or other proceeding, protect and enforce any and all rights under the laws of the state or granted under this act or under such agreement or resolution, or under any other contract executed by the board of regents pursuant to this act, and may enforce and

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, Keeping the state is essential for the health of the nation. Yet, keeping the home is essential for the health of the state. Lord, the time is drawing near when we’ll be paying more attention to the concerns of home. While many of us are caring for state concerns here in Topeka, we’re simultaneously trying to care for home as well. Lord, the fact of Your omnipresence (Proverbs 15:3)…that You are everywhere at the same time … gives us comforting assurance that home is in very capable hands. While we’re here, we need You here. But it’s also a blessing to know that You’re there. Lord, as we’re cognizant of Your omnipresence, keep us reminded of Your omniscience…Your knowledge (Hebrew 4:13) and Your omnipotence…Your power (Revelation 19:6.) Not only are You with us, wherever we are, but You know exactly what we need, and You have the power to provide every solution. Yet, the most blessed thought of all…the one we can truly put our trust in, is that Your love is guiding all that You do for us. Help us in these days, to walk in the reality of these truths. I come to You in the name of the greatest expression of Your love…in the name of Jesus. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Susan Wagle.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, These are the days that our faith is being tested. We need the faith that can move mountains. We need the giant killing kind of faith that David had. We need the internal braces of faith to withstand the stress of the external pressures. But sometimes Lord, when trouble keeps hanging on, it feels like our faith is just gone. In Hebrews 11:6, You said, without faith, it would be impossible to please You. And there are those of us with a shortage of faith. Your Word also says, Hebrews 12:2, that You are the Author and Finisher of our faith. So, through Your gracious intervention, meet each of us at the point of our need for more faith. Like You did with Enoch, in Genesis 5:22-24, give us faith enough to come to You. Then give us faith enough to stay and walk with You. And when our work down here is done, help us do like they did back in the old days. When you enjoyed the company of a friend, and didn’t want it to end, you’d walk them home. That’s our ultimate desire Lord. When it’s all over down here, and You’ve kept us company each step of the way, we look forward to walking home with You. In Jesus name. Amen

As used in this section, "capitalized interest" means interest payments on the bonds that are pre-funded or financed from bond proceeds as part of the issue for a specified period of time in order to offset one or more initial debt service payments.

(2) On and after the effective date of this act, notwithstanding the employer rate of contribution determined under K.S.A. 74-4920(1)(a), and amendments thereto, and subsection (1), the employer rate of contribution for employees covered by this section shall be 8.65% expressed as a percentage of compensation for payroll periods chargeable to the last six months of the fiscal year ending June 30, 2015.

Sec. 12.  K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 74-4920, as amended by section 3 of 2015 Senate Bill
No. 228, is hereby amended to read as follows: 74-4920.  (1) (a) Upon the basis of each annual actuarial valuation and appraisal as provided for in K.S.A. 74-4908(3)(a), and amendments thereto, the board shall certify, on or before July 15 of each year, to the division of the budget in the case of the state and to the agent for each other participating employer an actuarially determined estimate of the rate of contribution which will be required, together with all accumulated contributions and other assets of the system, to be paid by each such participating employer to pay all liabilities which shall exist or accrue under the system, including amortization of the actuarial accrued liability as determined by the board. The board shall determine the actuarial cost method to be used in annual actuarial valuations, to determine the employer contribution rates that shall be certified by the board. Such certified rate of contribution, amortization methods and periods and actuarial cost method shall be based on the standards set forth in K.S.A. 74-4908(3)(a), and amendments thereto, and shall not be based on any other purpose outside of the needs of the system.

(b) (i) For employers affiliating on and after January 1, 1999, upon the basis of an annual actuarial valuation and appraisal of the system conducted in the manner provided for in K.S.A. 74-4908, and amendments thereto, the board shall certify, on or before July 15 of each year to each such employer an actuarially determined estimate of the rate of contribution which shall be required to be paid by each such employer to pay all of the liabilities which shall accrue under the system from and after the entry date as determined by the board, upon recommendation of the actuary. Such rate shall be termed the employer's participating service contribution and shall be uniform for all participating employers. Such additional liability shall be amortized as determined by the board. For all participating employers described in this section, the board shall determine the actuarial cost method to be used in annual actuarial valuations to determine the employer contribution rates that shall be certified by the board.

(ii) The board shall determine for each such employer separately an amount sufficient to amortize all liabilities for prior service costs which shall have accrued at the time of entry into the system. On the basis of such determination the board shall annually certify to each such employer separately an actuarially determined estimate of the rate of contribution which shall be required to be paid by that employer to pay all of the liabilities for such prior service costs. Such rate shall be termed the employer's prior service contribution.

