

Medical Gas Piping System Repairs

HB 2082 revises KSA 12-1509 by allowing limited maintenance on gas piping systems to be performed by hospital maintenance personnel if the gas piping system is already installed. Under the prior law, maintenance could only be performed only by an individual licensed as a plumber and professionally certified as a medical gas installer.