

2023 Kansas Statutes

25-2307. Administration of oaths. County election officers and deputy county election officers are authorized to administer oaths for the examination of applicants for registration or for any other matters relating to the administration of their duties.

History: L. 1968, ch. 55, § 7; April 30.