(2) The division of the budget and the governor shall include in the budget and in the budget request for appropriations for personal services the sum required to satisfy the state's obligation under this act as certified by the board and shall present the same to the legislature for allowance and appropriation.

(3) Each other participating employer shall appropriate and pay to the system a sum sufficient to satisfy the obligation under this act as certified by the board.

(4) Each participating employer is hereby authorized to pay the employer's contribution from the same fund that the compensation for which such contribution is made is paid from or from any other funds available to it for such purpose. Each political subdivision, other than an instrumentality of the state, which is by law authorized to levy taxes for other purposes, may levy annually at the time of its levy of taxes, a tax which may be in addition to all other taxes authorized by law for the purpose of making its contributions under this act and, in the case of cities and counties, to pay a portion of the principal and interest on bonds issued under the authority of K.S.A. 12-1774, and amendments thereto, by cities located in the county, which tax, together with any other fund available, shall be sufficient to enable it to make such contribution. In lieu of levying the tax authorized in this subsection, any taxing subdivision may pay such costs from any employee benefits contribution fund established pursuant to K.S.A. 12-16,102, and amendments thereto. Each participating employer which is not by law authorized to levy taxes as described above, but which prepares a budget for its expenses for the ensuing year and presents the same to a governing body which is authorized by law to levy taxes as described above, may include in its budget an amount sufficient to make its contributions under this act which may be in addition to all other taxes authorized by law. Such governing body to which the budget is submitted for approval, may levy a tax sufficient to allow the participating employer to make its contributions under this act, which tax, together with any other fund available, shall be sufficient to enable the participating employer to make the contributions required by this act.

(5) (a) The rate of contribution certified to a participating employer as provided in this section shall apply during the fiscal year of the participating employer which begins in the second calendar year following the year of the actuarial valuation.

(b) (i) Except as specifically provided in this section, for fiscal years commencing in calendar year 1996 and in each subsequent calendar year, the rate of contribution certified to the state of Kansas shall in no event exceed the state's contribution rate for the immediately preceding fiscal year by more than 0.2% of the amount of compensation upon which members contribute during the period.

(ii) Except as specifically provided in this subsection, for the fiscal years commencing in the following calendar years, the rate of contribution certified to the state of Kansas and to the participating employers under K.S.A. 74-4931, and amendments thereto, shall in no event exceed the state's contribution rate for the immediately preceding fiscal year by more than the following amounts expressed as a percentage of compensation upon which members contribute during the period: (A) For the fiscal year commencing in calendar years 2010 through 2012, an amount not to exceed more than 0.6% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year; (B) for the fiscal year commencing in calendar year 2013, an amount not to exceed more than 0.9% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year; (C) for the fiscal year commencing in calendar year 2014, an amount not to exceed more than 1% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year; (D) for the fiscal year commencing in calendar year 2015, the employer rate of contribution shall be 10.91%, except that if bonds issued pursuant to section 1 of 2015 Senate Bill No. 228, and amendments thereto, have debt service payments that are fully or partially financed through the use of capitalized interest, or have capitalized interest-only debt service payments, the employer rate of contribution shall be an amount not to exceed more than 1.1% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year; (E) for the fiscal year commencing in calendar year 2016, the employer rate of contribution shall be 10.81%, except that if bonds issued pursuant to section 1 of 2015 Senate Bill No. 228, and amendments thereof, have debt service payments that are fully or partially financed through the use of capitalized interest, or have capitalized interest-only debt service payments, the employer rate of contribution shall be an amount not to exceed more than 1.2% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year; and (F) in each subsequent calendar year, an amount not to exceed more than 1.2% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year, without regard to the rate of employer contribution in subsection (17). As used in this subsection, "capitalized interest" means interest payments on the bonds that are pre-funded or financed from bond proceeds as part of the issue for a specified period of time in order to offset one or more initial debt service payments.

(iii) Except as specifically provided in this section, for fiscal years commencing in calendar year 1997 and in each subsequent calendar year, the rate of contribution certified to participating employers other than the state of Kansas shall in no event exceed such participating employer's contribution rate for the immediately preceding fiscal year by more than 0.15% of the amount of compensation upon which members contribute during the period.

(iv) Except as specifically provided in this subsection, for the fiscal years commencing in the following calendar years, the rate of contribution certified to participating employers other than the state of Kansas shall in no event exceed the contribution rate for such employers for the immediately preceding fiscal year by more than the following amounts expressed as a percentage of compensation upon which members contribute during the period: (A) For the fiscal year commencing in calendar years 2010 through 2013, an amount not to exceed more than 0.6% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year; (B) for the fiscal year commencing in calendar year 2014, an amount not to exceed more than 0.9% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year; (C) for the fiscal year commencing in calendar year 2015, an amount not to exceed more than 1% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year; (D) for the fiscal year commencing in calendar year 2016, an amount not to exceed more than 1.1% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year; and (E) for the fiscal year commencing in calendar year 2017, and in each subsequent calendar year, an amount not to exceed more than 1.2% of the amount of the immediately preceding fiscal year.

