

2020 Kansas Statutes

58-1019. Same; license fees; disposition of moneys. The applicant filing an application with the clerk for a license to conduct a public auction shall pay to the clerk of such county or city, as the case may be, in which the said application is made, a license fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) per day for each day that the applicant proposes to conduct a public auction. The clerk of such county or city, as the case may be, shall pay such license fees so collected into the county treasury or city treasury, as the case may be, and the said county treasurer or city treasurer shall credit all moneys so received by him or her to the county general fund or the city general fund.

History: L. 1961, ch. 265, § 6; July 1.