

2023 Kansas Statutes

72-2150. Teachers' licenses; use of certain terms. Whenever a statute, contract or other document, uses or refers to the words or phrases "certification as a teacher," "certified employee of a school district," "certified personnel of a school district" or words and phrases of like effect such use or reference shall be deemed to mean "licensure as a teacher" or "licensed employee of a school" or "licensed personnel of a school district."

History: L. 2005, ch. 69, § 1; July 1.