

HOUSE BILL No. 2160

AN ACT concerning structured settlements; enacting the structured settlement protection act.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Kansas:

Section 1. For purposes of this act: (a) “Annuity issuer” means an insurer that has issued a contract to fund periodic payments under a structured settlement.

(b) “Dependents” include a payee’s spouse and minor children and all other persons for whom the payee is legally obligated to provide support, including alimony.

(c) “Discounted present value” means the present value of future payments determined by discounting such payments to the present using the most recently published applicable federal rate for determining the present value of an annuity, as issued by the United States internal revenue service.

(d) “Gross advance amount” means the sum payable to the payee or for the payee’s account as consideration for a transfer of structured settlement payment rights before any reductions for transfer expenses or other deductions to be made from such consideration.

(e) “Independent professional advice” means advice of an attorney, certified public accountant, actuary or other licensed professional adviser.

(f) “Interested parties” means, with respect to any structured settlement, the payee, any beneficiary irrevocably designated under the annuity contract to receive payments following the payee’s death, the annuity issuer, the structured settlement obligor and any other party that has continuing rights or obligations under such structured settlement.

(g) “Net advance amount” means the gross advance amount less the aggregate amount of the actual and estimated transfer expenses required to be disclosed under subsection (e) of section 2 and amendments thereto.

(h) “Payee” means an individual who receives tax free payments under a structured settlement and proposes to make a transfer of payment rights thereunder.

(i) “Periodic payments” include both recurring payments and scheduled future lump sum payments.

(j) “Qualified assignment agreement” means an agreement providing for a qualified assignment within the meaning of section 130 of the United States internal revenue code.

(k) “Responsible administrative authority” means, with respect to a structured settlement, any government authority vested by law with exclusive jurisdiction over the settled claim resolved by such structured settlement.

(l) “Settled claim” means the original tort claim resolved by a structured settlement.

(m) “Structured settlement” means an arrangement for periodic payment of damages for personal injuries or sickness established by settlement or judgment in resolution of a tort claim.

(n) “Structured settlement agreement” means the agreement, judgment, stipulation or release embodying the terms of a structured settlement.

(o) “Structured settlement obligor” means, with respect to any structured settlement, the party that has the continuing obligation to make periodic payments to the payee under a structured settlement agreement or a qualified assignment agreement.

(p) “Structured settlement payment rights” means rights to receive periodic payments under a structured settlement, whether from the structured settlement obligor or the annuity issuer, where:

(1) The payee is domiciled in this state or the domicile or principal place of business of the structured settlement obligor or the annuity issuer is located in this state;

(2) the structured settlement agreement was approved by a court or responsible administrative authority in this state; or

(3) the structured settlement agreement is expressly governed by the laws of this state.

(q) “Terms of the structured settlement” include the terms of the structured settlement agreement, the annuity contract, any qualified assignment agreement and any order or other approval of any court or responsible administrative authority or other government authority that authorized or approved such structured settlement.

(r) “Transfer” means any sale, assignment, pledge, hypothecation or other alienation or encumbrance of structured settlement payment rights made by a payee for consideration. Transfer does not include the creation or perfection of a security interest in structured settlement payment rights under a blanket security agreement entered into with an insured depository institution, in the absence of any action to redirect the structured settlement payments to such insured depository institution, or an agent or successor in interest thereof, or otherwise to enforce such blanket security interest against the structured settlement payment rights.

(s) “Transfer agreement” means the agreement providing for a transfer of structured settlement payment rights.

(t) “Transfer expenses” means all expenses of a transfer that are required under the transfer agreement to be paid by the payee or deducted from the gross advance amount, including, without limitation, court filing fees, attorneys fees, escrow fees, lien recordation fees, judgment and lien search fees, finders’ fees, commissions and other payments to a broker or other intermediary. Transfer expenses do not include any preexisting obligations of the payee payable for the payee’s account from the proceeds of a transfer.

(u) “Transferee” means a party acquiring or proposing to acquire structured settlement payment rights through a transfer.

Sec. 2. The transferee shall provide to the payee a separate disclosure statement not less than three days prior to the date on which a payee signs a transfer agreement. Such disclosure statement shall set forth in bold type no smaller than 14 points:

(a) The amounts and due dates of the structured settlement payments to be transferred.

(b) The aggregate amount of such payments.

(c) The discounted present value of the payments to be transferred, which shall be identified as the calculation of current value of the transferred structured settlement payments under federal standards for valuing annuities, and the amount of the applicable federal rate used in calculating such discounted present value.

(d) The gross advance amount.

(e) An itemized listing of all applicable transfer expenses, other than attorneys’ fees and related disbursements payable in connection with the transferee’s application for approval of the transfer, and the transferee’s best estimate of the amount of any such fees and disbursements.

(f) The net advance amount.

