

2012 Kansas Statutes

50-205. Injunction proceedings where companies fail to discontinue service. If such telegraph and telephone companies fail to discontinue service under the terms of said notice within thirty days from the receipt of said notice, it shall be the duty of the attorney general to commence injunction proceedings in the name of the state of Kansas against such telephone and telegraph companies for the purpose of carrying out the purpose of this act.

History: L. 1907, ch. 254, § 5; March 12; R.S. 1923, 50-205.