

82-163. Application; contents; amendments; fee. (a) Any warehouseman desiring to become a bonded warehouseman shall make application to the secretary of state for a license. The application shall set forth the following information under oath: (1) The name and business address of the applicant, including the names and addresses of the principal officers and of the directors if the applicant is a corporation, and including the names and addresses of the partners if the applicant is a partnership.

(2) The place or places of business where the applicant proposes to operate as a bonded warehouseman.

(3) The capacity of the warehouse or warehouses which the applicant proposes to operate as a bonded warehouseman.

(4) Such other information as the secretary of state may require.

(b) Every application shall be accompanied with an application fee of $25. The secretary of state shall have authority to make such examination of, or require such reports from, any applicant or bonded warehouseman after the issuance of a license as the secretary of state may deem necessary to carry out the purposes of this act.

(c) Whenever any bonded warehouseman desires to change the location of a warehouse to a location different from the location shown on the application, or such warehouseman desires to use an additional warehouse which was not shown on the application, such warehouseman shall file an amendment to the original application required by this section. Each such amendment shall show the address of the warehouse proposed to be used and shall be accompanied by a filing fee of $25.

History: L. 1927, ch. 340, § 3; L. 1975, ch. 509, §1; L. 1982, ch. 363, § 14; July 1.