THIRD DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, January 15, 2003—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Dave Kerr.
The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present.
Senator Corbin was excused.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

I remember how my Grandfather used to “saucer” his coffee. When the coffee was too hot, he would pour some of it from the cup into the saucer, shake it around and then drink from the saucer.

I read a prayer last summer by an unknown author who combined “saucing” with that verse in the 23rd Psalm which says, “My cup runneth over” or “My cup overflows”, depending on which version you are reading. I am borrowing this idea for this prayer which seems to me a good thing to remember as we face a difficult session:

I'm not a wealthy person,
Nor a famous movie star;
And I rarely have the pleasure
Of eating caviar.

Sometimes the harvest has been lean,
But I've reaped more than I've sowed;
So I'm drinking from my saucer
'Cause my cup has overflowed.

I've won no beauty contest,
Nor a Pulitzer Prize;
And I hardly stand a chance
Of being canonized.

But You're always there to help me
Bear my heavy load;
So I'm drinking from my saucer
'Cause my cup has overflowed.

In many ways I'm not as good
As others seem to be;
But the fact of the matter is, O God,
That doesn't bother me.

I even count my blessings
When my balance has zeroed;
And I'm drinking from my saucer
'Cause my cup has overflowed.

For as long as You are with me, Lord,
 As I walk life's bumpy road;
 I'm drinking from my saucer
 'Cause my cup has overflowed.

I pray in the Name of Christ,

AMEN
