible. Therefore, she strives to become an Agriculture teacher. Through teaching others about agriculture, she will have the opportunity to continue to grow her knowledge as well. As more people receive education about the healthy foundation of growing crops and livestock they will continue to pass this on to future generations. For all these reasons she has chosen to teach, inspire, and advocate for Agriculture!

Rep. Helmer presented Carly with a framed House certificate in recognition of her accomplishments.

Rhiley, Bergkamp, Borjon, Carlin, Carlson, Clifford, Collins, Corbet, Estes, Francis, French, Garber, Helgerson, Helmer, Hoheisel, Howe, Neelly, Newland, Poskin, Proctor, Sanders, Smith, Sutton, Toplikar and Williams, as follows, was introduced and adopted:

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. HR 6025—

A RESOLUTION commemorating the celebration of St. Patrick's Day

WHEREAS, On March 17, during the annual celebration of the Feast of Saint Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland, Irish Americans join with people of all other ethnic origins in celebrating Saint Patrick and demonstrating a mutual love for Ireland; and

WHEREAS, On Saint Patrick's Day, all who celebrate live in the spirit of Saint Patrick, Saint Bridget, and Saint Columcille, whose 1500th birthday was celebrated in 2020; and

WHEREAS, Irish immigrants in the United States helped form the cultural foundation of the nation, and those of Irish lineage today proudly sing support for Ireland; and

WHEREAS, We celebrate the establishment of the American Irish State Legislators Caucus, which has leadership in all 50 states, and we applaud its aim of fostering and strengthening the longstanding relationship between the United States and Ireland for the mutual benefit of both countries; and

WHEREAS, The Senate of Ireland celebrates its 100th anniversary this year; and

WHEREAS, The songs of Ireland are the tragic songs of love, the joyous songs of battle, the nostalgic reveries of the sorrows and glories that are the Emerald Isle, the lamentations of life's myriad travails and the odes to joy in the life eternal: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we commemorate the celebration of the Feast of Saint Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send enrolled copies of this resolution to the Chairperson of the Senate of Ireland, Senator Mark Daly; National Co-Chairs of the American Irish State Legislators Caucus, Senator Mia Costello of Alaska, Representative Fran Hurlley of Illinois, Assemblywoman Carol Murphy of New Jersey, Senator Shannon O'Brien of Montana, Representative Killian Timoney of Kentucky, and Speaker Robin Vos of Wisconsin; and three enrolled copies of this resolution to Representative Rhiley.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Rhiley are spread upon the Journal:

Thank you Mr. Chairman, I am bringing forward House Resolution 6025 commemorating the celebration of St. Patrick's Day, today March 17th.

On this day we applaud the mutual fostering and strengthening of the longstanding relationship between the United States and Ireland. This resolution also celebrates the 100th anniversary of the Senate of Ireland.

Kansas' Irish roots date back to the mid-1800s, when Irish immigrants first settled in Kansas City before venturing more West into Kansas. These settlers brought their customs across the Atlantic Ocean as well, including music, dance, food and yes, St. Patrick's Day.

We are familiar with the Celtic songs and dance, and we think of familiar Irish foods such as Guinness, potatoes, Irish stew, cabbage, and corned beef. Did you know that is was an Irish botanist Sir Hans Sloane that invented chocolate milk? Today, the Celtic culture continues to be a proud tradition here in America.

Rep. Rhiley was joined at the well by HR 6025 co-sponsors. He presented them each with certificates and pins from the American Irish State Legislators Caucus.

REPORT ON ENROLLED BILLS

HB 2560 reported correctly enrolled, properly signed and presented to the Governor on March 18, 2022.

On motion of Rep. Hawkins, the House adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Monday, March 21, 2022.

Journal of the House

FORTY-FIFTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Monday, March 21, 2022, 10:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.

Reps. Coleman and Poetter Parshall were excused on verified illness.

Rep. E. Smith was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Rev. Sundermeyer, Family Church of the Nazarene, Topeka.

