EIGHTY-SIXTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 120 members present.

Reps. Aurand, Barker, Pittman and Sutton were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Present later: Rep. Pittman.

Due to the death of Rep. Terrell, District #102, the House is now organized with 124 members.

Prayer by Rep. Phelps:

Almighty God,
today as we go about our business,
and remember Representative Patsy Terrell,
her family and many friends,
help us to think on these things:
what is true, what is noble,
what is reputable, what is authentic,
what is compelling, what is gracious.
Help us to think the best, not the worst;
the beautiful, not the ugly.
Help us to think of things to praise,
not things to curse.
Whatever we have seen, received or heard
from You and Your Word,
help us to put into practice.
In Christ's Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Judd-Jenkins.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The following remarks of Speaker Ryckman are spread upon the Journal:

Colleagues,

I want to make a few remarks about the heartbreaking loss of Representative Patsy Terrell. It is such a shock to see the reminder of her loss with her empty seat on the floor today.

It seems fitting to use her own words from her Facebook page, as she was a great communicator to her constituents, especially on social media. Her intro reads: I read, write, paint, think, create, repeat.

Representative Terrell was indeed full of creativity, extremely thoughtful, and had a bright personality.

She will be greatly missed by this legislative body, and the people of the 102nd District, and more importantly all of those around the state that have been inspired by her life.

We send our thoughts, prayers, and love to her family and friends during this difficult time.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The following remarks of Rep. Ward are spread upon the Journal:

In Memoriam Representative Patsy Terrell.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for providing me an opportunity to say a few words about our friend and colleague, Patsy Terrell.

First, I want to thank Governor Brownback for lowering the flags to half-mast in honor of her.

I met Patsy Terrell approximately 16 months ago at a local Italian Restaurant in downtown Hutchinson. She wore a bright green dress and a large jade brooch. We were there to talk about, in her words, a crazy idea of her becoming a state representative. If you have ever recruited a candidate you know there is a moment when you know have gotten them. Well I “got” Patsy that day. While it wasn’t official until after several more calls, I knew she would run after that first meeting. How? I saw it in her eyes when we talked about helping the people in her district through constituent services, helping people work through state government to get solutions, and getting people answers from state agencies. When we ended the meeting, she leaned over and gave me a look that said, “don’t bullshit me because I’ll know it if you do it,” and then she asked, “Do you think I can do it?” I said I did. And on November 8, 2016, she did.

The last time I talked with Patsy was on Tuesday evening as I prepared to leave the restaurant where several of us had gathered after the income tax reform override vote. Patsy arrived and came over and gave me a big hug, saying how proud she was to have been a part of such an historic night. She said how happy she was to be a legislator and her eyes were bright with excitement and pride.

Patsy was a regular user of social media, but she also loved the written word. During the time I knew her, I, like several of you, received numerous handwritten notes from her. The last one I received just a couple of weeks ago, after the Representative from Johnson County had his heart attack. The note said being a legislator is stressful and being leader is stressful, so please be sure to take care of yourself. That was Patsy. Always thinking of others and nurturing them.

She had incredible timing. She would stop by my office with an encouraging word at exactly the right moment, usually following a difficult caucus meeting or vigorous debate.

She was kind and generous and strong. A member of my caucus pointed out a quote from Patsy's Facebook page I wanted to share with you. To a friend she had written, "Things work out in the end, if it hasn't worked out – it's not the end." Well it's not the end, Patsy. We will carry on with your passion as we are not done.

I smile today because I know what Patsy is doing. She is in heaven, likely talking with John Kennedy, Ronald Reagan and Margaret Thatcher and she is telling them about the last day of her life. She is telling them about the important, historic work she did on that last day. I'm sure she is bragging about the amazing women in her bi-partisan group that had such a voice in the income tax reform bill. On several occasions, Patsy would stop by my office to share with me the brilliance of her colleagues in the women's group and how important their work was and the progress they were making. I can assure you Kennedy or Johnson are not getting a word in edgewise today.

To close, I want to read you a text Patsy sent me yesterday at 1:08 am. "I hope this doesn't wake you if your phone dings. I know you must feel so good. It feels so good to me. I am so glad I got to experience this – so very proud to be a tiny part of this moment." That will be my memory of Patsy – so proud to be a part of this moment.

Godspeed Patsy, you will be missed.

The members of the House observed a moment of silence in memory of Rep. Terrell.