(v) As part of the annual actuarial valuation, there shall be a separate employer rate of contribution calculated for the state of Kansas, a separate employer rate of contribution calculated for participating employers under K.S.A. 74-4931, and amendments thereto, a combined employer rate of contribution calculated for the state of Kansas and participating employers under K.S.A. 74-4931, and amendments thereto, and a separate employer rate of contribution calculated for all other participating employers.

(vi) There shall be a combined employer rate of contribution certified to the state of Kansas and participating employers under K.S.A. 74-4931, and amendments thereto. There shall be a separate employer rate of contribution certified to all other participating employers.

(vii) If the combined employer rate of contribution calculated for the state of Kansas and participating employers under K.S.A. 74-4931, and amendments thereto, is greater than the separate employer rate of contribution for the state of Kansas, the difference in the two rates applied to the actual payroll of the state of Kansas for the applicable fiscal year shall be calculated. This amount shall be certified by the board for deposit as additional employer contributions to the retirement benefit accumulation reserve for the participating employers under K.S.A. 74-4931, and amendments thereto.

(6) The actuarial cost of any legislation enacted in the 1994 session of the Kansas legislature will be included in the June 30, 1994, actuarial valuation in determining contribution rates for participating employers.

(7) The actuarial cost of the provisions of K.S.A. 74-4950i, and amendments thereto, will be included in the June 30, 1998, actuarial valuation in determining contribution rates for participating employers. The actuarial accrued liability incurred for the provisions of K.S.A. 74-4950i, and amendments thereto, shall be amortized over 15 years.

(8) Except as otherwise provided by law, the actuarial cost of any legislation enacted by the Kansas legislature, except the actuarial cost of K.S.A. 74-49,114a, and amendments thereto, shall be in addition to the employer contribution rates certified for the employer contribution rate in the fiscal year immediately following such enactment. Such actuarial cost shall be determined by the qualified actuary employed or retained by the system pursuant to K.S.A. 74-4908, and amendments thereto, and reported to the system and the joint committee on pensions, investments and benefits.

(9) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (8), the actuarial cost of the provisions of K.S.A. 74-49,109 et seq., and amendments thereto, shall be first reflected in employer contribution rates effective with the first day of the first payroll period for the fiscal year 2005. The actuarial accrued liability incurred for the provisions of K.S.A. 74-49,109 et seq., and amendments thereto, shall be amortized over 10 years.

(10) The cost of the postretirement benefit payment provided pursuant to the provisions of K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 74-49,114b, and amendments thereto, for retirees other than local retirees as described in subsection (11) or insured disability benefit recipients shall be paid in the fiscal year commencing on July 1, 2007.

(11) The actuarial accrued liability incurred for the provisions of K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 74-49,114b, and amendments thereto, for the KPERS local group and retirees who were employees of local employers which affiliated with the Kansas police and firemen's retirement system shall be amortized over 10 years.

(12) The cost of the postretirement benefit payment provided pursuant to the provisions of K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 74-49,114c, and amendments thereto, for retirees other than local retirees as described in subsection (13) or insured disability benefit recipients shall be paid in the fiscal year commencing on July 1, 2008.

(13) The actuarial accrued liability incurred for the provisions of K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 74-49,114c, and amendments thereto, for the KPERS local group and retirees who were employees of local employers which affiliated with the Kansas police and firemen's retirement system shall be amortized over 10 years.

(14) The board with the advice of the actuary may fix the contribution rates for participating employers joining the system after one year from the first entry date or for employers who exercise the option contained in K.S.A. 74-4912, and amendments thereto, at rates different from the rate fixed for employers joining within one year of the first entry date.

(15) Employer contributions shall in no way be limited by any other act which now or in the future establishes or limits the compensation of any member.

(16) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, each participating employer shall remit quarterly, or as the board may otherwise provide, all employee deductions and required employer contributions to the executive director for credit to the Kansas public employees retirement fund within three days after the end of the period covered by the remittance by electronic funds transfer. Remittances of such deductions and contributions received after such date are delinquent. Delinquent payments due under this subsection shall be subject to interest at the rate established for interest on judgments under K.S.A. 16-204(a), and amendments thereto. At the request of the board, delinquent payments which are due or interest owed on such payments, or both, may be deducted from any other moneys payable to such employer by any department or agency of the state.

(17) On and after the effective date of this act, notwithstanding the employer rate of contribution determined under subsection (1)(a), for the state of Kansas and participating employers under K.S.A. 74-4931, and amendments thereto, the employer rate of contribution for the state of Kansas and participating employers under K.S.A. 74-4931, and amendments thereto, shall be 8.65% expressed as a percentage of compensation for payroll periods chargeable to the last six months of the fiscal year ending June 30, 2015.

