

2012 Kansas Statutes

75-4223. Banks claiming tax exemptions. The board shall not award any bank a state bank account if such bank claims exemption from the payment of any sales or compensating use tax under the laws of this state. The director of taxation shall notify the board at least ten (10) days before any award of state bank accounts of the names and addresses of all banks which have claimed exemption from the payment of any of said taxes.

History: L. 1967, ch. 447, § 26; June 1.