

2023 Kansas Statutes

65-203. Obstetrical patients. County boards of health may make a special contract with the state board of regents for the care and maintenance in the hospital conducted by the said board of regents in connection with the state university, of such obstetrical patients as are public charges in their respective institutions: Provided, It is necessary to secure professional attention other than that furnished by the institutions of which such public charges are inmates.

History: R.S. 1923, 65-203; December 27.