

Journal of the House

TWENTY-SECOND DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, February 7, 2024, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Hawkins in the chair.

The roll was called with 119 members present.

Reps. Buehler, Highberger, Poskin and Sawyer were excused on verified illness.

Reps. Bergquist and Donohoe were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Present later: Rep. Bergquist.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father;

I marvel at the grace You abundantly bestow upon each of us!

Thank You! I know grace is not deserved, but it is so appreciated.

I am well aware of all the offenses I have committed against You and others, but You have forgiven and given grace instead of the justice which was rightly deserved.

Today I pray for the same grace You have bestowed, to be spread across this chamber of responsibility.

Allow each one to give to others as You have given to them.

If personal offenses have occurred, might Your peace and grace abound.

I pray unity would abound in our quest to best serve the people of our great State.

I also pray when our work is done and we leave this decision-making place

we can look back and say, I have done well!

Many of us are missing the opportunity to be with our families.

Regardless, if they be near or far,

bless them with an understanding heart for the work

You have called me to do.

Please, O God, remind them even though they are not physically present they are a partner in this work, and I am so grateful for their support.

Our world is experiencing chaos on many fronts.

It so needs You to show the correct way forward.

We pray for our National and International leaders.

Might Your wisdom and understanding be granted to those in places of great responsibility.

I ask this in Jesus name;

Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Borjon.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Waymaster and Ballard are spread upon the Journal:

Rep. Waymaster began, today we recognize February 7, 2024, as JAG-K Day at the Capitol.

Most of the members of this body are familiar with Jobs for America's Graduates-Kansas and their remarkable outcomes.

- JAG-K is an in-school elective class that helps prepare students for successful futures.
- JAG-K Career Specialists work with their students all 12 months of the year and provide 12 months of support following their senior year.
- Since JAG-K started in Kansas, in 2013-14, JAG-K students have a 95% graduation rate.
- And, 85% of JAG-K graduates are in post-secondary education, military service, or in the workforce on full-time basis 12 months after they graduate from high school.

I have seen the magnificent work our local Russell High School JAG-K program has done. Our students are getting paid internships, learning valuable life skills, and growing as leaders in school and our community. Their Career Specialist Raina Tomlinson is doing an excellent job.

Before recognizing the students, I would like to offer my colleague, Representative Barbara Ballard, an opportunity to say a few words about JAG-K. Representative Ballard has been a long-time member of the JAG-K Board of Directors and one of their biggest supporters in the Legislature.

Rep. Ballard continued, joining us in the East Gallery today are some of the hundreds of JAG-K students in the Capitol today.

The students on the floor are state and regional JAG-K Career Association officers. The following students were introduced: Charee Moore, James Kingsbury, Xavier Aquino, Laila Horton, Mycah Benton, Hayden Brown and Landon Kreifels. Also introduced were President and CEO, Chuck Knapp and Senior VP of Programming, Bev Mortimer.

Thank you for joining us in recognizing JAG-K Day at the Capitol.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Haswood are spread upon the Journal:

I want first to acknowledge the Tribal Leadership that is here with us today, Prairie Band Potawatomi Chairman Joseph Zeke Rupnick and council member Raphael Wahwassuck; Kickapoo Tribal Chairwoman Gail Cheatum-Dupuis; Vice Chair Gary Samqua; and her four council members, Priscilla Wakole, Sharon Doxator, Grace Ross; and Iowa Tribal Chairman Tim Rhodd, Treasurer Robert Hullman; and council member Brad Campbell. Thank you all for being here today.

Today is the Kansas Native American Legislative Day at the Capitol. This was passed in statute in 2013 by former state representative Ponka-We Victors-Cozad, who made history as the first Native American woman to hold office in the Kansas State Legislature.

This day is to recognize and honor the four Tribes' historic and continued contributions to weaving the fabric of the great state of Kansas. I am excited to celebrate the accomplishments of one of our own!

