10 AN ACT concerning civil procedure; divorce and maintenance; postdi-11 vorce interlocutory child support orders; amending K.S.A. 2001 Supp.
12 60-1610 and repealing the existing section.

13
14 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Kansas:

15 Section 1. K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 60-1610 is hereby amended to read as 16 follows: 60-1610. A decree in an action under this article may include 17 orders on the following matters:

18 (a) Minor children. (1) Child support and education. The court shall 19 make provisions for the support and education of the minor children. The 20 court may modify or change any prior order, including any order issued 21 in a title IV-D case, within three years of the date of the original order 22 or a modification order, when a material change in circumstances is 23 shown, irrespective of the present domicile of the child or the parents. If 24 more than three years has passed since the date of the original order or 25 modification order, a material change in circumstance need not be shown.
26 The court may make a modification of child support retroactive to a date 27 at least one month after the date that the motion to modify was filed with 28 the court. Any increase in support ordered effective prior to the date the 29 court's judgment is filed shall not become a lien on real property pursuant 30 to K.S.A. 60-2202 and amendments thereto. Regardless of the type of 31 custodial arrangement ordered by the court, the court may order the child 32 support and education expenses to be paid by either or both parents for 33 any child less than 18 years of age, at which age the support shall ter-
34minate unless: (A) The parent or parents agree, by written agreement 35 approved by the court, to pay support beyond the time the child reaches 36 18 years of age; (B) the child reaches 18 years of age before completing 37 the child's high school education in which case the support shall not ter-38minate automatically, unless otherwise ordered by the court, until June 39 30 of the school year during which the child became 18 years of age if 40 the child is still attending high school; or (C) the child is still a bona fide 41 high school student after June 30 of the school year during which the 42 child became 18 years of age, in which case the court, on motion, may 43 order support to continue through the school year during which the child

1 becomes 19 years of age so long as the child is a bona fide high school 2 student and the parents jointly participated or knowingly acquiesced in 3 the decision which delayed the child's completion of high school. The 4 court, in extending support pursuant to subsection (a)(1)(C), may impose 5 such conditions as are appropriate and shall set the child support utilizing 6 the guideline table category for 16-year through 18-year old children.
7 Provision for payment of support and educational expenses of a child after 8 reaching 18 years of age if still attending high school shall apply to any 9 child subject to the jurisdiction of the court, including those whose sup-10 port was ordered prior to July 1, 1992. If an agreement approved by the 11 court prior to July 1, 1988, provides for termination of support before the 12 date provided by subsection (a)(1)(B), the court may review and modify 13 such agreement, and any order based on such agreement, to extend the 14 date for termination of support to the date provided by subsection 15 (a)(1)(B). If an agreement approved by the court prior to July 1, 1992, 16 provides for termination of support before the date provided by subsec-17 tion (a)(1)(C), the court may review and modify such agreement, and any 18 order based on such agreement, to extend the date for termination of 19 support to the date provided by subsection (a)(1)(C). For purposes of this 20 section, "bona fide high school student" means a student who is enrolled 21 in full accordance with the policy of the accredited high school in which 22 the student is pursuing a high school diploma or a graduate equivalency 23 diploma (GED). In determining the amount to be paid for child support, 24 the court shall consider all relevant factors, without regard to marital 25 misconduct, including the financial resources and needs of both parents, 26 the financial resources and needs of the child and the physical and emo-27 tional condition of the child. Until a child reaches 18 years of age, the 28 court may set apart any portion of property of either the husband or wife, 29 or both, that seems necessary and proper for the support of the child.
30 Except for good cause shown, every order requiring payment of child 31 support under this section shall require that the support be paid through 32 the central unit for collection and disbursement of support payments 33 designated pursuant to K.S.A. 23-4,118, and amendments thereto. A writ-34 ten agreement between the parties to make direct child support payments 35 to the obligee and not pay through the central unit shall constitute good 36 cause, unless the court finds the agreement is not in the best interest of 37 the child or children. The obligor shall file such written agreement with 38 the court. The obligor shall maintain written evidence of the payment of 39 the support obligation and, at least annually, shall provide such evidence 40 to the court and the obligee. If the divorce decree of the parties provides 41 for an abatement of child support during any period provided in such 42 decree, the child support such nonresidential parent owes for such period 43 shall abate during such period of time, except that if the residential parent

1 shows that the criteria for the abatement has not been satisfied there shall 2 not be an abatement of such child support.