No patient who is such a mentally ill person, in the opinion of the commissioner of mental health and developmental disabilities, that because of such patient's illness such patient is likely to injure themselves or others, shall be so transferred to such Kansas soldiers' home, and no such patient shall be so transferred if such transfer will deny admission to persons entitled to admission under K.S.A. 76-1908, and amendments thereto, and rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. Persons so transferred shall not be considered as members of the Kansas soldiers' home but shall be considered as patients therein.

(b) All of the laws, rules and regulations relating to patients in the above-specified state hospitals and mental health facility shall be applicable to such patients so transferred insofar as the same can be made applicable. Any patient so transferred who is found to be or shall become such a mentally ill person, in the opinion of the commissioner of mental health and developmental disabilities, that because of such patient's illness such patient is likely to injure themselves or others or who is determined to need additional psychiatric treatment, shall be retransferred by the superintendent of the Kansas soldiers' home, with the approval of the commissioner of mental health and developmental disabilities and the director of the Kansas commission on veterans affairs office, to the institution from whence the patient was originally transferred.

Sec. 15. K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 79-1609 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-1609. Any person aggrieved by any order of the hearing officer or panel, or by the classification and appraisal of an independent appraiser, as provided in K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 79-5b03, and amendments thereto, may appeal to the state board of tax appeals by filing a written notice of appeal, on forms approved by the state board of tax appeals and provided by the county clerk for such purpose, stating the grounds thereof and a description of any comparable property or properties and the appraisal thereof upon which they rely as evidence of inequality of the appraisal of their property, if that be a ground of the appeal, with the state board of tax appeals and by filing a copy thereof with the county clerk within 30 days after the date of the order from which the appeal is taken. The notice of appeal may be signed by the taxpayer, any person with an executed declaration of representative form from the property valuation division of the department of revenue or any person authorized to represent the taxpayer in subsection (f) of K.S.A. 74-2433(f), and amendments thereto. A county or district appraiser may appeal to the state board of tax appeals from any order of the hearing officer or panel. With regard to any matter properly submitted to the board relating to the determination of valuation of residential property or real property used for commercial and industrial purposes for taxation purposes, it shall be the duty of the county appraiser to initiate the production of evidence to demonstrate, by a preponderance of the evidence, the validity and correctness of such determination. With regard to leased commercial and industrial property, the burden of proof shall be on the taxpayer unless, within 30 calendar days following the informal meeting required by K.S.A. 79-1448, and amendments thereto, the taxpayer furnished to the county or district appraiser a complete income and expense statement for the property for the three years next preceding the year of appeal. Such income and expense statement shall be in such format that is regularly maintained by the taxpayer in the ordinary course of the taxpayer's business. If the taxpayer submits a single property appraisal with an effective date of January 1 of the year appealed, the burden of proof shall return to the county appraiser.

Sec. 16. K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 79-1703 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-1703. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b) or as otherwise provided by law, no board of county commissioners or other officer of any county shall have power to release, discharge or remit any portion of the taxes assessed or levied against any person or property within their respective jurisdictions for any reason whatever. Any taxes so discharged, released or remitted may be recovered by civil action from the members of the board of county commissioners or such other officer and the sureties of their official bonds at the suit of the attorney general, the county attorney, or of any citizen of the county or the board of education of any school district a part of the territory of which is in such county, as the case may be, and when collected shall be paid into the county treasury to be properly apportioned and paid to the county, municipalities, school districts and other taxing subdivisions entitled thereto. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prohibit a board of county commissioners from entering into an agreement whereby the board agrees to pay the full amount of the taxes assessed or levied against any person or property on behalf of such person, as long as such amount is properly apportioned and paid to the county, municipalities, school districts and other taxing subdivisions entitled to a portion of such amount.

(b) In the event a person, partnership or corporation has failed to pay any portion of the taxes assessed or levied against its property located within any county and such person, partnership or corporation is a debtor in an action filed pursuant to the United States bankruptcy code, the county commissioners of any such county may compromise, assign, transfer or otherwise settle such tax claim in such fashion as the commissioners deem to be in the best interest of the state and all taxing subdivisions affected thereby, subject to approval by the state court board of tax appeals; except that, the state and each other taxing subdivision affected by any such settlement shall receive the same proportional share of its respective tax claim. The state court board of tax appeals shall respond to such settlement request within 30 days from the date of receiving such request or such request shall be deemed approved.

