

2012 Kansas Statutes

24-1104. Same; governing body of consolidated district; election; terms. If the regular annual meeting of the governing body of the Kansas district shall be held within ninety (90) days after the adoption of such resolution, the governing body of the Kansas district shall act as the governing body of the consolidated district. If such annual meeting will not be held within such ninety (90) day period, then an election of a new governing body of the consolidated district shall be held in the manner now provided by the laws under which such Kansas district was organized. In any event the incumbent board shall serve until such time as a new board shall be elected. At such election, whether at a special meeting or at a regular meeting, the new governing body shall be elected as at an original election, and any term of any incumbent member of the governing body shall terminate although such term might not otherwise end until a later date.
