

2023 Kansas Statutes

75-779. Responsibility for costs, expenses and attorney fees arising from opioid litigation. The attorney general and each municipality shall be solely responsible for paying all costs, expenses and attorney fees arising from opioid litigation brought under their respective authorities, including any attorney fees owed to private legal counsel, and may seek payment or reimbursement of such costs, expenses and attorney fees from moneys not deposited in the Kansas fights addiction fund.

History: L. 2021, ch. 110, § 5; May 27.