House Concurrent Resolution No. 5020

By Committee on Appropriations

3-2

A PROPOSITION to amend section 8 of article 2 of the constitution of the state of Kansas, relating to the duration of sessions of the legislature.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Section 8 of article 2 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"§ 8. Organization and sessions. The legislature shall meet in regular session annually commencing on the second Monday in January, and all sessions shall be held at the state capital. The duration of each regular sessions held in even-numbered years session shall not exceed ninety eighty-eight calendar days. Each such sessions session may be extended beyond ninety eighty-eight calendar days by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the a majority of all members elected (or appointed) and qualified to each house, except that no regular session can be extended by more than two calendar days. Bills and concurrent resolutions under consideration by the legislature upon adjournment of a regular session held in an odd-numbered year may be considered at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year, as if there had been no such adjournment.

The legislature shall be organized concurrently with the terms of representatives except that the senate shall remain organized during the terms of senators. The president of the senate shall preside over the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives shall preside over the house of representatives. A majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified of the house of representatives or the senate shall constitute a quorum of that house. Neither house, without the consent of the other, shall adjourn for more than two days, Sundays excepted. Each house shall elect its presiding officer and determine the rules of its proceedings, except that the two houses may adopt joint rules on certain matters and provide for the manner of change thereof. Each house shall provide for the expulsion or censure of members in appropriate cases. Each house shall be the judge of elections, returns and qualifications of its own members."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to limit the duration of the annual regular sessions of the Kansas legislature. It imposes a limit of eighty-eight calendar days for each regular session. It removes the existing limit of ninety calendar days which applies only to regular sessions held in even-numbered years and the existing provision allowing extension of such sessions beyond ninety calendar days by a vote of two-thirds of the members of each house. This amendment would permit the legislature to extend the regular session beyond the eighty-eighth calendar day by the vote of a majority vote of all members of each house. Such extension could not be for more than two calendar days.

"A vote for this proposition would limit the duration of each regular session of the Kansas legislature to eighty-eight calendar days. Each such session could be extended by the legislature for not to exceed two calendar days by a majority vote of all members of each house.

"A vote against this proposition would continue in effect the current provision which limits only the regular sessions held in evennumbered years to ninety calendar days and the existing provision allowing extension of such sessions beyond ninety calendar days by a vote of two-thirds of the members of each house."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2008 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.