(g) The amount of any penalties or liquidated damages payable by the payee in the event of any breach of the transfer agreement by the payee.

(h) A statement that the payee has the right to cancel the transfer agreement, without penalty or further obligation, not later than the third business day after the date the agreement is signed by the payee.

Sec. 3. (a) No direct or indirect transfer of structured settlement payment rights shall be effective and no structured settlement obligor or annuity issuer shall be required to make any payment directly or indirectly to any transferee of structured settlement payment rights unless the transfer has been approved in advance in a final court order or order of a responsible administrative authority based on express findings by such court or responsible administrative authority that the:

(1) Transfer is in the best interest of the payee, taking into account the welfare and support of the payee’s dependents;

(2) payee has been advised in writing by the transferee to seek independent professional advice regarding the transfer and has either received such advice or knowingly waived such advice in writing; and

(3) transfer does not contravene any applicable statute or the order of any court or other government authority.

Sec. 4. Following a transfer of structured settlement payment rights under this act: (a) The structured settlement obligor and the annuity issuer shall be discharged and released from any and all liability for the transferred payments as to all parties except the transferee.

(b) The transferee shall be liable to the structured settlement obligor and the annuity issuer:

(1) If the transfer contravenes the terms of the structured settlement, for any taxes incurred by such parties as a consequence of the transfer; and

(2) for any other liabilities or costs, including reasonable costs and attorneys' fees, arising from compliance by such parties with the order of the court or responsible administrative authority or arising as a consequence of the transferee's failure to comply with this act.

(c) Neither the annuity issuer nor the structured settlement obligor may be required to divide any periodic payment between the payee and any transferee or assignee or between two or more transferees or assignees.

(d) Any further transfer of structured settlement payment rights by the payee may be made only after compliance with all of the requirements of this act.

Sec. 5. (a) An application for approval of a transfer of structured settlement payment rights shall be made by the transferee and may be brought in:

- (1) The county in which the payee resides;
- (2) the county in which the structured settlement obligor or the annuity issuer maintains its principal place of business; or
- (3) any court or before any responsible administrative authority which approved the structured settlement agreement.

(b) The transferee shall file with the court or responsible administrative authority and serve on all interested parties a notice of the proposed transfer and the application for its authorization not less than 20 days prior to the scheduled hearing on any application for approval of a transfer of structured settlement payment rights under section 3 and amendments thereto. Such notice shall include:

- (1) A copy of the transferee's application;
- (2) a copy of the transfer agreement;
- (3) a copy of the disclosure statement required under section 2 and amendments thereto;
- (4) a listing of each of the payee's dependents, together with each dependent's age;
- (5) notification that any interested party is entitled to support, oppose or otherwise respond to the transferee's application, either in person or by counsel, by submitting written comments to the court or responsible administrative authority or by participating in the hearing; and
- (6) notification of the time and place of the hearing and notification of the manner in which and the time, which shall not be less than 15 days after service of the transferee's notice, by which written responses to the application must be filed in order to be considered by the court or responsible administrative authority.

Sec. 6. (a) The provisions of this act may not be waived by any payee.

(b) Any transfer agreement entered into by a payee who resides in this state on or after the effective date of this act shall provide that disputes under such transfer agreement, including any claim that the payee has breached the agreement, shall be determined in and under the laws of this state. No such transfer agreement shall authorize the transferee or any other party to confess judgment or consent to entry of judgment against the payee.

(c) No transfer of structured settlement payment rights shall extend to any payments that are life-contingent unless, prior to the date on which the payee signs the transfer agreement, the transferee has established and has agreed to maintain procedures reasonably satisfactory to the annuity issuer and the structured settlement obligor for:

- (1) Periodically confirming the payee's survival; and
- (2) giving the annuity issuer and the structured settlement obligor prompt written notice in the event of the payee's death.

(d) No payee who proposes to make a transfer of structured settlement payment rights shall incur any penalty, forfeit any application fee or other payment, or otherwise incur any liability to the proposed transferee or any assignee based on any failure of such transfer to satisfy the conditions of this act.

(e) No provision of this act shall be construed to authorize any transfer of structured settlement payment rights in contravention of any law or to imply the validity of any transfer under a transfer agreement entered into prior to the effective date of this act.

(f) Compliance with the requirements of section 2, and amendments thereto, and fulfillment of the conditions of section 3, and amendments thereto, shall be solely the responsibility of the transferee in any transfer of structured settlement payment rights. Neither the structured settlement obligor nor the annuity issuer shall bear any responsibility for, or any liability arising from, non-compliance with such requirements or failure to fulfill such conditions.

Sec. 7. (a) Sections 1 through 7, and amendments thereto, shall be known as and may be cited as the structured settlement protection act.

(b) No provision of this act shall apply to any settlement of any claim for or award of workers compensation.

Sec. 8. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the statute book.