3 (2) Child custody and residency. (A) Changes in custody. Subject to 4 the provisions of the uniform child custody jurisdiction and enforcement 5 act (K.S.A. 38-1336 through 38-1377, and amendments thereto), the 6 court may change or modify any prior order of custody, residency, visi-7 tation and parenting time, when a material change of circumstances is 8 shown, but no ex parte order shall have the effect of changing residency 9 of a minor child from the parent who has had the sole de facto residency 10 of the child to the other parent unless there is sworn testimony to support 11 a showing of extraordinary circumstances. If an interlocutory order is 12 issued ex parte, the court shall hear a motion to vacate or modify the 13 order within 15 days of the date that a party requests a hearing whether 14 to vacate or modify the order.

15 (B) Examination of parties. The court may order physical or mental 16 examinations of the parties if requested pursuant to K.S.A. 60-235 and 17 amendments thereto.

18 (3) Child custody or residency criteria. The court shall determine 19 custody or residency of a child in accordance with the best interests of 20 the child.

21 (A) If the parties have entered into a parenting plan, it shall be pre-22 sumed that the agreement is in the best interests of the child. This pre-23 sumption may be overcome and the court may make a different order if 24 the court makes specific findings of fact stating why the agreed parenting 25 plan is not in the best interests of the child.

26 (B) In determining the issue of child custody, residency and parent-27 ing time, the court shall consider all relevant factors, including but not 28 limited to:

29 (i) The length of time that the child has been under the actual care 30 and control of any person other than a parent and the circumstances 31 relating thereto;

32 (ii) the desires of the child's parents as to custody or residency;

33 (iii) the desires of the child as to the child's custody or residency;

34 (iv) the interaction and interrelationship of the child with parents, 35 siblings and any other person who may significantly affect the child's best 36 interests;

37 (v) the child's adjustment to the child's home, school and community;

38 (vi) the willingness and ability of each parent to respect and appre-39 ciate the bond between the child and the other parent and to allow for a 40 continuing relationship between the child and the other parent; and 41 (vii) evidence of spousal abuse.

42 Neither parent shall be considered to have a vested interest in the 43 custody or residency of any child as against the other parent, regardless

1 of the age of the child, and there shall be no presumption that it is in the 2 best interests of any infant or young child to give custody or residency to 3 the mother.

4 (4) Types of legal custodial arrangements. Subject to the provisions 5 of this article, the court may make any order relating to custodial arrange-6 ments which is in the best interests of the child. The order shall provide 7 one of the following legal custody arrangements, in the order of 8 preference:

9 (A) Joint legal custody. The court may order the joint legal custody 10 of a child with both parties. In that event, the parties shall have equal 11 rights to make decisions in the best interests of the child.

12 (B) Sole legal custody. The court may order the sole legal custody of 13 a child with one of the parties when the court finds that it is not in the 14 best interests of the child that both of the parties have equal rights to 15 make decisions pertaining to the child. If the court does not order joint 16 legal custody, the court shall include on the record specific findings of 17 fact upon which the order for sole legal custody is based. The award of 18 sole legal custody to one parent shall not deprive the other parent of 19 access to information regarding the child unless the court shall so order, 20 stating the reasons for that determination.

21 (5) Types of residential arrangements. After making a determination 22 of the legal custodial arrangements, the court shall determine the resi-23 dency of the child from the following options, which arrangement the 24 court must find to be in the best interest of the child. The parties shall 25 submit to the court either an agreed parenting plan or, in the case of 26 dispute, proposed parenting plans for the court's consideration. Such op-27 tions are:

28 (A) Residency. The court may order a residential arrangement in 29 which the child resides with one or both parents on a basis consistent 30 with the best interests of the child.

31 (B) Divided residency. In an exceptional case, the court may order a 32 residential arrangement in which one or more children reside with each 33 parent and have parenting time with the other.

