HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Monday, January 9, 2017, 2:00 p.m.

This being the day fixed by the Constitution of the State of Kansas for the assembling of the 2017 session of the legislature, the House of Representatives was called to order at 2:00 p.m. by Eric Rucker, Assistant Secretary of State.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Kent A. Pedersen, Senior Pastor, First Church of the Nazarene, Hutchinson:

Father, Creator of all things,
we come to You on this special day to seek Your blessings for our great state of Kansas!

We ask for Your wisdom that is given freely when we simply ask to guide us and Your grace that is available to all to protect us!

Father bless these, Your public servants, who have been called by You and elected by the people they serve to fulfill
Your requirements: to act justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with You!

We give You all the glory and pray this in the powerful and

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative-elect Patton.

Nominations being in order for speaker, Rep. Concannon nominated Rep. Ron Ryckman for Speaker of the House. There being no further nominations, Rep. Ward moved the nominations be closed, and that the temporary clerk be instructed to cast a unanimous ballot for Rep. Ryckman as Speaker of the House of Representatives. The motion prevailed.

Assistant Secretary of State Eric Rucker requested Rep. Ryckman to approach the bar for the oath of office.

Speaker-elect Ryckman subscribed to the following oath of office, which was administered by Chief Justice Nuss.

State of Kansas, County of Shawnee,ss:

I do solemnly swear that I will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the State of Kansas, and faithfully discharge the duties of the office of Speaker of the House of Representatives, so help me God. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 9th day of January, 2017.

LAWTON R. NUSS
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court

Speaker Ryckman addressed the following remarks to the members of the House:

Thank you, Mr. Chief Justice. And I express my strongest gratitude and appreciation to you, my friends, colleagues and fellow representatives of the people's House.

In Kansas, we are blessed to serve a state with interests as diverse as our landscape. We are blessed to come from different backgrounds. And, we are blessed with our own unique perspectives. While those blessings bring immeasurable value to our state, they also mean our priorities can conflict. Our constituents expect assurance that their local identity will be secured.

I am a product of Kansas public schools. I grew up in Meade, Kansas, a district my father represented in this body until he retired last year. As a Representative of District 78 in Olathe, I'm proud that my kids are also a product of Kansas Public Schools. Each of us here today bring a perspective from a wide variety of communities who take pride in Kansas. As Kansas City and Wichita face a wide range of urban issues, our friends in Sabetha and Weskan grapple with issues unique to their geography.

We all accept that these issues are not mutually exclusively and must be balanced with the greater good of the State of Kansas. Our State was founded in the diversity of its citizens and communities. Our task is to carry-on the tradition of good, small government that empowers the people and lays the path for our next generations.

Every single person who ran to serve in 2017 knew that the state was facing serious challenges and that the legislature hasn't enjoyed public admiration or support. But we ran anyway. We each face the daunting responsibility of representing those in our districts who have entrusted us, yet we all face the duty of governing in our great state's best interest.

Each of you sacrifice time at home with family and friends, yet you are serving in Topeka now for the sake of those same interests. It's because I want the best for my kids—Haley, Christian and Chase—that I give up a piece of each day to improve their tomorrow, and I know that each of you do too. We all want what is best for our families and I encourage each of you to strive for balance in this process and remember what is most important to you. I wouldn't have the opportunity to serve our state without the daily sacrifices of my wife, Kim, and my family. For that I am truly humbled and grateful. The families and issues that drive us to Topeka are different, but our goals are the same. We know we must do better.

I say this to each of you. Your thoughts and ideas matter. You are the voices of Kansas. You are the voice of the men and women who make this state home. Each of you has the responsibility to ensure that voice is shared. Together we, in this chamber, have the obligation to make sure we hear all those voices. We will listen, we will seek to understand, and together we will arrive at the best possible outcomes for our districts and state.

I believe our priorities and goals can be met this session, but only if we check our personal political agendas and work towards the collective goal of supporting the best outcome possible for our beloved state. If you want to see change for your communities and our state, then come to work with an open mind and list of fresh ideas, not non-negotiables. We won't be able to do it overnight or on our own. We won't implement each of our ideological views. But, we will still be heard. We will each bring something to the final product that contributed to our shared goal of representing the multitudes who sent us here on their behalf. We can and will do that together. We will leave this session knowing that our voices were heard. We will leave this session knowing we did our best to do what was right for Kansas. For, only together can we truly tackle key issues like our state's finances, how we ultimately fund our schools, and grow our economy to create jobs and opportunities for all Kansans. It means making Kansas a stronger home for those people who sent us here; to be their voices in their government.

