

2023 Kansas Statutes

28-225. Fee books. All of the above officers and other persons now authorized to collect fees from the public, and from any source excepting the county in which their offices are situated, shall keep fee books in forms to be prescribed by the county auditor and approved by the board of county commissioners, in which shall be entered all fees and income from any source whatsoever that may be received by them, in their official capacity.

History: L. 1937, ch. 233, § 18; March 27.