

2012 Kansas Statutes

22-2406. Release by officer of person arrested. A law enforcement officer having custody of a person arrested without a warrant is authorized to release the person without requiring him to appear before a court when the officer is satisfied that there are no grounds for criminal complaint against the person arrested.

History: L. 1970, ch. 129, § 22-2406; July 1.