Let us pray. Father, as we near the end of this legislative session, we acknowledge our deep need for Your wisdom and understanding!

You have created us with minds that enable us to reason, to think, to contemplate, to process facts, to entertain other points of view, to debate differing perspectives, to come to compromise, to seek agreement where none seems possible, to stand our ground when the issues require us to do so...and so much more.

Today, we recognize that all that You have equipped us with requires so much more than mere humans can accomplish on their own as we seek to fulfill this high calling to represent the interests of the citizens of the great state of Kansas.

While the viewpoints and values of so many are so vastly varied, we call on You for divine wisdom. Wisdom that will enable us to only establish Your truth, true justice and righteousness since these are the only things with eternal value and importance.

You said in Your Word that if we lack wisdom to ask You for it: "If you are in need of wisdom, ask our generous God, and he will give it to you. He will not rebuke you for asking." James 1:5 (NLT)

We therefore ask you, God...

- To cause us to see the deeper truths in each matter before us
 - To reveal the depths of justice that need to be established
 - To produce the desire, passion and quest for righteousness above all,
- so that the innocent and the vulnerable and the outcast are protected, and so that all human life is valued and defended at all times.

It is in the name of Jesus the Christ that I pray these things... AMEN.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by by Rep. Thompson.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Croft are spread upon the Journal:

Today I am proud to recognize an organization that serves students and creates leaders in Kansas City. The Greater Kansas City Hispanic Collaborative is a nonprofit that is focused on education and leadership. The Hispanic Collaborative provides comprehensive assistance for the growth, evolution, and professional advancement of Hispanics in the Greater Kansas City area.

One of the many programs that the Hispanic Collaborative puts on is KC BizFest. This is a 4-day business boot camp and scholarship competition. During the 4 days, high school juniors and seniors learn how to prepare a business plan, how to develop their presentation skills, and channel their passions to then pitch their idea and compete for a scholarship. This program brings students from all over the KC metro area and partners with business leaders, universities, and community colleges to provide an invaluable opportunity for these students. It was my pleasure to attend the last day and listen to the students as they finalized their business plans and got ready to present their ideas to the judges. I was truly impressed by the presentations and the passion behind their ideas. Out of the 130 students that compete, 6 finalists are chosen to receive cash scholarships to the college or program of their choice. The students here today have a booth on the 1st floor to showcase their hard work for the scholarships they received.

It is my honor to recognize this year's winners:

1st place – Danny Talavera from Mill Valley High School

2nd place – David Morones from Olathe West High School

3rd place – Victor Mejia from Guadalupe Centers High School

4th place – Judith Diaz Zaragoza from Wyandotte High School

5th place – Fabiola Sanchez from Olathe North High School

6th place – Adalmer Omar Gonzalez Anavisca from Shawnee Mission Northwest

I'd also like to recognize the Co-Chairs of KC BizFest who worked tirelessly to ensure that this program was a possibility this year. Elva Medina from Olathe Northwest High School and Dr. Melisa Jimenez from Johnson County Community College. Also, here is the Director of Small Business Development, Alad Aguirre and the Executive Director of the Hispanic Collaborative and President/CEO of the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce Carlos Gomez.

It was an honor to see this program which is now in its 18th year! Please join me in once again honoring these individuals and the work that this organization has done. And help me work to make sure that it can continue to serve our community for many years to come!

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Moser are spread upon the Journal:

Winning a state title in high school sports is a remarkable accomplishment. Imagine one school celebrating five state titles in twelve months.

The Hanover High School girls walked into the 2021 volleyball season with the goal of being State Champions for the second year in a row. Yes, you heard that right, they were state champions in 2020. On the road to winning the 2021 state tournament, the girls won the title of Twin Valley League Volleyball Champions for the first time in school history. Hard work and determination set these girls on a winning path, and they made it happen, claiming the 2021 Class 1A Division II State Volleyball title. For these girls, the season was full of success and so much fun.

