10 matter stated, is hearsay evidence and inadmissible except:

11 (a) Previous statements of persons present. A statement previously 12 made by a person who is present at the hearing and available for cross-13 examination with respect to the statement and its subject matter, provided

16 (b) Affidavits. Affidavits, to the extent admissible by the statutes of 17 this state.

18 (c) Depositions and prior testimony. Subject to the same limitations

21 this state for use as testimony in the trial of the action in which offered; or 22 (2) if the judge finds that the declarant is unavailable as a witness at the 23 hearing, testimony given as a witness in another action or in a preliminary 24 hearing or former trial in the same action, or in a deposition taken in 25 compliance with law for use as testimony in the trial of another action, 26 when: (A) The testimony is offered against a party who offered it in the 27 party's own behalf on the former occasion or against the successor in 28 interest of such party; or (B) the issue is such that the adverse party on the 29 former occasion had the right and opportunity for cross-examination with 30 an interest and motive similar to that which the adverse party has in the 31 action in which the testimony is offered, but the provisions of this 32 subsection-(e) shall not apply in criminal actions if it denies to the accused 33 the right to meet the witness face to face.

34 (d) Contemporaneous statements and statements admissible on 35 ground of necessity generally. A statement which the judge finds was 36 made: (1) While the declarant was perceiving the event or condition which

3 if the declarant is unavailable as a witness, by the declarant at a time when 4 the matter had been recently perceived by the declarant and while the 5 declarant's recollection was clear and was made in good faith prior to the 6 commencement of the action and with no incentive to falsify or to distort.

7 (e) Dying declarations. A statement by a person unavailable as a 8 witness because of the person's death if the judge finds that it was made:

11 no hope of recovery.

12 (f) Confessions. In a criminal proceeding as against the accused, a 13 previous statement by the accused relative to the offense charged, but only

16 did; and (2) was not induced to make the statement: (A) Under compulsion 17 or by infliction or threats of infliction of suffering upon the accused or 18 another, or by prolonged interrogation under such circumstances as to 19 render the statement involuntary; or (B) by threats or promises concerning 20 action to be taken by a public official with reference to the crime, likely to 21 cause the accused to make such a statement falsely, and made by a person 22 whom the accused reasonably believed to have the power or authority to 23 execute the same.

24 (g) Admissions by parties. As against a party, a statement by the 25 person who is the party to the action in the person's individual or a

37 relationship; (2) the party and the declarant were participating in a plan to 38 commit a crime or a civil wrong and the statement was relevant to the plan 39 or its subject matter and was made while the plan was in existence and 40 before its complete execution or other termination; or (3) one of the issues 41 between the party and the proponent of the evidence of the statement is a 42 legal liability of the declarant, and the statement tends to establish that 43 liability.

1 (j) Declarations against interest. Subject to the limitations of the 2 exception in subsection (f), a statement which the judge finds was at the 3 time of the assertion so far contrary to the declarant's pecuniary or 4 proprietary interest or so far subjected the declarant to civil or criminal 5 liability or so far rendered invalid a claim by the declarant against another 6 or created such risk of making the declarant an object of hatred, ridicule or 7 social disapproval in the community that a reasonable person in the 8 declarant's position would not have made the statement unless the person 9 believed it to be true.

10 (k) Voter's statements. A statement by a voter concerning the voter's 11 qualifications to vote or the fact or content of the voter's vote.

21 relevant to an issue of declarant's bodily condition.

22 (m) Business entries and the like. Writings offered as memoranda or 23 records of acts, conditions or events to prove the facts stated therein, if ~~the~~