Although the diverse interests and perspectives we represent may create healthy division at times, we are united for the common good of Kansas. I am honored to serve with you. Thank you and God Bless.

Speaker Ryckman was presented with the gavel by Assistant Secretary of State Eric Rucker and assumed the chair.

Speaker Ryckman announced the appointment of Susan Kannarr as Chief Clerk; Foster Chisholm as Sergeant-at-Arms and Eunice Brubaker as House Chaplain of the House of Representatives.

Nominations being in order for Speaker pro tem, Rep. Concannon nominated Rep. Scott Schwab for Speaker pro tem of the House. There being no further nominations, Rep. Frownfelter moved the nominations be closed, and that the clerk be instructed to cast a unanimous ballot for Rep. Schwab as Speaker pro tem of the House of Representatives. The motion prevailed.

Speaker Ryckman requested Rep. Schwab to approach the bar for the oath of office.

Speaker pro tem-elect Schwab subscribed to the following oath of office, which was administered by Chief Justice Nuss.

State of Kansas, County of Shawnee,ss:

I do solemnly swear that I will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the State of Kansas, and faithfully discharge the duties of the office of Speaker of the House of Representatives, so help me God. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 9th day of January, 2017.

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court

Speaker pro tem Schwab addressed the following remarks to the members of the House:

Colleagues,

First I want to thank you for the honor to serve as your Speaker Pro Tem for the next 2 years. While it seems my commitment to the rules has helped get me here, I hope it is my commitment to integrity that keeps your belief in me.

I was first sworn in as a House member in 2003. 14 years ago. I was eager, I was excited. I had ideas. I also had a wonderful trait called arrogance. That trait gave me so much. It gave me heart ache, pain, frustration, irritation and demise. And an “oops I ran for Congress”.

When I returned here after that episode, I ran head on into a trait of humility. I was humbled that I was back. I was humbled my colleagues still respected me. I was humbled because people would actually listen to me. I was humble.

Politics is often called a game....and they that are the most humble win.

Once again, I am humbled to service in this role of leadership.

To the folks who haven't been here as long as I have, I may have some small advice for you.

1) Be humble the first time in the House. Might save you from having to experience the second time in the House.

2) You are free to make a good decision. When someone tries to take that freedom from you, call them on it. Ask, “Am I free to make a good decision here?”

3) Perspective. I have learned most recently. Saturday marked the 5th month since we have last seen our precious Caleb. A hyper focus of perspective has taken over our lives. I look at how proud I am of my other 3 boys, Nathan, Alexander, and Isaac. My wife who has such a courageous heart and a depth that makes the oceans seem so very shallow.

I don't want to dwell here the whole session. But I am just going to be real, this is where we are at. When people fail to understand you, appreciate what you have done or are doing. They misunderstand you or just don't vote the way you wanted. When your bill dies or your amendment fails, can I offer you some perspective?

Let it go. Life isn't worth wasting too much emotional energy on such things. I just want you to know it could be worse, and it will get better. At least that is what I believe.

So, in closing, we are in this together, until someone chooses not to be. So please, be humble, be free, and remember whatever happens.....do your best to have sober perspective.

Speaker Ryckman asked for announcements from party caucuses:

Rep. Concannon stated the majority (Republican) party had met and elected the following:

- Majority Leader, Representative Don Hineman
- Assistant Majority Leader, Representative Tom Phillips
- Majority Whip, Representative Kent Thompson
- Caucus Chairperson, Representative Susan Concannon

Rep. Hineman addressed the following remarks to the members of the House:

Thank you, Speaker Ryckman, Speaker Pro Tem Schwab, and esteemed colleagues for this opportunity to address you. Let me begin by recognizing my lovely wife Betsy, for always being there and being supportive during my legislative career. Thank you, Betsy for the sacrifices you make and the love you give.

Next I wish to introduce my legislative staff: Chief of Staff Michael Steiner, Legislative Director Mitch Rucker, and Executive Assistant Diane Threadgold. Although the plate on the office door says they are my staff, in reality they work for you, so I encourage you to put them to work and regard them as a resource throughout the session.

