

34-278. Negotiations of negotiable receipts by endorsement. A negotiable receipt may be negotiated by the endorsement of the person to whose order the grain is by the terms of the receipt deliverable. Such endorsement may be in blank, to the bearer, or to a specified person. If endorsed to a specified person it may be again negotiated by the endorsement of such person in blank, to bearer, or to another specified person. Subsequent negotiation may be made in like manner.

History: L. 1931, ch. 194, § 56; July 1.