With me on the floor today are Head Coach Melissa Holle, and seniors Avery Behrends, Cora Coufal, Madison Bruna, and Allison Jueneman. Having received permission to recognize other team members in the gallery, I would please ask that you stand when I call your name: Coach Becky Bruna, team members Anna Juenemen, Tessa Lohse, Leanna Gugenhan, Emma Kruse, Kaydence Schotte, Reanna Rencin, Taeban Stallbaumer, Angelina Anaya, Ceegan Atkins, Massey Holle, Kyana Ulloa, Karly Rupprecht, Katelynn Klipp and Aliyah Sinn.

I have certificates for coaches and each team member with all names on each certificate, so when you look back on these in the years ahead, you'll have the names of everyone who shared this great accomplishment with you!

The Hanover High boys track team from 2021 was a very determined bunch of young men. These athletes were also on the championship football and basketball teams throughout the 2020-2021 school year. After winning the basketball championship, Coach Lohse said, "It really wasn't that difficult to get these boys to set a goal of winning a state title in track as well." This group became only the second high school in Kansas to ever win football, basketball, and track championships in the same school year. Hanover finished 2nd in their 2021 Regional Track Meet and won the State Track Meet without winning a single event. This previous statement epitomizes "teamwork" when considering that track is usually regarded as an individual sport. In the spring of 2021, I made a trip to Hanover High School to recognize the football and basketball teams for their state championship accomplishments.

On a side note, the Hanover boys' basketball team made it to the championship game on March 12, 2022, in Great Bend, playing Greeley County. Their attempt to repeat as state champions for 2022 was out of their reach by only 1 point at the final buzzer.

With me on the floor today are Head Coach Kim Lohse, and track team members Colin Jueneman, Braelan Stallbaumer, Jacob Jueneman, Emmitt Jueneman, and Philip Doebele. Other team members in the gallery please stand when I call your names: Keegan Dimler and Josh Zarybnicky. Team member Jacob Klipp is on the football team at Fort Hays. He has spring drills that he couldn't miss, so he is not with us today.

Hanover High School claims a long-standing tradition of athletic excellence. Please join me in welcoming these hard-working student athletes to the House chamber and extend congratulations to them and their coaches.

Rep. Moser gave each of the team members a House certificate in recognition of their accomplishments.

A RESOLUTION honoring and recognizing the life and career of Representative J. Russell Jennings.

WHEREAS, Today, we recognize and honor the life and career of our deceased colleague, Representative J. Russell Jennings, familiarly known as Russ Jennings; and

WHEREAS, Russ grew up in Buffalo, New York, and, upon graduating high school, moved to Tulsa, Oklahoma, to attend school for aviation mechanics; and

WHEREAS, Upon graduation with a degree in aviation mechanics, Russ began working as a mechanic and pilot in Johnson City, Kansas. He then volunteered with the Johnson City Police and Fire Departments and, as a result of his skills and strong work ethic, was hired as Kearny County Deputy Sheriff and, later, as Undersheriff of Kearny County. His time working in law enforcement distinguished him as a highly respected member of his community; and

WHEREAS, After serving as Deputy Sheriff and Undersheriff for a combined six years, Russ was appointed as Kearny County Magistrate Judge for the 25th Judicial District and remained in that position for 13 years. His work as a judge earned him the reputation of being fair, efficient and knowledgeable, so much so that he was recognized by the Supreme Court of Kansas, which frequently enlisted him to clean up its dockets and handle overload cases; and

WHEREAS, Upon retiring from his career as a judge, Russ began working in the field of juvenile justice, which would prove to be his lifelong passion. He was appointed by the Board of Finney County Commissioners as the Director of the Southwest Kansas Juvenile Detention Center, which was under construction at the time; and

WHEREAS, Russ dutifully oversaw the construction of the Center and worked as its Director for 13 years before moving to Topeka to serve as Commissioner of Juvenile Justice and work in the Cabinet of then Governor of Kansas Kathleen Sebelius; and

WHEREAS, Russ held his Commissioner and Cabinet member positions for four years, under two Kansas Governors, and oversaw all juvenile justice systems and all state juvenile justice corrections facilities in the State of Kansas. While serving in these roles, he developed a passion for the betterment of the state juvenile justice system; and