To the forty-six newly-elected among us I offer a warm welcome. I know that each of you brings significant life experiences and unique abilities with you, and we intend to put those gifts to use for the good of all Kansans. Interestingly, among the forty-six newcomers there are five who are not truly freshmen because they have served in the House in the past and are now returning. To those five I must ask, "You, more than the others, understand the magnitude of the challenges facing this body and the state of Kansas and yet you chose to run for office again anyway. What were you thinking?"

Actually I believe I know what they were thinking. Those five were motivated to file and run for office by the same impulse that led each member of this body to make that run. We were driven by a desire to serve and a belief in our own abilities to contribute towards finding the best possible solutions for the state of Kansas and its citizens.

That willingness to serve at this moment in time sets us apart from others and binds us together in our quest for common goals. During my eight-year tenure I have reached an important conclusion which now shapes my perspective and guides my actions. I am convinced that every one of the individuals I have served with has been motivated by a genuine desire to create a better Kansas. On occasion we will vigorously disagree over the path to that goal and even what the vision of a better Kansas should look like. But let us not lose sight of the fact that our differences are vastly overshadowed by those beliefs and values which we all hold in common.

Serving as leader of the majority party represents a solemn obligation to serve the members of the caucus. I accept that role with the utmost respect for all caucus members and a determination to perform the duties of the office to the best of my ability. And yet I recognize that there is something greater than service to party and that is service to the citizens of Kansas. We best achieve that goal by a process which fully includes all 125 members of this body and utilizes their experiences and abilities in the crafting of optimal legislative solutions.

There are skeptics who predict we will fail. There are others who are hoping we will fail. But I am convinced that it need not be so, and I invite you to join me with a determination to prove them wrong, to exceed the expectations of the doubters, and to make progress toward a better Kansas for all who live within its borders. If we work together I know we will succeed.

Rep. Ballard stated the minority (Democrat) party had caucused and elected the following officers:

- Minority Leader, Representative Jim Ward
- Assistant Minority Leader, Representative Stan Frownfelter
- Minority Whip, Representative Ed Trimmer
- Agenda Chairperson, Representative Brandon Whipple
- Caucus Chairperson, Representative Barbara Ballard
- Policy Chairperson, Representative Adam Lusker

Rep. Ward addressed the following remarks to the members of the House:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I want to first thank the people of southeast Wichita in the 86th District for the privilege and honor of being their representative. This is my 15th year to serve in the Kansas House of Representatives - the people's house - and I still get a thrill coming into this building every day.

I am humbled by the opportunity to serve alongside each of you and to participate in the debates on this floor that shape the direction of our state and determine the kind of future Kansans deserve.

During my tenure in public service I have worked with hundreds of people, many of whom I've agreed with, but countless others with whom I've shared passionate differences of opinion. Yet even in those contrasts, there was, and always will be, one common factor: a desire to build a better Kansas.

Each of us have been called here because we want to make Kansas the best place to raise a family, grow a business, and live out the American dream. On these goals, we do not disagree. That is the challenge and that is the opportunity we face over the coming weeks – ensuring we work together, acknowledging all voices, and enacting sensible policies that foster prosperity and progress for Kansans of every age, color and creed.

To the members of the House Democratic caucus whom I have the privilege of working alongside every day: Thank you. You are a group of thoughtful, determined, courageous and dedicated leaders. It's an honor to lead such a talented caucus knowing each of you is mindful of the importance of the task ahead.

To you, Speaker Ryckman - Congratulations on achieving the high honor of Speaker of this distinguished body. The past month has allowed us to develop a good working relationship and I anticipate building on this as we begin our difficult task.

Congratulations to each of the new members of the House. You are embarking on a grand adventure that will challenge, inspire, and at times overwhelm, but never doubt the relevance of your voice in this body. Yes, you're new to the legislature, but you bring with you a lifetime of experiences and insight that will be necessary as we carry out our work here. Don't be afraid to speak out.

But most importantly, remember - we are all blessed with this chance to serve and in doing so, we're called by Kansans to serve with respect for one another – even in disagreements. The men and women who aren't here today and who aren't involved in the political process, expect us to work together to solve our state's problems. They are not concerned with party labels or future elections, and neither should we.

