

Journal of the Senate

TENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, January 24, 2005—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-seven senators present.
Senators Brownlee, Brungardt and Wagle were excused.
President Morris introduced as guest chaplain, Rev. Jerre Nolte, Grace United Methodist Church, Winfield, Kansas, who delivered the invocation:

Heavenly Father,

Eternal Spirit, we gather today among the pillars of justice and mercy. We welcome your amazing grace upon this hour, not for this hour's sake, but rather that calmness, justice, and hospitality might prevail. Our work needs to be done with joy, fidelity, honesty, hope and kindness because we have met you here.

We yearn for a sensitive spirit that tears down walls of discrimination, pride, and oppression. Make our hearts open to mercy, our minds open to rational thought and our doors open to all people as they live and love differently than we do.

And now, Guiding Light, breathe into these elected leaders of the Kanza prairie, the strength of character that they may stand steadfast against prejudice, hatred, and contempt that far too often creep into our soul. May their vision stay clear to see all the beauty and their ears be attuned to hear the cry of the needy, wounded, and alienated people of the southwind.

For the kingdom, power, and glory are yours.

Amen.
