

Journal of the House

FIFTY-FIFTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, April 5, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 125 members present.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Creator God,
 We have noticed in the last few weeks
 how Spring has struggled to establish itself,
 warm and sunny one week,
 the last few days gloomy with dark skies and rain.
 Perhaps the same could be said about inside the chamber...
 one day decisions have been made that brighten their hopes,
 the next day, decisions made that cause some to feel as gray and gloomy as the sky.
 Today, Lord, I ask for discernment and clarity as they judge anew their adherence to principle, conviction, and commitment.
 Give them the ability to listen to one another and work cooperatively to solve the important issue of the day.
 Heal that which is broken—restore relationships that are separated by party lines—surprise the cynical—humble the exalted—and awaken the exhausted.
 In Your Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Sloan.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Deere are spread upon the Journal:

I am excited for the opportunity to stand before you today to recognize two remarkable young women who are students from Lansing High School. Sisters Marie and Mykala Caraccilo are the recent winners of a national competition sponsored by DECA and Herff Jones!

Twenty teams from all over the country participated with the goal of increasing yearbook sales by creating a four-tier marketing plan. Marie and Mykala worked with their yearbook and DECA advisors to research sales history and buying patterns, create an interactive marketing plan, and conduct surveys of students and parents.

They entered the contest by submitting a 10-minute video detailing their project. Herff Jones executives chose the top three teams, flew them to Florida, where each team gave a 30-minute presentation of their project to a group of 25 corporate marketing executives from Herff Jones.

These executives were very impressed with Marie and Mykala's work, praised them, and encouraged them to continue working in the marketing field after high school. A week later, it was announced that the girls won 1st place in the competition and also won $5,000 for travel to the International Career Development Conference in Anaheim, California later this month, where they will receive their award in front of approximately 18,000 students from the United States and Canada!

This is the 1st time in Kansas history for a team to compete and win this contest! This competition gave these young women a chance to practice real world skills in marketing, advertising, research, project development, and much more through a partnership with the LHS DECA and yearbook programs.

I see a very bright future ahead for Marie and Mykala!

I want to introduce everyone standing before you: DECA Sponsors, Dustin Myers and Kelsey Rook; Yearbook Sponsor, Heather Waters; LHS Principal, Steve Dike; Lansing Superintendent, Dr. Darrel Stufflebeam; Marie and Mykala's parents, Edward and Tracy Caraccilo; last, but not least, Marie and Mykala Caraccilo.

Please join me in presenting them with framed certificates from the Kansas House of Representatives and in congratulating them on this wonderful achievement!

On emergency motion of Rep. Judd-Jenkins, HR 6028, as follows, was introduced and adopted:

By Representative Judd-Jenkins

HR 6028—A RESOLUTION recognizing the Etzanoa Conservancy for its work to uncover the history of the great Native American settlement of Etzanoa.

A RESOLUTION recognizing the Etzanoa Conservancy for its work to uncover the history of the great Native American settlement of Etzanoa.

WHEREAS, In 1601, during an expedition from New Mexico into Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas, Don Juan de Oñate, the Spanish conquistador who founded New Mexico, discovered what he called "the Great Settlement," which was known to the village's inhabitants as "Etzanoa"; and

WHEREAS, Etzanoa is also the likely location of a battle in 1601 between de Oñate's forces and a band of Wichita tribe ancestors, the Escanjaques as they were called by the Spanish; and

WHEREAS, It is accepted that the inhabitants of Etzanoa are the ancestors of the modern-day Wichita people of the Wichita and Affiliated Tribes; and

WHEREAS, The exact location of Etzanoa was unknown for many years, and several places, including Arkansas City, Kansas, were considered possible locations for the settlement; and

WHEREAS, With the revelation of new research and archaeological evidence, Dr. Donald Blakeslee, a Wichita State University Professor of Anthropology, became convinced that the east side of Arkansas City along the Walnut River was the location of Etzanoa; and

WHEREAS, In June, 2015, Dr. Blakeslee organized a research team of archaeologists, students and volunteers to conduct field work on the Etzanoa site and, as a result of this expedition, Dr. Blakeslee was able to confirm the site as the location of the settlement of Etzanoa; and

WHEREAS, The archaeological site of Etzanoa has the potential, based on the description of the settlement by de Oñate and artifacts found at the site, to be one of the largest Native American settlements to have existed in the United States; and

WHEREAS, This research would not have been possible without the contributions of Dr. Blakeslee, the V. J. Wilkins Foundation, the City of Arkansas City and the Arkansas City Historical Society; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Blakeslee believes that, based on the evidence, the Etzanoa archaeological site is a great candidate for being designated as both a World Heritage Site by UNESCO and a National Historic Landmark: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we recognize the Etzanoa Conservancy for its work to uncover the history of the great settlement of Etzanoa and the many individuals who have contributed time and finances to better understand this American treasure; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send 21 enrolled copies of this resolution to Representative Judd-Jenkins.