Today, as we begin our work Kansas is in a state of crisis. Our financial future is in peril, our school system is in constant litigation, our elderly and our most vulnerable constituents are waiting in line for basic life sustaining services. The task before us is difficult and many are losing faith. We have a state to restore to prosperity and it will take the dedication of each and every one of us in this body to get it done.

I am convinced we can and will meet the challenges before us. We are the sons and daughters of a people who forged a state out of a bloody civil war, survived the great depression and fought world wars against oppression. Kansans have never failed to answer the call.

I'm honored to stand before you as one of the leaders in this quest.

God Bless you and God Bless the people of Kansas.

The roll was called with 124 members present.

Representative-elect Helgerson was excused on verified illness.

The amendment, including any amendment from the floor to strike all of the substantive provisions of a bill or resolution and insert other provisions, must be relevant, appropriate, and have some relation to or involve the same subject as the bill or resolution to be amended. For the purposes of this rule the subject matter of any appropriation bill is the spending and appropriating of money and any amendment which changes the amount of money spent in any state agency or program is germane to any appropriation bill.

(1) A motion to strike out and insert words of less than a sentence shall be indivisible;

(2) the distinct propositions shall be only in the form submitted in the motion to amend;

(3) each proposition must be so distinct that, one being removed, the remainder may stand entirely on their own; and

(4) those portions of a motion to amend a bill as described in Rule 2110 shall be indivisible.

(b) Upon a request to divide a motion to amend a bill or resolution, the presiding officer shall inquire as to whether there is a request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend. If such a request is made, the issue of germaneness shall be determined prior to dividing the motion.

If no request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend is made, the presiding officer shall proceed to divide the motion to amend in accordance with this rule, and no subsequent request for a ruling on germaneness of any distinct proposition of the motion so divided shall be in order.

(c) The presiding officer, or any member, may request that the member requesting the division make the request in writing specifying the manner in which the motion to amend should be divided.

(d) The division of the motion to amend shall be in accordance with the rules of the House and with items (1) to (4), inclusive, of subsection (a). Rule 2108. Motions to Strike Out and Insert. The rejection of a motion to amend a bill or resolution by striking out and inserting one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert another proposition, nor prevent a subsequent motion simply to strike out; nor shall the rejection of a motion simply to strike out prevent a subsequent motion to strike out and insert.

Rule 2109. Identical Motions. Except upon the unanimous consent of the House, an identical motion to amend a bill or resolution shall not be made a second time on the same legislative day.

Rule 2110. Floor Amendments to Bills Making Appropriations. (a) Unless by majority consent to correct an error in drafting, no floor amendment to increase the amount of expenditures that would be authorized in a provision of an appropriations bill shall be in order unless the amendment contains a provision reducing, by a like or greater amount, expenditures that would be authorized in another provision of such appropriations bill.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply if the ending balance in the state general fund for the ensuing fiscal year is equal to 7.5% or more of the total amount authorized to be expended or transferred by demand transfer from the state general fund in such fiscal year based on the most recent budget profile of the Kansas legislative research department.

Rule 2303. Motion to Reconsider. A motion to reconsider shall take precedence of all other questions except the motion to adjourn. No motion for reconsideration of any vote shall be in order, unless made on the same day or the legislative day following that on which the decision to be reconsidered took place, nor unless a member voting with the prevailing side shall move such reconsideration. A motion for reconsideration, being put and lost, shall not be renewed, nor shall any subject or vote be a second time reconsidered without unanimous consent, but this provision shall not be construed as preventing the introduction of a bill on the same subject. The member moving for reconsideration shall be allowed not more than two minutes for stating the reasons in support of the motion. Such motion shall be subject to debate by any member, stating reasons in support or opposition to the motion. Each of such members shall be allowed not more than one minute for the purpose of such debate. When voting on the previous question, the House decides that the main question shall not now be put, the main question shall be considered as still remaining under debate. The main question shall be on the passage of the bill, resolution or other matter under consideration. When amendments are pending, a vote shall first be taken upon such amendments in their order without further debate or amendment. A majority vote of the members present shall order the previous question.

Rule 2305. Motions Not Subject to Debate. All questions relating to priority of business shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn, to change the order of consideration of a bill, for a call of the House, and to lay on the table shall be decided without amendment or debate. The several motions to postpone or commit shall preclude all debate on the main question.

