

19-3811. Same; regular and special meetings, quorum; majority vote; vacancies. Regular meetings of the board of directors shall be held on the first Monday of January, April, July and October of each year, unless such regular meeting day falls on a legal holiday in which event such said regular meeting shall be held on the next succeeding day not a holiday, and special meetings may be held at any time when all of the directors are voluntarily present, or may be called by the president and any two directors at any time, but written notice of specially called meetings shall be served at least twelve hours before time fixed for such special meeting unless such notice is waived in writing or by voluntary appearance. All meetings shall be held at the office of the district, which office shall be located within the district or in a public building adjacent thereto. A majority of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Each meeting of the board, whether regular or special, shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be held by the board to which the public is denied admission, and the board shall not at any time go into executive session. A vote by a majority of all directors on the board shall govern the decision of the board of directors of such district. In the event of the resignation, death or disability of any director, the remaining directors of the district shall fill the vacancy on the board by choosing and appointing by majority vote of the directors a qualified person to serve as director for the unexpired term of office for which the original director had been appointed or elected.
