(a) There is hereby established the Kansas information technology and security consolidation commission. The commission shall study and make recommendations to the legislature whether executive branch information technology and security services should be consolidated.

(b) The Kansas information technology and security consolidation commission shall be composed of nine voting members as follows:

(1) Six at-large members appointed as follows: Two shall be appointed by the president of the senate, one shall be appointed by the minority leader of the senate, two shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives and one shall be appointed by the minority leader of the house of representatives; and

(2) three at-large members appointed by the governor.

(c) The speaker of the house of representatives shall designate the member to convene and organize the first meeting of the commission at which the commission shall elect a chairperson from among its voting members. Any vacancy in the membership of the commission shall be filled by appointment in the manner prescribed by this section for the original appointment.

(d) A majority of all voting members shall constitute a quorum. All actions of the commission shall be taken by a majority of all voting members of the commission.

(e) Members of the commission shall receive expenses, mileage and subsistence allowances as provided in K.S.A. 75-3223(e), and amendments thereto.

(f) The staff of the office of the revisor of statutes, the legislative research department and the division of legislative administrative services shall provide such assistance as may be requested by the task force.

(g) The commission shall submit a report to the legislature before the first day of the 2018 regular legislative session, with any findings and recommendations that the commission deems necessary. To carry out the recommendations of the commission, if necessary, one bill shall be introduced in the senate and one bill shall be introduced in the house of representatives during the 2018 regular legislative session. Such bills shall contain the exact same provisions.";
