Such convention shall be called within 10 days of notice that a vacancy has occurred or will occur.

(b) This section shall apply to any vacancy in a party candidacy which occurs after the closing time for filing to be a candidate specified in K.S.A. 25-205, and amendments thereto, and prior to or on the day of the primary election, if such occurrence results in a political party not having a primary candidate for such office.

(c) This section shall apply when a vacancy occurs in an office, and it is provided by law that such vacancy shall be filled by appointment until the next general election at which time a person is to be elected to fill the unexpired term, or words of like effect, and such vacancy occurs during the period specified in subsection (b).

(d) When a vacancy occurs during the period specified in subsection (b) in a party candidacy for governor or lieutenant governor, and the occurrence results in a political party not having a pair of primary candidates for governor and lieutenant governor, a vacancy shall thereby also occur for the other of such two offices. Such vacancies shall be filled by a state party delegate convention. The convention shall be called by the state party chairperson. (e) When there is more than one pair of candidates for governor and lieutenant governor of the same party, and a vacancy occurs during the period specified in subsection (b) in a candidacy for lieutenant governor of such party, and the occurrence results in a governor candidate not having a lieutenant governor candidate, such vacancy shall be filled by the candidate for governor of such pair of candidates designating a candidate for lieutenant governor to be the running mate.