Sec. 17. Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, The time and energy spent during this legislative session has set a record. People are talking about the fact that never before has the legislature taken this long to come together. But let the record reflect something even more significant; that the time and energy spent here, was used by You, in accomplishing Your purposes, in addressing the needs of the people. Reward these servants for what they have done and are still doing to make this place a better place. Please reward them and all those who serve in these chambers, for the ways in which they have sacrificed. Reward them for suffering through the criticisms, the snubs, the ridicule and rejection. Then out of all of that, as it says in James 1:2-4, Lord, make them stronger and better, rather than weaker and bitter. Remind all of us again, of what You said in 1 Corinthians 15:58, that our labor is not in vain, when it’s in You, and by Your guidance. In the name of Jesus, thank You for hearing this prayer. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Jeff King.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
The President introduced Pastor Thomas Jackson, Associate Minister at New Beginning Baptist Church in Topeka, who delivered the invocation:

You Lord, giver, protector, provider, and sustainer of all who are represented here and to all that each of our fragile lives are so valuably connected to. Allow us to not think too highly of ourselves while governing in our high positions nor think that we are out of Your reach. LORD God, I thank You for these men and women of influence and from this very moment, will allow You to search their hearts, guide their minds, and influence their souls, in order that the decisions be of one accord and come not from them only but from You. Allow us all together, to drop the pedal of influence here in the State of Kansas that will cause a ripple effect that is felt through the people, through the nation, and through this world. LORD God, let not the efforts of these great men and women of influence be accomplished in vain. We pray that our collective prayers can accomplish what is set before us and within the time You have freely given us. Teach us, Oh Heavenly Father, and lend us Your touch, Your guidance, Your influence, that when our decisions are made, we will know that they came not of our own strength, our own power, our own wisdom but ultimately came from the All Wise, All Knowing, and All Loving God.....You. We love You and we need You every minute, every hour, everyday. May this be our prayer, in the name of our faithful Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen

(b) During the entire tax year a taxpayer filing single, head of household, or married filing separate, or the taxpayer and the taxpayer's spouse if married filing jointly, must be domiciled in this state. For purposes of this credit, "domicile" shall not include any correctional facility, or portion thereof, as defined in K.S.A. 75-5202, and amendments thereto, any juvenile correctional facility, or portion thereof, as defined in K.S.A. 38-2302, and amendments thereto, any correctional facility of the federal bureau of prisons located in the state of Kansas, or any city or county jail facility in the state of Kansas.

(c) During the entire tax year a taxpayer filing single, head of household, or married filing separate, or the taxpayer and the taxpayer's spouse if married filing jointly, must be either: (1) A person having a disability, regardless of age; (2) a person without a disability who is 55 years of age or older; or (3) a person without a disability who is younger than 55 years of age who claims an exemption for one or more dependent children under 18 years of age.

(d) The amount of the credit shall be $125 for every exemption claimed on the taxpayer's federal income tax return, except that no exemption shall be counted for a dependent unless the dependent is a child under 18 years of age.

(e) The credit allowed under this provision shall be applied against the taxpayer's income tax liability after all other credits allowed under the income tax act. It shall not be refundable and may not be carried forward.

(f) (1) Every taxpayer claiming the credit shall supply the division in support of a claim, reasonable proof of domicile, age and disability.

(2) A claim alleging disability shall be supported by a report of the examining physician of the claimant with a statement or certificate that the applicant has a disability as defined in subsection (g).

(g) "Disability" means: (1) Inability to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than 12 months, and an individual shall be determined to be under a disability only if the physical or mental impairment or impairments are of such severity that the individual is not only unable to do the individual's previous work but cannot, considering age, education and work experience, engage in any other kind of substantial gainful work which exists in the national economy, regardless of whether such work

(a) Without a majority vote so providing, the governing body of any municipality shall not approve any appropriation or budget, as the case requires, which may be funded by revenue produced from property taxes, and which provides for funding with such revenue in an amount exceeding that of the next preceding year, adjusted to reflect changes in the consumer price index for all urban consumers as published by the United States department of labor for the preceding calendar year. If the total tangible property valuation in any municipality increases from the next preceding year due to increases in the assessed valuation of existing tangible property and such increase exceeds changes in the consumer price index, the governing body shall lower the amount of ad valorem tax to be levied to the amount of ad valorem tax levied in the next preceding year, adjusted to reflect changes in the consumer price index. This subsection shall not apply to ad valorem taxes levied under K.S.A. 76-6b01 and 76-6b04 and section 11 of 2015 House Substitute for Senate Bill No. 7, and amendments thereto, and any other ad valorem tax levy which was previously approved by the voters of such municipality. Except as provided in subsection (g), notwithstanding the requirements of this subsection, nothing herein shall prohibit a municipality from increasing the amount of ad valorem tax to be levied if the municipality approves the increase with a majority vote of the governing body by the adoption of a resolution and publishes such vote as provided in subsection (c).

