The bill would require the Council to meet quarterly, at the call of the chairperson or upon request of a majority of the Council, and provide a quarterly report of its findings and recommendations to the Kansas Department of Wildlife, Parks and Tourism (KDWPT). The legislative member appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives would serve as the first chairperson of the Council and the legislative member appointed by the President of the Senate would serve as the first vice-chairperson. The positions of chairperson and vice-chairperson would alternate annually upon the first meeting of the Council each calendar year.

The bill would also require members of the Council to be appointed by August 1, 2018, and any vacancy on the Council would be filled by appointment in the same manner as the original appointment. Members of the Council would be appointed for terms not to exceed three years and, with the exception of the chairperson and vice-chairperson, would not serve more than two consecutive terms. The initial terms for the members would be staggered according to the provisions of the bill. In addition, legislative members of the Council would receive compensation amounts provided in current law, subject to approval by the Legislative Coordinating Council.

In addition, the bill would remove the Prairie Spirit Rail Trail State Park and the proposed Flint Hills Trail State Park from current setback requirements for swine confined animal feeding operations (CAFOs).

Finally, the bill would direct the KDWPT to carry out the requirements outlined in state law [KSA 58-3212(a)(1)-(a)(11)] regarding the duties of the responsible party, at all times, after a transfer of a deed for land or water recreational areas. This would apply to the state parks designated by the bill that are subject to federal law regarding interim use of railroad rights-of-way. Among the duties required to be performed by the responsible party are safety, accessibility, litter control, and law enforcement.

Background

The bill was introduced by the Senate Committee on Agriculture and Natural Resources at the request of a representative of KDWPT.

Representatives of Scott County; the cities of Council Grove, Osawatomie, and Ottawa; Dirty Kansas Promotions; the Topeka Community Cycle Project; the Topeka Metropolitan Transit Authority; and several private citizens submitted written-only proponent testimony. The proponents generally expressed support for protecting Kansas natural resources and providing areas for public recreational use.

A representative of the Kansas Farm Bureau testified as an opponent of the bill. The representative stated concerns about using state or federal funds for privately-owned land and possible future negative impacts on adjacent landowners. No neutral testimony was provided.

House Action

Opponent testimony was provided by representatives of the Kansas Farm Bureau, Kansas Livestock Association, and four private citizens who own land near or adjacent to the proposed Flint Hills Trail State Park. Written-only opponent testimony was submitted by two additional private citizens.

The House Committee amended the bill to establish the Council, remove the authority of the chairperson to appoint residents of an incorporated city, and allow those appointments to be made by the governing body of the respective county seat; require the Council to report quarterly to the KDWPT; and create an exception for CAFO setback requirements for swine facilities that could be expanded or built near the Prairie Spirit Rail Trail State Park in Franklin, Anderson, and Allen counties and the proposed Flint Hills Trail State Park.

The House Committee of the Whole amended the bill to clarify that KDWPT is to carry out the requirements outlined in state law regarding the duties of the responsible party at all times after a transfer of a deed for land or water recreational areas created by the bill, pursuant to federal law on railroad rights-of-way. In addition, the Council membership was amended to add one legislator from the Senate, designate a first chairperson and vice-chairperson, allow for the resident members to select designees, and exclude the vice-chairperson from the term limits set by the bill.