WHEREAS, Russ served on the Lakin City Council for eight years, from 1997 to 2005, before running in 2012 for Kansas State Representative for District 122. He won the seat and was retained concurrently as a contract consultant for Performance Based Standards of Braintree, Massachusetts. He also traveled the country to visit his assigned juvenile detention centers to ensure that operations of the facilities were correctly implementing performance-based standards. His work in overseeing detention centers across the United States earned him several national awards; and

WHEREAS, While serving as Representative for Kansas' 122nd District, Russ worked as the Chair of the Corrections and Juvenile Justice Committee for five sessions prior to his passing; and

WHEREAS, Representative J. Russell Jennings passed away on October 27, 2021, while serving in his fifth term as a Kansas State Representative. He is survived by his family, whom he cherished and valued above all else: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we recognize, honor and commemorate the life and career of Representative J. Russell Jennings, and we celebrate his dedication to family, community, public service and the improvement of the juvenile justice system in Kansas; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send enrolled copies of this resolution to the family of Russ Jennings, namely: His wife, Judy Jennings; his sons, Jim Jennings and Joseph Jennings; his daughters, Julie Jennings and Jodi Werth; his son-in-law, Leighton Werth; and his grandsons, Carter Werth and Wyatt Werth; and to Representative Wheeler.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Wheeler are spread upon the Journal:

I am honored to rise here today to offer a Resolution in recognition of our deceased colleague, Representative J. Russell Jennings, known to us as Russ Jennings. Joining me this morning is Russ's wife, Judy; his son, Joseph Jennings; his other son, Jim Jennings; his daughter, Julie Jennings; his other daughter, Jodi Werth; Jodi's husband Leighton and their sons Wyatt Werth; and Carter Werth. Also joining us this morning are three very dear friends to Russ: Senator John Doll; Representative Bill Clifford who is the successor to Russ's District 122 seat; and former Representative, Melissa Rooker. I want to thank Melissa for supplying the flag that flew over the Capitol in honor of Representative Jennings, and I want to thank her husband for building the beautiful shadow box that will be presented to Mrs. Jennings this morning.

Russ had a long and distinguished career serving in many varied positions. Russ grew up and graduated High School in Buffalo, NY. After graduation, he moved to Tulsa, OK to attend aircraft mechanics' school. After graduating from the Tulsa school, he took a job in Johnson City, KS as an aircraft mechanic and pilot. In Johnson City, he also volunteered with the Johnson City Police and Fire Departments. He then attended the Kansas Law Enforcement Training Academy in Hutchinson, Kansas. Following graduation from the Academy, the Kearny County Sheriff hired him as a Kearny County Deputy Sheriff, a position in which he served for three years. He was then appointed Undersheriff of Kearny County and served in that position for four years. Needless to say, Russ had a very distinguished career in law enforcement and was highly respected by the community he served.

Russ was so highly respected within his community that he ended his law enforcement career by being nominated and appointed as Kearny County District Magistrate Judge and served as such for thirteen years. Again, Russ distinguished himself as a judge, not only within the 25th Judicial District but also across the State. Russ was frequently assigned by the Supreme Court into the various metropolitan district courts to assist them in cleaning up their dockets and handling overload cases. Russ earned his reputation of being a very fair, efficient and knowledgeable Judge.

Placing his judicial career behind him, Russ shifted gears and entered a field that would hold his passion to the end: Juvenile Justice. Russ was hired by the Board of Finney County Commissioners to become the new Director of the Southwest Kansas Juvenile Detention Center, a facility that had not yet been built. Russ was dutiful in overseeing the construction of the very complex building, essentially a large jail for juveniles. It was his baby. Speaking of babies, I drove down to visit with Russ at the detention center under construction one Saturday afternoon. We visited in the front yard which was essentially dirt and mud at that time. Julie and Jodi were with him, playing in the yard. When I went to leave, I reached in the pocket of my jeans and, how can I say this discreetly, something wiggled in my pocket! It both shocked me and scared me. Then I turned to hear Julie laughing. She had slipped a frog into my pocket. Like father like daughter!

