

Journal of the Senate

FIFTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Friday, January 14, 2005—8:30 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with twenty-seven senators present.
Senators Allen, Barnett, Brownlee, Brungardt, Donovan, Gilstrap, Haley, Jordan, McGinn Schodorf, Taddiken, Teichman and Wagle were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

On the occasion of the birthday anniversary of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. our thoughts turn to the status of race relations in our country.

A great deal of progress has been made since I was a child of white parents in a small town in the deep south.

We had to use separate restrooms, separate water fountains, separate restaurants, separate motels, even separate churches. The only contact the two races had were between employer and employee. There was absolutely no socializing.

Because of the law today we have no forced segregation. But the law cannot force people to socialize. And I have seen very little socializing between blacks and whites at home around the dinner table. They may work together but seldom break bread together. You have told us to love our neighbor, and you did not specify any color or race.

You have made it clear that Godly love is a decision, not a feeling. Help us, O God, to make that decision.

I pray this is the Name of Your only begotten Son, whom You gave because You love us, that we might have everlasting life. (John 3:16)

AMEN