34 (C) Nonparental residency. If during the proceedings the court de-35 termines that there is probable cause to believe that the child is a child 36 in need of care as defined by subsections (a)(1), (2) or (3) of K.S.A. 38-37 1502 and amendments thereto or that neither parent is fit to have resi-38 dency, the court may award temporary residency of the child to a grand-39 parent, aunt, uncle or adult sibling, or, another person or agency if the 40 court finds the award of custody to such person or agency is in the best 41 interests of the child. In making such a residency order, the court shall 42 give preference, to the extent that the court finds it is in the best interests 43 of the child, first to awarding such residency to a relative of the child by

1 blood, marriage or adoption and second to awarding such residency to 2 another person with whom the child has close emotional ties. The court 3 may make temporary orders for care, support, education and visitation 4 that it considers appropriate. Temporary residency orders are to be en-5 tered in lieu of temporary orders provided for in K.S.A. 38-1542 and 38-6 1543, and amendments thereto, and shall remain in effect until there is 7 a final determination under the Kansas code for care of children. An 8 award of temporary residency under this paragraph shall not terminate 9 parental rights nor give the court the authority to consent to the adoption 10 of the child. When the court enters orders awarding temporary residency 11 of the child to an agency or a person other than the parent, the court 12 shall refer a transcript of the proceedings to the county or district attor-13 ney. The county or district attorney shall file a petition as provided in 14 K.S.A. 38-1531 and amendments thereto and may request termination of 15 parental rights pursuant to K.S.A. 38-1581 and amendments thereto. The 16 costs of the proceedings shall be paid from the general fund of the county.
17 When a final determination is made that the child is not a child in need 18 of care, the county or district attorney shall notify the court in writing 19 and the court, after a hearing, shall enter appropriate custody orders 20 pursuant to this section. If the same judge presides over both proceedings, 21 the notice is not required. Any disposition pursuant to the Kansas code 22 for care of children shall be binding and shall supersede any order under 23 this section.

24 (b) Financial matters. (1) Division of property. The decree shall di-25 vide the real and personal property of the parties, including any retire-26 ment and pension plans, whether owned by either spouse prior to mar-27 riage, acquired by either spouse in the spouse's own right after marriage 28 or acquired by the spouses' joint efforts, by: (A) a division of the property 29 in kind; (B) awarding the property or part of the property to one of the 30 spouses and requiring the other to pay a just and proper sum; or (C) 31 ordering a sale of the property, under conditions prescribed by the court, 32 and dividing the proceeds of the sale. Upon request, the trial court shall 33 set a valuation date to be used for all assets at trial, which may be the 34 date of separation, filing or trial as the facts and circumstances of the case 35 may dictate. The trial court may consider evidence regarding changes in 36 value of various assets before and after the valuation date in making the 37 division of property. In dividing defined-contribution types of retirement 38 and pension plans, the court shall allocate profits and losses on the non-39 participant's portion until date of distribution to that nonparticipant. In 40 making the division of property the court shall consider the age of the 41 parties; the duration of the marriage; the property owned by the parties; 42 their present and future earning capacities; the time, source and manner 43 of acquisition of property; family ties and obligations; the allowance of 1 maintenance or lack thereof; dissipation of assets; the tax consequences 2 of the property division upon the respective economic circumstances of 3 the parties; and such other factors as the court considers necessary to 4 make a just and reasonable division of property. The decree shall provide 5 for any changes in beneficiary designation on: (A) Any insurance or an-6 nuity policy that is owned by the parties, or in the case of group life 7 insurance policies, under which either of the parties is a covered person; 8 (B) any trust instrument under which one party is the grantor or holds a 9 power of appointment over part or all of the trust assets, that may be 10 exercised in favor of either party; or (C) any transfer on death or payable 11 on death account under which one or both of the parties are owners or 12 beneficiaries. Nothing in this section shall relieve the parties of the ob-13 ligation to effectuate any change in beneficiary designation by the filing 14 of such change with the insurer or issuer in accordance with the terms 15 of such policy.

