Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Kansas:

reimburse a designated beneficiary's eligible expenses for the purchase or construction of a primary residence in this state. An individual may be the account holder of multiple accounts and an individual may jointly own the account with another individual if such individuals file a joint income tax return. An account holder shall comply with the requirements of this act to be eligible for the modifications set forth in K.S.A. 79-32,117, and amendments thereto.
(b) An account holder shall designate, no later than April 15 of the year following the taxable year during which the account is established, a first-time home buyer as the designated beneficiary of the account.
Nothing in this section shall prohibit an account holder from designating such account holder as the designated beneficiary of an account. An account holder may change the designated beneficiary at any time, but no account shall have more than one designated beneficiary at any time. An individual may be designated as the designated beneficiary of more than one account if such accounts are held by separate account holders. No

New Sec. 4. (a) (1) The moneys in a first-time home buyer savings account may be:
(A) Used for eligible expenses related to a designated beneficiary's purchase or construction of a primary residence located in this state;

(2) This subsection shall apply even if a designated beneficiary is a joint owner of a primary residence with another person who is not a designated beneficiary of an account. Moneys in an account shall not be used to purchase a manufactured or mobile home that is not taxed as real property.
(b) Moneys withdrawn from an account shall be subject to recapture by the secretary in the tax year in which they were withdrawn if:

(d) The penalties provided in subsection (c) shall not apply if: (1) The withdrawn moneys are used for eligible expenses related to a designated beneficiary's purchase or construction of a primary residence outside of this state; or (2) the withdrawn moneys are from an account in which the designated beneficiary died, and the account holder did not designate a new designated beneficiary during the same tax year.
(e) If the account holder dies or, if the account is jointly owned and the account owners die, and the account does not have a surviving transfer on death beneficiary, then all of the moneys in the account resulting from contributions or income earned from assets in the account pursuant to K.S.A. 79-32,117, and amendments thereto, shall be subject to recapture in the tax year of the death or deaths, but no penalty shall be assessed or designate the beneficiaries of an account in the financial institution's account contracts or systems or in any other way;

(2) track the use of moneys withdrawn from an account; or
(3) report any information to the department of revenue or any other governmental agency that is not otherwise required by law.
(b) No financial institution shall be responsible or liable for:
(1) Determining or ensuring that an account holder is eligible for a Kansas adjusted gross income modification pursuant to K.S.A. 79-32,117, and amendments thereto;

eligible expenses; or
(3) reporting or remitting taxes or penalties related to the use of account moneys.

Sec. 7. K.S.A. 79-32,117 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-32,117. (a) The Kansas adjusted gross income of an individual means such individual's federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year, with the modifications specified in this section.
(b) There shall be added to federal adjusted gross income:
(i) Interest income less any related expenses directly incurred in the purchase of state or political subdivision obligations, to the extent that the same is not included in federal adjusted gross income, on obligations of any state or political subdivision thereof, but to the extent that interest income on obligations of this state or a political subdivision thereof issued prior to January 1, 1988, is specifically exempt from income tax under the laws of this state authorizing the issuance of such obligations, it shall be excluded from computation of Kansas adjusted gross income whether or not included in federal adjusted gross income. Interest income on obligations of this state or a political subdivision thereof issued after December 31, 1987, shall be excluded from computation of Kansas adjusted gross income whether or not included in federal adjusted gross income.

(ii) Taxes on or measured by income or fees or payments in lieu of income taxes imposed by this state or any other taxing jurisdiction to the extent deductible in determining federal adjusted gross income and not credited against federal income tax. This paragraph shall not apply to taxes deduction of the taxes being refunded resulted in a tax benefit for Kansas income tax purposes during a prior taxable year. Such refunds shall be included in income in the year actually received regardless of the method of accounting used by the taxpayer. For purposes hereof, a tax benefit shall be deemed to have resulted if the amount of the tax had been deducted in determining income subject to a Kansas income tax for a prior year regardless of the rate of taxation applied in such prior year to the Kansas taxable income, but only that portion of the refund shall be included as bears the same proportion to the total refund received as the federal taxes deducted in the year to which such refund is attributable bears to the total federal income taxes paid for such year. For purposes of the foregoing sentence, federal taxes shall be considered to have been deducted only to the extent such deduction does not reduce Kansas taxable income below zero.

(v) The amount of any depreciation deduction or business expense deduction claimed on the taxpayer's federal income tax return for any capital expenditure in making any building or facility accessible to the handicapped, for which expenditure the taxpayer claimed the credit

(x) Amounts received as nonqualified withdrawals, as defined by K.S.A. 75-643, and amendments thereto, if, at the time of contribution to a family postsecondary education savings account, such amounts were subtracted from the federal adjusted gross income pursuant to K.S.A. 79-32,117(c)(xv), and amendments thereto, or if such amounts are not already included in the federal adjusted gross income.
