

2012 Kansas Statutes

59-701. Letters testamentary. Letters testamentary shall be granted to the executor, if any is named in the will, if he or she is legally competent and shall accept the trust; otherwise letters of administration shall be granted with the will annexed.

History: L. 1939, ch. 180, § 58; July 1.