

2012 Kansas Statutes

40-223b. Same; compensation and expenses of examiners. Any person or persons who shall conduct a securities audit or annual statement examinations under the provisions of this act shall be regularly employed examiners and shall receive as full compensation for their services the amount provided by K.S.A. 40-223 together with such necessary and actual expenses for traveling and subsistence as shall be incurred in and on account of the performance of such services. For the purposes of this act, "necessary and actual expenses" shall be limited as provided in K.S.A. 75-3207 which pertain to official travel outside the state.

History: L. 1971, ch. 157, § 2; L. 1979, ch. 135, § 2; July 1.