There being no objection the following remarks of Rep. Judd-Jenkins are spread upon the Journal:

In a renewed quest to find Quivira, the city of gold, Spanish conquistador Don Juan de Onate lead an army expedition in 1601, north and east from New Mexico into Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas. This founder of the colony of New Mexico discovered what he called the "Great Settlement," called "ETZANOA" by the natives. The journals of this expedition comprise a large volume of materials, including a map drawn by Spanish expedition member Enrique Martinez. An Etzanoan native enslaved by the expedition drew an additional map. The extensive transcripts of interrogations of the army of Spanish explorers detailing their visit to ETZANOA are preserved in Seville, Spain. The exact modern day location of ETZANOA had been debated for years among archaeologists.

In the 1870's the early residents of Arkansas City found many Native American artifacts. Large mounds of river mussel shells, rock Petroglyphs, earth pits full of bones, broken pots, and tools. Citizens of Arkansas City have always known this fork of the Arkansas and Walnut Rivers was someplace special long before settlers had ever arrived.

Prior to the new bypass being built in the 1990's, a Kansas State Historical Society survey discovered artifacts dating from 600-1800 AD, determined through carbon dating. There have been numerous artifacts from other periods discovered in Cowley County and the surrounding area that date back at least 10,000 years.

Wichita State University archeology professor, Dr. Don Blakeslee, organized a research team of archaeologists, students and volunteers in the Arkansas City area in June 2015. The team included a very sophisticated Mobile Archeology Lab and highly regarded archaeology professionals using noninvasive sensing equipment to begin the detailed research needed to prove that Arkansas City is the exact location of ETZANOA.

Based on the evidence, the ETZANOA archaeological site of a 5 mile long settlement of an estimated 20,000 ancestors of the Wichita tribe, thrived from about 1425 to the early 1700's. Archaeologists agree that a city of this size would be the second-largest prehistoric Native American site ever discovered in the U.S. and Canada, making it a possible candidate for being designated as both a World Heritage Site by UNESCO and a National Historic Landmark.

With the generous funding of the V.J. Wilkins Foundation, the Archaeology Channel spent two weeks filming the 2015 archaeological studies conducted by Dr. Blakeslee and his teams, with cooperation and support from the city of Arkansas City, and the Arkansas City Historical Society. Today in the Statehouse Visitors Center Auditorium you may view this fascinating 28-minute film titled "QUIVIRA: CONQUISTADORS ON THE PLAINS" describing the work and discovery of the true ETZANOA on the banks of the Walnut River in south central Kansas, just above the Oklahoma border.

Rep. Judd-Jenkins introduced the following guests to the House that were an integral in the discovery, preservation and promotion of ETZANOA: Dr. Don Blakeslee, Wichita University, Professor of Archaeology; Dr. Robert Hoard, Kansas State archaeologist; Otis Morrow, V.J. Wilkins Foundation Trustee; Karen Zeller, V.J. Wilkins Foundation Trustee; Otis Morrow, V.J. Wilkins Foundation Trustee; Nick Hernandez, Arkansas City Manager; Jay Warren, Arkansas City Councilman and former Mayor; Hap McLeod, ETZANOA Conservancy President, archaeological site land owner; Adam Ziegler, Lawrence Free State High School, and discoverer of the first Spanish Artifact confirming the site of the ETZANOA battle; Jann Ziegler, ETZANOA Conservancy member and grandmother of Adam Ziegler; Carol House, ETZANOA Conservancy member and archaeological site land owner; Jason Smith, ETZANOA Conservancy member and Foss Farrar, ETZANOA Conservancy member, archaeological site land owner and freelance news reporter.

I welcome you to celebrate this great American treasure recently discovered in the great state of Kansas.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on HB 2409. The occupation of the Gaza Strip and the West Bank by the State of Israel is in its 50th year, and there is no end in sight. The government of Israel continues to build and expand settlements in the occupied West Bank, in defiance of our own government and in violation of international law. Despite that, I do not oppose the section of this bill that prevents our state from boycotting the State of Israel. I do oppose the section that requires state contractors to provide a certificate of political correctness, because I think that puts us on a very slippery slope and may well be unconstitutional. – DENNIS “BOOG” HIGHBERGER, JOHN ALCALA, GAIL FINNEY

MR. SPEAKER: I vote “aye” on HB 2409. Israel is a strong trade partner with Kansas, and any company openly boycotting Israel and its products, is perpetrating an act of economic warfare against a Kansas trade partner and ally. It is in our financial interest to continue our strong trade partnership with Israel, advocate for our ally, and defend the companies who have decided to make a financial investment in Kansas. I stand with Israel. – BILL SUTTON, JOHN RESMAN, LESLIE OSTERMAN, SUSAN HUMPHRIES, TREVOR JACOBS, ERIC L. SMITH, CHUCK WEBER, RANDY GARBER, LEO DELPERDANG, KEITH ESAU, RANDY POWELL

MR. SPEAKER: I vote “No” on HB 2409, not because I support a boycott of the Nation of Israel. Israel is a friend of our country and our state. Instead, I vote “No” on HB 2409 because it imposes an unnecessary regulatory burden on Kansas businesses. – JOHN CARMICHAEL

On motion of Rep. Hineman, the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole, with Rep. Hoffman in the chair.