Rule 2306. Motion to Refer Bills or Resolutions to Committee When Not in Committee of the Whole. When not in the Committee of the Whole, a motion to refer a bill or resolution from the Calendar to a standing committee shall be in order only when the body is meeting as the House of Representatives and shall be authorized only when offered by the Majority Leader, or in the absence of the Majority Leader, by the Assistant Majority Leader. Rule 2311. Suspension of Rules of the House. (a) No rule of the House shall be suspended except by unanimous consent or by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House, subject to the following exceptions:

(1) A motion to suspend the rules, and to declare an emergency and to advance a bill to the order of business Final Action, as contemplated in article 2, section 15 of the Constitution shall require an affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the House.

(2) A motion to suspend the rules and to permit amendment and debate of a bill under the order of business Final Action shall require an affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the House.

(b) When under the rules of the House a motion, question or action requires a vote of a majority greater than a majority of the members present, the majority specified for such motion, question or action shall be required to suspend the rules for the purpose of such motion, question or action. When under the rules of the House notice of a motion reduces the required majority for adoption of the motion, the required majority shall not be reduced if the notice is disposed of by suspension of the rules.

In the event that the system is not operating properly, roll call votes may be taken by calling the roll.

Rule 2502. Procedure for Taking a Roll Call Vote. When a roll call vote is taken, the presiding officer shall state the question and instruct the members to proceed to vote. After a short pause the presiding officer shall direct the chief clerk to close the roll. After the roll has been closed, when Rule 2505 applies, the presiding officer shall inquire: "Does any member desire to explain his or her vote?" and any member so desiring may give such explanation when recognized by the presiding officer. The presiding officer shall inquire: "Does any member desire to change his or her vote?" If any member does desire to change his or her vote, such member when recognized by the presiding officer, shall advise how they desire to change such vote and the presiding officer shall then instruct the chief clerk to make the appropriate change. (c) The Speaker shall not be compelled to vote except in case of a tie.

Rule 2505. Explaining Vote. Any member may, when a roll call vote is being taken on the passage or adoption of any bill or resolution, explain their vote. ### JOINT RULES OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES 2017-2018

Joint rule 1. Joint rules; application and date of expiration; adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation. (a) Joint rules; expiration, adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation; vote required. Joint rules are adopted under the authority of section 8 of article 2 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas and shall govern matters made subject thereto except when otherwise specifically provided by joint rule. Joint rules shall expire at the conclusion of the terms of representatives. Joint rules shall be adopted, amended, suspended and revoked by concurrent resolution of the two houses of the legislature. Concurrent resolutions adopting joint rules shall receive the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house.

(b) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules; previous notice; vote required. After one day's previous notice, joint rules may be amended, suspended or revoked by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house. Upon the filing of such notice in either house, a message shall be sent to the other house advising of the filing of such notice and the reading of the message shall constitute notice to the members of such house. If such previous notice is not given, the affirmative vote of  $\frac{2}{3}$  of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house shall be required for the amendment, suspension or revocation of a joint rule.

(c) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules at commencement of legislative session; vote required; conditions. Notwithstanding any provision of this rule to the contrary, no notice shall be required for the adoption of a concurrent resolution amending, suspending or revoking any one or more joint rules at the commencement of a legislative session, and adoption of any such concurrent resolution shall require only the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, subject to the following conditions: (1) The concurrent resolution is sponsored by the speaker or the president, and (2) either (a) a copy thereof is mailed to each member of the legislature by deposit in the United States mails not later than 11:00 p.m. on the Thursday preceding the Monday on which the legislative session is to commence or (b) in lieu of mailing, copies of the concurrent resolution are made available to members on the first day of the legislative session and final action is taken on a subsequent legislative day.

Joint rule 2. Joint sessions. (a) Joint session called by concurrent resolution; vote required; time, place and subject matter. A joint session of the senate and house of representatives may be called by concurrent resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house of the legislature or as may otherwise be prescribed by law. Any such resolution shall fix the time and place of the joint session, and the subject matter to be considered at the joint session. Joint sessions shall consider only such matters as are prescribed by law or by the concurrent resolution calling such joint session.

