

2023 Kansas Statutes

18-114. Clay. The county of Clay is bounded as follows: Commencing at the northwest corner of Riley county; thence west along the south boundary of Washington county, to the sixth principal meridian; thence south with the sixth principal meridian, to the second standard parallel; thence east with said second standard parallel, to the southeast corner of section thirty-four, township ten south, of range four east; thence north with the west boundary of Riley county, to the place of beginning.

History: G.S. 1868, ch. 24, § 14; October 31; R.S. 1923, 18-114.