After serving as Director of the Southwest Kansas Juvenile Detention Center for thirteen years and expanding his interests in Juvenile Justice, Russ was called to Topeka to serve as Commissioner of Juvenile Justice by Governor Kathleen Sebelius and appointed to her Cabinet. He served four years under two Governors. As Commissioner, Russ oversaw all of the Juvenile Justice Systems as well as all of the State Juvenile Corrections facilities.

Having served in many positions involving juveniles in trouble, Russ developed a passion for improvement of the juvenile justice system, and Russ gained a lot of inside experience in his jobs over the years which put him in a position to render improvements to the juvenile justice system. In 2012, he ran for and won the office of State Representative for District 122. He was in his fifth term when he passed away on October 27, 2021. He had become well known for his work on corrections and juvenile justice issues. He had been the Chair of the Corrections and Juvenile Justice Committee for five sessions before he passed.

While he served as a State Representative, Russ was retained as a contract consultant for Performance Based Standards of Braintree, Massachusetts. When not in session, he traveled throughout the country to meet with his assigned juvenile detention centers to assure that they were implementing and correctly using performance-based standards in the operation of their detention centers. Not long before he died, several of his detention centers won national awards. He hoped that his health would last long enough for him to attend the award ceremony.

I could go on to name all the committees, boards and associations upon which he has served over the years but that would take another half hour to read. I do want to mention that he served on the Lakin City Council from 1997 to 2005.

Over his adult life, Representative Russ Jennings was a very busy man, deeply invested in public service. In every job he held, he was either enforcing the law, overseeing children involved with the law, or making the laws. However, I can tell you one thing about which he was most passionate: the love of his family. As a close personal friend, I can tell you that his wife, Judy, was the light of his life. She put happiness in his heart and a smile on his face. He loved each of his children to the stars and back, even the one who put a frog in my pocket.

Also, regarding his children, I cannot say to you with adequate words how proud of each of you he was. He was so proud of each of you for what you have become. Joe, a successful Investment Executive for Core 1st Bank and with whom he lived when he was in Topeka; Jim, a successful cattle producer and an agricultural entrepreneur; Julie, a successful Nurse Practitioner for Cardiothoracic Surgery and Vascular Surgery; and Jody, a successful Dentist as is her husband, Leighton. And then there are those two grandsons, Wyatt and Carter Werth; young fellas, your grandfather loved you with all his heart. He could not stop bragging about you and he never missed an opportunity to come to Hays to see you, to have you visit in Lakin or to have you come to visit him and Judy at their house on Lake Kanopolis.

My Colleagues, I can tell you for certain that Representative Jennings respected you without regard to which side of the aisle you sit or whatever your political persuasion. He may not have agreed with you, but he respected you and showed you respect. To the few on this floor that never met him, he would have respected you too. His respect for you grew out of respect for this institution. Representative Jennings was a Man for All Ages. I hope you will remember him that way.

Rep. Wheeler presented Judy Jennings with a framed shadowbox containing the Kansas flag that flew over the Capitol in memory of Rep. Jennings.

On motion of Rep. Hawkins, the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole, with Rep. A. Smith in the chair.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. HCR 5033—

By Committee on Federal and State Affairs

A PROPOSITION to amend section 2 of article 2 of the constitution of the state of Kansas; providing for consecutive term limits for senators and representatives.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Section 2 of article 2 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"§ 2. Senators and representatives. (a) The number of representatives and senators shall be regulated by law, but shall not exceed one hundred twenty-five representatives and forty senators. Representatives and senators shall be elected from single-member districts prescribed by law. Representatives shall be elected for ~~two-year~~ two-year terms. Senators shall be elected for ~~four-year~~ four-year terms. The terms of representatives and senators shall commence on the second Monday of January of the year following election.

(b) (1) From and after January 9, 2023, no individual shall be elected as a representative for more than four consecutive two-year terms.