Today I want to introduce to you all Dr. Alex Red Corn. Dr. Red Corn is an Osage Nation citizen, a member of the Tsi.zhu.wah.shtah.geh (Gentle Sky/Peacekeeper) clan, with family roots in the Wa.ha.xolin district/Osage village near Pawhuska, Oklahoma.

In the College of Education at Kansas State University, he serves as an Assistant Professor of Educational Leadership, Coordinator of Indigenous Partnerships, Co-Chair of the Indigenous Faculty and Staff Alliance, Executive Director of the Kansas Association for Native American Education (KANAE) and Program Coordinator for the Indigenous Educational Leadership Graduate Certificate.

His scholarship and service are focused on building capacities for Native nations to take on a more prominent role in the education of their citizens. As a member of the College of Education faculty, Dr. Red Corn has consulted with school and tribal leaders across the region on a variety of topics related to the education of Indigenous peoples, and he has helped cultivate conditions for increased collaboration with tribal governments. He has also developed the new Indigenous Educational Leadership Graduate Certificate program to help leaders working with Native Nations and communities build their technical skill sets when working with unique systems of Indian education as they work across tribal governments, public schools, and federal programs. He has successfully graduated two cohorts of students with master's degrees in educational leadership in partnership with the Osage Nation - whose lands and histories long predate the state of Kansas in these lands.

Red Corn, is known nationally for his contributions to education and has been awarded the O'Brien Award in 2023 by the Human Rights Educators USA and the Wilma Mankiller Memorial Award from the National Education Association.

Body, please join me in celebrating Dr. Alex Red Corn.

Rep. Haswood presented Dr. Red Corn a framed House certificate in honor of his many accomplishments.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Proctor are spread upon the Journal:

Today I have with me the Board of Directors and Staff of the Alliance Against Family Violence. Here at the well with me are Board members; Melynda Harbour and Jamie Lynn Svatos and Staff members; Katie Irvin, Jenna Motely and Stacy Eisenring.

Forty years ago this month, the Alliance Against Family Violence began to serve families in Leavenworth County who are impacted by domestic and sexual violence. And since they opened, the Alliance Against Family Violence has been helping residents of Leavenworth County and beyond in managing crises, as well as starting new lives after tragedy.

Since they first opened their doors forty years ago, the Alliance has expanded its services to include shelter for individuals fleeing abusive homes, a 24-hour hotline, court advocacy, crisis intervention services, medical and child and youth advocacy, and support group services.

Over four decades, the Alliance Against Family Violence has remained dedicated to facilitating an empowering positive change in the lives of those affected by domestic and sexual violence and to providing safety and security for members of the communities it serves.

And so, on behalf of the Kansas House of Representatives, I am honored to present this tribute to the Alliance Against Family Violence in recognition of your forty years serving Leavenworth families. Your hard work, dedication, and commitment to serving your neighbors reflect great credit on your organization, the City and County of Leavenworth, and the State of Kansas.

Rep. Proctor presented his guests with a framed House certificate in honor of their accomplishments.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: My no vote today on HR 6035 reflects the oath that I took as a Kansas House Member to uphold the Constitution of the United States. Because of the Supremacy Clause, I believe Gov. Abbot is in violation of the rule of law and of the US Constitution. A vote yes would make me complicit. Abbot's tactics are inhumane and un-American. I would urge him to obey the order from the US Supreme Court, rather than continue his current course. Our system purposefully has 3 branches to ensure checks and balances. Even governors must adhere to the law of the land.

MR. SPEAKER: I support coming to the United States, LEGALLY. Our Armed Forces and Law Enforcement Men and Women face risks every day to protect our constitutional rights and freedoms we enjoy.

There is a legal process to enter and remain in the United States. That - I support. I think there are flaws within that system - those flaws need to be addressed.

I do not support inhumane treatment of any type. I don't see how this Resolution fixes the problem, and in my opinion adds to the problem - I will be voting No on HR. 6035. – LYNN MELTON
