

2023 Kansas Statutes

19-1561e. No-fund warrants; limitation; payment; cash basis and budget laws inapplicable. In any county such as described in K.S.A. 19-1561d, the board of county commissioners may issue no-fund warrants in an amount not exceeding twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) to be used for the purposes for which the tax levies described in K.S.A. 19-1561d were authorized: Provided, That the amount of such warrants plus the interest payable thereon shall not exceed the total amount authorized to be raised by the tax levy under the authority conferred by K.S.A. 19-1561. Such no-fund tax warrants shall be paid by the levies made under K.S.A. 19-1561 and such warrants shall be issued, registered and bear interest in the manner and be in the form prescribed by K.S.A. 79-2940 except they shall not bear the notation required by said section and may be issued without the approval of the state commission of revenue and taxation. None of the provisions of the cash basis and budget laws of this state shall apply to any expenditures made, the payment of which has been provided for by the issuance of warrants under this act.
