43 emergency medical technician.

1 (c) On and after January 1, 2001, An attendant's certificate shall expire on the date prescribed by the board. An attendant's certificate may 2 3 be renewed for a period of two years upon payment of a fee as prescribed by rule and regulation of the board and upon presentation of satisfactory 4 proof that the attendant has successfully completed continuing education $\mathbf{5}$ as prescribed by the board. The board may prorate to the nearest whole 6 7 month the fee fixed under this subsection as necessary to implement the 8 provisions of this subsection. 9 (d) (1) The emergency medical services board may issue a temporary certificate to any person who has not qualified for an attendant's certifi-10cate under paragraph (1) or (2) of subsection (a) when: 11 12 -(A) The operator for whom such person serves as an attendant re-13 quests a temporary certificate for that person; and 14(B) such person meets or exceeds certain minimum requirements 15 prescribed by the board by rules and regulations. A temporary certificate shall be effective for one year from the 16date of its issuance or until the person has qualified as an attendant under 1718paragraph (1) or (2) of subsection (a), whichever comes first. A temporary 19certificate shall not be renewed and shall be valid only while an attendant 20works for the operator requesting the temporary certificate. A person 21holding a temporary certificate as an emergency medical technician shall 22 not be eligible to apply for certification as an emergency medical tech-23 nician-intermediate, emergency medical technician-defibrillator or a mo-24 bile intensive care technician. 25(d) (1) The board may issue one temporary certificate to a person 26who does not meet the requirement in subsection (a)(2)(B) if the person: 27 Meets the requirement in subsection (a)(2)(A); and (A)pays a fee prescribed by the board. 28(B)29 (2)A temporary certificate shall expire at such time as final agency 30 action on the application for attendant certification or two years from the 31date of issuance of the temporary certificate, whichever occurs first. 32 (e) (1) Upon request by an operator to the board and upon approval by the board of such request, an applicant for certification may perform 33 34 activities that are within the authorized activities of the certification level 35 applied for, provided that the applicant: (A) Has successfully completed the appropriate course of instruction 36 37 for the level applied for a program of instruction approved by the board 38 for the classification of attendant's certificate for which application has 39 been made; 40 (B) serves with the ambulance service identified in this subsection 41(e); and 42is practicing under the direct supervision of a physician, physician (\mathbf{C}) 43 assistant, professional nurse or an attendant who is at or above the cer1 tification level for which the applicant has applied.

(2) The authority to perform activities under this subsection (e) shall terminate 120 days from the date of the last class or until the results of the first examination are received by the board, whichever comes first.
Such authority to practice shall not be renewed and shall be valid only while the applicant serves with the ambulance service identified in this subsection (e).
(f) All fees received pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be remitted to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K S A

9 remitted to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A.
10 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, 11 the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury
12 to the credit of the state general fund.

13 (g) If a person who was previously certified as an attendant applies 14 for an attendant's certificate within two years of the date of the certifi-15 cate's expiration, the board may grant a certificate without the person 16 completing a course of instruction or passing an examination if the person 17 has completed continuing education requirements and has paid a fee 18 prescribed by rules and regulations.