(c) In the event the governing body votes to approve any appropriation or budget, as the case requires, which may be funded by revenue produced from property taxes, and which provides for funding with such revenue in an amount exceeding that of the next preceding year as provided in subsection (a), notice of such vote shall be published in the official county newspaper of the county where such municipality is located.

(d) The provisions of this section shall be applicable to all fiscal and budget years commencing on and after the effective date of this act.

(e) The provisions of this section shall not apply to revenue received from property tax levied for the sole purpose of repayment of the principal of and interest upon bonded indebtedness, temporary notes and no-fund warrants.

(f) For purposes of this section, "municipality" means any political subdivision of the state which levies an ad valorem tax on property and includes, but is not limited to, any county, township, municipal university, school district, community college, drainage district or other taxing district. "Municipality" shall not include any such political subdivision or taxing district which receives $1,000 or less in revenue from property taxes in the current year.

The election shall be called and held at the next regularly scheduled election in the manner provided by K.S.A. 10-120, and amendments thereto, at the next regularly scheduled election to be held in August or November, or may be a mail ballot election, conducted in accordance with K.S.A. 25-431 et seq., and amendments thereto, or may be a special election called by the city or county. Nothing in this subsection shall prevent any city or county from holding more than one election in any year.

(2) A resolution by the governing body of a city or county otherwise required by the provisions of this section shall not be required to be approved by an election required by subsection (g)(1) under the following circumstances:

(A) The increase in the amount of ad valorem tax to be levied that is greater than the change in the consumer price index is due to:

(i) Costs for new infrastructure or improvements to existing infrastructure to support new improvements to property exempt from property taxation pursuant to the provisions of K.S.A. 79-201 et seq., and amendments thereto, such as hospitals, schools and churches, or exempt additions to or improvements to property so exempt from property taxation;

(ii) Bond and interest payments;

(iii) An increase in property subject to taxation as the result of the expiration of any abatement of property from property tax;

(iv) Increases in road construction costs when such construction has been once approved by a resolution of the governing body of the city or county;

(v) Special assessments;

(vi) Judgments levied against the city or county or expenses for legal counsel and for defense of legal actions against the city or county or officers of the city or county;
(vii) new expenditures that are specifically mandated by federal or state law; or (viii) an increase in property subject to taxation as the result of new construction;
(B) the assessed valuation has declined in one or more of the next preceding three calendar years and the increase in the amount of funding for the budget or appropriation from revenue produced from property taxes does not exceed the average amount of funding from such revenue of the next preceding three calendar years, adjusted to reflect changes in the consumer price index for all urban consumers as published by the United States department of labor for the preceding calendar year; or
(C) the increase in the amount of ad valorem tax to be levied is less than the change in the consumer price index plus the loss of assessed property valuation that has occurred as the result of legislative action, judicial action or a ruling by the board of tax appeals.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: I vote "No" on H Sub SB 270. A Sales Tax increase may not hurt some. However, it will hurt the poor and Seniors on fixed incomes. It will also hurt the working class as prices on goods continue to rise. Although, most incomes will stay the same, I can not vote for a bill to balance the budget on the backs of the poor.—OLETHA FAUST-GOUDEAU

Senators Francisco, Haley, Hawk, Holland and Pettey request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Faust-Goudeau on H Sub SB 270.
Mr. Vice-President: I want to fund the courts, education, infrastructure and social services, however H Sub SB 270 along with S Sub HB 2109, rather than raise revenue for services, raise sales taxes to make up for the billion dollar loss in revenue from the 2012 income tax cuts and the exemptions for non-wage business income that included many business owners who live out of state. Some revenue increase estimates are questionable (a short tax amnesty period, a tax on “guaranteed payments” that can be avoided by redefining payments, no assurance that sales will hold up and a loss from the late date in passing the bill) so there may be additional cuts beyond $50 million shortfall already included in the profile next year along with the possibility of more cuts or taxes in the future, especially with the “ratchet”. Some things seem unfair. Sales taxes are regressive. There is no reduction in sales tax on food to offset the increases in sales and cigarette taxes. An individual reporting $5,000 in taxable income will not pay any Kansas income tax while an individual who reports from $5,001 to $5,050 will pay $136, ending up with less in their pocket. The limitations on deductions will only affect higher income tax filers who itemize but it will mean some taxpayers will pay twice on half of their property taxes. The elimination of tax on business income means farmers, ranchers, and landlords cannot deduct depreciation or their losses. I do not want to hinder city and county governments with a property tax lid; I do not want to expand a private school scholarship program when we are underfunding our public schools. I want tax policy that is fair, balanced, and stable. For me, this proposal does not meet that test.—Marcy Francisco

Senators Hawk, Holland and Pettey request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Francisco on H Sub SB 270.

