

2012 Kansas Statutes

74-5016. Property, records and unexpended balances of appropriations transferred. The department of commerce shall succeed to all property and records which were used for, or pertain to, the performance of the powers, duties, and functions transferred to it from the department of economic development. On January 12, 1987, all records of and unexpended balances of appropriations for the department of economic development shall be transferred to the department of commerce. Any conflict as to the proper disposition of such property or records or the unexpended balances of any appropriation arising under this section shall be determined by the governor, and such decision shall be final.
