

Journal of the House

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Friday, February 23, 2001, 8:30 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Glasscock in the chair.
The roll was called with 124 members present.
Rep. Flaharty was excused on verified illness.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Dr. Jim C. Dunkin, pastor, First Presbyterian Church, and guest of Rep. Sloan:

Gracious God, we pause at the beginning of this new day to give you thanks for your remarkable creation and your loving guidance to all of us. Remind each one in this room of the responsibility that has been entrusted to them by the people of our state. Somehow, O God, allow the voices of those in significant need to be heard as issues are wrestled with this day. Give courage to those who take a stand, and give grace to those who change their views through meaningful debate. Pour out your wisdom upon the women and men who meet here today. And as this day comes to a close enable each one to leave knowing they have done their best to discern what is best for all who will be affected by the decisions they make. So now as we begin, we offer all that we are to you, O God, so that right and truth may prevail throughout our wonderful state of Kansas. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. J. Williams.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2102. The contract clause of the U.S. Constitution, Article 1, Section 10, prohibits states from passing legislation that would impair contracts. If a state is going to pass such legislation, the state must show an overwhelming social or economic interest. There is no such overwhelming social or economic need for legislation that would allow the legislature to impair the rights to contract.

The "unfair trade practices" outlined in this bill are currently included in the Federal Packers and Stockyards Act and in state law.

This bill establishes an additional layer of regulations that may cause unintended consequences.—DAN JOHNSON, DON DAHL, STANLEY DREHER, JOANN FREEBORN, MARY COMPTON, SHARON SCHWARTZ

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: The House committee responsible for HB 2193 has assured me the requirement for the payday loan notice to be printed in a native language to insure a proper understanding on the part of the borrower will be implemented by rules and regulations adopted by the Commissioner, and my original amendment adopted by the Committee of the Whole on February 7, 2001, is now therefore not necessary and omitted. Because I know I would not have been given such assurance were that not to happen when this bill becomes law, I gave HB 2193 my support without further need for amendment.—WARD LOYD

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: While I understand the reasoning for this project, I do not believe it is a higher priority than funding K-12 education. Nor do I believe it justifies a tax increase. This is a good idea for a different year with different revenues. I respectfully vote no on HB 2455.—DAN WILLIAMS

MR. SPEAKER: I reluctantly vote no on HB 2455. According to a national study by the National Research Council, the majority of our colleges' research is aimed at improving the output and productivity of crop production. Production alone isn't helping the "bottom line" of our farmers. Forty-five percent of our Kansas farmers need to work off the farm at least 100 days each year in order to make ends meet.

Our efforts to help farmers have to be balanced. Direct assistance through grants and low interest loans help promote small agri-business survive and grow. HB 2468 attempts to promote more development of small "value added" agri-business. Farmers need direct, immediate assistance.—DANIEL J. THIMESCH

If this legislature fails to pass meaningful workforce development legislation, then I am afraid this name change will be more about style and less about substance. Let's not let this happen.—JIM GARNER