Mr. Vice President: I vote "No" on the conference committee report on H Sub SB 270. The people of Kansas have been paying very close attention to this, way overtime, record “Veto Session” debate on tax increases and the annual budget. Threats of furloughs, of decreasing education and services have punctuated and resonated with them and increasing the already high tax burden on average and low income earners (especially when over 300,000 of top income earners continue completely immune from income tax liability) has struck a major chord with the public. As articulate and reasonable as those who voted for this bill sound here in the Senate chamber and earlier, perhaps, in the House, Mr. Vice-President, should you, or they, decide to run for re-election next year in 2016, I wish you the very best in trying to explain this terrible, regressive, expensive and deceptive vote to the majority in your District. Good luck. It will take longer with them than it has here. I’ll sure miss serving with a lot of you. Again, I vote “No.”—David Haley

Mr. Vice President: I vote “No” on H Sub SB 270, as I did on its ugly companion S Sub HB 2109. In this longest legislative session in state history, we debated Governor Brownback’s 2012 economic experiment that he imposed on the people of Kansas. His experiment is a complete and abject failure. It has resulted in no meaningful job growth, the continued raiding of our highway fund, and the depletion of our general fund of needed resources to finance our schools, public safety and services for our most vulnerable citizens. Through it all, Sam Brownback steadfastly refused to admit his failure and reconsider his income tax cuts to resolve a $400 million self-inflicted budget crisis. I oppose the largest tax increase on low and middle income wage earners in state history, while 330,000 business people pay nothing. I also oppose allowing Brownback’s income tax “glide path to zero” to continue which will result in never again adequately funding essential government services. The Republican legislators who support this bill are foisting on the people of Kansas the highest, most regressive sales tax on food in the nation. I reject the Brownback tax philosophy of “Robin Hood in Reverse,” robbing the poor to benefit the rich.—ANTHONY HENSLEY

Senators Holland, Kelly and Petey request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hensley on H Sub SB 270.

On motion of Senator Bruce, the Senate recessed until the sound of the gavel.

The Senate met pursuant to recess with President Wagle in the chair.

The roll was called with 36 senators present.
Senators LaTurner, Longbine, Love and Lynn were excused.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, We’re gathering here to finally conclude the longest legislative session we’ve ever experienced. We’ve realized some trying times but it’s also been a time for learning. One of the things we’ve had to learn Master, is patience. But we couldn’t learn this quality of character by reading and writing about it. You said, in Romans 5:3, that difficulties...trying times produce patience. So, Lord You’ve been using our problems to provide “on the job training” for our character development. And it’s been similar to learning how to drive a car or bake a cake, we can’t just read about it. We have to experience it. And Lord, we have experienced You, pulling us through. We’re learning to endure. We’re coming to know that being patient and learning how to endure means we do all we can, within our power, but then look to You for the results. Help us Lord, to accept difficult situations that You allow, without trying to give You a deadline to remove them. Well, we didn’t get everything we wanted during this session, but we never really do. And in fact, we never really will until we come to be with You. So keep us ever aware that while we’re here on this side of Heaven, there will be struggles. There will be difficulties. There will be tensions. As we now prepare for sine die...as we prepare to adjourn and depart to our various destinations, keep us mindful of our ultimate destination. After all is said and done, bring us home to be with You where there’ll be no sine die. Thank You Lord, for hearing this prayer. In the precious name of Jesus. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Susan Wagle.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

SB 206 approved on June 12, 2015.
SB 270 approved on June 16, 2015.
June 16, 2015
Message to the Legislature of the State of Kansas

I want to thank every member of the Kansas Legislature for their hard work during the 2015 Session. I greatly appreciate their efforts to control spending by addressing our three expenditure drivers: education, Medicaid, and KPERS. This two-year budget will continue to fund the core services of state government to July 1, 2017. I will work to find efficiencies to limit the size of state government while protecting core services vital to the citizens of Kansas.

Pursuant to Article 2, Section 14 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I hereby return House Substitute for Senate Bill No. 112 with my signature approving the bill, except for the items enumerated below.

Kansas Board of Regents
SGF Transfer to Postsecondary Education Performance – Based Incentives Fund

The Board of Regents offered as a line-item veto – and I have vetoed – approximately $1.9 million in unspent funding in both FY 16 and 17 from a post-secondary education performance-based incentives fund.

Sections 142(f) and 143(f) are vetoed in their entirety.

This new program grants funds to postsecondary institutions for the GED Accelerator for students who wish to complete their GED and receive an educational accreditation. The FY 2015 transfer of $1.9 million from the State General Fund will finance the program for several years. Therefore, the transfer can be suspended in FY 2016 and FY 2017 to preserve State General Fund resources.

