

2023 Kansas Statutes

40-2805. Same; returns and payment of tax; interest for late return. (a) Every insurance company subject to taxation under the provisions of this act shall pay the tax imposed and make a return thereof under oath to the commissioner of insurance under such rules and regulations and in such form and manner as the commissioner may by regulation prescribe.

(b) The return shall be filed and the tax paid on the same date as the insurance company's federal income tax return is filed with the internal revenue service except that in the event said federal tax return is filed with the internal revenue service subsequent to the fifteenth day of April, the tax, payable under this act, shall bear interest at the rate per annum prescribed by K.S.A. 79-2968(b), calculated from the fifteenth day of April until date of payment. If, subsequent to said filing, a change occurs affecting the amount of any tax previously imposed thereunder, such change shall be reported, and the necessary adjustments made, at the time the next return hereunder is filed with the commissioner of insurance.
