

2023 Kansas Statutes

40-22a04. Utilization review organization act; standards; rules and regulations; certificate; conditions; annual fee; suspension or revocation of certificate. (a) The commissioner shall adopt rules and regulations establishing standards governing the conduct of utilization review activities performed in this state or affecting residents or healthcare providers of this state by utilization review organizations. Unless granted an exemption under K.S.A. 40-22a06, and amendments thereto, no utilization review organization may conduct utilization review services in this state or affecting residents of this state without first obtaining a certificate from the commissioner.

(b) The commissioner shall not issue a certificate to a utilization review organization until the applicant:

- (1) Files a formal application for certification in such form and detail as required by the commissioner and such application has been executed under oath by the chief executive officer, president or other head official of the applicant;
- (2) files with the commissioner a certified copy of its charter or articles of incorporation and bylaws, if any;
- (3) states the location of the office or offices of the utilization review organization where utilization review affecting residents or health care providers of this state will be principally performed;
- (4) provides a summary of the qualifications and experience of persons performing utilization review affecting the persons and at the locations identified pursuant to paragraph (3);
- (5) makes payment of a certification fee of $100 to the commission; and
- (6) provides such other information or documentation as the commissioner requires.

(c) Certificates issued by the commissioner pursuant to this act shall remain effective until suspended, surrendered or revoked subject to payment of an annual continuation fee of $50.

(d) The commissioner may suspend or revoke the certificate or any exemption from certification requirements upon determination that the interests of Kansas insureds are not being properly served under such certificate or exemption. Any such action shall be taken only after a hearing conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Kansas administrative procedure act.