(b) Presiding officer at joint sessions; record of joint session; rules applicable. The speaker of the house of representatives shall preside at all joint sessions of the senate and house of representatives, and the clerk of the house of representatives shall keep a record of the proceedings thereof and shall enter the record of each such session in the journal of the house of representatives. The rules of the house of representatives and the joint rules of the two houses, insofar as the same may be applicable shall be the rules for joint sessions of the two houses.

(c) Votes in joint session; taking; requirements. All votes in a joint session shall be taken by yeas and nays, and in taking the same it shall be the duty of the secretary of the senate first to call the names of the members of the senate, and after which the clerk of the house of representatives shall in like manner call the names of the members of the house. Each member of the senate and the house of representatives present shall be required to vote on all matters considered in joint session, unless excused by a vote of a majority of the members of both houses present.

Joint rule 3. Conference committee procedure. (a) Action by house of origin of bill or concurrent resolution amended by other house. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned to the house of origin with amendments by the other house, the house of origin may: (1) Concur in such amendments; (2) refuse to concur in such amendments; or (3) refuse to concur in such amendments and request a conference on the bill or concurrent resolution.

(b) Concurrence by house of origin; concurrence prior to taking action on conference committee report by other house; final action; effect of failure of motion to concur. The house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution may concur in any amendments made by the other house, except that if the bill or concurrent resolution has been referred to a conference committee such action may only be taken prior to the taking of final action upon the conference committee report upon such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house shall be considered action on the final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has been appointed and action has not been taken upon the report of such committee by the other house and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and the motion to concur may be renewed but not on the same legislative day. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has not been appointed and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(c) Motion to nonconcur; when considered final action; effect of adoption of motion. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to nonconcur or to refuse to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house which is not coupled with a request for the appointment of a conference committee shall be considered action on final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal, and the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed killed on the adoption thereof.

(d) House of origin refusal to concur or nonconcur; request for conference; procedure. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned by either house to the house of origin with amendments, and the house of origin refuses to concur or to nonconcur therein, a conference may be requested by a majority vote of the members present and voting. Such request shall be transmitted to the other house by message which shall include the names of the conferees on the part of the requesting house. Upon receipt of any such message, the receiving house may, in like manner, approve such conference, and shall thereupon notify the requesting house by message stating the names of its conferees.

(e) Membership; appointment; chairperson; house of origin of substitute or materially changed bill or concurrent resolution; meetings of conference committee. Each conference committee shall consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house of representatives, unless otherwise fixed by agreement of the president of the senate and speaker of the house. Senate members shall be appointed by the president of the senate and house members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not less than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house. In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the conference committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

(f) Conference committee reports; matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business. Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation. Subject to any limitations imposed under the constitution of the state of Kansas, no more than a total of four additional bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions in conference or bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions which have passed in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution, except that reports of conference committees on any taxation bill are not subject to the limitation contained in this provision. A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment. The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house, electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of  $\frac{2}{3}$  of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports. All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report. The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee; effect of failure of motion to adopt report requesting new conference committee. If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even-numbered year. Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Kleeb are spread upon the Journal:

Despite some policy and political differences, the members of the legislature often become much more than just colleagues; over time, they develop into a treasured network of friends. As many of you know, I was married last month on December 23rd and I wanted to take this opportunity to introduce my wonderful bride, Becky, to you, my valued friends.

Three years ago under totally different circumstances I stood before you expressing my appreciation for your support and prayers after I lost Nancy, my wife of twenty-nine years, to pancreatic cancer. Over the past few months, I have come to realize even more how precious life and time are and what a blessing it is to have Becky in my life. So, we have decided to focus on spending more quality time with each other, on this new chapter of our lives, and on our family, friends and the community.

Although it has been my honor to serve in the Kansas House of Representatives for the past eight years, I have decided to retire from the legislature. The opportunity to meet and work with all the wonderful people throughout the State over the years while serving in the legislature has been a true blessing.

It is with gratitude and respect that I recognize the dedication and professionalism of our Research, Revisor and legislative staff. And, to my legislative colleagues, I want to express my appreciation for your friendship and for your personal sacrifice to serve the State.

May God bless Kansas, each of you, and your legislative work.

On motion of Rep. Hineman, the House adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Tuesday, January 10, 2017.
