

2023 Kansas Statutes

25-3105. Place of canvass of the elections by county board. Meetings of the county board of canvassers shall be held in the office of the county election officer unless a different place is agreed upon by the county board of canvassers and the county election officer and publicly announced by the county election officer.

History: L. 1968, ch. 406, § 44; April 30.