

2012 Kansas Statutes

75-3740c. Procurement practices, recycled products. The director of purchases of the department of administration shall review all state procurement practices and specifications and modify any such practices or specifications so as to eliminate any discrimination against purchases of products made from recycled materials.

History: L. 1990, ch. 319, § 13; July 1.