Governor

"Section 1. K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 79-2925b, as amended by section 2 of 2015 House Substitute for Senate Bill No. 270, is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-2925b. (a)
Without a majority vote so providing, the governing body of any municipality shall not approve any appropriation or budget, as the case requires, which may be funded by revenue produced from property taxes, and which provides for funding with such revenue in an amount exceeding that of the next preceding year, adjusted to reflect changes in the consumer price index for all urban consumers as published by the United States department of labor for the preceding calendar year. If the total tangible property valuation in any municipality increases from the next preceding year due to increases in the assessed valuation of existing tangible property and such increase exceeds changes in the consumer price index, the governing body shall lower the amount of ad valorem tax to be levied to the amount of ad valorem tax levied in the next preceding year, adjusted to reflect changes in the consumer price index. This subsection shall not apply to ad valorem taxes levied under K.S.A. 76-6b01 and 76-6b04 and section 11 of 2015 House Substitute for Senate Bill No. 7, and amendments thereto, and any other ad valorem tax levy which was previously approved by the voters of such municipality. Except as provided in subsection (g), notwithstanding the requirements of this subsection, nothing herein shall prohibit a municipality from increasing the amount of ad valorem tax to be levied if the municipality approves the increase with a majority vote of the governing body by the adoption of a resolution and publishes such vote as provided in subsection (c).

(b) Revenue that, in the current year, is produced and attributable to the taxation of:
   (1) New improvements to real property;
   (2) increased personal property valuation, other than increased valuation of oil and gas leaseholds and mobile homes;
   (3) property located within added jurisdictional territory; or
   (4) property which has changed in use shall not be considered when determining whether revenue produced from property has increased from the next preceding year.

(c) In the event the governing body votes to approve any appropriation or budget, as the case requires, which may be funded by revenue produced from property taxes, and which provides for funding with such revenue in an amount exceeding that of the next preceding year as provided in subsection (a), notice of such vote shall be published in the official county newspaper of the county where such municipality is located.

(d) The provisions of this section shall be applicable to all fiscal and budget years commencing on and after the effective date of this act.

(e) The provisions of this section shall not apply to revenue received from property tax levied for the sole purpose of repayment of the principal of and interest upon bonded indebtedness, temporary notes and no-fund warrants.

(f) For purposes of this section, "municipality" means any political subdivision of the state which levies an ad valorem tax on property and includes, but is not limited to, any county, township, municipal university, school district, community college, drainage district or other taxing district. "Municipality" shall not include any such political subdivision or taxing district which receives $1,000 or less in revenue from property taxes in the current year.

(g) On and after January 1, 2018: (1) In the case of cities and counties, any resolution by the governing body otherwise required by this section to adopt any appropriation or budget which provides for funding by property tax revenue in an amount exceeding that of the next preceding year as adjusted pursuant to subsection (a) to reflect changes in the consumer price index, shall not become effective unless such resolution has been submitted to and approved by a majority of the qualified electors of the city or county voting at an election called and held thereon, except as otherwise provided. The election shall be called and held in the manner provided by K.S.A. 10-120, and amendments thereto, at the next regularly scheduled election to be held in August or November, or may be a mail ballot election, conducted in accordance with K.S.A. 25-431 et seq., and amendments thereto, or may be a special election called by the city or county. Nothing in this subsection shall prevent any city or county from holding more than one election in any year.

(2) A resolution by the governing body of a city or county otherwise required by the provisions of this section shall not be required to be approved by an election required by subsection (g)(1) under the following circumstances:

(A) The increase in the amount of ad valorem tax to be levied that is greater than the change in the consumer price index is due to:

(i) Costs for new infrastructure or improvements to existing infrastructure to support new improvements to property exempt from property taxation pursuant to the provisions of K.S.A. 79-201 et seq., and amendments thereto, such as hospitals, schools and churches, or exempt additions to or improvements to property so exempt from property taxation;

(ii) bond and interest payments;

(iii) an increase in property subject to taxation as the result of the expiration of any abatement of property from property tax;

(iv) increases in road construction costs when such construction has been once approved by a resolution of the governing body of the city or county;

(v) special assessments;

(vi) judgments levied against the city or county or expenses for legal counsel and for defense of legal actions against the city or county or officers of the city or county;

(vii) new expenditures that are specifically mandated by federal or state law; or

(viii) an increase in property subject to taxation as the result of new construction;

(B) the assessed valuation has declined in one or more of the next preceding three calendar years and the increase in the amount of funding for the budget or appropriation from revenue produced from property taxes does not exceed the average amount of funding from such revenue of the next preceding three calendar years, adjusted to reflect changes in the consumer price index for all urban consumers as published by the United States department of labor for the preceding calendar year; or

(C) the increase in the amount of ad valorem tax to be levied is less than the change in the consumer price index plus the loss of assessed property valuation that has occurred as the result of legislative action, judicial action or a ruling by the board of tax appeals.
