2021 Kansas Statutes

each parent ordered to pay child support. The journal entry or judgment form shall be entitled:  "In the matter of and"  (obligee's name) (obligor's name)  and shall contain no reference to the official file or social file in the case except the facts necessary to establish personal jurisdiction over the parent, the name and date of birth of each child and findings of fact and conclusions of law directly related to the child support obligation. If the court issues an income withholding order for the parent, the order shall be captioned in the same manner.	38-2320. Journal entry for child support. When child support is ordered pursuant to the revised Kansas juvenile justice code, a separate journal entry or judgment form shall be made for
"In the matter of and"  (obligee's name) (obligor's name)  and shall contain no reference to the official file or social file in the case except the facts necessary to establish personal jurisdiction over the parent, the name and date of birth of each child and findings of fact and conclusions of law directly related to the child support obligation. If the court issues an income withholding order for the parent, the order shall be captioned in the same manner.	each parent ordered to pay child support. The journal entry or judgment form shall be (obligee's name) (obligor's name) and shall contain no reference to the official file or social file in the case except the facts necessary to establish personal jurisdiction over the parent, the name and date of birth of each child and findings of fact and conclusions of law directly related to the child support obligation. If the court issues an income withholding order for the parent, the order shall be captioned in the same manner.	entitled:
and shall contain no reference to the official file or social file in the case except the facts necessary to establish personal jurisdiction over the parent, the name and date of birth of each child and findings of fact and conclusions of law directly related to the child support obligation. If the court issues an income withholding order for the parent, the order shall be captioned in the same manner.	"In the matter of and"
necessary to establish personal jurisdiction over the parent, the name and date of birth of each child and findings of fact and conclusions of law directly related to the child support obligation. If the court issues an income withholding order for the parent, the order shall be captioned in the same manner.	(obligee's name) (obligor's name)
each child and findings of fact and conclusions of law directly related to the child support obligation. If the court issues an income withholding order for the parent, the order shall be captioned in the same manner.	and shall contain no reference to the official file or social file in the case except the facts obligation. If the court issues an income withholding order for the parent, the order shall be captioned in the same manner.	necessary to establish personal jurisdiction over the parent, the name and date of birth of captioned in the same manner.	each child and findings of fact and conclusions of law directly related to the child support
•	obligation. If the court issues an income withholding order for the parent, the order shall be
History, I 2006 sh 160 $ 20 Ion 1 2007	captioned in the same manner.
History: L. 2006, Cit. 169, § 20, Jan. 1, 2007.	History: L. 2006, ch. 169, § 20; Jan. 1, 2007.