(2) From and after January 9, 2023, no individual shall be elected as a senator for more than two consecutive four-year terms.

(3) For the purpose of computing the time period under either paragraph (1) or (2), no time spent serving as either a representative or senator prior to January 9, 2023, shall be counted.

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. This amendment would limit an individual's service as a state representative to four consecutive two-year terms and an individual's service as a state senator to two consecutive four-year terms starting on January 9, 2023. Any terms of service occurring prior to January 9, 2023, and any nonconsecutive terms would not be subject to this limitation.

"A vote for this proposition would limit the service of an individual as a state representative to four consecutive two-year terms and the service of an individual as a state senator to two consecutive four-year terms starting on January 9, 2023.

"A vote against this proposition would retain the current constitutional provisions that impose no limitations on the number of terms an individual may serve as a representative or as a senator."

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote “Yes” on House Sub for SB 261. It is said “Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery.” Although those organizations trying to imitate the meat industry’s delicious and protein-packed products, fake meat will never pass the taste test nor the nutritional test. With agriculture being the lifeblood of the Kansas economy, the transparent truth needs to be told about those meat analog products that try to emulate ours. Meat protein producers across our state, and all who play a role in the livestock production chain deserve to have honesty, truth, and transparency in the labeling of meat analog products. This bill is good for agriculture and consumers. – LISA MOSER

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR SPEAKER: I vote "Yes" on HB 2644. In the procedural process of naming the sandhill plum as the state fruit of Kansas, it has been gratifying to observe the growth and development of grade school children across Kansas as they became acquainted with the political process concerning voting, bill development and the subsequent legislative process of introduction, committee, and chamber work and more. The sandhill plum can be found across the state and has the most beautiful fragrance when it blooms. The jams, jellies and wine produced from Kansas' native fruit are delicious. A delectable representative, the sandhill plum is the perfect choice for Kansas' state fruit.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote "Yes" on SB 346. Truth in labeling is of utmost importance. Placing the words "Raw and Unpasteurized" on milk bottles and in advertising for raw milk sold off the farm makes sense to keep the consumer informed. Authorizing the animal health commissioner to take legal action against the introduction of livestock and animals into the state without proper medical records reflecting proper visual inspections and any required testing and vaccinations aids in monitoring and tracking disease and is important for the health, safety and economic well-being of the Kansas livestock industry, the largest component of Kansas agriculture. — LISA MOSER

Journal of the House

FORTY-SIXTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.

Rep. Coleman was excused on verified illness.

Reps. Poetter Parshall and E. Smith were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Gracious loving God,
thank You for another new day of life.
May we make the most of it by being gracious and thankful.
We are reminded how negativity breeds negativity, and positivity breeds positivity, victory and success.
As we come down to the last few days of regular session with so much yet to do, remind us often that we empower and enlarge that upon which we focus and give time to.
If we focus on the good, good will prevail.
If we focus on the negative, negativity will prevail.
It all comes down to each of us choosing what we want more of—positivity or negativity.
Every choice we make will have an end result – and the power of choice is within us.
Lord, help us to choose wisely.
In Your Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Victors-Cozad.

(B) determine the median AVPP of all school districts;

(C) prepare a schedule of dollar amounts using the amount of the median AVPP of all school districts as the point of beginning. The schedule of dollar amounts shall range upward in equal $1,000 intervals from the point of beginning to and including an amount that is equal to the amount of the AVPP of the school district with the highest AVPP of all school districts and shall range downward in equal $1,000 intervals from the point of beginning to and including an amount that is equal to the amount of the AVPP of the school district with the lowest AVPP of all school districts;

Except as provided by K.S.A. 72-5463, and amendments thereto, the state aid percentage factor of a school district is the percentage assigned to the schedule amount that is equal to the amount of the AVPP of the school district. The state aid percentage factor of a school district shall not exceed 100%. The state aid computation percentage is 25%;

(E) determine the amount of payments that a school district is obligated to make from its bond and interest fund attributable to general obligation bonds approved for issuance at an election held prior to July 1, 2015; and

(F) multiply the amount determined under subsection (b)(1)(E) by the applicable state aid percentage factor.