16 (2) Maintenance. The decree may award to either party an allowance 17 for future support denominated as maintenance, in an amount the court 18 finds to be fair, just and equitable under all of the circumstances. The 19 decree may make the future payments modifiable or terminable under 20 circumstances prescribed in the decree. The court may make a modifi-21 cation of maintenance retroactive to a date at least one month after the 22 date that the motion to modify was filed with the court. In any event, the 23 court may not award maintenance for a period of time in excess of 121 24 months. If the original court decree reserves the power of the court to 25 hear subsequent motions for reinstatement of maintenance and such a 26 motion is filed prior to the expiration of the stated period of time for 27 maintenance payments, the court shall have jurisdiction to hear a motion 28 by the recipient of the maintenance to reinstate the maintenance pay-29 ments. Upon motion and hearing, the court may reinstate the payments 30 in whole or in part for a period of time, conditioned upon any modifying 31 or terminating circumstances prescribed by the court, but the reinstate-32 ment shall be limited to a period of time not exceeding 121 months. The 33 recipient may file subsequent motions for reinstatement of maintenance 34 prior to the expiration of subsequent periods of time for maintenance 35 payments to be made, but no single period of reinstatement ordered by 36 the court may exceed 121 months. Maintenance may be in a lump sum, 37 in periodic payments, on a percentage of earnings or on any other basis.
38 At any time, on a hearing with reasonable notice to the party affected, 39 the court may modify the amounts or other conditions for the payment 40 of any portion of the maintenance originally awarded that has not already 41 become due, but no modification shall be made without the consent of 42 the party liable for the maintenance, if it has the effect of increasing or 43 accelerating the liability for the unpaid maintenance beyond what was 1 prescribed in the original decree. Except for good cause shown, every 2 order requiring payment of maintenance under this section shall require 3 that the maintenance be paid through the central unit for collection and 4 disbursement of support payments designated pursuant to K.S.A. 23-5 4,118, and amendments thereto. A written agreement between the parties 6 to make direct maintenance payments to the obligee and not pay through 7 the central unit shall constitute good cause. If child support and main-8 tenance payments are both made to an obligee by the same obligor, and 9 if the court has made a determination concerning the manner of payment 10 of child support, then maintenance payments shall be paid in the same 11 manner.

12 (3) Separation agreement. If the parties have entered into a separa-13 tion agreement which the court finds to be valid, just and equitable, the 14 agreement shall be incorporated in the decree. A separation agreement 15 may include provisions relating to a parenting plan. The provisions of the 16 agreement on all matters settled by it shall be confirmed in the decree 17 except that any provisions relating to the legal custody, residency, visita-18 tion parenting time, support or education of the minor children shall be 19 subject to the control of the court in accordance with all other provisions 20 of this article. Matters settled by an agreement incorporated in the de-21 cree, other than matters pertaining to the legal custody, residency, visita-22 tion, parenting time, support or education of the minor children, shall 23 not be subject to subsequent modification by the court except: (A) As 24 prescribed by the agreement or (B) as subsequently consented to by the 25 parties.

26 (4) Costs and fees. Costs and attorney fees may be awarded to either 27 party as justice and equity require. The court may order that the amount 28 be paid directly to the attorney, who may enforce the order in the attor-29 ney's name in the same case.

30 (c) Miscellaneous matters. (1) Restoration of name. Upon the request 31 of a spouse, the court shall order the restoration of that spouse's maiden 32 or former name.

33 (2) Effective date as to remarriage. Any marriage contracted by a 34 party, within or outside this state, with any other person before a judg-35 ment of divorce becomes final shall be voidable until the decree of divorce 36 becomes final. An agreement which waives the right of appeal from the 37 granting of the divorce and which is incorporated into the decree or 38 signed by the parties and filed in the case shall be effective to shorten 39 the period of time during which the remarriage is voidable.

40 (3) Postdivorce interlocutory child support orders. After a petition 41 for a de novo hearing or review of child support orders or modified child 42 support orders has been filed, the court shall establish and enforce by 43 attachment and under expedited processes temporary child support ob-

1 ligation in an amount not less than the amount established in the previous 2 action which gave rise to the filing of the petition for de novo hearing or 3 review. Such child support obligation shall remain in effect during the 4 pendency of the action unless revised by the court. Child support paid 5 under this temporary order shall be credited to the payors' child support 6 obligation. This shall be retroactive to the date of the filing of the petition 7 for de novo hearing or review. It shall be remembered that child support 8 is an obligation of the parents and a right of the minor child, which shall 9 not be abridged by the parents nor the court.

10 Sec. 2. K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 60-1610 is hereby repealed.

11 Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its 12 publication in the statute book.
