

2017 Kansas Statutes

75-5952. Same; transfer of programs; administrative hearings and judicial proceedings. The secretary for children and families and the secretary for aging and disability services shall require their agents and employees to be equally available for preparation for and testimony in any administrative hearing of or judicial proceeding pertaining to the Kansas department for children and families or the Kansas department for aging and disability services and any program or service transferred under this act.

History: L. 1996, ch. 271, § 9; L. 2014, ch. 115, § 396; July 1.