(2) For general obligation bonds approved for issuance at an election held on or after July 1, 2015, the state board of education shall:

(A) Determine the amount of the AVPP of each school district in the state for the preceding school year and round such amount to the nearest $1,000. The rounded amount is the AVPP of a school district for the purposes of this subsection (b)(2);

(B) prepare a schedule of dollar amounts using the amount of the AVPP of the school district with the lowest AVPP of all school districts as the point of beginning. The schedule of dollar amounts shall range upward in equal $1,000 intervals from the point of beginning to and including an amount that is equal to the amount of the AVPP of the school district with the highest AVPP of all school districts;

(C) determine a state aid percentage factor for each school district by assigning a state aid computation percentage to the amount of the lowest AVPP shown on the schedule and decreasing the state aid computation percentage assigned to the amount of the lowest AVPP by one percentage point for each $1,000 interval above the amount of the lowest AVPP. Except as provided by K.S.A. 72-5463, and amendments thereto, the state aid percentage factor of a school district is the percentage assigned to the schedule amount that is equal to the amount of the AVPP of the school district. (E) multiply the amount determined under subsection (b)(2)(D) by the applicable state aid percentage factor.

(3) For general obligation bonds approved for issuance at an election held on or before June 30, 2016, the sum of the amount determined under subsection (b)(1)(F) and the amount determined under subsection (b)(2)(E) is the amount of payment the school district is entitled to receive from the school district capital improvements fund in the school year.

(4) For general obligation bonds approved for issuance at an election held on or after July 1, 2016, the amount determined under subsection (b)(2)(E) is the amount of payment the school district shall receive from the school district capital improvements fund in the school year, except the total amount of payments school districts receive from the school district capital improvements fund in the school year for such bonds shall not exceed the six-year average amount of capital improvement state aid as determined by the state board of education.

(C) On and after July 1, 2016, the state board of education shall approve the amount of state aid payments a school district shall receive from the school district capital improvements fund pursuant to subsection (b)(5) prior to an election to approve the issuance of general obligation bonds.

(5) Except as provided in subsections (b)(6) and (b)(7), the sum of the amounts determined under subsection (b)(3) and the amount determined or allocated to the district by the state board of education pursuant to subsection (b)(4), is the amount of payment the school district is entitled to receive from the school district capital improvements fund in the school year.

(6) A school district that had an enrollment of less than 260 students in the school year immediately preceding the school year in which an election is held to approve the issuance of general obligation bonds shall not be entitled to receive payments from the school district capital improvements fund unless such school district applied for and received approval from the state board of education to issue such bonds prior to holding an election to approve such bond issuance. The provisions of this paragraph shall apply to general obligation bonds approved for issuance at an election held on or after July 1, 2017, that are issued for the purpose of financing the construction of new school facilities.

(c) The state board of education shall certify to the director of accounts and reports the entitlements of school districts determined under the provisions of subsection (b), and an amount equal thereto shall be transferred by the director from the state general fund to the school district capital improvements fund for distribution to school districts. All transfers made in accordance with the provisions of this subsection shall be considered to be demand transfers from the state general fund, except that all such transfers during the fiscal years ending ~~June 30, 2021~~, June 30, 2022, ~~and~~ June 30, 2023, and June 30, 2024, shall be considered to be revenue transfers from the state general fund.

(d) Payments from the school district capital improvements fund shall be distributed to school districts at times determined by the state board of education to be necessary to assist school districts in making scheduled payments pursuant to contractual bond obligations. The state board of education shall certify to the director of accounts and reports the amount due each school district entitled to payment from the fund, and the director of accounts and reports shall draw a warrant on the state treasurer payable to the treasurer of the school district. Upon receipt of the warrant, the treasurer of the school district shall credit the amount thereof to the bond and interest fund of the school district to be used for the purposes of such fund.
